

LUCERNE AN ANGEL OF LIGHT

(Lucerne:)

It's the Light. It's the Light that is always the Greater. When you let the light into your heart and mind, the darkness will flee of itself. But you must continually be opening yourself up to It. You must be constantly flooding your mind with the good—good thoughts, loving thoughts, thoughts of the spirit, and thoughts of the Keys. Your minds must be pure if you are to be the conduits of the Last Days. You must give your mind to us every day, every second. You must fight to put off a reprobate mind and put on the mind of Christ. You do this by becoming one with your Savior, by spending time with Him in the bed of His love being filled with His seeds of light, His golden seeds that will illumine your spirit and cause you to be filled with His brightness. Let the Father of Lights into your body, and let His ministering spirits, which are as a flame of fire, into you, so that we may warm you and shield you from the bitter cold and darkness of the Tribulation to come.

The darkness of the end has now descended upon this world. It has come in like a flood and has washed away so many of the earth into great, inky blackness. And now the vile waters sit upon this planet stagnating and turning rotten all those who are trapped in them, all those who see not the Light and do not reach in their hearts for higher ground. Above the floods is where you must be, above the dark waters; upon the mountain bright is where you must stay. You must focus on the Light and the Light alone. You must do as your Savior did and focus on the power of heaven, the power of the Light. For you will be called to go out from the mountain to seek and save those still caught in the foul waves. And when you do this, you will encounter great evil, great perversion, and great sickness of spirit. But you mustn't let these things cling to you—you mustn't give them place in your mind. For if you do, the evil will cause you to faint in your mind.

I want to help you be filled with Light. I wish to teach you how to focus on the power, to focus on the Light and not on the darkness that surrounds you. I want to so fill you with Light that the darkness will not be able to lay its hands on you, lest it be burned and seared by the White Fire of God! I wish to place this ball of fire—which I hold—into your being, your spirit, so that it may consume the chaff and stubble of carnality that still lingers in your mind. I want to make you into the Pillars of God, the Pillars of Fire that led the Children of Israel through the Red Sea, through the wilderness, and into the Promised Land of the Spirit World. For ye must lead this people of the end, this last generation of the world who float along in the dark waters, who will soon be consumed by the sea serpent, that snake who has been let loose on this world, that piercing serpent who wishes to pierce and prick and jab all the inhabitants of the earth with his needles and injections and his so-called vaccinations—his Mark.
