The Spiritual Cave

The enemy has set the world on a course of total chaos, of confusion, of bending time "…And think to change times and laws…" (Daniel 7:25) He tries to convince people they have time to do as they please all the while confusing them that they have to hurry if they want more. It is as the magician wielding a stick of illusion in front of the audience that goes "ooh and ahh" at his tricks. That is why you are entering the cave more and dwelling in the secret place of the Most High where I enlighten you and show you secrets the world can't handle because they are not of Me. They dwell in the valley. You are on the Mountain. They dwell in darkness. You are in the light in My cave, away from earth's noise and clatter. They stumble and fall because they walk in darkness, but you have My light to lighten your way.

You've stepped out of the system and into this cave with Me by faith. It wasn't some wild idea you had; it was My request. You obeyed; therefore you can be assured that I will supply every need you come across. You are right in the center of My will. That is why you feel safe and confident that you will be supplied from My hand. Stay here; this is the spiritual wilderness spoken of in Revelation 12.

Stay with Me, My loves; stay with Me behind the veil in the land of the eternal now, where the mud men city dwellers cannot find you. Here in our cave you are safe with Me, your abominable snowman.
If you go outside our cave, you will get lost like all those dwelling in the land of here and now, of flesh and carnal reasoning and ways of man. All blind mice are they. It's all so white out there. Snow blindness it is, too white and glary. Down, down, down they go; beyond the white magic snow and deeper into the mud and mire; leave them now.
Close that door and come inside with Me. This cave is the door to the future. This cave is your ticket away from the madness of mice and men, whose plans all grow algae. Your faith to leave that body and those earthly cares is gained here in the spirit through My wonderful Word, imbibing and believing and obeying and living. If you have to go out there for some reason, then the secret again is to stay in your cave. You do this by walking in the spirit, not seeing the physical but seeing the spiritual.

Play your parts, My loves. Play your part as My prophets of the End who have been called to go deep into their caves to live on the wild honey of My Word, wrapped in the sackcloth of sacrifice. This is a special calling—one that requires absolute dedication. You must forsake all to be in this cave.

Jesus has called us soldiers, and soldiers have to do what their Commander in Chief tells them to do. If He says go into that cave and sacrifice for the rest of your days on earth, then that is what a loyal soldier does.

We cannot stress enough the importance of staying in your caves. We know how strong the pull is from the cave's mouth. There is a lot of action out there, lightning, thunder, rocks being rent, and wind howling. It's a political hurricane –the collapse of a world power and the rising of another.
To be a part of all this action, all you have to do is stay in those caves and do what you're being ordained to do. You have a big part in what is happening outside the cave mouth, so stay put and keep stirring that storm with your Savior.

Prayer Is Your Ministry

I've called you to a very humble ministry. It's out of sight, bringing no glory to you. That's why people like to think that someone sitting in a prayer chair is doing little to nothing. It takes great humility and a lot of endurance just to sit in that cave with all your drones lined up, ready to be deployed on their different missions. You have weaponized drones, medical drones, and supply drones. Each one, before being sent, is prayed over. You insert a Key or two, and then you sit down in your drone-pilot chair and direct it to its target.

Do you want to fulfill the destiny God gave you? Then get deep into your cave and pray for these Endtime events, these mysteries of God, to escalate.

There is only one way to push these Endtime events to their conclusion and that is through prayer. You are all I have to fight the battle of the End, I don't want you to leave your cave unless under express permission. You have gone down the rabbit hole and that is where I expect you to stay.

Spirit helper: So much depends on your prayers. You've been told that we need ammunition up here to fight the battles we need to fight, and it is your Key-powered prayers that are giving us the ammunition we need.

The total destruction of the Antichrist and his forces and all the power of evil and Satan himself will come forth from this wilderness cave, only through the power of prayer.

You begin the charge; it is your prayers that reset the course of history and turn it God's way. You are fighting on the front lines of battle by praying in your cave. Don't ever let down your guard and become complacent, because that is what the enemy is looking for—an unguarded moment when you let down your defense or ease up on your offensive.

This is the enemy's last-ditch attempt to change the path your prayers have driven him on. He is in the tunnel of the End, and there is no escape. Your enemy is desperate, insane and in great wrath as he sees the flames of his end drawing nearer. He must defeat you, either physically, spiritually or both. That is why he attacks you in your mind, for I have hedged great and mighty angels around your city of light. He has made a number of failed physical attacks, now he has been given permission to attack your minds with doubts, discouragement and despair. He uses those within your own ranks to dissuade you, to get you wondering if you are indeed doing the right thing: giving your life to such a dubious venture as sitting in your cave praying for people and situations that you know little to nothing about. He tempts you with thoughts of giving up the fight by telling you that it is not even your fight, that this should be someone else's responsibility. He tells you that you could easily slip away and no one would know or even miss you. He whispers in your ear that this is not some great crusade you are on, that prayer is just some hopeless exercise that isn't really moving anything let alone changing the course of history for eternity. The Devil is using the same tactics on you as he used on Me.

He sees change blowing, and he is anxious to do as much damage as he can as his puny attempts hit a wall. Your prayers are causing his efforts to backfire. He misses his target as the mighty force of the Keys hits him back. That is why staying in your caves and praying fervently is what I called My Brides to be doing at this hour.

You heeded My admonitions and you followed Me up the mountain and into the cave of the wilderness where we now make love and fly to Heavenly places. Now My lovers, it is time for the last few final pushes on the dominoes and tugs on that heart string that's planted deeply in the heart of The Beast; a few prayer-powered tugs will tear The Beast's black heart right out of his chest.

Material man is always under-playing the power of prayer and the weapons of the spirit. If he can't see it, touch it or feel it, he thinks that nothing has been accomplished. So to material man someone sitting down in a cave praying is a big waste of time. That is why I've been unable to get but a few people to do what you are doing. Even amongst the Children of David, there are very few who fully understand this principle of giving of themselves wholly to prayer and prophecy. It takes great faith to believe that you are accomplishing something far greater this way than building some "great work in the flesh." What has to be accomplished now in the short time that is left in this era of man cannot be bound by time. My workers must be unshackled by the limitations of time and space, the two-dimensional world of the flatlander.

It‘s so hard to fade into the darkness of the cave and really be nothing. Just to pray and disappear. Just to stand there and let Him shine and be glorified and let Him do it His way. That‘s what being a Blue angel is like.

The whistle has blown, and those on this side of the veil have sounded the alarm, while you have heard the call and are deeper in the cave with Me in prayer, in solitude, for this moment that must come to pass for all My words to fulfill their place in history.

The history of this planet will be written according to what you are praying today. If you pray the right prayers today, the days will be shortened and the End will come in your generation, as was promised in the Words of David.

I would that all true Christians be in their caves doing what the Warrior Band are doing. For in truth, what needs to be accomplished now can only be accomplished from within the spirit world. No matter how large a conventional army, they would not be able to achieve what a handful of prayer warriors can accomplish in a fraction of the time. Even if that army were given a thousand years, they would only fail where those few spirit warriors succeeded.

It says that unless those days be shortened, then no flesh will survive, so your Cave time is vitally important —praying for the End to come. If you don’t pray and enter into the spirit where there is no time, then no man will be left.

This calling that I have called you to is a high calling, a very high calling, but it is this calling that will win the day, if you can but stay in your cave and apply the Seven Thunders. It takes great great faith to sit in a cave praying day after day, not many people want to do it. Do you?

The Cave Is A Portal To the Spirit World

The “Cave” that is often talked about in prophecy is the “Closet” that Jesus talked about—a place of the spirit where you go to commune with spiritual beings. They are somewhat like the “Wardrobe” in Narnia; all are spiritual portals that open out in worlds beyond this material realm.

Of course, we can travel the universe together when you come to Me in our cave; yet again, that is up to you, as to how much you desire Me above the emptiness of the world around you.

You may be in a cave but I assure you that cave is moving through the spiritual world of wonders and all you have to do is look out the portal at the back of the cave –not the cave’s mouth, but the portal at the back of the cave– and there you will see the wonders that God and your Lover have waiting for you.

My voice is but a whisper and like a whisper it is soft and reassuring, gently leading you deeper into the Wilderness, to the back of the cave where the portal to the next world lies.

If you believe, then come take our hand and let’s pass on through the back of the cave and into the world of the Spiritual Wilderness where all these things are the reality that Satan is trying with his last breath to blow away.

I can feel your frustration as you examine the back of the cave. I hear you whisper, “Solid—solid as rock.” But I see that you won’t give up trying to find a way through that wall. You know in your heart that there is a whole new world on the other side of that wall—your blue angel keeps telling you there is—so there’s no way you’re going to turn around and leave this cave. And even though the rest of the cave is beautiful and exciting to explore, you want to go deeper; you want to get past that wall.

Well, do you remember in Lewis' book how the children got through the wardrobe and into Narnia? They didn't try, they didn't struggle—it just opened to them. When they checked out the wardrobe with their carnal minds and magnifying glasses, the back was solid. But when they weren't expecting it, when they were forced to leave their carnal minds outside, then the back of that wardrobe turned into a portal.
To get through that wall at the back of My cave, you must leave your carnal mind at the entrance. And I am willing to try forcing you into situations to help you do it. You see, you can't muster up the "spiritualness" to go deeper with Me into the cave—it has to be Me working through you. It has to be Me leading you by the hand, or, as is portrayed in the video, your blue angel.
And you can't use your carnal mind! You must not think about what you are doing, you must not expect anything. You must leave yourself open, you must yield your heart and mind to Me, you must use the keys, and you must believe. To get through that wall, it's going to take key power. And the keys will only work properly for those who follow My will—who have no will of their own.
To come this deep, you have to let go of what you know. And even though it is so little, it is still enough to stop you from getting through that wall.

The flesh cannot enter the spirit world; it is of no profit, but a carcass that's doffed at the door—to then free your spirit to enter the veil. However, without the Keys, the portal through which the spirit passes will not open. It is obvious, therefore, that unless you are using the Keys each step of the way, you simply cannot pass through the back of the cave.

Imbibe the Keys and they will open the back wall of the cave and you will enter even deeper into a world that is never the same, always a mystery and forever eternal, a world that truly feeds the soul, heart, mind and spirit of man.

To stay in the spirit and accomplish what needs to be done in the spirit, you must keep your eyes on Me and this world behind the veil. I know it is a great sacrifice for the flesh, but if you can always remind yourself the flesh profits nothing and what is done in the flesh will never compare to what can be done in the spirit. Hold on and keep fighting to stay in this world. Satan is fighting you because you are doing to him what a million years of good works in the flesh could never do. I created this time warp for you and called it "time no more" or "shortening of time". I've moved you out of the world and into your caves to do what cannot be done in the flesh. And as I said, it takes great faith to stand where you stand today, but to stay in this timeless zone you have to feed on those elements that make this all possible. The Word, The Keys and Me…the three vital elements.

So many times now, in your early morning cave time, you have been so engrossed and steeped in the Word, so lost in its depths, that when you look at the clock and see how late it is, you are shocked. What seemed like a moment was actually hours. Time has no hold on you whilst you are deep in the Spirit. You need to pass into that spiritual zone, that realm, the fifth dimension, your special place where Satan can't touch you. He can only get at you in this earthly realm of time. That's why he fights you so when it is time to get up in the morning, or any time you want to slip behind the veil, he throws out his distractions & snares to trap you.

It is not possible to fight and overcome the enemy and guide the Final Key into the barrier when outside the cave. This is spiritual warfare at its fiercest, and to win you must fight it behind the veil with the weapons of the spirit. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to My remnant.

Our Bed of Love Is At the Back of the Cave

So come now and learn as Madame Guyon learned; that the loveliest things of earth are only a wisp of vapor when compared to what I would give you in our bed of love at the back of the cave.

No, My sweet, I am not coming to you at the entrance; you have to come to Me back here. It's dark and cozy, and I have a small candle burning beside the bed. This is where we will lie until the calamity has over-passed.

Is this thing that I am asking of you too hard? Is it difficult for you to pull back from the cave's mouth and into the darkness with Me? I know the view out there is wonderful, it is green with so many interesting things happening. But I've told you that it is not your place now. Your place is with Me, not out there; concerning yourself with the things of the world.

Going deeper into the cave is going deeper into Me.

Keep away from the cave's mouth, as I have told you many times. I need you here with Me up close and personal.

You are My lover when you stay in you cave. Those that heard My call and came up into the cave with Me are My beloved bride.

Don't go out there looking for truth; stay in this cave with Me. I have the water that never runs dry or leaves you thirsty. I am the way, the truth, and the life.

I want you feeling and knowing the raw energy of spending time alone in the cave with Me.

Do not allow the annoying little flies of everyday living to take away the time you are meant to spend here with Me in the back of the cave.

It's kind of like being in the world but not of the world. You are in your cave enjoying My fellowship, but you are aware that the world is right outside that window.

The world of the spirit is a wonderful yet mysterious world. And as I have said many times before, it all starts right here in this restaurant cave with Me.

Do you want to leave that cave in a secret rapture? It's done in the spirit. Just slip off that gown and slip into our big double bed, and we'll go to it. We'll all fly in the orgasms of the spirit. Here's the Key to My cave door; I'm sure you already know it. "When you are linked with the Keys of Rapture, I will touch you all over, make you feel so good inside, and drive you nearly crazy with My love and the orgasms of the spirit." It's yours for the taking, cause I cannot be making, in sweet kisses or on that lake be skating, when on My skis I'll be taking, you into My realm.

As the days darken, more and more noise will try to enter our secret cove and distract your mind and spirit from our intimate communion. So I want to make sure you have access to yet another layer of our intimate union that no force outside the cave can interfere with. This Orange Key is presented to you as a gift to open those cave doors deep within the cave. With your lantern full of oil, you will be led deeper into My chambers. And there the Purple Ladder is also waiting for you to climb, continuing to give you greater faith as you need it, for the times are waxing worse and evil is becoming second nature to those in the valley, consumed with their white magic pills and fluff.
This powerful Key, this orange mix, reminds you that you are Mine in heart, soul, and spirit and that you have all the power of Heaven to go deeper in prayer and smite the enemy when he least expects to be hit. Now you have all the elements in place for the power to be multiplied in your simplicity and love for My Word, which is enhanced in the cave through this magnificent, glowing Key that pulsates in our hearts as I love you even more passionately and show you sides of Me you have never experienced before this time.

In the spirit, in the spirit you are wild and free. In the cave, in the cave you are brave and forever Mine to be. I love My brave warriors and am drawing you closer to Me now with this Key so our hearts may beat as one with greater rhythm than you're used to.
This Orange Key is now activated deep in your soul, and its countenance is as a warm vibe that pulsates within your spirit. It reaches deep into the cave and pulls out the thunderous roar of our loving, which takes command of the elements and causes all creation to succumb to the will of the Creator. In our deep love, in our deep communion, you have activated the special code needed for this Era to come to a close so all creation will bow before Me as King of the universe and set My seal on the Holy Hill of Zion once more. Take this Key into your hearts, into your cave with Me, so our love can multiply even faster and bear fruit for the Kingdom of God. I love you.

In the Cave Are Found Jewels and Gems

I am King and you are My subjects whom I dote upon with care and with the King's touch. I am awed at your faith in My ability to protect you as My Bride, and as King of all kings and Lord of all lords, I remind you that you have access to a hidden treasure deep in the King's cave.
I open that treasure box and you find multiple gems and jewels and are bewildered by all that you see and often it is much to take in at one glance. I therefore bestow on you this ring that contains a Key embedded in it that allows you to connect any time to that majestic trove of treasure as you will. This ring, which you take with you on every trip with Me, gives you access to the Majesty of My Kingdom as the chosen Elect. It allows you to explore those gems and be certain of their source as a miner would dig gold and know how to find more of it.

Look around you at those gems and jewels embedded in the Rock; each one is a portal to a new and far-out adventure.

This is cave work we are doing — mining for the precious gems of My Word and passing them out to those who would listen. This is the job of My Children of David of the End. Well done, My brides; enter into joy, and you enter deeper into My cave, where you will find treasure for now and for hereafter.

The Reboot was simply a test on who was going to climb the mountain and be the ones to receive all the cool gems and jewels in the high mountain cave.

You, My love have been increasingly diligent to mark My Word and find treasures deep within the cavern of My tabernacle which is being revealed as these words you hear from Me drop down the pipeline of New, Fresh Wine.

You are in the Creator's mind; we are plumbing the deeper recesses of the mind of our God. He is also our Lover and our King; in fact, He is everything and unlike the world, there is no end to Him. Imagine you enter a cave, just like the one in the music video. It is so beautiful, it takes your breath away, and with each step, you go deeper into the mountain of God. This cave is not an earthly cave that suddenly stops just as you begin to wish it would go on forever; so like the wonders of the material world, the gems on the wall ignite your hunger for more, your soul wants more and your heart agrees, both want to go deeper, but like the stone wall at the back of the cave, your carnal mind is locked and blocks the way forward.

Kiss the Words of your little blue and gold fairy. She holds the Keys to the cave and all the treasure within.

You are My beloved, My peculiar ones, My called and chosen, those who are with Me on the mountain in the cave. You, through your blue angels, are privy to the mind of God. These are the gifts of My spirit. These are the treasures and jewels that My beloved desire above all things on the earth and above the earth.

Come, take My hand and we will explore new realms with your brothers and sisters in prayer. Together we explore what earth has no idea exists outside their realm of logic and carnality. We explore the universe, the cave within the cave of My deepest treasures opened to you. We explore gems and tidbits of knowledge that you find fascinating, and then I take you further up the road and you say "Oh, there is more than one treasure chest?" and I say to you "Open as many as you'd like to open. There are more than enough to sustain the universe and all of Creation, distant galaxies and even the worlds to come that you'll be amazed to uncover.

The magic of My spirit is apparent to the cave dweller, to the miner as he discovers the hidden secrets behind almost every utterance in My Holy Word. This cave, which some of you still despise, offers you mobility into the endless expanses of the spirit world, whilst at the same time offering you shelter from the world and protection from your enemies. Exalt Me, My lovers, lift up My Word on high with your mouths and hands and the tools I have given you to dig up these jewels, gems and diamonds to bring out of that cave....I will shelter you and protect you under My mighty wings as you do My business. With swiftness, for the times are evil and the hour short, will you bring out the New New Wine as I transfer My sovereign power into your minds and hearts. Full possession and Heavenly thought power are given to you, My lovers and brides, for now is your hour, spoken of in the Words of your prophet. Now is the time of the Seven Thunders.

Here In Our Cave You Are Safe With Me

I say to you, My bride, stay in your wilderness, in the back of your cave and together we will conjure up and send forth the Thunders of God upon the forces of the Devil and his kingdom. He can try but he cannot have you, for since the beginning of time, you have been designated, as set aside for this purpose. But you must stay in our cave, that is a stipulation to My protecting you in the wilderness. If you take things into your own hand and leave the hallowed place of My will, you will walk right into the hands of the wicked one, and there will be very little I can do to protect you.

Here in Our cave you are safe with me! Give your physical body into My care in order to travel with Me beyond the veil. If you go outside our cave, you will get lost like all those dwelling in the land of here and now, of flesh and carnal reasoning and ways of man. Your faith to leave that body and those earthly cares out there is gained here in the spirit through My wonderful word, imbibing and believing and obeying and living it.

Just being in your caves is a large part of the protection I give you.

We are in the exact right place at this time in history. The flood is here, and He is lifting us above it, He hides us and feeds us in this hidden place, our cave. He will protect us from the flood only if we are obedient to His Word.

Your cave is like a very special tunnel of Light; not one person or demon can enter this tunnel you travel through. It is protected by your faith in the Keys and the other six thunders, which are My Word.

Take heed, My loves, as your prayers apply more force and pressure on the kings and kingdoms of this world, so will their systems tighten around you. The enforced Mark of the Beast is imminent. Do not fear, for if you remain in your caves, in obedience to My Word and will, you will be safe.

Your cave is like a very special tunnel of Light; not one person or demon can enter this tunnel you travel through. It is protected by your faith in the Keys and the other six thunders, which are My Word.

Get into your caves; it is by far the safest place for a prophet to be in these days when the storm rages just outside the cave entrance.

The safest place for you is in the center of God's will, in your caves, doing what you've been called to do as prophets.

Stay in your cave hidden from the enemy whose intent is to destroy the torch that is in your hand, the Flame of Israel.

I have promised to keep and protect you, My faithful birdie, in the cave (Video) with your other brethren who are with you in spirit. Don't fear the wrath that befalls the world now, for you are safe in the cave in your wilderness, flying high above the earth in prayer and praise to Me.

Hear My Voice In the Stillness Of the Cave

As was prophesied, a small group of disciples chosen because of their faith in the Keys of the Kingdom have been carried away into the Wilderness, not to a dirty cellar with only one street-level window, but a cave deep in the spirit where they commune through prophecy with Jesus, their snowman, and a host of personal spirit helpers; the great cloud of witnessers spoken of in Hebrews 12:1.

You have obeyed My New Covenant of Love and have come into the cave to live, think and breathe My thoughts. You have embraced the Seven Secret Kisses, and I am blessing you with wisdom that is not your own. Your channels are opening and My liquid gold seeds are spurting into you, hot and fresh and vibrant. My Words are bringing on the New day, the New age, the New dawn of man.

I have commanded you to be still and quiet and to listen. Know who I am. Go deeper and you will learn more of Me and of the spirit world and the Keys. Believe Me when I tell you more will be 'accomplished' by staying in the depths of your cave. That is My will for now. Hear My voice in the stillness. It will strengthen your channel. It will deepen your trust in Me. It will give you greater faith!

As you come apart and step through that portal, the portal of stillness, I am able to speak to your heart, My intimate bride, and tell you all you need to know and all you need to do, where you need to be and every aspect of your walk with Me. Your decisions will not be by the news or the forces of nature but by My instruction to your heart.

Listen, My wilderness walkers …and hear My voice in the quiet of your heart, in your cave. It will be My quiet whispers that will tell you, as you cover your face with the mantle of David and listen to His voice at the entrance.

So keep deep in your caves with your ear very close to My Father's mouth. Your faith in your ability to hear My specific instructions is your lifeline.

I have revealed many secrets to you here in our cave, and I will reveal yet more as the days of the very End draw nearer. Stay faithful as you continue to seek My answers in our bed of love. I will not lie unto My beloved. I lead and guide during our time of passion and ardency. Those that spend intimate time with Me are those that get to hear My Words of love. As you seek Me for My golden seeds, I cannot hold back, for I am weary of holding back. I want to open the dam walls and fill the earth with My seeds.

The mind of man can never compare to the whispers of the secrets of the cave, and to all who reject the mind of man will I open several pathways to gain access to this marvelous venture we are on, this road that will take you to your Heavenly destination, the road of faith, of the Seven Thunders, of believing and receiving wild new things from My mouth and the kisses that set you free.

Though heaven and earth pass away, these Words that I speak to you, in your cave, My Endtime generation, will never pass away. Each one will find its mark, its purpose, in those that heed and obey.

Dance freely in My cave where the water flows and keep imbibing My wonderful, life-giving, abundant pearls of wisdom.

Even now there are those among My Warrior Band who doubt the use of prophecy; but My loves, My dearest brides, without the Spirit of Prophecy…Me, how can you see in this dark place, this cave? This cave is as dark as pitch to those who think with their carnal mind, who refuse to move ahead with Me using the light of My Word, the Keys, the gift of prophecy, loving Me intimately, their blue angels and the other spirit helpers I've given to you, that great cloud of witnesses.

I know that sitting in a cave, which doesn't look anything like a cave, year after year, is a very great test that very, very few people would even consider doing, much less continue doing, on the strength of a "still small voice" whispering in your ear every day, saying, "This is the way, walk ye in it." Nobody hears that voice but you—nobody heard My voice but Noah. I called you My Noahs of the Last Days because your lives and Noah's life are so very similar. That is why I said, "As the days of Noah, so shall also be the coming of the Son of man."

To those that come into the heart of My cave and take My hand, do I whisper My gems. It is these ones who see them ignite and understand. Listen My hearts…listen…shhhhh, listen and you will hear the walls whispering hum.

Stay In Your Caves

One day very soon, My loves, you will be ecstatically happy that you stayed the course and stayed in your caves in preference to running outside in the world doing a little here and a little there, but yet nothing in comparison to obeying My will.

I've placed you in your caves so as to buffer your interaction with the world, if you stay in there and keep your interactions to a minimum then you will have the determination to stay the course.

If you go outside our cave, you will get lost like all those dwelling in the land of here and now, of flesh and carnal reasoning and ways of man.

Stay in your caves, My loves. It is from your caves that you and I are directing world events.

If there was ever a time in all history to stay in your cave, it is now.

Stay in your caves, be faithful unto the end; it is almost over.
