

He Can't Win and You Can't lose As Long As You Don't Give Up

As long as we keep fighting, the Devil can't win. Do you realize what that means? The Devil just can't win! ⁽¹⁾

He'll never win, because I've already beaten him. He was defeated by My death on the cross. He's the eternal loser. The attacks he sends your way now, fierce as they may seem, are in actual fact pathetic bluffs, because he's already lost. He can't win, no matter what he does and how hard he tries. Just by accepting My gift of salvation and love for you, you've already won the victory.

You're already the winner and the champion, and there's nothing the Enemy can do about that. He'll try to dissuade you, try to get you to doubt and despair, but as long as you cling to My love and use the weapons I've given you, you'll always, always beat him.--And I say, tough for him! If he's such an idiot to think that he can get at My wife, that he can get at Me, when you and I have already won, well, that's his loss, that's his problem.

Eternity has already been written in that you already know that you and I will win and the Enemy will be defeated, so what can he do to you? He can only cause you to fear, but he can't win. You're destined to win, and he's destined to lose. That's the fate he's chosen for himself, and he will reap what he's sown. Whereas you will rise above in victory every time. That's your future and destiny. ⁽²⁾

He can't win as long as you're fighting. As long as you're doing your best to fight and as long as you are yielded to Me, he can't win. It's only when you give him the victory that he can win anything. The victory belongs to you, and you can either claim it and hold on to it or you can give it away. The only way he can win a victory over you is if you give in.

As long as you keep fighting and you refuse to quit, he's doomed. ⁽³⁾

(Dad:) You are a force to be reckoned with! Once you get out there fighting you have the power, through the Lord's power working in you, to freak the living daylights out of the Enemy!

Don't you want to see that look of horror on the Enemy's face; that absolutely petrified expression when he realizes that he has gotten himself into a fight that he can't win? I sure do! I love to get stirred up against the Enemy! I relish not just setting him back on his heels, but leaving him so bedraggled and injured that he can barely drag himself off the battlefield.

Right now the Enemy's out there with his battering rams, landing one blow after the other, hoping to see the walls of your conviction crumble. Don't let that happen! Show him that you're fierce, ready-to-fight warriors, who will not take this attack lying down. Fight back first; ask questions later!

For every impact of his battering rams, send him a volley of blazing arrows and cannonballs that inflicts so much damage and pain, he'll think twice before even attempting another bash against your walls.

He's a coward to the core, whereas you are warriors to the core! So show him your stuff. Get him quivering in fright. I mean it!

He's puny and pathetic, so don't let his booming propaganda warfare get the better of you. Boom your conviction and faith and devotion so loudly and strongly in response that you'll get him and his underlings disheartened and retreating in fright.

Take the offensive! Get stirred up! You've got God on your side, for goodness sake, so what in the world are you worried about?! Show Satan you're powerful in Jesus. Show him that you're not afraid of those battering rams of doubts, discouragement, and lies. Push them back into the Enemy's ranks and cause such confusion and mayhem that your opposition turns on each other, slaughtering each other.

You've got that kind of power, so show them who's boss! ⁽⁴⁾

There is nothing too great or too horrible that you could face which I have not already overcome. Remember, I already overcame the world (John 16:33). I rose above all the evils of Earth. I conquered every sin. I triumphed over the world. I am the Victor! And when you are faced with grave difficulties, heart-wrenching situations, or intense spiritual battles, it is through holding My hand, depending on Me, and commanding My power that you too will overcome.

I am overcoming power. When you tap into Me by commanding Me, availing yourself of Me, you have become one with the source of overcoming, and this power will cause you to overcome anything that you are facing. My power is the same yesterday, today, and forever (Heb.13:8).

There is no power so great that it could defeat Me. There is no foe so fierce that I would shy away from facing it. There is no battle so intense that it could weaken Me. There is no spiritual evil so dark that it could engulf Me.

I am still, just as I have always been, the secret to your survival. In Me you can overcome all things and be the victor every time. Through Me, you can defeat every evil that arises. Through Me you can command and destroy any demon who would oppose you. Through Me you can stand the heat of the hottest battlefield and rise to victory. ⁽⁵⁾

Warriors: To the Fight!

You have the spirit of a warrior! Let Me repeat that: You have the spirit of a warrior! So let that fighting spirit take you over and get aggressive in spirit against the attacks of the Enemy.

(Spirit helper:) Welcome to the ranks of the warriors. Welcome to the company of heroes. This is what we do. Whenever you face an intense fight that seems stronger than ever, you can know that this is the kind of battle we specialize in. Now you know what it's like to join the big time. No more piddling around in puddles; you're in the deep end, and now you know what it's like to fight real battles for your faith!

These are grown-up battles, real-world wars. Welcome! We've been waiting for you. These trials that you're facing right now are a rite of passage for you, as you become seasoned men and women of God. It's a test to see if you're worthy to join our ranks. Every warrior with his or her name on the Hall of Warriors had to face fierce tests, but they fought and overcame. They rose to the challenge, they stayed true to their faith. Everyone has battles of one kind or another, and these tests of standing up for your faith and fighting for your convictions and holding true to your calling are among some of the fiercest that the Evil One launches on the Lord's children.

Nothing comes without a price, and these tests of faith are part of contending for your faith. But the rewards you receive in return, the fame and glory in Heaven, are well worth it. The battle isn't easy, but it's worth it. If you hold out and conquer, you'll be able to brag about this battle, and it'll be the first of many such glorious conquests.

Welcome to the big time, where real battles are fought and won. No more simulations, no more training exercises--the real thing. This is where wars are fought, and won or lost. This is the real world, and we are your companions, and count it an honor to have you join our ranks. All the great warriors of Heaven are rooting for you and praying that you'll make it. We all remember what it was like, and we know what glory comes after you pass these tests, so we're all cheering for you.

If you could only see what is going on in Heaven! We've gathered in the Hall of Warriors by the thousands. We're cheering for you--yes, you! You're on our viewer, and we're watching you, praying for you, praying that you'll stand strong and receive the power to rise up and fight. ⁽⁶⁾

The life of a warrior isn't easy, but the rewards are thrilling, and you will win in the end. That's what I want you to hold on to. ⁽⁷⁾

(One of the Knights of Victory:) We step out from the shadows. We step out from the Other Side to remind you that we surround you. We are by your side. We were designed and created for such moments as these. We were designed to fight, and that is what we know best. We do not relate to the way of the coward or the timid; we only know how to draw our swords and fight.

You have been brought to battle, so you must fight. The only other option is surrender, but such a despicable word doesn't exist in our vocabulary. What do you have in your hand? You have the power of God, and you have all that is good on your side! So why are you allowing the Enemy to sway you and distract you?

Of course, what he says sounds convincing, for you must be tested. If for no other reason, this opportunity has presented itself because you must be tried, you must allow yourself to see that the words that have been spoken many years ago are true, that all who live godly will suffer persecution (2Tim.3:12). But will you let this little bit of persecution try your faith to the point that you have forgotten that it is the Devil that should be on the defensive and not you? The Devil and all of his ilk are trying to see what you're made of. They're trying to prove that you're not strong enough and that you won't hold out through the battle, that this test will be too tough for you. He's only kidding himself, though.

So what are you waiting for? We have no time to lose! As soon as you determine that you will see the battle as it is, that the Enemy is attempting to steal your faith right out from under you, then you will realize that you're meant to fight back and not just hand over what is rightfully yours. He has no claim to you and your faith. Tell him so, and then get up and fight!

Come join us, and brandish your weapons. Don't let your faith fail, but be strengthened. Then you will feel the hot fighting serum of David burning within you, your spirit being protected, and you will be unstoppable in your mission to turn the darkness to light.

Fell the lies and darkness of the Enemy! Come and wage war with us, for we are on your side! We are the Knights of Victory, and victory alone is what we know! But we need you. Fight with us and put the Enemy back in his place--in Hell, where he belongs! ⁽⁸⁾

(Jesus:) The men and women that Hebrews 11 speaks of were great in faith and accomplished great things, unnatural feats, supernatural things, because they did not settle for what their eyes could see and what their bodies and hearts could feel. They did not accept their feelings as reality. They endured, and persisted in "seeing Him Who is invisible"; they believed in things unseen.

They counted the unseen realities of the spirit as more real than what they could see, and thus they were strong and conquered and overcame despite incredible "odds." They were not looking at the "odds" the way the world would; rather they looked at the real "odds"--My Words, My promises to them of reward, the fact that the Enemy was already beaten before he even started, the fact that they had the upper hand and would prevail, because I was in them. With those kind of odds on your side, the knowledge of victory, unlimited strength and power at your disposal, why wouldn't you be raring to knock the Enemy for a loop?

If you don't go deep into the spirit and use the spiritual weapons I've given you, believing that they are invincible, then you will only be operating within the confines of the Enemy's façades, where he can get you down, rather than in the reality of the spirit realm, where he knows that he's defeated as soon as you fight him with the spiritual weapons.

Never turn your back on the Enemy. Never flinch, or concede defeat, or wonder what the outcome will be or fear how long the battle will last. Fear will be your defeat. Faith and trust in My promises to you, in My love for you, and in the unsurpassed weapons of the spirit, is your victory. Believe and hold on, and the victory will be yours.

My sweethearts, I have given you so much wealth and so many spiritual treasures because you need it in these Last Days. Satan's power has increased upon Earth, but it is still far less than the power I've released to you. While his power might be more evident or more widespread than before, it hasn't gotten any more capable of withstanding My power. It is still the same weak, puny stuff of the netherworld when compared to Me and My beautiful creative, regenerative power.

But you need additional spiritual firepower because Satan's influence upon Earth is becoming more apparent and he is employing new tactics and methods. So in order to defeat him at every turn, all the while drawing closer to Me and saving lost souls for My Kingdom, you need these diverse spiritual powers and aids to help you to fulfill your commission. I have given you this spiritual weaponry, these means of accessing My power, to make your jobs easier and completely doable. I've given you these many options to ensure that you face no impossibility or insurmountable problem. What I've given you guarantees victory no matter what, if you will use it.

(Jesus:) The basics of My Spirit are this: I am God. I am power. I am in you. In Me, you can do all things. Your spiritual weapons connect you to Me and harness My power. So through Me and through your weapons of the spirit, you can also do all things.

My spiritual principles are very simple: Use Me and you will win. Praise and you will have victory. Pray and it will change things. Call on the keys and it shall be done. Have faith and you will overcome the world. My Words are spirit and life. These quotes that you have heard for years and years are not just pretty promises; they are statements of power. In applying any of these statements, in standing on them in faith, you access greater power than anything of this world or Hell.

As you focus on the power, it will create a direct link to Me, to My Spirit, which will channel My power to you--My overcoming power--that will enable you to rise above, overcome, defeat, conquer, and be victorious. I am all power and in Me you can overcome all things. You just have to believe it.

You are Always Free to Choose

Your personal choice is inviolable. It is sacred.

I have given you the absolute power of freedom of choice. That means that your power or ability to choose what you are going to believe and what you are going to put your faith in and what you are going to hang on to is more powerful than any possible attempt to pry you away from that choice. If your faith in Me is rock solid, then absolutely nothing can change that, without your decision to let it change.

So once you choose to hang on to Me, you have cast your anchor into the Rock, and nothing can move you from that point on--not if you choose to not let it. The choice is yours. That's how strong I've made your free will. That's why, in the end, there will be no excuses. Everyone will plainly see that they simply made the choices that resulted in their spiritual state. I let you make your own choices, and I don't override them. The freedom to choose is My gift of love to you.

When you choose to cast your lot in with Me, whether you live or die in doing so, like Job, I will eventually come through for you and make you better off than before; and in the process I will take the attack and break it in two in My hands, for you, My love. Because if you love Me enough to stand by Me no matter what, I consider that stand one of the most precious things in My sight, and when the time is right I will take off My belt and thrash the opponent that so plagued you.

I am a jealous God, and although I may allow you to be strengthened through the tests, as long as your eyes continue to gaze into Mine, the time will come when I close the chess board and say, "Game is over! You won, My bride. You lost, Devil."

The basic principles of My Spirit are still the same today as they were yesterday, that through Me you can do all things; through holding onto the keys you can overcome all things; through praise you can be the victor in all things; through loving Me intimately you receive power for all things; through hearing from Me you gain wisdom and grace and strength for all things; through spending time with Me, absorbing Me and My Words, you can rise above all things. My Word fails not; it just takes faith to cling to these simplicities of My Spirit even when you're barraged with the complexities of spiritual warfare. That's the bottom line here.

There is NOTHING too hard for Me. There is nothing on Earth, or in the spirit realm, too hard for your spiritual weapons to overcome. You are surrounded by the help from Heaven that you need, even if your flesh can't feel it and your carnal mind can't figure it out. The mighty and demon-defeating power of Heaven is at your side, and you will see the light of victory soon. Don't give up! ⁽⁹⁾

Where are those who are willing to take a stand and fight? Where are those who want to begin by waging a militant war through their prayers and through resisting the Devil? What happened to the "do or die" spirit?--That spirit of, "I can fail, you can fail, the whole world can fail, but Jesus will never fail!" God's plan is not going to be defeated. If God has to take a little Gideon's band to win the battles and win the war, well then, He'll do it! ⁽¹⁰⁾
