Behold the beautiful treasure that I have given unto the children of David: treasure and riches that have never been known, this treasure of the Law of Love! Such freedom and such love the world has never known! Such beauty in My eyes--this Law of Love!

I would that you would glory in this Law of Love, that you would be proud of this Law of Love, that you would not only speak of it, but that you would practice it and live it and enjoy it to the full! For this Law of Love is the very essence of the freedom of My Spirit, and the abundance of My Love that I have given to the children of David--such beauty and such love and such freedom, such as the world has never seen! ⁽¹⁾

So great is My liberating Law of Love that Satan fights it with all his might! For he knows that living My Law of Love is the doorway to freedom. He knows that My liberating Law of Love is the end of bondage and the doorway into the boundless freedom of the true spiritual realities that await. He knows that living My Law of Love is the world of tomorrow, the world of forever, the reality of eternity--and he fights with all his strength to hinder, harm, and delay. Therefore open your eyes and see as I see, and fret not.

My Law of Love is the end of the old law and the beginning of freedom, and because of this, Satan puts up a fierce fight to obstruct your growth in love. My Law of Love is the doorway to total liberty in My Spirit. It is My total life, My total liberty, the total freedom of Heaven, the doorway to My total love. So great is My Law of Love, for in living My love, the spirits of just men are set free.

This gift [the Law of Love] glows with a beautiful, unearthly glow, for it is the very heart of God. Treasure and carry this gift well and it will usher you into the Kingdom, for this gift is the Kingdom, the very heart and being of Heaven!

In My Kingdom, love reigns supreme. Here, with great joy, My children share this gift of love freely with each other. Here, My children are responsible to each other, yet at the same time so in love with each other, for all of Heaven overflows with My love. Here, to continually give love is all that matters. Here, we are all one in this great, great love.

But with this gift comes responsibility. For real, true love, the love that is the essence of My Kingdom, is love given at the expense of self. It is sacrificial love, love that gives and gives. With such giving, great joy fills the soul. All who live Here seek this end--to love and to be one with Me in this great love. ⁽²⁾

Here In Heaven the great men and women aren't bound by any law except that of love, and their times of the spirit aren't ever defined as such, because My Spirit is everywhere, and praise and love and intimacy with Us is something that permeates their entire being--it is their very existence. To mirror the heavenly culture as much as possible is a unique calling of the Family. ⁽³⁾

(Dad speaking:) The Lord wants to use the Family to be witnesses of His Law of Love to the world, because in so doing, He's paving the way for the world of tomorrow when He returns to rule the world by His Law of Love. This should be the biggest incentive for our folks to start living the Law of Love right now--knowing that this is how the Lord's going to rule in the Millennium. He's going to govern by the Law of Love, because it's His law. How else would you expect Him to rule? And those of His children who are obeying and following and living His Law of Love right now are the ones He's going to use to help Him reign then! The Lord's giving the Family a head start!

God's plan is not going to be stopped! So what our folks need to ask themselves is this: Do you want to be a part of that plan and be at the top of His list--His shining examples to the world to help Him usher in His Kingdom on Earth?--Or would you rather be left behind and have an awful lot of catching up to do later? It's time the Family faces their fears about the Law of Love--because like it or not, the Law of Love is going to rule the world of tomorrow! ⁽⁴⁾

What I ask of My children is a miracle--I ask for outgoing, sacrificial love. It's the nature of man to be self-preserving, self-seeking, self-satisfying. It's the nature of man to put his own needs and survival above others. But that is the way of the men of this world who know Me not. My children have a great advantage because I've broken those natural circuits. I've cut those wires and I've rewired their minds and hearts to do My bidding, which is to love others. What a marvelous testimony this is!

When I was with My disciples I said, "By this shall all men know that you are My disciples, if you have love one for another." In that day, this love was a great testimony; it drew much attention and caused a mighty widening of the eyes. But how much more so is this love a miracle in this day and age when people are completely consumed with themselves, their own wants, needs and desires. People have closed themselves off from loving sacrificially. Even marriages no longer have their foundation in unselfish love. There is such darkness, such misery!

But this lack of love only serves to make the love of My children shine more brightly! It's as a beacon of love, direction, miracles, power, strength! People cannot deny that such love is out of this world. They ask, "Where do you get such love? How can you live together? How do you do it?" Ah, such satisfaction it brings Me when My children are such a testimony of My love!

In this day and age there is an even greater need for love, because the hearts of men have grown terribly cold and hard. They are no longer sensitive to the gentle reflection of My Spirit--they need strong blasts of the red-hot, fiery, blazing power of My love in action! Only then, when it's as a huge, brilliant bonfire in their midst, will they notice, see and believe. For this reason I have set a challenge before the children of David to love more deeply, more sacrificially, more impartially.

I know this is far above your natural ability. It's out of your reach to find such love on your own. If you try to do this in your own strength, the arm of the flesh, you'll be disappointed, frustrated, and tire of such labor. But if you call out to Me, simply asking Me for the love you need, and are then willing to put that love into action by faith, I will give you My love in such tremendous volume and power that you will know you have witnessed a miracle!

It takes desperate prayer, a believing spirit, and a willing mind and heart. Then follow this with many small steps of unselfish love, and you will become a new creature. You will think of others, have more concern, and feel for others' needs more readily. You'll be willing to give up your own plans and ideas to care for the weak.

Love is action, love is doing, love is outgoing concern. But all of this must come from My hand if it is to last. I have such love for you! I'm waiting with a flood of love to pour out upon the children of David, if you will but ask, seek Me with desperate hearts, believe that this is possible, and then be willing to be made willing, available, sensitive lovers of others.

I am the God of miracles, and I will give you this miracle of love. I want to give you this new anointing of love, which is synonymous with My power, My face, My person. I am Love, and you can have more of Me than you've ever had before. Ask and you will receive! ⁽⁵⁾

I know how difficult this is, for it is so contrary to the natural, to the nature of man. For the nature of man is selfish, it's self-preserving, it's looking out for self. That's why I call you to be supernatural, above the natural, which can only be accomplished through the spirit, and through yielding to My Spirit.

For man has been created above the animals, but a little lower than the angels, and thus has the nature of earth with a touch of the supernatural. This is what keeps man from being completely animal-like, totally natural and base. For I have implanted in him a touch of the Heavenly conscience and understanding, so that he will not be completely ruled by his baser instincts, but by the heart and the mind. But for you who are My children, you who are full of My Word and My truth and who understand many things of the Spirit, unto you I say, live more in the supernatural. I call you to be above the nature of earth, to set aside the things of earth, and to set your affections on things above.

I call you to live the life of the supernatural, a life of the spirit, applying not just the principles of earth, but the spiritual principles of God.--The principles of giving instead of taking, of love and forgiveness instead of hate and revenge, of laying down your life for others rather than only taking for yourself, of looking to the needs of others instead of your own self-survival. That is living in the supernatural.

Many look to this precious Law of Love that I have laid at your feet and say, "This doesn't work! It's too difficult!" But I say unto you, for those who live in the supernatural, for those who live these spiritual laws of God--the laws of giving, the laws of love, the laws of laying down your life for others, the laws of trusting God in the face of all adversity--to those, it works.

For the natural man, it does not work. To those who try to live the Law of Love in the natural, without applying the supernatural laws of God, it does not work. But unto you who know the truth, who know the supernatural laws of the Spirit, who live these things, who live faith, who live giving, who live laying down your lives day by day for the lost and for your brethren, for you who look to the needs of others, who live unselfishly, who live for Me, who yield to Me and trust Me with your whole hearts--unto you I say, the Law of Love works! It brings joy, even if it's joy through some tears.

For every man has the spirit and nature of man, and those that wish to live the supernatural spiritual life must struggle with the nature of man. For the flesh always wars against the spirit, and man is not without sin. He that strives to live the supernatural law will at times fall and fail. For if man could completely live the supernatural law, he would not need Me; he would not need to cry out to Me. And so I say, all men will fail, for all men have sinned. But when you fail, you can look to Me for strength and forgiveness, and it is there in abundance.

Do you wish to see My love in action? Do you wish to see the strength and the power of My love? Then, I say, live My supernatural laws of the Spirit--the laws of giving to others and giving of yourself, the laws of loving others, giving to them unselfishly in faith, trusting. Look to the needs of others, and when you see one who has need, give to them. For I say that giving of yourself, giving of your life, sacrificing your own desires, your own possessions, your own will, are the things that are greatly rewarded. These are the ways to live the laws of the Spirit.

The laws of the Spirit, though laws, give you freedom and joy in the spirit! It's in the living of these things and the giving of yourself to Me and others that you find satisfaction, joy, and happiness. It's the living of these supernatural, spiritual laws that brings forth spiritual fruit in your lives--the fruit of growth in spirit, which brings upon you the power and anointing of My Spirit.

Seek to live the spiritual laws, the laws of love, of giving, of sacrifice, of laying down your life for your brethren. Practice these laws. Live these laws. Be as the good Samaritan who applied the spiritual laws, as opposed to those who applied the natural laws. Live these laws of love, these laws of the Spirit, that you may rise above the natural man and show the attributes of God. ⁽⁶⁾

My Law of Love is greater than all the law and all the prophets. My love is all in all, and for all, and covers all. Now I ask, are you willing? Are you strong enough to live it? Are you strong enough to give it? Are you willing to listen? If you are willing to listen, I will lead and show you how to love, and when to love, and who has need of love, and what kind of love to give. For I fill the need for love in many ways. I am more willing to give than you are to receive, and I would that none be lacking.

So listen! Listen when I say, "This one has need--go give a hug." Listen when I say, "That one has need--take time for a walk." And yet listen again when I say, "This one has need of a kind word, and that one has need of a tender touch." Listen when I say, "This one has need to lie in the bed of love, and that one but needs a listening ear." Listen when I say, "This one has need of your loving concern, and that one has need of a helping hand." Listen when I say, "This one has need of a strong hand, and that one needs but a word of prayer." Listen when I say, "This one needs sympathy, and that one just to have a good laugh." Listen when I say, "This one needs a smile, and that one needs understanding." Listen when I say, "This one needs but a kiss, and that one a loving squeeze." Listen, and I will direct your paths!

There are many needs and many ways to love, and as you reach out to broaden the borders of your tents, I will lead and guide you in how to love and ways to love that will fill every need. For the need to be loved is great and can be manifested in hundreds of ways. There is a time and a place for everything, and I would that you be sensitive to the needs of all those around you.

Take care that you fall not into selfish ways. Live together, love together, be together in all your ways, and trust in Me. For My love knows no boundaries. My love knows no hours. You see with eyes of time, while I see through the eyes of the Spirit. Therefore look to Me and allow Me to open your eyes, that you too may see as I see.

I would that you all be bonded together in My perfect love. Look up and see as I see! My dear Family, My One Wife, I call you to live and love and care for one another. Live in love and love one another. ⁽⁷⁾

Many shall be surprised when they come into My Heavenly Kingdom to see the great importance of love, the hidden, unseen acts of love, the giving of love. For to love is more important than service, more important than ministries, more important than many things that you think are so fruitful. These things you ought to have done but not to have left the other, the most important, undone, and that is to love.

Behold, this is a day of choice, this is a day of challenge. This is a day when I am saying unto all of the children of David: How much will you love? How much will you think of others? How much will you give of yourselves? How much will you forsake your own personal plans, your preferences, your freedom, your independence, your immediate desires, to be able to give love to those who are in need?

There are many who have given of themselves--their time, their lives, their personal families. I wish to reward these and to show them My Love in a tangible, obvious way. But I am limited in showing My Love by the choices that you make. ⁽⁸⁾

Loving with My love

What I am asking of you is a freewill choice to fight for full unity in spirit, based on My Law of Love.

Love is a moment by moment, freewill gift that you give to one another, whether you feel it is deserved or not. It has nothing to do with personality, looks, or any other physical attribute or personality trait. It is loving Me in one another, completely, unconditionally. It is literally fulfilling My commandment to walk as I walked (1John 2:6).

While I was on Earth, was My concern only for those who fit the image of what I liked? Was My love based on whether or not someone treated Me the way I liked to be treated, or whether they said things in attractive terms or in bold, brash and even harsh ways? Did My love hinge on whether I liked their personality or not?

I gave all of My heart and love to the unlovely as freely as to the lovely--to a poor, filthy, blind beggar, or to a hated tax collector, or to a leper, or to a ruler of the synagogue like Jairus, or to a Roman centurion. I had as much love and patience for the brash Peter or the older Matthew or the sometimes arrogant Sons of Thunder, as I called them, as I did for the innocent John.

Loving with My love means learning to see in the spirit. It goes beyond the flesh and your natural likes and dislikes. You know the spiritual principle that the more you give out of love for Me, the richer you become. And it's another spiritual principle that the more you love someone unconditionally, in spite of the flesh and personalities or any other factor that bothers you or that you wish you could change in yourself or another, the more that person will change and become beautiful.

Trying to force needed changes by focusing on the negative, or running from problems by putting others out of your Home, or running off to a new Home yourself because you feel that unity is impossible or too hard to attain, is like hoarding your spiritual money. You'll never become rich in spirit that way. The more you hoard your spiritual riches, the poorer you will become.

But as you step out by faith to love unselfishly, as you give what little you have, you'll find that I multiply it--not just in your life, but in other lives too. You will find yourself becoming richer, having more to give. That is a principle of the spirit.

As you put your all into seeing each other as I see you, My love and Spirit can help to refine each of you. The more you love and give without partiality--even when you are giving to those who your natural mind would say are least deserving--the more your giving brings change in their lives that could never have happened in any other way.

Living My Law of Love takes time and faith, but it does work, and it will bring results. ⁽⁹⁾

Within this era there will be many new battles to fight, and these must be fought together, in unity, in love, in friendship, in trust. Each of you must take upon you My mantle of selflessness and My anointing of humility. You must bond together as never before. You must fight as a team, for this is the only way that many of the future battles will be won. You must seek to be My love to one another, and to lift up your brother when he falls. I commission you to make it your goal to learn to love others more than you love yourself.

If you want to be the best disciple and bride you can be, you must realize that on your own you will never reach your full potential. It's together with like-minded individuals that you will be strong, that you will be able to fulfill all that I will ask of you in this new era. Together you will be strengthened. Divided you will fall. When you are united as one, with bonds of friendship, brotherhood, and unity, I will be able to pour upon you a new anointing of spiritual stamina and endurance and power to fight and win.

By joining together, others will be able to lend you the gifts-physical and spiritual-that you lack. As you unite more fully, you will learn more what it means to be your brother's keeper, to be there for each other, to bear one another's burdens, to lay down your lives for each other, to treat others as you would like to be treated, to help each other stand strong, to make any sacrifice for the sake of one of your brothers or sisters.

Love, unity, and brotherhood are weapons that you can use to defeat the Enemy in your midst. They are both weapons and tools. So take up these lethal weapons of the spirit and keep them always by your side, ready to destroy the Enemy's attacks on your bonds with one another. Also, use them as tools to strengthen your defenses, to build bridges, to help another who is downtrodden, and to support your mates when they are weak. ⁽¹⁰⁾

Unity and Trust--New Weapons for the Endtime

One weapon you need to strengthen is the love of the brethren. My children, you each need to know without a shadow of a doubt that you would lay down your life for each other. The time is coming when all My Family will need to have that assurance in their hearts, that the other will be there for them.

You've made progress and have learned and grown in some areas of living the Law of Love and the "One Wife" vision, and I know you have it as one of your goals to work on more this year. But I must impress upon you the need and how important this weapon really is.

The time is coming when you all will need to trust in each other's love just to survive. It's like the story of the two brothers on the battlefield, when one brother was trapped in no man's land, mortally wounded. When the other brother found out about it, he came to try and rescue him, in spite of the certainty that he would be shot. Thus he sacrificed his own life trying to save his brother's. When asked why he did it, he replied with his dying breath, "Because he expected it of me." That's the kind of love and trust I'm talking about--knowing that you can count on each other.

Now is the time to work on building more trust and unity in the Family, for this is one of the new weapons. Love, unity, trust, and selflessness are not just nice Christian virtues to strive for, but they are part of the new weapons that will protect and help you through the dark days ahead. All these work together with the other new weapons--loving Me intimately and so passionately that you know that I would never do anything to hurt you; knowing that I do all things for your good no matter what the outward circumstances look like; praising Me and hearing My voice to lead and guide and direct you; and trusting your brethren that they will be there for you, that they also hear from Me and will do the right thing. Such love, unity, trust, and selflessness will be a help and a comfort in the dark days to come. Now is the time to work on these weapons.

Just like with the other new weapons of My Spirit--praising Me, loving Me intimately, hearing from Me in prophecy--the way you will become skilled in using the weapon of love, unity, selflessness, and trust in your brothers and sisters is through using it. You might feel that you don't want to be the first one to step out, for you don't want to be hurt or taken advantage of. But those feelings are from the Enemy, as he tries to hold you back from using this very important tool that I've given you.

My loves, the days are coming when this love and strong trust and brotherhood between you will save your lives, if you have cultivated these things. And if you have not, you will be left wounded and vulnerable. The only way to become practiced and skilled in how to defend yourself with this weapon of love against the Enemy is to begin using it now. Ask Me how you can be more loving. Ask Me to show you the areas in your personal life where selfishness is manifested. Ask Me to speak to you about how you personally can go on the attack to break down the walls that have risen between you and your brethren, how you can manifest more trust, more faith, how you can share more and be a greater support to others.

This will not come easily, for the Enemy will fight you hard. But I tell you that it is a battle worth winning, for it will be your strength in the days to come. And along with hearing from Me directly, knowing of My intimate love for you, and being strong in the area of praising Me, this love and trust and unselfishness that will be built between you will be your defense, your strength, your salvation, your victory! ⁽¹¹⁾

Bear Ye One Another's Burdens

Each person has their place, and all of you work together and all of you bear the responsibility, and all must feel the weight and carry their part to move the mighty mountain, to move the monumental task and accomplish My will. It is not possible to place the weight upon the shoulders of only a few, but all must get behind this giant boulder to push and to make progress and to reach the destination. For if this great weight be placed upon the shoulders of only a few, those few will not be able to bear it, and they will weaken and they will crumble under the weight.

Therefore I call upon all My faithful children, both great and small, to feel the weight and bear the responsibility according to their strength, according to their maturity and according to their faith. Let each person bear the weight. Let each person bear the burdens of others. Bear ye one another's burdens and so fulfill My Law of Love. Each person must aggressively reach out to those around them to fulfill the need and to lift the burden. Each person must play their role in witnessing, in Home life, in childcare, in prayer, in all spheres of the revolutionary lifestyle that I have given you. And none can say, 'That is not my job, that is not my ministry, that is not my responsibility.'

For I place this burden of reaching the world, and of raising the little ones, and of being a good sample upon the shoulders of all. But there are those who are more gifted in certain areas. Each person is different--some have gifts that lie in one area, and others have gifts which lie in another area--and these shine according to their strengths and according to their gifts. ⁽¹²⁾

Showing Appreciation

Showing appreciation to those around you is love. It's a very necessary ingredient--a soothing oil that keeps the love flowing among you. Appreciation is a vital pivot on which My love turns. Lift up one another, My children, by showing heartfelt, genuine, loving appreciation for each other, and so fulfill My Law of Love.

Give, My children, and it will be given unto you! Give love through giving appreciation. The most important thing about this whole process is that you, My dear ones, hold in your hands keys that can help unlock victories for the one who sits next to you. You can help to lighten their load, ease their burdens, cheer their hearts, and relieve their discouragement. You can help bring sweet relief by showing appreciation and giving praise and commendation! Everybody needs encouragement! By showing genuine love and appreciation, you may well be saving a life. For a wounded spirit, who can bear? That's how important appreciation is!

I have given you the sample to follow. Do I not give you plenty of encouragement in My interactions with you? Words of love and appreciation, gratitude and thanks? I commend you, and I would that you do the same for others. This is especially important in this day as Satan fights ruthlessly using discouragement. Because of this, I give you this commission to show loving appreciation at every opportunity, and so fulfill My Law of Love.

Will you do this for Me? This is My desire, but I have no lips to speak through but yours, no hands to accomplish loving acts through but yours; therefore reach out and give appreciation to your mates. Yield your members to Me, for I desire to encourage you all--and I need your help to do it. No one is past falling into discouragement at one time or another, and I wish to ward off such disheartening attacks with the soothing salve of heartfelt appreciation.

If you want to know how you can show more loving appreciation to your mates, start with prayer. As you pray more and listen to My voice whispering in your ear throughout the day, I will lead you and guide you in ways to encourage others; I will teach you how to show genuine, loving appreciation to all your mates. Be open and look to Me throughout the day for loving ways you can express your appreciation for another.

One of the biggest wiles that Satan uses to hinder you from showing appreciation to those around you is through a hurried spirit. By getting you to think you don't have time, the Enemy can stop you from reaching out to others in this way. For under the guise of a hurried spirit, of being too busy and not having enough time, a lack of showing sincere appreciation thrives. Yet, I tell you, time spent in showing loving appreciation will never be wasted, but it will come back to you a hundredfold. You will never lose by giving heartfelt appreciation to those around you.

You must see this commission not as merely something good to do, should it work out, but as a vital necessity, for it is. For without this loving encouragement and commendation and giving recognition and honor to whom it is due, the heart of man will wither and become discouraged, and the feet will turn out of the way of righteousness. So lift up the hands which hang down, and strengthen the feeble knees with liberal doses of positive praise and encouragement.

Therefore, receive this commission joyfully, My children, and listen to Me guiding you throughout the day to express your love to others by giving heartfelt, loving appreciation for the things they do, for who they are and what they are, for what they mean to you, for how they love Me and have given their lives in My service, for how they sacrifice day after day to serve you and My Family. ⁽¹³⁾

Living the Law of Love Fully

Upon you, the children of David, I bestow the last great honor--the priceless privilege of giving all, of living all, of paving the way into total liberty and the realities of My Spirit. Unto you it is given to know the truths of My Kingdom. Unto you it is given to grow into full stature. Unto you it is given to grow in love, to live in love, that you may teach the world how to love.

Unto you, My precious children who know Me and love Me, who come when I call, and who beg to receive My seeds, it is given to live My Law of Love fully. Unto you it is given, as you learn to love, to usher in the Kingdom, to teach the world how to walk in love and live in love and live for love. Unto you it is given to prove that My Law of Love is holy and true, and it does not fail. It cannot fail, for on this Law of Love hangs all the law and all the prophets! ⁽¹⁴⁾

When you share together in My love, when you join together in flesh and in spirit, it's a marriage not only of bodies but of loyalties, of hearts, of thoughts. This loving is the difference between being just an organization, just a working relationship, just a business deal, and being a marriage in the spirit! It's a uniting, a oneness of My Kingdom, an inseparableness where there are no walls. ⁽¹⁵⁾

(Dad speaking:) The Family needs the love, the unity and the strength that comes from living the Law of Love. They may not think they need it now, but in the times to come and as the Endtime events unfold, they'll realize very clearly how much they need the unity and strength and love that comes from living the Law of Love. Then they'll be so thankful that they know how to do it, that they've been doing it, that they've been exercising their muscles of faith and giving and sacrifice. ⁽¹⁶⁾

(Dad speaking:) Sex is a great leveler! It really breaks down the barriers between people more quickly than almost anything else. In fact, I can't think of anything else that brings people together better than sex. Once you're naked and in bed together, what do you have to hide?--Especially if you're loving the Lord intimately. It kills your pride, but it brings out the best in you. It brings the Spirit of the Lord into your lives and relationship.

Then even if you don't have that much time during the course of the week to spend talking or sharing your hearts, the unity and the bond that the Lord has given you through the time that you spend in bed lives on. The sweetness and the love you've shared is like oil that helps to lubricate all the various activities that you're involved in throughout the week, the problems that you have to face, and the decisions that you have to make.

Love is the heartbeat of this Revolution! It's the very blood of the body of Christ! And what better way to experience or share and feel that love than in bed in sexual sharing, in the giving of love, in humbling yourself to make love one with another? ⁽¹⁷⁾

(Dad speaking:) Sex is not just a need of the flesh, nor is it a weakness of the flesh--it's one of the most powerful, effective, wonderful, thrilling ways that you can feel and experience the ecstasies of the Spirit of God, His love! When you're loving each other with His love, and especially when you're loving Him together as your Husband, you can hardly beat the thrill, the charge, the explosions of the Spirit you can have! I've told you before that an orgasm is a spiritual experience, and I often had explosions of the Spirit at the moment of climax. It's one of the mysteries of the Spirit, but I doubt many will argue with me that when two people are loving each other freely, without inhibitions, socking it to each other with the freedom of the Spirit in His love, you feel Him there. You feel the Lord loving you! You feel the Spirit! It's a beautiful expression of His love for us and a beautiful way that we can be His love for another. ⁽¹⁸⁾

So many are lonely, so many are destitute, so many are thirsting for the waters of My love, for the streams of affection that I would pour upon them! Yet they have not, because there are not those who are willing to give. So give, I say. Give, and your reward will be great.

Use the love that I have put in your heart, and use your broken heart to shed My love on others. Use your hands to touch them with My love, use your tears to understand their tears, and use your longing for love to fill another's loneliness. As you warm others with your love, so will you also be warmed. ⁽¹⁹⁾

I don't have enough vessels, enough channels through whom to pour My love. I don't have enough hands, enough eyes, enough lips, enough arms that will hold another, that will stroke their face and tenderly touch them and speak words of love and encouragement to them.

I search and seek for those who will be the embodiment of My love, who are willing to represent Me before their brothers and sisters. It matters not the channel; the vessel is not important. The only requirement is that they be yielded, willing and humble. With these three qualities I am able to pour out My Spirit upon them and transform them into a perfect representation of My love for another.

This is My heart's desire, that all may have the love, the tenderness, the caressing, the comfort and the security of My love given through yielded, willing and humble vessels. I have need of the yielded, willing, humble vessels who will say yes to Me and freely pour out My love without measure. ⁽²⁰⁾

For have not I said many times that I have no eyes but your eyes, no lips but yours, no hands but yours? Much of the love that I show can only be shown through another. Much of the comfort and encouragement and affection that I wish to bestow upon My children can only be given through another.

I have ordained and designed it this way that you might have need one for another, that it might draw you close in tight unity, that you might be bonded together in love.--That no one would be an island and no one would be self-sufficient, but that you would need one another and depend on one another, for in this will be your strength. So I have ordained it that My Love can best be shown through another. ⁽²¹⁾

If you'll give of your life, if you'll give of your love, if you'll give of your body to another, it's going to bring great unity. You'll find such sweet fellowship with your Family. In the days to come you're going to greatly value your fellowship with each other--that closeness, that relationship with your brothers and your sisters--because that's what's going to bring you strength in those days. You're going to be forging such strong bonds that none can break them in the days to come.

So do not look lightly upon the Law of Love. Do not look lightly upon this aspect of sharing and giving your heart to another, because it's important. It's teaching you to love another, it's teaching you to give to another, it's teaching you to lay down your life for a brother or a sister. It's going to bring great strength, because it's going to help energize you with the power of love that you will feel from each other. The more you exercise your abilities and powers to love, the more you give love, then the more you receive love, the more filled with love you're going to be, and the stronger you're going to be.

You're going to be giants of love! You're going to be so strong in the power of love that no man will be able to resist you. There are great things on the horizon! I'm going to use you in great and wondrous ways, but I'm going to use you through the power of love. Love is what is going to motivate you. Love is what is going to see you through. Love is what is going to help you in the dark and troublous days. ⁽²²⁾

Whether you realize it or are willing to accept it, the truth of the Law of Love is a key factor in the Endtime. I will let this truth be known, and if necessary, I will raise up another ecclesia to live it, to be the earthly sample of that which is to come when I rule and reign. My plan will not be defeated. The choice is yours as to whether you will be the ones who are privileged with that honor, or if you will cast off the crown. ⁽²³⁾

This is a strong test, strong meat, but it is necessary for the survival of the Family, and not only its survival but the Family's progress, their greater usefulness to Me and their ability to continue to use their gifts of being revolutionaries, of being 100% My followers, so that I can use them more mightily! Otherwise, they will slowly begin to gravitate to that which is comfortable, easy, and that which requires less sacrifice and less giving and forsaking of themselves. ⁽²⁴⁾

The truth of the Law of Love could be available to others if they had the faith, but except for a very few exceptions, they don't. And the reason they don't have the faith is because they don't have or believe the Words of David. Don't you see, My precious ones?--The key to this total freedom is in the Word! You have faith because you have the Word--the hot, radical Word from Heaven!

This total freedom and total abandonment in love is a special gift that is reserved for you who have given your all to Me. You've surrendered your pride, your reputation, your mate or lover, the traditional values of this world and even the church system, because you wanted all that I have to give you. Such yieldedness, such faith in the Words of David, has brought Me great joy. And in return I give you something of inestimable value--the full truth of My Law of Love.

Revel in this truth, in this love, for it is My gift of love to you, My faithful children of David. Pity those who could have such love, such freedom, such expression of My Spirit in all aspects of their lives, but who don't, for their lack of faith and dedication to Me. Let not those who seek to keep the old Law intimidate you, for they are the ones in darkness and in bondage. They are the ones who hold on to their own righteousness, who have not given themselves to Me as you have. They have blocked the flow of My Spirit. They have cut themselves off because they say, "Thus far and no further."

But you, My precious hot brides, say, "Give me more, give me more!" And therefore I do! I give you more of the breathtaking, life-giving freedom of My love than anyone has had before! Just as you fight to let no man steal your crown, fight to let no man steal this freedom which is your due, your reward, My special gift to you! ⁽²⁵⁾

My Family, My children of David, have been blessed with the Law of Love. They've been blessed with deep truths of My Spirit and a great knowledge of My spiritual principles and how they operate. They've been blessed with an understanding of how I work, how I bless, how I reward giving, unselfishness, and sacrifice. Therefore you, My Family, are accountable to live My Law of Love, to fulfill the obligation of love, to live in love and kindness one toward another. Be assured that these principles of My Word are true, and that I will bless love, giving, and faith; and that I will not reward selfishness. ⁽²⁶⁾

People argue against the Law of Love, saying it only bears bad fruit, or that because it bears some bad fruit, it's no good. Because there are many individuals involved in complicated relationships, and there are so many different situations and different levels of dedication, love, and obedience, of course there will be a huge variety of "fruits" borne from the implementation of the Law of Love.

Where there is perfect love and obedience, there is perfect good fruit--but usually there is a mixture of both good and bad fruit. But even though there are problems and even bad fruit at times, that still shouldn't be blamed on the doctrine. The doctrine is not on trial here; it's the people's implementation of it that must be judged. The question is not whether the doctrine is right. It is. The question is whether the people can be trusted with it.

There is no doubt about the validity and truth of the full freedom of the Law of Love. David received the truth from Me, and he was faithful to give it to the Family. Maria and Peter have built on that truth. There is no doubt that the full freedom of the Law of Love is of Me; that is not in question. ⁽²⁷⁾

The bottom line is this: If the heart is right, the actions will be right. If the heart is loving, the actions will be loving. If the heart is pure--filled with My Spirit--the actions will be pure

The spirit, the spirit, is the most important. If your spirit is Mine, yielded to Me, then your actions will be Mine, yielded to Me. If you can truly say that whatsoever you're doing, in word or in deed, you're doing all to the glory of God, then your actions will be right and pure and of Me. If you truly desire to glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God's, then you need have no fear of getting off track. If you truly love your neighbor as yourself, and are thinking about his or her needs, desires, wishes, and how to make him or her happy, within the godly boundaries of My Law of Love, then you can know that I will be able to lead you and help you to do the right thing. If you are truly open to My direction in your life through My Word, prophecy, and the shepherding of those spiritually mature in Me, then you can rest assured that even when you begin to stray from My ways, you will quickly be brought back into full fellowship with Me and learn more about My wishes and desires.

So, My loves, seek to be pure in Me, and to convey My pure love to others. Seek to glorify Me, even in your times of sexual fellowship. Seek to be samples of My ways of love. Seek to encourage and uplift and feed and nurture both the spirits and bodies of others, by doing things with the motivation of true, God-given love. Seek to love others as I would love them. My love speaks to each one's heart in different ways, and as you seek to be a vessel of My love to another, I will anoint you with creativity to truly be My eyes, My lips, My hands, and My mouth to another. ⁽²⁸⁾

You are to be the fulfillment of My new covenant of love, being one wife, married to Me and to each other, shining samples of My only Law of Love, those who will lead the way of the future, who will reign with Me, ruling the nations according to My Law. How is it possible to live My Law of Love to the full? Only through becoming one with My Spirit, through allowing My Spirit to prevail in you, to live, move, speak and think in you, to fully possess you. ⁽²⁹⁾

Only in living My Law of Love to the full, day by day, can you become the invincible miracle workers of these Last Days. Your power isn't going to be based on your talents and skills. It's not going to be built on your personality or personal charisma. It's not going to be built on you at all. The defining force that will enable you to become so powerful, so unique, so beyond Satan's ability to hinder, much less stop you, is My Spirit dwelling in you. And what is My Spirit? It is love.

Can you take this step with Me? Will you take this challenge to do all you can to give Me your heart that fully? If you could see each other's lives and hearts as I see them, your own heart would break at the sacrifices each person has made in love for Me. As you take the step to reach out to each other and serve one another in love, you will become a strength to one another. ⁽³⁰⁾

Learning to Live the Law of Love is a Process

For you, My brides, learning to live the Law of Love in its ultimate fulfillment, is a process. Being able to not only understand but to fully live unselfish sacrificial love is a tall order, and something that you learn through experience and maturity.--And of course that doesn't happen all in a day. The Law of Love is a vibrant and complex principle of the Spirit, and no two people's experiences in practicing it are the same. You, My brides, have had to learn many, many lessons concerning this beautiful tool, and I have helped you to mature and to grow in your understanding and living of the Law of Love. Each person's understanding of the Law of Love grows and changes with time, through studying and living the Word, through their personal experience in applying the Word and living those concepts. And that is the way that it is supposed to be.

People's understanding of the Law of Love today is different than it was five, ten, fifteen or twenty years ago. At different times and to different people the learning process will be manifested in different ways. And undoubtedly, as time goes on, there will be different experiences that will further enhance your understanding and application of the Law of Love, as you learn to be even more loving and sacrificial in practicing it. Very often your understanding of concepts is tempered by your experiences, and as you learn more you are able to apply things in a more complete and well-rounded fashion. It takes time to not only learn things but also to learn to integrate them properly into your lives.

The ultimate goal is that My great and all-encompassing love will motivate you in all that you do, as you lay down your life daily for Me and others, with real love that loves others with true impartiality, whether it be by helping them with their kids or extra chores, or by showing them the physical affection that they might need, or by showing them love by being a shoulder to cry on, or someone to listen to them, as the case warrants. True fulfillment of the Law of Love is being what I need you to be for others. Learning these lessons is an ongoing process and one that you will all be learning until you come Home to be with Me. Even then, you will grow and learn new aspects of this powerful weapon. ⁽³¹⁾

I'll help you to see more with the eyes of the Spirit. I'll fulfill your desire to be more sacrificial, to be more giving. Because of your willingness, yea, even your desperate, driving passion to live in the center of My Law of Love, I'll help you by making it easier for you.

It won't come all at once, but I'll give you opportunities to grow and to reach your goal. Don't get discouraged if you fall at times, or if you fail the opportunities that I put before you, for there will be many, and each will be a steppingstone of love. I'll be there for all who truly desire to live and breathe My Law of Love, and I'll help them through each attempt to do My will.

Little by little you'll find that the longing in your heart for the happiness of others is growing. You'll learn to joy in the love that I'm able to impart freely on all through My many vessels--sometimes through one and sometimes through another, but all with the same love--My love.

I promise you happiness! I promise you victory! I promise you all the love that you need, and more! I promise to be there with you, to never leave your side. ⁽³²⁾

(Dad speaking:) This is the test run! This time of learning to live the Law of Love is the proof of the pudding, and you're going to be able to fall back on that in the days ahead, when you will be able to comfort others with the comfort that the Lord is pouring out on you now. This is it!--My dream come true! So please, dear Family, don't give up the fight now.

Keep climbing up! Keep holding tight to each other! Keep praying together. Keep leaning on each other. Keep relying on each other. Keep strengthening each other. Keep reaching out and lending a helping hand to each other. Keep holding each other up. If one falls, pick him up, help him dust off, lock your arm in his, and keep walking on. Keep loving and caring and sharing one with another. Keep rising above the petty nagging little struggles of daily life, and forge ahead! Don't despair!--But if you do, fight on in the face of despair. Keep tapping into the power and tuning into the whispers. Keep on keeping on! Don't stop! Don't quit! Keep fighting on!

Keep that old Devil on the run! Keep the love flowing through you! Keep praising and loving the Lord. Keep pouring out to others. Keep hugging, keep caressing, keep touching, keep loving! Keep a soft heart but a tough spirit. Keep showing outgoing concern for others. Keep lending a listening ear and giving understanding to those in need. Keep showing love and compassion to those who are failing. Keep reaching out, that others may feel your love. Keep spreading the Lord's healing touch. Keep spreading hope to those you meet. Keep raising a standard against the evils of this day. Keep breaking down the walls and breaking the chains of conformity. Keep storming the gates of Hell and keep chasing away those dark clouds of gloom and doom!

Keep loving Jesus, keep loving each other, and keep living the Law of Love! The Family needs it, you need it, I need it, and the world needs it! Keep yielding and letting the Lord love through you. Don't just read about it. Don't just talk about it. Do it now! Keep spreading His healing balm to others and to the world. Keep loving everyone He brings across your path! Don't miss one chance. Don't let one golden opportunity pass you by. Keep on loving and ushering in the Kingdom of God. ⁽³³⁾

Dad on the Law of Love

Taken from Dad's writings in the old Letters

When the self-righteous, hypocritical, religious leaders questioned Jesus, "Master, which is the great commandment in the Law", He replied, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." (Mt.22:37-39)

He then shocked them by continuing to say, "On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets." (Mt.22:40) They had thousands of religious laws but Jesus told them that they now only needed two: Love God and love others! That's all! He said, "In this is the whole Book!" He threw the Book at them, all the Law and all the Prophets, the works!

Jesus said that this one simple law, love, is all the law as well as all the prophets! That's pretty broad coverage! That takes in the entire Old Testament, "The Law and the Prophets"! Jesus said that's the whole works, the whole Bible, that's all the Law, Love! In other words, if you love God and you love others, what do you need with any other laws? You're not going to hurt anybody, you're not going to be selfish, you're not going to do anything that will hurt anybody else!

Therefore Jesus' law of love frees us from the old law and is all-encompassing, all-absorbing, all-fulfilling and completely above and beyond any other law! God's only Law is Love, and as long as something is done in love with real, unselfish, even sacrificial love, God's Love, then it is absolutely lawful in God's eyes; no matter whether it seems a sin in the eyes of the church or immoral in the eyes of man, it is still absolutely innocent in the eyes of God if it's according to Love!

The Bible says, "The fruit of the spirit is love; and against such (love) there is no law." (Gal.5:22,23) Against pure love, the Love of God, the unselfish sacrificial Love of God and your fellow man, there is no law of God!

Jesus said, "I am not come to destroy the law or the prophets, but to fulfill!" (Mt.5:17) And by fulfilling it, He ended it, therefore we are no longer required to keep the Laws of Moses of the Old Testament! "For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone that believeth." (Rom.10:4)

By the old law, God showed man that he couldn't make it on his own. By His new Law of Love, God showed that He was even more righteous than the old Law, He had even more love and more mercy, and that now you must have more love, more goodness, more righteousness--more than justice, you must have mercy.

Jesus said to the self-righteous hypocritical religious leaders, "Go ye and learn what this meaneth: I will have mercy and not sacrifice!" (Mt.9:13) In other words, God's idea of righteousness is not the self-righteous, holier-than-thou hypocrite who tries to earn merit with God through dutiful, sacrificial keeping of the Law. God's idea of righteousness is just the opposite! The pitiful, helpless, lost, humble, loving, sinful sinner who knows he can't make it on his own and knows he needs God and His grace and mercy!

Through God's law of love we are freed from the bondage of the old law into total and complete freedom of life and liberty through love! It's the liberating Law of Love that gives life, not the enslaving "letter of the law that killeth"! (2Cor.3:6) "There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death!" (Rom.8:1, 2)

God's grace through Jesus' law of love is the end of the old law! Paul preached sermon after sermon and wrote letter after letter showing that the old Law was finished, it was done with, period!--The Mosaic Law is done away with for the Christian who is living under grace and under the Law of Love! "Now we are delivered from the Law, that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.--Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the Law!" Now "all things are lawful" to those who are living under God's Law of Love! (Rom.7:6; Gal.3:13; 1Co.6:12)

The ten commandments are no more to the followers of Jesus! Hallelujah! God only has one law now: The Law of Jesus, the Law of Love, "to love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and thy neighbor as thyself." (Mt.22:36-39) Of course this infuriated the Jews of Jesus' day and their religious leaders, who said of His doctrine, "This is against Moses and against the Law!" (Acts 6:13, 14; 21:28)

This was the most raging controversy between Jesus and the Jews! It was also the most raging controversy between Saint Paul and the legalists, the "conscion", the converted Jews who said, "Yes, we now believe in Jesus, but we still have to keep all the old Law, we still have to keep the Ten Commandments, the Mosaic Law, the Sabbath, etc." (Phil.3:2)

And we still have many Christians with us today who are just like those legalistic conscion members of the early church.--They're not completely enlightened, they're still partly in the dark, they don't realize that Jesus is enough, that His light is sufficient, that His Love is all we need. The trouble with them is they're so ingrained with that old "Judeo-Christianity" that they're still preaching the Mosaic Law with one hand while preaching Christ with the other!

But according to Jesus himself and every book of the new testament, God's children today are no longer under the laws of Moses! We are under grace and under Love! For us the old Law is gone forever! Thank God! We now only have to keep God's Law of Love, His only Law, Love! For the Laws of Moses are no more to the believer in Jesus! We now only have the Law of Jesus, God's only Law, Love!

"For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself!" (Gal.5:14) "Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets!" (Mt.7:12) We are to "owe no man anything, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law!" (Rom.13:8) If you have love, you have everything! You are fulfilling all the laws of God!

God's only law is love! There is now no other law, no Mosaic laws, no church laws! Those laws don't exist as far as we're concerned! They are only to regulate the ungodly, as He says in 1Tim.1:9, and by which the unrighteous who are violating God's Law of Love will be judged.

"God is love" (1Jn.4:8), and for those who are filled with his spirit of love, love is the only rule! "For if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law!" (Gal.5:18) If you love one another, anything the Lord leads you to do is perfectly lawful in the sight of God. As long as whatever you're doing is in love and not hurting anybody, how can you go wrong? "If ye fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself, ye do well." (Jam.2:8)

"Whatsoever you do in word or in deed, do all to the glory of God!" (Col.3:17; 1Cor.10:31)--That's our rule, God's rule. What are the greatest commandments?--"Love God with all your heart, love your neighbor as yourself!" If it lives up to those rules, then it's for the glory of God; and if you love the Lord and you love your neighbor and it's for love and in love and has good loving results, praise God!

Therefore whatsoever you do in the unselfish sacrificial love of Jesus is right and lawful! Whatever you do in love is the law and that's all, that's it! God's only Law is Love! We are totally, utterly free of the old Mosaic Law! We are delivered from the old Mosaic Law and no longer bound by it--we are free! Now all things are lawful to us in love, praise God! As long as it's done in love, it keeps God's only Law of Love!

Knowing this, realizing this and practicing this of course gives us a lot of freedom. But in another way, His Law of Love is the most binding law of all! Because God's Law of Love not only says you can't steal, can't kill, can't do this, can't do that, etc., but that you've also got to love everybody, which is one of the hardest things of all to do!

So in many ways the law of love is even stricter than the Mosaic law. The Ten Commandments said that we were just to do that which was just and righteous, but under Jesus' Law of Love we are to do more than justice and righteousness, we are to have love and mercy.

Love is more than righteousness, and mercy is greater than justice! So the Law of Love is greater, and we are to be more kind and more forgiving. In the Mosaic Law there was virtually no forgiving and it was "an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth"! (Ex.21:24; Lev.24:20) The Law said that if you knock out my eye or my tooth, I'm allowed to knock out yours!

But Jesus says, "Do unto others what you want them to do to you", (Mt.7:12) not just whatever they do to you, but what you want them to do to you. This is love. Jesus went right down the line in Matthew and said, "In the Law it is written so-and-so, but I say unto you" and He told them something entirely different! He said, "But I say unto you, love your enemies, forgive them!" (Mt.5:38-44) That's the Law of Love! Which shows it's even greater and stricter than the old Mosaic Law!

Jesus' law is much stricter, much more difficult to keep, in fact, impossible! If the old Law was impossible, Jesus' Law is even more impossible! That's why He says, "Without Me, ye can do nothing!" (Jn.15:5) But He also says that we "can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth us." (Phil.4:13) For "His grace is sufficient for us, His strength is made perfect in our weakness!" (2Cor.12:9)

You can't possibly keep his law of love unless you're saved and you have Jesus in your heart, the Spirit of God's Love within you, to give you the power and the strength to love others more than you love yourself, to "love your enemies, to bless them that curse you, to do good to them that hate you, and to pray for them that despitefully use you and persecute you." (Mt.5:44)

We have to receive Jesus first, then his spirit in us will cause us to do the humanly impossible: love God and man, thus fulfilling "all the Law and the Prophets"! Praise God! We have a truly graceful salvation and a graceful life of love for the Lord! Full of grace! It has nothing to do with our own sinlessness or any kind of perfection or self-works or law-keeping of our own. We all make mistakes, we all sin, and any righteousness we have is only the grace of God! It's only His Love and His mercy and His grace!

So as the apostle Paul said, for the loving, liberated followers of Jesus, "all things are lawful to us, but not all things are expedient!" (1Cor.6:12) We have been freed from the bondage of the old Law and the condemnation of sin by the liberating Law of Love in Christ Jesus, and if what we're doing is in love and not hurting any innocent party, then it is perfectly legal according to God's Law of Love.

Of course most churches and churchy Christians today would say, "well, 'all things may be lawful' under Christ's law of love--except, ahem, anything to do with sex!"--Because the churches have declared almost everything that has anything to do with your body or sex or self or pleasure as illegitimate, illegal, immoral and irreligious!

But "all things" being lawful for his loving, believing, law-of-love-following children includes sexual freedoms also! As long as what we're doing is done in the unselfish, sacrificial Love of God! According to the Scriptures, there is no longer any law against sex that is done in love, God's Love, and hurts no one: It is not sin, neither adultery, nor fornication!

After all, what was the idea and purpose of the old mosaic law against adultery?--Even behind the old Laws there was the Love of God and His desire to keep people from hurting each other and damaging each other either physically or otherwise, even their feelings. So if we're keeping God's Law of Love then we'll try not to hurt anybody, we'll do our best to try to live in love, to help people without hurting them.

This is the difference between lust & love: Lust is merely gratifying your own greedy selfish appetite, like eating a meal. You may need it, but if you're stealing it from someone else and taking the food out of their mouth to stuff your own, this is selfish lust, not love! But if you are taking the food out of your own mouth and giving your own meal to satisfy and feed another who is hungry and starving and needs it desperately and might not survive without it, this is real love.

It's all really judged by your motives, by your heart. God now only judges us according to whether we have love, or selfishness and lack of love. If you know you're acting in love, then you can go ahead by faith according to God's Word and you don't need anything else. If it is in love it is lawful as far as God is concerned. ⁽³⁴⁾

The Devil hates sex, and yet he's got the world deceived into thinking that he loves it, and in order to enjoy it they've got to love him! What a lie, what a deceit, what a doctrine of the Devil! It's just almost unbelievable how screwed up and twisted the World has gotten over just one thing--sex!--One of the most wonderful creations of God, the most thrilling of all physical experiences, and even spiritual!--The one physical activity that actually is the most marvelously creative of all and will actually create another human being, it creates life!--And yet they just despise it and deplore it and demean it and degrade it and make it illegal!

As far as God's concerned there are no more sexual prohibitions hardly of any kind, except he sure seemed to hate sodomy and I don't see where He withdrew that. ... God's only law is Love!--And I'll tell you, it's dangerous because the System sure hates it, and the System's laws and everything are geared against sexual activities of all kinds and types.

If it's not of faith and it's not in love, it's sin!--Even if it's right! Even if it's not wrong! Even if legally, technically, according to God's Law of Love it's really not wrong and could even be right, it's wrong for you if you haven't got the faith for it and if you haven't got the love for it! My Lord, how totally messed up the World is! So totally messed up that anybody who wants to fight for openness about sex in any way, legally or in literature, art or anything, has to be very very careful they don't violate the System's very strict rules about sex.--All because of that basic fundamental doctrine of the devil that sex is basically primarily evil!--All sex but System-married sex. All sex but that which is declared legal by the System, the System is in control and you do what they say.

Sex has become the Devil's own tool, and he stole it from God! He literally hates it, but he uses it for his own glory and his own purposes, trying to destroy mankind when, it was intended to be man's greatest pleasure and his greatest enjoyment in the physical. The Devil has made it his greatest sin and his greatest violation, his greatest transgression, and even claiming that that is what caused the Fall of man in the Garden of Eden! What a lie! What a God-damned lie!

God made them male and female, not the Devil! God blessed them and said, "Be fruitful and multiply!"--in other words, "Go to it, start fucking!--Right out here in the open, in public, in the Garden, on the grass!" I suppose some narrow-minded blue-nosed church people would say, "Oh yes, but that's before sin entered in. That's before they discovered sex and how wicked it was!--And after all, that was also really in private because there wasn't anybody else around yet!" Boy oh boy oh boy! It makes me so mad!

The thing that makes me mad is that man has allowed the devil to deceive him like that and has been such a stupid idiot as to believe the Devil's lies that sex is evil and sex is the worst sin of all and must be the most prohibited. The Devil would certainly like to prohibit it completely if he could, and he has restricted it so that things have not moved as fast as they should have.

What a doctrine of the Devil that sex is wrong! Virtually almost all forms of sex are wrong as far as System laws, except a little tiny minuscule percentage of legalized sex that you've got to go through all kinds of laws and ceremonies and expenses and everything to finally get around to the marriage bed!

They make a great big thing out of it and it costs money and is expensive and a man's practically got to mortgage his life away to a woman in order to get it legally--especially the more religious the country, whether it's Christian, Jewish or Islamic! The more religious it is the more religious its government, and the more religious its laws, the more prohibitive they become of sex!

It just shows you that the world's greatest fiendish devilish religions are the tools of the Devil!--The more religious they are the more they prohibit sex, showing how he hates it! He really hates sex and all of his Systems hate it, and all of his laws fight it. The Devil hates sex! And of course as long as people believe their laws and believe the Devil and believe his church doctrines, denying and against sex, as long as they believe that and then they break them, then it is a sin for them. If they think it's a sin, it's a sin! If they believe it's a sin, it's a sin to them--even if it's not in the eyes of God!

The Devil hates sex, and he's made the system hate it and prohibit it and make it a crime!--Which shows his biggest victory was his propaganda victory, just like it was in the Garden of Eden. What was his biggest victory there? What made the sin possible, not sex, but her disobedience to God and taking of the forbidden fruit, which was not sex. It was the knowledge of Good and Evil, whether it be sexual or otherwise, that's what was the sin, and the major sin was disobedience.

But the thing that led to disobedience and the worst sin of all was unbelief!--Unbelief in the Word of God and believing the lie of the Devil, that was her first sin that led to the action. Her first wicked, horrible, heinous sin was the sin of the heart and of the spirit of unbelief, which of course then led to faith in the Devil and his lie. That is the sin for which God holds the World responsible. That's the major sin, the cardinal sin. It's not all these other things that the Devil and the World and the System call sins.

The major sin is unbelief!--rejecting the Word of God and believing the lying propaganda of the Devil! That was his major victory was to slither in and slink around and lie his slimy lies, and her biggest stupidity was to believe him, that was the worst thing of all! Whew! That's the worst sin of the World, is that they would believe this!--That they would reject the Truth of God and believe the lies of the Devil, that sex is sin!

They reject the truth of the natural laws and processes of God and natural decent healthful sex, and believe the God-damned lies of the Devil and his System, and make it all as illegal as they can & prohibitive as they can! And so to the people, like Eve, who believe his lies and disbelieve God and His Word and His natural laws, of course then it becomes a sin because they believe the Devil's anti-sex lies and propaganda. So their God-damned fiendish devilish demon-inspired System makes laws and persuades the government to make laws against it because they're persuaded it's wrong. Think of it, how the Devil hates sex!

I mean the only way you can possibly regain the freedom and the liberty that Adam and Eve had in the garden and the total freedom from guilt and any guilt complexes about sex, is to find God and the Truth of God and have the Lord and be led of His Spirit and to know the Truth of the Word!--That all those Mosaic laws and prohibitive laws and strict regulations are all gone and totally superseded by the Love of Christ, the Law of Love, that as long as it's in Love it's legal with God!

Man has almost made the whole system so that almost everything in love is illegal. What a mess the God-damned System is in! The only way you can get back to freedom--the freedom of the Garden, the sinlessness of the Garden, the perfection of the Garden, the liberty of the Garden, openness of the Garden--is to get back to perfect fellowship and relationship with God and belief in His Word, faith in Him and faith in His Creation and obedience to the Lord's law of Love! ⁽³⁵⁾

We, who are Christians, who have God, who have his love, are no longer under the law. But the sinner who is unsaved, who has rejected Jesus Christ, who does not have God and hasn't got God's Love in his heart, he is still under that law. That's the difference!

The unsaved are still subject to the laws of the Old Testament and the Mosaic Law!--God's rigid strict hard laws of old. They're still subject to those laws because the law, it says as plain as day, is for the ungodly, for the unrighteous and for the lawbreaker! (1Tim.1:9.) So he's still under the law.

But we are free from the law because we have learned love now, which is greater than the law. We have learned love. We have learned to love. We have received love from God, we have love, and this frees us from the laws of Moses. (Rom.8:2.)

If we have love, God's love, and we do everything we do in love, that's better than the law. It covers a lot more territory and is much more strict, but much more sacrificial, much more unselfish than simply obeying the old Mosaic Law just because you want to stay out of trouble or you don't want God to punish you.

Jesus' law of love frees us from that law and is all-encompassing, all-absorbing, all-fulfilling and completely above and beyond any other law. Therefore God's only law is love, and as long as something is done in love, with real unselfish, even sacrificial Love, God's Love, then it is absolutely lawful in God's eyes. No matter whether it be a sin in the eyes of the church and a crime in the eyes of man, it's still absolutely innocent in the eyes of God if it's according to love, amen? So thank You Jesus, amen.

That's the law, God's law, Jesus' law--love! God's only law is love, against such there is no law, amen? You just read it in the Bible. Don't start in the Old Testament though, start in the New Testament, and particularly in the Epistles you'll find it.

In a sense Jesus himself was still under the old law, so you cannot even go just by what He said to them about the law. At that time they were still not saved, they were not yet under grace. They were still under the old law and they still had to keep it.

It wasn't until Jesus paid the price on calvary, so that God could give the pardon, that we received grace and mercy and forgiveness and His Love--not until then. So the people Jesus was talking to were still under the law. (Jn.1:17.)

Some of his disciples were beginning to learn what the law of love meant. He was trying to teach them the new way and the law of love. According to the old Mosaic Law they were compelled to worship at the tabernacle, or the temple or Jerusalem. But when the woman at the well said,

"well, our fathers say you ought to worship here, and your fathers say you ought to worship there." He said, "The hour cometh when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem worship the Father. But the hour cometh and now is when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in Spirit and in Truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship Him." (Jn.4:20-23.)

In other words he was saying the time has come when it doesn't matter a damn bit where you worship, here or in Jerusalem, in church or out of church, in the nearest bar or bawdy house, as long as you worship God in your heart, in spirit, and in truth, in love in other words. That's the kind of people God wants to worship Him, not those who simply worship Him according to law or church rules or the old Mosaic Law or in Jerusalem or at Mecca or anyplace else.

Where God wants people to worship him is right where they're at all the time, and that's in their own hearts and their own spirits and in truth.--Not in a bunch of lies, but in the truth of God and His Word, and that's love. God's truth is Love, praise God? So that's it, that's the law--love. "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself."

If you love your neighbor as yourself, you'll put yourself in his place, and wonder how you would feel if you were there, and wonder what you would want and need to have fulfilled, amen? "Neighbor" doesn't just mean the one that lives next door, it doesn't even mean just the one you were dancing with or the one closest to you.

What did Jesus say when his critics asked him, "but who is my neighbor?" You talk about legalists, they want to know exactly, technically, who's my neighbor? In other words, "Tell me exactly who I have to love, so I know who I don't have to love."

That's when he gave the example of the good Samaritan, the Samaritans whom the Jews hated. If they even touched a Samaritan they'd have to wash afterwards! They wouldn't even go the shortest route to Galilee which was right through Samaria, they went clear across the Jordan and clear around it just to keep from going near the Samaritans.

Jesus told them the story of a Samaritan who helped a poor beaten up Jew who'd been robbed. He picked him up and bound his wounds and took him to a hotel and paid his bill.

Jesus said this was a good neighbor, a Samaritan who was good to a Jew, how about that? In other words He was as good as telling the Jews, "Listen, you know who your neighbors are. Those Samaritans up there in Samaria, the ones you hate and you won't even touch and you won't even go near and have nothing to do with, they're your neighbors. You better get busy and love them!" (Lk.10:29-37.)

So your neighbor is anybody that needs your love--anybody--even if he lives halfway around the world. If he needs your love and God's Love, then you ought to give to the missionaries who are going over there trying to save him. He's your neighbour, he lives in this world somewhere.

He may not live next door, but if he lives on this earth he's your neighbor, so you're responsible for him. And you're certainly responsible for those who are right around you and near you, that's for sure!--So are we. That's why we love them because God's only law is love and it supercedes all other laws. You are living in love, and you are working in love, and loving in love.

The law still exists for others who are still under it because they don't have love. But those who have love don't need it, and they're no longer under it. If your every action, every thought, every word, every deed is guided by love, motivated by love, ordained by love, you couldn't possibly do anything wrong. (Titus 1:15.)

True love can do no wrong, so how can it be under any law? How can it be against any law? He says, "against such there is no law!" (Gal.5:22-23.) Against such love there is no law, so how can anything that you do in love be against the law?

It may be against man's laws and church laws, but it is certainly not against the law of God! It may even be against social laws and customs and society's rules and mores, but it's not against God's laws.

As far as God is concerned there's no law but love--except for the sinners who are outside of love and outside of faith and do not have God and reject Christ, they're under the old law. Let me tell you, they're plenty under it, and will be condemned by it and judged by it and go to hell by it! But not we who are believers and Christians and have faith and have Jesus Christ in our hearts and God and His Love.

We are not judged by the old law--we are judged only by love.--How much love we have and how much we give and how much we share. God will judge us by love in His mercy and not by the law. He will judge us by only one law, the Law of Love, the only law of God! ⁽³⁶⁾

The scripture warns us that "whatsoever is not of faith is sin!" (Rom.14:23)--"If you think something is a sin or you believe it is unlawful, then to you it is sin and unlawful! An awful lot has to do with your own spiritual and mental attitude. It's all in how you approach things and whether you do things by faith in love, "faith which worketh by love", as the Scripture says. (Gal.5:6)

"Hast thou faith? Have it to thyself before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth." (Rom.14:22) It'll make you happier if you're not doing things about which you feel condemned or guilty or have a guilt complex, things that you're not sure are right. In fact, if you're afraid maybe it's wrong, then it is wrong for you!

But a lot of people don't have faith for certain things because they don't want to have faith for them. People who are weak in faith are usually weak in the Word, because "faith cometh by hearing the Word of God!" (Rom.10:17) The only reason the Word and reading the Word doesn't give some people faith for things is because they have rejected the Word and refused to receive it, and therefore refuse to believe or obey it!

But if you want to believe and receive the truth and revelations and freedom that grace gives, read back over the Scriptures presented in this little lesson and ask the Lord, "Open Thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of Thy Law!" (Ps.119:18)--His Word will give you faith!

However when reading through the New Testament, you'll find that even Paul and some of the Apostles still had a few old legalistic hangovers, some of their old Judaism and Jewish "old wine" that they just couldn't quite dump! (Lk.5:37-39)

Of course Jesus, in his life and ministry, was very free and he broke the mosaic and Jewish traditions time and time again. But you can see by some of Paul's writings, because of his love for the Jews, (Rom.9:3; 10:1) which led to his final compromise with them (Ac.21), and a few other things that he wrote a lot of things trying to keep the people out of trouble, to solve a lot of marriage and sexual problems, etc., he wrote his advice on what to do and how to do it, which bound them with a lot of Pauline Laws, most of which were not very free!

And even when you read some of the things that Jesus said, you need to remember to whom he was talking, the Jews and what Law they were under then, the Mosaic Law, that He was trying to preach that which they understood and trying to convict them with their own Scriptures, their own Law.

Remember also that he was still preaching and living under the age of law before the age of grace had actually been fully ushered in by His Own death on the cross for our Salvation. The Scripture says that Jesus "blotted out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us (the Law), which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to His cross." (Col.2:14) It was on the Cross, at the very end of His ministry on Earth, that He proclaimed, "It is finished!" (Jn.19:30)

As we explained in the beginning of this lesson, each age or generation of the church has taken another step or some new step toward freedom from the harsh restrictions of the Law to the total freedom of love through the grace of God, from material symbolisms and mechanized ceremonialism to spiritual realities and total spiritual liberty.--"The spirits of just men made free!" (Heb.12:23)

And although the church has been going by Paul's rules and their own traditions for ages, God has finally broken through in the spirit to us with his last-day message! We are God's last Church, the last step in God's progress toward total freedom for His Church and the last chance to prove that the ultimate Church can be trusted with total freedom in this last generation!

We are in a new day, a new time, and God has given us his Word for this day and this time! And just like the Early Church and the dawning of the Christian era was a total change and totally outdated, outmoded and overthrew the legalism and bondage of the Mosaic era, so we today are having to cast away all of the old legalistic traditions, conventions and holier-than-thou self-righteousness of the church system today. It's like a whole new dispensation of grace!

We have had special direct revelations from the Lord which have shown us that some of these activities which most Christians would call sin or sinful are covered under grace and the Love of God! Therefore we have totally broken with the churches' traditions and preconceived ideas about God and misconceptions of morality. We have turned completely around and are going in a different direction, no longer their way but God's way, and we are free to enjoy to the full the beauties and wonders of His Creation with all of its pleasures, which He Himself created for our enjoyment!

Through Jesus and his salvation and the freedom of his spirit, by the grace of God, we have regained the liberty and the freedom of the garden of Eden! That's the only way anyone can really get back to such freedom, the original freedom, sinlessness, perfection, liberty and openness of the Garden, by first getting back to perfect fellowship and a relationship with God and belief in His Word, faith in Him and in His Creation.

The only way you can possibly regain the freedom and the liberty that Adam and Eve had in the garden, the total freedom from guilt and bondage to the Law, is to find God and to be led of His Spirit and to know the Truth of His Word! All those old Mosaic Laws and prohibitive laws and strict regulations are all gone and totally superseded by the Love of Christ, the Law of Love! That as long as it's in love, it's legal! ⁽³⁷⁾

We are the last church! We are God's last Church, the last step in God's progress toward total freedom for His Church and the last chance to prove that the ultimate Church can be trusted with total freedom in this last generation!

Each age or generation of the church has taken another step or some new step toward such freedom from the harsh restrictions of the law to the total freedom of love through the grace of God; from material symbolisms and mechanized ceremonialism to spiritual realities and total spiritual liberty--"the spirits of just men set free!"

"For where the spirit of the Lord is there is liberty"--total and complete freedom from the bondage of the law into total and complete freedom of life and liberty through love!--It's the liberating law of love that gives life--not the enslaving "letter of the law that killeth."

This last generation of the church will probably have as much trouble in handling such freedom as did its first generation! It's like giving a growing child a little more liberty at each new stage of development, a little more complicated and possibly even more dangerous toy, ushering in a new stage of growth and responsibility to see if he can be trusted with it. If he uses it wisely, he'll be given more. If he plays with it foolishly and dangerously it may be taken away from him, as Paul had to do with the Early Church.

It depends on your spiritual strength and maturity, trustworthiness and especially the ultimate in total unselfish and sacrificial love--the true Love of God! Have you got that much love? Have you got enough love to be trusted with enough liberty to live life to the full?

The answer is up to you: Can you handle this new toy safely so as to bring joy and pleasure to yourself and others around you without endangering anyone or harming anyone or infringing on anyone else's freedom and others' rights?

Can you be trusted with it, or will you abuse it and use your liberty as license to do wrongfully and lustfully instead of rightfully and lovingly? Will you use it to heal and help, or harm and hinder? The answer is up to you: Are you so ruled by His Love that He can liberate you from the rules, or do you have to be kept under the law of works because you cannot be trusted with the liberty of His grace? The answer is up to you!

If you are strong enough in spirit and filled with his love, you can be trusted with his liberty as a useful tool to help others. But if you are weak in the flesh, full of selfish lust and play with it foolishly like a dangerous toy, it will only harm yourself and others and hinder the work of God.

Who has the most love?--to whom can we give the most liberty?--the lion or the lamb? Will you follow the Shepherd as a lamb into ever greener pastures and be content to enjoy all things at His hand?--Or will you rage as a ravenous beast, a loosed lion preying upon the lambs themselves and devouring and destroying the flock?

Are you a lion or a lamb, a wolf or one of the flock? Will you feed and follow and love and lamb together with the Shepherd, or will you rage and devour and tear and destroy and scatter the flock and drive them from the Shepherd's fold?

The answer is up to you--whether you have the lamb-like gentle loving nature of the Shepherd Himself, which loves, rescues, helps and heals and truly cares for the sheep; or the evil wolf-like nature of the Destroyer who rends and rips and gnashes with his teeth, only to selfishly destroy, devour, harm and scatter the flock. The answer is up to you!

Can you be trusted with total life, love, liberty and the freedom of the spirit, or do you have to be kept in the cage of the law for the transgressors who are ruled only by their own carnal lusts and lack of love? The answer depends on you and whether you can keep the rules of love to enjoy such liberty that brings such life!

As in marriage and all other social relationships with each other, God's laws of love are still the same:

1) Is it good for God's work?

2) Is it good for His Body?

3) Is it good for You? Does it glorify God, His Body and edify your own soul? Does it help someone and harm no one? Does it help you or someone else to do a better job for the Lord? Do you even need it for your own good? These are questions you will have to answer yourself and before God and others, and you may need counsel in answering them.

Any variation from the norm of personal relationships, any substantial change in marital relationships, any projected sexual associations should have the willing consent of all parties concerned or affected, including the approval of leadership and permission of the Body. If this is lacking in any quarter and anyone is going to be harmed or unduly offended, then your action is not in love nor according to God's law of love!

"Love doeth thy neighbor no harm," for "thou shall love thy neighbor as thyself": this is God's law of love! "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." "Against such love there is no law." This is the Lord's law of love. Obey it and you can have total love, life and liberty in the Lord. These are God's conditions.

Are you doing it because you want to unselfishly and sacrificially help someone else who really needs it, and by which you can show them God's Love, or are you doing it selfishly and unlawfully, not in love for others and God, but merely "to consume it upon your own lusts"?

This is the difference between lust and love: Lust is merely to gratify your own greedy selfish appetite, like eating a meal. You may need it, but if you're stealing it from someone else and taking the food out of their mouth to stuff your own, this is selfish lust, not love! But if you are taking the food out of your own mouth and giving your own meal to satisfy and feed another who is hungry and starving for love and needs it desperately and might not survive without it, then this is real love.

"Greater love hath no man than this: that a man lay down his life for his friends." "Therefore we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren." Are you willing to lay down your life--or even your wife--for a starving brother or a sister?

Are you willing to give till it hurts, even until it hurts you?--Jesus did: He gave His life! God did: He gave His Son! David did: He said, "I will not give unto the Lord of that which hath cost me nothing!"--He gave until it hurt! God gives His Wife, the Church, continually in loving service to others! She is constantly engaged in trying to woo and win the world!

Are you willing to give that much if needed? Are you willing to suffer to save others?--To offer your life or your wife or be offered as God's Wife or both? They said of Jesus: "He saved others, but Himself He could not save!" This is true: "Except a grain of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die it bringeth forth much fruit."

Are you willing to plant your seed into the furrow of the body of God's Earth, His Wife, His Church, that it may be warmed by the sun of His Love, refreshed by the water of His Word, and bring forth much fruit? As it is with the spiritual, so it is with the physical, and that's the final test:

Does it bring forth good fruit--either spiritually or physically or both? "For by their fruits ye shall know them." Does it bring forth the "fruits of the Spirit: love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance"? (Gal.5:22,23.) Or does it even bear your own good fruit of another new soul for the Kingdom of God?

Is it good for you, others, and his kingdom and does it bring forth good fruit for all? It is not always easy, and sometimes it hurts you!--I know, because I've done it, and I have suffered the agonies of Gethsemane over it, and the agony of God seeing His little lamb crucified on a cross for the salvation of others! But it was worth it! "For afterward it yielded the peaceable fruit of righteousness to them which were exercised thereby." Godly hurt, sacrifice and suffering to help others are good for us.--It's the harmful hurt to others that does the damage. That's the difference between selfish lust and sacrificial love! Can a couch be your cross?

For, as Jesus said, "if any man would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me." (When hiking, that bed roll you carry on your back could become your cross!) "For whosoever saveth his life (or wife?) shall lose it, but whosoever loseth his life (or wife?) for My sake and the Gospel's, the same shall save it!" Have you really forsaken all for Jesus and others?

Are you really sharing unto the uttermost? Are you really sacrificing and dying daily that others may live? Is this too much to ask? Are you strong enough to give it? Are you free enough to live it? Do you love enough to lose it?

For "all that believed were together and had all things common!" "Neither called any man anything his own, but they had all things common!" That is the ultimate ideal in total sharing, total giving, total forsaking all, total freedom, total living, total loving and total liberty in the total love of God!

Can you handle it? Can you make it? Are you revolutionary enough? Can your bottle take it? We shall see! "He shall not suffer you to be tempted above that which you are able to bear, but with every temptation will make a way of escape!"--The choice is up to you!

"Choose ye this day whom ye shall serve": If the love of "God be God, then serve Him!" If the lusting bondage of Baal be your god, then serve him! "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord" in His labours of Love forever!--Amen.--How about you? ⁽³⁸⁾

If we have real love, we can't face a needy situation without doing something about it. We can't just pass by the poor man on the road to Jericho! We must take action like the Samaritan did! (See Luk.10:25-37.) The Church System today says, "Oh, I'm so sorry, how sad!" But compassion must be put into action! That's the difference between pity and compassion: Pity just feels sorry; compassion does something about it!

We must demonstrate our faith by our works, and love can seldom be proven without tangible manifestation in action. To say you love someone and yet not try to help them physically in whatever way they may need--food, clothing, shelter, and so on--this is not love! True, the need for real love is a spiritual need, but it must be manifested physically in works--"faith which worketh by love!" (Gal.5:6).

For "whoso hath this world's goods, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth!" (1Jn.3:17,18).

However, we feel that the greatest manifestation of our love is not the mere sharing of our material things and personal possessions, but the sharing of ourselves and our personal services for others, which is our faith, and which results in our works and the sharing of our material possessions. Jesus Himself had nothing material to share with His disciples, only His love and His life, which He gave for them and for us, that we too might have life and love forever!

For "greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends!" (Jn.15:13). So we consider that the sharing of ourselves, our love, and our life with others, is the greatest of all sharing and our ultimate goal. ⁽³⁹⁾

More on Living the Law of Love Fully

(All prophecies are Jesus speaking unless otherwise indicated.)

Behold the love that I have given unto the children of David, that they can share My love freely, one with another, to find great joy therein, great happiness, great fulfillment, that they may know the ecstasies of the flesh and the ecstasies of the Spirit. So have I used My David to free you from the bondage of the System, from the [religious] laws of those who stifle, who say that which I have made is bad, when I say unto you it is good. For it is of Me and I have made it and I have given you these sensations of the flesh that you may know joy, release, relief, happiness and closeness one to another. I do not mean this to be a burden, but a blessing, a strengthening, a unifying factor, a measure to draw you close one unto another, to unite you together as one, as one body, as one bride, as one marriage. ⁽⁴⁰⁾

Your prophet was a pioneer. He hacked out of the wilderness some of the basic concepts and truths upon which My world is founded, and in order to do so he had to buck a tremendous amount of pressure of preconceived ideas and mindsets that have ruled the earth since Lucifer and Baal began with the first cover-ups.

David simply took you back to the Garden of Eden and uncovered and made known the fact that love is pure, pure, pure. It was a pioneer effort, and who else had ever done such a thing with such clarity and such pinpoint accuracy, in the face of so much opposition? No one, let Me tell you--not with the truth, clarity and preciseness of your Endtime prophet, My mouthpiece whom I used to deliver into your hands, My Endtime children, the truths that I wanted you to live by. ⁽⁴¹⁾

(Cathar speaking:) We were with your Father David from the beginning, instructing him and helping him and giving him courage and strength to stand strong against the status quo; to stay dropped out and revolutionary and radical and extreme; to be the iconoclast that he was!

We were helping and observing and supporting and directing and encouraging him, because we knew how important it was that he received the revelation of the Law of Love, and that he stayed strong in his conviction, and that he'd be faithful to pass it on to his children, who he knew would receive it, believe it, act on it and live it.

We knew that David's children would live it as we lived it. We knew that your parents were searching for a life of happiness, freedom and love just as we were. We knew their hearts were soft and tender to Jesus' voice, and they were willing to give anything that He would require of them so that they could be closer to Him and have more of His love, more of His Spirit, and more of His freedom; so that they could please Him and obey Him. We knew their hearts had this receptive soil to receive these precious seeds of the truth of God.

Some of you may see this Law of Love, this freedom of love as a small thing, insignificant in your eyes, but we know how important it is! We know that it is a key in the Endtime events. Therefore this truth and this light must be preserved in all of its purity.

It is better that there be a few children of David who are willing to live this truth completely and wholly than many children of David who live it only halfheartedly or not at all. For it is not in the numbers that there is strength, but it is in how each one lives the truth of the Words of Jesus and the Words of David.

Your key place in the Endtime is dependent upon your faithfulness and loyalty to the truth. You have been given so much truth, and it is your responsibility to stand strong for that truth--to protect it, to speak it, to live it and to let it be a testimony, even if it costs you your life. For when you receive the truth wholeheartedly you will grow to love it, and then you will know that it is worth it to give your life for the truth, for this precious, precious freedom of love that Jesus has given you in these words of the Law of Love, in these words of your teachers and your faithful shepherd David.

As you receive it and as you live it, you will grow to love it, and then you will see how important this is, that this very freedom, this very Law of Love is what makes the children of David what they are. For there are many, yea, multitudes who are willing to love Jesus. There are many who are willing to praise Him and worship Him and even tell others about Him, but there are so few who are willing to live His love to the full and be a testimony of His love and an example of His Law of Love--living love to the full, loving even when it hurts.

This is the truth that the Enemy hates the most, and for this reason he is doing everything in his power to destroy it. So take up this truth and eat it and receive it and cherish it in your heart. Do not let the Enemy steal this treasure that has been given unto you from the hand of David and the hand of Maria. For you have been more blessed than any people on the face of the Earth because of this abundant truth. So take it, receive it, cherish it and love it!

There will come the day when you will die for this truth, just as we did. But there will also come the day when you will rise again in victory and you will go on to your reward, just as we did! And then you will know that it was worth it, that you made the right choice in living your lives in love.

So live in love! Love and live! Love and serve Jesus! And eventually you will die for love, but you will rise again to love forever in His Kingdom of love!⁽⁴²⁾

One of the foundation principles that I've given to the children of David through their father is the Law of Love. This is a unique and precious treasure that few understand, and even fewer have ever tried to live. The message of the Law of Love is one of the things that has set the children of David apart from others who believe in Me, and even serve Me, preach the Gospel, hear from Me in prophecy, exercise the gift of healing, and believe in the nearness of the Endtime.

So very, very few Christians understand, believe, and are willing to accept to live My Law of Love fully. That's because people today, even many of My Own children, have made a god out of their own bodies. Many have set sex and marriage even above Me. They're self-righteous, thinking they know better, and they've withheld from Me these things which are precious to them. They've set these things apart; they've not allowed Me to touch them. They've not been willing to share them or set them on the altar of sacrifice.

Many of My Christian children in the world have given Me their hearts in part, their lives in part, their service in part, their testimony in part. But so very few have been willing to give Me everything--even their marriages, their bodies, and their sexual practices. They're so foolish, so weak and immature. Just like little children, they have so little faith, and so they keep these things to themselves.

But the children of David are strong in truth. Much has been given to them that has not been given to any others. But there is much confusion, many unanswered questions, much negative talking behind closed doors--doubts, murmurs, accusations against this beautiful Law of Love which I have given to the children of David.

Many of the younger generation do not understand, and they've made other commitments and what they consider "moral decisions" that are not based on My Word. They see what they consider the mistakes of the past and of the first generation, and they've determined in their hearts that they will not be guilty of the same; yet they're foolish in that they have thrown the baby out with the bath water.

They've become blinded to the beauty and the good of sharing with others under the Law of Love because they've dwelt solely on the negative and listened to the lies of the Enemy. They've become confused and deceived. They need to be instructed with the pure water of My Word, and to be strengthened in the meat of My Word, that they might accept, believe, receive, and live the truth that has been entrusted into their care.

Many of those of the first generation have also become embittered due to past experiences, or they've become lazy and indifferent to living the Law of Love fully. They too need to be challenged, for it is through living the Law of Love fully that the living of the "One Wife" vision is possible. Without strong belief in the Law of Love and understanding of it, how can you believe and understand the "One Wife" vision, the truth of your greater marriage? Therefore much reassurance, instruction, encouragement, and a strong challenge needs to go out to both generations to once again kindle in their hearts and minds faith in the Law of Love and a desire to live the "One Wife" vision.

So much of what hinders the unity of the Family today is because of a lack of living the Law of Love and the "One Wife" vision fully. If there were greater love, concern, and faith in these areas, then there would also be greater care for the single mothers and their children, greater sexual freedom, less ostracizing of some, and fewer cliques. There would be a much greater willingness to love without partiality, to help each person to feel a part of the Family, the Home, the love, the unity, the oneness.

It's so very important that each of My children feels needed. This is such an important aspect of unity, because it is the source of much personal happiness in the lives of each of My children--the feeling that you belong, that you're needed, that someone cares, that your gifts or talents or contributions are worthwhile.⁽⁴³⁾

Many of the problems with lack of unity are rooted in selfishness. Many of the roadblocks to unity are rooted in selfishness--whether it be an unwillingness to live together with others communally, or a lack of care for the single mothers, or a lack of sexual sharing and caring for those in need.

To live together in unity, to love others, to live the "One Wife" vision, to care for the single mothers, their children, and your peers, requires great, great unselfish love. It's a sacrifice. It's giving. Oftentimes it hurts. It's death to self. But this is the very heart and soul of a missionary. For if you're not willing to love and care for and give of yourself for your own brethren, those who are by your side who love Me, those who have chosen to serve Me and who are in need, then how can you say you love the lost? In fact, if you cannot love your brethren in need whom you have seen, how can you love Me whom you have not seen? Or how can you love those who you seek to save and minister to, those who are full of so many more weaknesses, problems, sins, and evil ways?

Loving your brethren and caring for those in need is an exercise in humility and love. It's the way that I have provided to keep your hearts soft, to keep you malleable, moldable, and fresh in the spirit. If you're pouring out day by day, caring for those in need in your own Home, your own brethren, then you'll be much more willing and ready to care for those in need who are lost--the unsaved, the unlovely, the ungodly children of the world.

Though your brethren have many weaknesses or NWOs that bother you, get on your nerves, or test your patience, they love Me and have given themselves to Me. Many have served many long, difficult years as faithful missionaries, faithful voices for the truth, and it is the least you can do to love and care for and do all you can to understand and sympathize with and meet the needs of these who are heroes and heroines in My eyes.

But little by little, through selfishness, you've hardened your heart to the ways of love that are the foundation of living the Law of Love and the "One Wife" vision. Little by little, day by day, you've stepped ever so slowly, but ever so gradually, away from the essence of My truth and the purity of caring for your brethren. Slowly, selfishness has seeped into your thoughts and your lifestyle. Even many of your decisions have been based on selfish goals, concerns or desires.

Selfishness is the way of the world. The people of the world are experts at living selfish lives--putting themselves first. But if you are to be the testimony I want you to be, then you must not only seek to put Me first, but you must also put the needs of others first, and this requires unselfishness that is borne of My Spirit. It's a miracle of My Spirit. For when you're selfish, you're full of self; but when you're unselfish, you're full of Me and My truth and light and Spirit. ⁽⁴⁴⁾

When I ask My children to live the Law of Love, I am asking that you take on My very nature. This is the nature of love--love that does not seek her own or think evil; love that does not rejoice in her own, but rejoices in truth; love that rejoices in the happiness and joy of others.

My Spirit longs to take you further! This is the whole idea of taking these extra steps--to bring My children further along--to bring them closer to living My total love.

Those who would fully live the Law of Love, I ask to forsake their own ideas, their own assumptions and false notions, their own feelings--and put on My garment of love. As My children go farther, as they launch out and take these extra steps of love, they will receive greater blessings of love. They will then know and experience the ecstasies of love, the thrills of true love, the full blessings of love.

This is the goal, the thrust--to go further in love. I wish to take My Family higher. I wish for you to reach the heights and experience the thrills and glories of true, lasting, unselfish love.

Oh, if My children could only see the thrills, the glories, the joys, the delights that await them in the realm of true, free, lasting love, they would not hesitate, they would not pull back or refrain from fully launching out in love today!

Do not judge from the standpoint of a carnal mind. Do not stagnate through lack of launching out, or from fear of going farther. I ask you not to look at what is, but at what can be and should be.

The one who obeys and launches out and takes these steps, who follows through in faith, will receive the blessings of love. Part of these blessings are the joy and fulfillment of knowing you have yielded your all to Me and that I love another through you. There is no greater joy than to fully live My Law of Love. As My children learn and grow, as they reach out and take steps of faith, they will then begin to experience and know that greater blessings come in taking the extra step. ⁽⁴⁵⁾

There is such a great, great need for love in My Kingdom. So many of My children are starving for love and affection, the touch of love of My Spirit, the feeling of My unconditional love. And as I have said, one of the easiest and best ways that I can show this to My children is through another, through the warmth of touching, and words of love, and comfort and encouragement, through caressing and kissing and touching and being close to another. So to fulfill this great, great need of love, I have opened a door that is easy to pass through. I have made it easy to obey, I have made it easy to give, I have made it easy to share love.

At this point in time, because of the great need, it is more important to Me that you have the faith to give of yourself and show love in whatever form, rather than to hold back for fear that you would conceive a child. It takes faith to be willing to conceive a child under any circumstances, but it also takes faith to give love even if you're not willing to give of your body completely. If you're at least willing to give in some way to fill the need of another, then I will count this as righteousness, I will count this as fulfilling My Law of Love. I will count this as perfect faith, because the need is so great and because My desire for you to give love is so great.

I know that the giving of love and sharing of love will cause many to blossom as they will feel once again the warmth of My Spirit and the security of My Love. It shall bear great fruit for My Kingdom, and for this reason I am giving this special dispensation of grace. For this reason I am winking at your unwillingness on one side because of your willingness on another side. So give freely of My Love. Give in faith without condemnation, without worry or fear, but give freely of your love to meet another's need, knowing that I am well pleased with this gift of love and I am well pleased with this step of faith.

I have allowed this special dispensation of grace not only for the benefit of the married ones, but also for the benefit of the unmarried ones. For there are those [singles] who desire to receive love and to be comforted and to be close to another, but they do not desire to be beholden or attached to a married couple. They are seeking for their companion, their other half, their mate. In the meantime, they don't mind receiving comfort and love from another, but their desire is not to be in a threesome or to be attached to a married couple. They seek their own mate. And so I have allowed this dispensation of grace not only for the sake of the married ones, but also for the sake of the unmarried ones, that they might be able to receive the love and comfort and warmth that they need without fear." ⁽⁴⁶⁾

Living the Law of Love in its totality is the ideal goal that I have given the Family. I do expect everyone to be able to give a clear, resounding "yes" when asked if they believe in the Law of Love, if they uphold it, if they accept the principles and will stand up for them and the teachings.

The main thrust of the Law of Love covers all the loving, kind, helpful, sacrificial, Christian interaction that you have with your family, friends, and the world around you each and every day. I have commissioned you to be a sample and testimony of My love to all those around you. You are meant to live the Law of Love in every single thing that you do, and this is conveyed through your Christian testimony and My love that shines through you.

The sexual side of the Law of Love is also part of living the overall Law of Love, although it is a smaller part. As I have told you, this particular freedom and gift is a special one. It is strong meat, and I have given it to the Family because you have given your all to Me. I have given it to the Family because you are willing to receive the radical truths of My Kingdom, and you are willing to live these truths. However, I do not force it upon you.

Living the sexual side of the Law of Love brings with it many blessings. It melts your hearts together and brings unity. It provides the needs of your brothers and sisters, and it is a small repayment to Me of the ultimate sacrifice I gave to you--that of laying down My life for you on the cross. I gave My life, and all I ask of you is that you give part of your life and time to help fill the needs of your fellow Family members. At times, this need can only be met in loving and sacrificial giving, through sharing your love and intimacy with another.

If you are struggling with the thought of living the sexual side of the Law of Love and you don't feel you can practice it yourself, please don't feel condemned or guilty. I do not require each of My children to have total faith for living the sexual side of the Law of Love. However, I am calling all towards a greater and fuller living of the Law of Love, which includes the sexual side. I long for everyone to seek Me, to hear from Me, to heed My whispers, should I call them to give to someone and fill their needs. But it is not a requirement. It is not a must.

I do require you to believe the Law of Love, to uphold it, to stand up for it, and to be continually striving to live it more fully. I require you to be making steps of progress, of yieldedness, of commitment, of dedication, of sacrifice. These are all vital to living the Law of Love in its totality. This is My greatest wish and desire. These steps are what I ask of you.

If you feel that you cannot live the sexual side of the Law of Love at present--you feel it's too difficult, you don't want to give in that way, it's too much to bear, you don't have the faith for it, you don't feel ready for it, and you're fearful about what repercussions it will have in your life--My dear bride, let Me tell you how I see things.

I understand that you may not feel you are able to give in that way now. It can take time to adjust to giving of yourself in a new way that you're not used to. It can take time to be strengthened in faith. It can take time to stretch your muscles in this way. It can take time to let Me work in your heart and life, and give you the faith that you need. But you don't need to worry about this, because I have My hand on your heart and life, and I'm teaching you, showing you new things, and bringing you along. You only have to do two things--yield and remain open to Me.

I don't hold it against you if you don't have the faith to live the sexual side of the Law of Love. I still love you and you are still My Own. I still want and need you in My service. I still hold you close to Me. Don't let the Enemy condemn you over this and lie to you.

The truth of the matter is that if you are yielded to Me and are willing to let Me work in your heart and life, and if you are open and receptive to My Word and do not close yourself off to My truth, I will teach, strengthen, and lead you along to the point of faith where you will be able to step out and live the Law of Love in its totality. It may take time, but I will not push you beyond what you have the faith for. I will lead you along gently.

You may be thinking, "But I know I'll never be ready! I know I'll never have the faith to live the sexual side of the Law of Love, or to share my girlfriend/boyfriend with someone else! I don't want to!" Even if you feel this way now, that doesn't mean you'll always feel this way. There are hundreds of people just like you who once felt this way, but who are now happy and content in living the sexual side of the Law of Love. They went through the same struggle that you're going through now, but they held on, they trusted Me, they believed that I would pull them through, and they waited. They stayed open and yielded to Me, and when I spoke to their heart about taking a new step in their lives, instead of fearing and worrying about what it would lead to, they followed through on what I had asked of them. They took it one day at a time, one step at a time, and consequently they gained faith, trust, and experience. And now they are firm believers in all aspects of the Law of Love.

The same thing can happen to you. I know you don't want it right now, but it's still the truth. You may not want to change in this respect, because right now it looks so unappealing to you. You don't want to even allow yourself to be placed in the position where you might have to change. If you feel this way, call on the power of the keys for faith and trust. Rebuke the Enemy and the negativity and fear he's trying to flood your mind and heart with. Then you must fight and resist him, and refuse to give place to him.

Actively strive to build up your faith in the Word. Believe the New Wine I'm pouring out, and even if you can't yet live the sexual side fully and you're still building up your faith for it, do what you can and take the steps you can. Do what you have the faith for. Ask Me what steps you can take to increase your faith and give you more understanding. Ask Me for the gift of peace that passes all understanding.

Leaping over this hurdle is just the same as any other hurdle that you have faced in your life. It's the same process--yieldedness, trust, faith, and prayer. Now you have the added power available to you through calling on the keys, and you also have My reassurance that I will lead you gently and I won't put a step in front of you that is higher or harder than you can take. I have the victory for you, and I want to give it to you. And in this case, victory means obtaining the faith, conviction, desire to please Me, and the peace in your heart to enact what I ask of you. Victory doesn't mean that you'll feel forced, pushed, or dreadful. When the victory comes to you, you'll be thankful for it. It will still involve giving and sacrificing, but you'll have the faith for it. So that's the kind of victory you can look forward to and seek after, by simply doing the following things:

- 1) Stay open and yielded.
- 2) Be receptive to My Word and the New Wine.
- 3) Call on the power of the keys for understanding and peace.
- 4) Pray for increased faith; actively strive to build your faith muscles.
- 5) Ask Me to show you what steps you can take, so that you are making progress.
- 6) Don't reject the truth of the Law of Love in its totality; don't close yourself off to the sexual side or say that you'll "never ever be willing to live it."
- 7) Read the Law of Love series, and review My counsel and guidance about how it is to be lived.
- 8) Resist and rebuke the Enemy's lies. Ask for My mind on the matter.
- 9) Take it one day at a time. Trust Me to work in your heart and life, to mature you and bring you to a point of faith.

Now read over that list again, and at the end of each point, ask yourself if you can do those things. Can you commit to doing each of those things? Are you willing to? If your answer is yes, then you will progress and grow into living the Law of Love fully. You may still have your worries and fears, and you may not have faith for it today, but if you said yes to the above questions, then you're in the right place and you don't need to worry or fear about living the sexual side of the Law of Love. It will come in time, when you're ready, and when I've brought you to the point of full faith.

If you fall into this category, then you must do your part by following the above pointers. Hear from Me about it regularly, and don't shut it out of your life. Continue to let Me speak to you about how you can live the Law of Love more fully, how you can give, and how you can progress spiritually. If you are open to Me in this way, I'll bring little things into your life that will help you to be strengthened and to become the man or woman of God that I want to make you into. ⁽⁴⁷⁾

All I ask of you, My precious brides, is the willingness and commitment to keep trying. I don't expect perfection. I only desire the willingness in your heart to do My will, to keep moving forward, to keep taking steps in the right direction, to make an effort to live My Law of Love in its entirety. I don't demand perfection. In fact, I expect that you'll make mistakes and you'll often fall short of the goals that I've laid before you in My Word. I know that you're only human, and that you're bound to make mistakes and even feel that you don't have what it takes.

My precious loves, all I desire from you is your willingness and your determination not to give up. You don't have to have everything in your life perfect in regards to living the Law of Love.

You feel like you're at the bottom of a very high ladder, and you've only barely begun the climb. You want to live the Law of Love and you've tried, but it seems like your failures have been much more frequent than your successes.

I know the feelings of your heart. I know that you want to give your all to Me. It is your desire to give your all to Me and your desire to keep moving forward and changing which is your salvation. All I desire is your willingness to obey, and your subsequent steps to obey, no matter how small.

Even if you feel like you're not making much progress, and may even wonder if you're a hypocrite because you feel so far behind and almost incapable of living the Law of Love, you still have what it takes if you're willing to keep trying.

For a long time you'll do more things wrong than right. In the beginning, more things will seem to go awry, and they may seem to outweigh the times when you feel like real fruit has been borne from living the Law of Love. But if you keep fighting and keep trying and keep taking little steps in the right direction as I lead you, you'll begin to do more right things than wrong things. You'll start to have more happiness instead of sadness, more victories instead of problems. The victories will overcome the battles, and the successes will override the times when you fail.

It doesn't matter how many problems you feel you have. It doesn't matter if you feel like a spiritual baby in living the Law of Love. It doesn't matter if you get discouraged and feel like giving up because you feel like you're not attaining, that you're not going to make it. The Enemy's going to try and get you to do just that, because he hates you, he hates My Law of Love, and he hates you living it. He's out to destroy you and your usefulness to Me, and he'll use any means possible.

Don't allow him to convince you to give up by condemning you for your failures and for the mistakes that you make and the battles that you have in living the Law of Love. He wants to make you believe that you can't make it, but I want to convince you and promise you that you can! I won't promise smooth sailing and that all the problems will vanish, but I promise that you can live it if you want to live it and if you determine in your heart that you're going to live it--for Me and others--come what may, through thick or thin, with battles or without.

As long as you're willing and have a believing heart and make a commitment to Me, I can help you. I don't guarantee an instant victory, but I do guarantee that you will reach a point of great victory if you choose to hold on. What you feel is your weakness--your inability to live the Law of Love--will become your strength. I will use it in your life to strengthen you, not to defeat you. I will use it in your life to keep you moving forward and changing

Don't let the Enemy turn the powerful steppingstone of the Law of Love into a stumbling block! Don't let him convince you that you haven't got what it takes, so you might as well give up. He knows you do have what it takes, and that's why he's trying with all of his power, with whatever means possible, to get you to turn back instead of using this steppingstone to go forward to greater heights with Me. He knows the power you'll receive through living My Law of Love--through the lessons of great worth that you learn, the experiences that bring wisdom that will last for eternity, and the blessings that I bestow upon you for your willingness to follow My radical truth.

Even if you feel that you haven't attained or that you're doing poorly in applying the Law of Love in your life, if you want to live it and if you're committed to living it, then you've got what it takes and I will bless you for it.

You're not being a hypocrite, because you're willing to keep moving forward and to keep trying. That's the kind of fighter I need, those who keep going no matter what, those who never say die, those who never give up, My revolutionary brides of the End! ⁽⁴⁸⁾

(Dad speaking:) I understand that some of you may not have the faith for sexual sharing right now. The Lord takes you where you're at if you truly believe and accept the doctrine in your heart. But it is something to be praying for more faith for. It's something to study up on, to ask the Lord about personally, to receive His Words about so that He can strengthen your faith, so that He can explain any questions you might have about it and dispel any lies of the Enemy.

I urge you to ask the Lord about it, because maybe what He's asking of you isn't as much as you're expecting of yourself. Maybe what He wants you to do is much easier than what you think He would ask you to do. Or, if He does ask you to do something difficult, He'll give you the grace for it, and will make it easier than you thought it was going to be.

The Lord never gives us more than we're able to bear. So go to Him about it. It's between you and Him. It's something that you have to make the decision about yourself.

But please ask the Lord about it. Ask Him what He expects or wants of you. What He has in mind or is asking you is likely very attainable, because the Lord will start you out slow and easy. Maybe there are other aspects of living the Law of Love that He wants you to practice right now, rather than the sexual side. Then, as you become stronger in living it overall or in those other ways, you will gain faith for the sexual aspect.

It's only when you close yourself off, when you say, "I'm not going any further, I can't and I won't," that you start to lose the Lord's blessing and you can miss the mark. As long as you're open and willing to take it one step at a time with Him, you can't go wrong. He knows you so well, He loves you so much, and He'll bring you along at the pace you can safely walk. Okay?

So often the Enemy tries to condemn us for all we're not doing. He throws the whole book at us, trying to convince us that if we're not doing it ALL, we might as well not do ANY. What a lie! All Jesus asks is one day at a time, one obedience at a time, one little willingness to ask Him and then take that one step at a time. It's so much easier than you think, if you break it down like that and just handle it as it comes, as the Lord asks it of you. Because remember, He'll never give you more than you can bear. So don't let the Enemy scare you into quitting! I love you! ⁽⁴⁹⁾

It takes time to learn to live the Law of Love fully. It takes continued love--love that is willing to keep loving, keep going, keep sharing and keep caring, even when things don't go smoothly. Even when things get rough, and tempers flare, and people get sensitive or hurt; even when the heart aches, feeling misunderstood; even when people act cold or reserved, real love keeps loving. That's the kind of love that My Law of Love is made of.

Oh, the power of love! It has great power and it cannot fail. But it also takes patience and communication and faith in each other. If feelings have been hurt, it takes patience, communication, faith and prayer to bind up the wounds and restore the spirit of love. It's all part of the Law of Love--learning to communicate, learning to pray together, learning to forgive, learning to keep having faith. Love is a sacrifice, but with such sacrifices I am well pleased!

But remember, you can't do it by yourself. You can't do it just by trying real hard. You can't do it alone. You need Me and My power. The more time you spend with Me in sweet, heart-to-heart communion, the more time you spend in My Word, in prayer, in praise, and loving Me, the more I am able to give you the power and spirit of My love. I am able to give you all that you need to be My vessel of love. ⁽⁵⁰⁾

Oh how My children can love one another with My Love, if they would but receive My Love for one another. If they would but understand that it is My Love that they are pouring forth to one another, then they would not hold back but they would give. They would give and they would give some more, for they would understand that they can be vessels of My Love. They can be Me loving one another!

Why would they hold back? It would no longer be a matter of the flesh, but it would be a matter of the Spirit. They would no longer look with eyes of the flesh and say, "This one does not appeal to me." But they would say, "I can be Jesus and His Love to this one." Handsome or homely, it makes no difference. They could say, "This one will be Jesus loving me."

It gives a whole new outlook on that special gift that I have given unto you, that gift of love, My precious Law of Love. For I have delivered this unto you and I have given your David the understanding of this precious love and this precious law. And he, through the Words that I have given him, has freed you from the bondage of the flesh into the freedom of the Spirit!

This is the freedom that I give unto you, and this is the knowledge that I give unto you, that you can be My Love to each other. When you hold each other you can think, "This is Jesus holding me." When you kiss each other, you can think, "This is Jesus kissing me. I am kissing Jesus." When you caress one another, you can say, "Jesus is caressing me. Thank You! Thank You!" And will you not show great gratitude unto him or her that is the vessel and vehicle of My Love unto you?

Can you see how wonderful My Love is?--How I can enhance your lovemaking? For I am Spirit, but you are only flesh. But as you praise Me and as you thank Me, and as you love Me, and as you call for Me, and as you love one another in Me, so do I come and so do I empower you, and so do I give special love unto you. It is yours if you will but humble yourselves. Humble yourselves before Me and humble yourselves before one another, for in humility is great love. In this humility is My Love and the rewards of My Love and the passion of My Love, and the Spirit of My Love. For I am Love.

The love of the flesh is only a small part, for the love of My Spirit is so much greater, and you benefit so much more! For you are given golden seeds! You are given seeds of the Spirit, and these seeds bring forth fruit.

So hold not back. Hold not back one from another, but look at the gift that I have given you in a new light. No longer feel, "Oh, I must just share with this one or that one." But look at it and say, "This is the Love of Jesus for me." Or, "I can be the Love of Jesus for him."

I call unto all of you and I say, Come! Come! Come! Be My Love one to another. Come, come! Come and love Me! Love Me together! Come! Come! Come! Humble yourselves. Humble yourselves before the mighty hand of God. Come, come, come! Let Me empower you with My Love. Come, come, come! Let Me empower you with My Words and the power of the Words of David, the power of the Words of God, that you may be empowered with the power of My Word and empowered with the wonderment of My Love.

So give, give, give unto one another! Love one another! See Me in one another! Treat one another as if you are speaking to and treating and talking and touching and loving and kissing and interacting and feeding and encouraging and strengthening Me. For I dwell in each of you, and My abode is there, My Spirit lives within the tabernacle of your body. Therefore I am in each of you, and that which you do to the least of these your brethren you do unto Me, whether for good or whether for evil.

Thus look at one another as My Love and look at one another as Me. Therefore love one another, for by this shall all men know that you are My chosen ones, My called-out Church. For you are the Children of David! ⁽⁵¹⁾

I'm preparing My children to be a window to My Spirit, a window to My love, to show the world the true beauties of Godly, loving sex, and normal, natural, loving, affectionate relationships without the worldly spirit of the Enemy.

The sexual nature of the Loving Jesus revelation is important, because the Devil is against Godly sex, good spiritual sex, and is trying to destroy it. He wants to destroy people's belief and participation in any form of Godly sex. He would pervert that which is good and persuade people to follow him and his manner of destructive, selfish, lustful, perverted sex--even Satanic sex.

Only those who are strong in the spirit and strong in My ways, strong through practicing loving Me intimately and living the Law of Love, will be able to instruct many in the days to come. Many will be confused through the powerful influence of the media, through the testimonies of the Devil's children, through the laws of man, through the Antichrist spirit which will influence the world. They will not clearly see right from wrong and will need a standard bearer. They'll need to see clearly what you, the children of David, can show them through your untainted beliefs in truly loving sexual experiences, both with one another through normal sexual relationships, and with Me in the spirit.

Though the world might think it strange that you have sex with Me in the spirit and that you declare this openly, the day will come when many will turn to you for anything that is pure and that is from Heaven. When they see the destruction that the Antichrist will loose upon the Earth, they will turn to those who have spoken of loving sex with Me and with each other, seeking an escape from the Enemy's perversion and horror. Many will believe, and many will receive the good and the truth.

Practicing loving, Godly sex is a yielding to My Spirit. It's humbling, surrendering, and yielding yourselves to one another and to Me. The more My children yield and surrender to one another, the more I will use it to help them to continue to yield and surrender to My will. It helps My children to stay soft and flexible in My hands, as a piece of clay that I can easily shape and mold according to My will, because they've been under the sweet heat of My love, the loving heat of sex and lovemaking in the flesh and in the spirit.

Sex is more than a physical thing; it's also a spiritual thing, and the spiritual dynamics of sex are good for your spirit. This is why the Enemy fights and wants to discourage and destroy Godly sex, because he wants to control people's spirits and minds and draw them to follow him. That's why My children have a very powerful tool in their hands through the Loving Jesus revelation, through living the Law of Love, and through upholding Godly sex. They have the spiritual weapon of a close connection with Me and each other, the powerful tool of humility, yieldedness, and affection, which will help them to stay clean and pure in spirit, separate from the spirit of the world. It's from Heaven and carries the spirit of Heaven, and one day the world will see clearly and recognize the spirit of Heaven that you carry with you--beautiful, clear, simple, loving, giving, humble and yielded. ⁽⁵²⁾

Life Without Living the Sexual Side of the Law of Love

(Dad speaking:) Some of you seem to think that everybody would be better off if the sexual freedom of the Law of Love were done away with or curbed. Boy, oh, boy! Some of you guys really have no idea what you're saying. You wanna know something? The Law of Love is something that's much easier to justify by Scripture than is the concept of not living it! What do you think of that? Jesus Himself said, "All the law is fulfilled in this: Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." That's what it comes down to. That's what the Law of Love is.

Okay, so some might say that's fine and good, but why does that have to include sex? It doesn't really. You can follow Jesus' teachings to some degree without involving sex. Or, some say, even if the sexual part of the Law of Love is "lawful" in God's eyes, it isn't "expedient," and it's messing up people's lives and marriages. Well, I grant you, life could be somewhat "simpler" without the sexual freedom the Lord has given us, but if you really think about it, I don't think you'd trade in all the benefits.

So, let's take a look at what life would be like if we didn't have the Law of Love. Well, basically we'd be like most church Christians. We'd abide by the rules they abide by. We'd abstain from all sex outside of marriage. Of course, they don't all necessarily "abide" by their own rules these days; but if they don't, they're in most cases suffering terrible guilt and condemnation because they believe they're sinning against the Lord.

In just about every religion, premarital sex of any kind is considered a sin. How would you like to live under those rules? Do you even think it's right that people make a commitment to live together and love each other forever without knowing if they like having sex together? It sure doesn't make much sense. My goodness, no wonder so many marriages don't last! That might seem a very "carnal" viewpoint, and you might say that if you really love each other it doesn't matter, or you'll find a way. But let me tell you, when you live with someone day after day, night after night for years, sex does matter.

Think about all the singles, all the people who don't have a special someone, and who maybe never will, or not for many years. Should they be condemned to lives of abstinence? Without the Law of Love, they would be. That's what the church teaches! Why do you think so many people are sick and tired of religion, soured on anything churchy or Christian or Jewish or Muslim or whatever? It's because religion and restriction are generally synonymous!

There are hardly any outfits in the world that believe both in Jesus and in sinless sex!--Meaning that there are hardly any people in the world, especially religious people, who can enjoy sex without feeling guilty if they're not married! Maybe some of you think that is the ideal, that the world would be more innocent and pure if everyone lived by those mores. Well, in some ways it's true that the world's standard has gone down, and the way society has become more tolerant of less responsible sexual behavior has led to more irresponsibility and more immorality. It's true that people are less considerate and careful in the world at large when it comes to sex. They have less regard for the consequences because there aren't really any consequences for anything, legally speaking.

But think about it: If you could choose to either live a religious life where you believed sex before you were married was a sin, or if you could live a "secular" life without God or faith, just to feel you had that freedom to have sex, what would you choose? Tough choice, huh?

Another sad thing is that even the people who don't consider themselves religious or "churched," don't have the freedom to have sex without guilt. They still for the most part feel terrible about it. They feel it separates them from God. They feel they don't even have a chance. Many even leave the church or neglect their faith because of it. There are a few individuals here and there who realize that the Lord loves them no matter what, or even who believe and understand that sex is a gift of God and to be enjoyed, whether you're married or not. But they are few and far between. And even if they believe it, they're hard pressed to find a partner who shares both their faith in the Lord and their faith to do those kinds of things without considering it wrong.

The Family without the Law of Love would mean that all you kids would have grown up being taught that sex was a sin, hounded and watched by your parents to make sure you weren't having any, and then entering your post-teenage adult life desperate as hell to find someone to marry so you could have some sex! Meanwhile, you'd be dating here and there, like the System Christian young people, trying to find that someone, and you'd be so frustrated, so distracted.... In many cases you'd probably end up leaving your service for the Lord so that you could get some sex, or going ahead and doing it and feeling terribly condemned. It would steal your joy of the Lord and your pleasure in living for Him.

If you've grown up with that freedom all your life, as most of you have, you have no idea how restrictive and confining it is to not have it! Not only the freedom to have sex, but in many cases even the freedom to be alone with someone of the opposite sex. Or to do something like have a party where you dance with everybody, even other people's boyfriends or girlfriends, husbands or wives, would not be an option. You would either have your boyfriend or girlfriend, and maybe some sex on the sly, or nothing at all; or maybe you'd be going behind someone's back with their boyfriend or girlfriend, maybe behind your best friend's back, and feeling horrible about it.

Some of you would probably be always on the verge of ruining your friendships, because those kinds of things, in the world at large and especially in any Christian community, are just not done. And if they are done, they are not talked about. And if they are talked about, it's big trouble!

On to marriages: If there was no Law of Love, you'd be having sex with the same person for the rest of your life once married. Okay, if you love them, admittedly that's not so bad. People have done it for thousands of years. But have they really? I'd venture to say that probably less than half of the couples who have ever married throughout history have been faithful to their spouse and only their spouse for their whole life.

It's not just the stuff of movies and novels to have affairs and extracurricular adventures. It's life. God created people to have emotions as well as physical sexual needs, and there are always going to be other people besides your husband or wife who you are going to find yourself in intimate situations with and/or be attracted to. I'm not saying that it's always good or right to follow your impulses, and certainly the Law of Love would not be worth it for the sake of that freedom only.

I'm just saying that's what happens everywhere in the world, in the Family or not, and the big difference is that in the Family, because of the Law of Love, you actually have the training and knowledge of how to handle it right. Plus, you don't have to face condemnation for the rest of your life over it. I mean, really, in many people's minds having an affair outside their marriage is comparable to stealing or even killing someone! That's how condemned they are. That's how convinced they are that it's wrong. Is that right? Is that kind of self-righteous, condemnatory, legalistic, restrictive mindset something you would want us to live by?

Without the Law of Love our Homes would be missing out on a great deal. Your interactions would be sadly lacking. Even the "innocent" giving of frequent hugs, putting your arms around each other, holding hands, all of that would be taboo.

Without the Law of Love you'd have a lot of single people in the Family, people who really want to serve Jesus and who are willing to give up a lot to do that, suffering unnecessarily. You'd have people starved for love, for sex, even for simple tender affection. You'd have people going without, being discouraged, feeling unloved, and in a lot of cases probably marrying the wrong person just because they needed someone to have sex with.--Or leaving the Lord's service because they just couldn't take it. Lord help us!

You know, that did happen a bit at the start of the Family. The Lord hadn't yet revealed the Law of Love to us, so we abided by the usual rules of most Christian groups when it came to sex. You didn't have it until you were married, and that was that. People were willing to do it, to make that sacrifice, and the Lord allowed them to be tested in that way. But some just couldn't take it; it was too hard. I think a lot of them would not have lasted that long, or would have become very unhappy and even bitter if things hadn't changed at some point.

The Law of Love is one of the cornerstones of our radical beliefs that sets us apart from the church, and there is no way we are going to leave it behind, say it was wrong, or discontinue believing and practicing it! Yes, there are potential problems with the kind of freedom that it allows, and, yes, there are times when we need to clarify things or provide guidelines. That's what that 12-part GN series on the Law of Love was all about. There are a lot of misconceptions about the Law of Love, but if you read through that series with an open heart and mind, I dare say there is not a single one that won't be cleared up. There are problems that result from the Law of Love, but as Maria and I must have said a million times, those problems are not the fault of the Law of Love--they're the fault of people practicing it improperly or neglecting to truly walk in love. They're the fault of people not living the Law of Love.

The Law of Love is a beautiful gift of God! It is the means by which we have the freedom to enjoy loving, Godly sex, with or without being married, and within and without our marriages. It is the means by which we are able to dedicate our lives to the Lord and serve Him full-time and be able to have loving fellowship, affection, and care, whether or not we ever find a mate to share every part of our lives with. It is the means by which we are able to care for our single parents and meet their needs. It is also a means by which we are able to expose the hypocrisy of the church system--all those people who either say they don't do it and are lying, or who are living in guilt and condemnation, or who are so God-damned self-righteous about their sexual morality that they're practically no earthly good to anyone else.

God deliver us from that sickening spirit of self-righteousness! That's really what it is when people go around saying that "the Law of Love is the cause of all the marriage problems in the Family." "Why don't we do away with the Law of Love and have monogamous relationships?" God help us!

Then there are some people who think that it's fine to have that sexual freedom for singles, because they "need" it--but not for married people. But where do you draw the line? You can't really draw it too clearly at any point because there will always be a valid reason to stretch it a bit further to cover all the possible needs that arise. There are so many scenarios, especially in a missionary movement as diverse as ours. There are singles who live in a Home where everyone else is married. How would they manage? There are married people who have chosen to stay together for the sake of their children, but who, with the consent of their spouse, have agreed they have a need for sexual companionship outside of their marriage.

Then there's the bottom line, and that is the fact that the Lord blesses married couples giving and sharing and opening their lives to others, according to His leading and as outlined in the Law of Love Letters. That's the crux of the matter--that the Lord intends for everyone to share and give, as He leads, and though married and deeply in love and committed to each other, God blesses couples giving and sharing with others. You can never lose by giving in love--that's God's law, and it applies to everyone, married or single!

There is enough hardship and difficulty in serving the Lord and communal living without us having to ask people to do without sex--which is something that the Lord never said we have to do. Already there are girls in places where there are no guys around, or singles in places with no other singles around, and these people make tremendous sacrifices and sometimes don't know if they're gonna make it. There's only so much we can do, and there are some rules we have to have for now, like not having sex with outsiders. But the least we can do is make allowance to meet these people's needs from within our own ranks! The least we can do is make it as easy as possible for them to get what they need. We owe it to our brothers and sisters who are in need to meet that need--and without the sexual freedom of the Law of Love, that would not be possible.

Well, meditate on these things. Ponder. Reflect. Think about your life, and think how different it would have been or would be now without the Law of Love. I don't mean think about all the bad stuff and the times you were hurt or hurt someone. I know that's true in many cases; I don't deny it. But I believe if you would think about it in the big picture and scope of life, you'd probably realize that in some of those cases the hurt could have been far worse without the Law of Love; or in some cases the consequences of living without the Law of Love would be so dreadful that the complications or hurts seem far preferable.

I know that's a bit of a generalization and it won't apply to every case. Nevertheless, the fact is that with or without the Law of Love, people will have sex and they will have it outside of marriage. We're carnal creatures of passion. It's the way God made us. Blame Him! But at least with the Law of Love there are guidelines, there is communication, there are "rules" about it being between consenting parties. Take away the Law of Love and you take away all of that, and it's each man for himself and each woman for herself and there's going to be a lot more hurt, a lot more suffering, a lot more neglect, a lot less unity.

Learn to embrace the Law of Love and treasure it for the wonder that it is, and thank the Lord for all the problems and heartache it has solved. Or if you can't take it, if you don't believe it, then be my guest and go to the churches, who believe that all sex outside marriage is a sin. There are plenty of people who would agree with you on that score. We're not mainstream, but we're in the right stream, the one that's going the way God wants us to go! ⁽⁵³⁾

The giving of love is the sharing of love. The showing of My love one to another is the most important. For love begets love. Kindness begets kindness. Mercy begets mercy. So does the giving of love one to another beget the giving of love to others. For it breaks down the walls of partition and brings forth unity and love and care and compassion one to another.

So do I wish to break down those walls so that there can be a free flow of My love one to another, with unity, a oneness, a bonding together in love.

I wish My love to be given unto all, that all can benefit from My love, in the arms of another, with the kisses and caresses of another, that all can partake of My love one with another.

My greatest desire is that you would all love one another, that you would all be My love one for another. That in loving one another you would break down the walls of partition. So give love. Share love and so fulfill My will. ⁽⁵⁴⁾

Using the Law of Love Weapon Offensively

Not only is the Law of Love a beautiful gift that I have given to you, My children of David, but it is also a very powerful weapon which you can use against the Enemy. As you learn to wield it with accuracy, you will put the Enemy to flight. He will be in fear and trembling of this awesome weapon that you wield against him. ⁽⁵⁵⁾

(Dad:) How can you use this weapon of the Law of Love as an offensive one? What does the Enemy hate the most?--Sacrificial love, the kind that causes you to do something good for someone else. Selfish, self-satisfying love isn't a threat to the Enemy, because it causes the person to heed himself and his own wants and desires. But sacrificial love, love that puts others' needs before your own, the love that compels you to go out and win the lost for the Lord, that is a very big threat to the Enemy! He is the epitome of everything opposite. He promotes love of self, putting yourself first, doing good for yourself--all the things the world promotes. ⁽⁵⁶⁾

Love is the greatest force in the universe, so wouldn't it stand to reason that My Law of Love would be one of the greatest weapons in the universe? Satan hates love. Everything that he is--his nature, his spirit, his goals--promotes the opposite of love. He promotes hatred, violence, hurt, oppression, depression, discouragement, and condemnation. But through My love, and by using the weapon of the Law of Love, you bring peace, love, hope, joy, happiness, challenge, excitement, comfort--so many beautiful gifts. These are all things that many in My Family long for. ⁽⁵⁷⁾

To wield the weapon of the Law of Love accurately and offensively takes great humility. It takes the putting on of My Spirit, the taking on of My nature. For I am Love, and I wish you to be a vessel of My love. I can give you this gift of My love, if you are desperate for it, and as you take time with Me in the bed of love, asking Me to fill you with My love and how I feel for another. ⁽⁵⁸⁾

(Dad:) The Law of Love is all about agape love, selfless love, the kind of love that causes you to reach out and do good, love your brethren, and put the needs of others before your own; the kind of love that helps you to live in unity and harmony with your brethren, and put yourself last in the overall big picture. ⁽⁵⁹⁾

One important key to using the weapon of the Law of Love offensively is to pray for Me to fill your heart with the love for your brothers and sisters that you need, the unselfish love, the desire, the driving passion of My Spirit that motivates you to reach out, to put the needs of others above your own, and to do all that you can to lighten the load of your brother and sister. ⁽⁶⁰⁾

(For someone:) To be a true servant of others, you have to first of all be a true servant to Me. You have to give Me your all. You have to see yourself as Mine--My property, My possession, My slave, My subject. You have to accept and acknowledge that you are bought with a price, that I own you, and that therefore, as My servant, if I tell you to serve others, then you are obliged to serve them just as you would serve Me. For as I have said, inasmuch as you do it to the least of these, My brethren, you do it unto Me (Mat.25:40).

You are bought with a price. Remember always that part of that price, part of that calling, is to not only be My servant, subject to My bidding, but to be a servant of all, subject to the bidding of the needs of others.

When you see a need, when you hear of a need, when you sense a need, it is because I am calling you to do something to fill that need. What you do may be different in every case, but the point is that it is your duty--because you are Mine, and because you have bound yourself to Me in love, as a love slave--to see yourself as a servant of others, a servant to their needs.

If you adopt this mindset and remind yourself of it often, you will not need to worry about whether you are doing enough for Me and others, or whether you are living My Law of Love. These things will come naturally as you determine to serve Me and serve others, and make this not just something you do from time to time but an integral part of your daily lifestyle. ⁽⁶¹⁾

Ask Me to show you how you can use the weapon of the Law of Love in your life in an offensive way, and learn to be skilled at wielding it. Don't wait until an incident comes up where you are being tested and then it becomes a defensive weapon.

Make it part of your daily prayers, that you will have this weapon in your arsenal at all times, ready to pull it out at the first sign of the Enemy's nose, or those birds trying to make a nest in your hair. Be on guard, be on the attack, be ready, and be aware! I love you! Long live love! ⁽⁶²⁾

As you, My children, take up the weapon of the Law of Love and wield it by taking steps to put into action the commission I have given you--first, to love Me with all your heart, and then to love your neighbor as yourself--you will see a great change come about in My Family. You will truly be the Family of Love that I wish for you to be, and that I need you to be as a sample to all those in the lost and lonely dark world.

As you remember in your days past, the early days of the Family, many were overwhelmed by the love that they felt when they walked through your doors. Hugs and affection and words of encouragement and comfort were free-flowing; they came from everyone's lips. There was a light in everyone's eyes, and that's because their love cups were filled. ⁽⁶³⁾

When you show affection, when you show love and outgoing concern to another, the recipient is feeling My love through you. It is My Spirit that they are partaking of. As you are faithful to pour out to others, I will be faithful to fill up your love cup. As you pour out, I will pour in, and you can never outpour Me.

As others are touched by My love through you, they too will want to show love to others. It becomes a chain reaction. The receivers will turn around and be givers. The givers will also be receivers from Me, from others, and their brothers and sisters, and you will see a free flow of My love once again in your Homes.

You truly will become Homes of hearts melted together in My love. That is what I long to see once again in My Family. I long to see that camaraderie of spirit, that willingness to lay down your life daily for your brother and sister, those who you are living with, and I long to see you do all that you can to show them My love, My care, My concern, and to lighten their load.

You will find that as you share this love, as you wield this weapon of the Law of Love, that I will do great and wondrous things. Not only will it stave off the attacks of the Enemy, but you will be building a beautiful Home brick by brick on the solid foundation of My love and My Word--a Home in which all who enter therein will find peace, rest, and a haven of My love and My Spirit. ⁽⁶⁴⁾

(Dad:) The weapon of the Law of Love is the main motivator that gets you out the door every day witnessing to the lost and winning souls. Because of the love of Christ which compels you, every time you get out and witness the Lord's love to others, you are wielding the weapon of the Law of Love; for if you didn't have that love of the Lord and love for the lost, you wouldn't be out there. You wouldn't sacrifice your flesh and your personal desires and your time and your energy to get out and reach the lost if you didn't have that driving motivation of love to compel you.

The weapon of the Law of Love is total unselfishness, total yieldedness to the Lord's will, and total sacrifice in laying down your life for another. Using this weapon any time a situation comes up where you're tempted to be a little selfish, or unloving, or to lift yourself above another, destroys the works of the Enemy and sends out another beam of pure white light that destroys the darkness. ⁽⁶⁵⁾

(Dad:) Pure, sacrificial love is as a searing white light in the spirit world; it engulfs the darkness, and darkness can't stand before it. Therefore any loving deed, any sacrifice for love, any unselfish act--sharing of your abundance with someone in need, going out to win the lost, etc.--is transformed in the spirit world into a searing white light that sends the Devil and his imps running away. And do you know what else? Every act of love or deed of kindness that is transformed into that powerful beam of white light goes on forever, ad infinitum!

It's kind of hard to explain in physical terms, but as you know, love is forever--and anything done out of love, and for love, and in love, there on Earth, is translated spiritually into bright beams of love-light that never dim, grow old, or die. They are there for eternity and they will exist for eternity. They're part of the light of Heaven, and are what makes Heaven glow!

So are you starting to get the picture of how the Law of Love is a spiritual weapon, and how it can be used offensively? Because of the nature of man and how the Devil has taken over the world, any act of love or unselfish deed is considered a miracle in a way, because man's carnal nature is so opposite that of being loving and sacrificial and putting others before himself. This is why the Law of Love is such a powerful spiritual weapon and is such a threat to the darkness of the Devil and his imps.

Love is an actual spiritual energy, and, I might add, the most powerful force in the universe. Wielding the weapon of the Law of Love is no light matter. You have actual power in your hands when you wield it, as love is the most powerful force on Earth. And as I said, love is forever, so all those little deeds of kindness and unselfishness live on forever in the spirit. ⁽⁶⁶⁾

When you feel loved, when you know that someone cares for you, when you are important to someone, don't you feel that life is worth living? Doesn't it give you an extra boost of inspiration and strength and encouragement? I work as hard as I can to project that message to the person through My Spirit and through My words of love and comfort to them, but many times I wish to show them a physical manifestation of My love through you.

Will you be My hands to reach out and to touch, My arms to hold another in a close embrace? Will you be My lips to kiss, My tongue to speak words of love and comfort and encouragement? Will you be My eyes and shine with a spirit of love and acceptance and affirmation? Will you be My ears that will listen to the heartcries of others?

You are a physical manifestation of Me and of My love. How well are you doing on that front? How much do you seek to show My love to others?

Many of you are held back by pride or by fear of what others will think. Or maybe you feel that that person doesn't need love and affection from you. But whether it may seem like it or not, all need love, all need affection, all need to know that I care for them and that I love them. And I wish for you to be a channel and a vessel of this love.

Every step of love that you take, every outgoing show of concern, is wielding this weapon of the Law of Love offensively. This weapon is an offensive weapon. Determine to put it to use. Determine to not go through a day without looking for a way in which you can wield this weapon against the Enemy, and strengthen your brothers and sisters. ⁽⁶⁷⁾

As you use the weapon of the Law of Love, not only will you be gaining victories personally, but you'll also be protecting your brothers and sisters from the attacks of the Enemy. For as you give them love, you are in a sense strengthening their force field. You will be lifting up a standard against the Enemy. As you all unite in love--in one heart, one mind, one body and spirit--you will be such a force of great and mighty power that you will send the Enemy running! You will set him back on his heels, and he will know that he is no match for the force that is coming against him--the force of love, the force of My Law of Love.

This weapon, when wielded with accuracy, will bring defeat to the Enemy's kingdom. Use it, wield it, and search for ways to actively put it into practice, and you won't be disappointed. The results and the victories won will be unlike any you have ever seen before. Everyone will be strengthened and renewed, for everyone will be loving and lifting each other up. That is the way My new Family must march into the future--all one body, one in hope, one in love, by using My Law of Love. ⁽⁶⁸⁾

It's human nature to see what you can get out of something and how it can benefit you, and it has its pros in that looking at the Law of Love as a personal benefit has caused you to appreciate it, to value it, to treasure it, and to speak well of it and not criticize, doubt, or demean it. It's time for you now, though, to move further in spirit--to move beyond the mindset of, "the Law of Love is cool and I like it and I'm happy with it" and to take on My mind more fully and move into the mindset of, "I am committed to living the Law of Love, in spirit and in action. I am going to fight to be a professional user and to really know this weapon inside and out, and use it as it was meant to be used."

It's time to take on the true spirit of the Law of Love, which is the attitude of humility, service, giving, esteeming others better than yourself, and putting others' needs above your own. This isn't only referring to living it sexually, although that is a part of it. You need to learn these principles for your personal life and sex life, but also for your work life and home life and every aspect of your life as a disciple. ⁽⁶⁹⁾

The main reason there are misapplications of the sexual aspect of the Law of Love is because people forget what the Law of Love as a whole really is. It's not about sex. It's not about having your needs met. It's about meeting the needs of others.

The sexual aspect of the Law of Love is no bigger than the part sex plays in your overall life--it's there, and it's an important part, but it's only one small part. Some people have said that sex is 2% of a healthy life. If sex is 2% of your life, the sexual aspect of the Law of Love is 2% of the overall Law of Love. If each of My brides is living the Law of Love in every other area of their life, then the Law of Love will work for them in the sexual aspects as well; if they aren't, it won't.

Is the Law of Love guiding all your other actions? When it is, and you can truly say you're living by it, then the sexual aspect won't be a problem. There will still be concerns and questions from time to time, and yes, there will still be hurt--good hurt, because it doesn't always "feel" good to sacrifice, and bad hurt because no humans are ever perfect, and people make mistakes--but there will be a whole lot less hurt, and a whole lot more blessings. ⁽⁷⁰⁾

(Dad speaking:) You need to go back every so often and reread those Letters on the Law of Love. You've read them in the past, but now that you've come through so many changes, you're going to see this weapon in a whole new light if you will review the counsel that the Lord and I have given you.

Many of you have seen it as something that would help you to endure that person over there who just almost drives you nuts, or put up with that one over there whose personality really rubs you wrong. But that's just using the Law of Love weapon like a sword or a gun, as something that's not really a part of you.

When I said "living the Law of Love," how do you live something? It becomes such an integral part of you that you no longer see it as something separate, put on, or forced. It's part of your life. You're living it.

When you start integrating these weapons into your life, it shouldn't be a matter of "your feelings" versus "what the Lord says I have to do." You must fight to make them so much a part of you that after a while, using them comes automatically. In the case of the Law of Love weapon, focus so much on the good and Jesus in others, get so full of the Lord's Spirit, pray for so much love, base so many of your actions on love, that anything ugly and selfish gets washed right out of your heart, and a loving response becomes your first response.

That's what the Lord's love is. Isn't that what His love is toward you? You don't feel Him up there fuming and snarling about a mistake you made today, and then deciding to try and be nice anyway. His love is so overwhelming that He sees your sincere heart trying your best to please Him in spite of all your failings, and your potentially irksome weaknesses only spur even greater compassion in His heart to want to encourage and lift you when you're faltering. If there's any anger, if there's any fury, it's aimed at the Devil and his imps who are trying to pull you down.

The weapons of the Law of Love and brotherhood can activate in your heart that same love, those same good reactions and understanding and faith in others. And you can try it with your other spiritual weapons too. The more you praise, the more praise will become a habit, a good first reaction. The more you pray, the more prayer will become a part of you, and you'll naturally be more prayerful. Making your spiritual weapons a part of you is key to having the changes you desire, and being able to defeat the Enemy before he gets too far in any of his evil plans. ⁽⁷¹⁾

Help we can count on!

There are many in Heaven who can assist you in the giving of love and the living of My Law of Love. I've said before that the conception of cherubim as cupid-like baby angels is inaccurate, because the cherubim are in fact mighty and powerful angels! But there are those in Heaven much more like the earthly stereotype of Cupid, bringer of love. There are lots of what you might call "Love Fairies" who exist to help guide you in the ways of love. What are they? They're embodiments of My love. They're created from My love to be little helpers, and to give you guidance and anointing and the desire to pour love out on others. They're female in form, and while they don't shoot you with arrows, they do flutter around and help put love in your heart for others, and inspire you with ways that you can give love and share love.

They haven't always been, in that they're not angels or ancient spirit beings. I created them when I gave the Family the full truths of the Law of Love. Don't think it strange that they can be constructed out of love. I made man from the dust of the earth, and I made Eve from a rib. I used temporal materials because you are temporal beings. But in the spirit I can make spiritual beings out of spiritual powers, and so it was that I crafted these helpers out of pure love.

They're not just for romantic love; in fact, that's a very small part of their love. They inspire and fill you with all the love that I have, which is multifaceted. My love loves you as a bride, but also as children, friends, brothers, sisters. My love can be anything to anyone, which is what these Fairies of Love will help you to be. They will help give you a little dose of My love for whoever you need to love.

Just having them around will help you. Since they are made out of My love, just having it near you will increase your own love beyond mortal limits, and give you a taste of the supernatural. They can also assist in witnessing, because part of My love is a love for lost souls, and thus these beings also have that loving influence to provide.

You can call on these Love Fairies for assistance in giving love in all ways, because that's what they're made for. They don't do a lot of talking; they deal more in feelings, impressions, and mental guidance, and the "tug" that you feel on your heart to do something out of love. They don't usually give prophecies or messages, although it's not impossible. When they speak, they sound childish and playful, but they can convey very complex and adultlike emotions through their spiritual leadings. So you have to sense them more than you see them or hear them.

When you call on them, one will come near you and perch on your shoulder just the way you'd imagine a little angel should. They'll direct you, pointing with their fingers as to where to give love, and how. They also emit a constant aura of love which pours all over you, making you give love--but also having the added benefit of making you more lovable, and making others love you more. That's the way love goes, isn't it? The more loving you are, the more others want to love you. That's what these beings bring about.

Men would describe them as fairies if they saw them. They choose to manifest themselves in the female form, but in reality, they are neither male nor female. Love is not gender-specific. My love is gentle, aware of the tiniest detail, yet no one in the universe is more masculine than I am.

They seek out those who are open to the thoughts and feelings of My love. Although their mission at this time is to guide you into living the Law of Love as fully as possible, they, like the Holy Spirit, can only enter in where they are received and welcomed.

When you call for their help, they come in teams, some seeking out brethren or sheep nearby to draw them close to you, while others begin to fill your heart and thoughts with pictures, feelings, and thoughts to guide you through the open doors I am setting before you to give My love to another.

These beings are created of My love. And just as My love is not passive but vibrant, and the source of great power, so these--although they appear small and delicate to the eyes of man--carry the energy to empower you to do anything good out of love. They have chosen the form of a tiny female fairy as an illustration. My unlimited love for you is the most powerful force in the universe and is able to do anything, yet its power and force and might cannot manifest its fullness through you unless you yield to it.

These Love Fairies are small and able only to offer My power and might to you. If you choose to desire it in all its fullness and above all else--even above your own feelings and desires--My power floods through them to transform your mind, your heart, your feelings, and to empower you with the supernatural might that conquers all.

Showing My love to another may seem a small thing, but in the spiritual realm it is actually more earthshaking, life-changing, and demon-destroying than all of man's wars throughout history combined!

These Love Fairies are manifestations of the Law of Love because they can transform those who yield to them, altering their thoughts and feelings and opening their hearts and minds to the reality of just how powerful love is. Though you may think My Law of Love is simple and a small thing, when it is received and acted upon, it becomes the source of power to do the impossible, to create a bond of unity that cannot be broken, and to unleash the world-changing power of My love as an undeniable demonstration of all that I offer those who will turn to Me and receive the greatest gift ever given.

These Love Fairies are called the Whisperers. They are close by your side, and as you call on their help, they will be there to guide you, to remind you to place My love in first place in your life, and to shower you with the power and beauty of My Spirit as you heed their whispers and step by step become better vessels of My light and truth to this darkening world.

I will also give you a little glimpse of future events: As you grow, so their voices will grow in your heart, and these will become companions to you in your many exploits throughout eternity. This is just the beginning of mightier things than your mind can begin to grasp. Use their help wisely, and frequently, and you will come to value them as precious treasures and gifts from My heart to yours.⁽⁷²⁾

You can't forget to call upon the Queen of Love, My Mother, the Holy Spirit, to bring you love in all your ways and actions.

Aphrodite is a spirit being of love who can empower you to give love far beyond your physical and earthly emotional means. The Holy Spirit and Aphrodite will help open you up to the love of Heaven, which doesn't see as man sees, but looks beyond into the hearts of men and desires to love them.

The spiritual Cathars are on call to assist you in your use of the weapon of the Law of Love, for they have been commissioned as the guardians of love. They can help you in your use of either the weapon of the Law of Love or the weapon of brotherhood, for both involve love, and love is their specialty, their ministry, and their jurisdiction.

It's good to call on the spirit world for assistance in living the Law of Love, because it helps you to realize that it's not something you can do in the flesh. Flesh and blood doesn't have enough love to unselfishly care for others more than itself. Acknowledging your need for spiritual assistance puts you in the right frame of mind to give and receive the kind of supernatural love that I'm engendering in the Family through the truths of the Law of Love. ⁽⁷³⁾

To use this weapon offensively is often to use it preemptively. What does that mean? It means to use the Law of Love as a "strike first" kind of weapon. Before you feel lonely, reach out to others. Before you feel jealous, share what you have. Before you say unloving words, preempt them with loving ones that build up another person. To counterattack with love is good, but to preemptively attack is even better! If you can make the loving way your habit, your first reaction, then so many negatives won't even have a chance to come into your life.

Often this means that you consciously do something which strengthens your use of the Law of Love, simply because you want to exercise yourself and stretch in that way and strengthen the spiritual force field around you. You shouldn't have to wait for something to go wrong in your interactions with others, or for there to be a real obvious need for love in your Home or relationship before you realize that you should maybe be a little more active in putting the Law of Love into practice. When there is an obvious need, or a problem, it only means that you haven't been taking the offensive enough, and that a situation has gotten extreme enough to be really noticeable.

Then, even if you attack immediately, you're already somewhat on the defensive. But unfortunately, that's the way so many people use the Law of Love. It's like using praise as a weapon once you're already depressed. It's better than not using it at all, but how much better to use it to strengthen your defenses so that you don't have to deal with that attack in the first place!

The Law of Love, as you all know, is very broad and covers just about everything in your lives. You try to live in harmony and not to hurt anyone, but too often you reserve the actual deeds of love, the words of love, and the positive actions of love for when there is a need or a problem. Often before you do a favor for someone, they have to get to the point that they seem really stressed out or under pressure and really, really need the help. Before some people get their needs for sex and affection met, they have to be really, really lonely. Before some people get included with others and brought into a circle of fellowship, they have to undergo long periods of "outsidership," feeling they don't belong. That's not the way you should be fighting with this weapon.

It's good that you try to remedy these situations when they arise, but it's even better to be continually taking the offensive through using this weapon, so that those situations never even come up, or only rarely. But what that means is that you need to motivate yourself to put your love into action regardless of whether you personally are confronted with a need. Let's face it; it's much easier to respond to a need than it is to take the initiative. Most of you are pretty loving people when faced with the poor man who fell among thieves (Luke 10:29-37). Most of you are pretty good Samaritans, and you've gotten that aspect of love down pretty well.

So to take the next step in really attacking with love as your weapon, you must see the things you do, the words you speak, and the actions you take not as something you're doing for someone else because they really need it, but almost more something that you're doing for you, because you really need the practice, and need to be exercised in whatever way I'm showing you.

You should see living the Law of Love as a preventive measure against so many of the Enemy's attacks. You should make it your goal to supply the needs before they arise; to have such strong bonds of love that disunity can't enter in; to be so outgoing and unselfish with one another that selfishness doesn't exist; to be so inclusive of others and sensitive to their needs that genuine loneliness doesn't become a problem.

In the process, the more of My love that you're using and giving out and asking Me for, the stronger you are in spirit--not only against those specific neutralized-by-love type of attacks, but against anything the Enemy would throw at you. My love is powerful. It's an antidote to almost any poison of the Enemy. It's a salve for almost any wound. It's a source of healing for almost any ailment, physical or spiritual. It's amazing!

Back to using the Law of Love as a weapon proactively: You can't wait for the needs or problems. Your reasons for acting on your love, even something as simple as writing a loving thank-you note to someone, need to be motivated by a thought process that says, "Hmm, I don't think I've really stretched myself in the Law of Love lately. What have I recently done to put my love for all my brothers and sisters and mates into action? How have I been the Lord's love for someone lately, beyond what's expected of me in my normal Home duties?" That's the kind of thinking you need, so that you'll constantly be aware of whether or not you've been pouring out enough; and if you haven't, then you'll know that it's time to take action--love action--whether you think it's needed or not.

Let me tell you, it is needed. You need it too! You are the one in need of some love to be poured out. Your spirit needs that challenge, that growth, that exercise in doing things for love, and because you feel love in your heart for your husbands and wives and friends--which is how I look upon you all and have asked you to look upon each other. Otherwise it becomes a work of the flesh to fill needs only when you deem them great enough. It becomes a ritualistic fulfillment of only the bare necessities, rather than ensuring that each cup is filled to overflowing.

The good news, though, is that it's much easier than it sounds to change your method of operating. When you become more proactive in love and are constantly looking for ways to manifest My love, the ways you put it into action not only get easier with frequency, but they don't have to be such a big deal or some major affair.

Giving hugs is a part of it. Saying kind words is a part of it. Giving sincere encouragement is a part of it. Helping with tasks and little favors is a part of it. Compliments are a part of it. And those are all easy, small things. But how often have you reserved a word of encouragement for when someone looks especially down? Why not give a word of encouragement to someone who looks cheerful and happy? They'll appreciate it, and who knows but that you could save someone who was heading for discouragement from ever having to go there at all.

Why should you offer to help with someone's kids or invite their family to join yours for parent time only when the parent or parents look really stressed out? If you did it more regularly, they wouldn't have to be stressed at all, because you'd have lightened their load before it got unbearably heavy.

This is how I want to take care of you. But too often you have the same mindset with Me--that of only casting your cares on Me when you absolutely, positively can carry them no further. But I don't set down those conditions. I don't tell you that only when you're absolutely exhausted can you call on My strength. There's nothing too big for Me, but neither is there anything too small for Me. I'll comfort you in your slightest care, just as I will in your biggest heartbreak. There's no need to save anything until it's "valid" enough to bring to Me, and there's no need to save your good words and words of love toward each other either.

In some ways it might help if you change your focus from outward to inward. That might sound like a step backward, but in living the Law of Love, that's where it needs to start--with you. Love begins at home, right? And how do you change the world? You start with yourself. So when you're looking to live the Law of Love more fully, you shouldn't look around like, "Hmm, does anyone really even need my love?" But you should look at yourself like, "How much love have I given? How much do I pour out?"

People are proud and often will hide their needs for long periods of time. Everyone also tries hard to appear in the victory, praiseful, and positive most of the time. So judging only by need, you may miss a lot. But judging by your own frequency and "love-giving-meter," so to speak, you have a need to continually give, and the more you do it, the more you'll want to do it, and you'll meet more needs that way than if you waited for those needs to manifest themselves.

And remember that the Law of Love isn't just the big things, and it isn't just sex. It's treating others the way you would want to be treated. If you like compliments, give them. If you like affection and physical gestures of love, give them. If you like to receive praise and commendation, then give it. If you like to receive help with difficult or tedious tasks, give that too. Think of all the times you've wished for this or that, that someone would help you with something, or someone would acknowledge your work on a project, or someone would just say "hi" and tell you that they loved you, or that someone would invite you to do something fun with them, but you never really mentioned it, it never really happened, and you just went on with your life.

Then think of all the times that must happen every day in the lives of others. If you have a need for love, and inner desires and wishes for love, don't you think others do too? How often do you express your desires and needs? 50% of the time? 30%? 10%? 5%? Less? Very often you don't express anything at all, yet the need is there, isn't it?

Think of everything you want out of life that has to do with other people. Even a smile is a need. You look at someone, tell them "good morning," and you want a smile from them, because it makes you feel good to know that you've made them feel good and made them smile. Think of everything that makes your life better, and then do those things for others.

When you measure your output of love and take more thought for how much you're giving, you'll be amazed at the conviction it puts on your heart to give more often. Stop right now and think about the last time you gave "over and above" love, something that wasn't expected of you, but that you did anyway. What about before the last time? How long was it in between? How often do you think is enough? A loving act a day? A week? Only you can judge. You can't put a quota on love, but you certainly can tell when you've been a conduit of My love to others, or when your channel has been a little dry, with not much love coming through.

But love's a boomerang, as you know. What you give will return, and he that soweth sparingly will reap sparingly, and vice versa (2Cor.9:6). That puts the onus on you to give more, if you want to get more. And whether you're giving because you want to receive, or you're giving because there's a need, or you're just doing it because I told you to, remember that you're the one who really gains. The biggest need of all that's being satisfied is your own need. You're created to be a being of love, a loving person, and in giving that love you are filling your own needs even more than you are those of others. Withholding love makes you the biggest loser, not others.

That's why you have to check your love meter. You have to take time to reflect on how much you've given, and how often. It's worth taking stock of so that you don't let yourself get out of practice. I imagine that most of you, upon taking stock of your love output, will feel like you could give a whole lot more. That's good; that's what you should do! That's where giving love "just because" comes in. There's no bad motive for giving My love. Even if you're getting something out of it, that's not wrong. Just make sure that you love without partiality, or eventually you'll find that you are the one losing out. If you're loving unselfishly, you open yourself up to receive My full blessings, including abundant love from others. But when you love with partiality or favoritism or only love those who are "easy" for you to love, you'll find that what I want to give you in return in the way of blessings and love coming back to you is also stopped and choked. You'll get back in proportion to what you give out. ⁽⁷⁴⁾

Living the Law of Love is living love, living like Me in all things, but with a special focus on this very big part of Me. I'll remind you of a few things that are all part of living the Law of Love--which is, in essence, adding sincere love to everything you do:

* Be affectionate.

To be loving is to be affectionate; the two are almost one. Give more hugs. There are many good times to hug someone, besides the usual morning hug or when you meet someone from another Home or who you haven't seen in a while. Hug when you're talking, or hug after talking, or when you sit by someone.

Touching is important too. Touch the one you're talking to, hold their arm or hand, hug them, or place an arm around their waist. Hold hands or arms while walking with someone, even if it's just for a short distance that you walk together. Hold hands while you pray. Touch someone gently and affectionately if you need to squeeze by them or need them to move out of the way. Human beings need physical contact, and affection shows love, so use any excuse you can to touch, to impart love, and to be affectionate.

A side benefit of affection is that it breaks down pride. It's hard to have distance between you and someone else when you're physically touching and frequently affectionate. Touches reassure and comfort and bond you together, and they can help keep pride and distance from forming.

Also, pay attention to the kind of affection others like and try to be sensitive to how they respond and why. Those who aren't used to giving or receiving a lot of affection may initially be hesitant or reserved. They may be surprised and appear to dislike or avoid affection. Try to find out if it's a matter of getting used to affection, or if they prefer not to be touched in a certain way for whatever reason, or prefer a different type of affection. Also, the affection I'm speaking of here is not sexual in any way. If something is perceived in that way, then it's wise to not go there, or to ask Me how you can avoid giving that impression.

* Learn to be more aware of others and their needs.

Learning to be more sensitive to others, more aware of what's going on around you, and what the others around you are thinking or feeling or needing is a part of maturity. It's growing up and putting others' needs before your own. It's realizing that very often you are the one I am calling to help meet the needs of those around you--but you can't do that unless you learn to recognize those needs.

Start with the obvious things, and then ask Me to help you to learn more and become more attentive and observant. If you know of something someone needs, give it to them, or try to get it for them. Offer to help someone--with a job they have to do, with their kids, to prepare a class, to do their laundry, etc. Do something with someone who might appreciate company during their free time. Get a message from Me for someone if you see that they need or would appreciate some encouragement, counsel, or love from Me. Offer to do the part of dinner dishes that your partner prefers not to do.

The list is endless of the different needs you can respond to. Some needs are obvious, others not so much--or not at all, until you start looking through the eyes of love. But with some care and interest--with love--you can sense the needs I want you to respond to, and then do it, even if it's a sacrifice.

Be outgoing and impartial in your interactions, especially in social or communal situations. This is closely related to being an attentive and impartial listener. Don't just stick to the group of people you're used to hanging out with or talking to, but branch out to someone new or different. Be open to making new friends, or just to talking with different people about different things. Besides being loving, it can be a very interesting learning experience.

Work on your body language to make it more accepting, welcoming, humble, and loving. For example, nod when someone is talking to you, or when someone is making a point in Home Council; it says, "I understand your point; it's a good point." Look people in the eyes and smile when you greet them. If someone passes by and you don't have time to talk to them, wink or smile and nod. If someone knocks on your door and you're working, get up from your desk or your bed and hug them, and walk them into your room and offer them a seat. When someone asks you to pass them something, smile as you give it to them, or touch their hand.

What are your hands and arms doing? How is your posture? Crossed arms, for example, usually make you look distant or standoffish. Let your arms hang down beside you or rest on something. Or better yet, be affectionate and touch the one you're talking to or interacting with. Appearing relaxed and at ease usually makes people feel comfortable with you, and helps them to feel like you enjoy being with them or talking to them.

* Give unselfishly.

This one is clear in just those two words. When you're giving because there's something you can get in return, that's not really giving. Maybe you're loaning something to someone and you have a nagging worry in your mind that they might give it back in worse condition, or you have to give of your time today and you aren't feeling too happy about it. Maybe you're happy to do things for the people who you feel will do something in return for you, but if someone doesn't seem to have a way to "pay you back," then you hesitate to give to them.

Give those thoughts and feelings and worries or "bothers" to Me, and I will help you to give without regret or thought of loss. Then look around for something you can lovingly do that has nothing in it for you at all, and see how much comes back to you in return anyway!

Giving unselfishly increases your trust in Me and dependence on Me. It reminds you who you're really here for. It surprises you with happiness and "returns" when you least expect it. And it builds strong bonds of love with those you might not have reached out to otherwise.

Give of your material possessions.

Give your time. Do something sacrificial that isn't a "trade-off." For example, offer to take the baby for a walk during your get-out time, teach the kids a Word class so the parent or teacher can get personal Word time, do the dishes for someone who's tired or busy, offer to plan a spiritual activity for the Home so that the shepherds don't have to do it, etc.

Give your love and affection.

Give the gift of intercessory prayer, and intercede before My throne for those in need.

Give what you have and you will open up the storehouses of My power and provision for you! You can only make a vacuum for My blessings when you give!

* Examine your etiquette.

Some people think of manners as something old-fashioned and outdated. But actually they're a big part of showing love. Taking the extra step and doing what you can to be pleasant and polite is the loving thing to do.

Say "excuse me" when you need to interrupt someone who's talking. Use "please" and "thank you" freely. No one can read your mind, so what they see, hear, and feel from you is what they'll know you for. This includes showing the proper thankfulness to others when they give or lend you something; apologizing for interrupting a conversation, if you must interrupt; addressing others respectfully; being a good steward of borrowed and community items; excusing yourself before leaving; using decent manners at the table, etc.

* Conversational etiquette.

Closely related to general manners and etiquette is the way you carry on conversations and communication with others.

When you're in a conversation with someone, tune in and give the speaker what serious consideration you can. Even if it's someone you don't find particularly interesting, or the subject isn't your favorite, be polite and give them your focus when you're talking to them. Be attentive and impartial. When you walk away from a conversation, do you only remember what you said, or do you remember what the other person said too? It's a good thing to think about and it'll show you how much you're really listening.

If someone comes up while you're talking together with another person, especially if it's at a fellowship or social event, bring the third person into the conversation if you can. Give them a brief rundown of what you were talking about, and make it obvious that you want them to be there too and be a part of the conversation. If you're discussing something private or personal, either finish your conversation later, or be honest and just explain that you were having a private conversation--and explain the subject matter, if you can. Most people will assume that if you don't want them to join a conversation, it's because you were talking about them. So make sure to clarify that that's not the case. Be as welcoming as possible, and then if on a rare occasion you need privacy, people will understand.

Have private conversations in private as much as possible. Don't whisper in front of others.

If you have to interrupt someone, be apologetic and polite about it.

* Put the needs of others before your own.

Do you let others go before you in the serving line? Do you offer the biggest piece of cake to someone sitting beside you? When someone needs something, do you offer to give them one of yours? Do you give others first pick of the provisioning? Is your first thought often for yourself and your personal family and friends?--Or do you look around to see who has the biggest need? When you go to a party do you look around for others who might be standing on the sidelines, and spend time talking with them? Think about it, and make a change today.

* Be respectful of your community.

This goes for your communal Home as well as the neighborhood, community, or city where you live, and ties in with many aspects of being a winning team. You should feel personally responsible for your Home in more than just your area of responsibility or work. Do you take time to improve some area of your Home and communal space, even if it's just tidying up after a movie, washing some extra dishes after a meal, or pitching in to help with Home improvements from time to time? It's not anything great to just take care of your assigned jobs, but when you go above and beyond to make things nice for others, that's living the Law of Love.

A few examples of respecting your outside community would be establishing good relations with your neighbors, keeping your grounds clean and presentable, helping the locals when it's within your power to help, being polite and obliging with any requests your neighbors make regarding things such as where you park your car, or some aspect of your house or neighborhood, how or where you unload provisioning, etc.

* Love the lowly, or those who aren't exactly your favorite.

Pray for impartial love, and look around your Home and see who you haven't gotten to know yet or haven't really made an effort to love, and ask the Lord for something you could do for them that would be meaningful and encouraging for them.

Go out of your way to try to get to know and show attention and appreciation to those who you don't know so well, those who you don't really "click" with, or those who you don't get along with so well. The more you try, the more you step out to love, the closer you will be to your brethren.

* Show outgoing interest in and concern for the children.

Living the Law of Love is living the One Wife vision. You're all one Family, and those children in your Home are your children. Do you treat them that way? When you give to the children and are interested in them, the love you give comes back to you multiplied many times over.

Showing love and consideration and giving attention to the children is also showing love to the parents and teachers. As you get to know the children and their needs, you will be more motivated to pray for them and to pour into them when you have the opportunity.

* Forsake your own plans in order to help someone else.

It's tough to give up something you were wanting or needing to do in order to help out in the Home, to volunteer for a job that wasn't part of your schedule or plans for the day. But showing willingness to help out and to give of your time to another is a great part of living the Law of Love in your Home.

* Pray for love that covers a multitude of sins (1Peter 4:8).

When you live with someone day in and day out, the mistakes, shortcomings, problems and idiosyncrasies of that person become very plain to you. But once you notice something, you have a choice to let it bother you or to not let it bother you. Praise Me and appreciate the person for all their wonderful qualities that help to make your Home the winning team that it is. You'll be much happier and will receive My blessings if you focus on the positive, let your love cover the little irritations, and move on! That's the only way a good, lasting, and happy marriage will work, and the only way your Home will be good, fruitful, and lasting is if you overlook the little problems with love.

* Think positively and lovingly about others.

Force yourself to think on the good things, to count the good qualities in others, to appreciate and build on others' strengths. Then when you interact with them, your actions and expressions and words will automatically reflect those good things you've been thinking and meditating on. Your whole spirit will become more loving, unselfish and humble as you actively look for and focus on the good.

Go out of your way to make things nice for others, even when you don't know if they'll notice or you feel they're not thankful.

Give without expecting appreciation or gratitude. Do things for others, think about others, and try to make things special, happy and exciting for those you live with. Even if you don't feel all that inspirational or gifted for activities, you can still give toward the happiness and unity of your Home by doing the small things:

- Changing the dish water.
- Washing someone's coffee cup even though they forget it in devotions every day and they never thank you for cleaning it.
- Setting the tables nicely.

- Making any reminder signs appreciative and positive instead of accusatory or nagging.
- Smiling when you see someone.
- Speaking positively about your day or the workload you carry.
- When someone does thank you for something, react positively instead of trying to remind them of exactly how much work it was.

• When cooking a meal, try to make the presentation of it nice and inspiring; it doesn't cost any more money to do so, but it sure does increase the value and quality of the meal to all!

These are just a few small things, but you should come to Me and ask in what ways you can make things nice and inspiring for those you live with, and I will show you the little and big ways that will help you to give love to others in this way, and you'll be so happy you asked Me!

* Forgive!

Just do it! If you're having a hard time forgiving someone for something, even if it was just a little inconsiderate comment or an unloving deed, or something they said about you that you didn't like, bring it to Me and ask Me to remove the burden. If you need to talk with the person to straighten things out, come to Me first to clear your head of any emotional reaction you might have or negative feelings about the situation, so that you can resolve things nicely and the forgiveness that you need will be pure and from Me.

Whenever possible, avoid making any mention of the negative happening or hurt to someone else, as that will reinforce the negative in your mind, and if said in the wrong spirit or to the wrong person, can also be gossip. Forgive and forget--or if you can't forget immediately, at least don't talk about it to anyone else. Putting it into words will only plant it more firmly in your memory and make it harder for you to get over it.

* Give some thought to the effect your actions will have on others.

Be mindful of others' needs--for quietness, privacy, respect, variety, encouragement, or whatever the need might be. Do your part to meet those needs.

The important thing is to think loving. In everything you think, everything you say, everything you do, and even in things you don't do, ask yourself, "Is this the loving thing to do? Am I showing unselfish love and doing my part to make this a better Home and a better world?" The Law of Love as a weapon is much like a rudder applied to a big ship. It slowly but surely can move and drastically change even the biggest of things. So do your part to spin that wheel and get things moving and changing for the better. ⁽⁷⁵⁾

Corinthians 13 for us for today:

1. If I can speak five different languages that I've learned from my time on the mission field, and if I've had the gift of tongues for years now, but I don't have love enough to hold my tongue from gossiping or putting down others, then I've not only become a whole lot of useless noise, but I'm becoming a destructive influence on those around me.

2. And although I faithfully get all of my Word time and even extra, and I can get long, detailed prophecies in public or in private, and although I've memorized all the helpers and hinderers and their powers, and although I have a lot of spiritual faith and even the gift of healing, if I don't have love enough to sometimes sacrifice my "perfect" Word and devotions time to take the kids so the parents can get their Word time, then all those other things don't mean much to the Lord.

3. And even if I spend all day out on the front lines faithfully reaching the rich and sacrificially considering the poor and pushing Activated at every opportunity, but I come home and can't show the Lord's love to my fellow Home members, my day and all my "good works" are worthless.

4. Real love has a long, hard, frustrating day where nothing seems to have gone right, yet doesn't get snappy and short-tempered with others. Real love stays sweet for the sake of others no matter what--just because it's the loving thing to do. Real love doesn't mind when someone else gets a better room, or gets to go to a party, fellowship, or meeting that you didn't, simply because real love is glad that the other person is happy. Real love actively fights pride, and actively embraces opportunities to do the humble thing.

5. Real love cares about being a good Christian sample, even to its fellow Home members and disciples, because real love is a reflection of Me. Real love doesn't complain, murmur, gripe, guilt-trip, or pressure others to get what it wants, because real love is too busy being concerned about the needs of others to spend much time worrying about its own needs. Real love doesn't get short-tempered and raise its voice with others. Real love doesn't get involved with unedifying System input, because it knows that to stay a pure, clean vessel of My love requires dwelling on the good things and keeping its channel clean.

6. Real love hates to hear gossip about others, and instead wants only to talk about the good that others have done and all the real and true ways that they're a big blessing and are great to live with.

7. Real love is flexible and has rise-above power that can help you take each day in stride and handle anything that comes your way. Real love is always ready to give the benefit of the doubt, and believe that someone's motives were good, pure, and honest. Real love hopes that others can reach their full potential and gives them the opportunity to do so by never losing faith in them. Real love doesn't run out of faith and patience.

8. Real love never fails someone else by depending only on the love stored in an earthly heart. Real love looks to Me to receive My complete love with which to love others, so that it will never run out. Anything else in the whole world can fail, except that which comes from Me. You can fail and even receive an incomplete prophecy, confusing or useless tongues, and your own knowledge can completely mislead you.

9. Because you're just a fallible person, and your grasp of the things of Heaven is only partial at best.

10. But when My Spirit of Love lives in you, it can override all your mistakes and fallibilities and can help you to grasp these deeper things of the spirit and live them.

11. You can all be such immature children with My Law of Love: The way you talk about it is childish, the way you think about it is childish, the way you act on it is childish; but I'm challenging you to become spiritual adults and mature in your application and move past your childish ways.

12. For right now you're living the perfect Law of Love in an imperfect world, and there will always be mistakes or problems and things that you don't understand. But soon the day is coming when you'll live it perfectly in My perfect Kingdom, and then you'll understand it just as I do, and you'll know it was right.

13. There are a lot of good things in life, and a lot of things I ask you to do for Me, but nothing is as important as love! ⁽⁷⁶⁾

Your weapons of the spirit all have various uses and purposes and strong points. The Law of Love is very effective as a weapon for personal defense or offense against the Enemy, but it is also exceptionally strong in defending or protecting others, or defeating the Enemy on their behalf. It's a weapon that not only helps you out in the specific battle you use it to win, but the power also goes into the encompassing force field that surrounds your Home and your loved ones, and it protects you and strengthens you as a team against further attacks.

Another exceptional strong point in the Law of Love weapon is that when used offensively, it draws the lost into My bosom, and helps them connect with Me. It's like giving them protective or covering fire while they run into My arms, keeping the Enemy away from them while they make the decision to become Mine, or to draw closer to Me.

As the days get darker, the fruits of the Law of Love will be one of your greatest testimonies. As you learn to use this weapon in the way it was designed to be used, your bond and unity will become supernaturally strong, tangible, and visible to all those who observe you. You already have a glow, an aura, a loving presence that those who are lost and searching can't help but notice. But in the days to come, if you are faithful to study and learn how to use this weapon well, that aura will increase so that it's like a light searing the darkness. It will be undeniable, and it won't take someone who's spiritually sensitive to spot it. It will draw many to Me, and will give you supernatural power and protection.

My loves, you're already strong in using the Law of Love, compared to others in the world. It's already one of your gifts. But compared to how you could be doing, with the wealth of truth I've given you, if you would make the effort to live it and obey it more fully, you could progress so much in it. You can come to understand the depth of the love I want to give you and that I want you to have between one another. You can practice with it and turn your weaknesses into strengths. You can make your first reaction a loving reaction. That won't happen overnight; you'll have to train hard to achieve those results. But they are possible.

You have everything you need right at your fingertips. You have My counsel and instruction. You have opportunities galore to become strengthened, in your situation of communal living and with your calling of being My ambassadors. You have the foundation already laid in your heart, for you're already living for Me, living unselfishly, and doing what you can to give My love to others. So if you want this crown--this crown of glory, honor, undeniable brilliance that comes from being exercised and proven in the area of the Law of Love, then it's yours. Come take it! ⁽⁷⁷⁾

The Law of Love and the One Wife Vision

(All prophecies are Jesus speaking unless otherwise indicated.)

As you launch out to live the Law of Love, this is preparation. It's the pathway that leads to fulfilling the "One Wife" vision. And as you grow to live the Law of Love, this goes hand in hand with fulfilling the "One Wife" vision; they are one and the same. Living the "One Wife" vision is the golden solution, because to put the responsibility on husbands and wives, daddies and mommies, and the ones who are actually responsible for creating the children in the flesh, will never be enough.

I have put within the heart of My children a need to reach out and to receive input from many sources and many people. I want all of My children--young and old, from both generations, adult and child--to have a wide circle of family, friends, companions, uncles, aunties, brothers, sisters. My way is not the way of the world, to build and secure only independent nuclear families, for that strength is limited. That bond is very weak in comparison with the bond that can be formed as My Family learns to live the "One Wife" vision where they become part of a greater marriage in spirit, where they look upon each other as their mate and the others' children as their own.

The responsibilities and cautions and explanations must be pointed out clearly, and My children must understand that if they create a child together, then I hold them responsible, for it is their child and in most cases they are destined and chosen to be the parents of that child and to give that child the input, education, spiritual foundation and training that he needs and deserves. When they choose to fuck they take upon themselves that responsibility, but it is not a responsibility that I expect the mother and father to bear entirely on their own. I don't want the parents to shirk the responsibility, but I also want the others of their greater marriage in spirit to help to bear the responsibility. For as you bear one another's burdens, so do you fulfill My Law of Love.

Yes, individual nuclear families of dedicated, committed, loving married couples and their children are a good testimony and they are a strength to the Family, but the greater testimony and the greater strength comes from the greater marriage. Living the "One Wife" vision is the ultimate goal and that is what I am moving My Family toward.

All the clarifications and explanations, boundaries and guidelines that are put forth in this Law of Love series are building the foundation and making it possible for the Family to move from the point that they're now at to a point of much greater unity, where they truly realize the "One Wife" vision and truly become married to one another in spirit. The "One Wife" vision is a very integral key part of the plan, an important piece of the puzzle. To live the Law of Love in every aspect cannot be done without the vision and determination to live the "One Wife" vision. They are one and the same. ⁽⁷⁸⁾

Let Me rephrase for you today the principles I gave your Father David many years ago in "One Wife," which still stand today: "I do not minimize family ties. But your ties to Me and the larger Family are greater and more important. And when the private family ties interfere with your responsibility toward Me and My service and even your spiritual well-being, they can be readily abandoned for My glory and the good of the Family. I am not forsaking the family unit. I'm just adopting a greater and more important and far larger concept of the family unit and family ties: The totality of the Bride and her marriage to Me, the Family and My service!"

I give you the same Words I gave My disciples on earth when they questioned Me concerning My Own mother. I replied, "Who is My mother, or My brethren? Whosoever shall do the will of God" (Mat.12:48-50). I didn't mince My Words then, and to you, My called-out Endtime disciples, I can do no less. Those Words were a hard saying then, and many were offended, not understanding the principle behind them. The principle was not an easy saying for many then, and it's still not an easy one today. ⁽⁷⁹⁾

A Major Move of the Spirit Toward Unity!

At this time I am engineering a major move toward unity. My Spirit is sweeping through the ranks and pulling all the children of David of all ages into a greater circle of unity, fellowship and closeness of heart, mind, and spirit. Living the sexual sharing aspect of the Law of Love is one part of this unity that I seek. But the unity overall--the unity between the younger ones and the older ones, between those of the same generation, between the older children and the younger children, between those who are single and those who are married, between those who are childless and those who have children, is all part of the great plan that I am putting into effect.

To live the Law of Love sexually is not the only side and the only message, and that is not the only goal that I am pursuing. For I lead My Family to live the Law of Love fully, to live all aspects of My Law of Love. My ultimate goal, the final end result that I am seeking, is the total unity of My Bride, the complete oneness of the children of David, both among and between the generations, and regardless of their ministry, their gender, their nationality, their personal situation or their marital status. I am seeking total unity, the ultimate fulfillment of the "One Wife" vision given by your Father David.

Living the Law of Love is what needs to be done. It is a great and magnificent solution, a mighty move of My Spirit! It is put forth through powerful Words of truth and revelation. It is the fruit of the conviction, desperation and yieldedness of the king and queen, and it will bring forth great fruit. But this in itself is not the only message. It is not the only goal, or the ultimate goal. As I said before, the ultimate fulfillment of My plan is the perfection and completion of the "One Wife" vision.

Living the Law of Love is not something on its own, separate from the fulfillment of the "One Wife" vision; it is part of it. It goes hand in hand, for you cannot have one without the other. As My Family lives the Law of Love fully, in every aspect, the totality of My Bride will come at last. They will become My total Bride, My One Wife, prepared and adorned to meet her Bridegroom. ⁽⁸⁰⁾

(Dad speaking:) The "One Wife" vision is a big subject and one that really turns me on! I'm thrilled with the Lord's far-reaching, miraculous, powerful answers to the Family's problems, and believe me, living the "One Wife" vision is just that! It's an answer that you've all been desperate to find, and it's been there all along, but you just haven't fully understood it. I know the idea of a "greater marriage in spirit" is a pretty deep truth. So with the Lord's help, I'm going to try to explain a little more about what it means to be married to one another in spirit, as One Wife.

But I'm going to ask you to also help me with this explanation. I can hear you now, saying, "What's Dad talking about? How can we help him? We hardly understand the 'One Wife' vision ourselves!" Well, I'll tell you what, I'm going to give you some ideas, some starting points for understanding and putting the "One Wife" vision into practice, but then I want you to take it a step further and talk about those ideas, discuss them in detail, and see how you can live them--how you can put them into practice in your daily lives.

There's something very special about taking the time to talk about what the Word says. It's one thing to read it, but when you have to actually sit down and think about it and digest that Word and see what it means to you personally and as a Home, then you really get down to business. Then you can really make fast progress.

So as you read this message, I want you to be thinking about this little assignment. And then take some time to talk about it as a Home. It doesn't have to be immediately after reading this Letter. You can think and pray about it for a while, but don't delay too long or you might just forget it altogether. Thanks for your help on this. You'll see that it's worth the effort.

When you want to apply the "One Wife" vision in practical terms, just think of the things you would do in a private marriage--being loving, considerate, kind, supportive, comforting, caring, sharing, and so forth--and try to put that into practice as much as possible between you and all of your mates in your greater marriage. The way to put the greater marriage of the children of David into practice is all around, as much as possible, in the different areas of your lives.

Just think of all it takes to make a marriage, and work on that. Go to it! It will help to keep in mind that it does take time to grow into marriage. You can't necessarily expect everything to be hunky-dory from day one--you have to invest in it and work on it. But you have to start somewhere, and the important thing is to be growing together, making progress, and working on your marriage day by day. It takes lots of hard work to make a marriage work, but the results are well worth it! The results are strong bonds--strong cords that cannot be broken.

Remember, folks, although the Lord has given you the liberty to share sexually and to love each other in the bed of love, and this is wonderful and liberating and has many, many pros to it, sexual sharing is still only a small part of marriage. This marriage is all about real, true married love and is manifested in much broader terms than mere sex, emotions, love relationships, and in-love feelings.

With your greater marriage, the Lord wants you to live your married love. What's a marriage but a union? It's a uniting together. It's becoming one. So the best way everyone can begin to apply this marriage in practical terms is by living and putting into practice real, true married love, and getting it together as one Family, one wife.

Look at each other as individuals. Look at the other as that person you love, that mate that you need, that part of you that you cannot live without, because one cannot do without the other. Look at each other as someone who has something to contribute. (See 1Cor.12:12-25.)

Sex is really a very small part of a marriage--only about 2% or so. It's a very small portion compared to all the other factors that go into a marriage and into making it work. Sure, there will be relationships developing due to this greater marriage. There will be all sorts of relationships and degrees of emotion and love, and they won't always be the same. But just because there will be relationships and greater freedom sexually than has been practiced in recent years in the Family, nonetheless, all this should not dominate or be the main goal or thrust of the marriage of the children of David.

Even with the relationships and situations that arise, many of these will change from time to time according to the need and according to how the Lord is moving and working in each individual life. Emotions and in-love feelings will play a part, but they are not the main part. So I would advise you not to look at this as the main area to begin working on in building your marriage. You don't have to go out of your way looking for relationships. It takes a lot of lovin' to make a house a home, and it takes a Heaven of a lot more than sex and in-love feelings and relationships to make a marriage!

Don't get me wrong. I'm all for sex, and you guys certainly know that by now! Sex is beautiful and it can bring lots of unity and help bind you together. And as is obvious, sexual sharing is a part of this marriage, and more sharing amongst those who can will be one practical way that will help bring unity, when done in love and in counsel with those involved. As many of you have discovered, sexual sharing, if done within the guidelines of the Law of Love, really helps bring you together.

But as you have also found, it takes a large measure of love, prayerfulness and seeking the Lord for guidance as to when, where, how, with whom, and so on, and to make sure that no one is left out, or that people aren't getting too far off kilter to one extreme or the other. All things are lawful, but they are not always expedient. So in order to do this, you have to get it together in prayer, in counsel, and in seeking the Lord. To have a fruitful marriage, all the necessary ingredients--love, communication, prayerfulness, consideration and sex--have got to work together, because a false balance is not pleasing in the Lord's sight.⁽⁸¹⁾

What It Means to Put the Greater Family First!

(Dad speaking:) Putting the greater marriage first doesn't mean you need to minimize your ties to your personal family, but it means giving the greater marriage the proper importance. It does not mean you must forsake the marital unit, but you are to embrace the far greater concept of marriage. It means that instead of drawing a circle around your own little family that will shut others out, you are to draw a circle that brings others in. For example, it doesn't mean loving your own children less, but it means taking the children of others into your arms, your heart, your lives, and trying to love them as much as you love your own. It means bringing others up to the level of your personal marriage relationship and your personal individual family--bringing them up to the level of love, understanding, sympathy, concern, and all the things you naturally feel for your personal family.

This is a complicated concept, because the Lord wants us to love others as we love ourselves. He wants us to be considerate of their needs, to give of our time, strength, love, and prayer, to do what we can to make sure all our mates are well cared for, happy and complete, as much as possible. On the other hand, He purposely, distinctly, and within His will gives you greater natural feelings for your personal family, for your one wife or mate, and also for your own children. He does that because He knows we all need some personal touch in our lives. Children need personal attention and personal love, to feel like they belong to somebody, that they have a place. They need to feel the security, comfort and warmth of the family unit.

So there's a place for both--the personal, individual family and the greater family. Each has its purpose, and you can love one without neglecting the other.

I would say the tendency of most people, of course, is to have a deeper love for their personal family, their immediate mate and their own children. Our priorities usually center around our own mates and our own children--not only because of our natural selfishness and independence, but also because of God-given desires and burdens that He's put in our hearts to care for and protect our individual family units.

It's very natural and understandable to be more concerned about your own mate and your own children--that they have their needs supplied, that they are happy, that they feel loved and content and challenged. It's good to love your mate and children in this way, and it's part of your duty as a husband or wife or father or mother.

People of the world are also concerned for their immediate family. But it takes the supernatural love of Jesus, the miraculous grace of God, to try to love others as much as you love your personal family, and to care as much about their personal needs and their feelings of happiness, security, contentment and challenge.

It takes the supernatural love of the Lord to care as much for a single mother and the needs of her children as you do for your own wife and your own children. It takes a supernatural vision in the spirit to see that single mother and her children as being your wife and your children in the spirit. It takes the supernatural love of God to be moved with compassion for that single brother or sister, and to reach out and give them what they need--whether it's a shoulder to cry on, a prayer, some time of communication, or lovemaking.

All of this requires the work of the Spirit. You can't do it on your own. You have to be strong in the Spirit, strong in faith, strong in love, strong in sacrifice. That's why so few people in the Family fully understand the principle of "One Wife" or the concept of the greater marriage, because very few people want to make that kind of sacrifice. And the sacrifice I'm talking about is not forsaking or minimizing or mistreating your own individual family, but it's broadening the borders of your tents and giving more love and more concern, bringing others in and making them feel a part.

It's sad that the Family has gotten quite separate, quite selfish these days. The married couples are quite exclusive in their relationships and there is a lot of loneliness. Many people feel quite alone. You know, it's a natural God-given desire to want to belong to a family, a team, or some kind of body where you feel like you have a place and you make a difference, where people want you as an individual, they need you, and you make a meaningful contribution.

That's why companies that make all the employees feel important and needed and crucial to the success of the business are often very profitable. The employees are very loyal and they'll work hard and sacrifice willingly, because that feeling of oneness and belonging is a great motivation. It's a much better motivation than just money, promotion or glory, because it's a God-given desire, something that the Lord has put in the heart of man.

It's sad that even in some of our Homes people feel like they don't belong. They feel a little bit like outsiders, and like something is missing. They're there and they do their part, they fulfill their duties, but they wonder who really cares. Sure, they make a difference on the schedule of Home duties, and they take part in the witnessing and the training of the children and the JTT and the raising of finances, but they don't really feel like an integral part of a team or a body or a marriage.

I guess that's why there's so much moving from Home to Home. People don't stick together for long or dig in to pioneer and nurture and build a strong, lasting work for the Lord. They're always flitting from here to there, from one Home to another or one field to another.

What I really think they're looking for is just to belong. They want to find their place and those they can feel close to. They want to be somewhere where they feel accepted, needed and wanted--somewhere where if they left, it would really make a difference and they'd be missed as an individual, as a person, not just as someone to fill in the schedule, or help raise funds, or clean the house, but that their particular gifts, their talents, their personality, their sense of humor, their strengths, even their weaknesses and their individual or funny ways would be missed.

To put the greater Family first means to love your brethren with as much love as you can possibly muster up! It means, by God's grace, to give your brethren, your mates, your teamworkers, your co-workers, your friends, that single mother, that single brother or sister, and all the children as much love, attention, recognition and appreciation as you possibly can.

Remember, when you feel like you're doing all you can to muster up the love, that's when you must let the love of Christ constrain you! It all has to be a miracle of the Lord's love! The supernatural love of God is love enough to love anybody--and that's what it'll take to live the Law of Love. This is what it's all about--loving others with His supernatural love. But you're going to find that if you just step out and obey, He'll give you the love you need.

This is what He wants to do; He wants to love others through you. He has no hands but your hands, no arms but your arms, no mouth but yours to speak His words of love and encouragement. Right now it might seem impossible to you, but if you'll just give God a chance to love others through you, He'll do all the rest. He'll do what you can't do. His love will constrain you and move you to love others in a way you never thought possible before. As you put Him first and love the Family with His love, He will pour down His grace upon you--grace enough to love others, because it'll be His supernatural love working through you.

Each of you needs to ask the Lord to help you to love others as much as you love your own immediate family. That's the spirit of "One Wife" and putting the greater marriage first: When you're willing to expand your exclusive private relationship and reach out to others; when you're willing to sacrifice some of the private time you would have together to include others; when you're willing to open up your heart, mind and time to include other children when you're tutoring your own, or teaching them to read, or doing a science project with them, or reading them a story, or helping them to learn a new language, or just having fun, fellowship or get-out with them.

It's so easy to be private and exclusive; that's the natural way of man. It takes something supernatural to be giving, open, unselfish, and to love others as you love your own personal family. But it's not an impossibility! The Lord can do it! You just have to work at it and be willing to try. And above all you have to ask the Lord for His supernatural grace and love.

Now some people are called to make a decision that requires them to put their personal family in second place to the will of God. Sometimes people, especially shepherds and leaders or those with unusual callings, are asked to make great sacrifices for the sake of their ministry. You look at our leadership today and you see that many of them spend a lot of time away from their loved ones or their lovers or their children, and they do that for the greater good of the Kingdom and the Family. In many ways I guess it does look like they're putting their personal family in second place, and I think they are, because what has first place in their hearts is a desire and willingness to do the Lord's will no matter what the cost. If He asks them to do something to serve the Family, to shepherd the Family, to pioneer, to feed the Family or to strengthen the Family, and it requires a sacrifice of the time that they would normally have with their individual family, then they're willing to do that.

In such cases, they do put their family in second place. But you can be sure that the Lord blesses such sacrifices--both for the mate who must leave to fulfill the Lord's will and for the mate and children who stay back. And even though such sacrifices are difficult, and sometimes it may even look like the children or the mate suffer as a result, you can be sure, and I guarantee, that the Lord will bless such sacrifices in ways both seen and unseen. It might not always seem like it to those involved, but in the long run the Lord will more than repay--you can never outgive God!

The Lord asks all Family members to make sacrifices to one degree or another. Just like the example of the leader or shepherd above, the Lord will ask something of you personally in order to promote His Kingdom and His love and the unity He's trying to bring about, and to help you to be the loving Family He wants you to be.

For example, say you're a young couple with small children and you're looking forward to spending your family day together having a picnic, a little quiet time, a little personal communication, and giving a little individual attention to your own children after a busy week. But then the Lord lays it on your heart that the single mother in your Home and her children would like to go with you to the park on your picnic. She's been lonely and her children would enjoy the fellowship.

In that case, the Lord in a way is asking you to put your personal family and even your personal desires in second place for that time, so that you can open your lives and your time and your attention to someone who is in need. But you see, you're not really loving your immediate family less--you're loving the others more than you were previously if or when you tended to have a more exclusive outlook! You're trying your best to love the single mom and her children as much as you love your own, by drawing a circle to bring others in.

Here's another example: Maybe you as a couple had planned to go to bed early and have a time of lovemaking, but instead it turns out one of your co-workers is having a big battle with loneliness and is really missing a friend that he or she used to be very close to. So instead of having your personal time together, you invite your co-worker in for some Word time, fellowship time, and prayer time together. Or you go out for a walk together. Or you even have your mate go spend time in fellowship and lovemaking with that person who is lonely. This is another example of how you put your own personal desires and your personal family in second place. But it doesn't mean you love your mate less; it means you try to love that lonely person and give some of the time, attention and love to him or her that you would normally enjoy or that you had previously been enjoying exclusively.

It means that you open your lives together to others, that you hear the heartcries of those around you. This doesn't mean you have to love your immediate family less, and of course these times of reaching out to others need to be balanced with the genuine needs of your personal family and marriage and the investment of time you need to give them too. Of course you will still need time alone with your personal family, and you do not need to feel you always have to invite others along.

But take it from me, I can guarantee that if you'll begin to look at the needs of others, as you begin to look outward, as you become more sensitive to the needs of others around you, you're gonna find that the time you spend sacrificing to meet the needs of others is not really a sacrifice at all. You're gonna find it doesn't have to harm your marriage or your own personal family to help meet the needs of others around you--someone who has less than you, someone who is needy. You're gonna find that, instead of it being a sacrifice, you'll have the Lord's blessing and reward for your giving. You're gonna discover the great benefits there are in living His Law of Love, and that you never lose by giving!

That's what I did. I always opened my home and my arms to others. I drew a circle to bring others in! That's why we have the Family today. There's always room for one more! There's always room to reach out to others and include them in your circle of love and fellowship. Pray and let the Lord lead. Pray and ask Him how to find the balance, and He'll make it clear.

Naturally, you won't be able to meet everyone's needs the same; the important thing is to be open to who the Lord is leading you to reach out to! That's why He gave us the Family! We're one body! And everyone's needs should be getting met, and everyone should be doing their part to make that happen in whatever way or in whatever capacity the Lord is leading you to. If the Lord is speaking to your heart to reach out to those around you, you'd be wise to listen and follow His leading. Try it, and discover the great benefits it will bring to your life and the lives of others.

So you see, putting your greater marriage first does not mean you're putting your private marriage down to a place of lesser care, or to a place where your mate or children will be harmed. It means that you bring others up to a place of greater care, and you're willing to let your own desires and personal preferences take second place to the needs of others at times.

I know this isn't easy, but that's what living "One Wife" is all about. And you can be sure that the Lord will bless your efforts and reward you. It may not happen immediately, and it may not be in the way that you expect, but some way, somehow, the Lord will make it pay. He'll show you that you never lose by giving--by giving love, care, and attention to others, as you give to your own loved ones, your mate, your children, and those closest to you. ⁽⁸²⁾

Marriage Is...

What is marriage? It's a union, a uniting, becoming one. It's being together, acting together, and doing things together. So looking for ways to do more things unitedly and together when possible would be a good start.

Marriage is understanding. It's being blind to the faults of the other. It's being considerate in every way--considerate of the other's time, of their feelings, of their wants and desires. Marriage is caring. It's being concerned. It's going out of your way to make sure the other person is well cared for and has their needs met. Marriage is kindness. It's kind words and putting those words into action.

Marriage is support. It's supporting your mates in their ministries, in their endeavors, in their projects, in their battles and trials. It's supporting them with your prayers and with your actions. It's going out of your way to help them if you can--to give them moral support, physical support, prayer support, all-around support. It's cheering them on and encouraging them when they feel down. Marriage is stooping to lift the other. It's being strong when the other is weak. It's caring for the sick and comforting the lonely.

Marriage is protection. It's protecting your mates from harm or danger by not making unwise moves, by keeping good security. It's protecting the other's feelings with kind words and deeds and actions. Marriage is provision. It's doing your part to make sure the other has their needs met. It's pulling your share of the load. Marriage is hard work day after day. It's going out of your way to meet the needs of each of your mates in whatever way you can, even if you don't feel like it. Marriage is lending a helping hand.

Marriage is sacrifice. It's sacrificing yourself for the benefit of the other. It's being ready to give up your own ideas or desires to make your mates happy. Marriage is giving of yourself. Marriage is yielding, bending, melting together. Marriage is going out of your way. It's preferring the happiness of another to your own.

Marriage is stepping out and trying new things, even if you think you might not like them. Marriage is learning from one another. It's give and take on both sides. Marriage is taking turns. It's not one-sided. Marriage is submission. It's giving the other person a chance. Marriage is living and loving and helping one another.

Marriage is being open-minded. Marriage is willingness--being willing to sacrifice. It's eagerness to lay down your life for the ones you love. Marriage is walking a mile in another's shoes. It's compassion. Marriage is fellowship--doing things together, being together. Marriage is companionship and friendship. Marriage is listening and understanding.

Married love stands through thick and thin, no matter how hot the trials or how hard the test. True married love never gives up hope for the other. It's always there, always dependable, always ready with outstretched hands and open arms to take the other in--to love, to comfort, to hold, and to cherish. Marriage stands through the bad times as well as the good times. Marriage is learning how to let it pass.

Marriage is honesty and good communication. It's being willing to share your heart and your thoughts in all humility. Marriage is as sharing as possible, as equal as possible. Man does not see equality as the Lord sees it. In the Lord's eyes, "equality" is everyone having their needs met. It's no one being left out, overlooked or forgotten. The marriage of the children of David should reach out and draw a circle to bring all your mates in.

Marriage is talking, communicating, praying, discussing, sharing ideas and agreeing together. Marriage does not let things build up between you by ignoring them, but it finds a way; it creates solutions. Marriage is joining hand in hand, heart to heart. It's standing shoulder to shoulder and arm in arm. Marriage is faith. It's all about faith--faith in Jesus and faith in each other. Marriage is confidence in your mates.

Marriage is discovery. It's discovering each other, learning about each other and all the funny things you say and do. Marriage is a good sense of humor. It's relaxing together, enjoying each other.

Marriage is accepting others for what they are. Marriage is coming to the realization that you are not complete without your other members. Marriage is respect. It's respect for the other--their talents, their anointing, their time.

Marriage is humbling. It's doing the humble thing. It's self-sacrifice. It's giving and giving and giving again. It's meeting the needs of the others first, before your own. Marriage can be plain old hard work! Marriage can be the most satisfying and strengthening experience you will ever have.

Do All You Can, and God Will Do the Rest!

Hallelujah! How's that for a "to do" list, or a "needs work on" list! That ought to give you some ideas on how to practically apply this greater marriage in the Spirit, and when you talk about these ideas, you'll undoubtedly come up with some even more detailed and specific ideas and applications. What a vision! What a goal! Just think of all the things that a marriage is, and then apply it to your mates in your greater marriage, those who you live and work with. Live together, love together, be helpmeets to each other. Go out of your way to love your mates--the ones He has put in your care.

I know this might look like a high goal to reach, but you don't have to worry. All you have to do is let go and let God, and He'll do it through you!

Marriage is taking action! It's taking action to show love throughout the day in whatever way you can. It's making a conscious, outright effort to put into action all of these ways to make it work. To make this marriage work, everyone has to do their part and take action! Do something to progress each and every day to move toward greater unity, greater togetherness, and greater love.

Marriage takes time--it's a process of learning and loving. And remember, folks, if you want this living the "One Wife" vision to work and be successful, marriage is a matter of being the right person rather than trying to find the right person or trying to change others to be what you think they should be. That's the key to success. If each of you will determine in your heart right now that you want to make this work, if you will stop and pray and make a commitment to the Lord that with His help and by His grace you are going to try to be the right person, then that's the victory right there! Because once each of you determines this, once you make the decision in your heart and mind and spirit that you want to do it, you want to try, and you want to do all within your power to make it work, then the Lord will do the rest! You do all you can and God will do the rest!

As each of you strives for this, to be the right person for each of your mates, everything is going to work out just fine. Hallelujah! What a marriage--the greater marriage of the children of David! This is supernatural! It's divine! It's going to cause a mighty roar, a mighty wave, and the repercussions are going to sweep the nations and rock the Earth! This is a marriage with a purpose, a marriage made in Heaven! Hallelujah!

Now I can see some of you wondering how on Earth you will ever be able to put all this into practice with so many people, when it takes so much work and effort to do some of the above with even one mate! If you're wondering how you're going to be all of the above in the greater marriage, with so many mates and so many personalities and so many likes and dislikes and so on and so forth, don't you mind that! All you have to do is at reach out and love those around you. All you've gotta do is love the one you're with! Love those right by your side who are in need. The Lord has given you each other to love--so love your neighbor, that brother and sister right there with you who needs your love and care.

Just take that first step and you'll see that the Lord will meet you, He'll help you, and you'll be amazed at what He'll do! As you put forth the effort of a believing will and you step out on the waters and begin to put this into practice today, in tangible, practical ways, as you reach out and love and give to each other--no matter the marital status, personality, nationality, or whether a first or second generation adult--He'll pick you up and carry you along with the greatest of ease! And the more you love and reach out, the easier it will get.

Love the one, young or old, that the Lord is putting in your path day by day, moment by moment. That's all you've gotta do, and you'll be surprised at what the Lord will do. Love your mates in your Home, the ones who cross your path daily. Just love the one who is crossing your path at that moment. Do your part. Be the person God wants you to be for that mate, in that moment, and God will do the rest! Praise God!

This marriage is going to rock the nations! And like all fruitful marriages, it's going to bear fruit--lots of fruit for the Kingdom of God! I love you! Keep on loving!

Are you with me? Are you ready to leave the old behind and go on with the new? Just like a man and a woman leave their mothers and fathers to marry, to become one flesh, to start a whole new life, are you ready to begin a whole new life of love? Are you ready to enter into the totality of His Bride--united in vision, goals, body, mind, heart and spirit?

Here we go! Standing arm in arm and shoulder to shoulder, let there be no more division! Hallelujah! Love, Dad

The Law of Love and the Millennium

(Dad:) The Lord wants to use you to be witnesses of His Law of Love to the world, because in so doing, He's paving the way for the world of tomorrow when He returns to rule the world by His Law of Love. This should be the biggest incentive for our folks to start living the Law of Love right now--knowing that this is how the Lord's going to rule in the Millennium. He's going to govern by the Law of Love because it's His law. How else would you expect Him to rule? And those of His children who are obeying and following and living His Law of Love right now are the ones He's going to use to help Him reign then! The Lord's giving you a head start! (Living the Lord's Law of Love Part 2)

God's plan is not going to be stopped! So what our folks need to ask themselves is this: Do you want to be a part of that plan and be at the top of His list--His shining examples to the world to help Him usher in His Kingdom on Earth?-- Or would you rather be left behind and have an awful lot of catching up to do later? It's time the Family faces their fears about the Law of Love--because like it or not, the Law of Love is going to rule the world of tomorrow!

I need kings and rulers, priests and teachers, but first I must try them to see of what manner of substance they are made. We can't have weak, greedy, and unstable people in positions of authority in the Millennium, can we? No. So now, I have to squeeze, and test, and purge everything of the world that is in you. I need to remove all your desires, wants, temptations, weaknesses. Not because I want to hurt you or turn you into some brick of a person—that is what the enemy will tell you, that going My way will only lead to loneliness and pain—but because I want you to be ready and able to take up the jobs I will have for you when this little age of man comes to an end. I'm fashioning you into a better, more useful vessel. And I know you want it. And you know that it is only going to bring out good in the end. You just have to fight to not get your eyes on the world and on the present battles so much. Look to Heaven! Look to the future! Look to all that I have in store for you when this life is over! You may be on the battlefield now, but soon you will be at My side, enjoying all the wonders of Heaven, and Me! Oh, My dearest Bride, look to Heaven, look to Me, and remember that this world will soon pass away. All the things of this earth will be gone. And we will have to start over again. Everyone will be given their place of service—well, not everyone, because there will be those who will have a bit of schoolwork to catch up on. The Millennium is a serious time, really. It's man's last and final chance to accept Me and My ways. There is going to be a lot of work to do and I am going to need those who have learned to sacrifice and forsake their own wills and ways, desires and plans, their own ways of thinking, their personal mindsets, and everything that doesn't go along with what needs to be done.

Does this scare you a little bit, the aspect of still having to sacrifice in the Millennium? There will be many new lessons to learn in that time. Many new things that you have not been able to learn now, you will learn then. Like the sexual side of the law of love, or the jealousy battles, or other things that you have not yet had the time or proper situation to learn. I want to tell you that you shouldn't worry about what is ahead. I'll be right there with you to help you through. Your spirit helpers, also will still be around and will be able to talk to you and help you in any way they can. It's going to be a new age and new life and whole new way of doing things! Oh, My love, it's going to be exciting! Don't fear the battles, relish them! Each new battle you face and win you become ever closer to Me and My heart—you become more like Me and can therefore help others more and can be an even more flowing vessel of love. With battles comes victories, and oh, aren't victories sweet!? We're all in for a wonderful time, My love! Don't let the devil deceive you into viewing battles and sacrifices through his perspective. Throw off those muddy, broken glasses of his and look skyward once again! Look up to Me. Look into My face, My eyes, and let Me show you the truth. Eyes are one of the best mediums of communications, you know. So just sit there and stare into My eyes of love and see that all I have destined you to go through is for the sole purpose of making a better vessel. (MB)

You're in training for the next world, the next life. You —nor anyone else for that matter— can stop the coming new world. I will rule and reign with My Millennial saints and then rule on Earth with those who remain. These things are set. What each one does with the time that I have given them before those years of peace and correction is up to them. Many do not know it, but all are in training for those days. You, My Children of David, have been made aware of this fact first through your Father David, then through your gift of prophecy. You, My brides, are already living in the Heavenly culture. You have been given many of My Heavenly principles, such as the Law of Love and your spirit helpers. These things are the true reality. They're the true culture, the culture that will last. The more you give to living these truths and obeying and sucking for the Words I give to you (the New Wine), the less of a culture shock it will be for you when you are at last reunited with the world that is your real home: My world, the spirit, the true reality. My Heavenly Culture is open to you. You must only listen, receive, and believe, then you will walk as the angels walk, and you will be a well-prepared citizen and leader of My Heavenly Kingdom that is to come. (MB)

The more you shed the flesh and the things of the flesh, the more of the Spirit you can take in and imbibe. That is what I am trying to do with you here, on Earth—get you prepared and adequately adjusted to the Spiritual ways, so that when you come back Here, you will be more knowledgeable of the carnal ways and how to overcome them and surpass them. You'll have learned how to live in My Spirit even while you are in the flesh. In the Millennium, all you who have gone through these sort of tests—the tests of learning to forsake the flesh and its attitudes—will be the most invaluable leaders, teachers, bellwethers, and example-setters of all. I will need brides like you who are devoted and have learned to live My Law of Love while in the flesh, so that you can pass on your insight and experience to the Earth peoples that are left. (MB)

(Grandpa:) It doesn't matter whether you are the minority, and everyone tells you that you're useless, insignificant, and accomplishing nothing. What the hell do they know?! Who cares if it seems like no one sees you now and all your efforts seem to be unseen? They'll see you all soon enough when Jesus puts you on stage and shines His spotlight on you in the last days! You'll be glad then for this peaceful time of seclusion with no one watching your every move. Who cares if you're the minority and no one seems to care what it is you do, and what it is you stand for? They'll all very soon have to care whether they like it or not, because He's going to make you all into His kings and priests and rulers and queens! And then they'll all have to sit up and take note. Then, what you have learned about the Law of Love will become the law of the land, and everyone will have to learn it. It may not seem too important now; but really, we were never fighting for the Now! Jesus said in His Word that He was making the children of David into a whole new Culture. What culture is that? The Culture of the Millennium! We don't care about this old, filthy Earth—we're just passing through, further up and further in, onto a New World! All that we're doing, all that we're fighting for, is for that Place, and for that Person—JESUS! We don't give a damn if those snobbish fools look down their noses at us! What do they have in comparison? Pride, selfishness, greed, and lust! And a world that's passing away into oblivion! You may feel insignificant now and what you're learning and giving your life for may seem insignificant, but just wait until the Real World comes, the Everlasting World, then what you have learned will be the most important thing and will propel you far ahead of all the rest who held onto their Earthly cultures. What you're learning now is the most important thing in the whole Universe because it's eternal, it's forever, and it's going to take over the world and cover the whole Earth! (MB)

The devil hates My Law of Love. He hates it because it is the future. It is the building block, the cornerstone on which I will build My new church, My Millennial church. Long after Satan has been put away in a place where he cannot hurt himself and others, My love will live on. It will bring new life and hope to those lost in the darkness, those who will embrace the freedom of My spirit when they see it in your eyes and read it from your hand and feel it in your loving touch. Do not fret, My amorous one, do not hold to the past as the Old church does. They love the past. They love the old ways: the ways of man and his boxes and squares and circles and things that contain and hold. They find comfort in these things. Whereas, you My ardent sexy bride, you find no pleasure in the earthy things of life. You cannot be contained. You want freedom and life, and a wild and free Husband. (MB)

Guidelines and rules, law verses grace, what do you want? Now that you have become men, put away the childish guidelines, rules and laws and live My Law of Love. This is the guide for the next millennium, this is the Golden Rule. In doing this, you fulfill all the law and the prophets' dreams of the perfect world. Those that fulfill this law, even in their imperfect state, will be those that I build My new millennium church on. (MB)

Prophecy Vitamins on the Law of Love

(All prophecies are Jesus speaking unless otherwise indicated.)

84. I would that you live My Law of Love; against such there is no law. The greatest of these is love.
85. (Natalia:) Praise Him, cherish Him, adore Him for the privilege of living His Law of Love, which is entrusted to your care.
86. The bond strong enough to endure will be found in truly living My Law of Love.
87. (Dad speaking:) Your commission is to live the Law of Love and to give of yourselves and your loved ones to those who are in need.
88. (Natalia:) Love one another as He loves you. Live His greater love, as He lived the Father's great love. Lay down your lives for one another daily, as He laid down His life for you. Live His only law, which is love.
89. Brotherhood, the Law of Love, and unity will turn on the faucet of My blessings.
90. Claim the keys of love, unselfishness, giving, and faith to help you live the Law of Love the way I intended for it to be lived, and your life and relationship will become a fountain of happiness and fulfillment.

91. If you're not living the Law of Love and are not a sample of Christian love and kindness, then this will eventually cause Me to pull back My hand of generosity.
92. The gift of loving Me intimately, the gift of hearing from Me in prophecy, and the strength you will have from living My Law of Love that I have given you--all these things will be a great witness, and will bring many to Me.
93. Sensitivity cannot coexist with My Law of Love. Sensitivity is selfishness, and the selfish cannot live the Law of Love fully.
94. Love is an action. Love is not something that exists just in your heart or in your mind. It is action--the action of understanding, the action of leaving people alone sometimes, the action of being Me for them. Be what I would be for them. Love is putting other people first; it means not worrying about yourself.
95. Reach out and touch those who are in need and lonely and broken and empty, those who have given their lives for Me, those who have forsaken all and left it all behind. It's a small thing for you to do to repay, to show your appreciation, to manifest My love to these who have given so much.
96. You're going to embrace the Law of Love as you grow in faith, and I'll be there to help you through every trial. I'll be there seeing you through. Fear not how you will make it, for I will make it for you. You have but to come to Me, and we will make it together. Isn't that great?
97. (Dad speaking:) We are dropped out of the world, and we don't care how the world does things! We do things the way God wants them done! One of our main jobs is to prove to the world that God's Word works. He intended for it to be lived and practiced, and we are living it! We are proving that it can be done!
98. Those who continue on in the army of David must strive for unity at all costs. You must endeavor to live My Law of Love, to live together in unity, to unite in vision and goals, in oneness of heart, mind, and spirit. You must join together as one wife, one body, one bride, ready and willing and yielded to the desires of your Bridegroom.
99. This is the goal, this is the key, this is the secret, a combination of prayerful shepherding and of each individual learning to live according to My Law of Love--learning to operate as one body, one unit, one heart and mind striving together for the sake of the Gospel, for the sake of My lost sheep.
100. Real love begins with an effort, because the mind must choose to turn from selfishness. Now I know that's the ideal, because of course you're still human and subject to human emotions, and there's always some thought of self there. But the point is to try to live My Law of Love, which is not focusing on yourself and what you want. It's taking others into consideration, and looking to Me and what I would have you do.
101. Everything that I've done for you so far I can continue to do for the rest of your life, if you're faithful to trigger those blessings through your obedience and through your living according to My Law of Love. That's something you can count on. That's an investment that will never go bust. It's rock solid. You've already seen Me at work in your life, and you know that I work.
102. In recent years, the years of the new day, the Family as a whole has had to make many major changes. Now I take you to yet another level of learning and growth. I put before you another challenge, as I want you to grow in the area of love. This is yet another "new weapon" that I bestow upon you to help prepare you for the days of war that are to come!
103. The carnal mind is the opponent of My Spirit, for it is not subject to My Law of Love, nor is it subject to the miracle-working power of My Spirit. Therefore, if you are going to be miracle workers, if you are going to call on the power of the keys and access them to the full, you must put off the carnal mind.
104. When you find yourself having some trait or part of your personality that is not according to My Word or My Law of Love, take an active stand against it--and not just in suppressing it, but in seeking to overcome it completely, getting rid of it, and rooting it out of your heart. This is part of dwelling in the supernatural, which I expect of My children now.
105. (Spirit helper speaking:) Give love, give understanding, give sympathy, give compassion. Lift up the weak, encourage the weary, comfort the sick, love the lost, heal the wounds, love the unlovely. Live the Law of Love, and give to those in need. Strengthen those who are weak. Uphold those who are downtrodden. Be tender, be kind, show mercy, and walk in truth.

106. This freedom in the flesh is only a minute part of the freedom that I want to give you. It is beautiful and it is wonderful; it is needful and I do want you to have it. But it is only a tiny part. It is a stepping stone and a door through which you pass that you might experience the true freedom of the Spirit, that you might experience the love of the Wild Wind and the spirit of David and the spirit of Maria! That is the freedom that I want you to have!
107. This awesome gift of putting on My mind, of allowing My thoughts to rule in you and guide you, will further empower you to live My Law of Love, to be My face to the world, to fully live up to your calling of being My called-out ones, My intimate brides, My chosen of the Last Days, My miracle workers of the End, you who love Me with all your heart, soul and mind, you who are one with My mind, in whom I dwell and through whom I demonstrate My awesome and mighty power to the Earth and worlds beyond.
108. You want to continue to walk in My footsteps; you want to continue to love one another as I love you; you want to keep branching out into all the world, making disciples of all nations; you want to keep My commandments; you ask Me to help you to be doers of My Word each day, to live My Law of Love. The grace, strength and power you seek to fulfill all these demands lies within the keys. I cannot repeat it enough, and so I ask you yet again: Keep at it. Keep learning to use the keys. Keep calling on the keys. Keep turning the keys.
109. If you expect good of others, and have a positive attitude of faith towards them, then you reap goodness and love from others. Positiveness breeds positiveness. Yes, I know the problems, faults and failings are still there. But these things are not driven away by backbiting, or by cruel and cutting comments to someone's face. Remember that I am Love, and that My law is love, and My wish is that you love one another as I have loved you. I loved you when you were yet sinners. I gave My life for you when you were yet dead in trespasses and sins. Above all things, have fervent love among yourselves.
110. (To the adults:) Be diligent to know the state of your flocks and look well to your herds. Lovingly shepherd these precious ones, for a wise man learns from his mistakes, and yet a wiser man--your children--can learn from the mistakes of others. ... It is for you to lead and guide--to be there, to shepherd, to hold the hands up, to comfort those who are partakers of the plan that I have ordained for them.
- It is My desire that this be a good and a beautiful experience, that it not be a breaking, that it not be a tumultuous emotional upheaval, but that it be a good and beautiful, warm experience. ... Therefore, I say, make this a good and a beautiful experience, that they may grow into the Law of Love, that their faith may grow in the Law of Love, that they may experience the Words of David, as they are beautiful and as they are loving.
111. It's time to lay aside the old weapons--and when I say old weapons, I'm referring to the way you used to do things, the methods you used to rely on before I gave you the gift of clear and specific prophecy, the gift of loving Me intimately, before I revealed to you the tremendous power of praising Me constantly and asking Me everything and living My Law of Love fully. These gifts are meant to replace your old methods--of reasoning things out yourself, or guessing at what My will is, or struggling along in your own strength. I anointed you in those days and you got by fine, but it is now a new day! The old weapons that you used to fight with are dull by comparison and are in need of replacement. I have a supply of brand-new weapons to use, and they must be put into practice now. Some of them you've already used, but there are more to come! There's so much more stored up!
112. With such things as emotions, I have a great deal of compassion and patience for those who in their innocent or immature blunderings have hurt others. My children of both generations have learned many lessons along this line, and continue to do so. Still, the truth remains that My Word is the touchstone and the Law of Love is the antidote to selfishness and sin.
- If some emotion is obviously disrupting your life and your work for Me, take the time to sit down and sort it out with Me. Such things must be prayed over, for I alone can see into the heart and see if things have happened due to simple immaturity or lack of understanding in spite of your desire to do the right thing; or if through pride and selfishness there has been an opening for the Enemy's sirens of Obsession and Seduction.
113. These weapons of the Law of Love and the weapon of brotherhood are each unique, yet they are one. When you make them a part of you, they blend together to become one weapon of unlimited power.
- In this sense, these weapons blend together in you to create a power and force that nothing can stop or resist. In order to use the weapon of the Law of Love and the weapon of brotherhood, you must abandon the selfishness, pride, and laziness of your own human nature. Then these weapons are activated and you are able to use them in all their power for My glory.

114. I have many great things in store for you. I hold out to you gifts, high-end, high-tech tools. Those who are more mature in the spirit, wiser and more experienced, can see that they're top of the line, the best there is, and they reach out and grab them instantly. But those who are children cannot see the value and the quality of these tools, and they pass over them, content to play with their current toys and their little games. I give you a parallel that is relatable to you. These gifts--the gifts of prophecy, of loving Me, of praise, of living My Law of Love--these are the high-tech, top of the line gifts that I would give you, but you must trade in your toys and reach out and receive the gifts. Then you must put forth the effort to learn how to use them. Just as you take the time to learn a new program or operating system, you must take the time and put forth the effort to learn to use these gifts. For the more time that you spend, the better practiced you will be.
115. For behold, these young ones are on the threshold of great change, monumental change in their lives, and many will fear. Many will fear the future, for they feel insecure in themselves, and they feel that they are not yet ready. They stand before the great, mighty, wide ocean of My Law of Love, and there are those who would just put their toe in, and there are those who would wade out ever so carefully, and there are those who would dive in! For there are those who are at different levels, and each one must have his or her choice. They must not be forced, and they must not succumb to peer pressure or the desires of others, but each one must walk according to his own faith.
For without faith it is sin. Each one must live this Law of Love according to his or her own faith, for only in this will they be able to experience and feel the warmth of love that I want them to feel.
Therefore I say, guide them and shepherd them step by step and slowly, that each one may operate according to his or her own faith and that none be forced and none be embarrassed.
116. Slowly introduce the sexual freedom that I've given you to your friends and those who you're building a lasting relationship with; first by teaching them that sex is not a sin and was created by Me for your pleasure, then by showing them from the Scriptures how I have given the Law of Love, which supersedes all other laws. Then, one step at a time, unto each according to his ability to receive and comprehend, you can show them more and more. Use the Bible and the Words that I have spoken, which they respect and are supposed to believe and accept, as the basis for your teaching in all these matters. If you are able to build a solid foundation upon the Scripture, then it will stand strong when the winds of the Enemy's doubts and distortions come.
Use wisdom, hearken to My voice, and go step by step. Don't rush ahead, yet be not afraid. It's better to give them a little at a time, even if you're afraid it's stretching their bottle, than for them to find out about it all at once from some other source, and their bottle breaks beyond repair.
If you seek Me and follow My leadings and are faithful to give My message, then I will keep the hearts of those who you are ministering to, and they will remain strong with you through the storms of persecution and the attacks of the Enemy. Fear not, My John the Baptists of the End, but continue to prepare the way for My coming.
117. If you parents will do your part by living the Law of Love, you will find the hearts of others will be more readily turned to fill the need. "Give and it will be given unto you" is a golden rule of My Spirit. If you're looking for caregivers, yet you're not willing to truly make them a part of your family, you will find that help will not stick around for long. By this I don't necessarily mean that you need to take on a second mate, but I refer to taking in those who are willing to help care for your children as a solid part of your team, a member of your own little family. You do this by sharing the load, praying together, counseling together, being in close unity, making sure their needs are supplied, showing genuine love and appreciation for one another, living together in counsel and fellowship, as a family, living the Law of Love in all the small ways, and truly giving your lives for one another. If you're looking for helpers with solely a business-relationship attitude, it won't work. If you're looking for those who can help supply your need for help with your children, without considering and taking definite concrete steps to supply their needs in return, it won't work. Give and it will be given to you. Give and it will return to you. If you're looking for others who can bear responsibilities that you're not willing to bear yourselves, it won't work. You must lead by sample; you must truly share the load.
