

You are at the beginning of an eternal journey, so have faith and trust. (The City of Love Final Ministry Training Course compilation by John)

(Blue Angel :) Break the ties that hold you down to earth and hinder you from reaching deeper into the spirit. Pride is a weight, and it is something you must continually let go of. That is not impossible; it only seems impossible to the carnal mind and that's what holds you down. So empty your duffle bag, take each unneeded undesirable thing that is in there. Truly let go of the world you've lived in so long and step into the City. The freedom of Its spirit will fill you and you will feel lighter. Yes, your duffle bag will be so much emptier with only your essentials inside; no more of that junk. The junk of self-image, pride, self-confidence, self-centeredness and all the things you've held onto. The worldliness and the daydreams, the time-wasters and things you turn to when you feel bored and empty, all need to be pushed down the trash chute. They only left you more empty and discontent. They pushed you further from Jesus and made you believe in something that was only a façade. All the pride you've held onto to cover up what you didn't like needs to go. Continually! You will make it if you try and this is the way to do so. We pray for you and we help from the spirit every day. We pull you closer to the Bridegroom in any way we can. Jesus tests you to see if your love for Him is strong enough to endure any hardship and we don't want you to fail! How heartbreaking it will be for those who reach Heaven having not have fulfilled their mission, having stopped along the way. Don't let that be you, my love. Don't let the flesh stop you now. Having come so close, don't turn back now. Take each day as it comes, obeying, yielding, letting go. Becoming transparent is very painful, but what a beautiful thing it is. Becoming one with the King is so powerful that it blows all of you away and you become invisible. Isn't this what you want forever? No more self; now it is only Jesus and the Keys. (End of Prophecy)

(Jesus speaking:)... I'll warn you right now: no matter what stage you are in on this mountain, the darkness is allowed to pull on you if you make any –and I mean any– wrong choices. Even one, little, seemingly small, insignificant decision can give the darkness permission to wrap a tentacle around your heart and begin tugging!

(The City of Love Final Ministry Training Course compilation by John)

Saramay: Call on the keys of Blue and Gold and remember your life as it was and that your heart wasn't meant for this world.

If every time you feel that pull you call on the keys, then you will be able to escape...but I warn you the tentacles of darkness are impossible to get off unless you throw yourself these Keys.

It's an uphill climb and you can be sure that millions of things are desperately trying to pull you down into the morass so you can be darkened like mostly everybody else...but stay here on the cliff face and resist all the carnal mind and the cries of the world that you are insane for believing in Colors like Blue and Gold and Purple and even the Light which created this Earth you all live in...which are so far above their comprehension. You simply have to choose what you want to live for. What are you going to put your faith in?

Jesus: it's very easy to get side-tracked. The devil is continually sending distractions your way trying to pull you down and away from the narrow path. You know this, it's been told to you many times, and you know so yourself. But then why do you keep getting distracted? You choose to follow those distractions and let them pull you further away from My word. You disobey Me in following them and it is you who have chosen to go down that path. (End of Prophecy)

Saramay: Once you look away from us and our purity, the world will begin to color you. You start to lose the blue and the gold as you drift towards what the flesh so craves.

Blue angel:...“The mind is where we must start our journey. The enemy bombards the mind with the things of this world. If you follow his way, you will become deeply embroiled in this world, and in so doing, you may never, in this life, pass this way again. So listen carefully, my love; it is imperative that you close all doors to his voice.” (The City of Love Final Ministry compilation by John)

Saramay: He wants you to come deeper, so deep, that He can place within you that love...that yearning love, which rules my every step. For this is the love that, when I saw it and tasted it, knew I had to pursue it till I could hold it in my embrace and feel it running through me. You've caught glimpses of it and even, years ago, you saw this love as beautiful colors, some of which man hasn't even seen. This is the love that I speak of which ascends over even the colors of blue and of purple and goes deep, deep--so deep He wishes to take you, if you would be willing to walk away from these earthly things, that mean nothing when even just catching one glimpse of this love. This is the love that can rise above self. It is even seen in the world when one puts someone else before themselves-- sacrificial love. (Is the Color compilation)

Those who love to hold on to the past, who cherish those feelings of hurt and self-pity, pride and vain-glory, will fall by the wayside.

I don't know if the next dream and prophecy fits into this compilation, I only reached page two of twelve, but when I reached thus far, this is what I believe Jesus want me to share with you. DREAM OF ATHLETIC CAMP

Blue Angel: Do you know what vain-glory is? It is a pride variation that lifts itself up using past or present accomplishments of the flesh as a step ladder. Why is it vain? Because if you take a look at what the ladder is resting on you will see that it is being held up by a demon. Just like those Indian rope tricks you read about, where the rope hangs in mid-air and the little boy climbs up it. In the case of the ladder flesh is climbing; it is held up by the demon of self-importance; which is like a tower the person is building. You have to get off of this ladder; people spend their entire life climbing it and where does it lead them? It rests on the past, which when looked upon in the present is history, just imagination built on memories. Most of the towers that fall in the end of day when Jesus returns will be the towers that people built in their minds; the dreams, aspirations and carnal endeavors they thought were so important and pursued so fervently. The reason it is difficult for the mind to comprehend this concept is because the tower of self seems so real when it is being built. But like the ladder, all it is holding up is the flesh, the spirit doesn't need the ladder or the tower, it only needs Jesus. Poor flesh, poor mind...one day all is going to go  poof and all that will be left of that ladder and that tower will be the spiritual lessons that were gained in our time on earth. The history of man is full of towers and ladders of vain-glory, and people spend their lives studying the histories of man...can you imagine...of course you can...it is easy for the mind to go back to the past and build itself an imaginary tower of what it could have done if it were there...oh dear. People climb all sorts of ladders, and build all sorts of towers throughout their life. Good works is one; people love to be well thought of, and of course there is nothing wrong with good works. But the question is, who are those good works built on, self or Jesus? Be careful before answering that one, the mind is a tricky, sly and deceitful creature, it can tell all sorts of lies about oneself and its character and behavior and the motivation behind the things it does. Never mind, we are all going to know the awful truth in the end, when Jesus comes along and pulls out all the blocks that were put there for Him, from all those towers that everyone built in the sky. Then everyone is going to see how big or small their towers really are. When the dust settles, and all the crying has ceased and all the tears wiped away, we can all start again on the right foundation, using the right blocks. It's a scary thought, but it does make you wonder how much of your life is built on self and pride. But there is a wonderful consolation when you come to the realization that you can replace all that imaginary stuff with Jesus, and instead of a demon holding up your ladder Jesus can, and He never fails.

"The keys of the Kingdom can change your spirit, your mind, and your thoughts, so that you're in My Spirit, using My mind, and thinking My thoughts. The more you call on the keys of total possession by Me, the more they will be activated, and the more you will experience the changes you desire."

There is an interesting story of Amy Carmichael and her interaction with her missionary headquarters. After a few years on her Indian mission field she wrote about her struggles, and lessons, there were few physical victories, but many spiritual battles and victories too. The missionary society refused to publish her diary, simply because, the truth she described wouldn't raise support, why? Because supporters only want to hear about the success stories, who wants to support the deep spiritual lessons of a missionary. After being here on our field for more than twenty years and looking back for testimony worthy physical accomplishments and seeing none of noteworthiness, I sometimes wonder was it worth it. But you know, the reality of the situation is this...we are not here for those accomplishments, we are here for Jesus, only He matters, and although the saying goes...only what's done for Christ will last, I do think I've misconstrued that quote and applied it in a physical sense, when all along I do believe it is meant to be taken spiritually. The temptation to take some of the glory for what was accomplished for Him is just another variation of the trap of pride.

How much pride is in us? Well when you dream about past accomplishment, then I'd say the cup is pretty full. I wonder how many churches and missionary organizations, and this includes our former organization, I wonder how many were simply a sum of our own pride and vain-glory. It is not too hard to see, when the plug was pulled, how many of us were truly resting our ladder on Jesus alone.

One last thought in regards to this lesson...what is the beautiful thing about living by faith? You don't have to write some impressive physical accomplishment victory or even a traumatic testimony like some people like doing to garner support. Jesus already knows what's going on in your life down on earth, He already knows what you and others are going through and He's not looking to be impressed or shocked by our doings. He's looking for a different testimony, one that is very hard to express on paper or in photographs. You know the ones I'm talking about, because we all go through them. The sad thing is so many of us don't learn from them because as I said they are on that ladder that's running parallel to the pride variety, and not many of us like climbing that one.

1st April, 2024 (Prophecy) (Blue Angel) Have you allowed the devil to pull the wool over your eyes with self-pity and thus impossibilities to dim your sight and dull your ears? ...to where it has slowed you down on your path? Has he bamboozled you into thinking you just can't go any further? Are you sitting down in the Way...waiting for a change, that completion, that culmination of your trials! And I'm not talking about overcoming but the hoping that they will just go away!!! You actually know that they won't go away; it's just that you think about it in those moments when you give up. It's just become an unrealistic imaginary scenario that is a scapegoat to lean on; wasting your precious time on! Do you see yourself as a victim instead of a wife of the King; and that He 'cornered' you and you had no other alternative, being born into this life and being 'cornered' by the convicting truth of the Words of David! Similar to the King rounding up the beautiful young women, as Esther was, and without consent becoming a concubine in the King's household! But she as you were-"made for such a time as this!" That means chosen! That means you are in the right place at the right time! There are no mistakes with Jesus!

She could have resisted and rebelled but she had faith that Jesus was in control and His hand was on her life and He had a plan for her and a purpose. She yielded to her circumstances and underwent the treatments readying her for the King! To have stood out to the King, her spirit was different to the rest. Her beauty was in her yielding to her circumstances; embracing them to be so shining with the Lord's light on entering the King's chamber after two years of 'imprisonment' that she stood out above all the rest! If she had frumped down 'on the path' she would not have stood out; she would not have been that empty willing vessel that the Lord could use to win the King's heart and save her people. You would not be in the prayer war room each day, at this time in history, saving the billions of lost souls in this world's greatest harvest ever or holding up the Flame of Israel and praying for Jesus' return, if you weren't still on the path the Lord set you on, in the circumstances you are in right now! Who will carry the Words of David across the line, if not you all? Your circumstances make it all possible! They have made you what you have become and what you are doing right now and have led you right behind the Son! Where else would you rather be? What else would you rather be doing than your Father's will? (End of Prophecy)

(Blue Angel) You see, this really is the course! There hasn't been a mistake! You are right where you are meant to be at this moment. The thing is, you have a choice now that you see your path stretching in front of you...will you stay on it? Will you make half-hearted decisions; carnal-minded decisions or will you determine to keep your eyes on the goal, though you may fall by the way, you'll try again...and again! Will you hold on to the fact that you know you are definitely going somewhere, because you have a purpose because the Words of David and the new new wine have told you so! ...and you want to be all you can be...just for Jesus..... Do it for Jesus.

"Behold, a sower went out to sow. And as he sowed, some seed fell by the wayside; and the birds came and devoured them."

The Greek word used for 'devour' in Matthew 13:3,4 besides obviously meaning to eat, is also used in Luke 15:30 to mean to squander or waste, likening the prodigal son to 'devouring' his father's living on prostitutes- if you are not moving forward then you are sitting down letting the carnal mind rule, which is the opposite of the way the spirit looks at things so it must be the world, the 'prostitutes' in your life, and its ways that are holding you back that are stealing away your Father's living, His Word!! Remember this quote... you can take in from this world just by dwelling on the wrong things...

Clear...“I will take your seeds that you give me, and I will present them to your Husband. He will mingle them with His and give them back to you during your time of loving Him intimately. This is a part of full-possession. These concepts are very spiritual, and far above the carnal mind’s comprehension.”
(The City of Love Final Ministry compilation by John)

...it’s the reaching this point, this laying down of self and whatever you’re holding onto or looking at that you think will make you happy that I am asking you to let go of.
(Where is Your Spirit at? Comp.)

2nd April, 2024 (Blue angel) The thing is... that, you want there to be an end to it; a completion; a beginning and a definite end; to be over already!! And it’s frustrating for you that it just isn’t like that. Instead it keeps going on and on each day. Some days are better than others but yet there’s still that unattained, unsettled feeling; that reaching for, but never quite getting there; the illusive conquest! ...and you know the battle is lurking somewhere in the background waiting for it’s time to grab you! It’s just a matter of time! Sometimes you do get up and on the path again but then after a while it inevitably comes around and hits you again; Sometimes from the same angle and at other times from a new perspective. Very challenging, isn’t it? (End of Prophecy)

“....I am in the dark and I feel like we are losing everything and holding on with barely enough strength to continue.”

Stephen: Do you ever feel like that sometimes? Yes

Jesus: Yes, I put you in the dark, for a time, to teach you that indeed I am the Light...I am the Color and everything else in the world is darkened and dying. He is lying when he says you are throwing away everything you could have...cover your ears and don’t throw away your heritage for a mess of a pottage. You can become strong again; you just have to desire it more than anything this world can offer. It can’t offer you anything, really. All that it can offer is fake dreams, fake promises, and fake fulfillment and satisfaction. Can you believe Me? You have all this time...what makes this time different? (End) (“I Believe” compilation)

St.: Who can answer me? What makes this time different? “Why aren’t you believing Me anymore?” What’s changed your mind? Or are you still believing? I’m just wondering if you’re believing the fake or believing the real? Believing the fake that you can see, touch and taste and

Someone says “We’ve gotten weary in well doing”

St.: You’ve gotten weary in well doing! Are you supposed to be weary in well doing? Is that one of the laws of God?

Someone: Of course not. There are a lot of things we’re not supposed to be and do...but we do.

St.: Then you shouldn’t wonder why you’re in such a state cos you’re not actually doing what the word says to do. It says don’t be weary in well doing, but you’re being weary in well doing. Why are you being weary in well doing? Because you’re not using all the weapons to fight back! Weary in well doing is just a feeling! Because if I put a nice bowl of chocolate ice cream in front of you wouldn’t be weary in well doing, would you? You might feel like, o, I’m too weary to eat that. There’s too much sugar in that! Don’t you know how bad that is for you? Am I getting anywhere with you guys? No/Yes/No.....which one?

Someone: because you’re comparing physical weariness with spiritual weariness

St.: No, it’s not that complicated. You’re just not living the doctrine! Isn’t that what Jesus said, “I made it because I lived the doctrine. I did what My Father told Me to do” Look at the advantage we have over Jesus. We have all that written word now; all His words recorded; we have all the words of David, all the words of Maria and all the new new wine! We are without excuse!! We have all the instructions that we need! We’re just not living the doctrine! You can’t be weary in well doing and say that’s your excuse, that’s your reason. It’s not an excuse. You’re not giving it as your excuse, are you, because you know that it says, ‘don’t be weary in well doing; in due season you shall reap if you faint not!’ How do you faint not? By fighting! So you know the truth, so you’re not really saying that as an excuse, right? No.

Someone: It’s just stating a fact.

St.: Ha ha....but it’s not a fact! It’s a lie!

Someone: It’s a fact that you feel. You feel weary in well doing.

St.: Yes, exactly but that’s a lie because of the ice cream story.

Someone: No, that’s what I’m saying; you’re weary in well doing to do the spiritual things that you can’t see.

St.: So are you voicing the words of God or the voice of the enemy?

Someone: the enemy

St.: Yes, so why are you doing that? It says in the word not to do that! You're not living the doctrine! You're not radical enough, you're not determined enough!

Someone: That's what discourages you and makes you feel weary. I'm just a useless human; I can never get it right

St.: Yeah and if you keep telling yourself that you're gonna believe it. There you are with your hand in the mouse trap again. It's all relative this. It really truly is. You are what you tell yourself you will be;" I'm a doubter, I'm a doubter!" You wake up every morning and instead of saying "Good morning my blue angel, good morning my Jesus", you say, sigh, "I'm a doubter! I'm discouraged I'm weary in well doing!' We have to fight!..... I believe, help my unbelief! (End)

Are you willing to give all, even if everyone around you backslides? Even if everyone around you forsakes the Lord, are you willing to go on, you and you alone? Even if the whole world would forsake the Lord, are you still willing to confess Him?

This is the question that everyone—everyone still standing—must ask themselves. And not only now, but throughout your life you must make the decision again and again to give all, to forsake all in your heart for Jesus. You must give your life to Him every day, not just once.

((Hold On To Your Crown! [#3168]) (SEP 23, 2023 Reigniting Your Personal Flame))

Is there a Key for this part of the journey, Clear?

Yes, it is called the Key of Intimate Love.

"If you want to go deeper into the Spirit, then this is the way.

If you are truly absorbing the Words of David, (the seeds) there should be within you a great desire to want to do the will of God. These are all good indicators that your spirit is growing. By engendering a personal relationship with your Blue Angel, you are making your climb through the misty cloud easier. (The City of Love Final Ministry Training Course compilation by John)

5th April, 2024 why am I afflicted? (Prophecy) To look up again and see the stars that shine so brightly just for you! For time to contemplate and hear the whispers to answer your troubled mind and to spur you from the place where you keep sitting down on the path; to study the word old and new to bring your personal situation into full panoramic view to see from beginning to end; to pull you away from having your nose on the 'tree' and see the whole 'forest' so as to shine a light on your calling, your destiny, your mission and thus not be defeated by the enemy who is trying so hard to pull you down by darkening your way; to take stock of your condition and the supplies you need to keep on with your journey, so you can make it through to the finish line! (End of Prophecy)

If you sense a wall is in your way, then stop and ask Me how you can get around or through it. (Where is Your Spirit at? Comp.)

This time between the book-burning and the final days is a time of fine-tuning, locking into My still small voice. It is a time of grafting for those who would live in the spirit.

(Clear)...You have been given the key to my heart, the blue key is that key...so use it my love, use it because it is as insatiable as our Lover and King.

You and your Husband will be as one, inseparable, a seamless union of Creator and creation. You were created to fuse just as two separate parts of the same variety of tree fuse when grafted. When they are newly grafted these two parts need to be bound together with a strong cord until the fusion is complete. For a long time it is possible to see where the two were joined, but as the years pass over their relationship so the initial grafting becomes a fusion and the graft becomes less discernable until such a time as the two become one and the graft scar disappears altogether. (The Blue Key comp. by John)

Nov 20, 2022 (Prophecy) (Jesus:) If ye would come and lie down with Me in My bed and revel in the ecstasies of Heaven, thrilling to the touch of the Blue Beings, then I could more easily satisfy you. It is the Spirit that quickeneth, that makes alive your own spirit from within you. There are distractions, and blockages, that hinder. And there are circumstances that stifle the flow of My nature into yours. All these must be fought and avoided by any means necessary. If you sense a wall is in your way, then stop and ask Me how you can get around or through it.

But maybe I am trying to teach you to walk by faith, and not by feelings. Maybe I'm trying to open your spiritual eyes and senses more by barraging you with all these carnal side tracks. Something that is easily attained is never appreciated as much as a prize well fought for. Do you desire the Spirit? Do you desire, My loves? Then I want to see you fight for it, and prove to Me that you mean what you say.

I know that thou loves Me. But just as I had to ask Peter this many times, so must I ask you. For the flesh can overcome even the most well-meaning Brides. Lovest thou Me? Lovest thou Me, even more than these? (End of prophecy)

These are the things that hold people back: doubt, fear, bitterness, murmuring and discontentment. That's what destroyed the children of Israel in the desert. So forsake the things of the past; lay those things aside; those who truly long for a new day, a new start, and a new life, will latch on to this vision. They'll grab hold of it; they'll readily forsake those things, and go on. Those who love to hold on to the past, who cherish those feelings of hurt and self-pity, will fall by the wayside. (Where is Your Spirit at? Comp.)

7th April, 2024 (Blue angel) So this falling by the wayside; this sitting down on the path, whether through stubbornness or unbelief or discontentment or unwillingness and just plain weariness to let go is devouring you and has become a wall across your way! Eventually if you sit too long contemplating whether you will journey on, you will not be able to stay on this path and instead you'll have to get out of the way for others to pass on and eventually you'll have to take another path that goes back down. (End of Prophecy)

Me) I have realized that the habitual sitting down is rebelling against the Lord's will in my life and has become a stumbling block to me. Also it makes me a 'lifestyler' too because, in my mind, I have put conditions on serving the Lord that I want, stipulations to moving ahead on His way for me; ways that I think would better enable me to serve Him! We are supposed to be hidden in Christ, not Him hidden away somewhere hiding in us with me pushing my own will. 'Not my will, but His be done!'

Mary's, "do it unto me according to Your will" has been my motto and mentor but I have not been living it and have been sitting down on the path and stewing and saying, "I don't like the life You've chosen for me, Jesus!" That then makes me a lifestyler!

The question is, do you know what a life-styler is? Are you one? Do you recognize the symptoms? And if you do, are you soldier enough to push yourself out of that barracks to fight and die with your brothers and sisters on the front-line.

When you fall by the wayside, you give up your task; you put down your calling, your destiny, your crown!

22. The challenges in My Word and the true standard of discipleship as given in the Words of David, present you with infinite choices over the course of your life that could allow you to let go of the things of Earth and self and reach for the things of the spirit. But so often you only do this partially, not quite past the point of comfort, and leave off there.

25. I show you the rooms of your life that aren't fully open to Me and I encourage you to give Me access. But often you don't take the initiative to fully fling open the doors and drop the crutches and props and embrace Me and My Spirit. (NOVEMBER 13, 2022 taken from "Jesus is Enough", GN 1187 WHEN I SEND BREEZES IN YOUR LIFE...)

(Peter) I always knew that it was a big job, and I don't know that I was expecting it to get lighter. But you know that verse, "The spirit of a man sustaineth him"? (Pro.18:14.) Well, even if you're not really expecting things to change or the load to lighten, if you're kind of hoping for that in your spirit or in your heart, you can end up being a little double-minded. Whereas if you're clear on what the job is and what it costs, and you know what the score is, then you can make a conscious commitment to that challenge, which enables your spirit to sustain you more effectively. (Living Sacrifice, A [#3761])

(Prophecy) (Jesus) Come ye to the threshing floor and allow Me to tread on you and loosen the chaff, the unnecessary, the superfluous, the worldly, the pride, the coverings that hide My seeds; the stiffness, and useless façades. Let Me enter into the temple of your heart dear One; Bride of mine that is ever so close to My heart. Why feel weary My love? Why feel dry and parched? Come now and let me loosen the wrappings that you have allowed to encase you. I will be gentle but firm My darling, as you know Me to be. I know now you wouldn't want it any other way. I thrust deep and penetrate the very depths of your being; the 'you' that only I truly know. You know I see all, even though you hesitate and are unsure; you know I will eventually have My way with you and you will relinquish anything you were holding back. And it's so easy for the tares to send in their tiny tendrils that twine their way around your ankles; so subtly, so quietly; until they are tripping you up. They make you feel dirty and unworthy but at the same time somehow unwilling to be able to whole heartedly cut it off and burn it. There is hesitancy. Why? Because old sins have crept in and with them a tinge of unyieldedness, which leads to letting your guard down and letting pride flood in which puts up barriers and walls to others and your situation and those evil seeds which the sorcerer sowed take root. You feel something is not right; you feel restless and your hunger for the Word diminishes and your prophecy channel gets rusty. My love, hasten, for the enemy is at the gate!! Wake up from your stupor! You must stir yourself. Yes, it is a fight but the enemy wants to snuff you out or at the least render you a wishy washy half-baked bride. You must put on the key of Humility; put it around your neck and hold the Blue Key in your right hand; let it be your device, your 'cannot be without' gadget! Lay all else aside until we are ourselves again My most intimate! Bring yourself to My threshing floor where I can love you long and sweetly and let my breathe blow away all the chaff of your heart and mind. Loosen My sandal My love and I will come in unto you. I will redeem you and bring you back to joy and fullness of love. Lie with me and let us exchange sweet words of love and vows of renewal and I will remind you that your sacrifices are not in vain and the road is long and hard, but I will most joyously receive them for I know they have cost you dearly and I am so grateful My love. (End of prophecy)

(Prophecy) (Jesus) This is your test, My love, the time when it's just you and Me. That's what's really happening. These accusations, these questions, absolutely anything you're concerned about or feeling, though they seem to be turning your world upside down, aren't the real issue. The real issue is your faith. That's what's at stake here. And that's what the Enemy is after!

This is why I allow the attacks to be so fierce at times. These things are needed in order to cleanse your spirit, to drive you ever closer to Me, to take away all the props of the world, to remind you that there's nothing and no one you can count on but Me. Because deep down at the core of your spirit is that knowledge of the spiritual plane where our union exists in such a pure and exquisite way that you have absolutely no doubts or questions as to My power and strength in you, and the fact that there's absolutely nothing the Enemy can do to touch you or exact upon you, no matter what he tries. It's easy to forget this in the hustle and bustle and clamour of life and the spiritual battles you face, so I sometimes have to allow things to come up in your or others' lives to strip away all the gloss and props and take you back to the basics of this fundamental truth--that we share a love so powerful and timeless, there's nothing it can't overcome. No matter what happens, no matter what the Enemy sends your way, no matter how fiercely the spiritual warfare rages, we will always be victorious. The truth of My promise that the keys will win every battle you call them to fight is unbreakable. This is the reality of the spirit world.

(From The Relapse section of "Anorexia and How to Beat It" Revised)

I have gathered, He says, My myrrh; but it is for thee, My Spouse, for it is thy sustenance, which is nothing but bitterness; for suffering never ceases in this mortal life. Nevertheless, this myrrh is never alone, but is always accompanied by very pleasant spices.—The perfume is for the Bridegroom; the bitter myrrh for the Spouse. (Madame Guyon-'Song' page 61)

122. I thank You, O my God, for all that You do in my life, for all the wonderful things that You do to me. Most of all, I thank You for the warmth and the reassurance and the joy of Your presence--how You are with me every step, and how You uphold me with Your strong right hand. (Praise Kisses)

Rising above is not a work of the flesh; it's resting in Heaven's love through the keys.

The Lord expects us to show Him our unconditional love and trust Him in spite of not understanding what He's doing in our lives, much the same way that He's been showing us His unconditional love all along. (Sam from "Thirty Years" pdf)

Your minds are holding things up. They have to be brought into subjection through the Keys of the Kingdom. They are still running on the wrong frequency in too many cases.

(The City of Love Final Ministry Training Course compilation by John)

Romans 12:12 Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer;

I had to come to you now to remind you, before the morning dawns, that I love you. I saw that weary look in your eyes, and I couldn't wait a moment longer. I couldn't let you pass through this night without being reminded that this battle will not last forever. You won't be living on the battlefield forever. Your time on Earth is but a second in comparison to eternity--and in the eternal future, you will be living in victory.

You cannot be defeated, My soldier. Oh, I know how oppressive these recent battles have been. Your shoulders are so heavy, your knees are weak, and your heart is weary. But I am in you and with you, and it is written that you will overcome. It is promised. You have but to remember it and claim those promises. I want the knowledge of this flag of victory that is around your shoulders and that I created especially for you to strengthen your feeble knees. (To My Soldier with Love)

Spirit Helper: There is nothing that can be compared to what He has in His hands for you. You won't know what perfect is, till you look at what's waiting for you in this Heavenly Realm. I hold the keys to this beauty. I am your Custodian. I open the doors for you, and I make the way clear. It's not that I stay with you on Earth; my job is more like to stoke the fires in Heaven so as to clear the fog so you can see Heaven clearer. I am vision; I am sight; I go beyond faith, because when one looks through me they already "know" that Heaven is all the Word says it is. I hold the keys of seeing-through-belief, and I ever intercede for you. I burn the fires of your home, so you might see the light and continue walking onward. I will turn your eyes away from the temporal, and it will fade in your eyes. I will wash away the scales of carnality. But for me to do that you have to keep reading, keep studying the Word and soaking your spirit in His Words. I need a pool to pull from or your sight of Heaven will grow dim, and you will be disheartened. Pour it on and, I will use it to ever keep the fires burning. I am ready to do whatever it takes to keep your vision clear, but you have to keep drinking the Word or my task becomes very difficult indeed. (B&G comp.)

(I got the name of the spirit helper above, as the Hebrew word for faith, which is Emanuh (Ey-moo-NA))

Faith has never been about proof. Faith is holding onto hope that there is truth in what seems unbelievable! ("The Joy of UnFulfillment" comp.)

"The carnal minded fail to see the magic that keeps things running behind the scenes in life on earth, because they put everything down to a matter of fact, they tell themselves there is a practical reason behind everything that happens."

(Where is the Rain)

Ebed) You see, it's carnal-mindedness to think that you can do it; that you can somehow muster up enough strength and grace to overcome. You've tried that so much dear one, to realize it doesn't work. Maybe for a while but in the end you flop down by the wayside again without the wherewithal! The golden threads are a miracle and they will be in your life as you call on the Keys to do it for you. You have to believe that calling on them is all the power you need! Faith in the Keys! Call on Emanuh and the keys of seeing-through-belief! And look for that golden thread!! For it is there! Your love for Him, your willingness to try, despite your many sittings by the way, have endeared you to His heart and He can't help but lovingly craft your tapestry with these beautiful golden threads. Open your eyes, lift your heart to Him; adore Him with all your being; saturate yourself in the Word awakening the sixth sense He's gifted you with to see the many golden strands in your life...and thank Him for them. See the miracles happening right under your feet, though they seem not, only because that is your carnal mind looking at them, for the flesh profits nothing so it's only what's done for Jesus, those sacrifices you keep offering Him each morning, that you will be growing your spirit, drawing you ever closer to Him and being able to leave your baggage behind to show Him how much you love Him; being willing to be empty and keep walking the way He has chosen for you, so you can be His Torch! Take that next step He's asking you to trust Him with. This is the way...trust Him; believe without seeing. Remember, Emanuh holds the Key to the beauty that is awaiting you...and it won't be long now so keep holding on and keep getting up and keep walking. You have so much to learn yet, so see the honor being bestowed on you instead of the pain. Keep your eyes on the the Light on the mountain. He is coming for you soon, so don't whittle away your time sitting down in the way! The picket Key helps. Use it. (End of Prophecy)

(Clear Speaking:) The Key of 6.66 has a unique frequency. It is powerful to protect and it is powerful to destroy. Either way you use it, it can only be activated by your faith and the will of God. If Satan can destroy your faith in this Key, you are classed as —powered down. In other words, you are not operating at full power. This classification can be applied to all the Keys of the Kingdom. They operate under the power of faith; it is your faith that powers them. The worm cannot destroy the Keys— that is impossible, but he can attack your faith in them. And that is what he's been given permission to do in the next part of the climb to victory. The scaled and intensified attacks on Job is what I'm warning you of now. The enemy has been given permission to intensify his attacks on all climbers. (The City of Love Final Ministry Training Course compilation by John)

(Dad) ...Let me warn you, if you don't always keep a praise on your lips and thankfulness in your heart then you will become like those who lose sight of Jesus and His Words and are now living a carnal minded existence in the material world, which is always just across that imaginary line of faith that the God damned devil is always trying to pull you back over. It is his world that he wants you to believe in and he is always tempting the carnal mind to stay in the shallow existence of the world of man. If you want to see that golden thread more clearly then get digging into the Words of David and start believing what it is telling you and start doing what it is telling you to do.

Look at each day, each event, each problem with the eyes of the spirit and you will begin to not only see the golden thread but you will be woven into the tapestry as part of the whole miraculous design. Get out of that carnal world! Your body may have to continue its duties but if your mind and heart are in the spirit you will not be as other men and women, you will be otherworldly, you will see things that only prophets see and you will experience what other men and women don't. Jesus needs conduits, but that link, that flow of God's Word can only flow through a channel that is open to the wonders of God's hand in their everyday existence.

Jesus speaking: I know it is impossible for the flesh to see this, I know the mind fights against all that I am saying here, but I'm not appealing to your flesh and I'm not appealing to your carnal mind. I am appealing to your faith, the little faith that you have, that mustard seed of faith, simply needs more water in order for it to flourish. I know that water can be tasteless at times, that is why the devil adds sugar to it, he wants it to be more appealing, not the Word being more appealing, but the sugar, the lies he mixes in with the Word, which you know you should be taking in daily. The sugar could come in many different forms, it might be the type that is flavored with the "do it later" or seasoned with time wasters, for example a Heaven's Library story or some brackish ditty you dug up whilst searching for the real gold. Come on, you know the tricks, why are you falling for them so easily. Let Me tell you something about water before we go to the well to drink some. Water, no matter how flat it can taste at times, whether it is cold, warm, or hot, it will refresh your slated thirst and replace what has been lost since the last time you partook. So the age old remedy will always apply, "it doesn't matter how you feel about the Word, it will always do you some good, if only you will take it in, and the more regularly you do it, the more balanced you will be." (End of prophecy)(Where is the Rain? Podcast 7th April, 2024)

"Don't trust your feelings." What is the best thing to do when leveling-up? That's right, keep on going. Get into the Word, hear from us in prophecy, see where the next step is, and keep climbing. So many people miss what you are experiencing right now because they go by what their feelings are telling them instead of going to the Word to put something solid under their feet."

31ST March, 2024 (Jesus) There will be no rest or respite on this earth for the likes of you; this is not your place of rest but your place of trial and testing. Fear not the fiery trial that is to try you, for in due season you will reap if you faint not. Find comfort in the trials and testing of this life, it means that My love for you is still hot and heavy. This is no earthly marriage you and I are engaged in, this marriage is forged in the furnace of Heaven; the fire is hotter than seven times seventy, for I am looking for real gold in My wife to be. She will stand head and shoulders above others in dedication; her heart will be Mine and Mine alone. This is what you want and this is what I need and want with all My heart. I am the King of Kings and I will rule for eternity, so she who is closest to My heart must be tried and tested many times over. This earthly oven, that you despise so much, is My engagement gift to you My precious golden heart ring. All will see you on My hand and will know that you are of the most purest, finest gold. No earthly oven is hot enough for you; you despise the things of earth and only desire the purifying that Heaven can bring. Hold fast that which thou hast, let no man steal your crown. My hand is above your head; the crown is descending and will soon be yours. Hold on, the last trump has not yet sounded, but when it does, I want with all My heart for you to be standing right where I asked you to stand. I will come, not a moment too soon, not a moment too late. You are My chosen one, you helped Me write out the invitations, you helped Me set the date, you know not the hour, but you do know the day of our betrothal. Heed not those that have forsaken their crown, those who tell you it is not yet time, those who jeer and shout and speak empty words of discouragement. They know not the day for they have left the house of the King and gone out into the world to find their oil. The foolish virgins who allowed their oil to run low cannot counsel you My queen, for they run after the wisdom of this world and not the wisdom and ways of God. Their oil is rancid and sour, their counsel empty and void of the understanding that I have given you through the mouth of My prophets. Come now and rest in Me; twenty-twenty-four is well on its way, the year of preparation is vital for the last run to the finish line, the finishing touches must be added, the Keys must be well embedded, our bed of love must be well ruffled from many hours of loving, praise must continually be on your lips; never forget you are My warrior bride, so your right arm must be possessed by My power, your conduit across the veil must be clean and well-oiled from constant maintenance. Fall on Me when you are tired, weary and worn from the testing, come into My chamber and there find your rest. Do not look for rest anywhere else but in My arms, do not be tempted with anything but the finest perfumes, oils and incense. I have supplied all that you need for the year ahead, and if you desire something more, then call unto Me and I will come to you to fulfill your request. Remember, stand strong in My power and don't leave this spot I've put you in. I dearly love you My most precious bride. (End of Prophecy)

The seeds that you have received of Me, the seeds that you have sucked from Me, the seeds that you have allowed into your life, will awaken. Even now those seeds work in your spirit, in your heart and in your mind. Even now those seeds bear fruit within you, and they change you, strengthen you, encourage you, fortify you, and so much more, because My seeds are spirit and they are life. They're a spiritual force and power, and as you take them in, drink them in, and absorb them into your being, they effect great change within you, and they empower you to become more like Me. (The seeds will awaken! From A Fantastic Future!--Promises from the Lord regarding the Family's future.)(Going behind the Son pdf)

(Blue angel) Recognize the enemy wants to keep you on the wayside in the land of perpetual sneezing so that you won't get far and won't be much good. He's trying very hard to shut down your Revolutionary Racer so you won't be doing anything in the abyss saving those who are lost! And he wants to scatter your seeds so you won't take them and plant them in millennial soil; just out of spite and hatefulness! Pray for the grace to pay the price. You can do it if you love Jesus more than all these things and realize that this is only the beginning of the journey of eternity and you want with all your heart for your seeds to be chosen to go into the Millennium and for the Heavenly vision so you can endure this temporal earth life test. It really will be worth it all. Because this is truly what you are here for, as all humans are here for ...to find the seeds to start the journey! Are you one of those seeds? Are you top quality? (End)

Yes the numbers are passing by Me and I am choosing them carefully, just as I choose those seeds that are fit for the next sowing, so I choose these ones for their lacking. MB: I believe that this line is saying that Jesus is still choosing or sorting us seeds, in spite of the fact that some of us are still not quite grasping the enormity of what He's trying to do through us at this final stage in world history. So I guess this lack of grasping is akin to unbelief and unheeding. Beware, if you are in a state of unbelief because you stopped heeding these Words of New wine. This is the error many made with the Words of David. Nevertheless time moves on, so remaining in this state of unbelief will cause you to fall into the unusable basket. (Going Behind the Son pdf)

(Prophecy) These tests and trials are part of the winnowing and selection; I must have good seed and good soil for the Millennial planting. The coming millennium is the new spring. The winter is passing, and it's almost time to sow My new season seeds. The seeds that have held on and passed the many and varied stages of selection are being placed in My shoulder bag. With each passing generation I have selected the good seed and stored it in My bag for the coming sowing. Hold on, My brides, it won't be long now. Satan and this present world have entered the very last days and the time of purging and making white has arrived. And after that the tares must be cut down and then the harvest follows. (End of prophecy from MB) (FEBRUARY 23, 2023 Heavenly Thought Power...A Pearl of Great Price GIFT OF HEAVENLY THOUGHT POWER—PART 7)

(Blue angel) Even though there might still be pain for the forsaking, for the sacrifice, they count it as part of the price they need to pay and do it willingly. This life is as chaff! This is the requirement to make top-quality, vibrant seeds for the Millennium, for planting. They get the Blue Ribbon because they chose the frequency of Blue so they naturally get first place!

We are His beloved; we are some of the seeds that He is going to use in the soon-coming New Season replanting. We've been told what purpose the Final Key plays in this Endtime drama. We have a part in that Key. So what makes us privy to all this knowledge? The Words of David; the Words of God! And where do we carry them? In our hearts! And where are we taking them? We are taking the Light of Israel to the City of Light. This step we are taking now is part of that ascension, if you will. The old man has to die as we pass into the spirit with the Light of Israel. This is our commission. Our enemy is Satan and he wants to destroy us; he does not want us to succeed where he failed. He failed to hold the Light on high. He dropped the torch. With all his heart, he does not want to see us cross that line.

How many times since 2022 have we been warned through New Wine prophecy about these days we are living in? God forbid the desires of the flesh should smother our willing spirits. This is not the time to enter into sleep. This is our time to watch and pray that we not enter into temptation. Do you remember what Jesus said to the Children of David in: Revelation 3:10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth. For three years Jesus had patiently shared the Word with His disciples. Now the time of testing had finally arrived; wham, the Devil struck and snatched away their calling. Now is not the time to be heedless and unbelieving. Now is the time to attend diligently to what is being said here, else we fall into sleep and thus temptation. We must swallow down the spirit of belief, drinking in the Word that has been patiently shared with us these many years. Watch and pray, beloved. The last hour is upon us, and the enemy, as a roaring lion walketh just outside the camp. (4 glasses of wine Word doc)

(Clear)...soon enough your nature and purpose will change as winter recedes and spring arrives on earth; so will your very being take on what you have learnt whilst in the flesh. The flesh will pass away and a new life will break forth from the seemingly deceptive bare and lifeless tree that was called your flesh. All that you have learnt will blossom like a new flower as the dawn of God's millennium begins and all of creation sighs with relief as the darkness of winter retreats for a season. (B&G COMP.) What will my flowers look like? I wonder how many there will be? What will be 'the fruit' of my unyielded, disgruntled heart?

MB: The will of God is that every angel, man, woman, child and in fact creature, ever created, is required to make a personal decision to follow God's Word out of obedience; from the heart; this act of following is an act of love, loyalty and allegiance to the Son (Mark 16:15). The generations of the Family are no different, the 3rd generation we have with us now, must make their personal individual decision to follow in accordance to this rule or law, the Law of Love. What most people do not realize, and this includes the majority of Christians, is that God is not happy with a lukewarm type of following, which teaches that it is alright to follow Satan and his kingdom whilst at the same time declaring you are a member of God's Kingdom (Revelation 3:16) (MB's comments on the MO letter "The Little Boy Dream")

Do you want to give Jesus only a part of your heart, or do you want to give Him all? Don't be shaken in your faith, but go to Jesus. He's calling you to be His, so don't turn Him away. Come to Jesus and give Him your heart. Lay your life on the altar day by day, moment by moment, and He'll carry you through.

Without Jesus, it's only husks! Like in the parable of the sower, be that seed that fell on the good ground, rooted in the Lord. There will always be those who turn back, who can't make it for one reason or another, because they're planted in shallow ground, or they're not watered with enough water of the Word. Not everybody is going to be able to serve the Lord full-time. But He has called and chosen you.

So give Him your life—don't turn Him away! Give Him your best. And if you don't know what your best is or you don't know where you fit in, but you do know that you want to serve the Lord, then seek and find your calling. He has a place and a calling for each person, and He has one for you—just you! Seek Him today! He loves you, He wants you, and He will not fail you. Though Heaven and Earth and all your friends may pass away, Jesus will never fail. Jesus is calling you. Jesus wants you! Jesus is yours. Take Him, love Him, give yourself to Him—and He will give you everything! (End of message.) (Hold On To Your Crown! [#3168]) (SEP 23, 2023 Reigniting Your Personal Flame)

You have been blessed to hear Me, to hear My fresh New Wine daily at My gates. So enter deeper now to hear from Beyond—wisdom and understanding, direction, words of things to come, faith and trust that My spirit will sustain you through the 1260 days of Wilderness. It is time to cast off all the superfluous and truly focus and be single-minded. Tighten your grip on the keys and watch the words of your mouth that they are praiseful and that your thoughts are stayed on Me and I will call you My Wilderness walkers. You will see miracles, and I will use you to be all that I have destined you to be! You are not a mistake, because I know your heart even if you think you can't make it or aren't good enough. Shut the door behind you and walk deeper into the passageway where you'll hear wisdom from Above, prophecies from the prophets and New Wine heralded to My Wilderness walkers who even though tempted, will still hold up the Keys to the Wilderness and pass through the abyss of this last part of the journey! (NOV 16, 2023 Our Spiritual Wilderness -Part Five)

"It is a tough fight to break out of that system/matrix mold; but to do that you use the only thing that really is your own, your majesty of choice." (April 12, 2024...a broken vessel Celeste, Warrior Band Counselor speaking)

(Celeste) The life of a true follower of the doctrine, a true disciple is a life of sacrifice; it is a life of faith and constant danger; and not just from matrix bots trying to eliminate you, but the faith life is a life of not knowing where your daily sustenance is coming from, it is about striving to reach a goal that not too many others see. It believes in a dream that the heart knows will one day come true. These believers don't eat system bread, their dream is sustained by the Word of God; they know that without this spiritual bread their attempt to live a life outside the system/matrix will undoubtedly fail. They see others give up the fight, saying as they leave that it is not worth the fight, it is an endless rotational dream; they give any number of reasonable and unreasonable excuses why it is impossible. The life of a disciple is a constant fight to stay free of the entanglements of the world.

You've got to hold onto this fact, you've got to allow the mind, heart and soul washing of the Word of God to take hold and you've got to continually fight to make Jesus your choice and give your will to Him and His Kingdom.

(April 12, 2024...a broken vessel Celeste, Warrior Band Counselor speaking)

Anything that keeps a soldier off of the battlefield helps his war effort in some way. Jesus gave a Key out of that trap, it's called Matthew 19:29. Once you so much as even begin contemplating using that key you're instantly thrust into the arena of spiritual warfare.

(The City of Love Final Ministry Training Course compilation by John)

April 15, 2024...battle of the mind

The enemy's attempts are pretty pathetic, they always have been, but it is only when a soldier becomes more adept at fighting does he begin to see his enemy's weakness. Once a soldier actually begins to properly use the weapons he holds in his hands does he see that the enemy has no answering fire. The enemy's greatest weapon is darkness; or better described as ignorance. Of course he knows how powerful the Keys are, he's seen them in use by a professional soldier when Jesus walked the earth. There have been others since Jesus, but none were given the full-power of the Keys, full-power has only been released in recent years to the Children of David. As long as you hold your ground and continue to have faith that the weapon you hold in your hand is inflicting great damage on the enemy and his forces, then you will overcome. Some battles are short and some are protracted. You faint in your mind when you expect an easy fight and it doesn't come, or when you hear yourself saying you don't want to fight today, or I'm tired, or you suddenly come down with a bout of why me's. These are enemy snipers; they are trying to rattle you so that you will keep your head down. Watch out, he uses his snipers as covering fire whilst he sends his troops deeper into your territory. He's preparing for a night attack. As soon as you hear the first crack of gunfire you should be on full alert. If it takes a full scale fire fight to awaken you out of slumber then you will be overrun and we will have to send in the medics to carry you out of there. What we want to see is you calling for reinforcement just as soon as the first shot rings out, or better still when you first catch sight of the enemy from your forward position. You've been given night vision; you are not ignorant of the enemy's devices, you are simply being attacked by snipers right at your weakest point. A soldier that complains about conditions up in the forward position shouldn't be there. The problem we face at the moment is that the ranks are pretty thin and there are only a few willing souls brave and gnarly enough to be where you are now. We see the predicament you are in, but there just isn't anyone else we can call on right now, so you've got to do all you can to stay alive, you may not think you're doing much but actually you are, you are sending warning messages back to the main army, who of course don't realize how close the final battle is to their position...but you know, when the artillery barrage begins it usually flies right over the heads of the forward position guys because the enemy isn't going to waste his big bullets on a single guy, he wants to wipe out the main force, that he sees waking up because of the forward position guys warnings. You are being attacked because you've exercised the guts and courage to go way out in front of the main force, and are up in the forward positions fulfilling your duty as a warning beacon. Who else do you think the enemy is going to attack?

So put away the silly notion that you are sitting back at base camp resting on your bunk with your coffee. That is a mind game you are playing with the enemy, once again he's using his snipers to keep your head low. As soon as that and other similar thought darts hits you lift the key sword, that should already be hot and glowing in your hand and give that sniper a blast of 6.66 blue frequency and keep blasting away with that key and any other key that comes to mind, whilst you are waiting for the reinforcements to arrive. Come on soldier, there is no one else out here in no-man's-land but you and the other warrior band members, and as for them, well they are scattered around the world looking out from their forward positions too. They can send their prayers to you, that btw is the reinforcements I was talking about, but they can't come to your rescue. But that is how you guys are winning this war anyway isn't it? Prayer is that calling for reinforcements, so if you aren't doing that faithfully then it is no wonder you aren't seeing the progress you'd like to see. The exact same rules of war apply when the enemy sees it is time to go off to prayer time, he opens fire with his snipers.

Who would have thought that that left hand turn off the main road and out into a watery wilderness would have brought us such enlightenment?

God is deadly serious about living His truth as is found in the Words of David. He wants and needs a church that is separated unto Him, He doesn't care how big it is, He is looking for true believers, quality not quantity. I'm just parroting what God has said in many MO letters...but the truth is, even if He only has a handful of good golden seeds He will use them to replant in the new millennium.

29. IT TURNED OUT THERE WAS A ROAD UNDERNEATH THE WATER, AN UNSEEN WAY, A HIDDEN WAY, A NEW WAY, that went right into the heart of the castle, just like through this unusual new way of dancing at the clubs, right into the back door & right square straight into their hearts, hallelujah! TYL! In Jesus' name, PTL! I guess that's what it means, amen!

30. THE LORD'S TRYING TO SHOW US IT'S HIS DOING & NOT OURS, & He's the One Who led the way. We didn't know where we were going or how to get there, but He knew exactly how, & we just sat in the back seat & let Him drive, PG! TYJ, TYL! Amen, amen. That's what happens when you let the Lord lead, you just follow. He knows best & He knows where to go & the best way & the best road, the best way to get in, straight to their hearts! TYL! In Jesus' Name, amen.
