

Following the Little Dog Line ...for God's Sake Keep Following Part 1

(Our Commission for the Final Months of World History)

(All prophecies are from Mystical Bible unless otherwise indicated)

"I was the Lamb of God. There was no one else who could be that. If I had not made it that far, I would have failed in the one priority that was absolutely necessary, the one thing that had to be done even if nothing else was accomplished--to reach that cross and die for you. I had to put all else aside that in any way hindered that. Everything I did had to be in the direction of that goal." (Jesus' Life On Earth Pt.3)

The absolute number one priority that you must reach in your time on Earth, My dearest loves, is to fulfil your destiny. (Mystical Bible)

We have a commission as the infant bride to uphold the "Light of Israel" on the path ahead. There must be a seed to plant in the soil of the new day that is about to dawn.

The seed is not us but the Words of God, of David and Maria, and the eternal never-ending, ever-pouring New Wine. Our commission is to bring the light, the truth of God across the finish line. We are the last runner of this great Heavenly relay race. We are the remnant. There has to be an example and vessels holding the oil of God's Word when the Bridegroom arrives. There is no truth in the world; there is no truth out there. The flood of lies has swept the world in an attempt to carry the truth away.

Your destiny is to bring the Oracles of God through no man's land and into the Heavenly City.

Matthew 16:19 This battle has to be won here first...whatsoever is released on Earth will be released in Heaven. My loves, this is a deep secret. It is man's yieldedness that must be achieved. If man cannot yield to the will of God, then the Earth experiment cannot continue. This may seem too much to put on the shoulders of weak and insignificant man. But you see, I have already broken the back of Satan, and I have promised all power to anyone who has the faith to exercise My power whilst on earth. So through the power of the keys, bind the power of Satan and release the power of Heaven by being those chosen ones to carry the torch of faith to that final day. Even if there is one man to step across that line, the line dividing this old world and the next, then My plan will have succeeded. There will not be only one man; there will be more. Please be among those precious few that prove that My will can be accomplished whilst on Earth.

There are only a few short years to go, and these years will be dark and troublesome. I must lift My Light above the darkness in order that those that have no light may see it. I that have begun a good work in you will see to it that the Light is brought home. The flame of David along with the banner of David must be brought home and placed in their rightful place, to ever burn as a testimony to all that the band of David's mighty men fought through to victory, not in their own strength but in the strength given them through the Words of David and the New Wine I poured into their vessels as they fought on to the finish line.

Run with patience, My loves, this race that is set before you, laying aside the sins that do so easily beset you, keeping your eyes steadfast on Me, your Word. I am your signpost. If I say run this way, then run this way. If I say turn left, then turn left. I have given you lots of "run the race" prophecies over the years, and they almost always give the same advice. There is only one way to successfully run, finish and win this race and that is to keep your eyes on Me, the Author and Finisher of your faith. There are hundreds of Keys that are available to you that will aid you in staying on the true course. At this point in the race, you need tenacity and faith. Faith to believe that the finish line is just around the corner and the tenaciousness to hold on to the vision that a crown is waiting there for those that cross that line. I give you My solemn Word that both finish line and crown are there, but I cannot promise that it will be you that crosses the line. That crossing over is in your hands. I have given you all the help that I can give you. But race rules clearly state that I cannot run the race for you. You alone must cross the line. There is much I can do; I can even carry you for short distances, but I cannot carry you all the way. I, My Word, the Keys, and your spiritual counterparts are all available to you. But without that one, all-important, vital ingredient, all the helps, a multitude of helpers and even I Myself are of no avail unless you believe we are real. That takes faith and faith can only be had through faithful study of My Word.

Your faith must remain solid and steadfast in the Keys, for they are the all-important ingredient to victory. You must hold on to your faith, in spite of all that the enemy would tell you. He is a liar and only wishes to side-track you and your mission of remaining faithful to the Words of David. What is required now is for you to remain faithful. Do you understand?

Now is the final hour approaching, now will the enemy attack as never before, now is his last attempt to sway those Children of David still standing. Be not overcome but overcome through the power and might of the Keys of the Kingdom.

It won't be long now, beloved of God. Hold high the Light and it will shine on your path and bring you all home to My loving arms. My Children of David, hold the Light even higher, hold it up for all to see, My warrior band, My Cathars of the end.

I have ordained you to carry the Torch of David to those that sit in darkness. Great darkness is upon the Children of David and they hunger for what they know not. Do not doubt that My hand is upon you and upon this small candle that you hold up in the gross darkness of this Endtime. It is given to you and to those that heed this call of David to carry the flame across the finish line.

Continue to walk by faith, My loves; continue to follow by faith trusting that this is the way that I wish for you to walk. Keep calling on the Keys of the Kingdom, loving Me intimately, praising Me for My mighty works, listening to prophecy, loving your brothers and sisters as I love you. Keep on until that final day dawns and I gather you into My arms forever.

Come Out of the World – Live By Faith

I have always called My children out of the world. But in these days of the End, My call is more urgent, more insistent, because a line has been drawn; I am separating My sheep from the goats of this world. I am calling My remnant into the wilderness before judgment falls upon unrighteous mammon. My just ones shall live of My hand by faith and the unrighteous ones who trust in the arm to save them will fall into perdition. If you would know in which direction to walk, then listen to My whispers. If you are following My checks and leads, then I will lead you to the hungry sheep. By following My will, you will be fed and cared for by Me and those that you minister to. Fret not for tomorrow, take My hand and I will lead you to green pastures, for I that feed the sparrow will also feed you from My hand. I promised that I would supply your food and clothing, yet if you come unto Me, I will supply much more than that, for I love to dote on My faithful brides. If I supply through someone that I have brought along your path, then that is from My hand. But to go into the world to curry favor for gain is an abomination to Me and My soul will have no pleasure in you.

I do a new thing, for this is a new day. Time is short; only what is done for Me will bear fruit and sustain My children in this time of the End. All of My children must decide whether they will live by faith and depend on the "God factor" alone, or whether they will serve Mammon. They cannot serve two masters.

My loves, the last days are upon you. You will need this unshakable faith to stay out of the system. When the day finally arrives when you are not able to buy, sell, get a visa, or travel to the next town without a mark or number, you will be ready. You will have already turned to Me when that fateful day of decision comes. You will have already made your decision to make a stand and trust Me. And I, your Husband, am well able to keep you in the hour of temptation that has come upon all the world—yea, all the world, worldlings, Christians, unprepared Family members, and even Children of David, who, if they were truly listening, would have made preparations. And what preparations do I speak of? I speak of preparations of the heart, those of faith. The building of your faith begins way back before this time and certainly the hour of temptation. Those that do not believe now, or who hesitate now, will believe then, but it will be too late then. It is now that the vessel must be made ready. It is now that storm prep must be enacted. Those that look for signs and wonders in the sun, moon and sky will be found wanting. But those that listen to My still small voice now will be those who will not waver, tremble, flinch, nor even consider the possibility of giving up. These are they that will not consider the prospect of surrender.

Also Come Out of the World in Spirit

The System is controlled by the Enemy now. And we all live smack-dab in the middle of it. It doesn't take much to deduce that we have to fight harder and have a lot more conviction and determination to be in the world but not part of it. Everywhere you turn, the sirens of the System are crying out. The pull is real. The Devil controls the world systems, and he wants to control you. He wants you out of the Family. The only thing that will keep you from his influence, corruption, lies, doubts, and eventual ruin is the Word! And since his influence is stronger than in times past, you must be stronger too, in the Word! The strength to fight the influence of the Devil's System and the pull of the world is only found in the Word! (What Is Jesus Worth to You? #3433)

(MB) Forget about that line "out of the Family" –unless you want to pertain it to being "out of God's family". Other than that, "The Family" as we knew it, doesn't exist. It is now the Children of David/Gideon's Band/Warrior Band. We have come through a very great purging and are now in the wilderness and about to face one of our greatest tests ever. And the test was just summed up in the previous paragraph. The System is controlled by the Enemy now.

The mind and the pull of the world is strong. So to the mind, the easy way is to let yourself fall and just be carried away in the current of this world like everyone else. But that is not the way of God, the way of God is for fighters, those that buck against the stream, those that fight the ways of the world and men, those that stand up, even though their ship has been severely battered and half their crew is dead, they say, "Hell no, we haven't even begun to fight!" If My children do not resist the enemy and the continual pull he applies on the flesh, then they will be swept away. As a person walks deeper into the stream, their feet begin to lose contact with the bottom and they begin to float. They must float or sink; sinking and drifting with the current are the same thing. Once your feet leave the safety of the river bottom, you must swim, not drift, not sink, but swim against that current that will inevitably take you to the sea.

Be on guard and keep that desperation, that constant awareness of Me. Don't fall into lethargy and complacency. It's deadly. The sleeping gas of the wicked witch or the drowsiness of the enchanted lands are more deadly than the blows and sword of Apollyon. At least when you feel the blows and see it for what it is, you respond and you attack and fight back, for your very life, survival and sanity depend on you fighting. But the sleepy air of the enchanted land, the lethargy, blinds you to the real danger and puts you in a stupor so that you not only don't recognize it as an attack but you don't even want to make the effort to lift your sword arm. When you are in that state, everything seems normal, and the difficulties seem too hard and all you want is a bit of fun or a little lust of the flesh. But you don't see it as an insidious attack to bind you down in the world of the flesh and keep you from accessing the wilderness, the place where your strength is.

The days are very dark now, My close ones, very dark indeed. The signs and events spoken of in My Word and in the Words of David have become blurred and difficult to discern for those who are convinced that their book knowledge will get them through this Endtime maze. Come deeper, My ever-present ones; come into the wilderness, for it is promised that this land of My spirit is where I will nourish you during the days ahead. It is here where I will keep thee in the hour of great temptation.

The Wilderness Is Also For Our Spiritual Preparation

If I hadn't gone into the wilderness, then I would not have been strengthened for the very big job of winning the upcoming battle with Satan. Before I went into the wilderness, I was in no way spiritually ready for what was to come after my sojourn in the wilderness. Before the children of Israel went into the wilderness, they were not at all ready to face what was going to be required of them to enter the Promised Land. I had to go in, they had to go in and you have to go in. If you don't, then you won't be ready for what is up ahead. It is My will that you pass through the wilderness.

There is a time and season for everything under the sun, and now it is time for you to pass through the wilderness and experience all that it has for you. Don't waste this time like the older generations did; use it wisely and you will have come through the final test of this Earth life.

Prophecy, the Keys and the Word

The importance of hearing My voice of direction is vital. Expertly using the Keys of the Kingdom is vital; staying soaked in My Word is vital. I, My Word and the Keys are the vital component that will win this final battle.

Prophecy

This is the time to listen to the still small voice of God, to stand back and know that I am God. This is the time to be led of the spirit and not the mind of man.

Listen and learn, listen and be fed from the very hand of God, the crystal clear waters of prophecy pouring forth from the River of Life that pours forth from the Throne of God.

Dad speaking: That counsel about listening to the spirit of God to lead you had better be your bread and butter from this minute onwards, because that old Devil has set such a trap that only the still small voice of God can get you through the minefield. The Devil has buried mines everywhere and unless you are following Jesus and us, you are going to be blown up, and not just blown up but into thousands of little pieces.

Look outside with the eyes of the spirit. What do you see? Yes it is dark, very very dark. Okay...now that you are focused, what do you use to light your way when you go outside at night in the dark? A flashlight, of course. Don't use a candle; it will be blown out by the gusts of wind that sweep across the landscape during a storm. Use a flashlight. The Old Wine was like a candle; it most definitely brought light to the path ahead during those days before the storm hit. But when the storm hit, that is when your flashlight of prophecy became the go-to. If your batteries --now this is a modern version of the lamps and oil-- if your batteries are low --or God forbid dead-- then YOU are dead, literally.

If you haven't learned to receive and believe New Wine from your channel of prophecy, and on a daily basis, it will be very difficult for you to make it through the dark days that are now quickly falling across the globe. This is a very important message that must be gotten across to everyone. The days will soon be upon you when you really will have no choice but to use prophecy for every step you make.

If you are telling yourself that you are going to make a stand when the time comes, then it makes perfect sense to earnestly hone the gift of prophecy, of hearing from us on every count now.

Prophecy must not be second nature; it must be first nature. Prophecy is not a natural thing; it is supernatural. It is given by spiritual beings, whilst you are in spirit. This simply means that you have to walk in the spirit all the time to receive directions daily, hourly or by the minute. I'm giving you warning, because up ahead we are going to be giving what may seem to you pretty wild directions. Of course those directions won't look that crazy from here. That is because we can see around the corner and can see that there is only one way to avoid what is waiting around that corner. We need you to appreciate the fact that you are going to be asked to perform some pretty far out moves, just like Moses was asked to head for the Red Sea when he could have taken the king's highway along the coast. Thank God he obeyed, right? Well...let the same be said of you one day in the future when a teacher is looking for an example in his history book of a good follower.

Spirit helper: The best way to know what's up ahead is to be hearing from us here in the spirit world. In a way, doing this and recording what you hear from us is like writing a new gospel or a new book of Acts...the "acts of the Endtime apostles." So don't think that you always have to be going back to MO or Maria. Yes, there is a lot of good material there that you can use if you want to make a good point or footnote on what you are talking about or what we are trying to tell you in prophecy. But the future is always ahead of you and to know what needs to be done in the immediate and even not-too-distant future is to hear from us here. And the more you stop to hear from us, the more open your channel will become. It's something like a new well. At first the water just trickles, but in time, the more you use it, the more open those small channels leading to the well begin to open up. If you stop or slow down the well's output, then its input begins to slow down because sediment is building up.

So let's build a healthy line of communication by you asking us a lot of questions. They don't need to be always specific to what you are going through that day. You can just ask us anything that comes into your mind, for example, a question or something that you always wanted to know about. It's called exercising your channel. The more you do it, the more you will want to do it and the more strength you will gain from doing it. Once that channel is flowing, we can, at any time, interject some new stuff or stuff you hadn't thought of, a revelation. The New New Wine is an exciting new world that is just waiting to be explored by those pioneers of the spirit. So let go of the past and move with us into the future. There are so many new worlds to conquer.

Be strong now, My warrior brides; be strong in these Words that you hear in the quietness of your heart. This is your guiding light, leave the past behind and keep climbing.

The Keys

I have told you that I am the way, the truth and the life. I have told you that the Keys, My Word and I are one and that we are that vital component that is needed to help you make it through these last days. The Keys have the ability to give you anything you need for the job at hand. The Keys to the Kingdom are the vital component to having faith for making it through the very dark future that is ahead.

My Children of David, My prophets of the End, you are facing the darkest days this world has ever experienced. The world and you along with it are about to experience the final days of man's rule on earth. Fear not the things that must come upon the Earth. For I come with a fan in My hand, and I will fan the fires of tribulation. Man has turned his back on Me, his only salvation, and has instead trusted in the arm of the usurper. You have made the right choice; the world has made the wrong choice. The great falling away is complete. Now is the time of miracles, Key-powered miracles.

Though the days just ahead are ones of unequaled darkness, know this: With these keys in your hand, you will see everything more clearly and much brighter than you ever have. Even though there is darkness all around, you will shine as you walk, leading others to the light of My love. This is a precious gift I have bestowed upon you, My children of the End.

The spiritual world is vast, and I have allowed the Enemy control of certain sectors of it for now. The keys were created to part the veil, to give you instant access to My power. The Enemy seeks to stop you from gaining access, and his efforts to block or hinder you will increase even more as you draw closer to the End. That is why you need the power of the keys to access My full power immediately, instantly, in the blink of an eye. The keys give you direct access to the power source of Heaven, the awesome and mighty power that could, if it were My will, destroy every last demon of Hell, including the Devil himself, in an instant.

The enemy is sore afraid of the power of the Keys and the people of the Keys, the Key bearers. I have called you to a mighty task, one that will have great impact on how much damage Satan and his fallen ones will inflict on the people of this last generation. It is largely up to you as to how many people will reach that final day and be counted as the blessed. Daniel 12:12 "Blessed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days."

(Jesus:) Ahh...Matthew 16:19... There is your key, darling. The enemy tries to snuff out your light. He is desperate to render you useless because —why?... Why would he be attacking you so viciously at every turn? Because he is desperate to stop you! He's frantic to pull you off the wall of 'yielding to My will'. He is pulling you down, pointing the finger and telling you that it's just too hard, impossible, "How can anyone be expected to give up so much?" "Your efforts are so puny and what difference do they make anyways?" "It's 'not normal' Lord, what you are requiring of me! What's really the point anyways?" But... what is loosed on Earth is your yieldedness. That is the ultimate, the goal, the prize, the vital ingredient. And it's what the enemy fights tooth and nail, constantly bombarding you to resist, to pull back, to become stubborn and rebel against My way for you. But I have equipped you for this relentless battle of self and pride versus surrender and transparency with the all-powerful Keys of the Kingdom. These hold the power. Wield them and you will cut Satan down and cast him out of your realm, the realm that you and I inhabit. This is why you must have the Keys running through your veins, through your brain, embedded in your very being. This is the ultimate test of your Earth mission, and you know the secret weapon that I have provided for you to successfully accomplish your time there. You see, I don't make it harder than you can bear. The Keys will lead and guide you into all truth. As you meld with them, they will speak to you. They will caress you as you caress them. They will respond in wonderful, amazing, miraculous ways. They will come into you and change your make-up, the way you were before, and make you how I need you to be. They will change your outlook on your not-so-desirable situation or whatever you are battling to yield to and turn it so that you will be joyed serving Me and count it a pleasure and honor to be called. One powerful little verse —just one. It holds an amazing power yet is discovered by so few.

One reason the Keys were created was to restore everything to its true and proper state. They begin by leading you, My children, through the Endtime, through the Great Tribulation, and through the tests to come, into My Heavenly Kingdom, and back to the perfection of the world as it will be in the days to come.

The Word

I have given the world the Words of David, and those like you that have picked these Words up and are still carrying them to this day are My elite, those ones that Matthew 24:22 speaks of. Yes it can be a little mind boggling, but a whole lot depends on you few remaining ones. You are those infinitesimally small cogs that My huge plan depends on. I have not allowed the full weight of the heavenly vision to rest upon your shoulders because it would crush you.

The Key of David is the master key, and by exercising faith in the Words of David, you are in essence applying the master key to the lock of the key ring that holds the multitudinous and mysterious Keys to My Kingdom. Those that hold the Key of David hold the Key to My palace, My city and My Kingdom. The Covenant of Daniel 9:27 has, like many of My promises, a double meaning. Verse 22 is a promise to the children of David/Daniel. It is the portal to verse 27. Can you see the connection here? I have waited for this time to open the portal to those that hold the Key of David. To those that believe by faith in the Word given to My Endtime prophet will I open the secrets and mysteries of My Kingdom. The time of testing and trying in the fire is almost over. It is time for Me, the Key Master, to pick up My sword and meet the enemy head to head.

Now do you understand? Now do you see why I have called you to such dedication? You are My sword. You are My weapon against evil, and as long as you were dormant, I could not fight to My full capacity. But now that you have awakened and come alive again, you have become a powerful tool in My hand, which the Devil cannot stand against. There is no wile that you cannot overcome with this power. I have taken up My most powerful weapon, and you are part of it. Released to Me was the power to awaken your souls and to restore the power to My sword. So you now stand with Me in humility as I begin to flow through you and show you how to use My power. You are as an army which has been raised from the dead.

As the world enters 2023, it will not be you out there. It will be Me in you working the needed miracles. My Word that you have stored in your hearts all these years will come to life. Thank you for believing without seeing...Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed. Yes, My power in you lies in listening and obeying My still small voice. The fire and brimstone, the mighty miracles, the thunderings are Me passing by. They are Me going to war on behalf of My children, but it is in your obedience to My Word that opens the way for Me to do what you cannot do. Only those that trust in My Word alone can I use as My sword in the days ahead. To these are given the promises. These that hold the Master Key of David will walk with the full power of Heaven into the storm.

In order that the Words of David be fulfilled, the ranks of The Family had to be purged. It was that sifting that brought forth the Children of David, those ones that would truly understand what it means to follow his Words. This is the Gideon's band. I will continue to test and squeeze My band of warriors, for it is a necessary part of growth. There really is no resting place, no stopping place.

All of My creation passes through the continual sifting and purging, that is the life of the spirit. What I do in the lives of My Gideon's band is simply part of a process. So don't allow yourself to settle down, because you can be part of My Family today and tomorrow find yourself sitting beside the road. You can be a member of My Gideon's band today and tomorrow be cut down and cast into the oven. You have to constantly, continually remind yourselves that it is the water of My Word that keep that sap and juices running through your spiritual life, and that without these elements you will not continue to grow.

I know this can sound very tiring, but it is only your flesh that cries tiredness, that says it is enough and wants to quit. Your spirit, on the other hand, does not tire or grow weary in well doing. It is your spirit that is sustaining you. It is a trick of the evil making you think it's the flesh that must be kept inspired. It is the spirit that must be kept inspired and that can only be done through My Word.

My Words have the power to sustain the crushing and breakings that I allow in a man's life. When you neglect the Word, then you weaken under the stress and strain. This is why the enemy attacks your intake of My Word. He knows that if this time with Me can be snatched away, then he will win, without a doubt he will overcome. In a way you are like a plant in the field. There is always something attacking it, the sun, the wind, the rain, the bugs, the animals. That is the enemy; he's always lurking, always looking for a way to attack. Only the nutrients taken in by constant intake of My Word will give you the resistance needed to resist his continual onslaught. The concept is so simple, yet millions and millions, yea billions, neglect the very thing that will keep them going and growing.

Closely related to obeying the Lord is our need to receive and live the New Wine. The Lord is pouring forth His direction abundantly, but it's up to each one of us as to what we'll do with that truth—whether we'll receive it gladly and eagerly obey, or whether we'll hold back. (Living the Lord's Law of Love Part 2)

The revelations, which Jesus calls New Wine, come in succession. There is a sequence, but to allow the New Wine to continue flowing, the recipients have to believe and accept and wherever possible, practice the new revelation. This is the Key. And this Key opens the way to the next revelation within the sequence. It is a time-lock sequence, set to go off at a certain time if the right key is inserted. Everything has to be lined up exactly right. The whole concept is not much different to how God synchronized the universe, the stars, the planets, the sun and the moon. His whole creation is synchronized.

Do not fear what man can do unto you, but fear Me, your Husband. Fear My Word, for My Word is truth and to follow My Word, you must fear what will happen if you don't.

The Ministry of Prayer

Is there a greater ministry than prayer? Is there a greater ministry than that which gives Me all the glory? If thou would shine with My glory, then enter into thy closet and close the door. The less they see of you, the more they see of Me. Did I not say that you would do greater miracles than I when I was on Earth? Did you think it would be through your own hand-- that it would be you? Oh, ye of little faith. Do you see that it takes far greater faith to sit in your closet believing that all that you ask in faith is being accomplished? The less they see of you, the more I can shine through. You are My transparent ones; you are as My blue angels. You are the blue sky. You are anywhere there is a need. There is no place that you cannot go in your prayers. No government can keep you out; no border can close its gate to you.

We are moving into the last phase of world history and the seven trumpets are about to sound. Put aside the distractions of Satan for he would make of you prayerless warriors, as old men without teeth, sipping porridge in your tent. He would that you not take up your weapons and run to battle. It is time to fight for your subjects, My young warriors, for how skillfully you wield the weapons of war, so goes the battle. Gird up the loins of your minds, put away childish ways and the things of this world and run into the fray. We are waiting for your prayers to release more power to our fighters on the front line.

Because the Children of David have been given the Keys of the Kingdom, their prayers are far more powerful than all the Christian world put together. This is what Satan fears, because your prayers are stirring up a hurricane in the realm of the spirit. It is a hurricane that he cannot hope to contain let alone control. Each prayer, each child that awakens from sleep and begins to pray is as a thousand arrows flying at him and his plans to destroy all that is in his path.

The Devil is on a wanton path of destruction and it depends on the prayers of the saints as to how much destruction he'll be permitted to rain upon the people and planet. So pray beloved, pray and pray as much and more that you can.

Prepare yourselves, My dearest brides, for the night has come when no man can work openly. Draw yourselves into your prayer closets and make war with the enemy through the weapon of prayer and the Keys turned to swords, for the weapon of your warfare is spiritual and not of this present world. Support your brethren in prayer, for they are fighting a relentless and ruthless enemy. Night and day the battle rages as they push him and his horde further into the final tunnel; where upon reaching the last day they will be bound in chains in that prison beneath the Earth.

Do you think these devils want to enter this tunnel? Not on your life. This is the final tunnel; they are on death row so to speak. This is when the war really heats up. This is when things get really violent. This is the time to stand back and let God do His work. It's very very rough on the front line now, so stand back and see us fight. You all have to get those spiritual lessons down pat, because once these devils reach the end of the tunnel, then the millennium begins. It's then that you are going to be mighty glad you spent time at your studies.

And do you think these devils are going to just walk down the tunnel as easy as you please? No, they are not. In fact, they are trying all the tricks they know to turn around and force their way back, out of the tunnel. I'm telling you: it's going to be a fight to the finish, to the bitter end. These nasty boys are going to try and cause all sorts of trouble and disruptions, and the world is going to feel their discomfort and discontent and rebellion. Like that earthquake in Turkey a few days ago, that is an effect of the spiritual warfare that is happening right now. And beloved, it is going to get rougher as the tunnel exit gets closer, so hold on. The best thing you folks can do is get yourselves settled in those prayer cockpits, start up your engines and get that fighter jet into the air. It's not the least bit of good to anyone sitting there on the tarmac. Get the machine into the air, where you can maneuver it freely and start opening fire on the enemy, because they are pushing back. They see the fire at the end of the tunnel, and they know once they reach the exit, they are going in for a long, long time.

We need all the support fire we can get. You wish you could be doing more. Well, you can be doing more, a lot more. Give us prayer covering fire. We are counting on you.

You have accepted that your place in this Endtime battle is to begin our charge on the enemy's front line, by praying full-of-faith, key-powered prayers. Your faith is giving us considerable freedom; we have a lot more maneuverability, thus giving us greater ability to do a lot more damage to the enemy. Your prayers are like trucks, full of ammunition arriving from behind our lines. Each prayer is like a truck full to the brim with the latest weaponry and ammo, and that means our warriors are well stocked, and a well-stocked warrior is more confident because he can stretch his arms a little more, which in turn gives him a better reach and a harder punch.

Yes, I want you, My bride, by My side in the battle line. That's what you do when you pray; you take your place in the war of the spirit. I have My angels and spirit helpers, and we are lined up to engage the enemy. But then when you pray, you step into the lineup wielding those weapons which are "not carnal, but mighty through God"

I am so happy to have you, My earthly brides, come and join the fray. I know what it costs you. I know that you have to take a lot by faith. I know how the flesh drags and pulls you back to your own realm. I know how the thoughts come and go and run around in your mind trying to drag your focus away from prayer and away from really focusing on that situation you or someone else is bringing before Me. I also know how it can really seem like you aren't doing anything. It can even seem kind of boring, especially for the younger ones, to be praying for all these things. So when I see one of My earthly brides step up and come stand in the spiritual battle line and take out that weapon and start attacking the enemy, I really appreciate it. My heart warms. I reach out to you in spirit; I smell your sweet prayers. I feel the spiritual effort it has cost you and I do pay you back. Besides the big hole in the enemy's line up and the defeat to some of his plans, there are spiritual blessings for you too, even if you can't see them or feel them. So My darling sweethearts, please come; come join the battle. Come and you will partake of the victory. I know that your joy will be so full. Even if it seems like nothing now and you can't really see the results for most of your prayers, know that it will be worth it all. I love you.

Pray For the Church People and For the Lost Children of David

Keep praying for My lost church children; prayers are being answered and many are awakening from deep sleep. They are beginning to see the void and what is coming toward them. Pray that they find faith in this their darkest hour. It is your prayers, the prayers of My beloved brides of David that avail much in the dark hours left remaining.

Intercede in prayer for those of My children lost within the world system. Those within the church system are often the more deceived. This is because the light that is in them is, in truth, darkness. These ones are trapped within a system that teaches them that material prosperity is a sign of My blessing. And although in part it is true, the greatest blessing lies within prosperity of spirit, and those that seek after My spiritual blessings receive the reward of faith.

My Word teaches that a man cannot live by bread alone but by every Word that cometh forth out of the mouth of God. Those that seek after prosperity of spirit are those that dwell in this secret place. These are they that hunger for My person and not My power. These are they that cannot be snared by the Fowler. My Word says that man cannot serve Me and Mammon, for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Whose slave are you? Pray for those snared within the false religion of Churchianity and Mammon worship, for these two are one. Pray that your Keys be turned to swords and cut the cords that bind millions of My children to the worship of the world. Rebuke in the power of the Keys the false pastors and priests of Churchianity. Pray that I cut them off, that they prey no longer on My lost children of Israel. Call My sheep out of the mountains and the high hills where they wander lost. Pray that they become not meat to the beasts of the fields. Read Ezekiel 34 then pray desperately for these ones.

We need you to call out to your brethren who have been buried in the muck and mire of this world. We need you to make a strong plea, as the bride of Jesus, and ask Him to let His people go.

There are still a lot of David's children in bondage, tied, so they think, to the system. And yes, it would seem some of them are quite buried under all that rubble. It is time for you to start pulling your brethren out of the rubble of this world.

A New Era of Action

I have told you that this is the last great harvest, the sifting of the wheat from the chaff. I have shown you that the emphasis on winning souls has shifted from the material realm where once My missionaries went out into all the world to win the lost through personal witnessing. Now the night has come, and no missionary can work as he once did. Not all, but much of the witnessing now is being done behind the veil in countries that you have never been to, or situations that are impossible to witness in right now, like Gaza for example. No missionary can possibly go there and preach about Me to those who are embroiled in that disaster. And even if someone could go there, they would never be able to reach all those that need to hear the truth. The world is a big place, My loves, and there are still billions of yet unevangelized people wandering lost in the wilderness of this world. Who is going to reach them? Can you? Will you go? This is a new Era of Action, My faithful missionaries of David. Yes, you can go and yes, you will go—in your prayers. And how will your prayers go? They will go by sending out witnessing teams from the Heavenly City. I have not been slack. Since the beginning of time, I have been preparing for this time. The city now has millions of teams trained and ready to go and do their part to help Me and you reap the final harvest.

I am searching the hearts of men everywhere, and according to the choices they make, so are they sifted. The chaff will fall down, and the wheat will I retain for the next sowing. Continue to pray, for this mighty harvest is well on its way and all My wheat must be garnered before the final storm. Men everywhere are choosing their future; they are choosing their path to the next millennium. I have said that I am closing the book and blowing out the candle; the hour of temptation has come. Pray that not one be missed; pray that they that do not have a wedding garment enter not into the wedding feast. Behold the Bridegroom cometh; go now and bid all that would come into the feast "Come." For the harvest must be gathered before that great and final day when I call all of My reapers from the field. The wrath of God will fall and all the tares, chaff, hay and stubble will be consumed. And after the fire has cooled, I will pour My refreshing waters upon the Earth and plant My new season seed.

So My chosen of the End, pray and release the power that will assist My children (from the Heavenly City) to win the millions still lost in this dark and cloudy day. Some who leave Heaven on this assault have never had their opportunity to witness and win a soul. They have no diamonds in their crown, no shining, no glow. This is their big opportunity to gain some points in this arena. You can be the slingshot that sends these small pebbles toward the giant's forehead. Once they have gotten the decision from their "sheep" then that sheep is tattooed or marked by Me and is set to enter the coming millennium.

I have asked you to go out into all the world once more, but this time as a prayer missionary. You have found it hard to reconcile your past busy life as a roving missionary with this new one. I have asked you to go out into the highways with the new weapon of 6.66 and call the good and bad to the Marriage Feast. –Those that were called first said they were too busy with this and that. So out you go each day in prayer. But in your mind you say, "How can I know if my prayers are accomplishing anything?" You should put all those thoughts away and think on the fact that you are doing what you are doing because I asked you to. That's what I count as righteousness. That is what I count as accomplishing something. Doing good for others is a wonderful thing, but doing it out of love for Me is what really scores the goal. Those that have never heard of Me, yet do things for others out of unselfish love also score the goal. It will be counted to them as righteousness. It is these ones that you are reaching with your prayers right now. Prayer is a humble, out-of-the-way ministry. Your prayers are accomplishing what I want them to, but as I said, what is most important is that you are doing it because you love Me and want to show Me that love through being obedient to My will. Now, there isn't anything to be proud about. All that is accomplished is for My glory. All you do is sit there asking Me to do it all.

You are experiencing what you are experiencing here (in this life) for one purpose, and that is to be touched by their infirmities so that you may turn again and pray for them. If you fail to connect your present experiences to prayer, then you are not fulfilling your purpose for being in this world. I have placed the Key to the Green Door in your hand; you have been given the power to release them. I took the Key to Heaven and Hell from Satan and have given it to the Children of David of the End for this time. The very power of the key he is using to trap and bind them has been released by My hand and given to you. You have the power to bind and to loose through the Key of 6.66. You have the Master Key; he has the copy. But his copy is still powerful enough to lure those that have rejected the truth. The experience of overwhelming compassion that I recently allowed your dear sister to experience for the children of Canada was for the purpose of compassionate prayer. When touched by their suffering, she reached out to Me in desperate, heartfelt prayer. Call on the Keys of compassion every day before you pray, that you may come before My throne in desperation for the millions who are on the Road to Gragau whilst still in this life. You have a mighty harvest before you. This is your hour. Do you remember the prophecy you shared in the Reboot video about being cast into the abyss? Well, you are now in the abyss, because that is where the lost are. Yet you are only being slightly touched by the infirmities of these on the road to their eventual Hell behind the Green Door. You have 30 months left before I return, 30 months before your release. This is your opportunity to bring many with you. Just as I went to Paradise in the center of the Earth with the thief that day, so must you go with these ones in order that your prayers be heard and felt.

Your prayers can reach these lost ones; your prayers can go places your body cannot. Pray beloved for your fervent effectual prayers will hasten the coming dawn. Your prayers will give these lost ones hope in their darkness and light to their searching. Pray, for you have been called to the ministry of prayer. It is your mighty Key-powered prayers that will bring the victory this day. It is your prayers that rouse them, and it will be your prayers that will give them the light of faith that they will need to find the path in these last few years of tribulation.

I know you have heard this so many times, but I'm going to say it yet again because, plain and simple, it is the way it is. If you were on this side of the spiritual veil you would clearly see the need for desperate, fervent prayer right now at this crucial point in history. Because now is the time to press the green "to go" button. All the prayers of all saints throughout history have brought you and the world to this point. Everything is indeed in place, and now it's time to press home the Final Key. I don't know how else to say this, but all the essential ingredients are in the bowl, all the tumblers have fallen in place, the chronological arrangement of each tumbler is aligned and now all it takes is for you, the Children of David or anyone that cares enough, to turn the key to unlock the massive barrier between this present era and the next.

I do not need mighty men at this point; I need faithful men. I don't need big, important men at this final crossroad; I need believing men. I don't need an army there in the temporal zone; I need just a handful of believers who know that the Keys are the power that will put the seal on Satan's last stand. I just need a few, even a motley bedraggled few, to believe that all the promises spoken and written since the beginning of time have culminated at this crossroad and now wait for the Final Key, that because of their belief, these motley few hold in their hand. It is to be inserted with their prayers and is what will open the floodgate of My power to finish what was begun by Satan in the Garden of Eden. To those that believe, take up the charge.

Pray for a swift end to this seventh and final man-created beast. Your prayers are placing these high and complicated matters into My hands. Your prayers will allow Me to have My perfect will. Again I say to you, My dearest Children of David, stand back and see Me fight. Do you believe? Then pray. Do you believe My Words when I say that it is your prayers that control the destiny of this world? Do you believe? Then pray. Do you want Me to come back? Then pray; I wait for your prayers.

You know the end game. I have revealed My plan to you through your prophet David. I have put into your hands all the weapons necessary to bring about the conclusion of this part of world history. I am now pressing the people of this Earth to decide between what is right and what is wrong—not who is right and who is wrong. I am allowing these terrible world events to happen in order to press the hearts and minds of man to a decision. Call on the forces of San-Badh-Mahl, call on the power of the Blue Key. It is a terrible crystal in the hands of the Children of David.

And the likeness of the firmament upon the heads of the living creature was as the color of the terrible crystal, stretched forth over their heads above. (Ezekiel 1:22)

I have given you the blueprint for success in this final hour. Your commission is clear. Do not allow the enemy to distract you from your course. Tell us what to do and we will do it. The Everlasting Gospel has to be preached before the very End can come. I wait with scythe in hand. I wait for you, My brides.

Following the Little Dog Line ...for God's sake keep following Part 2

You Command My Army

The battlefield is set, the armies await and the quiet before the storm pervades all. You look to Me, but there is no call from My lips to attack. There is no rallying cry to charge. I am silent. Why is this? Because, My loves, it is you, not I, that control this army of the spirit. You begin this charge. All that I have promised to do for you spiritually; I will do, if only you will command Me.

Through the simple act of desperate prayer that holds Me to an accounting of the performance of My promises, you release these forces and you start the battle. Long before you set foot on the field of engagement, My forces will already have prepared the path ahead. Long before you face the hungry souls that need Me, My legions will have prepared them to receive your words. Long before you approach people for the help and services that you need to continue, My competent spirit beings will have already influenced their hearts for good toward you. Long before you meet obstacles, My helpers will have already prepared the way for you to overcome them easily. Before you meet with opposition, My fighters will have already crippled the Enemy's efforts to stop or hinder you.

But My army goes nowhere without your command. You command these forces. Do you understand? We promise you so much, we hold so much power, and the only condition is that you pray and release us, that you believe that we are here and that we will work for you if only you will set us free. So much is not accomplished because of your unbelief, so strive to believe. Ask for My help to know beyond a doubt that there is spiritual power waiting to be released if you will just ask.

Don't grow weary or bored, but face this battle as the true-to-the-core spiritual soldier you were created to be. You're not called to take up a sword or spear and face the foes in the flesh. You're called to pray, to command the spiritual through your faith. Can you do it? Can you release this mighty army that will prepare the way for this offensive? Can you begin the battle? All Heaven waits on you. The angels look your way in expectant reverence, just waiting for the command from your lips.

Don't disappoint My forces. Don't half-heartedly mumble words that you question or disbelieve. Know that we are here, and command us to the attack. Set the forces of Heaven and Earth in motion through your prayers. Let your prayers shake the foundations of Hell and open the gates of Heaven. Let it be said throughout every sphere of My creation that the children of David, as few in number as they were, sent up such a desperate cry for divine help that power was unleashed on that day such as has never been seen!

Let everyone everywhere know that you have done what you could. Leave no part of your heart unlifted to Me. Pour out everything in your soul. Give it everything you've got, and hold nothing back. As you do this simple thing, I will do the rest. If you want to see power, if you want to see miracles, if you want to see the End, if you want to see My coming, then pray as you have never prayed before! Claim that My power will go forward. That is the only way that we will march on your behalf.

These are the rules and this is the game. We will act if only you will pray. If you want to see every promise of Mine fulfilled, then pray. Yes, you rest in Me. Yes, you depend on My power. Yes, you trust in My strong arm—but there is one simple thing that I ask of you, and that is your prayers. Give them now in the fullest, deepest measure you can muster. Let each warrior of David prove his mettle today. Let each one show Me that they belong in this army and that they belong on this battlefield through the depth and strength of your prayers.

If you are a disciple, show Me now! If you are a warrior, show Me now! Save nothing. Hold nothing in reserve. This is it. This is the moment. If you can succeed in mustering enough heart and soul in beseeching Me to work for you, then you will start the snowball of heavenly power that will be unstoppable. This is the time, the moment. If you win this battle of prayer, then you will coast to the very End on a wave of My power.

I don't control the destiny of this planet—you do. You few feeble ones control the unwritten history of Earth through your prayers. If you successfully launch this offensive, then the End will come more quickly, because “the Gospel will be preached in all the world” during the offensive, and that is one of the things that must happen before the End comes. So much rides on this moment. Success or failure is not determined through your actions, but through your prayers. If you can fight in prayer like you have never fought before, and win and work and strive in prayer as you have never won or worked or striven before, then the answers will come. I will march to battle, and we will win. It comes down to this. It comes down to this moment. Launch the attack in prayer!

I am waiting for your response. I have given every promise that I have to give. I have instructed all that I am going to instruct. I have explained all that I am going to explain. Now I'm waiting. The fate of the world is in your hands. (Prayer Drive 2007 #3647)

Use Prophecy to Know What to Pray For

Your part is to follow My plan, My Word through prophecy, and to use the weapons I've given you to fight with --prayer, praise, the Keys, spirit helpers and all the others; and by using all these in conjunction with each other, you will become the greatest warriors this Earth has ever seen. Your great strength as a warrior will be found in your weakness, so don't look at your flesh, but look at your spirit. You are spirit warriors wielding the greatest weapons in the universe. (May 16, 2024)

It's a matter of what's right, not who's right. Your prayers have an enormous part to play in the final solution. Your prayers are going to bring on the reset. The prayers of the Children of David are the strongest force in the universe. The Keys of the Kingdom play a part in your prayers being so powerful, but they are not the only element in the powerful cocktail that is your prayers. Because of your calling and training, you are the most in-tune-to-My-will people on the face of the Earth today. Remember though, it is the Keys, My Word and Me, My spirit, that are your vital companions in this Endtime battle. It is My spirit that intercedes for you when you sit or kneel down to pray. When you are praying in the spirit, you are following My plan, you are performing My will, not your own. If you are praying without ceasing, then you are in fact hearing from Me continually. It is like a running commentary. This is full-possession. It is Me, living, thinking and breathing in you. You are thinking My thoughts, so you just know what must be prayed for. Prophecy is also another way of knowing My will. (May 27, 2024)

I have the game plan in My mind, and it is not past finding out. In fact, I want you to find out My stratagem. To do that, you must use prophecy in conjunction with your prayers. To know My plan, you must hear from Me in prophecy, then you are to use your prayers to enact My campaign plan. You must also allow Me to bring to your mind already recorded prophecy. Your prayers are a link; like a linking verb, they link the original prophecy with what is happening in the now. I said each prophecy must find her mate, and your prayers are part of the solution. They assist in bringing those prophecies together. You and your prayers, I and My spirit helpers -- we are a partnership, and together we will change the course of history. Be patient as I am patient. Continue to push Satan down the Endtime tunnel; force his hand with your prayers. Satan is patient, but I am more patient. (May 16, 2024)

By listening to My still small voice, you will know exactly what to pray for, whom to pray for and when to pray, just as you would if you were in the garden with Me walking and talking and discussing the future of the world. The more you hone the gifts I've given you, the better you will hear and the more intricate the details will be. My dearest of dears, you have it all right there in your heart, the inner sanctum.

Study My loves, study My already written, recorded Word and through your gift of prophecy, connect the dots. In connecting the dots, you will be in the perfect position to pray proactive prayers. I have told you many times that you begin this charge. You are in the war room with Me, and you must lean in closer if you can't quite hear My whispers. I have the endgame plan. It is up to you to listen, record and put My plan into action through your prayers. (May 19, 2024)

I have the plan and you are here in the war room with Me listening and jotting down what I am saying. The better you listen and the less you allow those distractions of the material world to enter in and give static, the more accurate your notes will be and the more accurate will be your enactment of My will. As a general who has spent time in the war room planning his moves and then goes out to enact those plans on the battlefield, so are you, My generals. You go out with the weapons of war and enact My plan. If you do out there exactly what I have told you to do here in the war room, then together we will win the day. The day is won here. The day of victory starts here and ends at Armageddon. There are still many important moves to make between now and then, so listen up.

As for you, My warriors of the spirit, you are operating on a different plane, and in a very real way you are sitting with Me planning the moves of the future. Your prayers are directing events that the men of this world think they are controlling but are not. It is you who are in the control room as you listen to Me directing you to pray for this and pray for that. Our partnership is unbeatable. Satan in his pride wishes to control all, but in his lust for power and regulation, he will only entangle himself in his own sticky web. I have chosen the right partners in the Children of David. Thank you, My loves, My dears, for staying true to your calling. I love you. Keep close now; the game will heat up to fever pitch.

It's All by Faith

You are a specially called-out group of warriors that don't just "take things by faith" but who are taking things "only by faith." Let's face it; the way I'm asking you to fight now takes a lot of faith. I've pretty much asked you to stop all physical missionary activity and come across the veil with Me and the other warrior generals of the spiritual realm, and that includes one of the greatest earthly generals of all time, your Father David. And together with many of your former colleagues who are now passed over from that life to this, we are fighting this war the way it was always intended to be fought.

To rally a group of believers and get them to totally shun the ways of the world and the system church and believe solely on what they are hearing from the spiritual realm and act on it, all in faith, is an earth-shattering event. To get you to stop looking for the signs and wonders in the physical realm and instead look for them in the spiritual realm through the window of the written and living Word is the greatest miracle this world has never seen. And why won't they see it? They won't see it because it is all by faith.

Do you want to see Me return? Do you want the end to come? Then hear from Me in prophecy and I will tell you what My highest will is at this pivotal juncture. Your prayers have the power to change the course of history. You are called to the Kingdom for such a time as this. Put down the carnal and worldly thoughts and doings of Satan as he only wants to stop you from receiving My full power. Your time to shine as the world's greatest prophets is upon you. It may not be as you envisioned, but that matters not. You are tools in My hand, broken, yielded tools that I wish to smash the armies of Satan and force him into checkmate. He is fighting against himself, his house will fall. It is your prayers that will push him over the edge. (July 22, 2024)

It will be your prayers that will set in motion the string of events that will bring to end this era of man's rule on earth. There is a great load on your shoulders, and it is very important that you stay acutely attuned to your helpers beyond the veil. There is a terrible war happening at this crucial juncture. We want this war to end in the quickest possible way. It is vitally important that you get the messages we are sending you correctly. We have done all we can to separate you from the outside world; you must stay in your cave. This goes for any Warrior Band that are hearing; the history of this planet will be written according to what you are praying today. If you pray the right prayers today, the days will be shortened and the End will come in your generation, as was promised in the Words of David. Never fall into the trap that a prophecy, once spoken, is a done deal, with or without your prayers and concern. So many opportunities have been lost because My people did not stir themselves. (July 23, 2024)

I've called the Children of David out of the world and into the spirit, not only because the world is a dangerous place but the main reason is because My focus has shifted. What has to be done can best be done from the spiritual realm.

Your prayers are pushing the whole world forward and that's because you are not working in the flesh but in the spirit. You are applying spiritual principles to enact change in the physical realm, and it is working. We are about to go deeper into the spirit. It is going to take more faith, more trust, more leaning on Me. Are you ready? I believe you are. (December 14, 2023)

The Millennial Task Force

So are you ready to take your position on the Millennial Earth? You are members of the Millennial task force. That is a big and important responsibility that Jesus has already given you due to the decisions you've made to hold on by faith and believe what the Words of David have been telling you. It is all by faith now, but very soon you are going to see just what your Key-powered prayers have accomplished just by you sitting here in obedience praying. So much depends on the prayers of the Millennial task force. It is you who are putting things in place in preparation for the coming of Jesus our King. You just have to believe that what is coming to you in the New New Wine is the Word for today, and if you do, you will be praying the right prayers.

In regards to Endtime events and premillennial preparation; what you are being led to pray for during your prayer and prophecy times is like a blueprint of steps that need to be taken in order to have world conditions just right for when Jesus returns. So listen, hear and pray with believing hearts. Believe that you are truly a member of the Millennial task force and you are indeed putting things in place for the return of Jesus and the first few steps of the Millennial Age. According to your faith, will it be done through you.

Jesus and we are relying on you to show us where the foundation stones need to be laid; and that is a very big responsibility. Don't you think?

I mentioned the other day how right throughout history I did not use huge armies to accomplish My will and destroy My enemies. Noah, Abraham, Moses, Isaac, Joseph, King David, all the prophets, Moses David and now you, My insignificant band of warrior brides, have each filled a very small niche in the overall plan. Each one played their part well because they learned the art of yieldedness. They learned to lay down their will in order to perform My will; they learned to follow God. They learned to listen to My still small voice in their heart, and they learned to obey what they were being told without question. They all started off the way you started off, as it is natural to question what seems to the carnal mind way out of the ordinary. But in time they all learned to trust that what they were hearing was indeed My voice, and as their ministry progressed so did their level of faith. I have set September as the first check-point on your way to 2025; keep it as your goal. I want you to press in now. I am not expecting you to push in the flesh but in the spirit... I and your spirit helpers are right beside you to help you reach your goal successfully. You must live in My Word; you must breathe the spirit of prophecy. You must drink in the Key promises as a thirsty man in a desert place, and you must spend as much time as you can loving Me intimately whilst all the time praising Me and thanking Me for all that I am doing to help you reach your destiny. (June 7th, 2024)

The School of the Prophets

Come on, Warrior Band, here is another steep incline for you to climb. You are still in the City; there are still a few months of learning and honing to be done. You aren't ready for 2025 yet. Let's work some more on your hearts and thankfulness and those carnal minds that are struggling to see the miraculous in everything. Prophecy is another phenomenon that the carnal mind just can't get its tentacles around. Let go of your disbelief and put on the spiritual mind of Jesus and dive in and swim out to where we are and leave the carnal shores of man's knowledge and reason behind forever. We need prophets on ground now, or no later than 2025. This is the time to practice. This is the school of the prophets, and this class on praise and thankfulness and looking deeper into the spirit has so many practical applications. Look at each day, each event, each problem with the eyes of the spirit, and you will begin to not only see the golden thread, but you will be woven into the tapestry as part of the whole miraculous design. Get out of that carnal world! Your body may have to continue its duties, but if your mind and heart are in the spirit, you will not be as other men and women. You will be otherworldly. You will see things that only prophets see and you will experience what other men and women never have. Jesus needs conduits, but that link, that flow of God's Word, can only flow through a channel that is open to the wonders of God's hand in his or her everyday existence.

You, as My prophets of the End, are set in place. You will play your part in accordance with how prepared you are when 2025 rolls around. Know that it is the Keys that will work through you in those soon-coming days. Your portion is to do all that you can do to make them a part of your very nature. These are the last months of preparation before the final run to the finish line begins. Once the race has begun, your only sustenance will come from the Keys that are running through your very being. It is up to you now, right now, to press in and gain the advantage that you are going to need when the starting gun is fired. Believe that the Keys have activated the flow of My Words and the flow will not stop through those that have made themselves the conduits I need to pour through. (July 17th, 2024)

"I will repeat what Jesus said to you back in November last year: "This year is a special year of dispensation for My brides who have gone the extra mile for Me, those who have come through the Reboot years as members of My Gideon's band of Endtime prophets. I am lifting many spiritual restrictions in order that you be given an opportunity to make the progress required to be ready for 2025. Please, My lovers, use this very special time wisely, for it will only come this way once."

It is now your time, My loves. You can do this, My dearest warrior band, because I am going to do this thing through you. I said stand back and see Me fight for you. This is what I did for Caleb and Joshua when they went forth to fight the giants in their land, and so will I do this for you as you go in to fight the giants of your land. These giants you go forth to fight have brought your land to ruin, just as My Word said they would. The Earth is full of their violence and devilry, and as the days of Noah were so these days are. Yet have I not said that I have given thee the heathen for thine inheritance and the uttermost parts of the land for thy possession? But as My men of old had to go in and claim the land, so must you.

Satan and his band have tried every foul ploy in their arsenal to dislodge you from this mountain you climb, but still you climb on. This year will be the year of his defeat, if you turn now and make it so. I will take you into 2025 as victors over these giants that have defeated so many. Don't allow the enemy to dissuade you. Don't let him tell you what he's told millions and millions before you—that it is all for naught—for in so doing you hand him the final victory, snatched as a brand from the burning. You are almost there. One year and his band will burn in fire, so don't allow his brand to be stamped upon you. Stamp him and his usurpers into the dust of history. Listen to the whispers and do as they instruct, for this is the only way the victory will be won. You not only fight for yourselves, but you fight for all men. You hold the Final Key in your hand, only the barrier stands between this world and the next. It is your faith that will bring down this final mountain and the Millennium will begin. All the promises will be fulfilled in that day, and then I will return as I promised I would.

I said that history is repeating itself, and it is. You are now where My Family stood in 2004. And 2004 has now become 2024. There has been a time lapse; suddenly you have been taken 20 years into the future to make another attempt. The cycle has been made and now you stand in the same place...on the cusp of GREAT TRIBULATION. This is the second time; no one here and no one on ground there wants there to be a third time. This is your hour, beloved Warrior Band. You have been preparing the ground with your prayers; the Blue frequency of 6.66 has been softening the hearts and minds of those that are ear-tagged for the Millennium. The Blue frequency of 6.66 has also been slowly but surely undermining the infrastructure of Satan's kingdom. It is almost ready to fall. The great fall is imminent. You must hold on; you must fight on in belief and trust that you have been chosen for this time. Don't allow Satan to win through like he won through and finally broke the lines of My Family in the days immediately before the Reboot. I know it is difficult to comprehend all that I've said to My Family before you and all I've said to you over the last nine years since 2016. But the situation you are in is no different to the position Noah was in immediately before the Flood came and took them all away. Well My loves, the days of Noah are before you again. The Reboot had its desired effect, and now it is time to hold on for these last few years and be those victors that fulfill the promises in the Bible and the Words of David. Please believe Me when I tell you that the whole universe waits with bated breath. My whole creation groans in anticipation of My return. You are the cogs that must fulfill your duty. You hold the Keys in your hand; you hold the history of the world in your hands. This is the heritage of the Children of David of the End. All that is required now is for you to believe and step out by faith, and I promise you, we here, your comrades across the spiritual veil, will do the rest.

Be Open for Whatever He May Ask of You

(Azure:) You, dear loves, have chosen a very different path. You have chosen to major on the "Except a Corn of Wheat" course! It is one where you must be continually tested to bring forth the fruit! It is a continual dying so others may live; a denying of yourself and all of your own temporal, earthly wants and dreams and wishes. If you were here to just preserve yourself, what really would be the point of that actually? What is the purpose? How would that even make any difference in the whole scheme of things? How would that further His Cause?Because that's not the purpose at all, is it? Look what has happened to Earth because of that self-centered, self-serving attitude. It has caused the world to come to a standstill. But as you know, you can never stand still; you're either moving forwards or backwards. So they all started moving backwards, down the tubes, and the end result is this sinking-sand cesspool of a world that you have today!

So think deeply about this, dear one...what are you here for? Has your purpose become about self-preservation? Now, I'm talking at a different level to you now, because you all have forsaken much to serve Jesus. Jesus acknowledges that and is so proud of you for the choices you have made, because they are hard choices and continue to be difficult! You are going up a level now, higher into the spiritual realm. But are you hiding behind the Son hoping to be tucked away out of harm's way and quietly pass through the Great Tribulation safe and sound until His Return? Of course, they are His promises, but... you were created to be like Jesus, to put on His nature, to be His hands, His face to others, those who don't know Him or even do know Him but not really. And why would you not suffer persecution as He did, as His followers did? Perhaps that is all that will be required of you, to continue to pray along with your spiritual army, sending them out each day to win the lost and seal the wicked! But are you open to a more public ministry perhaps or most likely a dangerous one at the end of 2024 when you'll be thrust out from behind the Son? If your mission on Earth is not about self-preservation but having a portion of Jesus' divine nature of sacrifice, then it's about others and laying down your lives for them. This is what gets the highest grades, honors and recognition and thus more trusted positions in His Kingdom come. And according to the Word, it is possible, because it's not really about anything you do; it's all the power of the Keys! I just don't want you to box yourself in and let your carnal mind tell you that you don't want to go there! Then you are shutting yourself off to possibilities, because that thinking is leaning on the flesh and isn't actually being open to anything He may ask of you. There's also the fear aspect involved here. You don't want to think about being....let's say it...tortured or martyred...because that is soo scary!! So then when the fears kick in, you want to make it all go away by shutting yourself in your mind and hiding! Thus the enemy has a handle to use against you and he will open this door at every opportunity! Except you fall into the ground...and die!...you will be all alone...having made no impact for good on anyone else, for Jesus and His Kingdom. You are finding, mostly through your prayers right now, this kernel of Life! But it behooves you to be open to be willing to do whatever your sweet Husband requires of you to be preparing good seed for the happy Here-after! Then your name will go down as one of the Foundation members of His Kingdom forever! That's why it's so important to be studying hard right now and getting in the Word, preparing through using the keys and prophecy like the breath you breathe! It's getting into the spirit so you'll have the faith when you need it, being open for whatever He may ask of you and trust that your weapons will work for you without a doubt! The only way you can know that is if you are using them all the time now, putting them to the test and becoming closely, intimately familiar with them!

Some Things to Pray For

1. Pray For Jesus' Return

(Jesus:) There are many things that still have to come into place, but as you continue to pray for My return, I promise that things will head in the right direction.

2. Pray for the Heavenly Offensive Witnessing Push

You are sending out a barrage that is winning souls and defeating the enemy's plans left and right. But you have to keep it coming. That flow, the plasma stream from the generator has to be pulled down and drawn out. You have to command each day that the floodgates be opened in order for the witnessing teams to get their power for that day. It's not like you say one prayer and the Endtime will proceed and everything will fall into place. No, it's a battle. It's a war. So when you do something, the enemy counter-attacks. He ups the ante and the evil forces respond. So those spirit helpers that are going out need recharging. They need more spiritual energy. They need power; they need love; they need discernment. They need a whole lot to fight the battles they have to fight. So don't let them down. You've gotten everybody all hyped up with this big witnessing push, so keep it coming. They all have to get a chance. The spirit beings in Heaven need a chance to win those stars in their crown, and those on Earth need a chance –a chance to hear the Truth. And how well the job is done depends on you.

3. Pray For the Man of Sin to Fulfill His Destiny

Pray for the Man of Sin to fulfill his destiny in order that the whole terrible mess comes to an End.

4. Pray That Gog Goes to Battle With America

The kings will soon meet in the final battle, the battle that will end all battles for one thousand years. It is your prayers that are pushing Endtime events headlong to their end... I have shortened the time; it won't be long now, My warriors of the spiritual realm. Putin is the new muscle in town; Russia is the ascended power and has the economic, military and political power that the UN needs to push this Palestinian issue to a final conclusion. The UN has ordered Israel to stand down over the Palestinian issue. Pray now whilst the iron is hot, pray that Russia be drawn into this quagmire. Pray that this UN order becomes an ultimatum. Pray that Putin underestimates America's absolute fealty to the State of Israel. Put hooks into Gog's jaw and draw him into battle with America and Israel. Pray that Gog sees this as his golden opportunity to take a very great spoil, to wrest the world out of American control, to destroy the whore and realize his destiny.

5. Pray For the Palestinians

Go now and be as Moses to those trapped in Gaza. Speak to the Rock, and I will give them water and place manna in their satchels. Snatch victory out of defeat with your prayers. Be as a covering angel for these ones; be as the sky above. Cover them with your prayers.

6. Pray for Putin and Xi to Be Controlled

Xi fits the description in Revelation 13 of the beast that has two horns like a lamb...He is not what he tries to portray to the world. Xi is a lizard waiting for the fly to come in range of his sticky, lying tongue. Once on that tongue, the fly cannot get off. Use your prayers to keep him in his place. China is leading the world in Mark of the Beast technology. In fact, China is leading in most things... but Xi will promote the first beast while it is in his best interests, but mark My Word, the world cannot afford for this man (Xi) to reach the very top. Putin is the son of perdition, and Xi is the devouring Mongol horde. This duo must be controlled by your prayers.

7. Pray For the Elite's Plan For Worldwide Genocide to Be Thwarted

Whilst you are praying for the riff-raff to be removed from the Earth before the Millennium begins, so are the AC's systematically removing all those not ear-tagged for their New World Order. The elite's plan for worldwide genocide will only be thwarted through your prayers.

8. Pray For Harris To Become the Next President of the U.S.

Harris is the one who is supposed to make those fateful decisions that will thrust America and the world into the final countdown. She is but a pawn, and does not actually make any of these decisions on her own. She is even more of a pawn than Trump and that is one reason she has been chosen. "They" want things to go smoothly, so they need someone who will fall in line and not do anything unpredictable. She is indeed cruel and evil as Braham predicted and she will play the part well. So if you want the end to come sooner rather than later, then pray for her to ride the wave into the white house and then the dominoes will start to fall.
