

Cover Them With Your Prayers

Remember your enemy; do not allow his inroads into your hearts and minds. You're your whole soul to this final battle. The martyrs that die out there in the world are in their place and they are holding their ground. They are strengthened through your Key powered prayers, hold your ground. Utter the Seven Thunders in faith, determination, knowing that each prayer, each utterance hits its marker. Be relentless, single-minded, resolute, unwavering in your attacks on Satan and his forces.

Prayer is the soul of man tired of Earthly wanderings, flying to the bosom of God, & waiting there in prayer until God speaks to his heart & revives his spirit

They are the Keys of Revelation 6:9-10; their destiny is a place of honor within the Final Key. I walk with them in the fiery furnace, but your prayers are vital in helping them come through victoriously.

The Keys being slotted into the final Key are the last few prophecies that yet need to be fulfilled. The Keys are those people that yet need to take their place in Endtime events. Your prayers are Keys, your obedience to fulfill your part of this great Endtime play are also Keys; the armies of Heaven fulfilling their destiny are Keys that are rising and locking into place. You will fulfill your destiny by just keeping your eyes on the Keys, My Word and Me. You have everything you need to bring this world's history to a close in the allotted time

You hold the Keys of the future; you are unlocking the smaller locks faster and faster. They are slamming into the respective slots. Continue standing in the gap; the city is almost saved. Stay faithful, stay fervent in prayer. The victory is almost ours.

This is My promise to David and his children. You must pray for grace, strength, vision and courage for your brothers and sisters in Gaza to fulfill their destiny. They have been chosen for this time as are you chosen. You must be relentless in prayer; this is your reasonable sacrifice. The dumbed down, white magic world bow their knee to their god Mammon and are insensitive to the plight of the Palestinians!

Intercession for the Persecuted Hebrews 13:3 calls believers to "remember those in prison as if you were imprisoned with them."

The Palestinian martyrs come through trusting in the Light, giving glory to God in spite of the hell and horror Satan and his people are dishing out every day

This may seem strange and perhaps even heartless to your understanding. But I say, blessed are the Palestinians above all those upon the face of the earth, for they hunger and thirst after My righteousness, and although not yet fulfilled, they are the Children of God and will be exceeding glad, for great is their reward in Heaven

Blessed are the Palestinians and all those persecuted ones upon the earth since the beginning of time, for theirs is the Kingdom of God. Those that think they have, it will be taken from them and will be given to those who in this life have nothing

Blessed are the Palestinians, for they are those that will rule and reign with Me in the coming Kingdom because they have passed through the fire and have come forth white and as pure gold. Pray for them but do not pity them, for they are those that are learning and growing through what they suffer now in this life. Their life and possessions may have been taken from them by force in this life, but I will use their situation to bring about a Romans 8:28. One day it will be an honor to just stand beside these people, these that I honor greatly in this life with My intolerable compliment. You see their lives as a great loss, but I say it is great gain. They now learn what the whole world in the coming Millennial Kingdom of God must learn in order to mature and come out of the Dark Age of selfishness and into the Light of the Law of Love. They are passing through a rebirth of sorts and they will be powerful advocates of My Law in the next era

Do not pity them; pray for My leaders of the future. All that they suffer now is strengthening them for their future roles. These persecuted ones have been forcibly extracted from the white magic world and are in reality far ahead of the rest of the world.

The Palestinians and persecuted around the world will inherit the Kingdom; that is sure. But you, because you gave up this white magic world through a free-will offering and came to Me because of your love for Me and Me alone, are the ones who are chosen and elected to hand the Kingdom to those honored ones who pass through. And that can be found in Daniel 7.

The blood of the martyrs has been and still is being spilt for this cause. avenge them Jesus; avenge the blood of the Palestinians on them that dwell on the earth, on all those that refuse to sigh at the slaughter of the innocent.

The masses are as the waves driven by the wind and tossed. My going up into a mountain to pray symbolizes your climb up the mountain to reach our cave where we are to pray until the fourth watch. When the hour is right, I will come to save My own. You, My brides, who have been following the signs, know of My coming. You, My bride, are as special people called out of time and space to be My heralds. I will come for My own in the last watch of the night, between three and six, the time of greatest darkness just before dawn.

Pray for the Palestinians and all the poor and persecuted around the world:

Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted. Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are they that are slain for the Word of God, and for the testimony which they held. Just as I had to fulfill the Word of God when I was on earth, so must these, whom I ask you to pray for, play their role in fulfilling the Word of God

I see when one sparrow falls to the ground, and I see all these and I weep for them, yet more blessed are they than all those that do not sigh, but who go on business as usual. "And the LORD said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof."

Sigh My loves, weep and sigh with great lamentation for My slaughter weapon follows closely on the heels of the Inkhorn. In sighing for these, My martyrs, you paint their blood on the lintel of your heart. Sigh My people, that My martyrs die not in vain, for I use My martyrs to sift the wheat from the chaff. I use them to judge the wicked unrighteous of this world, just as I have used My martyrs of past generations to judge those that harden their hearts and turn from the suffering and pain of the poor.

You see Gaza as a great atrocity, and it is, but look deeper and see that these ones die for the Word of God, these ones fulfill My will.

Use the weapon of extreme praise and praise Me, for My hand is upon these, My martyrs of this last hour. They play a very special part in this Endtime drama. They give their lives for the cause, whether they know Me or not. Whether they are Christian or not, they are called and chosen to give of their lives in submission to My will that Scripture be fulfilled and the fall of man is complete

For it is written, they were slain for the Word of God. Read and understand that these ones that die in Gaza and all around the world die that the Word of God may be fulfilled; for scripture must be fulfilled before the End comes and I cry "It is finished!" My martyrs play their parts as do all play some part in the unfolding. Pray that their suffering passes quickly. Pray that the time of their martyrdom passes and that I can come for them and bring them home, away from their persecutors and murders

The world is blind; they do not see. They are deaf; they do not hear. Without these martyrs they will be trapped in this void between worlds. For the world has entered the twilight zone between death and life. The martyrs are the Key; they pay the price of freedom for all. See and understand that your prayers are also their Key to freedom.

PRECIOUS IN THE SIGHT OF THE LORD IS THE DEATH OF HIS SAINTS (PSALMS 116:15)

The Palestinians are a very great people; they are the conscience of this world. They are the judge and jury. I have allowed their situation to continue as a witness against the people of this world.

Will you continue to pray for them even though you see the situation worsening? Will you continue to trust that My hand is on their lives and that I do all things well? Or will you allow your heart to grow bitter and hard? Will you allow yourself to be offended in Me? Or will you continue to follow Me whithersoever I go?

The Palestinians are not a problem; they are the solution to man's problem. If man would use them to correct his thinking, if he would use them to correct his lifestyle and what he deems important in this life, then the Palestinian people could really help man. The Palestinian people are man's big opportunity to make it right, to correct the problem in the lives of the people of this world. If you are praying for them, then you are doing the very best thing anyone can do

The Palestinian people are the sandglass; their lives are as the sand that empties from this world through the open throat of tribulation and martyrdom and into My hands. As their remaining grains slip from this life, so do My final witnesses turn the page on man's era.

The Palestinian people are like you, in that their tribulation is as the Words of David are to you. If they did not have this cup in their life, then they would be in the world and part of the world, but I have called them out for this special purpose, as I have called My Children of David out to serve their special purpose

The Palestinian people have tribulation, and you have the Words of David. If these two catalysts were not in your lives, then you would be as the world. Tribulation is their glory, for I have declared that they that come out of great tribulation will rule with Me when the sandglass is turned and the New Millennium begins.

Behold I come quickly; hold that fast which thou hast that no man take thy crown. For in that day those that left the ice will be in great sorrow and torment of heart; for they counted this life more worthy than My thorny crown. I do greatly honor My Palestinian children as do I honor My children of David, but man does not see honor as I see honor. The honor of man is as sand that passes through his fingers and is gone to the beach and washed away to sea. Send your Keys to the Palestinians in this their darkest hour. The Keys will strengthen them and give them grace to rise above and finish the race that is set before them. Call on the Keys, for their hour and your hour fast approaches.

They are the chosen martyrs, and the world is being judged according to their reaction to the genocide there in Gaza. We must realize that when the last grains of sand pass through the throat of tribulation, then the sandglass will be turned. In destroying the Palestinians, the world is destroying itself. As sad as it seems to our carnal minds, God's ways are not our ways, and He sees this as a glorious end and a fulfillment of His Word. Just as Jesus' death was the final fulfillment to the Old Testament era, so will the Palestinians be the final fulfillment in this age of grace and faith.

Pray beloved, pray for those trapped within the trap; allow the burden of the Syrian people to be laid on your shoulders. Allow their unbearable suffering to touch your hearts. Pray for the innocent; these ones have become as the Palestinians, as prey they have been thrown to the dogs and vultures of this world. Allow Me to touch you with the infirmities of these poor, persecuted, downtrodden ones. Call on the Keys of grace to endure and the power to rise above. The morning is coming. Pray, beloved, pray for their burden is your burden.

They are lost in a void with no surcease in their waking hours, and then when they sleep, they are often disturbed by demons and spirits that try to drag them further into the abyss. But I come to them in their dreams also; I bring great light and much grace in those hours.

There are many things that happen to people in the Earth life. Many are hard to explain, but basically it comes down to a test of the soul. These things are to strengthen the soul. This is what they came to Earth to learn. I give them great grace and fortitude of spirit, and none are tested above what they are able to bear. But during their great testing, I am with each one. Your part is to grieve with them and uphold them in prayer. For your prayers are mighty and hold much sway in the realm of the spirit. Pray that My will is accomplished in these ones' lives. Pray that they accomplish that which they came to Earth to achieve. It is the spirit that is strengthened; the flesh profits nothing. You must not look at things in the flesh, for the flesh is but a vapor. It is here today and gone tomorrow. Fret not for these ones; simply pray and you have fulfilled your part in this great travesty.

I know, and I love and I care for these ones. They are loved with a great love, and they have a special place in the world of the spirit, as do you. You are, through your prayers, inextricably linked with those that you pray for. There is a bonding in spirit between those that are prayed for and those that are praying. Pray for their strength and courage; pray that they learn what they must learn through these battles. Pray for the grace they need to endure the fight, for it will be soon over for many of them. And those who must fight on in the flesh will be helped greatly by those that pass over

Learn the art of positive praise, pray positive prayers for these ones who will not be tempted one second longer than is My will. Pray that they turn not bitter or hateful. Pray for these ones—that they endure this fight. Pray extreme prayers for these My beloved persecuted ones. Learn the art of extreme praise and prayers, for it will strengthen you for the days ahead.

Use the keys of victory and destiny for these ones, and you will affect much change.

The more I pray for this group of people, the more I believe they, or some amongst them, are martyrs chosen for this special time in history—just as we were chosen—and their suffering is intimately connected to what we have been commissioned to do in prayer. Again I'm reminded of a verse that helps explain what I am trying to tell you. "And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held: And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth? And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled. (Revelation 6:9-11)

The saints that have died in past persecutions cannot be avenged until the dear Palestinians have fulfilled their purpose

We have been told that San-Badh-Mahl is that angel. So we have San-Badh-Mahl being sent out at our request. We see the Palestinians being used by God as a litmus test in the heart and conscience of every person on the face of this planet today—or at least every person that is seeing what is happening in Gaza. Are those that witness these events being touched positively or negatively? This is the sifting of the wheat and the chaff. This is the litmus test before the final harvest.

The Palestinians, we and San-Badh-Mahl must play our parts in order that these final Endtime events be fulfilled

If you are being touched by the suffering of the Palestinian people, then turn those feelings into prayer. Pray extreme prayers, but above all, pray that these dear martyrs be given the Keys of the Kingdom, which in turn will give them the strength of spirit to pass through the fire. Just as the three Hebrew children passed through Nebuchadnezzar's furnace due to supernatural intervention, pray that Jesus walks with the Palestinians through this, their hour of temptation.

Unlike Moses of old, the Palestinians, we, and any true children of God in this modern age, have no physical wilderness to run to. How will we all escape? As Dad said, when there is no place to run, then the last portal will open to us, the portal that leads out of this world.

Death or rapture is on the other side of the spiritual wilderness. So to us who wish to escape into the spiritual wilderness of Revelation 12, are given the Keys of the Wilderness. Again, pray extreme prayers and send an angel to open a door for the persecuted Palestinians. They know not what they should pray for as they ought; therefore, it is given to us, the Children of David, to make intercession for them. How that wilderness portal will manifest itself is not our concern; ours is to believe and ask by faith.

The less they see of you, the more I can shine through. You are My transparent ones; you are as My blue angels. You are the blue sky. You are anywhere there is a need. There is no place that you cannot go in your prayers. No government can keep you out; no border can close its gate to you. Go now and be as Moses to those trapped in Gaza; speak to the Rock and I will give them water and place manna in their satchels. Snatch victory out of defeat with your prayers. Be as a covering for these ones; be as the sky above. Cover them with your prayers.

Command the stones to be turned into bread and it will be done. Is there anything too hard for Me? Do you want these ones to be blessed by My hand? Do you want them to enter the Millennial Kingdom of God? Then pray for them, for My hand is mighty to save. I will come down unto them and cover them with My wings. I will keep them in their hour of tribulation, and one day those dogs that surround them, who say they are Jews but are not, will come and worship at the feet of these they persecute. Anything that you ask in My name and in the name of the Keys, I will give it.

I am using this situation and others like it to sift the wheat from the chaff. I am searching the hearts of men everywhere, and according to the choices they make, so are they sifted. The chaff will fall down, and the wheat will I retain for the next sowing. Continue to pray, for this mighty harvest is well on its way and all My wheat must be garnered before the final storm. Men everywhere are choosing their future; they are choosing their path to the next millennium. I have said that I am closing the book and blowing out the candle; the hour of temptation has come. Pray that not one be missed; pray that they that do not have a wedding garment enter not into the wedding feast.

The Palestinians are dying a martyr's death and it is their reasonable service as it is your reasonable service to die daily in your caves for the cause. The world is the audience and each person is being judged according to their response to what they see. The Inkhorn man (San-Bahd-Mahl) has been sent out to register those that sigh and this scenario will continue to such a time as the Father dictates. Your brothers and sisters are falling in battle, and yes, it is a terrible thing, but they are also being glorified as I was glorified and as you will be glorified when it comes your turn to give up the ghost. I am with the Palestinian and all those who die in this war of the worlds. For I have said "Blessed are they"...as each one falls, I am there with crown in hand.

God is love and love is a spirit, so those people who are sighing over the atrocities in this world are being "led by the spirit of God." It is God sighing through them. Those that sigh are like us when we pray; we don't know what to pray for as we ought. The Spirit of God leads us in prayer. So those that sigh, the Palestinians, we and all those that are being led by the Spirit of God are gathered on this earth at this special time to fulfill our purpose, our destiny. It's Love's answer to the evil of Satan, and it is costly, more costly for some than others, but Love (God) is making His stand through His children. As Romans 8:14 says...For as many as are led by the Spirit of God...they are the sons of God.

The Palestinians and the poor and persecuted around the world have their commission as you have your commission, and as those that sigh have their commission. I make Myself known to those outside your cave who are suffering under the hand of the cruel oppressor; in dreams or premonition, in forewarning or simply through the Word they have heard or read. Some way, somehow I make myself known so that they know that all they are suffering is not in vain. You have heard their stand of faith and their testimonies. These ones that die out there in the world are no less important to Me than you who sit with Me in the cave directing the Seven Thunders. Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints.
