

And the Bright and Morning Star!

Just before the sun rises, there is a star standing alone, shining brightly in the east.

This beautiful sight is referred to as the Morning Star.

This star announces the coming of sun and light to the earth; it heralds the dawn.

Without a vision the people perish. So where's your vision? In the Word. And what has it told you? That Jesus is coming back in 2026. Hold to that promise. (JUN 2, 2024 Confessions Of A Young Warrior)

2Pet.1:19

And we have more firm the prophetic word, to which we do well giving heed, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, till Day may dawn, and a Morning Star may arise in your hearts;

My love, dream of the day when you and I will be reunited in Heaven. Dream of seeing Me face to face again; (Perfect Love [#3636])

The Bride awaits the coming of her Lord. The Bride awaits the transport and bearers to bring her safely through the dark night. The night will only sweeten the light that is seen. The radiance of the Bridegroom will only be far fairer after the darkness of the night, and the depth of the waters. The beauty of Christ's bride will only shine with more radiance because of the washing and purifying in the waters of affliction and tribulation.

Come, Wings and bear us, like an eagle that soars with prey, yet prey that is snatched from the devourer and carries it to its rightful place high above the waves.

Take me, on wings of paradise; take me and the loves of the Son of God. We await the wind of the wings. We await to soar up and out of the waves. Pull us, draw us, take us, and nourish us in the place prepared for the Bride by her Bridegroom.

I have sat long in the waters of this world. I need to be born up and carried up and up to the bosom of my heart's mate, my Redeemer.

(Bride to Christ:) Take me to Your side, oh love of my heart, with your bearing wings and angels. I care not to linger. Let the day of deliverance be not a moment later than is deemed wise by Your dear heart, Angel of God, my Christ, my full soul's passion.

(Bridegroom to His Bride:) Beloved, I shall indeed come to you, enchanted one, who longs for the pleasures of her God. I shall come and bring you to My side, and never shall you go out of My presence forever more; yea forever and forever more you shall be Mine, to nourish and to cherish Me and the ones that I yet send you to bear ever closer to Me. And I shall nourish and cherish you, dear one who I have Redeemed.

Come, My bride, My ravishing one. Come. I call and I send that which shall bring you Home.

Forever we shall be wed. (29-MAR-2021_The Bride and Heaven's Wings)

December 2023

Light the candle of your heart every day because I'm coming to take you. That beautiful day, the Heavens will split and all eyes will see Me in the clouds. Let Me see your heart ever yearning for that moment, that moment when our eyes will meet, and all care, doubts and fears are vanquished, when at last you will be in My arms...darling, can't you see it? Hold it in your mind's eye because that day is coming. Let your heart hunger, yea burn for that day and I will never disappoint you. Walk every day as though you are living for that moment alone. Hold it out in front of you as the goal for all the things you do. I'm looking for that beautiful desire and faith to be there when I step through the veil to claim you. So let this world pass you by as you live alone for that precious moment. You can't imagine the glorious feelings you will feel in that day when you begin to see that your Savior is coming; you can't imagine the joy that is in store for you, because you stayed when it was on your heart to go. You stayed on the fire for Me, so I could see your light burning and for that your heart will know complete happiness when you finally see Me breaking through this carnal plane...Put away the things that sully your mind and spirit so in that moment you can look up and see Me and shout for joy --because you died all your life to live in this moment. Die now and live then. I'm not saying be perfect but give your best, the best you can and I'll give such bliss in that moment. Let your heart and spirit as a beacon shining in the darkness; let your spirit ever cry for Me. Show in your life that you are waiting for that one day; hold on for that one day and you will not be disappointed. The flesh is nothing and man is as grass, so cast it aside now dear, let go of these things you can see. All these foolish things of man will be seen as they are in that day, so take My Word for it and move past them in your pursuit to be ready for Me when I come. Let Me take away the scales and just be willing to be and do anything here and now for Me because your real life is coming soon. It's in your mind that the battle rages and the enemy makes it seem so impossible to give these things up, but when you sit here at My feet everything falls into its proper place as you dream of that beautiful time. But if you dwell on your life in the flesh you will immediately feel depressed. I've made it that way, so you can learn to live alone for My coming and yearn and hunger and desire Me. I've set you apart from the world so you will sit down and eagerly pray for Me to come and make you Mine. So do your part and stay set apart for Me because I'm coming to marry you, My bride. Be My sweetheart desperately awaiting the sight of Me on the top of the hill, and you'll come running to meet to Me arms outstretched. I don't want you to be like the rest of the world who will be shocked to see Me. I want you to rejoice because the One you have loved has finally returned. I don't want you to be caught with other lovers, like My church children, but to be keeping yourself, My virgin, separate and needy for Me. Empty for Me and in need for My love to fill you. The world and even My other children are gluttoned on the world and think they don't need Me, and indeed are filled with the enemy's substance so they aren't hungrily waiting for Me as the virgin bride looks to the day when she shall finally be married and loved fully by her Beloved. That's why I've literally and practically put your life on hold. You can't even do acceptable and normal things like build families and serve Me like in the old family days...I've put you here in this wilderness, so you will want nothing else. You will pray for Me like no others. I'm teaching your heart to yearn for Me by even taking away these natural things. Even in the old family days the youth of the family weren't and couldn't be as desperate for My coming; they were too surrounded by the flesh and life, but I have taken that from you, to teach you the beautiful love that can be yours in Me. I want you to focus alone on Me and that you want Me to come back and claim you. Not because you are bored and dying in this wilderness but because your heart has indeed learned to hate this world and save your loving eyes only for Me. 'Set APART' for you are My beautiful virgin bride...My darling, My darling thank Me for this honor of being kept alone for Me.

You are almost there; make yourself ready, the Bridegroom cometh.

(Jesus speaking:)My intimate bride, who craves Me with all her heart and body. I am going to get to know you real well, good and tight, when at last we meet in the chambers above. The room is being prepared, with the angels that will attend to our every whim. We are going to have a really good time, and you know it. I won't spare anything that will give us delight.

Come to Me now while we wait the wedding night and the future beyond. We can both wet our appetite and helped to stave off our hunger. The big night is coming. Hold on to Me now and I'll move in special ways with you.

If you aren't afraid of fire, of shattered hopes and broken fantasies, if you'd "rather have Jesus than anything" as the song says, then all things are possible, and there are few limitations to the heights our loving can know. If you give all, I give all.

Do you want Me more than a lovey-dovey relationship or a cozy house, or riches and comforts? If you want Me above all, that's when I really take an interest in bestowing greater gifts of passion on you. And by and by, the bigger and really great things will come into play.

Take what you are allowed for now, and enjoy these touches of intimacy. Then when things get hotter and heavier and you are fighting in tougher ways, I'll match it with more of Me in special and truly spectacular ways.

Enjoy what you can now, but there's always more, a whole lot more loving. It's past finding out, ready for Me to give when the time is right and your faith, expectancy and utter surrender warrant it. (The wedding night is coming)

Our Call of Love Brings on the Rapture

I WAIT TO HEAR THE VOICES OF MY LOVERS CALLING ME.

(Jesus:) So much of Earth life is to aid you in the next. What did you come to Earth to learn? Primarily to love, and to love Me above all. But more than that, you came to learn about My strong and passionate, go-the-distance love for you. When you trust in My love, then you can have a more fruitful and inspiring Heavenly life. Trusting in My love is a very big part of your life, now and forever. And having a chance for us to build up a solid foundation of love, one layer at a time, one experience at a time, is very beneficial in the next life.

Here we sit in our nest of love. You are nestled and cared for and provided for. Here I will protect you.

Keep the fires of our love burning and kindle them through our times of passion, and so will you ever be learning about the ways of loving the King. For there are many ways to do this. This is only one, yet a very needed way to love Me. It is needed because in loving Me, in rejoicing and in delighting to love with Me in very passionate ways, you are calling for the King of Love to take over the world. It is this love call that stirs Me to break through your veil and reveal Myself. It compels Me to come into your world, to take you away and to make you Mine. If there was no need for love, if none on Earth longed for the greatest Lover of all time to come and make her His bride, then what need would there be for Me to come?

If the things of the world "did it" for you, if all the materialism and the lovers that this world uses to try to reach some sort of climax were sufficient, then why would I need to come and invite you to the greatest Marriage Feast of all? I wait to hear the voices of My lovers calling me. Those who forsake the world are actually calling Me. Those who cling to the so-called satisfactions that this world tries to replicate don't urge on My coming. Why must it be just at the right moment when I show up? Well, when does a man reach the moment of seed sowing and full passion? When He is aroused and has been loving for a little while. You can't say it has to be at a certain second on the clock, but when both he and his bride are engaged in loving and have been going at it, and when the time is ripe in his body and mind and soul, then he "comes". And so will I too come, when the love has reached a pinnacle, when you are loving Me all you can.

When My Bride is at swords' points with the world and seems pinned in a corner, as the wicked ones try to work their vile way right into her, she screams out for a Lover who is yet invisible. It seems crazy to trust in such a one, rather than to yield to her worldly oppressors and give up and just become their slave for violation. But as you, My Brides, call out for Me, I will come and slaughter all those who have been trying to violate your soul and whisk you up in My arms, up and away to the greatest feast.

Would I have come so soon—quickly—if those on Earth, if all those on Earth whom I was hoping would be My Bride, were flirting with the troublemaker, making deals and working out prices for the use of her body and soul, and not calling for Me to be the only one inside of her and to be her Mate for eternity? No. It's when I hear both the cries of love and the cries for deliverance—a cry that wants none else but a Redeemer and Husband to both rescue her and love her again and again forever—that makes Me come quickly, as My Word says I will do. When I hear the cries of love from the redeemed hearts, cries of “Only Love”, that I am their Only True Love for eternity, this speeds on My return, for I don't wish to make My Bride wait too much longer. Why would I? Why would I see My Bride craving and craving for Me and leave her unsatisfied? You must long for Me to come, and then you get to both see and feel Me in all the passionate ways you have been craving for. Your cravings and words of desire show up in My catalogue of “Joys to be fulfilled”. And I see that they are. I call on My Knights of the Kingdom to see to it that you get what you have been earnestly longing for. Yea, even your whims are tended to. For you have been faithful to the End—even when there was no other option but to wait for Your Lord and Redeemer. When there were no other options besides either waiting or giving in to the wicked world system, you chose to wait and to go without, to prove yourself faithful to Me.

Oh, My darling ones, with passion will I now come. You don't want Me just to come, to come casually and to act rather cold towards you. You don't want Me to just come in the heat of anger for the wickedness, but you want Me hot for your love and filled with great rejoicing. And so must it be that I hear your cries of longing, that I am your One true love. Then will My passions of longing for love be aroused, and come I will, in more ways than one.

This you know.

When I hear you longing for Me, then I am aroused to come. Let Me not feel the cold of your indifference, of your being otherwise satisfied. I want to be your only satisfaction. —“I and the children God gave me” I and My Host. When I come, it's like Jacob returning again; this time with a Host and wealth and gifts. And how will you greet Me? I want to be kissed and embraced and loved. I want to be in your arms, not greeted with your “arms” (weapons) in opposition. I want a band of lovers to love Me and to love those on My team. We meld; we unite. We are one. Call for the Lovers of David to come and to carry you through to the Bridal suite. And there we will make passionate love, all the more so because we have been through the fires and the floods together.

Our love will reach heights of rejoicing you have yet to even know exist.

Call for Me, My beloveds. I am not far off. Rip off your veil, and entice Me to be one with you. I will not linger long when love is in the voice of those calling for Me to come, to return. For the passion of love will be yet even stronger than a man's passionate desire to save and defend. A man's longing to heroically save a maiden in distress is strong and can be stirred up. But His passion to love a maiden who calls out for Him and Him alone and longs for Him to come immediately to her is much stronger. Combine those, and you get a rapture! I'm coming. Do I hear your cries or just your sighs? And what cry would that be? Just a “Save me and make things nice for me.” or “Do unto me as You wish, for I need You, Jesus and You alone, for my passion will not be quelled with any but You.” Call out in love, and you'll see a new side of Me that you half-hoped would exist, yet scarcely dared to think it did. So it does, in fervor. I'll come alright, and you will be Mine.

August 2024

When I return in the clouds to gather up all My brides, you shall all be changed. As your spirit gazes upon Me, you will remember the things that have forgotten and you will shine with an unearthly light. Your soul will light up, so to speak. And that is because, like the crystal and pillar, you are finally reunited with your true Power Source; My coming will mean different things for all those on Earth: to those who hate Me I will be as a burning fire, as the Sun and they will not be able to look at Me for brightness. For those who love peace and will eventually enter into the Millennium, I will be as the most beautiful thing they have ever seen; I will awe them and they will weep too because they don't know Me yet. For you it's going to be an entirely different experience...they are almost no words to describe, at least in human tongue, what you will know in that moment. The Color, the Wonder, the Power that will flood your world. You will see Me and nothing else will be left in your eyes...I guess you could say your mind will be blown away, and yes, you will be changed!

1 Corinthians 15: 52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: the trump shall be sounded and the dead in Christ shall raise first, and we shall be changed.

Changed! All your lessons, your prayers, your surrenders, and your love that you gave to Me, will burst out of your soul in that day, and I will complete every song you ever sang to Me. Your little love will meet My overflowing fountain and that is what will overcome you and you shall change and be new. As we have said before, your new body will be beautiful according to how much you yield to Me and love Me now. Otherwise I have nothing to pull from and nothing to bring out of your heart. I need hearts filled with love and longing, so that I can clothe you in it. I need materials to work with as you have heard all your life when thinking about your mansion in Heaven. But as they said in one podcast, the materials I need will be for your new body or you might look pretty dim, not shining brightly like the blue angels. I want to see your light burning brightly when I come down to the Earth, not feeble with cares of this dying world. I want to be able to spot you in that gross darkness. Then with that little light I'll make you new...I'll give you what you always wanted and that's My light, and you'll shine for all to see! And it will be because our love and everyone that looks at you will know it. Do you want to glorify Me in your appearance like those precious blue beings? Then you must save Me every drop of love and praise. You must hide these things in your heart and not besmire your heart and spirit with the dirty things of Earth. What colors do you want to shine with when I finally come to get you? It all depends on what you are doing here and now. Why do you think everyone in Heaven recognizes a true child of David? Because of the colors and the light they bear. Not all Christians are that filled with love, thus I have nothing to clothe them with. Some of them will be quite bare...and it would be very sad if you were like that, having been given so much Light to fill your soul with, even given the Key of 666 to be removing that dark earthly color that reigns over the whole Earth. You have a chance to be clean of the sticky grime of 666...clean and washed in Blue. Your heavenly body will be a beauty and a joy for Me to look upon if you take these Words and these Keys and let them wash you clean. Then when I come to find you, I'll see My familiar mark and I'll feel love well up inside Me. I'll know you, because you always knew Me here and now...you loved higher frequencies and hated the dark. That's what I am thirsting for when I return. I want to see blue light greeting Me as I look upon the masses. Then as our eyes lock in tender embrace, that little blue flame inside you will erupt. The darkness will die away, and you will be different forever! Your soul will break out in dance and song! Your soul will at last be complete and there won't be a vacancy in you that I won't fill to overflowing. You already know that this all doesn't mean you will be perfect, but I will take the love you stored away for Me and together we will have perfect love that casts out all darkness and fear. Then your glorious journey will continue. Nothing will hold you back if your heart longs to only know Me. You can keep coming closer and closer, if you let My light in deeper and deeper...as My shiny Blue Angels have. If that's what you long for then I am here and I am longing for it a million times more. I am waiting for the day of My return...so I can gather you up and show you the wonder of My love for My bride. My bride, My bride, My bride!

Well done, the first stage of the last seven years is coming to a close and you have stood the tests that I spoke of in My Words of David. Do not be surprised that I speak this way, as if there should be a big fanfare and a mighty announcement. Did I not say that I would come as a thief in the night? "But know this that if the good man of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up. Therefore, be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh." Yes, you see I speak in a whisper now, because I speak in the intimacy of our bedchamber, that what you hear in your heart as I whisper in your ear, will one day be shouted on the rooftops of the world. You are My lovers, My intimate brides, and as your Lover desires to share His deepest secrets with His heart throb, so desire I to tell you with all My heart, My plans.(Mystical Bible MARCH 8, 2023
Looking Back to July 2021)

What was so exciting about the revelation is that Jesus didn't just tell us outright, He lead us to the conclusion through a series of dreams, prophecies and actual events. Then when we were ready for the revelation, He told us outright. "I am coming back in or around 2026." Bang! There you go! How did that taste? People who have been following MB blogs already know this and if they have been following closely, they know how Jesus led us up to the fact. (Our Business Is Open for More Wine Makers Prophecy, 26th October, 2020)

But you are the good men who have watched and waited with lamp in hand fully trimmed and ready for your thief who has come to take you away, house and all.(DISCUSSION ON Rev 10:7)

8--REV.3:5 He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

White, shiny, spotless and clean--or spotted and blotted, stained and tarnished? Which do you wish to be? One makes the wearer appear to be beautiful, noble, and royal. The other makes people focus on the blemishes and spots, rather than the one wearing that garment.

So when you get to Heaven, do you want people to see the glorified you, in your new body, shining in your radiance that I give to those who love Me?

Or to learn from the example of what not to do; the spots in your character, the things you did for yourself, but not for your God—and in Heaven they appear as dirt on your record, things you will be ashamed about.

See, it's like a photo in the negative form, and then it changes to getting developed.

Earth is like the negative, and things that appear black here, if they are what I've asked you to do or to be like, though uncomely, will be shining white in your record Up Here. And the things on Earth that looked better, and that might have made you seem to shine more down there, getting you more glamorous glory, will be spots on your record in the life to come.

I see the picture the actual way it is. That's what the fruit of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and evil does, it taints things, warps them, transforms them in to a negative picture. The bad looks bright and attractive, and the white and good look dark or hard and undesired.

When the first man and women thought that their bodies, just the way they were made, needed to be covered and were something sinful, this showed Me that they were seeing things all backwards, inside out and upside down. Their vision and perception was marred.

But when you get your new body, you'll get not only the picture in it's true perspective, all in the positive, but it will be in colour too—magnificent colour. For now you have to take My Word for it. My Word takes a picture, or a way things are, or a thought you get, and it explains what is light and what is really dark, even if the image in the “negative” looks very different. You'll have to trust that I have the right knowledge on it.

If you pray, I can give you glasses of the spirit, through the Word of prophecy, to help teach you what is what—what is to Me good, and what is to Me false or evil. Then you can tell others. One day when you see it all in Heavenly light, you'll find it really was true. And you'll have less “spots” on your garment, on the record of the life you lived.

It takes a bit of faith to not take things as they may appear, or the way others say they are. But if you truly want your garments to shine white and dazzling, you'll need to “overcome” and not fall for deceitful and warped ways of seeing things on Earth.

Be an overcomer, and I'll put your name in the record book, and speak happily with joy to the Father. It will be a day you will be so glad for. For when the Father hears that you have chosen to believe God's Word rather than Satan's and sin's temptations, He'll be so grateful and thankful, and will bestow crowns and honor and glory and the raiment of Heaven on you, and so much more that I can't tell you about yet. You'll need to show up at the event where I give out rewards for the winners.

When your heart and Mine meet, there are fireworks. Embrace and explode with Me, and I will light upon you and bring you safely through every heartbreak and heartache. When you walk with God, seldom do your feet touch the ground. Your heart is lifted up and you live in a world of praise, where everything beautiful is possible; everything impossible is achievable; where nothing can stop you, for all you have to do is look to your God, who is a consuming fire, and all that is trying to latch on to you is burned away.

If you are not afraid of God's heat, then the wrong can be burned away easily. All you do is step into the fire zone, surrender to your God, and boom, you can resist and defy the devil and all his crew. You step into the heat, and all that can't stand it is gone from you.

But if you linger in the shadows and are afraid of the heat, afraid of what it will cost you, afraid of what you might have to give up or be stripped of, then in that dank and dark corner, the evil can fester and grow like mold.

Surrender to Me, and all that it entails, and then shall you be kept free of the works of the devil. Surrender to the heat, and let it surround you. Not a hair of your head will perish in My presence. I was not talking of the earthly hairs that come and go, regardless of what you do. But the hair of your spirit, the crown of your spirit, doesn't burn, but is kept. But all else that is not gold or made of God, will perish and be gone.

Do you want this kind of freedom, this kind of joy, and this kind of passion with an all-out God who strikes terror into the hearts of all who oppose his raw and alive presence? I'll set you a blaze, for a while, until all that is wrong is burned away. Then I'll clothe you in pure gold melted on you with the heat of My presence. Now the glow is bright and blinding to those in the shadows, for you reflect the light, the fire of the Lord your God. .(Kori's Bible study on Revelations)

“You can keep living for Him, but not giving Him your whole heart. You can keep serving Him, but not fully yielding to Him. You can keep being His disciple, but never really become His bride”

Jesus: when you come Home to Heaven, it will be a breathtaking experience. You'll see all your angels and spirit helpers that gave their life for you, and there will be tears on both sides. You will finally see the Heavenly City that I built and everything that you will experience will be as you have at last arrived in the place where you belong. That's what Heaven will feel like, the moment you step through those pearly gates: it will be like returning from a long trip and getting back to your family and your familiar Home. But there's one thing I want for you more than any of these things. I want you to feel all this about Heaven, because it is your Home and everyone there is your family, but there's something that I feel very deeply about; and I notice this whenever a child of Mine comes Home to Heaven. I notice how they feel about Me. Of course, all love and reverence Me greatly. But there's something that comes from really knowing Me; there is a understanding that of a true dear friend and lover. More than anything I want you to come before Me as a bride. I don't want you to be distant at all. I want to be deep with you and unless you really get to know My heart here and now there won't be a connection to pick up on. Two beings that have fought beside each other day and night, through happy and sad times, is what I am looking for. It is with these that I am most comfortable; I trust them because I know they trust Me and have trusted Me so many times while struggling in the flesh. And through that struggle they have learnt about Me and I about them. Every relationship is a journey and I want you to pursue this one with all your heart. I desire that you run into My arms as a wife returning to her Husband. I want to hear you say, how you died every day of your earth life waiting to be reunited with Me. Of course there will be some tears of regret for bad choices, but ultimately I want to know you and you know Me intimately. But of course this is up to you and you as a holder of the Key of My nature, have greater access to that intimacy than someone who just reads the Bible. I have thrown open My doors to you, whether you will step inside and really know Me is another thing. I want to be your only Resource here and now. I want to be going through your mind all day long...I want to be the answer to your every question and be the Remedy to your wounds. Even as you live on this land, and go to class and listen to My Words from your dad, and then go about your work, you can distance yourself from Me and just go through the motions of reading My Word and even hearing from Me on the surface. Or you can really lean on Me and dive deeply into the pools I have prepared for you, to ensure that you have the strength to keep fighting. You can give me everything there is of your little heart and love Me with your little love...even though you feel like there's no way you can know My mind or even begin to figure Me out... As you give every drop of your love, I will come close to you and I will draw near and will tell you things that I would only tell a bride. You are getting closer to Me when you choose Me above the temptations of the flesh. Don't think you aren't any closer to knowing about Me when I do things to you that don't make sense to you. You can't expect to understand Me or understand every testing and trial that I put you through; I am God and you are My child. And I want your trust that I am in complete control and you can't question that; but I also want to know you deeply and I want you to feel at Home in My arms, then it won't matter where you are be it Heaven or the depths of the seas...it's Me. This sort of connection comes of daily falling on Me and daily asking Me what I think about what you are facing now...because if you distance yourself from Me now, not only will that make it easier for the enemy to get you to give up and quit, but when you get Home to Heaven, I may be distant from you, not because I at all desire this, but simply because you have not known Me. I will love you always and I will take you into My arms no matter what, but I am talking about the deep, sweet communion that I share with lovers. I want that with you. I am not saying you cannot achieve this once in Heaven, but there is a special deepness that comes of earth life and her tests, and that's why I sent you there in the first place. So I want you to make the most of this time while it lasts. I want you to take Me with you each day when you get up to face the battles and no matter what sins or what things you have done wrong again, I won't reject you when you come crying at My feet. I know there can't be perfection in you. All I'm asking for is your heart and mind and all you can give, failures and all. Don't separate yourself from Me, for in doing so you do the worse for yourself and Me...

When you come Home to Heaven, I want you to fall into My arms and kiss Me, and to tell Me how much you have missed Me and love Me with a wife's love.

42--REV.22:4 And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads.

(Part 1)

Now I hide my face from your view, or more like shield your eyes from seeing me. Sometimes I give people here and there a little look, something they can related to; something that shows them that I am right near them and they can trust in Me. But these glimpses are little and small compared to the reality of what I appear in My glory. No one can really, truly manage seeing God with all his 'bells and whistles' and all his light in full beam. So glimpses of appearances are tailor made according to the heart's needs of a person.

Come to Me if you want to see Me looking at you with eyes of love, calling your heart to get to know Me. I'll appear to you, that is in your mind, or sometimes in a dream, or when you are awake, if that is what you need to get closer in our relationship. But if you can go on My Word alone, and get to know me only by faith and not by sight, I'll bless this too and tell you special secrets that will thrill your heart and comfort your mind, and you'll know then how real I really am.

But when the time comes to actually make your appearance before Me, and Me to you, in more splendor that you have seen Me before, what rapture it will be. The connect we'll have when eye meets eye, heart touches heart, hands join, and we are one. You'll know that you were always a part of Me, and it feels like you came home to the heart of God again. Your remembrance will flood back again and you'll be so glad to be reunited again, spirit with spirit, never alone in that way again.

The separation was hard and taught you much more than you could learn were you to only stay happily playing in the gardens of Heaven. But though there were hardships and heart aches, loneliness and turmoil, it all served to enhance not only our relationship but your joy too. For those who fight and win and surrendered to undergo the lessons on Earth, are plentifully rewarded. These can teach others to teach others. They learned things that others' won't quite fully relate to, but they too know things that others do related to and find comfort in and camaraderie in when they share their Earth life experiences for the good of others.

"How did God use you and work in your life?" will be a question you can answer one day to those in Heaven that wish to learn from your life. And you may find that some people you meet in Heaven, who you are talking to, have an interest in your life because they always did and had been helping you in some way. They are curious to see how things played out and what you recollect from your time away. They are glad to see how they helped you in some way. It's fulfilling for them. You'll see many friendly faces, and most of all get to be with your Lord and God in face to face meetings. And that will make even the hardest tears seem worth it; because I went through just as much, actually way more, just to get you here and to be with you in a loving forever. (Kori's Bible study on Revelations)

Right now it's hard to believe; you see things that bother you and they eat their way into your mind. You dwell on them and it makes you sad and you hope only that I am here with you as I say. You are here and you have nothing to go by but My Word and on bad days you wonder where your life is going to end up. I feel you gripping tighter in these times...I too feel the squeezing and stretching of your faith. I feel your trembling spirit and I want to draw you close and remind you of everything that I mean to you. I want to turn your eyes toward Me, so you can catch the spark of love that I hold in My eyes for you. I want to tell you that I am longing to hold you and that I am coming back as soon as I can, and that I love every time you ask Me in prayer to remember My promise to return. You have to search your heart when the enemy asks you what on earth you are doing on some desolate piece of land waiting for Me to return. Search and you will find Me standing there as always. I will tell you the truth and it might be hard for your flesh to take, but I promise to keep My Word to you and to your family. If you try to fight it out with the enemy the reasons, he will surely overwhelm you, for he has the power to control your feelings and emotions and bombard you with fears; your carnal mind leans more towards his reasoning of things, so it's a losing battle if you try to reason it out. Instead, come to Me and I will remind you what you are holding on so tightly for and I will repeat to you all the Truths that are rock solid for you to stand upon. They will take your weight as you climb upon them to escape the tempest and the waves. You are living in the reality, whereas the rest of the world are food for the devourer and are building temporary lives for themselves. You are living for that which does not fade nor become dim. Of course the Devil doesn't want you to believe in My soon coming because that immediately separates you from the world and all its shallow live-for-the-moment attitudes. He wants to mock you with the idea of what you are doing ... "You think Jesus is going to come in the sky in 2026 and save you?" Yes, I am. I am going to come back and save you, because his time is up and he hates it, so he's hoping to break the back of your prayers with unbelief. But you must fiercely believe in it; picture it as your ultimate goal, and dream of the day when I will sweep away all dark clouds and that wonderful new era will begin. At last peace will reign over the whole earth and I will wipe the tears off all faces...Love will come down and it will give birth to the New World. Hunger for it and don't let anything dampen that longing. Let it come out in your prayers and call Me back to this broken world. Let it spark the fire in your soul and come back to life. Look up at the sky and believe in something more than this physical world...I am going to come back and rip through those clouds and pierce the spiritually dead world with the Melodies of Heaven! Glorious day, My love! Close your eyes and I will fill your soul with some of those sweet harmonies to keep going until that day finally breaks through and fills the world with those songs you have kept quietly inside all this time. Sing them to yourself and hold on. But most of all believe, and keep ringing out those prayers because they are the melodic call to bring all the Holy songs back to Earth again! They will heal the world and never will the Earth be the dark wicked place it is today. But unless you believe in this, no one will be the connect to the heavenly realm and no one will be singing those songs, so fight above all to believe wholeheartedly, for faith is the strength that will keep you going no matter how dark it becomes. I love you and I'm coming very soon!

“The first and foremost idea we have to believe is that the world has come to the end of the line. The End is here. Jesus is really, truly coming back in 2026.” (JAN 7, 2024 Going Behind the Son)

My brides, My lovers who have come to Me in the night season to listen to My whispers of love, it is you who hears the secrets I have held in My treasure chests since the beginning of time. It is you whom I am opening My Words to. The time release capsules of MO are opening in rapid succession because now it is time, now is the hour. (DISCUSSION ON Rev 10:7)

Lifting the Curse of 666

PROPHECY...JESUS SPEAKING

REPOST

“As man and Earth (My creation) draw closer to the time of My arrival, there are some preparations and adjustments to be made. It is somewhat like when a president from another country comes for a visit. It begins with informing a few of the top people, and it is their responsibility to begin preparations for the visit. Only I’m not coming for a visit... I’m coming to take over, and that is no small wave. I first began preparing My children for My coming thousands of years ago. As the time drew closer, I sent My ambassador to lay the groundwork for My arrival. That was David’s main mission; he was My Endtime prophet. It was his job to make the announcement, and as you know, that was a major wave. It spread around the world and touched the shores of a hundred-plus countries. Now remember, I am not coming for a visit. I am coming to stay, so the preparations are different. A visiting president always has a few of his own people on ground to make sure things are in place to expedite his visit. So even now, I am cleaning up the place by replacing those who are presently running things and putting “My people” —the people of the saints of the Most High— in the positions of responsibility. I am no mere president. I am a King, so there will be many changes.

I don’t want to make a big long speech now, so I am going to jump from David to the present. The most recent monumental step toward preparation for My arrival has been the unveiling of the Key 6.66. I know it has taken quite a bit of faith for some of you to receive this revelation. But this ought not to be so, beloved. I gave the meat of David in preparation for this time. If you are lacking the faith to swallow this new meat, then there is little I can say to you that has not already been said.

The hour is very late now. There is precious little time for those who still stumble at each new revelation. Yet, I won’t leave you comfortless. If you are finding this new meat hard to take, then call on the Keys. The giving of the Keys was a very practical step. Keys open things, right? They will –if you believe– open a way for you.

I am about to lift a dark spell, which has been in the making for thousands of years, off of My creation. Life in the garden for Adam and Eve was magical, miraculous, simplistic and pure. But now My creation is under a curse, and it has to be broken. I like my plans to be as practical and down-to-earth as possible; that is the way your mind works. I put that element there when I created it, but Satan has twisted that element to his advantage. There is a part of his curse that works on taking away the magic of life (faith to believe in the impossible). Children are especially targeted because they naturally believe in that magical world. The Devil’s worldly educational system smothers man’s desire for the mysterious at an early age –system input begins pretty much at birth, and he has man well brainwashed at this late stage. Yet, even so, the Devil has been only partially successful in suppressing that desire for the supernatural. So what he does is, he works around that inbuilt desire by educating people into believing that anything magical or supernatural can only be obtained by passing through the portal into his dark kingdom. (just ask any church person)

Now a large part of his success can be credited to his creation of a fake frequency. It is real enough when operating in the confines of the carnal mind. But when I raise that lid and the curse begins to lift, then a lot of things on Earth will look and act differently. I spoke of some of those changes in Isaiah. My whole creation is going to be forced to adjust to the revelation of My return, and this is going to be a very big shock to most people. I warned you of this in Matthew 24:30. In giving you the Key of 6.66 –and it depends on how well you use it– but in giving it to you, I am doing the groundwork for My bursting through the veil. The preparation begins in the heart and mind of man; it is from My hand. The Key of 6.66 along with all the other Keys, plays an integral part in that prep work. I’ve asked you to send out My Heavenly witnesses to prepare the hearts of all people in the world for some big change. Of course they don’t know what they are feeling, but My people are enhancing that desire for change in the hearts of everyone. The Devil has been doing that too, with all his announcements about his 2030 agenda and blah blah blah. The reason I’ve told you to not pay too much attention to the media and man's take on the latest news is because none of them have figured My arrival in on their reckonings. Remember what I said about their castle. I see that even some of you are stretching your faith to get your heads around the fact that I am going to actually burst through the veil in a matter of months. That is the carnal element working against the child in you. You can alter that mindset by reading more MO and getting serious about receiving your own New Wine. There is nothing like receiving New Wine to stretch that wine skin on top of your shoulders. So why did I call this little talk "Proportional Frequency"?

Well, that is because you are not using the 6.66 key to its full capacity. It takes faith; it takes reaching deeper into the spirit. It takes your spirit helpers interceding more during your prayers. It takes using the other Keys in conjunction with the Blue Key. It takes desperation and great desire to want these things to happen. It takes pushing that Final Key, the Ark, through the barrier between our worlds. You are the guys; no one else in your world knows the secret. Most of your brethren have gone off to their farms or their merchandise. They have made themselves, through disbelief, unworthy of these priceless pearls. The frequency of the Blue Key has the ability to split the veil of the darkened mind of man and allow the light of faith to burst through. You might say the experience is similar to what happened to Saul on his way to Damascus that day. So releasing the Blue Key's full potential is proportional to all the factors I mentioned above, plus more. Your prayers are creating waves. They are a little far apart at the moment, but once you reach the exact frequency, bingo, bang and boom! I will come! (end of prophecy)

"For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. For wheresoever the carcass is, there will the eagles be gathered together." You, My prophets of the End, are already seeing this verse come to pass. You were called as My heralds to announce My return in 2026...You chose to believe by faith...You didn't return to your tents in unbelief. You stuck it out, even if you couldn't see a stitch of proof in the physical and still can't, nevertheless you have carried on by faith. To you goes the reward of faith; I am about to show you wonders. You, My eagles of the End, have gathered around My Word and are eager for the feast, whilst the others have gone off eating and drinking, marrying and being taken in marriage with the world. "So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors." It is you who wait by faith at the door. You have seen the buds; you see the opening of the veil. You experience the warfare, because you are here with Me and your father David in the spirit realm in prayer. "Verily I say unto you, this generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled. Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away. But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only." Your generation, the live-by-faith generation, will not pass until all that I am showing through My living Word comes to pass. I am no longer in the physical plane; I am in the spirit. I am the King; I rule and reign over men and earth and all the heavens and universe. It is given into My hands to give it to those that are deserving to know. You are joint heirs with Me, My truly tested-and-tried lovers, concubines and wives-to-be. I have shared this secret with those who listen, trust and obey by faith. You will not be as those that these following verses in Matthew 24 speak of. You are by My side now and you will be by My side in the very end of days, if you continue to believe by faith and look for the signs of Jonah, the signs of the prophets, the signs of My Word coming to you daily.

"And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory"(JUL 6, 2024 The War Behind The Veil)

"I have said in the Words of David that his children would be My announcement vehicle proclaiming My second coming. This is the calling for which I'm preparing you at this moment"

We should never forget that it is our prayers and concern that will "Begin the Charge" of the armies of heaven on the forces of hell, with the eventual result of Jesus returning when He promised He would...2026 is not far off, so keep praying. (AUG 5, 2024 Harris the Olympic Rituals)

We are pushing hard on this first domino so that the return of the King can happen in 2026. So pray with all your hearts; and there's only one place that you can pray these prayers from and that's the Wilderness.

(Lisa: And your prophecy says it depends on how often, how frequently we pray, how fervently we pray will determine the outcome of the results of these events.) Yes. (Lisa: That holds us responsible, doesn't it?) We are responsible and we are accountable; it's in our laps. And it's a hard saying, we know. We've been through this.

We know what it's like to stir that flesh up every day. (Lisa: How much do you want to see Jesus return in 2026, really?)(AUG 27, 2024 Bye Bye Pie a Summary JULY 13, 2021--PROPHECY.)

168. This is what you have been preparing for in all your days of preparation. This is what you have been training for in all your days of training. This is what you have been strengthened for in all your days of strengthening. This is when the power that I have stored for you will be released. This is when the keys will glow hot in your hands and will accomplish the purpose for which I have sent them. This is when you will make disciples of all nations and will bear My name before kings. This is the full realization of your era of action.

169. This is when your lives will find their highest purpose, and when you will do your greatest works. This is when the spiritual and physical realms will merge ever so closely, as I have promised. This is when you will earn an abundance of stars for your crown and reap the final harvest that you have been put here to reap.(Prayer Drive 2007 [#3647])

I want You. I want You now. I want You in a million years. Because I want... I lack. I am not complete and never will be without the part of You within me that only You fit in to the T. (The Love Of God is Greater)

All of you have different things you are battling. Each of you are individually holding on because your lives are not what your flesh wishes for. For some it is loneliness, or boredom, or restlessness, or you've had to forsake something important to you, or loss of something you loved, or just the struggle to keep fighting with all the attacks of the enemy coming on you every day. All this in your lives, I see as a tune of sad, but very beautiful music. You know ---the music that brings tears to your eyes, because it is so beautiful, but mostly because the sadness of it makes it beautiful. And like that music, your lives are beautiful because of the sadness; not because I want you to suffer, but because you are enduring these things for My sake and My Word's sake. Your music is playing in My ears, and when you give your song of sadness willingly, the tune stays beautiful and can even help others on their way. It is a melody that brings tears to My eyes. But when you give in to what is besieging you, the music changes, and the harmony I hear is not one of yieldedness, but rebellion, and this hurts Me. You know what it's like when you are fighting something and resisting it, and you are feeling heavy pressure and you wish you could just give in and do what you want. I know sometimes you give in to that pressure and you stop fighting, but one wrong decision will not completely destroy you if you pick yourself up again... the problem is if you keep going down that road. If you could just make it past the pressure part of trial, the broken and lonely part would come and then because you have come this far, you come to Me with your heart in your hands, and the song of your life will sound heartbreakingly beautiful in My ears. It will play as a melody of love to Me and I will weep at its chords because this song is for Me. I feel it deep within Me because My life was also a sad and beautiful song, and I will feel you are My lover and My friend. But if you can't get to that broken place, because you chose the way that seemed better for your flesh, and of course in your life there times of important big decisions, or the littler ones, but be sure that if you make the wrong choice in the little ones, you will fall in the big ones too, but if you won't choose Me, then your song immediately changes, it takes on harsher notes, and though it may still be sad it is no longer beautiful, because it is angry and is justifying itself. For moment you may feel relief because the pressure is gone, but the bitterness of that end is not worth it to you, My love. Giving up and putting away your calling may seem easier to your flesh and mind, but the end is very sad indeed. Right now, My little Warrior Band there on Earth songs are playing out to Me and they are most beautiful in all the Family history because these have come out of the fires and clearly love Me more than anything in this world, because they have come to Me despite all that was thrown against them. I speak of My older in the flesh children, but as for you and your siblings your case is a bit different, but your melodies are growing in beauty as you follow the path and give up the life you could have had, and you hold up the torch as the few young people who still believe in My Word. I will not despise what you have given up for Me, though you feel your parents have fought long and hard and you only few years. You have a special calling and without you there would be a terrible loss in My orchestra. The sweet notes of your forsaken lives have reached Me and I feel My heart melt for your sweet tender love, because of this, when the time comes I will take your sad little song, and I will come with all My instruments and break through the sky, and then your song will reach its completion as your music touches Mine and we are one. One beautiful, victorious, life-giving, and filling song that will last on into eternity, for it is the song of you, the servant giving all for her Beloved...you didn't love this world; you waited for Me and because of this I will take this song and I hold it My heart forever...this Melody of Love.

“The enemy is desperate to just get you off the point. The point that you are upholding the Light till I come and get you to focus on ANYTHING but the very thing you are on this land for in the first place! If he can't get you to doubt and disbelieve it altogether, then he will get you to look at some insignificant detail about your physical life or what you are forsaking or what you really want but can't have or lethargy or worldly distractions or whatever...he wants to separate you from My heart and the heart of your calling: to completely believe in My coming and the Words of David. “

"You have taken My Word to heart and it has strengthened you and made you into a soldier, fit and ready for battle. What a battle it will be. Do not think that it is your battle; no, My loves, stand back and see Me fight. Call on the keys and love Me intimately and I will fight the battles of the End. No, My sweet bride, it won't be a breeze, yet it won't be as difficult as the enemy is trying to make you think it will be. For you, My brides, have embraced the New Wine and have moved ahead with the weapon training that I presented to all My brides that fed of the Words of David. Now, you will begin to see and hear more indicators as the world draws closer to the countdown of 2022.

Yes, My loves, it is the countdown. It is the date that all generations have looked for. What you are reading and sharing with the world right now in your classes on David's revelation is the sand glass. At 2022 it will be turned by My hand and the enemy will have 1260 days in which to do his dirty work. Do not fear writing these words, for I will put these words in all the hearts right around the world. The children of God first. They will know; they will receive My witness, the witness of the Holy Ghost, then shall Great Tribulation begin. (Mystical Bible MARCH 8, 2023

Do you believe this? Can you receive this? If you do, then your prayers will tell the tale. I have promised to return in 2026. I have revealed this secret to My beloved brides of the End, those that have not forsaken My Law of Love, those, that in spite of themselves continue to believe that all the Words that David received from My mouth are true and divine, whether or not they understand them fully. These are the elect that have the power to shorten the time through their faith-charged prayers. (SEP 7, 2023 Do You Want the End to Come? Then Pray!)

You have all the promises in the Words of David, and you have the evidence, the title deed, in your hand. All it takes to obtain that promise is faith and for you to pray. The fulfillment of all God's promises is only a prayer away. It is your prayers that are pushing the veil open. We cannot push the veil open; your prayers are the vital ingredient, the Final Key that is required to break down the barrier between Heaven and Earth.

The Final Key is the product of all the prayers of all the saints of all time, and your prayers, these prayers that I have asked you to pray now, are the final prayers that are going into the altar which is before My throne. They are also some of the last Keys that are being inserted into the Final Key, just before it slams into the barrier spoken of in the "Assembling of the Final Key" revelation.

The mystery is being revealed: the barrier is the veil between our worlds, and the Final Key is the Ark that I will open after the deluge. All that is inside the Final Key I will use to build the New Millennium. All those experiences My children endured, going back thousands of years, all those prayers, blood, sweat and tears are all stored inside the time-release capsule called the "Final Key". And your prayers are the "force" pushing the Final Key into the lock that will bring down the barrier that Satan has been trying so hard to keep in place since he first took control of the Earth.

Prophecy: July 19, 2023

The Millennium comet is coming. It is a warning to some and a breath of fresh air to others. It is heralding the coming of the new age. The age of restoration and rest for mother earth. She will rest from the ravages of man and will once again become green, the color of life. The heavens declare the glory of God and the firmament showeth His handiwork. Day unto day uttereth speech and night unto night showeth knowledge. Rejoice ye heavens and make merry ye earth for a new day is dawning, the age of man is closing. Isaiah 2:2-4 And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the LORD's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it. :3 And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. :4 And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

The Millennial Kingdom of God will be a time of great wonders and miracles, for in that time will I heal the nations, both in heart and spirit. The earth will be renewed in that day and there will be peace between man and the animals. (JUL 21, 2023 The Millennium Is Right Around the Corner)

Believe, darling, I your Bright and Morning Star, Am coming, though I tarry, wait for Me; For I will surely come and not tarry. Your belief and faith are pulling Me Home. Your taking every Word that proceeds out of My mouth into your heart is compelling Me to come quickly. Hold on to your faith tightly. Hang onto it and darling, know that I love you and I want you to keep waiting for the day that I will break through the clouds and you see at last that which your heart has believed and clung to. Our eyes will meet and then your world will end and you shall be no more, and the bride's love and faith that was inside of you will take over and no more will you be you. My love, that day when you find yourself looking into My eyes, you will see the Light and the Wonder that your soul hungered for all your life. You are My bride, from the moment I breathed life into you, that's what I wanted from your heart. I didn't send you to Earth to destroy that promise, as you sometimes feel has happened. I sent you here to purge and to break, but also so that when you find your love gone and empty you will turn and see My Love standing there, strong for you, standing there to hold you up when you fall. Then you would know the true meaning of My love...then you would see the depth, the height of it and then fall, fall so deeply into Me...in ways that you could never do in the Heavenly realm. I didn't send you here to destroy neither you, nor any of your loved ones...but always because I love you and want your hearts to be only Mine. Know that I am going to come back and love you, little old you, weak and sad. I want to personally love you and I see that you are waiting for Me. Right now, I want to heal that part of you that hurts because it feels My Heart has turned away from you. I know you've had a hard time, and I want you to know I am here to fight with you, to help you make it through these last years, till you see Me again in the clouds calling you away from the you, you were to finally take that love inside and let it cover you and wash over you like a wave, washing away the old...hold on; hold on;

From John:

Question: How will faith be used in the millennium?

One important use will be healing. There will be people trained in doing simple things like first aid, setting bones, and putting on a cast. Also in the use of plants for medical purposes on a limited scale as this has been abused in the past. But for many medical problems there will be a great need for supernatural, miraculous healing. Prophecy, which requires faith, will also be greatly needed. Everyone will be trained in the use of prophecy but those with a seasoned, mature gift will be sought out. Those that are adept in the use of the keys will also be in great demand; for although everyone will be trying to use them, only those who have great dedication and are very close to Jesus will be able to do outstanding things with them. These are a few examples of faith in action. Can you see how faith is the motor behind using the new weapons and during the millennium these weapons won't be needed to fight the devil and his demons but as tools to help the people. Since using these "tools" at their full capacity has many requirements and they can only be used by those who can be trusted to use them for the glory of God and not their own glory, not many people will have such manifestations of faith, especially at the beginning years of the millennium. This is why all those years of trials and testings and the exercising of your faith now will pay off then. And the pay-off will be the ability to help so many others in so many ways, in many different manifestations of faith.

Listen and you will hear things no mortal ear can hear. Your days are as the sand of the sea for who can count immortality? Immeasurable are your steps, you know not where they lead. To distant stars or other galaxies? As you left your home country, never to return (I visited my parents and brother a few times but never lived there again) so will you leave this world for destinies unknown. You loved to watch Star War fiction; little did you know that space travel was to be your cup of tea. From faith trips (I went on many) to space trips is your destiny.

Question: what about the millennium?

You say, "Aren't we all supposed to be there?" Don't limit Me. I know your heart and if I want to make you an exception, what is that to thee or them? The truth is, deep down you want to get off this old ball, new worlds to conquer. So who's to hold you back if the Boss says go. "Dune" was your first dream world; it won't be your last. (When I was a teen I received a science fiction magazine each month in the mail and for a long time a chapter or two of the science fiction book "Dune" came with each issue as the author was writing it and I see that the second movie based on that book is being released now.) For the worlds you will discover will not be dreams and will leave this world in the past. Come on, you know that this is a dream you dare not utter. But all is known to Me and I love to give my beloved their hearts desires. Would you like a space ship to travel far and yonder? No problem for me for one who forsook his only car. (I forsook an almost new car when I joined the Family and never had another.) What a trade that was, a pile of tin for a super transporter. What will you find on those lands unknown? Surprise! surprise! more heart's desires! So stick to your studies and strengthen your channel. Pass through your trials and get used to the solitude because it's all for a purpose and the end is near and the universe awaits you, My brave pioneer.

When I give blessings to My beloved wives, I do so thinking about them as individuals. Each one is different and so special to Me so I tailor each blessing to their specific needs and desires, what turns them on. Of course I do not cater to their inordinate desires created by Baccus to trap and bind them. I make exceptions more than most people would imagine because I know when it is the correct thing to do.

You had the impression that I was going to have you skip the millennium. This is not so. The millennium in many ways will be like landing on a new planet with many things new and different. The only difference will be that you will know the people and understand their many weaknesses and their difficulties in adjusting to the new order of things, especially the new law of love. Also, for many, changing from city life to an agrarian lifestyle will be very difficult.

So, you will be here part of the time on your home planet and part of the time in your real home, the heavenly city and part of the time out pioneering new civilizations with new plants and animals and especially new beings. Some of them will be like humans on earth and some won't be but all will have one thing in common - a need for love and a need to know their Loving Creator. You will be surprised at how much your experiences on earth in the millennium will help you to relate to the new "people" you will meet in your space travels. Your experience in teaching the millennium people all about the law of love will also help you teach the "aliens" all about it.

Now I know you are wondering how you are going to get over the language problems that you will encounter on the other worlds. Don't worry about that now. That's getting way ahead of yourself.

I want to go back to your question on how I make exceptions. Say that I permit a brother and sister to live together as a couple. I do this because I have weighed in the balances many, many factors and I know, because of Who I am, that in this case, it is permissible. On this side of the veil everyone understands this and they are used to seeing exceptions to the normal way things are done. Of course always these exceptions are according to My law of love.

So if you want to be a new bottle don't get bent out of shape when I make exceptions because I know it's the best thing to do in that instance. But be careful if you think you can make yourself an exception. You aren't Me and you can't see all sides of things like I can. Those people who thought they could be an exception are long gone.

I am a God of change and new experiences. Be glad for that. You never know what I have up my sleeve. Just know that full possession means full of love because I am love and whatever I do is always in love and that is why it is the correct thing to do. That's why everyone here on this side don't get bent out of shape when I do the unexpected because they know that it's always done in love. (End of prophecy)

Love, John

Here is what I received today:

Jesus speaking: This is different than Tricon as that was an established outpost in a higher dimension. What we are talking about is going on exploration trips to other worlds (I was led not to use the word "planet") in the physical world of the spheres. Since I created these worlds and populated some of them I know where they are of course. Having the experience of once having a physical body is an advantage to understanding them. Some of these worlds have been "discovered" and observed by people here in the heavenly city but mostly only observation type work with little contact being made similar to how it has been on earth until now.

But when the golden age of the millennium comes many things will change not only on earth but on other worlds also. The big witnessing push on earth will have ended and just as in the millennium on earth the spiritual beings will be able to materialize and "interact with the "people" on the other worlds. Although many will be needed on earth in the millennium also many will be needed on other worlds to teach the aliens my royal law of love. You will be privileged to make first contact with some of the other worlds. Sometimes your Warrior Band counselor, Katrina (who won't be a counselor then, but your partner) will go with you and sometimes others will go with you. There is a special thrill on being the first one to "discover" a new world. When you get back everyone wants to know what it was like and how were the "aliens" there. Of course you will get some training before you go to the other worlds and you will have to learn some special protocols before you go to an undiscovered world. You will be one of the first earthlings to get to go to the other worlds at the beginning of the millennium because your earth life will give you a unique preparation for meeting these other-worldlings who will look different, not because they will look different to you but because you will look different to them. The reaction that they will have towards a human looking being will be much easier for you to deal with than others.

You naturally have a lot of curiosity and this will also help you to get to know them and their world much more quickly.

You are wondering if it would be possible for the visitors from the heavenly city to change their appearance to look like one of them and the answer is yes but it isn't my will as the variety among my higher creations that is those that are like my human creations, is for a reason. Look at how much people learn, or maybe I should say, should learn, from the differences in physical appearance between the races on earth.

As far as the distances required to travel to these other worlds, yes they are great in your physical dimension but your spacecraft will have the ability to go up to higher dimensions and remember that you will be a spiritual being so it won't be a big deal to travel between worlds.

Question: will the plants and animals be that much different?

Yes, I like variety. Many of the animals will remind you somewhat of animals on earth but some will be much different. The colors of plants though will be mainly green as there are reasons for this but you will see much variety in colors and types of plants also.

Although it will be exciting to discover new worlds, you will be glad to get back to earth, as you will discover that your "home" world has a special attraction all its own. Of course your real home is the heavenly city and nothing can beat that.

(Jesus speaking:) In the science fiction stories and movies the spaceships are an important element. There are always scenes where the main characters are at the controls of their space ships but as you learned in Journey to Tricon, My spaceships are alive and quite capable of flying themselves. Nevertheless, sometimes your spaceship will let you take over the controls manually just for the fun of it but it will be teaching you and guiding you and if you make a mistake it will gently correct you. Before you go you will have a briefing by Me on some things you will need to know about the new world and it's inhabitants and your spaceship will know where to let you down when you arrive.

Before you meet the inhabitants you will have a little while to adjust to the new environment. Some of the vegetation you will be familiar with because you will already have seen it in the heavenly city. The animals will not hide or run away from you because they won't fear you like the undomesticated animals on earth. Actually I will guide you to mount and ride one of the species used by the natives for transportation. This will help them not to fear you because if the animals don't fear you this helps them not to fear you either. You will find on these other worlds a harmony between My creations that is not common on earth because of the sins of man and the workings of the enemy. This does not mean that you won't have any witnessing to do. Although things won't be so messed up as on earth, still the natives will have a lot to learn about Me and My ways and especially about My law of love. They will have had their prophets and this will help but they will have much to learn.

You will have to take some time to learn their lifestyle and traditions and beliefs and this will require living with them and eating their food. They will enjoy showing you their world but this will only come after they get used to your unusual appearance. This will require some time and a lot of patience on your part. The children will be a key in this as they will be the first to accept you. Of course there will be different cultures on the same world but once you become accustomed to one the others will be much easier.

Question: Will their belief system, or religion, be a problem?

Religion is always a problem because it isn't based on My Word. Even though My prophets are always present, My Words become distorted and aren't lived. Always misinterpretations arise and customs spring up that go against My Word. It won't be as bad as earth though, because Satan and his demons don't have as much influence on these worlds as they do on earth. They have concentrated their efforts here and in the last days they have been confined to the earth.

In the millennium on earth, Satan and his demons will be locked up and unable to influence the people so there will be many things that will be similar between the millennial earth people and the "people" on the other worlds. That is why your experiences here in the millennium with the earth people will teach you many things that will help you with your time with the "people" on the other worlds.

Here is some more on space travel:

Also spiritual beings can live on worlds within my physical creation in the dimension of the spheres. Just because they are up in another dimension does not automatically mean that they are closer to Me and are not in need of witnessing. The spiritual dimension also has beings created by Me that are not angels or demons or people that once had physical bodies on earth. These beings need to learn of Me and My Word just like the people on earth in the millennium.

So there will be a lot of exciting and interesting work to do. These spiritual beings need to know of My love and My law of love. You will even find "civilizations" that are more advanced in technology than the earth has right now but that means nothing really and as has been shown in your world, it can be used for evil purposes.

Question: Will we have to fight against evil spirits on other worlds?

Even though the devil and his demons will be locked up and unable to cause trouble, remember that if someone is rebellious against God they become bad spirits so you will have to deal with rebels on other worlds just as you will during the millennium on earth. Can you see that the millennium will be a great learning opportunity that will give you tremendous training that you will need when you go to other worlds. You could view the new millennium world as an example of one of those new worlds you will discover. It would be much more difficult to go off to these new worlds without the experience of the millennium under your belt. But that doesn't mean that you will have to wait until the end of the millennium to be able to go. As I said before, your first trips will be observation trips where you won't interact with the beings. These trips could begin near the beginning of the millennium and when you have enough experience with the millennium people you could start to interact with beings on some easier worlds. Oh yes, there will be quite a variety. Some will be much easier than others. Remember that I always give My creations free choice and some make better decisions and some make terrible ones.

Question: Will others go on these space trips also?

Of course. Some will want to go and others won't, they will be content to stay on earth for the whole millennium. But as the millennium advances more and more will want to go as they hear testimonies of all that is happening. There will even be "star wars" when it will be necessary to fight with the rebels but of course your spiritual weapons will be far superior to anything they will have. These conflicts won't last long and will be more like skirmishes than a war.

Not only will your work with the people on Earth during the millennium give you training for working with people on other worlds but it will also work the other way around. You will bring useful lessons back with you to use with the millennial people here on Earth. Also you will be permitted to bring back practical inventions that will be useful and greatly appreciated by the people here.

Question: Will any millennial people still in their physical bodies be permitted to travel to other worlds? Their physical bodies would not be able to do the dimensional shift needed but their spirits could travel with you like Travis experienced in his "space" travel. These would be exceptions to the rule because I generally don't permit this.

Question: Would we be permitted to bring back new foods and plants and animals from other worlds?

Some yes, not all. Look at the example of rabbits in Australia. I have created a perfect balance in My creation and the introduction of new species can disturb that balance. But I will tell you a secret. Pets from other worlds will be very popular in the millennium, also house plants. Since their rulers will be bringing them these gifts it will help to create a healthy relationship between them, of friendship and respect.

Question: How would the animals and plants be able to take the shift in dimensions?

They would not be able to shift dimensions but it would be possible to bring them from the closer worlds at very fast speeds. Some of these worlds are not as far as the "experts" imagine they are. Even so it would be like traveling by ship instead of a jet airplane.

Question: Would it then be possible for people with physical bodies to travel the same way?

Yes, it would be possible but I won't permit it as there is too much danger of cross contamination. Even permitting their spirit to travel would be a very rare exception. Also traveling even to the closer worlds in the physical dimension is so slow you won't want to do it. Actually you will have the plants and animals sent, kind of like having them shipped by boat.

Question: wouldn't the plants and animals cause cross-contamination?

I am not talking about germs here, I am referring to spiritual problems and bad attitudes.

Question: Is there any danger of us doing this?

Everyone has free will so it is possible but not likely as not many will have this privilege and later in the millennium when more will be permitted to go they will be tried and proven first.

Question: Is it true that people on earth have already gone to Mars or is this a lie?

(when I was on alternative news sites some years ago I read that for many years people have been traveling to Mars with special technology)

Answer: It is true that some people have gone there. They think that by some scientific means a portal was opened for them to travel instantly there but that was only partly true as Satan opened a dark portal in the spirit for them. It wasn't at all "scientific". Their spirit went there but their body stayed here but this was hidden from them. That is why they thought they could breathe on Mars. The enemy is a master of deception, so these people thought that they were part of a scientific experiment but actually they were dabbling in the occult and were treading on very dangerous territory, dangerous for their spirit, that is. Their spirit really was on Mars but what they didn't know is that they were deep in Satan's dark kingdom.

Question: Did people from other worlds ever visit the Earth?

Answer: There are many television programs about this but I have not permitted this for one very good reason, because the Earth was taken over by Satan and his demons a long time ago, with My permission of course, and I don't want beings from other worlds to be directly influenced by these evil forces. There is a lot of media propaganda about this now because the enemy wants the world to believe this lie.

Question: Are there other worlds as beautiful as this one?

Answer: There are other worlds that are more beautiful than this one. You have to remember that this world is not the same now as it was when I originally created it. During the millenium it will be restored and it will be much more beautiful than it is now.

Question: Are there the equivalent of the children of David on other worlds?

Answer: There are beings on other worlds that have a lot of Word but they have the same problems as here on Earth. My words were buried by many traditions that were contrary to My Word and there was also a great lack of living My Word. There were some reformations but never a true revolution and because of that I couldn't reveal to them the deep truths that the children of David have.

Think of it -

Stepping on shore, and finding it Heaven!

Of taking hold of a hand,

and finding it God's hand.

Of breathing a new air,

and finding it celestial air.

Of feeling invigorated,

and finding it immortality.

Of passing from storm to tempest to an unbroken calm.

Of waking up and finding it Home.

(Glimpses of Heaven [#006])

"The moment when I heard You say my name, it's the first time in so long I'm not AFRAID.

On the day that you set your longing eyes on Me and My Kingdom, Oceans and floods of tears shall wash over your soul...not the ordinary tears, but the tears that were kept inside...all that earth life brought you and took away will wash over you and away forever in that day. We will sit together in that quiet place you have often dreamed of...with the tree and the swing...I will explain everything you never understood and like removing objects from your being I will take every pain that you carried with you and together we will remove the outer shell to reveal that gem of a lesson learned or if you just couldn't get a hold of it and are struggling with it still, I will explain it and prepare you for further lessons. I will not leave any part of your heart covered, and I will sit with you in quietness and understanding for as long as you need. I know this has been your desire...and I will answer your heart's longing: to be alone with Me for a while when first returning to Heaven. Do not worry how it can possibly fit if you come back in the rapture, I will make a space in time for you, if you return with My many other children. For I see the need in your soul to be restored and made to understand like so many of My other children who have passed through things on Earth that they didn't understand. On the day Me and you shall sit together in quietness I shall call you by name and all other fears and cares that you held shall be washed away; By your real name and you shall feel that you have at last found what you searched for all your life. Your very soul will cry out because the reestablishing of your connection with your Maker will be such an overwhelming experience; your heart will melt and My eyes on you alone will overcome you with feeling that you won't even be able to take it. "I have loved You all my life and here You are." Of course, there will be shame and condemnation for the times you walked away from Me and were so angry at My words and for when you spoke roughly to Me...I will look you in the eyes and My love and forgiveness will hit you like a wave and you will be overwhelmed with everything that I am. There will be lessons for you to learn, but they will have no bearing on My joy that you, having not seen Me, loved Me. Together we will pass through your lessons and I will make it clear what you did wrong in this situation, how your bad decisions changed the outcome. There will be regret and tears, but never too many for Me to wipe away. I will speak your name softly, for I know you will never tire of hearing it on My lips. I will draw you in with My eyes and I shall take you in to rest on the wings of My Spirit. I shall take you within Me and feed your spirit with My very Presence that will overcome yours and you won't know yourself for some time, which is okay, when you are enveloped within Me. I will prepare you for all that is to come. There will be some lessons that you will have to retake and they might be hard for you. I will prepare your heart and soul for all that you will experience in the Millennium and all the service in My kingdom you will be doing after this time of respite.

Me: Will I remember all my past heavenly life all at once?

For some this would be too much, even if they stayed faithful to My Word, it may be better for them to remember little by little. Like when a certain loved one greets them, they will remember them and all that they went through together. And in bits and pieces their past life will come together. And of course you remember that those who forsook My Word will not recall those memories for a long while, as they have to go through a lot of retraining and they will not get those memories back till I see they are very ready. But I am happy to say that the faithful Warrior Band will remember everything when they at last look upon My face and I give back to them what they forsook upon leaving the Heavens. They already know that they are part of a special fighting force and have spoken to their fellow fighters while on Earth and have already claimed some their memories in prophecy. It will be a beautiful moment as you look around and realize you know this place and these people...it will break your heart with the beauty of it, and that is part of your reward: to come Home again after a long journey and to feel all the love of your family and loved ones, and your LOVER, Himself. It will be a glorious day, My love. All the memories will embrace you and hold you close, and it won't overwhelm you in a bad way, (but it will be overwhelming) or take away the novelty of Heaven at all. No matter how long you stay in Heaven the Newness never wanes and the Life that emanates from its walls will never fade or become dim. For all this comes from Me and I radiate in New Spirit...Heaven's air comes from the very breath of God and invigorates the whole City. The Light in your eyes will shine so brightly and you will understand Earth life properly. You will see it as the brief mission that it was...right now you are in engrossed in it and you just can't grasp it even though I explain it because the heaviness of it is weighing on you and you see through a glass darkly. But when you get Here you will remember all your past days in Heaven and your few years will seem even shorter, but you will know that your fellow band members admire you for having gone through one of the toughest training courses and come out alive. They having fought beside you know how dangerous the fighting is down there. And because you were willing to go down there and because you are willing now to believe, special gifts will you receive, gifts of spiritual strength and sort of like the weights on while training scenario: you had to fight for your connection with Me while on Earth, so when that day comes you will find you can fly in that area. Yes, there are rewards for those who go to Earth, but I think you remember one of Kaye's prophecies saying that those spirit helpers who fought beside you will share in that reward, and that's true. Your battalion within the Warrior Band (the Warrior Band is not small) sent you out as their rep, in a way, and some of them as you know, fought with you in the spirit, so when you are granted your rewards for having fought well, I will bestow it on your whole group, for they too sacrificed and they were faithful in what I gave them to do. These aren't physical things that you hold in your hands, (see David's prophecy below)although you can be sure I and Saramay will show you all your favorite Keys, but most things will be bestowed on your spirits and the Nearness you feel to Me will be the best fruit of all your struggle. Some of the BEST rewards will simply be greater access to Me and to My multi-dimensional Kingdom. Whatever dimension of Me you want to discover I will be open to you and am ready to make your dreams come true. See prophecy from Kaye: Have you ever seen a locked door and wished to go in? Maybe there was something in there that you really want access too, like a shop with supplies you wanted, or a museum that was locked and closed and you couldn't go in. Or perhaps a country whose borders were shut and wouldn't let you pass. Well, when you get into the realm of Paradise where things are a million times a zillion more attractive to your soul than the things on Earth are to you, you will REALLY wish you had access to a whole lot of things.

I know it's hard to read and keep reading what looks just like black text on a white page (or sometimes the other way around), and it's harder yet to commit things to memory. But find out what works for you, and then when you get up here, the angels will look at your access keys cards and see what you are allowed and permitted entrance to, and you'll be so glad you hid My black and white text of My Word in your mind, and heart, and most of all did them. When you get up here you'll need to have a working understanding of it, and that only comes from putting things into practice, that is doing or taking action on what I said.

I know you won't ever want to give up the search of My heart and soul and makes Me excited. The keys I gave you while you were on Earth and that you loved and held to, will be that entree to more of My heart and Kingdom that I wish for you to pass through. The faith that you gained while on Earth will allow you to see more of deeper truths of Heaven as well as to see greater wonders. It all depends on your faith and your love. And how much you wanted to be one with Us, even though weighed down by the flesh. I look at your heart and what you really want and desire. Bind the Keys to your heart now and don't let them away from you and in the next life you will unlock all the doors and the situations that you are faced with. So take your training seriously, for it is the Key to the next life.

You have never thought of doing something during the Millennium and that's okay, because I already have something for you, if you give Me all right now, you will be ready for it when it comes. There will more missions for you, but never will be the separation from Me be like it was on Earth...and if you are ready for it, Saramay will have more lessons for you

There is no end to My Kingdom to those faithful brides who return Home. Because they believed and loved without seeing, they shall inherit all things. (REV.21:7).

Me: What about those who stopped fighting for a little while and hadn't really been faithful when they arrived in Heaven? Don't they have any chance to inherit all things?

I know the condition of each one's heart and I know where they stand. I know what caused them to make the decisions they did, and because of this I can judge perfectly. I know if in their heart they love Me and desire Me, but their decisions have caused them to go down a path they originally did not want, I will have mercy according to the condition of their heart. Some people are very upset with Me for the way their Earth life went, some are bitter, some have to go Paradise for retraining. I know what each one needs. But of course they really do love Me, but have only been battered by choices they felt they couldn't escape, I will make a way for them and they will have a chance to grow and reclaim that special place of love. You have to trust Me that I see the heart and I know all My true brides, and the enemy will not succeed in trying to take them from Me.

From David: "(Jesus:) What is a medal in My realm? Or what honors do you receive in the Land of the Spirit? Well, they come in varying forms. As you know, we do not exactly put worth, at least not in the earthly sense, in metals and trinkets and jewels. But I do give out special tokens of gratitude, "medals" that show what you have done for Me and others. And these can be many things. Take a step back and look at all the companions I have revealed to the COD. To some I gave great vision, new eyes, to see things in a different, deeper way. To some I implanted a jewel of great spiritual worth upon their head. To others I engraved specific Keys upon their chest to serve as reminders of their station and place of honor. To all My Brides I give white stones with new names. And to the 144,000 I put My own seal upon their foreheads as a sign of their devotion and love for Me. I can also give unique powers and authority to those who have served Me well, as an acknowledgement of their service and a "level up" to help them in continuing their ministry. The medals of honor I give are not only for glory's sake, but also serve a purpose. I have many new things to give each individual, specific, personal items and tools and gifts and even unique powers. And the more time you spend working for Me and growing spiritually, the more tools you will unlock in Heaven. It's a bit like how it was in the old armies and navy. When an officer received a new rank he would also, at times, receive a new ceremonial sword. That's how My medal system works. As you progress in My ranks I reveal to you new tools and weapons which are like your badges of service. The sword analogy was a bit rough, but it's hard to explain to you what sort of "tools" and "weapons" I will be giving you. Think more on the lines of Tola and Tor and Eternal, who all had their medals embedded into their being. That's more like it. I will give you things that will assimilate with your spirit and become a part of you. Much like what I did with Lucifer. The tabrets, pipes, jewels, and all the precious stones that I embedded into him were his badge of honor, his rank, and also, his pride. But that is why I am bringing you through this Earth life, so that you may know when you look upon all your medals, that you gained none of them by any means of your own greatness, but by My grace and help alone. Even now, this very day, you are forging your medals out of the battles and fiery trials you undergo. You are crafting your very own symbols of service, your new tools of the Spirit, which you will use in the future--and even now, but on a lesser scale. All that you have learned here will be with you in the next World. And their full potential will be unlocked once you reach Here. When you shed that body, it will be as dawn, your new body and your new uniform, along with all of its new additions will rise to a new day!"

Me: Will there be delivery Sky ships in the Millennium? And traveling evangelists? Spirit helper: The Millennium will be a mystical time but also quite down-to-Earth. You've had conversations about it with your brother...and these things that you talked about are not so far from the truth as you would imagine. Like good villages and towns getting privileges and rewards, and bad ones being withheld these things. As for flying ships...there will be enough magic for this to be possible, but this wouldn't be good for the earth people at first, and some time will have to pass before this would be allowed, but as the Millennium progresses the more magical things will become. Why can't Heaven and the Spirit World be a place where dreams come true? Humans didn't invent all these mystical and magical things out of their own minds...most of the things you see in fiction stories there on earth have had influence from the Real World. There are both good and bad sides to this, and Millennium will be filled with the good kind. His kingdom is nothing like those Christians imagine, books like Narnia are closer to the truth. And if something is one of His brides dearest dreams, He might allow them to have it as a reward. Anything is possible in the Spirit and even if it doesn't exist in the Millennium, Jesus is open for your ideas as how to run things so that everyone has what they need. As for a Sky Ship that can deliver magical items to help the Earth people, after some time it may just be possible. And for sure traveling evangelists are already part of the plan, if that is what Jesus' calls someone too. Not everyone will be doing what they think they want to do; they may find they will learn to love what Jesus gives them to do, even if they didn't wish it in the beginning, and Jesus may know that they wouldn't enjoy as much what they think they want to do. It's still about trusting Jesus and letting Him call the shots because maybe that thing you wish for isn't your calling. A lot of the Millennium will be teaching and learning for those faithful Children of David, but don't let your mind take the magic and the Spirit out of it; it will be an exciting time where anything within God's will is possible. That's why it's so important to do your best now, so you can have access to that exciting Kingdom, and all its Mysteries will be at your fingertips. There will be magical things that you have never seen before and as things move on the Millennials will be allowed to access some of Heaven's magic. You are praying right now for us to get rid of the riff-raff, so there will be a lot of meek and broken people who have suffered greatly and are now ready for something New and Spirit-filled, and Jesus won't withhold from those who are eager to learn, and if they need some of Heaven's magic, He will send some of His saints to give them what they need...and you never know they might travel there on a Sky Ship.

Me: Will you be able to see the Word's power and Keys in the Millennium? Spirit helper: I think what you mean is will the millennials be able to see it, and the answer is not everyone and not all the time. A lot of people will need lessons on faith, and since they can already see us, it's not as simple as it is now. The Word is a live power. And as of now we in the Spirit can "see" the power and the light it gives off. See this quote:

71. If you could see how words appear in the spirit and the spiritual forces behind them, you'd be shocked! I've been given permission to give you a glimpse of both sides of the spiritual spectrum when it comes to words. I won't be able to adequately explain it, but I will convey it to the best of my ability.

72. If you could "see" the spiritual force behind the words you take in when you read God's Word, you would see light so bright and powerful it would blind you, with power so great not a single earthly force could measure up to it! When you receive the Word of God, it comes in with such peace, flowing, and filling your spirit and bringing warmth. You become one with this light and power, yet you don't necessarily "feel" anything like this when you read the Word. You do sometimes experience a measure of this light and power when the word "speaks" to your heart, or something "jumps" off the page that you read, or all of a sudden you experience an answer to a question of your heart. These are just infinitesimally minuscule manifestations of what is taking place in your heart and spirit and in the spirit world.

(Issues, Part 15 [#3444])

The same is true for the Keys as you remember from “the Blue Door” prophecy. We can see all these things and can hold the Keys in our hands...all we have to do is call on the right Key and it will be there for us. And usually if the thing that the Key was sent for is accomplished the Key will give a little flash and then go back to where it came from. We in the Spirit world can see all these things and the manifestations of their power. And when you are in the Millennium you will be able to see it too. But the Millennials will only be able to see this manifestation as a special reward or to make an example to some who is really trying to grasp a concept. The Millennium is going to be a lot of teaching and you may have to be really slow with some people, like people who have had no spiritual training and didn’t even know who Jesus was until He came back to take over the Earth. It will be very foreign to them, but if you are depending on those bright and shiny Keys, you will be able to reach them. It will be an exciting time for you, if you tried your best here. You’ll finally be free to serve Jesus without the flesh weighing you down, and that’s very liberating, and you’ll be able to see what you have loved without seeing: the Keys and Jesus and all the power of the Spiritual Realm.

Teaching materials in Heaven?

Yes, there are people or spirits even right now who create teaching materials in Heaven. See, Heaven and the spirit world is all about learning and growing and progressing. Earth life is about learning too, but most people miss the point and learn lots of things that they are just going to have to unlearn in the next life. But even that has its advantages... for sure they know “where it isn’t” and can testify and tell others what it’s like to go the hard way.

Anyway back to learning in the spirit world... Jesus’ love and the spirit world is so vast and mysterious and hard to comprehend, that sometimes it has to be brought down to people’s level. There are ways of illustrating the Word and showing how it all applies to each being and soul. So yes, there are those who create videos or visual classes and music and then written lessons so that those who want to learn more can dive in and see, dive in and learn. It’s like these materials are a guide to hungry and searching souls. And believe it or not, this is where the Words of David and all the New wine and lessons that you are putting out now come in. These lessons are for humans and spirits alike. All that you go through and what you learn, the prophecies you receive about your problems and weak areas, the things you write on your computers, even the mistakes you make and the times when you backslide but get up and learn, the statements of faith, the times you step out by faith... all of it can be used to help others to understand the Word. Why? Because you are doing your best to live the Word. So you and your life or at least parts of it can become part of the Word. Do you see the importance of your life here right now? You are part of the Word. So what you do and don’t do is an example and a lesson to others. Don’t you want to be a good example of someone who did his best? Even your mistakes and trip off can be used for a lesson. But that’s the point, make sure you learn and get up again. When you sit in your mistake and don’t get up or try harder, then what kind of lesson is that?

Jesus: In the Millennium there will still be times where you just have to trust Me. Not everything will work just how you want it to and people still have choices. You may be working with someone, to teach them about Me and My ways, and spend a lot of time on them, only to see them make wrong choices, and as you know some will rebel against Me and that will be because they will despise My rule over them, though it will be loving it will be with a rod of iron, and only the truly meek will pass from the Millennium to the New Heaven and New Earth. So that will be a test for you and there are many different scenarios that you will have to have Trust and Faith for. Me: Will the a thousand years seem like a long time to us?

Spirit helper: Time won’t have a hold on you like it does here. I know this is a subject that you can’t get your head around, but just trust me; time doesn’t feel the same up here. And in the Millennium the heaviness of the flesh won’t be weighing you down, and getting through each day won’t be the same. It will be an thrilling time where you are learning new things and doing new things, so when it’s over and you look back at it, sometimes it will feel like it was a thousand years, and at others like a few short months. It won’t matter to you where you are because you will have learned being right where Jesus wants you is the happiest place and it will be! Being with Jesus and serving Him without the burden of the flesh will make all the difference. The Millennium is a time you should look forward to; it’s an important time, for it will teach the world and it will also teach you. As you have heard in other prophecies, that time is another chance for children of David to learn things they didn’t learn here. And it will also give you a chance to learn things that you couldn’t grasp here. He is very merciful and gives a lot of chances. Maybe you didn’t do so well on a test, so He will bring you back to it and give you experiences and tests and even people to teach you that thing you didn’t learn. In that respect the Millennium will be a challenge and you will have to lean hard on the Keys and your helpers too, and we will right there if you need counsel or advice. And hopefully having lived on Earth would have taught you how to fight using your weapons, so when it comes time to fight, it will be alongside old faithful friends. Fighting in the Millennium won’t be the same as it is there on Earth; Earth is a unique struggle and you don’t have to be afraid that you will be feeling the pain of battles all the time; you won’t feel the same about the battles as you do now, you will enjoy some of them even, but we just want you to know that just as the Millennium is a learning time for the earth people, so will it be for you and you will still be making mistakes and all... and you shouldn't worry about it taking a thousand years, because it is a special time, and you will be very happy if you try your best to get the harder lessons down now...then that time will be much more joyful, because there will be less a sting of regret when you have to go over the things you didn't quite learn. The best way to ensure that is to just yield to what He is doing with you now and don't be too proud to learn when the tests come. He's teaching you to have faith here and now so when that beautiful time comes, you will trust Him and be happy for everything that comes your way. And I don't mean the sort of happy that is barely hanging on, but the real kind. He will take your yielded heart and give it real joy and fulfillment. So look forward to that exciting thousand years, it will teach you many good and beautiful things.

Psalm 16:11 "In thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore."

Let this vision embrace you and take your breath away and live for the day when it will all become reality. "Jesus that is You standing there in front of me...I have waited all my life just to see You stand before me and be able to reach out and touch You and here You are!

"As you go into your day to do your work, do it faithfully, but keep your spirit and soul in My chambers above....though you are in the flesh and must do these things, your heart isn't in that world it's with Me"

Rev.2:17 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.

Jesus: I know how people like to have some secrets with the one they love...something that is precious and that you don't want to be known for fear that some of its sacredness will be taken away if it is spread abroad. I understand this need, so that is why I present to each of My dearly beloved, a white stone with a name written that no one knows save him that receives it. It's like a secret love song between us...and then you can be assured that you are special to Me and only you can fulfill My need in the way you were created to.

(Jesus:) At the time of our wedding feast, I'll have given you your special stone with your new name--that name that no one knows but you and Me. It's also like a positioning beacon, in that it always tells Me exactly where you are; and whenever I call it, you will immediately sense it and be in My presence. It's more than a name--it's a connection, it's a power, it's a bond between us. It's somewhat the equivalent of a wedding ring on Earth--a symbol of our marriage.

68. Those of you who want a ring can have one too, or, you can have the stone itself set into a ring if you want it that way, or you can set it into some other piece of jewelry--but every one of My brides will receive that special stone.

69. And, here I go telling more secrets, but you know, your stone already exists, and it's here now, close to Me, in a special treasure vault in My heavenly chambers. You don't have it in your possession, but it's already created, ready and waiting for you.

70. Those who have come to this realm have already received theirs, and as soon as one of My beloved ones on Earth receives Me, accepts Me as their Savior, and therefore as their Husband--though they may not yet know that I am their Husband--their white stone is created and their heavenly name is destined. You can't pick your own name, but you can be sure that it will be a name that you will love. You will love it because it represents Me and My love for you personally, and there is no greater beauty or honor or glory in all the world and in all of Heaven.

71. I know, that earthly body of yours is getting a little tired and you need to go to sleep soon, but before you go, I have one more thing to share--and that is, a personal secret for you, an individual special personal revelation. This is something just between you and Me--something that will come to you through the power of your special heavenly stone, which is already activated. Even though you don't know your name yet, when I touch your special stone, you feel Me and My presence, and it immediately brings us together in spirit.(Secrets!-- A Rendezvous With Our Husband! [#3637])

To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna

Saramay: "This manna is the secrets of God. The heart of God...hidden: concealed, secreted, veiled, unknown, and unseen. Not just everyone can know the secrets of God and know Him as He is. He makes Himself a Mystery, but not passed finding out for the hungry heart. "If you seek Me, you will find Me"...and that's what David and his children have done, so many secrets have been passed down to them, yea deep mysteries of His Spirit. It takes more than just desiring to know secrets. You have to love and cherish the secret Giver and put Him above all, before He will really want to share His soul with you. You have to show Him you are hungry and not wanting to be filled with anything but His pure treasures. He won't want to share His all with you if you aren't sharing your all...love His heart above all and He will give it to you. You have to hold to and obey what He has already given. You have seen this with your own father...he puts whatever revelation he gets into practice or he shares it with others, thus Jesus sees His secret has found a good Home and He will not withhold from him that is faithful and is hungry for these truths. His heart...oh the beauty of it—the vast and refreshing pools of His mind He has opened to you. Do you desire this sacred manna...then let your heart never be satisfied with what you already know. Be like me and desire Him more than any other thing that Heaven or Earth could offer you. He will only give this hidden manna to those who hunger and thirst for the treasures within His Word and have tried their best to live what He has given them, for it is they who will receive it and will keep coming back for more and more. He who loves these Words, shall more be given and if you keep coming back even though it's hard to hear when you are on that side of the veil He will bless you for being determined to have His Word...no matter what you think about your prophecy channel, you must have His Words, and He loves that; He will answer the hungry heart willing to put down the Words we give flowing or no...let the love you feel for these words and these times with us in chambers of His heart consume you till it doesn't matter what it sounds like or whether you feel it is doing any good...fall deep into His Words, for every day He is offering you little bits of this hidden manna. (When I got to this point I felt like it wasn't talking me but about daddy) As you overcome your carnal mind with the Keys, He puts a little bit of His Word right there in your mind and when He sees you take it and hold on to it, He knows when you come Home, He will call you to come and be filled at His table with the depths of His Words and the Keys. When He sees you love the Keys and prophecy and that you push aside all other thoughts to hear always ONLY Him, He knows He found one whom His soul delights. He has so many treasures to give and so few to take them in...so when He sees you His heart is satisfied and when you come back to Him He will extend His hands to you and take you to where you love best: deep into His chambers where loving and His Words(His hidden manna) flow freely...keep pushing away all other things to make room for only these best things within your heart and mind, for therein shall your life burst forth like the rose and when the time is up, He shall pluck you up and shall write His name on you and you shall adorn His house FOREVER AND SHALL GO NO MORE OUT. Keep drawing down with your thirst that hidden manna and you shall be faithful unto death.

Blue angel: If you truly love the Word best of all, then the enemy can find no way to turn your eyes to his fake world of material things. If nothing can catch your eye, he has almost lost a hold of you, I say almost because even if nothing of his interests you, he will still project it into your mind as a distraction, and that in itself is a hard battle for you to fight. But the point is, that I want you to realize is that your goal, my goal for you is to make everything of this world dull for you, so that you will only crave Meat from His table. That's what He is longing for as well, He has whispered this desire to me many times, and it is my dear wish for it to be so. I want this from you, and He is wanting for you to choose Him and what He has to offer above the world every time. He doesn't want to share any portion of you with His adversary. He wants a pure and unadulterated wife to sit at His table and feast on Him alone. To these ones, He will pour out all His words, all His love and all His power, if they would just come near and leave all their own at the door, then He can trust them with His heart and soul and with His hidden Manna.

What Will You Be Doing in the Millennium?

January 11, 2024

IT DEPENDS ON WHAT YOU ARE LEARNING HERE AND NOW

Prophecy, Spirit helper: This time on Earth is so very needed. You have no idea of its significance right now, because you are yet in your earthen vessel. But you are unlocking doors and opening gates of great importance in the Realm of Spirit!

Do you realize that, in the Millennium, we will work with what we've got? You will work with what you've got. Just as you are right now, is how you'd be if it was the reign of Christ at this very moment. You have a mission and job do to here, for you were called to the Kingdom for such a time as this, but you should always be thinking about the future, working for the future, praying for the future. Just imagine it: you wake up tomorrow in the Millennial reign of our Lord, with your new body, but you are exactly the person you are right now. How will you operate? What will you do? Well, just as you are now, you can't operate without the Lord's power and anointing, so too will you not be able to operate in that day without the Power of the Spirit. It's nothing of yourself. So the most important thing you can possibly be learning right now is to hear and obey. All you have to do is obey what He tells you and what your commanding officer tells you, then the Spirit will give you the power, the know-how, and the capabilities. But what I was trying to say at first was, what level will your Love be? What grade will your humility get? What attitudes of this carnal world will you still have in your heart? I'm pretty sure we'll all have to go through some sort of cleansing and retraining session before going out, but still, the best training is field training. There will be humbling times in the Millennium. We will all still make mistakes –and learn and grow from them in that Era too. Like the verse says, the spirits of just men BEING MADE perfect. But the state in which you arrive in the New Millennium plays a big part in how well you'll be able hear and obey Jesus' instructions and therefore which jobs you'll even be able to take on. As You Move Deeper Into The Spirit

MY SINGING BECOMES ALL THE MORE CLEAR AND PRECISE

Jesus speaking: "As you move deeper into the spirit, My singing becomes all the more clear and precise. I sang this world into being and I will sing at its funeral a requiem so fitting, so beautiful –and a new world will be born. My Word is the music, and as each generation passes, the Andrews, the witches and those that allow their carnal mind to rule over them, relegate My Words to the same page as men's words –no longer divine. The Music dies in their hearts and minds, and they drift away into the darkness. The long, cold winter is coming to a close, My loves; your prayers are as the opening stanza to My Millennial song of awakening. Our duet is bringing this world out of the darkness, and a new dawn is about to break forth. Stay with the rhythm, follow the Words, and don't tell yourself that what is happening around you is not real –that it is not a song that you are hearing. Do not fear. Sing My beloved, sing with Me, sing with all, sing with all the angels and all those that have gone on before you, sing with all creation. Did you know the animals and the birds already know that change is coming? They are like My brides whose lamps are filled with oil, who wait expectantly for the voice of their Bridegroom calling. They know because they trust Me for their very lives. The sparrows and the grass of the field know because they are in My hand. It is My hand that feeds them, and it is My song, My Words, that will soon set them free. They know this, and so must you, My loves. You must know this too, but to be as these little ones, you must put aside your carnal mind, for are you not greater than the sparrow? You only have two things that these little ones don't have –free will and majesty of choice. Choose to stay snuggled in the palm of My hand, choose as these that have no choice, trust as if you too have no choice, make the choice to be as they and put your lives on that limb and saw it off. That is the choice you can make. Or would you be as the world and choose the Devil's own system, working as slaves for a world that is collapsing and crumbling like all the empires that went before? What are those mighty empires of man now but ruins and rubble where the bats and screech owl reside, where the dragons and satires prowl and the desert sands blow? In time they are covered and gone. In a thousand years, this last and final empire of man will be gone under the sands of time. It will be no more, with no trace, and will even be gone from the memory of most men. It will be as if it never existed, stricken from the minds of man, stricken from the records and history books. Only in their foolishness does carnal-minded man try to hold on to the past in order to justify their present existence. "Learn from history," they say. They are hypocrites and liars and are of their father the Devil, a liar and a murderer from the beginning. They are following their father to that place where the bats, dragons, satyrs and wild goats live. Come away with Me, My brides, take My hand and let Me lead you across the sea of obstacles that stands between you and the spiritual wilderness. Those obstacles are not put there by Me but by your carnal mind. You are in many ways like Uncle Andrew. You tell yourself it is not possible to live by faith. It is not possible step out onto the sea of impossibilities, so you allow your mind to create the obstacle. You need an excuse as to why you cannot do it, why you cannot follow Me. "It is too hard; we must take things into our own hands. We cannot live in the spirit whilst in this land of the living."

Away with you, Uncle Andrew; you will not listen and therefore you will not sing the song of awakening. You have missed the signs in My Word; you have missed the melody of faith that only the faithful can sing, which only the one forty-four thousand can learn. Away with you now, you and your system ways, you and your practicalities. We leave now, for the day of man is closing. We must cover the Earth with this song, with this symphony, for the day of My return is upon the world, and those that go down must go down and those that are to meet the new sunrise must follow Me and trust Me as the little sparrow, the lily and all the animals of the field."

Be assured that just as an hour is only part of a day, so life on Earth is only part of eternity.

C.L. Allen (Glimpses of Heaven [#006])

September 2024 JESUS: Beautiful Light. Light in the darkness of this world. You shall not be blind in the Earth, for I give Light. When the sun's gone down and the night is complete and the darkness heavy, look for Me on the horizon. Search Me out and I will be to you a light and better than known way. Strong enough to light your way, and bright enough to give you hope in the dead of night. I am that Star that heralds the dawn, the ending of all that is wicked and that which has killed and darkened the Earth and its people. Gaze into My brightness and believe... don't be like those who don't even bother to search the midnight sky for Me, who don't even believe I am there, wanting to lead them in the oppressive dark that has taken over the world. Look and love Me and wait in faith for the Sun that will banish all tears and fears. Don't stop gazing at Me or you will lose your way and fall into the pit of this world. I will lead you aright and I will keep My promises to you, no matter how dark it gets now, I give you My Word that light will come with the Sun and this age of suffering and death shall pass away like a bad dream. I, Jesus, shall arise bright and glorious and this darkness shall be no more. Make your stand now and lift up the banner to show that you believe and that though you are weak and feeble, you have believed what I have said. Throw in your lot with Me and don't look back. Because I'm coming to bring Light; be one who loves the Light because your deeds are the ones I have commanded. The people of the world love darkness because their works are evil, but not you. Be doing the works of Him Who sent you so when that light comes upon you, you shall rejoice and I will wipe all traces of darkness still clinging to the world. And I shall be like a New Morning to all the world! Cry no more except for joy; I make all things New!

It is the ones who stand by the Master's side who will hear when it is time to rise from the table. These are the ones who will be sent out to announce the coming of their Master. I am the Master of the house, and you are My brides, and it is My desire that you stand by My side, because if you stand by My side in the hard times when no one else will listen or heed My Word, then you can and will be trusted to stand by My side when My Kingdom comes.

Do not look for signs in sun or moon, or in the writings of men, those who know not the Master's will but who are like the wave of the sea, driven and tossed about with every breath and doctrine. But be as My beloved brides who stand by My side day and night, who keep their lamps trimmed, receiving fresh every day from the spout of fresh oil that proceeds from the very fount of God. I honor those that honor My Word. Love Me; love My commandments. Go now, for the time of My coming approaches.

Cry as one in the wilderness, cry as one on the housetop, cry on the blog, cry to those that pass by on the streets. The Word will spread and those that hear will hear and those that will scoff will scoff. But what is that to the servant? The servant's will is the Master's will. Go ye." (MAY 4, 2023 Behold the Bridegroom Cometh)

September 2024

Sonora: Whatever is holding you to this world, I have to ask you to cut the ties and remember where you are. You are in the City learning just how to be ready for 2025. This time is almost up and I am helping to sweep up the remaining clutter. Work with me now and be looking deeply into yourself for the things that you have refused to talk about and then clear out. Once we address something, it means you have to take action on our advice and that's why you have preferred not to speak on these certain things, but dear, realize that this isn't only about 2025, but also the years after. I know that it's very hard to be purged of all these things, but if at least you are trying to be rid of them come 2026 then He will see that you were serious and will take you and help you where you could not help yourself. This is about your future, and the role you will be playing in the Millennium. The more you embrace us and all we have to offer here and now, the sweeter that time will be. You are very much flesh and very much held down by the ways of the flesh, but if you allow your spirit to soar above and meet us, learning and partaking of our table...becoming one with us, then when you are free from that flesh, you will run to join us and fight alongside us as you have done once before. The millennium will be a beautiful time and though there will be a lot of work fixing up the earth, the sheer joy of being reunited with your Own will be overwhelming you every moment. Jesus wants that time to be the happiest possible, that's why He lays down the law here and now, and is so serious about staying separate from all that is of this world, that is merely a training ground for you. The more pure your spirit is the more able you will be to grasp and touch Jesus, and to know Him as He is. As well as us your warrior band team. We are hoping you will run to meet us, but if you have allowed this carnal world to cloud your eyes, you may not even recognize us. And we may be sad to see you too, because you are all messed up with worldly ideas. In some ways, even those who go down to Earth and get all involved with the system and the world, still learn important lessons, and so would you even though you are scrummed up by the world; you would have learned hard lessons, that could be used by Jesus, but you won't recognize your family and we won't even be able to communicate to you how we long to. That's how it will be with a lot of family members, and it all comes from loving this present world. A lot of them will end up in paradise as you know, but if given the chance to see us, they wouldn't see us for who we are. And if you love this world, even if you keep the faith and believe the Words of David, you might be held up in your connection with us. That's why Jesus wants you to be as pure as possible, so you can partake of Him, us and Heaven in full. You will never succeed in being completely free of pride and self, but Jesus sees the heart of one who is trying with all his strength to be one with His mind. (But I don't try that much all the time). It's all about getting up and trying again, and only

Jesus can judge your heart and where it stands. What is your desire? And what are you looking for? Are you looking to escape fighting and service by going to Heaven? then Jesus can't use you for what He created you for. If you want your own will, then He has to keep trying to make you see that, that doesn't bring forth the joy and complete fulfillment you are seeking. Realize that now, and then you can be what you are always meant to be: a bride, a servant, transparent and willing to do His bidding only. The resistance you feel within is your will and it's only resisting because it's afraid of losing everything and being unhappy. But listen closely to my whispers and I will always be telling you that this is the path to all lasting happiness and untold joy. You can only take my word for it and follow these words—letting them be your nourishment and in every way your life. Letting go of all other forms of carnal satisfaction and choosing rather to suffer with the people of God than to enjoy the pleasures of the world for a short season. ESTEEMING THE REPROACH OF CHRIST, GREATER RICHES THAN THE TREASURE OF THIS WORLD. Bear the reproach and you are my sister and hold the same banner I have given my very life for. And when you pass through that thin veil, we shall join hands once again, and carry this Banner forever and to all worlds and universes.

REV.2:28 And I will give him the morning star

Maybe there are other interpretations of this verse, but this is what I got:

Saramay: that Morning Star is the love of the Bridegroom. As you know, He refers to Himself as the Morning Star, and to give him that overcomes of that treasure is to give His very self, His body, His soul and His everlasting love. He gave the children of David a little a bit of this when He gave them the Loving Jesus Revelation. The priceless treasure that it is cannot even be told in satisfactory words, and to despise it is the greatest wrong. His love, His heart, he holds out to those who overcome and love His words more than this world. They that rule with Him, shall also have His heart, as a queen has the heart of her King. That's why He says those who rule and reign with Him, shall He give the Morning Star. It cannot be described in your language the honor of these few words. "and I will give him the morning star." My heart, oh Jesus is Yours. My love is Yours, I am unworthy and yet You stretch out Your hand and give me Your Light and Your very Self. I worship You, my Love and cast off any portion of my self that would displease You. I want every piece of You and I am not willing to be separated from You for anything that the Universes or Heavens could ever offer. You are altogether all I desire, and there is nothing else that my soul yearns after.

Do the blue angels have this morning star?

Although, we are completely His and He ours, this is given to His bride and His queens. See this quote from "The Bride and the Blue angel": (Blue Angel:) This is what we were given for, to make you as we are—so totally attached to Jesus until, like us, the very air that you will be breathing will be every thought and intent of our Lover. You will have become a Pillar in the Temple of our God, just as we are as pillars at the entrance of the generators. But you will be more, for it has been given to you to be the Brides, the Wives of Christ Himself, and you shall go DEEPER."

Prophecy continues: I am in every way a servant of the King and I live only to please Him. I am preparing you to be His queen and the brides shall reign with Him, but that is not my destiny. It is my part to stand in the PowerHouse of God, and to be faithful in that which He has called me to do. Though I understand His heart and His need very deeply...this is not my part... He gives this honor to those who have loved Him above the earth and all therein, yea their very lives and have overcome. To these, He whispers and says, I will give you My Kingdom, My heart, My very self.

No one has seen the love of these statements and no one can, save they that have touched and loved Him as I have.

REV.2:25 But that which ye have already hold fast till I come

REV.2:26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations:

REV.2:27 And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father.

REV.2:28 And I will give him the morning star.

REV.3:21 To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

Prophecy continues: This is marriage and this is an honor bestowed on the most devout brides, who love not their lives unto the death. This is up to His whole Kingdom, so of course He has to test and purge so hard, He is looking for a queen, and the testing to make your heart pure like that is no light affliction, but continual purging and letting go of all that pertains to yourself. You are being called as one of His brides. You aren't there yet, but if you hear the call, then my love, do not turn the deaf ear to His entreating. I have given you myself that you may learn the ways of love and that He may take you to Himself in Holy Marriage. If your heart longs for another, and is going behind His back then, how can He take you as His wife? He knows you are flesh, but He looks at the promises you made when you left the Heavenly realm, and the heart of your spirit that said to Him when departing on this Earth trial, "Make me a bride;" who looked in His eyes and said, "Make me the lover and wife that You desire." He is holding onto your spirit tenderly and closely; He isn't willing to let go of that promise you made, even though you grow rebellious and angry. He'll do everything He can to ensure you keep your promises. He won't stop loving you if you go your own way, but you won't be fulfilling the deepest hunger in His heart and soul, which is your purpose to do. Would you release that destiny for the love of this world, or because of the sore pain and trying fires? Would you let the Morning Star grow dim in your eyes?? My love, my love, He has walked through the fires in order to break the chains that bound you to sin...what but the flesh and all its ways keep you from running, running into His embrace. Run, my love and let yourself tear away and the pain will allow you to see Him all the clearer. Let it wash your eyes with tears...washing off the frivolous and shallow ways of your body and mind. Let every day that you get up be a step closer to being the Bride...even though the people you have loved the most, don't walk beside you any longer...as your tears fall, let the brightness of that Morning Star, light upon your face and lighten your eyes to see before you what no one else can see; the vision that takes the love of a bride to take hold of and desperately cling no matter how bitter the trial. Look on to your destiny which is to be a love to the Bridegroom and let those memories that I am giving back to you, those memories of the promises you made, become the only reality you live by. Follow that STAR, on the dark horizon and let its Light lead you Home to His everlasting Arms.

REV.22:16 I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star.

REV.22:17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

9th September 2024 Jesus: This is an epic moment, we are joined as one, and together we call to the World. We call to the lost and needy; we call and call, and this is all being done when you come unto Me in prayer. "Come and be a part of us; come and drink and be filled with the water of life that truly satisfies." I don't want anyone to choose the devil's poison over My life-giving flow, but they won't listen to My calls, nor the call of My bride to come, to come and drink, to come and call others beside us. They have loved this present world, and have despised all that is pure and lovely. My love, do not grow weary in calling, for there will be some who will fall down at the pool and drink. They will drink of My waters and shall be changed. This verse is spoken in a whisper and only those who desire to come will hear our beckoning. They loved light and beauty in their hearts. The enemy tries his best to crush that love and squelch and destroy it, so that they grow weary and faint in their minds, because of the much evil that surrounds them. But you must keep calling them to come. You, My brides of the end must see to it these caught by the devil's system come into My fold. Send forth My armies and rescue those whom he has taken captive. They are so darkened in their minds, and the thoughts they think are so twisted and in such opposition to My Word. They are confused and don't even know what to think about most things. They hear so many voices and so many that claim they have truth, but they don't know which way to turn...there is almost no light in the world today, the church can't offer anything being just as confused as everybody else...the suffering of My own reaches Me each moment, and I see them and long for them and I hate them to be shrouded in such DARKNESS. Even if the world is almost completely taken over by this gross darkness, I want to see on My return in the Millennium some who have rebelled against that darkness and who thirst for the LIGHT I have to give. This will be done through your prayers using the Key of 6.66. It's like you are breaking down the power the mark of the beast has over people, like in Heaven's girl, when she uses her pin to destroy the chip in that guy's forehead. Except you aren't there physically, and there isn't a chip in everyone's forehead, but there is definitely the power the enemy wields over them through 666, and you are breaking it down through your Blue Key prayers so that those wish to hear and come are able, because the power that held them captive has been broken. The Earth and its people have suffered so much and I will heal their wounds* on that day, and both the broken people and the Earth itself shall weep for joy. All the sad little children that have been starved and abused I will gather to Myself, and I will send out My saints to love all those sad ones who have been hated all their lives. Oh how the children's need reaches My heart and when the glorious dawn ushers in New Light I will heal their traumatized lives and take away the stones they have carried within them: stones of hatred and being hated, bitterness and the weeping that they could never quite do enough of. When they weep in that day, all the pent up sadness shall pour out and I will wipe those tears off all faces, saying "I am here now, don't be fearful. I have destroyed your enemies and none shall make you afraid anymore." I will give these meek the Earth and they shall inherit it and because they were despised all their lives I shall love them with My love and give them a chance to live life in a beautiful world that was taken from them by wicked men. None shall take away My little children, and I will give them the love that they have craved all their days, so at last their souls will begin to heal and their smiles will come from deep down within their happy hearts. Then I too will cry for joy, for My little ones are redeemed and the downtrodden are raised up to stand upon their feet.

Behold I make all things New!

And the Spirit and the bride say COME...then when I finally return in 2026 I will say COME to you and you won't ever have to live amidst such wickedness and darkness. The Blue Key saw you through and nothing will stop you from coming to Me. And then when I come to the Earth again in the Millennium, I and you will say COME to all those who love light and truth. And those who hear and love My Word will say COME to those who have not yet heard. I will set all who come to our call, free from the horrors that Satan and his followers had placed upon them, and they shall drink of the waters of My living Words and shall be satisfied, and all of these shall know and love Me and I will love them with an everlasting love. Fight now for these ones, because they too are part of your mission. You hold the Keys to the Millennium and you must put it into the lock, so that the world can be healed by the Golden wave that is behind that barrier...keep calling to the world, but don't let the world call you. You will forget your mission if you let their ways into your life. So keep your eyes and mind only on My water of life and it will see you through to the end. Remember right now I say COME to you; come and you shall be given the strength of My heart to get you all the way to 2026 and beyond! John.14:3 I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

* There so many wounds on the people of this world. Wounds of physical abuse and wounds of mental and emotional torture, and of course wounds on the spirit from all lies that Satan has spread across the world. They will need healing and the love passes understanding. The people left from war-torn countries will need to be healed from the fear, the hatred and the trauma of watching all they loved be destroyed. Their hearts and spirits are broken and they will need special care. And the people who are left from the many different countries will all need to be cleansed from the deception that has ruled their lives...all this will take time. It will take time to establish our rule over them... many will be in a state of shock and there will have to be places of recovery for these, because as you know most of the world has been on some sort of drug or was addicted to something...not to mention the shock of having such a supernatural government change. All these ones will have to wake up and realize that they haven't lived the right way, and they will have to start over and begin to take care of the planet and each other. Right now the world is dying and its suffering has reached Me... Selfishness and greed are strangling the world and Satan stands at the top of this dog eat dog kingdom. I will come with a sword and with vengeance and to all that have hated light and have brought such torment upon My little ones, will give to them that same recompense. I will fight against them and they shall not escape. All these that promote transgenderism and force it upon mere babes and all these that love war and killing and love the suffering of others and commit such wickednesses that you can't even imagine, I will slay with the sword that proceeds out My mouth. Then I will rescue the oppressed and give unto these broken ones light and truth. The Sun will open its heart and will shine kind rays on that sad and broken world. Because you listened to the Deceiver, and took his fake promises to be reality he was able to ravage you and this world I gave to you, but now I am here and the darkness that once reigned is gone. I will love the sad earth and will bring back the good things that have been forgotten.

Isaiah 55:12-13 For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall be to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

Breath My creation, for no more will wicked men and demons rule over you. I shall bring light and salvation with Me and I and My people will give you the truth that you forsook for the lie of Satan. I will burn with fire all those material things that were used to lead the people into the worship of the system. All the places of worship of that system shall be no more, and I, with My faithful servants, shall teach the world to truly live and not just consume the Earth and each other. No more the law of Jungle, for you are Children of God; do not believe the lies that has been fed to you all your lives. Drink truth and feel your souls and spirits breath for the first time. Although it will be a hard time of learning for you, I promise you will be a million times happier if you say yes to Me, Your God, Your Lord and Creator. No more playing the rebel, but to come into My bosom and drink from the Fountains of God. I will teach you the Law of Love instead of the law of the devil of kill or be killed. Come to Me and now know Newness of Life that you have never known before.

 Matthew.24:30

 And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in Heaven:

and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of Heaven with power and great glory.

“And the Spirit and the bride say, COME”
