

The Cave of Sacrifice is Your Calling

This is the hour, My Warrior brides; this is why you were brought to the Kingdom at this hour. All those years of training, all the revolutions and yes, the Reboot, were all in preparation for this hour that is upon you, the last hour, the “short time” spoken of in Revelation. (A Cat in the Alley)

This calling that I have called you to is a high calling, a very high calling, but it is this calling that will win the day, if you can but stay in your cave and apply the seven thunders. It takes great, great faith to sit in a cave praying day after day, not many people want to do it, do you? Let Me impress on you more strongly your position as prayer warriors. You hold in your hands the keys to the history of this world. There is only one way to push these Endtime events to their conclusion and that is through prayer. (By a Lock of Your Hair)

Stay in your caves is your commission. Stay by the stuff and believe the Words of your prophets. Believe and heed and obey what you know in your heart is right and great will be your reward. You will see My reward in 2026 and you will rejoice in knowing that you played your part as heralds, in bringing Me back. (Fulfilling Scripture in Your Cave)

The situation you are in is no different to the position Noah was in immediately before the Flood came and took them all away. Well My loves, the days of Noah are before you again. The Reboot had its desired effect, and now it is time to hold on for this last year and be those victors that fulfill the promises in the Bible and the Words of David. Please believe Me when I tell you that the whole universe waits with bated breath. My whole creation groans in anticipation of My return. You are the cogs that must fulfill your duty. You hold the Keys in your hand; you hold the history of the world in your hands. This is the heritage of the Children of David of the End. All that is required now is for you to believe and step out by faith, and I promise you, we here, your comrades across the spiritual veil, will do the rest. (Fighting the Seventy)

Nothing else is as important as your prayers right now; fervent, ardent petitions to empower your spiritual army; your counterparts in the spiritual realm where the real war is being waged. We can't emphasize enough how important is the part you play in this Endtime war. We need you on full alert battle stations now until it's time for you to come Home. So give your all and concentrate on the job at hand; press in and the time will pass quickly for you will be so engrossed in the battle. It will then be all over and then you can be at peace and rest. But not yet and not now! You are on duty 24/7! (Battle Station General Quarters)

After all these years you finally realize that prayer is what you need to wield for anything to happen, and that the power you have at your fingertips is awesome. Yes, it definitely takes effort in so many ways, but imagine the raw energy you will hold in your hands if you can just get over the hurdles! Like that quote says, “If you knew how effective and efficient prayer was, you'd hardly do anything else.” Well, we have brought you to this point at this crucial time in history to use the Seven Thunders through prayer to revive the bones, to bring souls to a decision and bring about the End, Jesus' Return. These Seven Thunders roared during your prayers will also bring you through your Wilderness during these days of tribulation. (Warriors of the Keys and Prayer)

Do you realize how many scriptures are being fulfilled right now? You are playing an important supporting role by sitting in your caves, praying for these different world events to unfold and play out. As you listen to our whispers, we are able to give you specific details on what and who to pray for. Not only are you helping us fulfill specific Endtime prophecy scriptures but you are also fulfilling certain Mo Letters that have yet to be completely fulfilled. This is an amazing time in history. By praying in your caves, you are fulfilling Revelation 12:14.

And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and a half a time, from the face of the serpent.

You have been called to fly, then come fly with Me by staying in this hallowed place of service that no one since the beginning of time has been given...no one.

This Endtime schedule has to be pushed to its conclusion through the forceful prayers of those in the know...battle stations, sound the general alarm, all hands on deck, it's prayer time. Get in those fighters and pray! Your prayers are going to work, they are backed up by scripture. You have the keys needed to unlock the last Endtime prophetic scripture. You are holding scripture in your hands. This is it! (One Hour with the Beast)

The thing to understand is this: if you don't pray, then these Endtime events won't happen. Endtime Scripture is set in stone because God knew you are going to pray for that Scripture to be unlocked. You are going to begin the charge with your prayers. If you weren't praying, Endtime Scripture would not be unfolding at this time in history. You have the Keys to unlock Scripture.

(The Cart Before the Horse)

(True Blue:) Just to be found faithful is no small thing because to keep enduring and to keep going when everything around you is not as the carnal mind would think it should be is a real feat of trusting in the Word and what it has told you; in trusting in the keys and believing how very powerful they are and what they will do for you and how the word says they are the absolute power that it going to see you through this last hour, which has now become minutes, by the way; in quietly but firmly, resolutely, sitting! But it is not as it appears because you are not just sitting around, you are brewing up a storm so powerful and pushing the chess pieces with your prayers into places that maybe they don't want to go or are not ready for yet, but you have been commandeered to change the world as we know it and make History happen to bring about the end of the world of Man's rule and bring in Jesus' new Kingdom! All through your prayers! You can get stirred up and roar out those Key promises to make things happen in the spiritual war that is raging. You should be feeling the intensity of it and it should be urging you; exhorting you to go all out now. You should loathe to be found wanting; that you could have done more; that you didn't pray enough and slowed down the progress or the intensity; that you prolonged the war and the subsequent victory and His return!

(Battle Stations General Quarters)

I need you to be as undistracted as possible in order to fight the seventy. If this is a hard saying then I'm sorry but I have to stress this point. Your David nearly went crazy sometimes, he would get stir crazy, you can read about it in the annals of David; but he knew how dangerous it was to follow his desire. You are prisoners of My will and a prisoner cannot do whatever he pleases. Is it My will what you are doing? If it is then you should know it, and there is no harm, but if it is not My will, but instead My will for you is in your cave fighting My war against Satan and the seventy and the millions of demons that have almost but reached their goal of world dominance then all your running around is second best. (By a Lock of Your Hair)

We have done all we can to separate you from the outside world; you must stay in your cave. This goes for any Warrior Band that are hearing; the history of this planet will be written according to what you are praying today. If you pray the right prayers today, the days will be shortened and the End will come in your generation, as was promised in the Words of David. Never fall into the trap that a prophecy, once spoken, is a done deal, with or without your prayers and concern. So many opportunities have been lost because My people did not stir themselves. (Fulfilling Scripture in Your Cave)

My return is imminent, and it is contingent on your prayer and your faith and your concern as to what is happening in this world. Through a handful of men and women, many will be made righteous. Continue to pray in faith, and you will receive the reward of faith. Do not doubt that you were called to the Kingdom for such a time as this. (A Cat in the Alley)

One day very soon, my loves, you'll be ecstatically happy that you stayed the course and stayed in your caves in preference to running outside in the world doing a little here and a little there but nothing in comparison to obeying My will. It won't be until I have laid out My completed puzzle that you will see how intricate and interlaced it all was and how important a part each person played.

(Fulfilling scripture in You Cave)

Not Only Pray, But Also Listen

There is a great load on your shoulders; it is very important that you stay acutely attuned to your helpers beyond the veil. There is a terrible war happening at this crucial juncture. We want this war to end in the quickest possible way. It is vitally important that you get the messages we are sending you correctly. (Fulfilling Scripture in Your Cave)

Your job is vital to winning this world. The Intel you receive from us in prophecy is vital for the war effort; we are telling you what is needed to win this battle or that skirmish and it is your job to pass it on in prayer. (The Cart Before the Horse)

That is why the gift of prophecy and hearing from us is so vitally important. How are you to know what to pray for as you ought if you are not intimately connected with us your spirit helpers? Who intercedes for you in prayer? Jesus of course, He's the One directing events through your prayers. The better you listen, the more accurate your prayers.

So keep deep in your caves with your ear very close to My Father's mouth. Your faith in your ability to hear My specific instructions is your lifeline. (You Have the Enemy Scrambling)

Is it such a difficult thing I ask of you that you stay still and listen, listen for My still small voice? I know it seems to you like you are doing nothing... but please let Me be the judge of that. I have so few who are willing to do that, to stop all activity and wait; wait for whatever will come down the pipe. I have supplied this out-of-the-way place to minimize the distractions. Your effort is to expect something to come down the pipe and wait until it comes. (The Spirit Led Him Into the Wilderness)

As you come apart and step through that portal, the portal of stillness, I am able to speak to your heart, My intimate bride, and tell you all you need to know and all you need to do, where you need to be and every aspect of your walk with Me. Your decisions will not be by the news or the forces of nature but by My instruction to your heart.

I have commanded you to be still and quiet and to listen. Know who I am. Go deeper and you will learn more of Me and of the spirit world and the Keys. Believe Me when I tell you more will be 'accomplished' by staying in the depths of your cave. That is My will for now. Hear My voice in the stillness. It will strengthen your channel. It will deepen your trust in Me. It will give you greater faith!

The Enemy Will Fight You Viciously

The fight is intensifying, and you are the target. Those that wield the Seven Thunders are those whom the forces of Satan are focusing on. The Keys and the Seven Secret Words stand between Satan and total victory. The Word is the leader and commander of the people, and it has been given into your hands to speak the Words that will initiate events that will bring about the defeat of Satan. You are the field commanders, and it is your prayers that direct the tide of battle. Satan has sent his heavies to defeat you, to cut off the head.

Oplexicon fights your prophecy channel; Prycore fights your prayers. The Angels of Death fight your inspiration level. They get you to look at self. Apotheon fights your movement within the spiritual realm, and it is hand-to-hand combat with the giants of the spirit world. The fighting is fierce, and their target is you. They know they can't win, but they can force a delay. Never has so much responsibility been placed on the shoulders of so few. Yet if those few would engage the Keys to their full capacity, the load of responsibility would be shifted onto the shoulders of the warriors whose job it is to fight these giants of the netherworld. (The Fighter Pilots)

You will not win if you do not call on Me and your spirit helpers to fight with you. This is the enemy's last-ditch attempt to change the path your prayers have driven him on. He is in the tunnel of the End, and there is no escape. Your enemy is desperate, insane and in great wrath as he sees the flames of his end drawing nearer. He must defeat you, either physically, spiritually or both. That is why he attacks you in your mind, for I have hedged great and mighty angels around your city of light. He has made a number of failed physical attacks, now he has been given permission to attack your minds with doubts, discouragement and despair. He uses those within your own ranks to dissuade you, to get you wondering if you are indeed doing the right thing: giving your life to such a dubious venture as sitting in your cave praying for people and situations that you know little to nothing about.

He tempts you with thoughts of giving up the fight by telling you that it is not even your fight, that this should be someone else's responsibility. He tells you that you could easily slip away and no one would know or even miss you. He whispers in your ear that this is not some great crusade you are on, that prayer is just some hopeless exercise that isn't really moving anything let alone changing the course of history for eternity. The Devil is using the same tactics on you as he used on Me.

The mind battles that you are experiencing at this time are the poison of his mind. You must shut the door, lock it tight with the Keys, and seal any gaps or cracks in your armor. He has permission to attack in this way; as I said, this is your forty days of wilderness, and Satan is desperate to halt your onslaught. (The Spirit Led Him Into the Wilderness)

He is sly and foxy and oh so subtle, so beware of his infiltration attempts. Stay on guard and don't be so easily duped by his soft peddling!! You have been asked to pray and change the world so stay the course beloved warriors. Shun the monotony, the seeming senselessness, the heat and dryness and deadness of the flesh and the world of the parched farm surrounding you. The enemy has been allowed to try you, to sift you, to make you white. He wants you to think it is all useless and a waste of time because and I shout as I tell you, he wants to pull you off the mountain!! He wants you to lick your wounds and agree with you when you feel sorry for yourself and hold onto those comfort blankets in your duffle bag. Open your eyes warrior band soldiers, for that is what you are! Soldiers in the Lord's army! Be not weary in well doing in your fierce testing for all the saints dreamed of your day and wished to be there at this time because you are gaining spiritual riches that have not been available until this time; for you will be given access to the Mother lode if you will only step away from the mouth of the cave!! We are making history and clinging to believing the fulfillment of prophecy. Do not let the carnal mind take the lead and control you but put on the keys of humility and humbly sit and wait quietly for His timing as you play your vital part in bringing Him back for you. Yes, it is very tough but it will be so worth it if you just hold on. Keep the heavenly vision now more than ever. You will not die, even though you feel you are. Well, perhaps your 'self' is dying but that is good. Take one more step sweet ones. Keep holding up your sword arm, wielding the Keys, keep calling on your spirit helpers to fight this battle and most importantly keep praying! (Battle Station General Quarters)

Don't get weary sweet one, with only filling your day with prayer and prophecy, the Word and the Keys. Yes, the enemy will fight this viciously! You know that. It's a matter of praying for the Keys of discipline to stay on the upper level. Yes, you'll struggle with it, but then you fall in line again and keep going. Don't listen to the enemy's condemnation. Ignore it and keep going. Try yet again. Just never give up. Don't allow his lies to come into your head. Kick them out right away. So much depends on you and the choices you make. How dedicated are you anyways? How much do you believe anyways? I will see by your actions! Simple as that! What you do shows Me your love for Me. You should try the childish trick of imagining I am right there beside you, working with you, watching you and it will help you to stay on guard and do the right thing. Just to be found faithfully waiting and content to being and doing all I've asked of you is the goal. (Warriors of the Keys and Prayer)

You must Be Dedicated To This Cause

My loves, your time in the cave of sacrifice is paramount to the unfolding of Scripture and MO letters alike. You have been called and chosen for such a time as this. Do not be swayed by those with carnal minds who do not see the propensity of what is happening within the spirit realm. Listen not to those without, those that call you away from your calling and destiny. Love not your lives unto the death. Count your lives as lost to Me and My cause. (Fulfilling Scripture in Your Cave)

You must believe me; it is imperative that you pour your energy and time and effort into believing that you are called and chosen from the beginning of time to be the door keepers, the lamp holders, to the portal back home. You must feed voraciously on the Word. You must be listening intently to us, your spirit helpers. You must yearn for our enticements. You must hold high the light so others may see clearly. Because the darkness has become so thick and impenetrable to some, only the bright searing white hot light of the Words of David and Maria is able to cut through the very real and very tangible blackness. Like a laser cutting through steel, the Words of God will pierce the inky void to reach the hearts and minds of those wandering on the sea of this world. You are like the lighthouse on a dark and stormy night, a beacon of hope guiding the lost to Port. Charge up those batteries, beloved of God, wives and lovers of the Most High King, fall more deeply in love with your Husband and King. He longs to give you His power. He longs to call you home to be with Him for all eternity, but He is bound to His Word and His Word says; "It is not yet time; they must fulfill their destiny." He does not want to steal your glory, your crown, your reward, so He will support you with all the power of the Keys, which give you all the power of Heaven. Reach out and claim that power. (Warriors At the Edge of Time)

I not only need warriors (disciples) but what I truly desire in this last night are My brides by My side. I need those that are fully and completely Mine, those that have committed themselves as lovers; those that will stand beside Me even if it means their death; if not their physical death, they must be prepared to die every day to themselves and their desires so that this mission and their destiny is accomplished. (The Spirit Led Him Into the Wilderness)

I have called you into your caves at this point, just as John the Baptist was called into his cave at a designated time, to eat the honey and meat of My Word in preparation for his ministry of proclaiming My subsequent entrance onto the world scene. I have said in the Words of David that his children would be My announcement vehicle proclaiming My second coming. This is the calling for which I'm preparing you at this moment. You have to be absolutely dedicated to this cause. You have to believe in it; you have to breathe it. You have to play the part as John and I and all My prophets throughout all time played their part. It may cost you your life, but what is that to you? You are bought with a price, the price of My blood.

This is the destiny of the Children of David of the end. If you want to be those prophets. If you want to be as your Father David, then be obedient to your calling as he was obedient to his. (By a Lock of Your Hair)
