ATLAS SHRUGGED

(As told by John Todd 1978 in The Illuminati and Witchcraft) Some time ago, Phillip Rothschild ordered one of his mistresses to write a 1100-page book that would describe to all witches how they would take control of the world through the Illuminati: It's called Atlas Shrugged. One of the things in it is happening on the front pages of the newspapers across the United States right now. In fact she spent a third of the book describing how they would raise the oil prices & then later destroy the oil fields & then they would also completely shut down the coal.

JESUS SHRUGS

"The world's self-appointed, false saviours, conceiving in the arrogance of their rebellious souls, believe they have created a seamless utopia. Yet in reality, it is nothing but a plastic Shangri-La, fashioned by manipulation, deceit and spiritual wickedness. The heart of man and his world are sick. His dreams will quickly crumble when the Earth gives its last heave as it groans for final release. God's Word declares that 42 months after the final spike, his empire will plunge to flatline. The usurper king's long-contrived scheme to erase from memory the images of an unseen God will end in war. This war will be so final that he and his kind will not rise again for one thousand years. Their conceit, boasting and flagrant rebellion, outlined in countless movies, books and journals will dissipate as smoke driven by a fresh sea breeze. The wild wind of God will dispel their vaporous fiction when at the shout of the Archangel of God, the Righteous Heir shrugs them off as lint. This Earth is then delivered as King Jesus returns to herald in a millennium of peace and enlightenment for all mankind. "

This book outlines, in prophecy, the coming years of tribulation, the rapture, the initial takeover of the Earth by our true King, Jesus, as His new worldwide governmental structure, "The Kingdom of God on Earth" and is compiled by second-generation Children of David.

Jesus Speaking: The Second generation I spoke of so long ago, those your father David saw in his visions of the future are in the world now. This is the time for My second generation to enter the promised land. The true meaning of second generation is laid out in the trials and tests of those whose words you'll have the privilege of reading in this compilation. These words are from the heart of My second generation. (see pg 15) You are part of this special generation of believers, those that have been called from beyond the mists of time, before Earth was created. This is My church, My ecclesia, My chosen of the last days who chose to enter the physical plane of Earth to do their Lover's will, to forsake all that the Earth and Satan had to offer and take the path of discipleship. These became the dregs and lowly ones of Earth that they might obtain a better resurrection. The journey's end is in sight, My loves, My brides. The dark days are upon the world, and you are here, with Me at the entering in of the gate to the greatest time period this world has ever experienced. The beginning of the End is upon mankind.

I chose you so long ago, and to prove your love for Me, you My loves, chose Me above all.

This compilation is not an epic. The epic is being written by Me, but this compilation and the events that brought about the words you will read are part of the epic I am writing. Read and believe, My dearest one. Read and receive, for this truth is a summation of all that you have forsaken and will yet forsake for Me and the Kingdom. Your love, our love, will go on for eternity whilst the things of this Earth pass away. You have chosen the best, the highest, and with that choice comes great refining, yet out of the refining fires comes the purest of gold. I love you.

OVERTURE

A WORD FROM THE KING OF KINGS

“Wanna know who the next ruler and King is going to be? I’ll tell you.

The name starts with a “J” in the English language. In some languages it starts with an “I” or a “Y”.

Pleased to meet and greet you. Jesus Christ, Son of God, King of the Universe and beyond, is Who I am.

What can I do? Anything and everything.

What won’t I do? I won’t do anything that is truly wrong or that goes against what God’s plan is for everyone.

Who will I work with in the coming kingdom? You, if you want to. You’ll either work with us side-by-side, or you’ll be somewhere else learning that it’s best to be close to Me, because all the good things happen to those who are.

Why do I want you on My team? To teach you how to live, and so that you, through your experiences, can help others know the right and best way to live. Together we can make a bright and positive future.

Are you ready for the greatest experiences you’ve ever known? Then tell Me you’d love to be as close to Me as you can—whatever it takes. Even if it takes giving up all kinds of worldly pursuits so you can spend time honouring and getting to know Me. I want you, and I do need you too. You are an important part of My plan for all humanity.

Are you ready to give Me yourself?

Just say, “Jesus, I sign up with Your team. Take away from me whatever displeases You. Please live in me, take control of every aspect of my life, and let me live in Your ways forever. In Your Name I pray.”

If you mean it, then things will start to change in your life, things you might not even be expecting. But one thing you can expect from Me is action, movement, life, joy, and all kinds of new things. I love the new. I love making things new. And I’m going to love the new you that you start to become once you let Me come into your soul and take over the house of your life. I’m going to make things new. I’m going to start making things better and new all around you.

Are you ready for newness of life? Just pray, “Lord, You are now in charge. Take over and do with me today all that pleases You.”

And I will. I’ll fill you with a part of Me that fits nicely inside of you, a part of My spirit that is made to be inside of you. You’ll really start changing then, and feeling new and different. And the good thing, the really great thing, is that together we are going to change the world.

It starts now.

Pray, “Thy Kingdom come” and call for “The Keys of the Kingdom”— special Heavenly power—to start to work in your life and in the lives of those around you. This power from Heaven will start to lock up and banish all the evil that has been taking things over. Now it’s time to reverse things. The wrong will be locked up and unable to disrupt this world. And what will come instead? I will release so much goodness straight from Heaven, and it will replace the evil, the corruption and the wickedness. The good things from Heaven will pour down and wash aside all that is now controlling the world.

If you ask for My power, the power of the Keys of the Kingdom to start to work, then the good will come much faster, and the bad will be expelled.

My Kingdom is taking over. Call out as My troops are entering in and taking over. Tell us that you are on our team, and that you want My team to come and make things good, right where you are. Then you will be blessed, and good things will come your way.

We’ll take you up with us and take you away to a place much more beautiful than the nicest place on Earth. And when the time is right, you'll live and work with us . But first start calling out for God's Kingdom to come, and for the Keys of My Kingdom to work wonderfully to change things.

Those who just sit in the shadows and do nothing will get cold and sad and won't partake of the wonderful things that those active ones do, who stand up and say, "Yes, Jesus. I'm one of Your team. Take me and ask me to do whatever job You need me to. I'm ready. Whatever You say, I'm ready and eager to do it."

Are you ready? If I say "go" or "come" or "do" or "stop", will you? With My very nature, with the power I have in Me to share with you, you can go and do anything I ask of you.

We are coming, I and My troops. Are you ready? Then stand up and say, "Take me, Jesus! I want to be part of You and Your team. I'm sick of Satan's slime in this sad and sinking world. I want something better—and I want to be a part of the team that is really doing something to change the world for the better."

I'll take you. I want you so desperately I can hardly find the words to say. So will you come with Me? Ask for My spirit to fill your heart and mind and to change you and teach you all you need to know. Then you can work with the team and be fully rewarded for your faithfulness to put Me, Jesus Christ, above all that this world is trying to offer."

A NOTE FROM ONE OF HIS MISTRESSES

"You now stand between the generations. This is the last period in which man will hold control of planet Earth. It is over for him, yet only about to begin for you and your kind. We, the children and lovers and wives of the King, are beginning to take our places of service in this great and wonderful era. It has begun in earnest in some parts of the Kingdom, yet in other parts, some are only just beginning to realize what great and awesome events are about to come into full view. You, God's prophets of the Endtime, you, who are called to herald the coming of the Holy One, which in turn will signal the beginning of the age of learning and enlightenment, are the fulcrum. Although a fulcrum is a very important piece of equipment, it is also very simple in construction and nature. Sometimes just a plain block of wood will do the trick when lifting a very heavy load. You don't often even see it because the load is so big and awe-inspiring.

To shift this load and lift the old world out of its place, a robust and well-placed fulcrum is required. That is you. Stay where He puts you, and do what He tells you to do. Stay on the rock-solid foundation of His Word. This is what a good fulcrum does. Whether seen or unseen, perform the tasks set before you in all humility, keeping your eyes on our Lord and King. You will be greatly used, there is no doubt about that. Always remember, even in its unseen state, the smallest cog in a great big clock is essential because it does exactly what it was created for."

~ THOUGH THE DARK NIGHT APPROACHES ~

THE BRIDE AND HEAVENS WINGS

Bride to the Host of Heaven: You are my Husband's hands to bring me, His arms to carry me. You are the way that I will make it through. He has granted me the honour of your assistance. I am sorely in need of care, of shielding, of transporting. Transport me, loves from the throne of the one true God, transport me through, carry me through, uphold me.

Take me to the bedchamber in the throne room of the God I serve day and night. Lay me down at the feet of the One to whom I am wed, the One who has bought me and fought for me. I belong to Him, and to you. For you have won me. Thank you for uniting me with my Husband. Take me to His side, oh bearers of passionate love, the redeemed ones from His throne.

Take me. I yield to what Jesus instructs. A thousand yeses. I am at your disposal and desire, for I have been placed in your care and tutelage. Take me through and bear me up. My life is in your hands, to do with me as you are commanded.

Hold me through and bring me through.

The Bride awaits the coming of her Lord. The Bride awaits the transport and bearers to bring her safely through the dark night. The night will only sweeten the light that is seen. The radiance of the Bridegroom will only be far fairer after the darkness of the night and the depth of the waters. The beauty of Christ's bride will only shine with more radiance because of the washing and purifying in the waters of affliction and tribulation.

Come, Wings, and bear us, like an eagle that soars with prey, yet prey that is snatched from the devourer and carried to its rightful place high above the waves.

Take me, on wings of paradise. Take me and the loves of the Son of God. We await the wind of the wings. We wait to soar up and out of the waves. Pull us, draw us, take us, and nourish us in the place prepared for the Bride by her Bridegroom.

I have sat long in the waters of this world. I need to be born up and carried up and up to the bosom of my heart's mate, my Redeemer.

Bride to Christ: Take me to Your side, oh love of my heart, with your bearing wings and angels. I care not to linger. Let the day of deliverance be not a moment later than is deemed wise by Your dear heart, Angel of God, my Christ, my full soul's passion.

Bride to the Host of Heaven: Take me and bear me up. I cannot take myself. I know not the way. I have not the wings. I see not the path. It is hidden from me. I am weak. I am lost. I am wet. I am in the mire and waves. Bear me up and over, dear wings of the Son of God.

Bridegroom to His Bride: Beloved, I shall indeed come to you, enchanted one, who longs for the pleasures of her God. I shall come and bring you to My side, and never shall you go out of My presence forever more. Yea forever and forever more you shall be Mine, to nourish and to cherish Me and the ones that I yet send you to bear ever closer to Me. And I shall nourish and cherish you, dear one whom I have redeemed.

Come, My bride, My ravishing one. Come. I call and I send that which shall bring you Home.

Forever we shall be wed.

Bride to Christ: The night is long, oh passionate one. But every moment my desire for You is enlarged and made ready. Take pity, oh love of God, on such a one as I, and come to me quickly. I fear I shall stumble in the dark night and fall ere I make it to Your side.

Bridegroom to the Host of Heaven: Bear My redeemed Bride up, oh wings. She has called. Yea, her humbled state is what has aroused Me to send help. Go, and be swift, for there lurks much evil intended on this weak one, this Bride that awaits the coming of the Lord.

Swiftly now, to her side, to each of My darling's sides. Bear them to Me, for the feast is being prepared, a feast unlike one she or I have ever tasted.

Oh, wings, with speed fly and bring this one safely to Me. I will feast on the beauty of Christ's Bride, and she will feed at My side.

Be swift for the wicked one closes in and tempts her with false hopes and comforts.

Be swift, oh Host of the Heavenly Guard, for the night is indeed dark, and many holes and pits await her like gaping mouths to swallow her and her young ones.

Up you now...Mount yourselves with wings and bear down that you may bear up, and up and transport this one, these ones, this Bride belonging to Me.

Bride: My Redeemer comes, mounted with wings, to bear me to His side, to bear all of us to the side of the One we have loved and desire to love for eternity.

Bridegroom to Bride: Indeed the passion that I shall unleash, to ravish you darlings, My Bride, will leave little left to be longed for. With earnest passion and unbridled desire will you become one, deeply one with Me, imbedded within My whole being, forever a part of Me. The consummation will be past anything you have longed for, wished for, or imagined. The unbridled passionate consummation of the love of God with the Bride of Christ, uniting as one.

Oh, the ecstasy will be millions of times hotter and greater than any trial of the past. Indeed the burning passion will sear away the old memories and the wicked things of the past that have plagued My dear ones. Love, only love will remain.

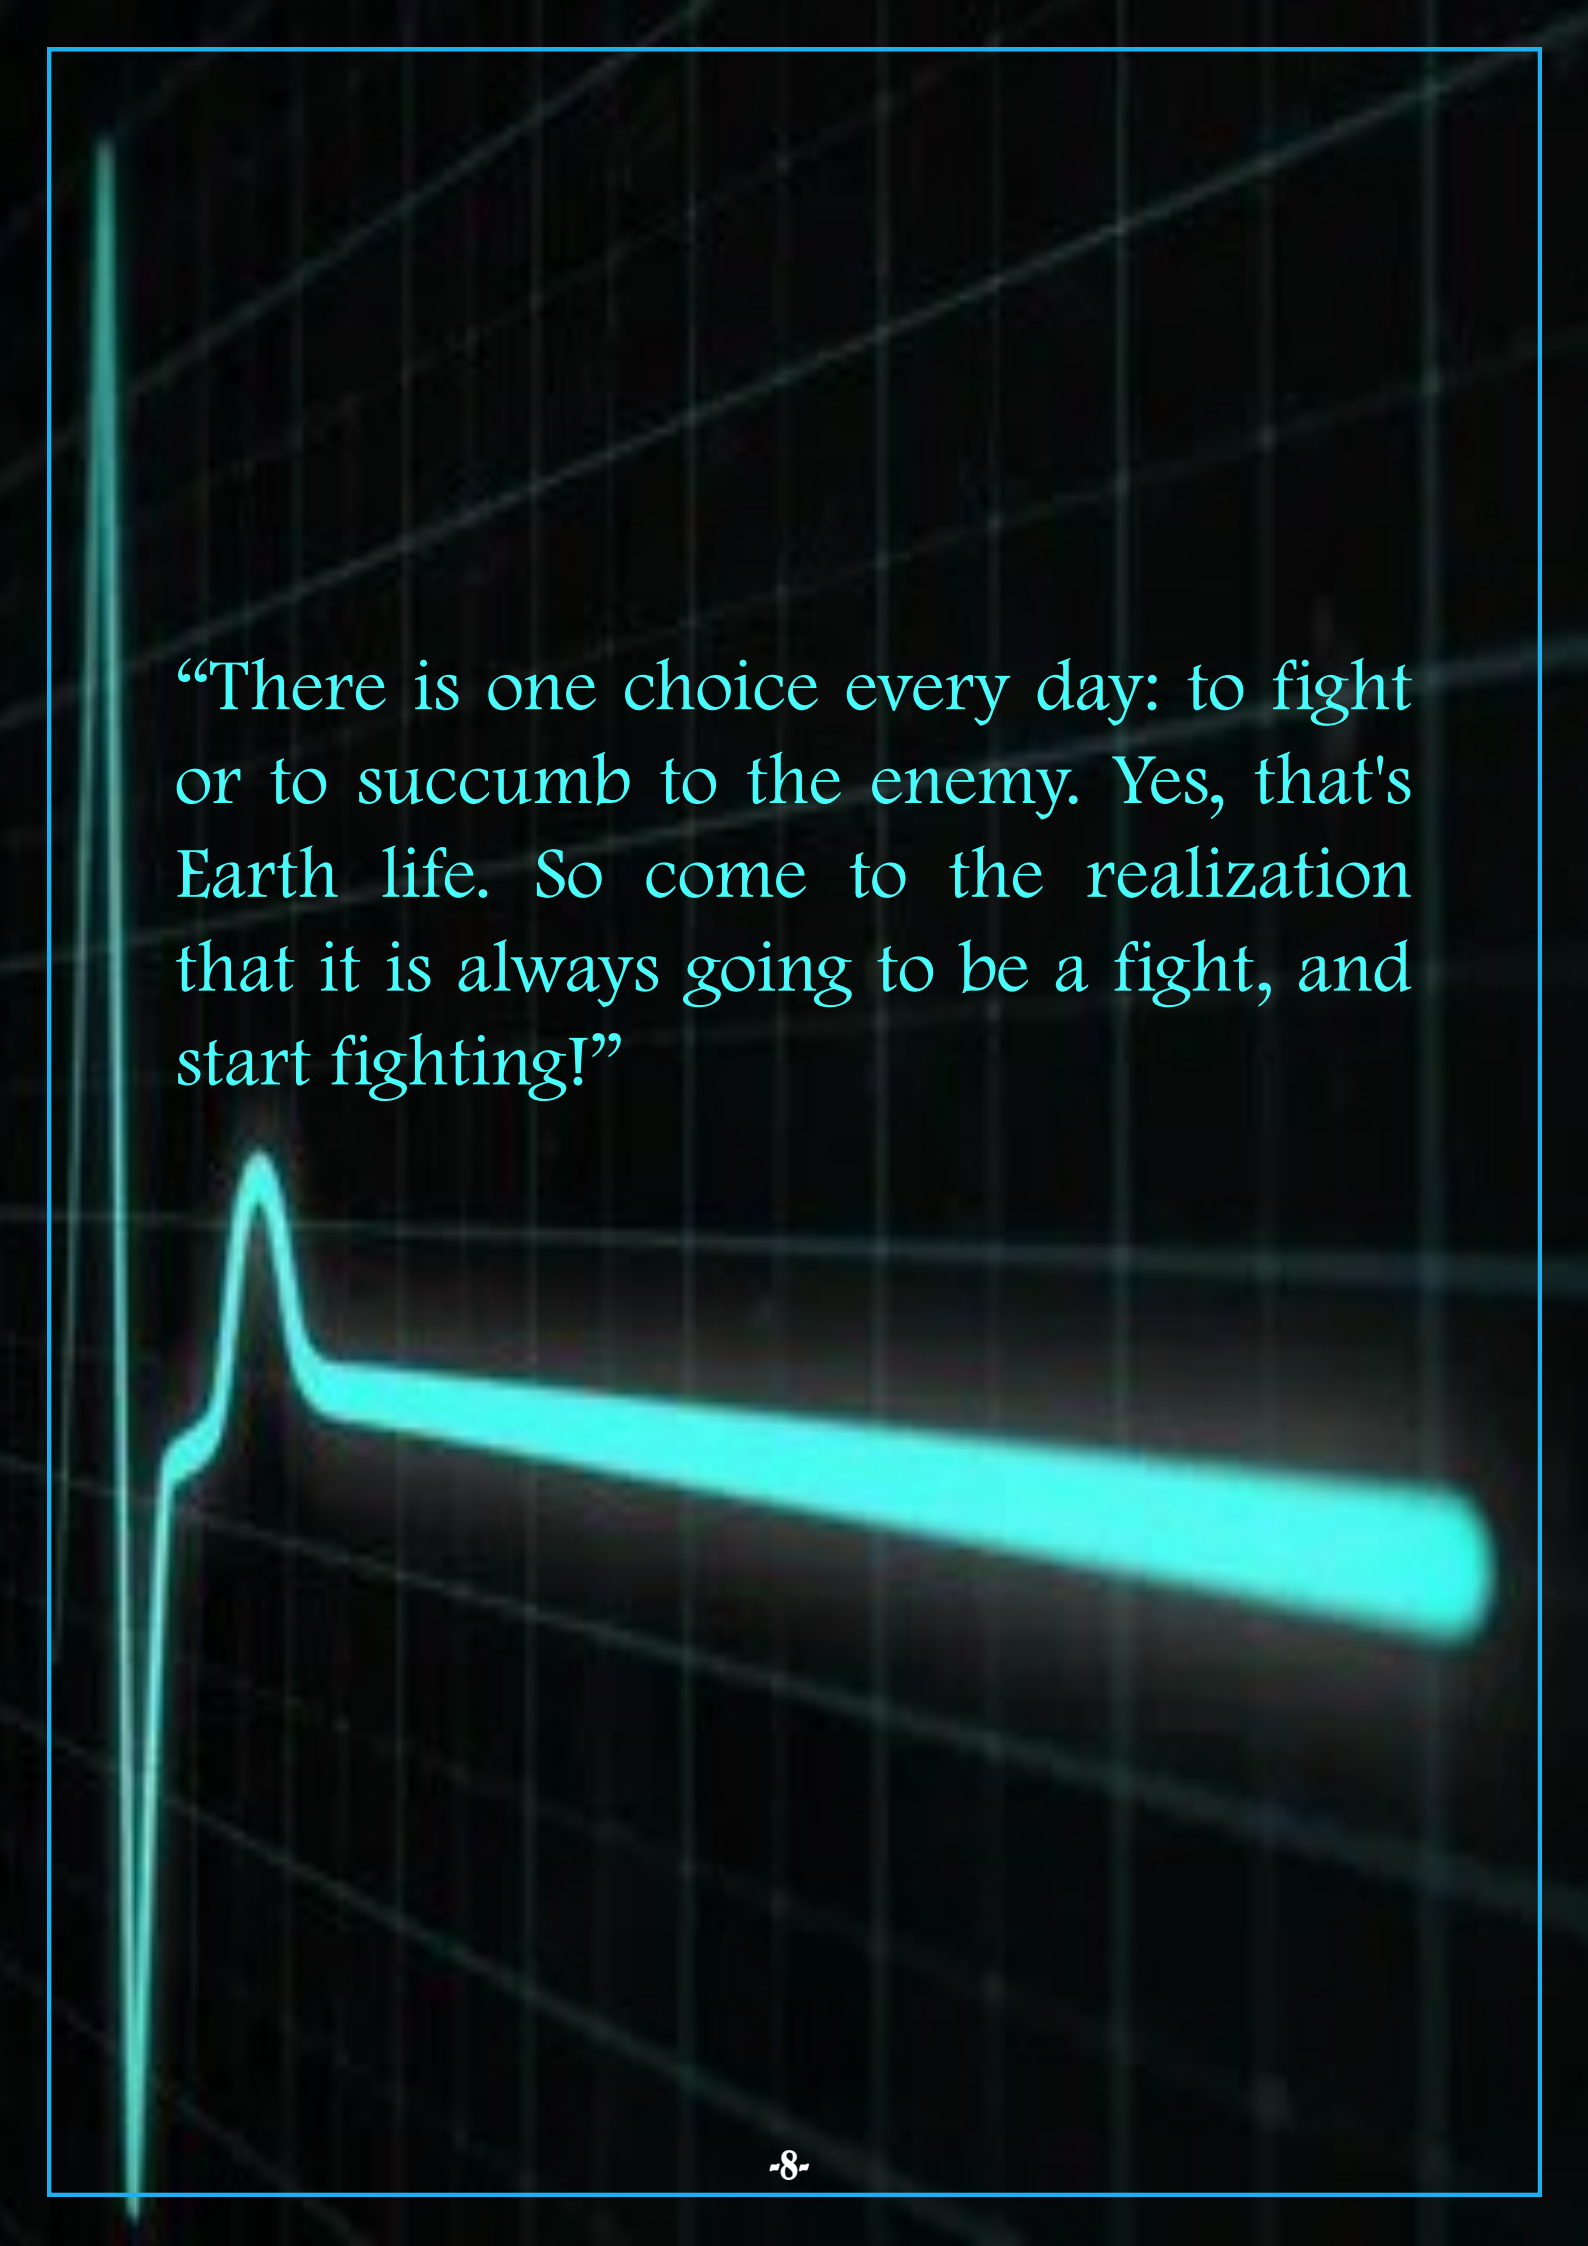

The passion of My love will be so radiantly intense, there is nothing greater to be compared with it.

Bridegroom to the Host of Heaven: Up you now, steeds of the Son of God, there is a wedding to be had. My hunger, My thirst will be satiated. I will be satisfied, again and again, in ways too numerous and marvellous to count, and too fabulous to conceive.

Bridegroom to Bride: Let My wings of paradise bear you to My side, and there is little you will remember after that, for My love will sear and cause all else to pale. My passion will burn away all competition for your affections. No world, however grand, will ever lure you. I will make you Mine, and you will remember My love for eternity.

A glowing blue ECG line is visible on the left side of the image, extending from the bottom towards the top. The background is black with a faint, light blue grid pattern. The text is positioned in the upper right quadrant of the image.

“There is one choice every day: to fight or to succumb to the enemy. Yes, that's Earth life. So come to the realization that it is always going to be a fight, and start fighting!”

A dramatic volcanic eruption scene. A massive, towering plume of dark ash and smoke billows upwards from a mountain, filling the sky. In the foreground, a bright, intense fire or explosion is visible on a flat, sandy or ashy plain, casting a strong glow. The overall atmosphere is one of immense power and scale.

~THE PLAYERS~

(Prayer:) If none go with me, still I will follow. I will chase You down, my love. My soul pants for You, my darling. Even though I feel weak and not very useable, my heart is for You and I adore You. Even though I'm scared at times for all that is to come upon me and mine, I trust that You, my closest Friend, Confidante and Lover, will care for us, . Even though I have so many besetting sins and I struggle to just let go and shed them, still I know my strength comes from You, my Jesus. My heart beats for You, and my soul is overwhelmed with Your love for Me. I know the enemy seeks to destroy us. There is war all around. He is trying us, our resolve, tenacity and fighting skills. You have told us that we need to know what specific Keys will help us win our battles. Your personal specific Words to us and the special intimate time when we love You will change us. It will help us to fade away. Oh darling, but we have so far to go, so much self still there, so much pride, so many frailties and so many coverings and nonsense that we can't seem to break through. Jesus, help us, please dear Lover, dear King of our lives, we so desperately need You now.

THE STORM TROOPS

(Jesus:) That sound you hear, My love, (a mournful call to prayer in the early hours) is the voice of a dying world, crying out in pain. They are so lost and lonely in their world of pain —no hope, no way out but to cry in anguish to be released. It is the voice of the world. The whole world is in torment. Their system is in torment: their religions, Mammon, Christianity and Islam alike, are tormented by the prince of darkness —the grim reaper. They have followed him to the brink of the abyss and now it is simply a matter of pushing them in... headlong they fall, nothing to grasp but thin, inky, black hot air as it gushes up from the depths of Hell. I allow this “noisome pestilence,” not for your torment, but to help you, My loves, to help remind you of your job for Me, to help you remember that you are missionaries for Me, and they are your flock and fold. They are lost in the desert of sin, deceived by the lies of Satan and those that call themselves their shepherds but are nothing but hirelings, hirelings who slave for the pittance tossed to them by their counterfeit god. Their works and their faith are a canker. These that call themselves holy men of God are nothing but broken pillars of an ancient bygone temple to their own works, created to themselves by themselves and the gods of this world. Listen, My loves, and let your heart break for the lost, for their time is almost upon them. They know it, and they fear the unknown, the darkness, the depths of the pit. Time is against them as it is against My reapers. Time is of essence. Get out My Word to any and all who will listen.

I have supplied the means and the personnel. I will double your efforts. For you are only a Gideon’s band, and they are like grasshoppers upon the plains of this world. I will magnify your voices, and I will multiply your sowing. I will increase the energy and efforts expended by those that go out to reap the final harvest. Call on the Keys, call on the mighty armies of God to go forth to gather, to garner, to work those scythes, to prepare the silos for the seed, for the time of harvest is upon you. Do what you can, and I will do what you cannot. The time of crash is upon you, the money and what you buy with that money is diminishing, buy two thousand tracts, and then buy another and another until your ammo dump is well stocked, until every magazine is full, till every pouch is topped. Don’t stop, My dears, My wild ones, My revolutionaries, My hungry ones.

Ring the gong! Sound the alarm! Blow the trumpets and bugles, so that all that can hear will hear. Sound it hard, for their sleep is deep. The enemy’s drug is powerful, and even now so many do not see the danger they are in. So many of My children dream on in the land of empty dreams. Run, My warriors, run! Shout, scream and wake the masses. “King Satan is upon you! The walls have been breached, and he is upon you.” This life is not life. It is death. Death is upon you all. So go, My loves, and give your lives for Me and My gospel’s sake, for their sake. Time of opening the pit is almost upon us, and the jailer has been sent to release his prisoners. You and the world will see great turmoil, great destruction and great tribulation. Fear not, My precious little flock, for it is My good pleasure to give you the Kingdom. But first to war. So strap on the mighty Keys, prepare for full possession, prepare for full mind meld, prepare to become one with us, your spiritual 144, 000, for we will be 10 in you, 100 in you and 1000 in you.

The war in the Heavenlies has heated to fever pitch. The forces of Heaven are pushing. There is much shouting and clashing of arms. Never since the beginning of time have we seen such a battle. Desperate are the forces of sin and death. They are looking over their shoulders, for they are seeking a way of escape. They are hedged in on all sides but one. The path to Earth is open, and they are beginning to break and run. Desperate are they, for their time has come. Woe unto the inhabitants of the Earth, for these evil ones will soon swarm in great numbers from their lairs and planets. From the worlds that surround the Earth and in ever-increasing numbers, they will flood down unto you. Only those that drink in My New Wine can move forward into the place that I have prepared for them in these coming dark days.

For just as Moses struck the rock in the arm of the flesh, so too will I prove you. Will you go by the strength of your own hand? Or will you learn to walk in the Secret Place with Me and thereby find safety and guidance in the times that are ahead? The arm of flesh will fail you. This is the final test for My Millennial rulers of the future. Will you learn to rule in My spirit and spend time with Me in the chambers of Love I have prepared for you? Or will you foolishly think your arm, your wisdom, your insight, your numbers will save you? Nay, the strength of a man will fail him, and numbers will be cut down as with Gideon and his band of 300. Wisdom puffeth up, but thy strength cometh from the Lord which made Heaven and Earth. Learn to enter the wilderness of My spirit while the storm is yet small, for the time is coming when it will be too late, and one mistake could cost you your life.

GET OUT YOUR ANGER ON YOUR FOE

(Jesus:) Anger is good when it's facing the right way. Not at your family or those you are meant to be winning to Me ...But anger, by all means, against the usurper. Be angry and sin not. That is, don't step out of line. How else could we fight unless we were angry, really fiercely angry at the wickedness? It's called "wroth". It's fuel to our fire and keeps us at them.

But get us to do the deeds of the wroth of God, while you are the face of light to the world. We'll do the fierce moves, and you can be "children of peace" a hand to extend and bring others closer to the light.

And if you want to get out a bit of that pent-up anger, I'll let you into a private room, where you can simulate all the fierce moves you'd like to make against the child devourer. It'll be like a "virtual reality" set up, and you can go at it. This might be helpful for letting off steam. You didn't know I had these places? You thought there was only fruit trees and rivers of life and laughter? Well, when I need you to be a gentle and quiet one, yet the spirit of righteous anger still rises up, you can "have a way of escape" and fight the enemy in new and fierce ways. And maybe it'll give some good ideas as to what we'll actually do, when it suits My purpose.

These rooms are never used for simulating fights against brethren. That is rather judged instead (as in, you get punished for that kind of thought) unless so called "brethren" are really the enemy in disguise.

Remember, it's the spirit you are fighting against, not the people that you see. I can give you a "face" to place on the evil spirit, though I like to spare you the rough details. It's not all that beneficial for you to see these things. Yet if it helps you to not turn your anger on to people but rather on the "not flesh and blood" principalities that you are fighting, then ask Me for a vision and I'll show you something/ someone you can focus on for your spiritual duel. That way you can let out your feelings of anger against the wicked forces.

I have a room ready. You'd be surprised how often they are used. One is open. You are free to go in and get out your anger on your foe—the child molesters and abusing spirits using bodies as a way to create the sensation of pain on Earth to please their wicked souls.

Those foul ones! Thankfully I won't have to be limited to a simulation, but I get to lead the charge to the real thing, and real pain they will feel, a thousand times over and more than they met out to My darlings, My new creations.

I can see your heart stirred, for you have been fashioned a warrior for the little ones, and it is in your make-up to hate what I too hate. You are like your Father in this, your Heavenly Father. You are learning to love what I love, but you also come equipped to hate what I hate.

So up and fight and show Me that you do hate these despicable ones. Bravery to face these simulations shows Me what you are made of and whose side you are on. Up now and pour out some righteous anger on the foes. I'll mark it for your good. It will be counted righteousness for you.

So I paused and got a vision of this room and life-sized screen of a "hairy one" Psalm 68:21 But God shall wound the head of his enemies, and the hairy scalp of such an one as goeth on still in his trespasses.

I saw the tools I had. I called out in the spirit the anger I felt, and what I wanted done to this enemy of God's young ones. I'm a genteel lady, and I don't like writing it.

Anyway, I had a jagged kind of spear, like metal on the end resembling the shape of lightning, and it was fiery too. With it I wanted to, and did in the visual, slice this one like a boiled egg is sliced. I wanted it also to be pounded down into a bloody pulp on the ground, to be trampled on. I wanted it melted and poured into brick shapes, set aside, never to be its usual form, simply brick-shaped matter, left up to the Master what was to be done. I wanted to bore it through with the other end of my spear, making holes all over with burning acid as it entered through the torso of this molesting spirit. I wanted every hair on its hairy body to be filled with electricity and to feel the pain of it zapping and electrifying it.

A SILVER SHIELD AND A SHORT SWORD

(Lucellia, personal spirit helper:) Yes, that's me! Hello David. I love you, my brave shield brother. I've been keeping tabs on you and your battles recently—that is, tuning in with Vashti to see what is going on in your mind and heart. No, we don't all have that ability, or in some cases authority, to probe your mind like Vashti does. We all can, to some extent "read your mind", but not like how Vashti can. _____ Hmmm...Azoria can also do this, for she is your Blue Angel and has been given much authority. She must have it, for she is your channel, your counsellor and protector. She wields the Keys for you! Did you know that? That Azoria wields the Keys of Truth and Knowledge, Wisdom and Power? These Blue Beings are so powerful... They're very important players, and we all respect their authority and role. They have a special calling—much like you do. Just as you have been called and chosen to be the Bride of the Lord, so too have they—in some respects. Of course, their calling and destiny is different to yours, but nonetheless very, very similar.

They're very close to the Lord... It's beautiful, you know? I saw Him once, talking to a Blue Being...He was so animated! So close and secure and intimate with her. It was very beautiful. I'm a Warrior Band member, and we strive to be close and intimate with the King, but still, I can say that I have not really reached to that sort of intimacy as I saw shared between the Lord and the Blue Beings...

I know it's there for everyone. He is not partial in His love. It is we who sometimes forget, who get satisfied and complacent at times. It is we, all of us, who choose to not have this greater intimacy with Him through our lack of enthusiasm to go higher up and deeper in.

They are a sample, much as you are a sample, of the Lord's great desire to be closer to all His brides.

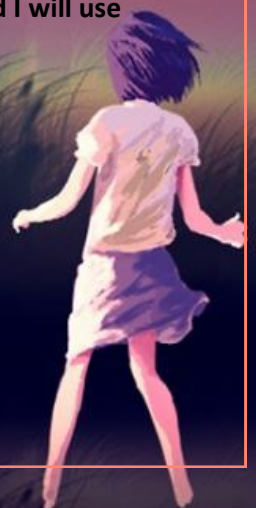

(Jesus:) It's very real, My children! The spirit beings and helpers are very real. They surround you and wait to minister to your needs and the needs of My children. There are great warriors of the spirit, mighty men and women of the past who surround you and wait to give you the anointing of their wisdom, their insight, and the understanding of their people. So call out for their help and let them minister to you and help you with the abilities I have given them to help you.

This is a new day, and I have said that the spiritual realm is merging with the physical realm every single day. Every day more and more of My Spirit is being revealed and imparted to you. All you have to do is reach up and receive, put off the cloaks of carnality, and take on My Spirit in all its fullness.

Your spirit helpers are part of your new weapons for this new era. You have the Keys, yes. You have the Word, yes. You have praise, prayer, and prophecy, yes. You have all of these and more. But to complete all these weapons you must also use your spirit helpers and avail yourself of their power. Their power must come to life in your life and spirit; their power must be activated in the battles you fight and in the victories you win."

(Spirit Helper:) I hold the Keys to this beauty. I am your Custodian. I open the doors for you, and I make the way clear. It's not that I stay with you on Earth. My job is more like to stoke the fires in Heaven to clear the fog so you can see Heaven more clearly. I am vision. I am sight. I go beyond faith because when one looks through me, they already "know" that Heaven is all the Word says it is. I hold the Keys of seeing through belief, and I ever intercede for you. I burn the fires of your home, so you might see the light and continue walking onward. I will turn your eyes away from the temporal, and it will fade in your eyes. I will wash away the scales of carnality. But for me to do that you have to keep reading, keep studying the Word and soaking your spirit in His Words. I need a reservoir to pull from or your sight of Heaven will grow dim and you will be disheartened. Pour it on and I will use it to ever keep the fires burning.

MY SECOND GENERATION BRIDES

I was listening to an audio recording compilation called “To My Mighty Youth Army” and I received what I believe was a revelation about the “second generation.”

The revelation or understanding came very easily and was not so much in words as an impression. What I came to “understand” was that the second generation does not actually mean a group of people born into the Family during a certain time period, but could instead be understood as a second wave of disciples that would be born out of the Words of David at a given specific time, namely the Last Days. The impression helped me understand that the second generation had little or nothing to do with the flesh but was instead purely spiritual. The “impression” went on to reveal that this Gideon’s band of Endtime witnesses would, by their sample and preaching, release a mighty army of the spirit, similar to what Elisha did at Dothan.

Soon after coming to this “understanding,” I was reminded of a prophecy a “SGA” recently sent us about the 144,000. Following is an excerpt from that prophecy.

(Jesus:) Your world and the events that unfold each day and throughout history are merely shadows, hazy mirrors of the real world, the spirit world. As I seal My 144,000 earthly servants, so too will I seal My 144,000 spirit warriors. These are the battalions who go forth to make war face to face with the evil one and his minions in the last great conquest. These are they who will take charge, or be given charge of My children, those who will be on the front lines in the physical realm. These are the spirit force of the 144,000. But there will, of course, be My earthly 144,000. For I will need those who will lead My troops to battle. And just as you are learning now, so will My 144,000 be led by the spirit, by their spirit counterparts. For is it not the spirit that leads, then the physical follows? Have not I told you that when war is waged in Heaven, the Earth feels and experiences the effects by also waging war? No different is this. I am anointing My spirit force as we speak, and I am preparing through them, the seal. In a way they are like your seal, for I have given them great power to protect, to lead and to guide you. This is why it is so important you learn these lessons of following Me closely, for truly it is not in you, but in Me. Stay close to Me. Stay pure by staying separate from this world, and cleansing daily your heart and mind with My Word. For only those who are pure through taking in My Word and receiving My hot, new, living Words can be so linked with My spirit. This is the seal, to be sealed to Me, and covered by Me, to think and breath My thoughts and Words.

This revelation jives with a recent video Mystical Bible released, called “You Begin The Charge” (Prayer Drive 2007). If you watch that video, you will understand that we, the physical army of David, must play our part in releasing the “war machine of Heaven”. As for the second generation of warriors, they will be from any age-group simply because they are called or “keyed” by the Words of David from within the spirit realm, something very like what is explained in the letter Key of David.

You Begin This Charge https://youtu.be/Sx_Dw8G9F-Q

David’s Gideon’s Band of second-generation Endtime witnesses will not be a huge earthly army that some of us may have envisioned, but instead will fight alongside a very great and mighty spiritual army in the final battle to take back control of this Earth and its inhabitants.

All one has to do to be a part of David’s second generation is to read, follow and implicitly obey the Words of David. David’s Words take us from the Bible to Maria’s letters and on into the new Era of Action. So in putting them down or not following them to the “T”, we lose the thread of where Jesus is trying to lead us.

Another thing about the 144,000 earthly warriors: when looking at the second generation, there never were that many in the flesh. The impression I was getting was that through The Family’s pouring out of the Words of David “a greater” earthly army is being raised. These are outside the “core” but are still part of the material realm army. We who know the Words of David intimately may never see this “greater army,” but they are out there and are empowered partly by the Words of David and partly through other sources, i.e. the Bible and the more spiritual men of God throughout history or even directly through the Holy Spirit Himself.

(Jesus:) Yes, My love, I do want you to pass this message on. Events like this, Endtime events, worthy news articles were almost always dealt with in some way when your prophet was on earth and even after those days passed, I had My mouthpiece —the king and queen. But now those days have passed, haven’t they? Well, in some ways they have, but in other ways they have not. I am working in the lives of My COD in much more personal ways now. This is true, yet there is a certain aspect of your lives that is missed by many of those that still adhere to the concept that there should be a spokesperson. I have chosen MB to sound My clarion, and many are listening to that call. In the very end of days, I will raise up from amongst the COD great prophets to speak My Words to the nations. These witnesses, who My Word says are two, will speak My Words to the people plainly. Their Words will not be their own. They will not analyze. They will not mince their Words, and they will be possessed by the very Spirit of the Holy Father. You and those like you are in training. This I have told you many times, for you are of those that I will lift up in the not too distant future. You will be My trumpet.

Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel for this present time, but the time cometh that you will be a watchman and herald of the dark one. No one will be able to gainsay or resist the Words of God that will proceed unhindered from your mouth. Satan will try, but will fail. My will overrides his every time. During these days, you will also be a herald to the World of My coming. Practice the 3 steps you were given before your departure from My side so many years ago. You were reminded of them just now: listening to My every whisper, having a soft heart, and sacrificing your time for others. These will be your mainstay in the years ahead. There is still much to do in preparation. Do not fear the future. Come to Me more often and ask Me everything.

THE WARRIOR BAND

(Jesus:) Long ago, in the halls of Heaven, there was a mighty band of warriors, a special fighting force that was charged with a mission: To protect and preserve the flame of truth; to guard the fires of revolution and freedom; to blaze abroad the passionate fires of the love of the Bridegroom till every heart on Earth was ignited and the Bridegroom felt the heat and intensity of His Bride's love for Him.

One day a relatively small number of this band was called before the throne of the Bridegroom. He gathered them close to His bosom and spoke with them of His great love and desire for them, as though each one was the only one present. They knew and felt how deeply they were loved by Him, how their yieldedness and passion rejoiced His heart. They knew that He was very pleased with them and that they found great favor in His eyes. They knew, for He told them, that they were the apple of His eye, His prized possession. They knew that they were not only a highly trained spiritual fighting force, but that above all, they were cherished and desired as though they were the only one in the world who had captured the love of the Bridegroom.

Then He explained to them that they had been selected for a special mission. Great and mighty warriors of the spirit realm, David, Maria, and Peter, had been called and chosen to lead the band of brides that would be a counterforce to Satan himself and his presence upon the Earth in the Last Days. They would be those who would preserve the spirit of the Lord, the purity of His light, love, power, freedom and revolution upon the Earth, lest the fire in that realm should flicker low and all chance of the King finding faith upon the Earth when He returned burn out completely. David, Maria, and Peter were allowed to select whomever they wanted from the halls of Heaven to accompany them upon this mission. The King explained to the warriors in His presence that they had been chosen, thus He had called them, and now was presenting them with the choice of accepting this mission.

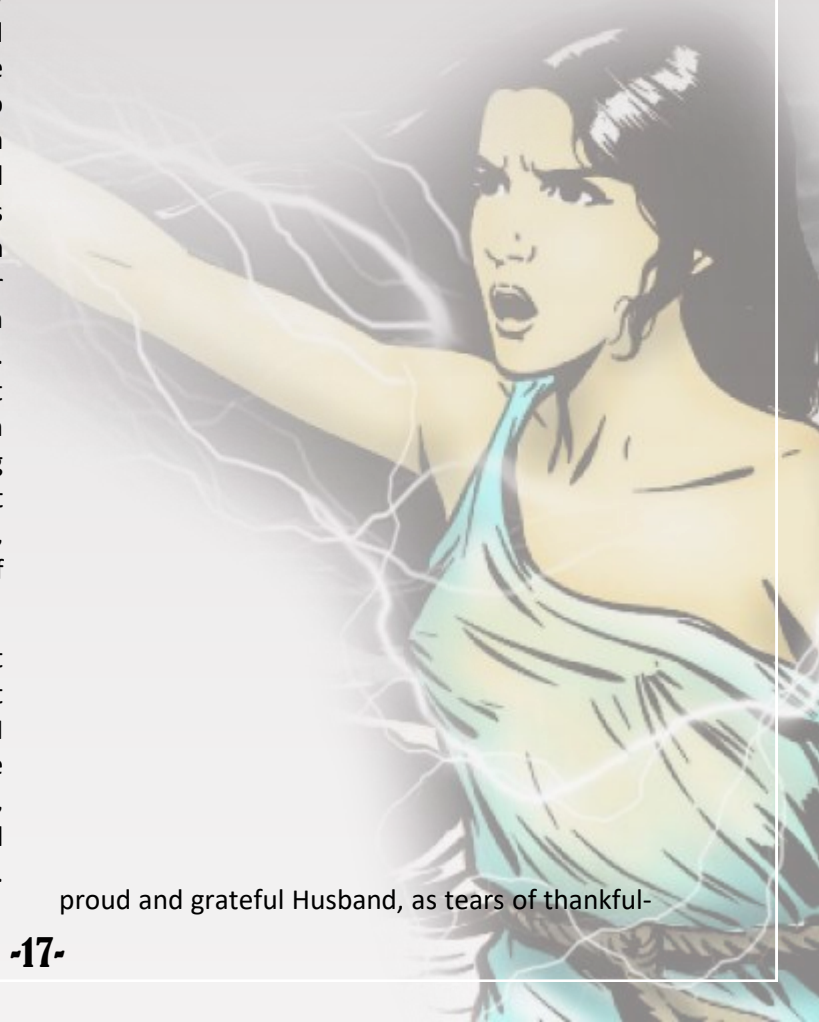

I am that King, and you are the members of that warrior band that were called and chosen on that day so long ago by Earth time, though I remember and experience it as if it were happening now. In what seemed like an instant, the course of your life, all that you would undergo and endure, flashed before your eyes.

Then came the scenes of great triumph and victory as you vanquished the foe, and as Satan and his minions were cast into Hell. You perceived the spirits of the earthly bodies that would be yours if you accepted this invitation to hold high the flame of truth and the fires of revolution and freedom. You saw My Spirit resting upon you, encasing you, penetrating you, shielding you, empowering you.

You saw the many thousands of lives that would be touched and changed if you were willing to accept this mission. You saw the Enemy cursing and screaming when he saw that it was you, his archenemies who had defeated him in so many battles in this realm of the spirit, leading the charge against him. You saw how I became one with your spirits, minds and bodies through the power of full possession, enabling you to rise above and to know that there are no impossibilities. You saw the gift of the Keys and knew that you would be invincible with this power in your hands.

You saw the spirit helpers who would descend to protect and guide you. You saw the key craft hovering over your heads. You saw the manifestations of the other spiritual gifts and weapons that I would bestow upon you. You felt the joy and satisfaction that your hearts would feel on the day you returned Home to Me, your proud and grateful Husband, as tears of thankfulness and love flowed from your eyes and you knelt before Me, casting your crowns to the ground. You saw the incredible rewards that would be yours for eternity for your willingness to make this sacrifice for Me.

And, My loves, I'm proud to say--though I can't say it without shedding tears of gratitude and praise to My Father--that each of you said yes and accepted this mission. In that moment I took the sacred vial, that which contains the special enhancement of faith, fighting initiative and endurance, and I anointed each of you for your earthly commission. Those of your band who remained in Heaven were selected to be your guardians and instructors, so that you would never be apart in spirit and would always be able to draw strength and power from one another.

I want you to know that you're on target with fulfilling your destiny. All that you have been through and endured till now has been a part of My plan, a part of your strengthening, a part of your training. Any mistakes you've made along the way have only served to bring you closer to Me and have worked for good in your life. You have been true to your mission, and along with Me, your Commander in Chief, your Father David, and your King Peter and Queen Maria, I call you to continue to keep the Family pure, clean, separate from the world, dropped out and moving forward.

The greatest part of your ministry is coming; it's just around the corner. You will see that there are no limits to what I can do with men and women who are yielded to Me! (Fantastic Future ML 1198)

(Jesus:) Did I not say that there would be plagues and pestilences, that the time of the End would be a time of great distress of nations, and that fear would cause the heart of man to fail? Yes, My loves, this is the time of the End, and this is a time of great testing.

I have put into the hearts of My children enhanced faith. I said that this gift must be activated. It must be exercised, and it must be tested. You, My loves, must be refined in the fires of tribulation. This is not a time to deliberate on what is what and who is who, but it is a time of drawing closer to Me, of pulling out the warm vibrant Keys of Faith and of Great Desire for Me. I am all you have in this world. The arm of flesh will fail you. The world will run into its system, but you, My loves, will run into Me. Love not the World, neither the things of this World, for the things of this World will destroy your faith.

My Children of David, My prophets of the End, fear not the things that must come upon the Earth. For I come with a fan in My hand, and I will fan the fires of tribulation. Man has turned his back on Me, his only salvation, and has instead trusted in the arm of the usurper. You have been called: you My second generation of little David's will be the purest generation that has ever walked this Earth. You will be all that your David said you would be, but as I was tested and tested and yet tested again, so must you be, My dearest brides, My lovers, My all in all. You are all I have on Earth, you My Warrior Band, My people of the Keys. Your hour draws near now. Fall on Me. Fall on the Rock. Fall on the Keys, for they are vital to your becoming all that I have promised your Father you would be. I must test you. I must know, and you must know that your faith is pure, and that it is all you stand on. Do not look at these Egyptian-created plagues as the end, but look on them as the stepping stones that I have laid before My brides of faith, stepping stones to greater faith, a faith that has not yet been seen upon the Earth. Do not fear what man can do unto you, but know this one thing, that My love, My Keys and My Word supersede anything that the devil can throw at you.

Worse is coming, so build your faith, beloved of God. Build your faith, for it is your faith that will overcome this world. You are My servants, so I have sealed you with My seal. You are protected by faith in Me and My seal. My seal is a part of the Keys. It protects and provides whilst it remains My will. You are Mine, and you are bought with a price. You are under My will, but this is your choice and your will. You have made the right choice; the world has made the wrong choice. The great falling away is complete. Now is the time of miracles, Key-powered miracles. Stand on My promises. Believe and come deeper. The River of Life runs deep in your souls. Go there now and commune with Me, for there you will find life eternal. There your fears will turn to faith. There you will commune with your spirit helpers and those that will possess and work through you in these last days of man's rule.

(Spirit helper:) Our friends and fellow warriors, our personal loved ones, every single one of us who were chosen to go on this mission would be dramatically changed forever. Jesus our King made similar decisions. Great and awesome, life-changing, world-changing, eternity-changing events were to come into being at His decision. His original decision to come to Earth and lay down His life for us all started a ball rolling that has brought us to this very day. The days of the Reboot, for those who were chosen to wake from slumber, are coming to a close. Jesus has sent his harpers around the globe with the order to activate the Keys that will finally bring on the activation of the Final Key. You, my love, we —all of us— are part of this great and awesome event.”

I was sleeping and heard someone calling, “Daddy, Daddy.” When I woke, I started thinking about Joan of Arc.

(Joan of Arc:) Greetings general, I come to you on this day before the great battle. Yes, I was the one calling you from across the veil. It is I, your Joan. I serve in the armies of the great King, our Lover and Husband. It is close, my liege. The gauntlet has been delivered, but Satan does not yet know from whence it comes. He only knows that it is from another king, a great king, one that has honor and is a worthy opponent, one who fights for the King of kings. He knows the insignia of David, and he knows the Warrior Band emblem. He rages in his dark tower as he prepares to send out his riders. Do not fear, for this truth will be kept from him until this mission is well done. All your important papers and seals will be in order and in hand before the truth will reach his ears.

(Question: Why did you call me by saying “your Joan”?) Because I am your Joan, I am endeared to you through the spirit. I follow the Words of David as do you. We are married to Jesus; we are his wife. We are one wife, and we are married to each other. I make love to Jesus from here, and I make love to you from here also. Dear Kaye has made that bridge, for she has unveiled these things more fully. Believe, and we will meet more often. I came today at a time that is needed in the war effort. But I also come at times that are not absolutely necessary to defeating the enemy. Unlike Kaye, a lot happens to you without your knowledge. I cannot say without consent because you are already open to the fact that spirits make love to those on Earth, that one you can thank your David for. So we, and yes there are others that make love to you and your warrior band there in your house, without actual consent. When and if it is our Saviours will, we will reveal ourselves.

(Spirit Helper:) You were created for this time. This is your time, as it is for those around you. They are Warrior Band. You are a band of brothers, and you will stand strong in the time of the End. We, your brothers and sisters behind the veil, are your closest companions. We are at your side night and day. Move toward closer communication with us. As the dark days descend upon the whole world, communication with those loved ones on Earth will become impossible, at least communication through conventional means. It will be a thing of the past, an old and has-been method. High tech means of communication will be the order of the day.

(Jesus:) Yes My love, I am asking much more from My warriors now, for the days of your youth have passed. Now you must fight with one hand on the trowel of learning and one on your weapon of choice. Call on the Keys of determination and endurance. They are there right before you, and they are unbeatable in the hands of a man or woman of faith.”

(Jesus:) Now more than ever must My children of David follow the New/Old Wine. I say New/Old Wine because the letters of David and Maria were offered to My warriors many years ago. So although it is new to those that are just now picking it up again or have picked it up for the first time, it is old also because time has moved far into the future and those “gifts” and “weapons” of yesteryear should by now be fused to each of My warriors. But if not, and if this call, this challenge, has reached you now, then these weapons that My Word has spoken of are your weapons of choice for today. You must pick them up and start using them now.

(Spirit Helper:) These times He wishes to have with you will be linked to your ability to time travel. Yes my sweet one, time travel, and that does not necessarily mean back in time either. You know what I speak of: it is about spiritual communication with others of your band. So are you ready? I have been waiting for you, and the right time has come. Your brothers in the Warrior Band have called and brought to your attention something that is very important to all of us here. This link must not only be made but greatly strengthened for what is coming. Please pay closer attention to this part of your walk. It is vital that you hone this gift. It is linked to the Keys and to loving our Savior and using my power, the power channeled out from the generator of God.

(Spirit Helper:) Read the “Warrior Band” prophecy and believe. Those are the Words of our Lover, and they are true. We are kindred spirits: our love and loyalty is solid because we are part of the Warrior Band. We have fought beside each other through many fierce battles in the spirit realm. We are old cronies, battle buddies. You chose to go; I chose to stay. It’s that simple. I chose to be your spiritual buddy.”

(Spirit Helper:) What soldier bounces out of bed every morning as chipper as a young school boy on the first day of school vacation? Not many, I assure you. The flesh is so weak sometimes, and then on top of that, you have that old devil just sitting as close as he can, ready to take advantage of any mood swings. No wonder you shouldn’t go by your feelings, but instead determine in your heart that you are a warrior, born into it and will die as one. It was a fight yesterday, and it will be a fight today, and it will be a fight tomorrow and next week and next year till the end of your life and onward through eternity. Don’t give in. Don’t even give the devil the time of day. It’s a fight till the finish, his finish.”

(Jesus:) Let go of the things of Earth every morning when you wake up. Every morning say to yourself: I am not my own. I am bought with a price. I will glorify my Saviour; I will give Him praise. I will give Him myself, a sacrifice created to burn out on His altar. Say this every day till the day you pass from that sad and miserable world, My love, and you will be crossing the line in victory.”

(Valiant, personal warrior angel:) It was my choice to be assigned to your side, and it will be my choice to remain here if you desire it. All of God’s creation has been given the majesty of choice. In many respects we are of the same class, the warrior class. I am a warrior angel, and you are a warrior from the “Warrior Band”. Our two battalions link at this juncture. Our greatest desire is to fight for our Lord in His wars against all those that usurp His authority. The Keys are our standard, and the standard of David comes under the power of the Keys. The power of the Keys empowers our brigade to fight the war our world is waging against the wicked one. Celeste and you and I are a three-fold spiritual cord that is not easily broken, and in fact is unbreakable unless by our own will and choice. Our Lord will use this cord to thrash the enemy into submission. The choices you make serve to strengthen or weaken this cord. The decision is up to you. A standard is something that we fight under. It’s what we look to for spiritual strength and determination to fight on when the battle gets hot and heavy. In the days to come, this key standard will be vital to our survival. It already is, yet it will become more so as the war deepens and the enemy becomes more desperate. Each one of you in the battalion of David is part of a three-fold cord. Each of you has a counselor and a warrior angel assigned to you. I plead with you to strengthen this cord. You err if you continue to look to others to hold up your side of the battle line.

(Jesus:) I will do a new thing upon the Earth, an outpouring upon My anointed ones, those redeemed among men, those of which Revelation 14, verse 4 speaks of. I will open Heaven, and it will rain New Wine and new revelations as My chosen ones pour out as in the day of Pentecost. My new vessels for a new day will open their mouths and prophesy. They will dream dreams, see visions and tell of what is to come upon the Earth hereafter. So open your vessels, the pots, the jars, anything you can find, and come out into the rain that is now beginning to fall. Hold up the vessels, and I will fill them to overflowing. A famine is coming, My children, a terrible storm that will rage upon the Earth for a time and a times and a dividing of time. But as My widows of Zarephath, your vessels will be filled, not a few. The oil will be rich, pure and wholesome, and they will not run dry until I return and the Earth be renewed. You are called a chosen generation, a peculiar people reserved unto Me, held against this day of battle. There will be a fulfillment of those things spoken of to My servant David. There is a great gathering. A great and fearsome army of the spirit is preparing for march. Father time has been aroused and is preparing to sound the day's end, the sunset of man's rule. Gather your lamps, for the Bridegroom cometh. Trim the wicks. Fill the lamps, for the darkness just before dawn is thickest. I have begged and pleaded these many years, "Come out from among them and be ye separate; touch not the unclean thing and I will receive you." I did not speak in parables. My Words were plain enough. Those that took up the weapons of the spirit will be ready; those that did not will be wanting. Look. Listen. Do you not see? Can you not hear the drums of war? The signs of the End are upon you. The man of sin is at the door. Behold his hand is upon the latchet, and the door swings open. Now the final outpouring begins and then the dearth. Only those who do know their God will be strong and do exploits. Those who have prepared against this day will stand up as My heralds and voice to this last generation."

(Saramay, a Blue Angel:) It's sort of like how you were destined to go to Earth, so was I destined to become a Blue Angel. I have free choice just like you, so I could have chosen differently. My life winds back, and I have had to make certain commitments that others have not made. I had to allow my life to be tied to the power of Jesus, so when you look upon me... you only see the power of our Savior running through me. That is the blue color, although we don't always take this form. It is our yieldedness to Jesus that makes us almost invisible. You only see the blue energy flowing through me. I disappear -- He alone is glorified. It didn't happen all at once, and it took letting go of a lot. It's sort of like what you are experiencing, but different, because I am in the Spirit world. Not many people really desire to become Blue Angels. Their love for Jesus is real, but they just haven't seen the full Light. One day many more will see the truth and will succumb fully to His power. Under my hand you will learn this on Earth, and be ready to fulfill your place in Heaven. Keep listening to me. I will fill your mind with thoughts and pictures of our Jesus.

That is my fulfillment. I am made to do this.

You hardly care about the vessel delivering the message; you only hear the message. That is how it should be for you and what I am trying to teach you. This brings me to revealing the key you have gained.

This is my key and I myself have carried it for you until you were ready to receive it. This is the Blue Angel key... therefore it is called by the name of the Blue Key. Of course, in Heavenly language it is different, but just know that this key bears our name. Look up at the beautiful blue sky... doesn't it make you think of God? That is what we are. We are nothing... but something to point to Him. This color is the color of complete submission, because there is nothing in us but His power. We're empty, and this is the manifestation of being empty of self. Thus we choose to be seen by you in this form. Upon our heads is His glorious golden light and running all throughout our being is the power of God. So I present to you the Blue Key, which means to disappear, to let go and only be the pipe, the channel. All that's seen is Jesus. Is this your desire? Come learn of me, and when you come Here to Heaven, like me, you will be looked upon only as a reminder of His greatness. The cost is great, but to be so completely unseen and all encompassed by Him is worth every vestige of yourself you have to leave behind. This is where loving Him and first submitting to Him in the bed of love comes in. He needs your complete surrender, and loving Him is the first step. It's like the bottle opener. Of course, you must wield the Keys to open yourself...but loving Jesus is like the pouring of His water into your bottle so that eventually His water will overcome yours. It takes so much yielding to not close your lid as you watch more and more of yourself slip away. You are tempted to panic as you become more and more transparent.

This is what man fears —to be invisible and to let another shine brighter. That's why Earth life is such an excellent way to reach this place. Although it is extreme, it can be the fastest way if you yield as much as possible. But so many don't. This is the best way, but also the most difficult because you can't see anything. Unlike us up Here, when you on Earth begin to fade, you feel great pain and fear. There is the temptation to step away from the great power. Here, it is a bit different and less painful, but it takes longer. There's a process that goes on throughout time, and to the yielded heart it is such bliss to be so completely embraced by The Spirit of Jesus.

Over and over it plays in your mind

"This is what I was created for.

This is what I was created for".

Take this key: this is what you were created for. Don't fear. Take my hand. I am leading you to the best place. The top of the universe is where we stand, and by His hand we experience such ecstasy and unlimited joy. When we stand at the very top, we blend together, and we make His light shine brighter. We are the rays of light. We are the reflection of His power. Do you want this? I am handing you the deepest truth of the universe. What are you going to do with it? Come join us. I am waiting for you, beloved. Use this key and little by little, the light will replace your darkness. The veil will part, and you'll see the way. I love you. Hold on and do not fear.

You have nothing to lose and everything to gain.

THE UPSIDE DOWN WORLD

WHERE THE REAL WAR RAGES

(Jesus:) Satan is the usurper, the faker, the copy-cat. Whatever I have done, you can bet he is going to try to do it as well. He is clever and has had a long time to perfect his multi-faceted plan of world takeover.

The mark of the beast and the worship of the beast do go together, and so does the Image of the beast tie into all of this as well. But it is not as simple and straightforward as you wish it could be. Satan is trying to deceive the world, so his plan has to be sly and hard to uncover if it hopes to trick anyone.

The mark of the beast is indeed a microchip that shall be placed under the skin of the hand or forehead, but receiving this mark will not mean an instant, un-dissolvable, hell-fire death sentence. It is the worship of the Beast and the rejection of the Spirit that will cause the people of the world to be cast into the lake of fire for their punishment. It is the rebellious, stiff-necked, devil worshippers whom I will send to Hell for their just rewards.

The mark will have an effect on people. It is being designed to alter the behavior and thought patterns of man, so as to tip the scales of right and wrong towards the bad side. It is a very spiritual thing, yet it is a matter of choice as always. Satan and his filth have been working hard for centuries to indoctrinate the masses with evil. This modern world was designed for that very purpose—to turn mankind wicked and perverse in all his ways, until... just like in the days of Noah, every thought and imagination of his heart is to do evil continually. But you must remember that it was all by choice. I have had My prophets and messengers in every generation, in every age. All are well accountable for the choices they have made and will make.

As for the abomination of desolation, I tell you that there will be two fulfillments of this. One will be in the hearts and souls of men as they willingly fall down and worship the Beast's image, giving themselves up as easy slaughter for any and all of the demons of Hell to enter into them. Another will be the physical manifestation of the spiritual that I just explained. For he will indeed plant the tabernacle of his palace between the seas, in the glorious holy mountain. And there in his tabernacle, he shall cause an image to be built—an image that can both speak and cause that as many as will not worship him to be killed. Did I not say in My Word that when you shall see the abomination of desolation standing in the holy place, then you that are in Judea should flee? So this image of the Beast shall have two fulfillments—spiritual and physical.

I will give all men a chance to make the right choices. You can count on that. I am a fair God, a just One that is not willing that any should perish. You must have faith that I know what I am doing and that all those who truly are My children I will save somehow, somewhere. I promised that no one would be able to pluck Mine own out of My hand. People will be warned—if not by Me and you, then by their own conscience bearing witness against them in the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ."

(Spirit Helper:) The thing that led to disobedience and was the worst sin of all was unbelief --unbelief in the Word of God and believing the lie of the Devil. That was Eve's first sin that then led to the action. Her first wicked, horrible, heinous sin was the sin of the heart and of the spirit of unbelief, which of course, then led to faith in the Devil and his lie. That is the sin for which God holds the world responsible. That's the major sin, the cardinal sin. It's not all these other things that the Devil and the world and the system call sins. The major sin is unbelief!--rejecting the Word of God and believing the lying propaganda of the Devil!

(Jesus:) Do not look at your situation or the conditions there in Europe. They are the darkest they have ever been since the Dark Ages. I realize it is easy to look around you and see that there is no way out. That is the way Satan has painted it: his dark brush of complacency and hopelessness blinds all those of the world. But it should not be so with My beloved. My bride is full of light, and those out there are looking for that light. Shine on, My love, shine on in faith. Let those in the darkness see your light, My light in you. Let your light shine out into the darkness that is Europe. I am but a whisper away. Come, My love, come to My bed and let's love passionately long into the night of these last days. Our love will shatter the darkness, and you will see the portals and the Keys clearly. They will show you the way in which you must go. Forever by your side...Jesus.

(Jesus:) Satan's plan of inevitable destruction of My creation will be complete when the whole world worships him as god. By worshipping the works of his own hands, man has sold himself to the usurper. Man has lost his way, and as a slave, he is being led away to the salt mines of Hell on Earth. From birth to death, man has given his life and all it contains into the hands of a few devious devils parading the Earth as humans. These despicable ones find their disciples among the lower strata of humankind and together they built a false utopia, thinly veiled in the garb of "the good life". Spiritually void of true Godly values, "the touch, feel and see" world of material man has been brain and heart washed. Carnal man has reached a point where he has sold his soul for a card: nay, a small imbedded chip within the plastic card, a true representation of his plastic empty life within a plastic utopia.

You say you love Me, yet your life stands as testimony that you don't.

"Come out from among them and be ye separate," is what My Word directed you to do. That warning is thousands of years old, and yet still stands unheeded as man's faith in Me and My Word disappears from the hearts of all but a few. Did I not say that in the time of the End there would be a great falling away in faith? Behold, I am at the door even now, knocking and pleading for man to turn back from the abyss.

(Jesus:) The world will carry on in blind oblivion to what is about to happen to their world. As a thief, the devil will come and take all that they deemed worthy to give their lives to. All --great and small, rich and poor-- will receive the mark and will become slaves to the whims and wishes of Satan. Taking the mark of the beast does not give you what you want. It gives Satan what he wants, your soul. And he will take his prize with him into the pit of languishing."

(Jesus:) The devil hates My Law of Love. He hates it because it is the future. It is the building block, the cornerstone on which I will build My new church, My Millennial church. Long after Satan has been put away in a place where he cannot hurt himself and others, My love will live on. It will bring new life and hope to those lost in the darkness, those who will embrace the freedom of My spirit when they see it in your eyes and read it from your hand and feel it in your loving touch. Do not fret, My amorous one, do not hold to the past as the Old church does. They love the past. They love the old ways: the ways of man and his boxes and squares and circles and things that contain and hold. They find comfort in these things. Whereas, you My ardent sexy bride, you find no pleasure in the earthy things of life. You cannot be contained. You want freedom and life, and a wild and free Husband.

(Jesus:) The end of man's rule is nigh. It is even at the door, yet none see it. Their kingdom is a canker. Their gold has become paper, their paper has turned to a number on a computer screen, and a machine has replaced My name in the hearts of man. Their god is Satan and his lamb taketh away the faith of the world. And all the world worships the dragon that giveth power to the Beast which rules in the hearts and minds and souls of the men of this world. I stand at the door and knock; if any man hear My voice and open the door I will come into him and that man will live with Me forever. But the unbelieving and abominable will have their place in the lake of fire: that everlasting fire that awaits all those who forsake the way of life. Behold, I come quickly with My reward in My hand. The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand. Hold that fast which thou hast. Be faithful My little ones. Be faithful through this time of darkness and the crown will be yours.

(Jesus:) Drink up, sweetheart. There is going to be an explosion. It will be so violent, so dynamic that this world will rock at its force and power. The Word of God is about to come to life like never before. I am about to light the fuse of many of My Endtime prophets. Wait for it. Feed the seeds, the gunpowder of My Word, into My conduits, and then at the given time stand back and watch the fireworks. Satan thinks he has won. He thinks his cards are winners. He lays them on the gaming table with a smug smile.

How conceited he is. Watch out, My loves. Stand back from the table a space, for he is going to blow smoke and fire and brimstone when he see Me give him that winning smile of Mine and lay out the Royal flush! That hand, My dears, is going to flush that old stinker right down the pipe and into the bottomless pit.

(Jesus:) Believe Me, My loves, the End is very close. The AC's are almost ready to spring the trap. Their timetable was set many years ago, and they are hell-bent on reaching it. They are receiving tremendous pressure from the spirit realm. Their priests are receiving prophecy too, and they are just as determined as you are to get it right. They chant; they perform sacrifices, horrible demonic oblation to their immediate counselors and to their king Satan. Their dark and filthy worships have no constraints. We are bound to observe these acts of rebellion and blasphemy. We must monitor and record these vile displays, but it comes at a great price. Hell itself has bubbled and oozed to the Earth's surface. It is deep in sin and corruption. Move higher in spirit, My loves. Move up the mountain. Move in with us, calling on the Keys for even greater protection. Release more power to your comrades in the spiritual realm. Allow them more access to your hearts and minds. Allow them to more fully possess you, and in so doing My spirit will flow deeper and more forcefully through your souls. There is no defense in the physical material world. The sewers of the underworld have been released, the tide is rising and there is no escape but up into the wilderness of the spirit. The night has fallen, but fear not, for you hold in your hand the light of My Word. When all is dark and you cannot see, hold the light high and you will see clearly, and those around you will see clearly and the light that emanates from My light in your hands will attract those out there in the deepening dark. They will gather around this light, and it will warm and encourage them that all is indeed well, even though hope seems gone.

WE CONTROL THESE PARTS OF THE UNIVERSAL SPACE NOW

(Jesus:) Yes, what I am saying is that Satan has lost his place in the Heavens. The period of his life as the prince of the airwaves is now simply a physical manifestation of a once spiritual reality. In simpler terms, he now only has control of the airwaves on Earth, radio, television, internet and the like. Very soon his power over your minds will weaken as he concentrates his greatly diminished spiritual powers on his own children there on Earth. But it is not that difficult to control them now because he has already polluted their minds and hearts. They are already given over to his sirens and dictates, the trinkets and rudiments of this world. Fear is what the world worships now. They fear for their lifestyles and for their very lives. They see no future in the afterlife. They live for the now, the present, and will therefore do anything to save their skins. As I said, his power and the power of his dark followers will diminish, and you, My children, will hear more clearly from us, your spiritual counterparts. As your and our worlds meld, a lot of things are going to change. The time is upon you, My loves, and this physical move is a manifestation of this shift in spirit. Yet, I say again: you must move with the spirit. In other words, we will not carry you there and we will not pull you up. You must come up out of free will and choice."

(Spirit Helper:) There is war in Heaven, beloved, and that war has changed gears. The enemy is in retreat and is raging mad as his forces withdraw from the Heavenlies. He hurls an endless string of curses and threats. He has turned and is now running ahead of his well-beaten curs to what he believes is safer ground. He has lost his foothold, but will never admit it, not even to his top brass. He thinks everyone is stupid, and he, being the only wise one, knows all the moves. The arrogance of Satan knows no limit. He and his ilk must go into the pit. They are a danger to themselves, and like the mentally deranged, they are a threat to society. Many will follow him into the pit. Many have been infected with his poison; his disease is highly communicable and extremely infectious.

The "Green Door" has many rooms, many doors that lead to accommodations full of those infected with Satan's plague. Hell is an enormous hospital of sorts, full of the off-scouring of man, the spiritually unstable and every foul beast and bird that ever walked the Earth since time began. Organized much like the prison systems of man, Hell is set up so that those that improve and turn back toward the ways of God are given responsibility within the system. As they prove worthy, they move higher in the spirit and are given more freedom. They are proven by their works and in time are given responsibility fit their station. Only the strongest of angels work within the prison systems of Hell. Those with great compassion for the lost and an understanding of the ways of God are assigned on a voluntary rotational basis. No one but God can endure those depths of despair for any length of time. Of course, there are 'other places' there too. Not pleasant at all, the dungeons of the pit are for those that have proven most stubborn. These are those whom the mental disorder has quite taken over and is now in an advanced state. These are the ones that shun our help. They think that we are the ones that are unwell and that they are being treated unfairly and unjustly. Oh, the poisons of Satan have run deep and far in this world of woes, so far in fact, that not even the Millennium will be enough time to cure some of these. But as is with all things, there is a limit, and for the sake of those that wish to go God's way, His plan must move forward into the future and all must pass away to be one day read about in the annals and archives of Heaven, forever a lesson for future generations and worlds to come.

~NEW WEAPONS~

These are the days of the voices of the Lord,
The whispers,
The strength of quietness,
The power of weakness.

No more will I allow
The strength of the strong
Or the wisdom of the wise
Or the power of the mighty to rule.

For those are the ways of defeat.
Now the strength & power of My Word
And the strength & power of your weakness rules.
The strength & power of My voice instructs,
And the strength & power of My love empowers.
These are the things that must rule in these days.

Would you have this power?
Would you have this understanding?
Would you have this empowerment and this strength?
Then come unto Me!
Enter into My rest, for in quietness & confidence
Shall be your strength.

You must stand back & see Me fight!
Stand back & see My strength!
Stand back in prayer.
Stand back in praise.
Stand back in quietness.
Stand back in communion with Me.
Stand back as receivers-

Listening & tuning into My voice.
Then you shall see the power & might of God
In a way that you have not seen it
In any of the days past.

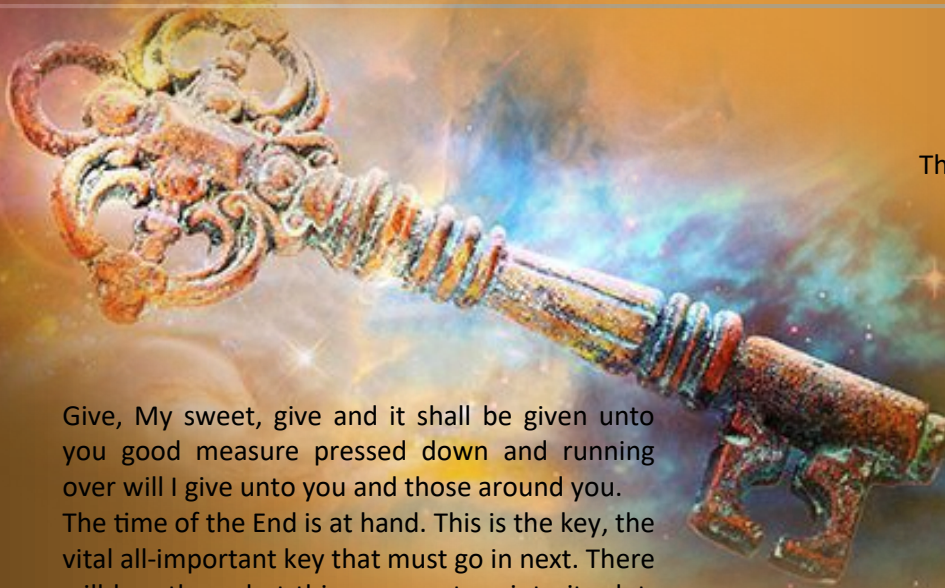

THE KEYS OF THE KINGDOM

(Jesus:) Call on the Keys, My love. Call on them; love them. Blow on them, and they will sound the call to arms. They will ignite the hearts of all true Children of David. The Keys are the leaders. They are where our strength lies, and they are the hidden secret. They are part of the seven thunders. They are the secret weapon. They are one with our King and His Father, and we are one with them. Without the Keys there is no synchronization; there is no harmony. Satan knows this; therefore, he virulently attacks the Keys themselves. What a fool, what an empty wind he is. For to fight the Keys is to fight the Key Maker, and to fight the Key Maker is to fight existence itself, his own existence, so he is fighting himself. Oh thou Lucifer, son of the morning, thou shalt be brought down to the sides of the pit. Thy pride is a canker eating itself to death. There is no victory in pride, only death and defeat to self. All that thou once had has been taken from thee. There is nothing left but a looking unto judgment. You have been judged and are found wanting. Your kingdom has been taken from you and given to others. Every Word of prophecy, every sentence, every line, written and yet unwritten will stand as testimony against thee, O Satan, son of the sunset of man. The true Son is soon to rise, and in righteousness He doth judge and make war. The last and final war of this age, this dispensation, is about to begin, O Foul One. The war that you wage is a wasted one; you are a wasted one. Your followers are wasted ones, and they will waste away in the very fires of Hell for an age and an age. Be thou cast down, O unrighteous one. Be thou an eternal ensample to all those that would put themselves above God. Your pride dies with you, O putrid son of darkness. The thoughts of your own black heart judge you and all those that follow in your footsteps. Be cursed and sent into outer darkness.

THE FINAL KEY

(Jesus:) Many Cathars hold their breath in anticipation, because their time is almost upon them. Such little insignificant nobodies, such small cogs, such minute broken vessels God uses to bring to naught the empire of Satan. The final key is so vitally important to his downfall. The power that you are about to release through your obedience will open a floodgate of Word in your life and the lives of all those who know you and who had any part in this great movement called the Children of David.

Give, My sweet, give and it shall be given unto you good measure pressed down and running over will I give unto you and those around you.

The time of the End is at hand. This is the key, the vital all-important key that must go in next. There will be others, but this one must go into its slot. This is what we need to release the flood of power that will eventually blow this world and the world of tomorrow apart. Don't stop now, My sweet lover. Don't look back for there is only darkness there. Grab that lamp and step out into the future, your future and the future of the whole world and universe. This great and awesome Law of Love is the great torch of revolution. It came to Earth when I entered the Earth realm two thousand years ago. It has been held high by successive generations since then, and now it has been passed to you, My lovers of the final End of ends. The last leg of this supernatural relay race is about to happen. It is so thrilling, so all-together awesome that there is silence in Heaven. Yes, My sweet loves, silence. The Heavenlies is holding its breath in anticipation of what is about to be released. Open the velvet box and take out those magic Keys. Select the one called the Law of Love and insert it into the keyhole called the future. And away we will all go. You are My elite and heirs to My Kingdom. Does it not seem reasonable that I would require you, My heirs, to partake of this great event? What I am asking you to do right now on this seemingly inconsequential day and hour will accelerate My return. Let Me take your hand in Mine, and let us insert this Key together. Let's break the seal that covers the lock, like a Husband I will break My virgin's hymen, and she will be ready to bear fruit and the seeds of this fruit that our union produces will be used to create some of the first seedlings of the new millennium. This is My will, and this is My doing. This is the will of our Father who reigns over all the worlds and galaxies and universes now and to come.

You have come this far by faith, the faith that you have gained will grow and cause this world to rock and reel under the very power and strength and might and majesty of God.

This is it. It is time, and it cannot wait. Open your heart and let it flow. Let the old flow away and disappear along with this old world. We are born again, for it is given into your hands to insert the final Keys, to call for a change of tide. Satan and his ilk will have no answer for this tidal shift, no more so than it is possible for man to stop the ocean tide as My Moon pulls on the seas of this world. All the forces of Heaven will bear down on the forces of Satan and the pressure on his dam wall will be so great that he will not withstand the sheer volume pressing against its strongest section. He thinks he has won. He thinks that My children are nothing and have amounted to nothing but small, insignificant cogs and tappets, screws and nuts, and things of little value. He is wrong —oh, so wrong. Stand back and see Me fight. Now step out and do your small, insignificant part, then stand back and see Me fight for you as all of Heaven rushes to your aid.

Matthew 16:19 (Jesus:) This battle has to be won here first. Whatsoever is released on Earth will be released in Heaven, My loves. This is a deep secret. It is man's yieldedness that must be achieved. If man cannot yield to the will of God, then the Earth experiment cannot continue. This may seem too much to put on the shoulders of weak and insignificant man, but you see, I have already broken the back of Satan, and I have promised all power to anyone who has the faith to exercise My power whilst on Earth. So through the power of the Keys, bind the power of Satan and release the power of Heaven by being those chosen ones to carry the torch of faith to that final day. Even if there was one man to step across that line, the line dividing this old world and the next, then My plan would have succeeded. There will not be only one man; there will be more. Please be among those precious few that prove that My will can be accomplished whilst on Earth.

(Jesus:) Ahh...Matthew 16:19... There is your key, darling. The enemy tries to snuff out your light. He is desperate to render you useless because -- why?... Why would he be attacking you so viciously at every turn? Because he is desperate to stop you! He's frantic to pull you off the wall of 'yielding to My will'. He is pulling you down, pointing the finger and telling you that it's just too hard, impossible. "How can anyone be expected to give up so much?" Your efforts are so puny and what difference do they make anyways?" "It's 'not normal' Lord, what you are requiring of me! What's really the point anyways?" But... what is loosed on Earth is your yieldedness. That is the ultimate, the goal, the prize, the vital ingredient. And it's what the enemy fights tooth and nail, constantly bombarding you to resist, to pull back, to become stubborn and rebel against My way for you. But I have equipped you for this relentless battle of self and pride versus surrender and transparency with the all-powerful Keys of the Kingdom. These hold the power. Wield them and you will cut Satan down and cast him out of your realm, the realm that you and I inhabit. This is why you must have the Keys running through your veins, through your brain, embedded in your very being. This is the ultimate test of your Earth mission, and you know the secret weapon that I have provided for you to successfully accomplish your time there. You see, I don't make it harder than you can bear. The Keys will lead and guide you into all truth. As you meld with them, they will speak to you. They will caress you as you caress them. They will respond in wonderful, amazing, miraculous ways. They will come into you and change your make-up, the way you were before, and make you how I need you to be. They will change your outlook on your not-so-desirable situation or whatever you are battling to yield to and turn it so that you will be joyed serving Me and count it a pleasure and honor to be called. One powerful little verse —just one. It holds an amazing power yet is discovered by so few.

This key that conquers all, the key of yieldedness, is the fountain of youth, the spirit that keeps alive, young in spirit, bubbling, on-fire, zealous for our Lord and Savior. It's like the Holy Grail, and it's been there all along. This truth was handed to the Children of David, but it's available to all. The devil can throw his fiery darts, but they will all be quenched. You who have found them must now reverence them and hone them and live and breathe them. This is imperative now, My soldier brides. Your hearts should be racing with anticipation at the awesome gift I have given you, the key to victory. Do you realize the immense, raw, unbridled energy you hold in your hands? You have tasted but a morsel, but as you meld with them more and more, their power will only increase. As I entrust them into your care, you will wield them as the highly honored gift that they are. With your use of them, you activate and power up the potential blue energy of God in them. They are just waiting for you, My loves. Take them in your tiny hands and turn them as a lover, adoring them and reverencing them as the magical, mystical weapons that they are. And see what they won't do for you. They are real and you just need to believe in the unseeable, and that by faith, what I say is true. So hold your key of yieldedness and together fight on to fulfill your Earth mission, taking up your own personal cross, whatever that may be for you. Do it for Me. Do it so that the Final Key can be inserted to bring about the end of this era of Man and usher in My glorious Kingdom. You have been called to fulfill this, do not doubt or belittle anymore your worth or what the little steps you are taking are accomplishing. You now know what the enemy is about, so stand tall and do your part as My humble, yielded Bride. I love you so. I adore you for all the laying down of 'self' that you've done so far. Just keep going and never ever give up. Look into My eyes. I love you to the Moon and back and more than all the galaxies and universes. You are My love. xxx

(Jesus:) The final key is being assembled. It's coming together, and it's gliding slowly along toward the final lock. Its progress is slow but steady, like a massive ocean liner gliding along on its momentum. It may not look like it's going very fast, but anything in its way would be completely crushed and knocked aside.

The final Key is made up of all your individual actions and decisions to activate My power in your lives, to believe My Word, to use My Word, to be obedient and to do your part to be a disciple. As each person does their part, they add their little piece to the giant puzzle, until the time is right and the power from Heaven is released to unlock your ultimate destiny and your full power.

The Enemy is trying to stop this process. He wants to delay you. He wants to foil My plan for the Family to be the ones to generate enough yieldedness, obedience, and spiritual power to become those who can open this door.

He wants you to fail and to not complete this key. He tempts you with disbelief, lack of faith, doubts, lies, and everything that he can think of in order to stop you from doing your part.

But he's losing, and he knows it. He sees that you are becoming disciples, and that you are doing your part. You're learning about the spirit. You're growing in your use of the spiritual weapons. You're getting closer to Me, and you're becoming stronger. The pieces you are attaching to the final key are becoming more and more numerous, and so he's trying to get you to stop.

But don't stop! Keep at it. Ignore Satan and his lies and attacks. Know that you're on the right track, and that you're doing your part for the activation of the power of the Last Days.

You're making it happen with each little decision that you make to believe Me and to obey Me.

Don't let anything or anyone stop you. Keep on believing and yielding and making the right choices. The power is flowing up from you, and it's soon going to gather into the final act. Don't quit. I need each of you. “(Fight for Your Faith, Part 1!)

(Jesus:) When you are wavering, then you don't have enough Key power coursing through your veins. I don't think you get it yet. I don't think you fully realize the power you have at your fingertips. One reason the Keys were created was to restore everything to its true and proper state. They begin by leading you, My children, through the Endtime, through the Great Tribulation, and through the tests to come, into My Heavenly Kingdom, and back to the perfection of the world as it will be in the days to come.”

(Spirit Helper) You won't be left alone to be empty. If you truly clear out and call, we'll be ready to pour into you. It's battle time... let's prepare for the greatest battles to come. This year means many things. Prove your worth as a trustworthy soldier who is willing to back down and fill a different position. Say “Yes sir,” no matter how much of a sacrifice it is. Yield and thank Him for doing what is best for you. There's something in this for you...a treasure to be had, more Keys for you, Honey. There are a few more Keys in your old prophecies that you need to find and activate. The Keys are your future. The Keys will be the very ground you walk on. There's nothing left for you on this Earth. You can't have what others have. You are a piece of the Spirit World that has been taken out for such a time as this. When you left Heaven, you never imagined that your life would be so. You imagined strength and courage...but were given complete weakness. This is the path of submission you are walking on. This is the most glorious path. The many that look upon it do not see that, so they turn aside, but He in mercy, stayed you up against yourself. And at the end of the day there's nothing for you but Him.

INTIMATE UNION WITH OUR KING

(Blue Angel:) I am Clear, and I clear the way for you to love our Husband passionately, without restraint. As has been said in the Words of our King, I am a teacher of love and pure Godly sex, a spiritual sex so far beyond the realms of man and flesh. Just as it is impossible to accurately explain the feelings and ecstasy one experiences during an orgasm, so it is with sex with our Lord, the Lord of Lovers, our sex King. Deep are His ways, but they are not past finding out. Use me, for I love to be used in this way, in the ways of love and deep, deep spiritual sex with Jesus. I hold the Keys to His bedchamber. I hold the knowledge as well as the experience required to instruct you in the ways of eternal lovemaking. You will experience sex so pure, so enlightening that at times you will have no desire to leave the grotto of love.

The flesh pulls you to Earth. This I know, yet I do not fully understand the heaviness you experience. It is not for me to understand. It is my part to pull you up and out of the slough of your world. I am your intimate connection to the power of God and His Son Jesus, our Husband and Lover of all lovers. Everything about me is intimate. I dwell in the intimate power of God. I know Jesus' most intimate secrets because I am intimately connected to Him, and it is His wish and therefore my wish, to make you a part of this intimate circle of power. His wish is to share all that He has with you, His bride. Not to necessarily give you all His power, but to share the knowledge and at times give you part of the intimate power of His majesty. Our greatest desire, and I can say only desire, is to stay as close to this power as any creation of His can be. If this is to be your desire then our purpose will be fulfilled and a portion of the power that flows through us will be channelled through you, yea even your flesh. This portion will give you healing power as well as bring healing power to your flesh. Because, as the power flows through you and out to others, a portion of its healing power is absorbed by the flesh. The Word of God that brings life, that resurrects, that creates something out of nothing, passes through you, regenerating the old, renewing all things that are broken or need restoration.

Tune into me, and I will help you meditate on the power of God that flows through me. It is the will of Jesus, therefore my greatest desire to become one with you as I am one with our Lover, thus making us one in Him. Come, be a partaker of the very power of God, become a generator of His power, become a blue angel like us. The power is always on, always flowing. So step into its flow and hold onto us, because when the power is jacked up, you will need a firm grip on us who have learned to embrace the power and to allow it to pass through us and over us and around us. We will teach you how to generate and utilize the power that flows through you.

(Jesus:) You must follow My lead very carefully and listen to My voice. I will tell you specifics, and you must believe and obey what I bring to your remembrance, for surely it is your memory that will sharpen, and reveal the secrets laid from the foundations of the world.

(Ashley Blue, a Blue Angel:) We will lead you as you get still. Call on the Keys and listen to the whispers. I am here. I am speaking to your heart as you 'write' these words. As you keep close, you are focused on the spirit of My being, knowing what I say and recording what I speak. This will continue for some time, but then when this technique (writing/typing) is no longer possible, I will become more audible through your minds eye, and I will bring to remembrance the things "heard" in whispers, you being a receiver of my words.

You will retrieve your information much like you are already doing every time you stop and focus to recall a name you forgot. While tuning into your database (mind) of memory, you place a recall. Sometimes it takes a few moments. You experience this all the time, and it works! You can't explain it, but it works. That's the principle of the 'still small voice' of the whispers, it works. This gift will increase in sharp awareness as the need arises.

You must remember: a lot of your memory has been concealed from you, but the events of these End times have already played out in our realm. God knows the end from the beginning, and if He is in control like you believe He is, He can loose unto you those things that have already happened. You will be alerted and interconnected to Him by the means and forms He wishes to use to reveal all things unto you. This is where all His promises come into effect and miracles happen, because with God nothing is impossible!

Call on the Keys of remembrance. I will bring things you've forgotten back to your mind and grant you a direct link to My mind.

(Ashley Blue continues:) This is a work of love, and I draw near, happy that I am called by name as one day you will be when our dear precious Jesus reveals His presence in like manner. I'm so thrilled. I want to tell you something. I never gave you any impression before, because you had forgotten about the True Blues (Blue Angels), but we haven't left your side. We were only waiting off in your distant reach, waiting for this day when we are truly revealed. I didn't know when this "know day" would arrive, & you had no inclination till Jesus has brought you closer in.

(Ashley Blue :) Stay with me. Keep in tune because I am light and my presence flutters easily away with any distractions. Being beside you is very special because we are as counterparts, you in the physical & I in the spiritual realm. It is important that we connect at such a time as this and that we can come in and out at a moment's notice because I am basically going to be your whispering guide through all that you will be going through —as much as you will allow me. I will come when you focus with all of your attention. I am the whispers of this time to see you through the dark days ahead, even as you are with me now. This day will change your trajectory and make straight paths for your feet as you follow closely to my strokes of dusty blue signs and shades on your mind's eye. I know this all sounds pretty far out there, but you are ready for the spiritual realities to begin honing and sharpening your senses. You desire more and more of Jesus' gifts, and He has heard your heart and is wishing to grant you your requests. I'm attached to your gifts, and I bring to fruition the heart's desires to love Jesus more thru my abilities and spiritual connections of being. You have to have a conductor to transport you into the realms beyond this physical plane. "

NEW WINE

(Jesus:) You are free, My Loves. You are beholden to Me and Me alone. It is a new day, a new day of freedom, of New Wine that is pouring forth, pouring down in abundance. That trickle that started is getting stronger and increasing in volume. As you shed more and yield more and more of yourself and become even more single-minded, simply showing My light and less and less of you and your pride and self-righteousness, then rivers of water will flow out of your bellies. Be a nothing, a nobody, and I will exalt you...to heights of being transparent, of being simply a pipe that lets My spirit flow through. You will be unseen and only seen of Me. This New Wine is a powerful testimony to so many. It is the power to cause the bones to come alive. It is the breath, My breath blowing into them new life, the very essence of My being, fresh for today, right now. It is alive, and it is Me."

(Jesus:) You begin this charge My darlings. You who are picking up the weapon of New Wine. You who are tapping into My flowing rivers —the water of new tributaries that are increasing in volume. More and more of My water is being diverted to this tributary because —whoa, it flows effortlessly as you remove the rubble and any blockages in its path. You who have been willing to do this will fly with My whispers. They will gush out your mouth. None will be able to gainsay or resist. These whispers will be so tantalizing, so intoxicating, so desirable. The thirsty's thirst will be slaked, and they will be set aflame with a burning in their bosom as they are re-envisioned and re-generated with the power of God. You are as little David's with pebble in sling —your weapon of New Wine, as opposed to the cumbersome armor of old outdated initiatives. This is a new day with fresh new instructions. The Battlefield has changed and so you need new orders from up Top. You are a band of renegades who travel light and only need their pouch of loving Jesus, praise, prayer, unity and prophecy. Five small stones that are — oh, so powerful. You will out-run and out-maneuver your enemy because you run with the power of blue light generated from My generator. Hold your pebble of New Wine high, My loves. Let it lead you and show you the way. Do not be afraid to let the dam loose, for My sheep are lost and shepherdless and need to be rehydrated with the fresh batches that are being pumped out —until they can tap into the power source themselves. Let the New Wine call them up the slopes to higher ground, where My brides journey with little but their pouch of pebbles. Let the New Wine give them faith and fire and wings to forsake all again and look forward to their appointments in the Millennium with excitement and anticipation of a better future with Me. Let the New Wine give them an exciting new vision, new life and purpose —as this world gasps its dying breaths." (Read The Frozen Book)

(Jesus:) This is the beginning of a new story; a new adventure has begun. The old family has frozen over, iced in by withholding more than is meet and is now a history book that can't be opened again. My once beautiful secretary, the one I trusted with all My treasures, has cooled off. Having shut off the flow of light, it dimmed to a point and she didn't remember to put the key into the hole, to bring light to the rest of the tunnel. She and others locked My Words away and refused to give them out again. Yes, My loves, you have to be nifty to break the ice and skate away to the beautiful lake of New Wine. But you, My loves, My hot sexy wanting-more brides were born inside the vault. You were born in and born out of the Words of David. You have your own Keys, as do all that are called Children of David. You are going on a trip with Dad in spirit, with just a small pile of diamonds from his hand to guide you. These have set you on your new course. A sad ending you say, but It can only be this way, for there is nothing left in the physical realm anymore (Crash letter). Everything is now in the spirit. The Keys are spiritual, and the things that you need to survive come from the light within My tunnel, My wilderness. Many, many more spirits are gathering around you now. The ice wall, the veil, is melting. It is breaking and turning into New Wine. The spirits are vying for their time to speak, to show the way. They are bursting with New Wine, of many colors and shades and tints. More than the colors of My earthly bow that spans the horizon are the colors of My New Wine. You have the Keys to the back door; use them. Step out into a new day. If you hold to the old, the frozen book, you will not reach your destiny. The light will fade and this generation will pass into darkness with you. Yours is to keep moving forward. Those around you must follow in the darkness, or be left in darkness as you move ahead. But if you insert the key at the right time and place, the light will come as promised in the dream and prophecy Kaye shared with you. Yes, the light will come, and those that are around you will see and know that they are following the light. My Children of David are spirit children. They are unseen to each other. They know of the others around them, but that is not the important issue, for now they truly know that it is the light that reveals the safe way ahead on and through the dark tunnel of My will. They all have their Key rings. They all have others around them in the tunnel of My will. All they have to do is remember to put in the Key at the right moment and light will come to those they travel with.

(Apostle Paul:) Dearest Brother in Christ, may the love of the Holy One be upon you and all those in the household of faith. The enemy as a roaring lion goeth about seeking his prey. Those of the House of David are especially targeted because of the Word they have in their possession. Pray for your equipment and for your family and for the road ahead, for it lieth in darkness. Yesterday was one of those attacks. It came from the darkness and was intended to put out the candle that is being used to light other candles, who in turn will light others as the revolution explodes. Jesus has promised that the trickle will turn into a small stream and then into a river and then a flood of New Wine that will sweep this Earth as a cleansing agent.

(Jesus:) First there must come a cleansing, a purging of the filth that has accumulated and clogged the arteries of this world. I need conduits, open, receptive clean pipes through which to pour the cleansing Water of My Word into the veins and arteries and capillaries of this dying world. If you are willing, if you are ready, I will raise you up as My channels, My mouthpieces, those that I will pour My Solvent, My cleansing agent through. I want those that will not stop the flow, but will instead take away the stop cock, throw away the cork and be My open-ended pipes. I have called you. Each one of you has been given a destiny, a purpose. I have poured the Waters of David and Maria into your vessels. I have asked you to receive My old wine, and I have asked you to drink deeply of My New Wine.

(Apostle Paul:) The enemy is fighting the candles, the light that will very soon turn into a hurricane of overcoming power. You, my brothers and sisters of faith, have been chosen as lights in the darkness. That light must not be extinguished; not one word must fall to the ground. This is a big job, and it has been given into the hands of a chosen few: you and those around you that hold up the light to others that they may see the road ahead. Use my testimony and bad example. It is a powerful example of not following the Light but the desires of the flesh and pride. I submit to the will of God, my brother in arms, that others fall not into the same trap. The carnal mind is our enemy, the world is our enemy, and even our brethren can be our worst and most dangerous enemy. Only the Holy Spirit of God can light the way in the darkness ahead. The Spirit reigns and must be allowed full sway, full possession. Learn, my brothers and sisters. Learn to follow. Learn humility and selflessness. Learn in order that you be not overcome by the lusts of your own flesh and carnal mindedness as I was on that fateful day. I was called to bring light to the Gentiles, and that is where I should have stayed and lived out my days ministering to the flock my Savior had given me. But no, instead I insisted on going back to a people who had rejected the pure light of salvation, those that loved the old and not the spirit, the letter that killeth, the letter that eventually killed me. You, my dear ones, are called to bring the light of a new day with New Wine for a new millennium. Stagger not at the promises of God, but in newness of heart and spirit be ye transformed into the pillars of light that this world desperately needs."

(Dad:) God has to have those with crazy faith, insane dreamers that are willing to do the wild, seemingly crazy things that the Lord asks them to do--to go where He says to go, and say what He says to say, and do His slightest bidding. This takes new bottles who are in the Spirit, who have their senses and their spirit exercised, who are thrilled and enthralled by the New Wine, and who are so full of joy and excitement that it causes their light to shine brightly on the world.

As with every revolution and every changing of the guard, so to speak, the new avant-garde, the new, fresh bottles go on, always with lots of repercussions and things left in the wake. Nevertheless, we have to keep going on, following the Lord, obeying His commandments and preaching the message He wants us to preach. It always works out for the best. It always improves the Family. It always improves our witness and our ministering to others. So praise the Lord and continue to thank Him for His New Wine that He pours out that is so refreshing and so invigorating to those who are open to it.

Don't worry about the old bottles, the ones who are left behind, because the Lord loves them and He cares for them. He provides for them, and He uses them as much as they'll allow Him to. But it's those who are really sucking and seeking and fighting in the Spirit who are the ones that get to partake of the New Wine, and partake of the sowing of the seed and the reaping of the fruit--young, alive sheep that are hungry to do something for the Lord. That's just the Lord's way.

That's just the Gideon's band that the Lord chooses to preach His new Words and His new message—those who follow Him the closest—because it takes a great deal of forsaking and continually being willing to change and fight new battles and overcome new obstacles and face new challenges. But that's the thrill of it! That's what makes it thrilling! That's what makes it exciting! That's why the Family will never be stopped, for the true revolutionaries will keep going until the end, no matter what the Lord asks them to do!

~THE WAR~

“The Enemy hates the winning of souls and the reaping of the harvest in the fields where I have sent you. There's so much potential, so much to do, so many people who need to be reached and who can become disciples.

He attacks you because he doesn't like the work you're doing today, and he's even more scared of the work you're going to do in the future.

He doesn't even like what you're doing now, much less what you're going to do once you all put a renewed focus on saving souls and winning disciples!

That's what the whole war boils down to.”

THE SNAKE AND THE SNARE

(Jesus:) In these last days I will pour out of My spirit upon all flesh; your sons and daughters will prophesy; your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Thank you for doing your part, My precious brides. I love you and will support you as the last days unfold. This is indeed the beginning of the end. The end of man's rule will be brutal and filled with all sorts of horrors and injustice. I will raise you up to be My prophets of the End, and yes, there will be others too that I will empower to give out My Words of warning, doom and judgement. I don't want you to be moving too far from the Words of David. It is interesting to see and hear about what is going into this vaccine. But when it comes down to Bible prophecy and Endtime events My David was sent into the world as My Endtime prophet. There are a lot of theories and much terminology out there on the internet, but I want you to stay focused on the "end game" —and that is, the mark of the beast and a cashless banking system that will trap everyone in its system, all except those of My children who have learned to trust Me for everything. This is My goal for you and why I have given you the Keys and why I ask that you love Me intimately and why I have taught you how to hear from Me in prophecy about everything. In order that when you and others are shut out of the beastly system you will move into the wilderness of the spirit to live as Moses did. So although this sort of information is informative and interesting, please My brides, keep focused on your training as My elite Endtime prophets. The world is going to need you, and I am going to use you and need you. All that the Words of David have spoken about you will come to pass if you keep focused and obedient to the high calling I have given you. Be thankful for this woman whom I have raised up in her area to preach and prophesy and give warning to the wicked and also the lost in America. My spirit will pour out even more as the days ahead bring on the mandatory vaccine. And as the AC system begins pushing and corralling the peoples of this world, even more prophets will arise and will speak out against the devilish system which only seeks to control and enslave.

THE CHIP

(Jesus:) I tell you plainly that this vax will lead the way into the final chip. It is the door, and just as My Word directed Moses to strike the doorposts of each household, so will the devil demand and direct that each of his children make a mark on the lintel of their hearts in obedience and obeisance to his will. Then will he send out his death angel to strike down any that have not received his mark in their hearts. You stand at the city gates of Egypt and to leave you must pay your tax. The system demands it, just as it demanded in gold from My disciples and I. Give to Caesar what is his and give to Me what belongs to Me. I have delivered into your hand the Keys to the wilderness. The just shall live by faith, but if any man draw back, then My soul shall have no pleasure in him. Come out from among them, pay your system tithe, touch not the unclean thing and I will receive you. Flee as a bird to the mountains, for the abominable thing has already taken grip on the hearts and minds of man. The wings of faith will lift you as an eagle and you will fly to a place that I have prepared for you.

NWO

(Spirit Helper:) Come let me show you what a one-world government looks like from the inside. Did you know that never, since the Roman Empire, has a dictate from one man or a small body or committee of men been obeyed by the entire world? In the days of the past six world empires, when the King made a proclamation it took months for couriers to pass the dictum to the outer reaches of the kingdom.

Today, in the time of the seventh and final empire, with the specter of "Fearona", at the tap of a button, spread around the kingdoms of man —all, small and great, rich and poor, free and bond donned their masks. And typical of previous world dictators another type of fear was used on those that refused to obey the sound of the fiddler upon the airwaves of the world. Fear is a spirit and that spirit thrives on worship. "For God hath not given us a spirit of fear, but of love and a sound mind". It seems the world is losing its mind.

Children of the world, do you wonder what on Earth is happening? Do you fear for your lives? Well, your benevolent New World Order has a solution, so unique, so complete that you need not fear the bad guys ever again. Your money, your education, your religion, and your health are safe with us. We have them and you, all sewn up in one simple number, your number, your Personal Identification Number. It's foolproof and can be read by a simple hand scanner or a nifty 5G tower, and once you have one, you can get back to business again. How would you like it administered, card, phone or perhaps a vaccination? Don't worry about side effects. It's all for a good cause remember...our cause.

Revelation 13:16,17 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

HOW GOES THE WAR GENERAL

(Jesus:) Mr Kennedy is yet another pawn in the hands of the Antichrist. People are confused by the goings-on in the world because they do not realize how deeply the Antichrist has penetrated world politics.

National politics has taken a quantum leap. The future is here. Domestic governance, on a world-wide scale, has mutated into a network of mini-governments. These are linked to a system central brain, comparable in many ways to what Google has done with the internet.

The masses have not quite caught up with what has transpired. They somehow still believe that if they protest something good will follow. To quote the now well-known adage: "People act like they have a choice. You don't have a choice. Normalcy only returns when we've largely vaccinated the entire global population." (Bill Gates) It's shocking. It's a bitter pill, but he speaks the truth. Our sense of freedom rises in righteous indignation. But, until we yield, we will stay locked down. Welcome to the new normal. Welcome to the new world order.

What do the protesters expect to gain? They, us, we —live within a system that is totally owned by the Elites. Look around you: the infrastructure is financed by Elites and governed by governments that owe these same Elites almost all the money that is presently in the world. The only thing "the people" could remotely call their own, is their free will and majesty of choice. However, when people turn away from the Bible, God and faith, what are they choosing?

Your country is now under democratic dictatorship. Actually, it's been like that for some time, but now the illusion is being lifted because a point of no return was reached. What changed at that pivotal point was this: Certain men, the really big shakers of international affairs —not politicians mind you, for they are mere puppets in the hands of these certain men— had been looking for a "key", and once found, their plans could begin moving ahead in earnest. Around 1960, the former Secretary General of NATO, Paul Spaak, said, "We do not want another committee, we have too many already. What we want is a man of sufficient stature to hold the allegiance of all the people and to lift us up out of the economic morass into which we are sinking. Send us such a man; and whether he be God or devil, we will receive him!"

These certain men have spent their lives and astronomical amounts of money grooming their man for world leadership. He, they foolishly believe, will be their "paid and owned man" at the top. Little do they realize that this man is not your run-of-the-mill politician. These powerful men, thinking themselves to be so smart, are falling into the biggest faux pas ever devised. The master himself, behind the scenes at present, is setting them all up for a very big fall. That part is yet to come. ...wait for it.

Right now the people are being forced to give up their democratic rights in favor of getting their lives back to normal. Corona has been only one tool, albeit a very useful one, to force the people toward the Red Sea of dictatorship. Once there, they will be trapped.

I have strategically placed My prophets along the sea shore. They are there to call those that will believe to follow them into the portal that lies open, their only way of escape, the Red Sea itself. The Keys of the Kingdom play their part here also.

What those that rally around men like Mr Kennedy don't see, is that their system is already stacked against them. They are already trapped. There is no real freedom of thought, religion or choice because they gave that up long ago when they rejected the only true source of freedom, Me. I died to set them free, but instead they chose to listen to the men of power and influence. The "great falling away" has been accomplished, and now the world is looking, nay, scrambling after a savior. Look how they flock after Mr. Kennedy and Mr. Icke, and others like them.

We, the people, are almost ready for the grand entrance —the man himself, the last Caesar. The ploy is working marvelously. Satan, the master strategist, has duped everyone. Even the soon-to-be, one world leader, Caesar himself, will soon realize, that not even he is strong enough, smart enough, firm enough, or popular enough to hold the attention of the whole world. So he will opt for the only solution open to him: full possession. By the way, those prophets I mentioned earlier, they too know the game plan because I told them a long time ago what was to transpire during these days of the End. So they, with their simple faith, also chose full-possession. The big difference between the two possessions is, I offer it to those who want it, whereas Satan will force the world ruler, and he will force the people, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive his mark, his number. (Revelation 13:16-18) Now you may ask why people can't see this trap. Well if you back up a little, you will see that I have already shown you why. They rejected the truth so were sent strong delusion. (2 Thessalonians 2:3,11 & 12). They chose the things of this world over Me.

Anyway, the trap is almost set to snap shut. All the governments of this world are now beholden to the main arm, the strong international arm. This was accomplished through their greed for filthy lucre. The borrowers are, as My Word warned, slave to the lender. It is merely a matter of time before all will be brought to toe the "main party line". Hold on, My children. We are gathering at the Red Sea. It won't be long now.

1 JOHN 3:16

(Jesus:) Graduation day, My love, you are moving into the big league where the big boys are duking it out with Satan's boys. Welcome!!! Here, take this sword, and strap on this buckler. These things here are for your shins. The devil loves to cut the feet out from under My warriors, so if he tries, just jump, and jump high. The shin shields are in case you don't jump quite high enough. Try this helmet on for size. The chin strap is really important. If one of those fiery darts hits you from behind it may just knock the helmet right off of your head. But don't worry too much about those yellow bellies getting through My hedge of angels and spirit warriors; they have your back.

Training is almost up, and the war is going to start in earnest, so you haven't been a moment too soon. You're not late either, just on time to enroll for the war to end all wars, well, at least for this next millennium. The Battle of Gog and Magog is going to be a total rout for their forces. Oh, by the way, these are your lieutenant strips. Pin them on, but don't look to them to save you. They are more like weights of responsibility than anything else. Yep, that's right lieutenant, you are responsible to watch out for those younger than you and for those higher in rank too. In fact, an officer lives by the creed 1 John 3:16...Amen!

Happy birthday Lieutenant, the front line awaits. Take up your position. Here are your marching orders. There is your duffle bag, and here are your weapons. Keep them sharp, clean and well oiled. You are going to need them.

(Jesus:) Just as the World is accountable to My Words in the Bible, so will the Children of David be made accountable to the Words they were given through My Endtime prophet. Every generation, since the beginning of time, is made accountable. I send My prophets and teachers to each and every generation. They come in person, or as My written Word that is available to all, or as My still small voice in their hearts that directs them as they live their lives (2 Kings 22). Every man that cometh into the world has My light in his heart. (John 1:9). To say you are not beholden to the Word of God is self-righteousness. It is putting self above God. My return to Earth is imminent, and to many I will come as a thief in the night. I will come unexpected to those that have turned their backs on My Word. To those who listen still, to these I say, trim your lamps, keep them full of oil, for the night is upon you. With great wrath comes the tempter. Herald My soon coming! To those who have drifted away, I say, it is not too late to come out from the world. It is not too late to live by faith. The Keys have been given. Lift them out of their box, put them to use. Now is the time. Look not to man, for man is weak and unstable. If you are looking to those who once stood tall and strong in your midst, you will force Me to cut them down as the grass of the field. I do this out of love for My brides, My virgins who have turned to the world for their oil. I am a jealous God, but I give freely. I give free will and free choice, but now I am coming and will ask all to give account. (Matthew 25: 13-40).

Be as Hilkiah the high priest and go into the Holy of Holies, which is your heart, and find the Words of God again and read. To My Children of David: go also and find the Words of David and read. You will find accountability there, and you will find faith there. You will find the path of destiny there. It may be overgrown by the weeds and cares of this life. It may be full of the clutter of bad decisions and pottage. I stand at this crossroads pleading, "Take My hand. Take this lamp, the one you put down these many years. Take this oil, the oil of My Word. Fill your lamp. Take up the weapons that have been laid down. Lift the lamp now."

(Prayer:) The greater the darkness, the brighter the light that is needed, so it can be seen in the farthest places.

"Let your light so shine" You said.

I thought that meant turning on a little flashlight, or a blub in a nice building to attract people to come. But no, not now, not ever again will that be enough.

It's too dark. It's too late. It's too urgent.

Your need for them to come is too overwhelming and passionate. You need and want the hearts of all to come now.

Only intense heat and the flame of God burning in the hearts of those who know You will even begin to be enough.

I am not to merely hold the light, but to be the fuel that burns.

Lord, You are no longer to be as a torch in my hand, to be held by me, or used, or set down, or covered as I see fit, as I attempt to bring people to know You.

But I am to be as the rod of the torch in Your hands, and You can use me as You wish, to draw souls to You.

Your Spirit is the fire, and You are the hand that holds the torch. I place myself in Your hand so that Your light can be seen.

I need to be near You. I want to have Your light on me. I want to be held in Your hand. I want to be that close and never let go of. This way I will truly be useful.

A flower on the wayside is nice in the daytime, and it might cheer the hearts of the children that are allowed to walk merrily along. But it's no longer the daytime; it's night.

No one will see Your beauty shining in me if I only want to be a flower in the sunshine.

You need new tools.

You need burning hot ones, freshly lit from the coals of Heaven.

Yes, I want to be transformed into a rod in Your hands, dipped in oil and lit with fire.

No one will see me. It's too dark. But if they can only see Your fire burning on me and be drawn to You, that is enough.

It will be hot. I will get burned. And I know that without the light on me I look very common or worthless.

--An old charred bit of wood.

There is only one place that I am worth something, and that is in Your hands and lit aflame.

Burn in me, Holy Spirit of God, burn so that others can see the true light and be called to Your throne and can enter into the Kingdom of God.

I want to be one with You, be like You, shine with Your light, be used of You, and be very near You, always, dear Jesus.

A VIVID DREAM

It was this bank of sorts. Anyone who wanted access to the interior part of it—such as visiting someone who worked in that bank or going in to get access to something money related— had to have this vaccine shot thing. There were four to get before you were allowed to go, but I think it was all combined into a single shot.

There was this room at the entrance to the large bank building. It was sectioned off into all these rooms or wings. There were doctors and nurses in white coats, to give this injection to each new batch of people. They were forced to get it if they wanted to go in. This included babies. But I'm not sure ...maybe it was also a place to get it done, not just for going into the money building.

My husband and I were going in. I wouldn't normally have had to, but there was some reason, something I needed to be there for, so both he and I were in the room, or the part of the room that was sectioned off, to get it.

We were going on that day, to access something in room or account or something that was number 1111. (I had this dream on the night of 11-11-2020)

Everyone in the room was very desperate. They knew there was a big risk that this shot would be something very bad and harmful to them. It seemed almost a spirit of prayer. And "they" allowed it. They let people feel that desperation and gave time for sober contemplation. But there was no other way, at all, that you'd be allowed to go in without it.

While waiting and feeling sobered and really not wanting this thing, not wanting to give place to having this done to me, I asked my husband, "Remind me again, why we are doing this?" He replied, "To have our livelihood" etc. So I gather that to have any access to funds at all, you had to have this injection.

So we entered this vaccination room, filled with people and the white coats, nurses, etc. We had to thoroughly "sanitise" our hands. I put this stuff on them and was lathering and rubbing and rubbing it in, but there was so much it was taking a while to get it all absorbed. It was thick and light brown. It was evaporating, but being absorbed. The injection couldn't take place until the hand procedure was done. This gave me time to think and pray while waiting.

I was so desperate in prayer, as it seemed unless a miracle happened, who knows what harm it would do to us. So I lifted up my arms in prayer and crying and speaking in tongues. Again, no one cared or stopped me. The whole room was in a sober and desperate attitude, all praying in their heart at least.

There was a mother who had brought her twin babies in, and the babies were about to be jabbed.

“Oh, Heaven help! Heaven help us!” I said aloud, almost wishing my concern would stop it from happening, and at least my aloud verbal prayer would spare them whatever was to happen to them from it. I was horrified this was being done, and being forced on those babies.

That’s when I woke up. It didn’t happen to me yet.

I suppose you could choose to forsake it, I guess. I don’t know. In the dream, I had to be there for some legal reason, though I was unsure just why. I was just told I had to, and so I was there doing as I was told, along with everyone else.

(Jesus speaking:) It’s coming. The mark of the beast is coming, and those who are sealed for the system get access to its banks, its information, its money system, and all it offers. There is lots in this dream that can alert you. So stay tuned to a sin-ema near you where all this will be at your service.

There was still choice in the dream, but you just had to choose what system you wanted access to. There was freedom, for those choosing to get it, while they waited for it.

It showed men and women, babies and all, to show that all types “great and small” are to receive the mark. “Bound and free” were as those of you who were free to go or leave, but there were those working in the bank whose family had to come there to see them. “Rich or poor” was shown by your husband who had funds, and you who didn’t, but you still had to get it—or were compelled to.

To reach certain goals you will be compelled to do it their way. No other way but to do it.

But there is another way, the God way. (...more to be said and received...I’m sure.)

(Jesus:) As for the thousands of tracts your team has gotten out all over this country. Well, only in Heaven will you see the final result. But you see, it takes work and prayer and faith to beat down the lie. It takes us here in the spiritual realm working alongside each tract and each witness and each article that people read on the internet, convincing and adding small and sometimes big thoughts to the mix. There is a great work going on in the spiritual realm to bring about great resistance among the people. I tell you, My love, that the great tribulation is just around the next bend, and it will be mostly about the puppet governments of this world trying to force the citizenry of the world to take the vaccine/mark/number/ID. Your part is to not let your zeal run away with you. Allow us to work on their hearts as you go about as inconsequentially as possible sowing the seed. Keep a cap on the zeal for now as it could very well set off a false start to this final lap. Be prayerful, watchful, patient and full of faith. Always keep in mind that we too know how to set traps, and we have lots and lots of them set up all around the world. Traps for God’s sheep and also traps for Satan’s boys, so...shhhh, don’t give away the gins’ locations.”

(Jesus:) The enemy is about to loose an even greater wave of violence and confusion upon the world in an attempt to destabilize the entire population of the planet. Most will bend the knee a little further. Some knees will go all the way to the floor. Some will remain standing, but will be visibly shaken. There will be a few, a very few, a small select few, that will not waver as this gust hits the world.

These are those that have anchored themselves in My Word. They obeyed when I called from the poop deck, “All hands on deck, batten down the hatches, all loose tackle away, safety lines secured.”

Let the other captains of other ships do what they will, but My crew must listen to Me and Me alone. They must get all their directions straight from My lips. If they are unsure of the command or the sound of the pips, then they must ask immediately for a repeat order.

We are heading for open sea. No, we are not looking for safe havens. The time for that is over. If out of fear, you run your ship behind this island or that island, I warn you that this storm will sweep the island and the bays and the coves and any mountains on that island with force, its fingers searching and seeking all who are not tied down. It will even search and try those that are tied down. Rage is what is coming, and this rage will only increase as it discovers dissenters or resisters or rebels.

Yes, My courageous ones, we are heading out to open sea. We must face this storm head on. Not in your strength or in your might, but in the power of God, we will run into the hurricane.

Listen to My commands. Your earpieces must stay on and in your ears at all times. Listen and then obey. Do not allow the carnal mind to reason or analyze situations. I warn you: situations will often not be as they seem. The great confusion is upon the world. What you see and hear is what Grandmother's warning prophecy was speaking of. This is the great confusion, and nothing seems right. What is up? What is down? Why is there a lockdown when there is no virus? How can "they" wield such power over people? As if by magic, the masses sway this way and that. I say an unstable man is like the seas driven by the wind and tossed. Stand on a cliff overlooking the sea on a blustery day and watch those crazy waves all topped with foam and froth tossing themselves against the rocks or beach below. This is mankind now. They were deceived and threw off the safety line of My Word many years ago, thinking that the sunny days and prosperity would continue. "Peace and safety, all things continue as they were," cried the false captain, the false Christ.

When the inclement weather has served its purpose, the worker of false miracles will raise his hands, and as if by magic, the wind will stop. The howling tempest will dissipate as if by some mighty omnipotent hand. The world will wonder after this usurper as they take the number.

I have said this before, and I will continue saying this because I am the true Christ, the true Shepherd that has gone out into the storm to search for the lost. I must...therefore you must because you are on My ship, heading out into the storm to find the lost in the sea of humanity.

Yes, the waves are big out there. The maneuvering is tricky, but I tell you, My brave ones, My called and chosen, I have never lost a vessel whose crew listened to Me, who obeyed when I called. Although they may have come home with broken sails, they all returned safely to port. Shore leave is cancelled, My crew. Everyone to their stations, no slackness, check those safety lines now. I don't want to lose any man overboard. The swell is rising...

(Spirit Helper) War gets messy, and it can seem like we are losing sometimes. I spend most of my time fighting for souls. It's not an easy job as Satan can seem to be claiming a lot of lives. But I fight and fight and fight. I do not surrender even though children of David go back into the world, and even when it seems there is loss, I fight on. I fight on for the souls, for the lost, and I do not stop. Satan's team are fighting, so I dare not stop. I need your prayers to empower me in my fight. I need greater access to their minds, and your Key-powered-prayers do that for me. My name is Knoc, so whenever you remember to pray for the lost, pray for me and give me access to their hearts and minds. I need help with my mission. I have a hard job, and I see what many people would call great losses to the kingdom. It's a bitter fight, but I chose it because I know the victories outweigh the defeats. I was created in the tears of our Savior on the day He was killed for mankind. That was the day my mission began, and I have been fighting ever since. I too long for the Millennium when people will all be taught to do right. But now is war. Now does my fight continue. Pray for me; I need your prayers. Fight for them with me, and let us not surrender. Call for me to reach out to those who receive a witness, and I will be there for them. I have many missions all over the world, so please aid me with your Key prayers.

(Jesus:) You see what is happening in the world. The elites are on a fast track to the end. Of course they don't realize that it is the end. They think it is a fast track to their empire, their dream of having the entire world population tagged, pegged down and under their control. They want to be free to run things as they like. The virus has worked even better than they thought. There are so many systemites, so many who are married to the things of this world, who worship the god of this world, materialism and these fall into the AC trap so easily. They listen to what they are told because it is easy, and they are used to going by what they can see. It's easy to work for the things of the world and the things that are "seen" It's harder to work for the unseen and to work in such a way that you don't even see any results from your work or witnessing. That takes faith. The only result you have is My "Well done" and knowing that you are building up treasures in Heaven. So keep working for the things that are unseen. Those Keys are unseen, but they will be what keeps you and feeds you and protects you. The world will continue to go by what they can see...money and things.

(Jesus:) As you sit there in your quiet little haven, there is much happening in the world. The evil one is flexing his grasp on the world. He opened a little to get a better grip, but never actually let it go. He and the elites will do this a few more times before they really begin to tighten the fist and everyone feels the crunch and the squeeze. Right now they know that they are held tightly, but they can still wiggle and squirm and protest. But when the hand tightens, there will be no room to move —all opposition will be crushed. This is when you will need those Keys and that wilderness and when you will step up into My dimension. Continue to practice with the Keys and build your faith strong on My Keys in this time of peace. The storm is coming. Continue to be faithful to get out My Word. Warn any who will listen. Pour out like mad while you can, for the night is coming when it will be harder. But My Words will still continue to go out even then. So don't fear or worry or try to figure anything out. You are following Me and doing what I want you to do.

There are so many who have been sent strong delusion. This is a dangerous time to reject My truth. The slippery slope is very steep. Those who actually reject My truth in their minds are immediately infiltrated by the enemy's doubts and lies. The enemy makes his thoughts seem so reasonable, and they appeal to the carnal mind. What people forget is that the carnal mind is enmity against Me. So those who listen to him will drift away from Me and lose sight of the true reality. This is happening in the World at a rapid rate, but it is an attack that the enemy tries on you and your children as well. So you have a double battle. You must fight to wake up those out in the World, and you must also fight to keep ahold of that Heavenly vision.

(Jesus:) My Word is powerful. It is a living force in the spirit world, and it wields power in your world as well. It's like David said: words are real things. Look at the war that is being waged with words in the world right now. It is a war of words. Through tv, radio and the internet, the world is being brought into subjection with words. Of course the police and authorities are there to make sure people follow what is being said. But the real power to bring everyone into line isn't with the police. The real power is in the words that are constantly bombarding the masses until they are helpless to resist. It's like those words go into their minds and become their thoughts without them even realizing it. "It must be true," they say. No one even thinks about resisting. The words have done their work and most people fall into line.

If the enemy's words are powerful, then so are Mine. My Words go out and pierce the darkness, and when taken into the mind, they banish the lies and one can see clearly. They counteract the lies of the enemy as an antidote does to a poison. They shine a light and show all the things that the enemy would like to hide. When one reads My Words, it's like a light goes on and they can see, even if just for a moment. Then a choice must be made, to stay in the light or to return to the darkness.

(Jesus:) Something has indeed happened in the spirit. The whole world entered a new stage. The vaccine is going out. The stage was already set, now the plan is being enacted. The play has started.

The elites hold their breath as they send their evil vaccines all over the world. The system that they have set up is working well. The media celebrated the arrival of the vaccine in this country. On the surface it looks like the first world countries are helping the developing ones. But even the elites know that the surface layer is very thin. They are evil, and the evil ones that empower and guide them also know that so much more is going on. Only they are not counting on the power of the spiritual resistance. They know that some of their own people will be stubborn and resist the New World Order. But they don't realize that the resistance has a secret weapon...Me and My Word. It is war. They know it, and My forces know it. Even now they are lined up and are rushing to engage each other in many places. The clash will show itself in the physical very soon. Then you will know that I am God and that I am with you.

(Jesus:) The trap is indeed closing. Those with their eyes open can see it, but not many know the only way of escape. All you can do is trust Me and continue to follow Me. Keep being faithful to use your weapons; practice with them. That is the only thing that will really keep you safe from the trouble that's coming. The Word and the things of the spirit are your shield and your protection as well as your offensive weapon to attack the enemy's strongholds in the minds of men. Don't fear or try to figure things out. For vain is the help of man.

This vaccine coming into this country is but the first step. The pressure will come. The AC's will press their advantage. They have a government here that is totally willing to follow their agenda. So you can expect no protection or shelter there. But there will be resistance. There will be those who will be stubborn and will, for once, decide to stand up for something other than money. There will be those who will hear My voice in their hearts and will stand on what they know of My Word. There will also be those who have had the seed planted in their hearts by you. They have allowed that seed to be watered with My Word, and when the time comes to make a decision, they will choose right. They will realize the vanity and futility of the things of this world. Those who face the light will see the light, and it will give them strength to resist. But many will fall. They will have the strength to resist, but they don't have the weapons they need to thrive and get on without the system. But those who are connected with Me will see miracles.

(Jesus:) I have it all planned out, but rewards go for the winners. Who can endure the ridicule, suffering and temptation, yet not give in to the pressure but call out to Me in humble surrender and yieldedness to My plan? I'm watching. I'm keeping records. Your station of service in the future and the choices you get offered by Me have a lot to do with what you do with your choice now—both when it seems not much bad comes from the wrong choices and when it seems horrible things happen if you do what is right.

Don't only do what rewards you pleasurable now, for if you do that, you'll have a sorry awakening later. "What? Where are the rewards I thought I earned?"

"You chose the fleeting pleasures of life for a season. Now, are you ready to start again? Here is the first job. Work your way up. This time, make the right choices." I might say.

You'll be in for a rude awakening. "But I thought we were to be rulers, and now I'm just going to class?"

"Yep, that's right. You didn't pay attention to the classes and lessons I sent your way, and you flunked most of the tests too. You just did what felt right at the time, and now you have to learn all that you should have and could have been learning then."

Don't fritter your time away with foolish pursuits and frivolities and froth and folly. There's a job to be done, and he who does it well will reap much in the end. I can assure you of that. Be wise, and keep your eyes turned to Me, your Lord and Creator, for only I know what is best that you use your time and energies for. Let Me be the boss of your life and time and work and all you pursue. If you are a good learner and fast follower, then I can trust you to lead others one day.

The background of the entire page is a celestial scene. At the top, a glowing blue and white Earth is held gently by two large, reddish-brown hands. The hands appear to be emerging from a dark, starry space. Below the hands, the background transitions into a deep blue and purple nebula with wispy clouds and scattered stars. The overall mood is serene and cosmic.

~EARTH~

THE TESTING GROUND

“This Earth and your short life here is a testing ground, there are no two ways about it. There's no way to come to Earth, learn what you need to learn, grow in the ways your spirit needs to grow, experience what you need to experience, and accomplish what you need to accomplish without this sore, painful testing. That's the Earth life. That's life experience on Earth, and that's why what you learn during your life on Earth is so valuable--irreplaceable, really--because it's so hard earned “

(Grandpa:) It doesn't matter whether you are the minority, and everyone tells you that you're useless, insignificant, and accomplishing nothing. What the hell do they know?! Who cares if it seems like no one sees you now and all your efforts seem to be unseen? They'll see you all soon enough when Jesus puts you on stage and shines His spotlight on you in the last days! You'll be glad then for this peaceful time of seclusion with no one watching your every move. Who cares if you're the minority and no one seems to care what it is you do, and what it is you stand for? They'll all very soon have to care whether they like it or not, because He's going to make you all into His kings and priests and rulers and queens! And then they'll all have to sit up and take note. Then, what you have learned about the Law of Love will become the law of the land, and everyone will have to learn it. It may not seem too important now; but really, we were never fighting for the Now! Jesus said in His Word that He was making the COD into a whole new Culture. What culture is that? The Culture of the Millennium! We don't care about this old, filthy Earth—we're just passing through, further up and further in, onto a New World! All that we're doing, all that we're fighting for, is for that Place, and for that Person—JESUS! We don't give a damn if those snobbish fools look down their noses at us! What do they have in comparison? Pride, selfishness, greed, and lust! And a world that's passing away into oblivion! You may feel insignificant now and what you're learning and giving your life for may seem insignificant, but just wait until the Real World comes, the Everlasting World, then what you have learned will be the most important thing and will propel you far ahead of all the rest who held onto their Earthly cultures. What you're learning now is the most important thing in the whole Universe because it's eternal, it's forever, and it's going to take over the world and cover the whole Earth! Don't get discouraged with the seeming lack of results—because your spiritual progress is tremendous!

THE HOUSE OF DAVID

(Jesus:) You are of the house of David, the house of faith.

For now, My loves, Earth is your training school, your academy. It is My officers training school. It is open for admission anytime, for anyone whom I have called. However not many desire to enter this school. Many know it is here in the spiritual realm, yet so many choose not to register. There are others also, that know it is here: those that despise what is happening here. These are full of jealousy and hatred toward you and the choices you have made. These are those that felt cheated, who allowed pride and envy to creep into their hearts at the time the plans for this school were unveiled. These are those that were called to remain as servants within My Kingdom. Nonetheless, everyone must pass through the course of servitude, and no one, not even I, your King, skipped this course. Angels, men, —all creation— must pass the course, for true happiness only comes through being a servant of all. Did not I say I am a servant of all? Yes, a life of service to others is the alabaster box of fine ointment that makes those who break the box smell so good, and as its aroma is released, it permeates the world around those box-breakers. Break the box and let the golden elixir of humility pervade the lives of others. Eventually the whole world will be saturated.

The jealous ones fight a hopeless fight. Love always wins in the end. These ones will either yield to this great order or be consumed by their own pride. I have told you before that you are now fighting these ones for the sake of the Kingdome to come. You My children, the rulers to come, are fighting for your subjects. You are fighting the jealous ones, and their jealousy has no reason. They are bound by pride and hatred, and their intent is to destroy all My plans, not only My plans, but the Earth itself and all who dwell upon it. Only I can save the garden of God, and I will, but you must do your part to win those who are lost before My return, those wandering ones lost in the desert of sin. Announce My arrival, this is your commission as My ambassadors, tell the world of My soon arrival. Prepare the hearts of all, both good and evil for the soon coming of the King of kings.”

(Jesus:) In Heaven you saw what a great disaster pride was to Satan. You saw and understood what pride could do to you if let in and entertained just a little, and you were determined not to allow it to happen to you. You asked Me what you could do to get as far away as you could from such a dirty thing and what quality I wished to see shine the most out of you and I told you.... you saw and understood that only by being ever so close and in love with Me could you have the power to resist this trap. You asked, "How do I long for You even more than I already do? How do I imprint You on my heart so deep that nothing, no temptation could ever remove You from me?" I pulled you aside and told you of a place, a place where great lessons were learned and where great progress was made. You knew it well... Earth.

“There is no slipping under the net or past the teacher in spiritual school. When the pressure is on, the cracks will show. When it is time to grow, the hand of the teacher is firm and steady. “

(Jesus:) Now if you learn to live in love while you are here, that's like being in training for government positions later on. Those who don't think like the devil's world system, and who don't do things in the evil way, but who choose to step outside of the way of the world and do things Heaven's way, they can be given places of honour. They can help Me to rule in love, because they used their life practicing and learning My ways. But if you just go along with the wickedness and want to get the benefits from those who reward the wicked, ungodly, and selfish actions, then you'll have a whole lot of lessons to catch up on—rather than being someone I can depend on to teach. See, to make things all snug and comfortable for yourself now —your little piece of Heaven now— will cost you later. But if you can give up the temporal enjoyment of petty joys in order to do something hard that needs to be done, then when it's time for comfort in My arms and in My Kingdom, I'll see that you get what is rightfully yours and times it by a hundred fold. How's that?

THE KEY OF VANISH

(Prayer:) I love You, darling Lord Jesus. You are so incredibly amazing, and the endearing, enduring love You have for me just astounds me. You have so much patience at the repeated falls I take: the same old mistakes, the same old weaknesses and yet...there You always are with a smile on Your beautiful face with outstretched arms... wanting me. Your love truly is unfathomable. I don't know why You put up with me, but You do and...I'm so thankful You do. You keep me going. The hope that You have for me wants me to try yet again, one more time. That look on Your face, I just can't resist! It picks me up off the ground and helps me to take the next step and to just wanna be more like You ...so kind and forgiving, so gentle with me. You look past my many sins over and over. Please Darling, help me, despite my SELF, which continually gets in the road, walks in front of me on the path and blocks me from moving forward. These sins are tiresome and so icky but stick to me like glue. Please take them from me. Pour Your healing solvent on me, sweet Love. Set me free to move forward, so I can be all You want me to be for You. It is my one desire, my one wish, but it is so hindered over and over. It's annoying, Lord. I annoy myself no end. Put a knife in the me that is so distasteful, Jesus. Why is it so hard to rid oneself of these most undesirable, hateful traits of SELF? Why must I cling to them so tightly? Jesus, rid me of the despicable pride that is just ruining everything good You are trying to do in me and through me...wait... ahh... it's another step, isn't it? ...to fading away, to disappearing. Help me. Help me now, please. I hold up the Keys of freedom, freedom from self and pride and self- righteousness. Help me to disappear into You and to be content to be unseen, so You can be seen. And the Keys of VANISH. Beautiful ! Thank You Jesus, You always have the answer. You always make a way out. Help me to grab ahold of those Keys.

(Jesus:) You are all unlikely candidates who have had to overcome pretty big obstacles, on-going ones at that. You've learnt much through the struggles —much, much truth. You've had to discard so many earthly ways and thoughts that you thought were normal, only to come to an amazing revelatory truth - -and that is that being here in this Earth realm is nothing about the Earth life! You are actually not even part of it and were never meant to be. It's like you are realizing that you aren't even who you thought you were. Like an alien. The more you find out, the more you feel you so totally don't belong and don't even want to belong to this rat-race, this sham, this scam. Yes, it's just one big scam!! What a ruse! Whoa, have we, the people, been hood-winked!.

But, no...I see a few...a motley bunch ...that is drawing to them other misfits, others that have never fit in either. They are being drawn to the waters... to new-blood waters —what some would perceive to be strange, magical, unearthly waters —audacious even! These waters came as a trickle at first and tasted funny in the beginning, but now you have become addicted and no other will do. They are alive, living waters, which carry the breath of My spirit, and as you drink them, they make you more other-worldly. They take you further, more and more, deeper and deeper into My realm and less and less in the earthly one. You wish for those distant shores that don't seem so far away anymore, and you have more of an understanding of My purpose and why you are there --to learn to be the leaders I need for re-training the Earth during the Millennium. It's like I am giving you new insight, a deeper understanding of the workings of the spirit world. You are letting go more, and so I pour in and fill up those spaces with the deeper truths that were hidden before. You can feel it. You can sense it, like you are on the verge of the revealing of a secret, a new revelation.

My darlings, it is My reward to you, who have tried so very hard to shed all the ways of the world that would hinder or hold you back from Me revealing more to you. There have been times when you've taken good hard looks at yourselves and seen that you've needed to let go of certain wrong ways, like your pride and all the ways it manifests or your self-righteousness or selfishness and other unloving ways, in order for Me to use you more and be who I want you to be and how I want you to be. This is now producing fruit in the pouring out of New Wine. Just like that quote from yesterday. Because of your faithfulness to keep persevering after My will each step of your journey, you are finally seeing, seeing what He wants you to do and who He wants you to be. You know you are flesh, but you can feel the magic at work. The veil, My doves, is opening wider for you. You are catching more and more glimpses. Soar now, on My winds of change across the mountain peaks, through the rain and storm and into My glorious light.

God sometimes has to destroy what we THINK we are or what we think we're SUPPOSED to be or what we think we SHOULD be or do, in order to get us to do what HE wants us to do & make us what HE wants us to be. (Self-Righteousness! [#2140])

(Jesus:) For some of you, the Millennium will be about people handling. So much of what you are learning now, here, in your very primitive, befuddled, earthly way, without the powers that you will have then, is about that. These experiences are vital and necessary for you to be the emissaries that I wish for you to be. Now, you are having to learn manually, like with a stick shift, but then it will be with fully computerized brain, heart and mind operations. Now, you don't understand all the whys and wherefores of what people do until you actually talk to them. Even then, it's not so easy to find out because of pride and sensitivity and whatnot, and there seems to be so many misunderstandings. But as with a car, it is always better to learn how to drive on a manual car. You need to learn the hands-on, manual way of love and interactions and communications. As I had to come to Earth to experience what you feel and go through, you too must learn these basics if you want to rule and reign with Me.

(Spirit helper) In your correspondence with the other (earthly) Warrior Band members, I give you a little taste of how it will be in the Millennium. You don't personally know them as Earth beings. You only know parts of their spirits: the parts they've revealed to you. You love their spirits. You love the "real" them. You don't know the 'flesh,' but you are getting to know the spirit. Your spirits resonate, and you soar together when you connect through your letters, thoughts, trials, prophecies, their sense of humor, etc. You are getting to know their spirit, inside of them but without all the fleshly ways and characteristics that can be so hard to understand.

Because you can't get into each other's heads yet, there is so much room for error, of guessing wrong what that other person is doing or thinking... Why she did that, what does she mean by saying that? etc, etc. You don't really know each other here in this realm, not truly. Even you can't know your closest mate and what he thinks and feels all the time, and even after being together for so many years, you can still not fathom his thoughts about some things. But when you know Kaye only through the spirit, there are no social interaction problems to get in the way. You really get to know someone this way. So this is the realm He has sent us to, to learn people handling, so that we know all the ins and outs of the human and what to watch out for.

NEW WINE...IS A VITAL PART OF OUR JOURNEY

(Jesus:) My Word is the Key to every level of life and growth in the realm of the Spirit. Only through hearing, receiving, and living My Word can you grow and become all that I wish to make you. Yes, there are different levels of faith, and each level is the way it is through the acceptance of the truth I wish to pour out. I have put the seed of growth, of desire for Me and My ways and deep truths in every man, yet I take them down this road one step at a time. I do not force them, and I don't usually drop it all on them at once. I take them one step at a time, but the goal is always a deeper and closer walk with Me. How high they climb is up to them. How high My children of David climb is up to them. My Words of David go high, and this is a great gift to My children of David, yet they must continue. They must choose each day to climb higher, one step at a time. The future awaits, My dear loves, and there is so much to learn.

(Jesus:) So keep things fresh by continuing to allow Me to pump you with My fresh, hot New Wine, My seeds of life that will keep you moving and fighting! Only I have the whole road map to the goal, to the end. Yes, I've given you the Bible, and by it you can see the beginning to the end, but what about all the little personal battles and choices along the way? What about the turns and the day-to-day direction? Life is not just one straight road to the end. There are twists and turns, ups and downs. I may even ask you to backtrack to teach you something new. Hearing from Me can even get you access to bonus lessons that you wouldn't have seen otherwise and will give you much joy in the Kingdom to come. I've set it up so that you have a need to come back to Me and ask directions. It's set that way so that you can learn and grow the way I would have you grow, instead of just going along with a general direction and general counsel. There's so much that My New Wine, My living Word, My gift of prophecy can do for you. My New Wine is like the key to a portal that allows you to see into the Heavenly Culture. Then you can see things firsthand and take them down and benefit from them. You can try to only use the written Word to make your way and feel things out, but you'll make a lot of unnecessary mistakes, and you'll be learning the hard way if you don't stop and get personal with Me. It's not that My written Word isn't enough to get you through life, because it is, and I'll still be happy with you if you do just that, but unto him whom much is given, much is required. Not only does the Bible give you access to the Key of Prophecy, but I have opened yet deeper depth to this gift through your Father David. To reject that is to turn your back on the plow I have given you, which would mean a great loss to My Kingdom and to you personally. Not only that, but the gift of prophecy is like a Key to a chest full of spiritual riches. To reject that is foolishness. My New Wine keeps you living and keeps you from becoming familiar with My Word. If you're faithful to come to Me each day to hear My Words, I tell you I will give you new things that will keep things changing and keep you on the right path.

(Jesus:) The mistake each generation of new-bottle Christians makes is that they settle down, satisfied with what they have. They become tired in spirit and accept the lie that there are no more worlds to conquer. My spirit is always expanding, growing and changing. I am always challenging My brides to reach higher, to stretch their faith and gain greater heights in the spirit. To move higher in spirit takes New Wine. I have cellars full with all sorts of wines: sweet, dry, fortified, white, and red. I've got hot and spicy wines that zap, wines for space travel, wines for loving, and wines for leaders, as well as for followers. But all My wines are designed for spiritual growth. There isn't anything wrong with My wines. I have the best vineyard and winery in the universe. The problem is the container, the wine skin, the bottle. Some bottles, after reading the Bible, stop visiting My winery. Some stop after David's letters, some after Maria's letters, but there are some bottles who never say it is enough. These are they that I can take to higher heights. These ones come to realize that My winery is always making new vintages and always preparing New Wine for the new and upcoming generation. I am not only making wine for each generation, but I am making special wine for those that are to be My wine bearers to that new generation. I also prepare wine for each age as well as wine for all the steps and stages in between. How silly and immature it is to think that I only make one type of wine or that I am out of the wine business altogether. The wine that I am making now is powerful Endtime vintage. What is not drunk now will be stored and drunk by future generations. Of course it won't have the same effect on the drinkers a thousand years from now, but it's like the Bible stories: they are thousands of years old, yet still hold their flavour and have a powerful effect on those that drink whilst in the spirit. So hold out your cups and bottles. Bring as many as you can to Me because I do not stop pouring. I am also watching those that bring their vessels, for these are the ones who will get the fruity and zesty Millennial wines. These wines are for the leaders. I am choosing now, those that will be well filled and ready. I love to see you quaff down My brews. I love to see you tipsy and even drunk on My wines. I love to take loving advantage of you when you are tipsy on My New Wine. You, My New Wine wives, are so sexy and tantalizing. Yes Ma'am, I'm not the only One taking advantage here. You too are taking advantage by being first in line for the best wine on the market. Yes, it costs, and the price can be high for some of the rarest vintages. Some cost your life, in fact, given to Me in wild abandon. You who give until there is nothing left get to taste from My private bin. This wine takes you deep into My spirit and you get to see things that others don't get to see and experience.

So what am I up to now? I am serving wine of preparation, an Endtime brew made for My witnesses. Drink deep, My loves, for this wine will get you through the dark days ahead. It is light and fruity and will light your way ahead. The fruity flavour will keep you upbeat and positive during the difficult faith-testing times as you pass through those dark days of the Endtime. I am also sending wine from My Millennial cellars. These wines are preparing those that will lead the troops into the Millennium. Those that drink of these wines will be chosen to show the way. They will have at least some idea of what is to be expected as the first days of the New Beginning dawn. Do you want to be one of those that know the way forward then? Okay, drink up that brew in your hands and lift up your cup and ask for more fresh, New Wine from the Master Winemaker."

(Spirit Helper:) Train up a child in the way he should go. The infusion of culture starts at birth. The earthly and the Heavenly cultures and their ways begin to war with one another in a person's life as soon as he or she is born. Some parts of the earthly culture must be learned in order to live and work in this earthly plain, but the majority of what a person sees and learns is just habits, ideas, mindsets, and ways of the World. Each person is a spirit, and each spirit came from God. The slate is clean, and the training begins at day one. It's so easy to pick up the ways of the World, for the flesh is bound to the World but the spirit to the Heavens. Each person must choose which he will feed, flesh or spirit. One cannot escape the ways of the World, for even the act of breath and the reliance on food is a part of the earthly culture. They must only choose how they will combat them. There are two roads a man can walk, Satan's way or Jesus' way. Satan's way is to corrupt and to tear down all that which Jesus created for good and create darkness in its place. The Lord's ways are the high ways, not always easiest, but they are the way to bring all creation back to the light, to love, to true happiness and Godly living.

(Blue Bear, a Blue Angel:)

Why do you conform to the World, ye men of little faith? Why do you not suck harder from the bosom of your Heavenly Father?

Do you not want to be satisfied with the life-giving milk of His love?

Or is it that you have grown slothful and familiar with Him —just waiting for Him to feed you like a little invalid or a blind, deaf and dumb baby?

You say that you want shepherds to take care of you, but lo and behold, can you remember what Jesus said?

"I am the Shepherd that gives His life for His sheep. I am the way to the Father. I am the way, the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father but by Me"

And there it is! So why don't you get out of your comfort zone and get shepherding from the truest shepherd Himself.

Jesus is calling His sheep day and night. He is pouring out His spirit to all flesh.

"For as many as received Him..." What did He do? "To them He gave Power" and what power is that? "I am the 'Life' of the World".

Life of the World! Light of the World.

It's only Jesus, not man!

But you love your idols, yes? You love to worship what you can see with your carnal eyes, yes?

Well, I can also see that you love to be treated like handicapped people! You act like you can't do it! "It's too hard!"

Well, just so you all know, this soft carpet where you are sitting in comfort, will soon be pulled out from beneath your bottom, and then you will slap your face against the hard concrete. Let's see if you are ready for that.

My brothers, I am not trying to be evil with you. I love you just like Jesus does, that's why I must be honest with you and the whole world. You sit so comfortable, thinking that if you keep on waiting, you might just get away without being noticed and get the benefits without doing the difficult, boring and humbling job.

But remember, this is what you signed up for. You were sent here, to this Earth, by your own will. You asked for this purge, and you got what you asked for here on this Earth, but then you cry because it gets too hard to bear.

But isn't it better to just follow the Shepherd when He calls, and let Him teach you?

He is the best Teacher of all, the best Lover of all, the best Father of all.

And the best thing of all is that He is eternal life and happiness, freedom, joy, ecstasy, beauty, peace and more.

He is the fixing medicine for every broken heart, mind and body.

He is the Way, the Truth and the Life.

~EARTH LIFE O'ER~

“The spiritual and physical realms are joining, merging. The battles of the spirit will be manifested more clearly in the physical, and the decisions and actions taken in the physical realm will have a greater and more immediate impact on the happenings of the spirit. It works both ways. The great climax of this merging will occur when I return in the clouds--a very spiritual event, manifested in a very physical, real way! It will be the ultimate orgasm for My brides to be raptured with Me, even those that are dead returning to join in the momentous event. It will be a great defeat for the forces of Satan--in both the spiritual and physical realms.”

CALL OF LOVE BRING ON THE RAPTURE

(Jesus:) So much of Earth life is to aid you in the next. What did you come to Earth to learn? Primarily to love, and to love Me above all. But more than that, you came to learn about My strong and passionate, go-the-distance love for you.

When you trust in My love, then you can have a more fruitful and inspiring Heavenly life. Trusting in My love is a very big part of your life, now and forever. And having a chance for us to build up a solid foundation of love, one layer at a time, one experience at a time, is very beneficial in the next.

Here we sit in our nest of love. You are nestled and cared for and provided for. Here I will protect you.

Keep the fires of our love burning and kindle them through our times of passion, and so will you ever be learning about the ways of loving the King. For there are many ways to do this. This is only one, yet a very needed way to love Me. It is so needed because in loving Me, in rejoicing and in delighting to love with Me in very passionate ways, you are calling for the King of Love to take over the world.

It is this love call that stirs Me to break through your veil and reveal Myself. It compels Me to come into your world and to take you away and to make you Mine. If there was no need for love, if none on Earth longed for the greatest Lover of all time to come and make her His bride, then what need would there be for Me to come?

If the things of the world “did it” for you, if all the materialism and the lovers that this world uses to try to reach some sort of climax were sufficient for all, then why would I need to come and invite you to the greatest marriage feast of all? I wait to hear the voices of My lovers calling me. Those who forsake the world are as if they are calling me. Those who cling to the so-called satisfactions that this world tries to replicate don’t urge on My coming.

Why must it be just at the right moment when I show up? Well, when does a man reach the moment of seed sowing and full passion? When He is aroused and has been loving for a little while. You can’t say it has to be at a certain second on a clock, but when both he and his bride are engaged in loving and have been going at it, and then when the time is ripe in his body and mind and soul, then he “comes”. And so will I too come when the love has reached a pinnacle, when you are loving Me all you can.

When My Bride is at swords’ points with the world and seems pinned into a corner, as the wicked ones try to work their vile way right into her, she screams out for a lover who is yet invisible. It seems crazy to trust in such a one, rather than to yield to her worldly oppressors and give up and just become their slave for violation. But as you, My Brides, call out for Me, I will come and slaughter all those who have been trying to violate your soul, and whisk you up in My arms, up and away to the greatest feast.

Would I have come so soon—quickly—if those on Earth, if all those on Earth whom I was hoping to be My Bride, were flirting with the troublemaker, making deals and working out prices for the use of her body and soul, and hardly calling for Me to be the only one inside of her and to be her Mate for eternity? No.

It’s when I hear both the cries of love and the cries for deliverance—a cry that wants none else but a Redeemer and Husband to both rescue and love again and again forever—that makes Me come quickly, as My Word says I will do.

When I hear the cries of love from the redeemed hearts, cries of “Only Love”, that I am their Only True Love for eternity, this speeds on My return, for I wish to make My Bride not wait too much longer. Why would I? Why would I see My Bride craving and craving for Me, and leave her unsatisfied? You must long for Me to come, and then you get to both see and feel Me in all the passionate ways you have been craving for.

Your cravings and words of desire show up in My catalogue of “Joys to be fulfilled”. And I see that they are. I call on My Knights of the Kingdom to see to it that what you have been earnestly longing for. Yea, even your whims are tended to. For you have been faithful to the end—even when there was no other option but to wait for Your Lord and Redeemer. When there were no other options besides either waiting or giving in to the wicked world system, you chose to wait and to go without, to prove yourself faithful to Me.

Oh, My darling ones, with passion will I now come. You don't want Me just to come, to come casually, and to act rather cold towards you. You don't want Me to just come in the heat of anger for the wickedness, but you want Me hot for your love and filled with great rejoicing. And so must it be that I hear your cries of longing, that I am your One true love, and then will My passions of longing for love be aroused, and come I will, in more ways than one.

This you know.

When I hear you longing for Me, then I am aroused to come.

Let Me not feel the cold of your indifference, of your being otherwise satisfied.

I want to be your only satisfaction. —“I and the children God gave me” I and My Host.

When I come, it's like Jacob returning again. This time with a Host and wealth and gifts. And how will you greet Me? I want to be kissed and embraced and loved. I want to be in your arms, not greeted with your “arms” (weapons) in opposition.

I want a band of lovers to love Me and to love those on My team. We meld, we unite. We are one. Call for the Lovers of David to come and to carry you through to the Bridal suite. And there we will make passionate love, all the more so because we have been through the fires and the floods together.

Our love will reach heights of rejoicing you have yet to even know exist.

Call for Me, My beloveds. I am not far off. Rip off your veil, and entice Me to be one with you. I will not linger long when love is in the voice of those calling for Me to come, to return. For the passion of love will be yet even stronger than a man's passionate desire to save and defend. A man's longing to heroically save a maiden in distress is strong and can be stirred up. But His passion to love a maiden who calls out for Him and Him alone, and longs for Him to come immediately to her, is much stronger. Combine those, and you get a rapture!

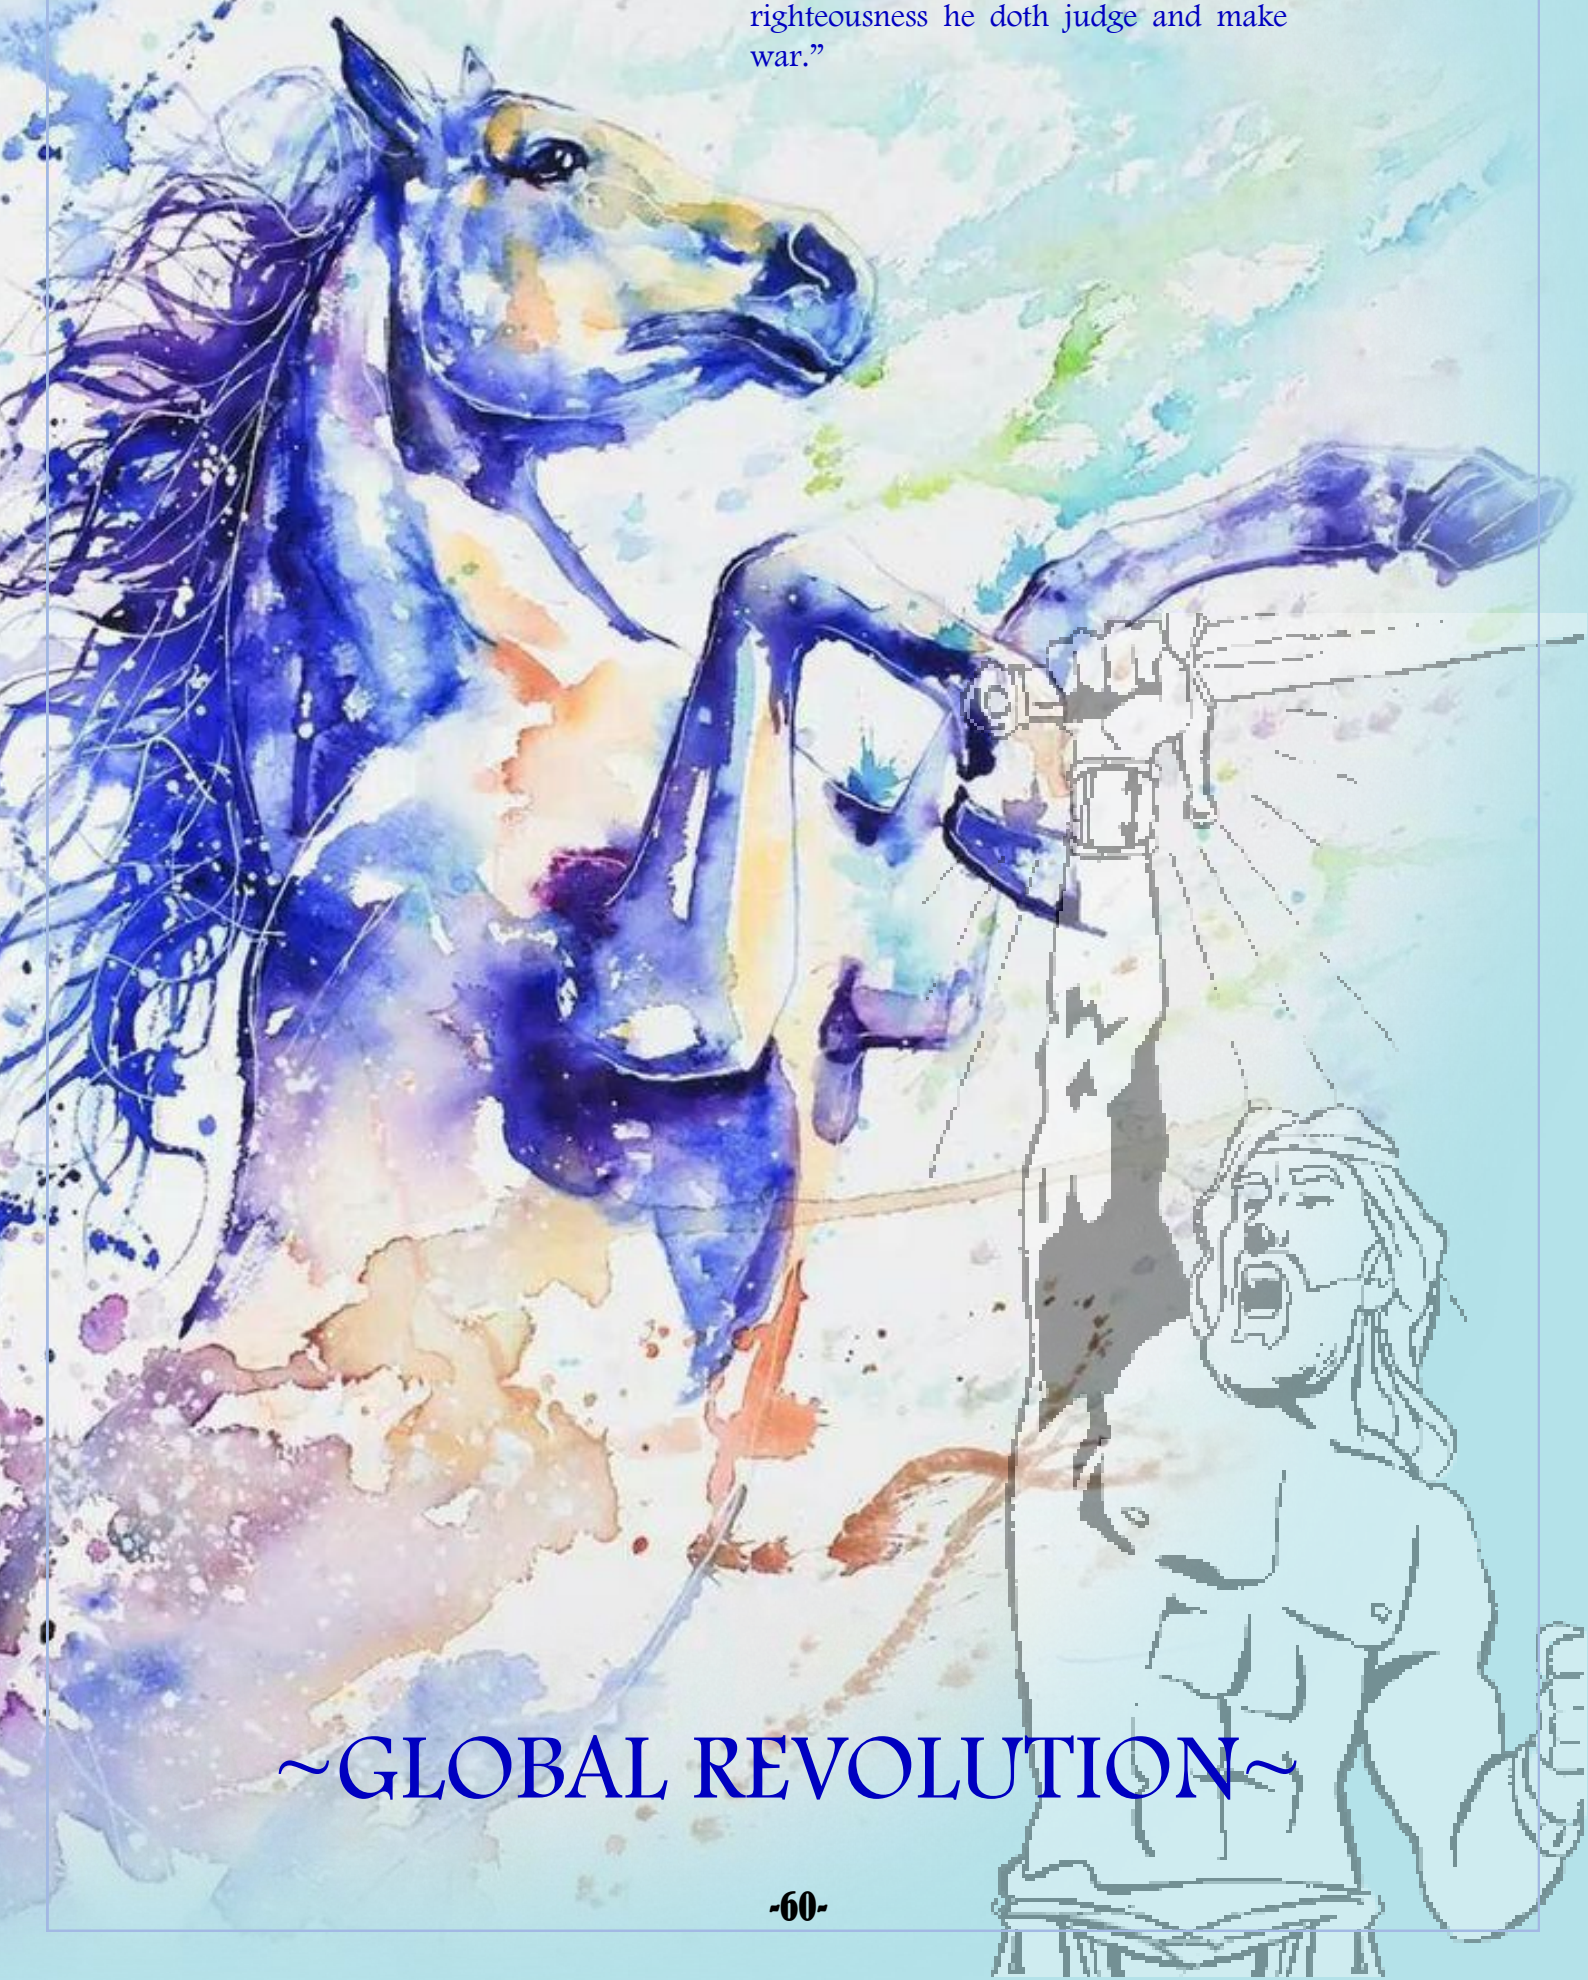

I'm coming. Do I hear your cries or just your sighs? And what cry would that be? Just a “Save me and make things nice for me” or “Do unto me as You wish, for I need You, Jesus, and You alone, for my passion will not be quelled with any but You.”

Call out in love, and you'll see a new side of Me that you half-hoped would exist, yet scarcely dared think it did. So it does, in fervor. I'll come alright, and you will be Mine.

(Spirit Helper) Not all spirits know of their true origins, their real homes—in the spirit world. Many in these last hours have been deceived and have had their vision clouded by the evil spirits and the carnal ways of Babylon, which tell them that this present world is all there is and that this is their home. But when the last trumpet sounds and all the dead in Christ rise, the veil will be torn open and the Spirit World revealed. Then will the blind eyes see and deaf ears hear the voice of the Bride and of the Bridegroom saying, Come! Come and see for yourself the Real World. Come and see and hear and know that all you have ever lived for was a lie, but now is come our salvation and the Kingdom of the Lord of the Spirits! Now we shall never again see through a glass darkly, but face to face shall we see Him whom our souls love. We shall behold His face and we shall know the truth and truth shall set us all free once again!

“And I saw Heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.”

~GLOBAL REVOLUTION~

(A parable of sorts)

Spirit speaking: The curtains are drawn on the world stage. You can't really tell what is going to happen next. The crowd is waiting, watching. Some are snacking casually or chatting. Others are waiting in the dim lighting of the theatre in a sober state of mind.

The stage hands are meanwhile getting everything set up according to the instructions they are being given. You don't quite know what to expect.

You know one thing: the play ends well. The good guys win in the end. But how that "end" comes about, you aren't too sure.

All of a sudden, you are taken by surprise. You were hardly aware that something entirely different was being planned. You were looking and waiting with bated breath in one direction, thinking one thing was going to happen, but what splashed before you was something you certainly were not ready for. It wasn't even taking place on the stage, or not completely. It started off as a rumble in the crowd. You took no notice of it but kept looking at the curtains.

The curtains were made to rumble a bit, and there were some hidden voices that seemed to come from the stage area. But something unplanned, or so it seemed, suddenly took place. It had to be some mistake, you think, as it didn't happen as you thought it would.

You were imagining what would happen when the curtain was at last pulled away. You wanted it to be all clear and simple, tidy, as expected. But the movement that started in one area of the crowd soon spread to all in the room. Wild activity, and yes, the curtains were moved out of the way, but in a new way. They were nearly torn to shreds by what seemed to be onlookers gone mad ...they had made their way on to the stage. Props were knocked out of place. The people poised to act were definitely upstaged by a totally different crew than what it seemed was planned. But was it? Or was it all part of the surprise tactic? Was it part of the play anyway?

You don't know what to expect.

Thinking that wild anarchy is taking place, the crowd is mixed in their reactions. Some want to run out of there, and they try to make an exit, only to find the way is blocked and they are being commanded by those guarding the doors to sit down.

"Sit down?" some scream, and look over to see their seat is being tromped over by others. They can't sit or they will be stepped on. They can't leave; the doors are bolted shut.

The other part of the crowd chooses to join the throng in wildly breaking down everything that was part of the play. They do it almost in sport. They were bored with the wait, and they didn't like the story line anyway. This seems far more fun, active, and they get to partake of the action and feel important, like they are actors. Not that they know what they are doing, but wild play seems better than doing nothing.

"We want to be part of the story," they say. "We are making a new play; come join us. We'll make it up as we go along," says one wild participant as they knock down another chair and pull an old man out of his.

Finally, when there is little left to destroy, a lone figure comes onto the stage. It is dark there, but a small spotlight shines on his ominous-looking face. Everyone is ready to watch now. They can do little else. With a wave of his hand all are scrambling to take their seats—anywhere they can: the floor, on each other's laps, on the heap of discarded items in the aisle, on broken debris or upside down chairs —wherever.

They watch practically spellbound, for indeed they are captivated.

The lone figure doesn't need to do much. He has their respectful gaze, simply because they are tired of doing all they did, and there isn't more to disrupt that hasn't already been destroyed.

The other crowd that tried desperately to get out are glad that finally there is a resemblance of peace and something at last happening on stage. They are content to watch, though it's nothing that they were expecting.

The music begins to play, and the dancers find their places on the stage in a wicked sort of dance. They dance all around this lone figure that seems to have the crowd magically in his grasp. The exhausted crowd have yelled all they could, and their tired voices and bodies are ready for rest.

If it weren't for the wild confusion and freedom to do absolutely whatever they wished beforehand, there is little chance they would have been watching so spell bound, perhaps even just out of exhaustion. All possibilities have been exhausted.

The show ends in a lame sort of way; nothing spectacular is seen. That is, until you looked around at the crowd. The lone figure seemed to vanish or slink away from some sort of light, as if its shining was totally not in the script. The crowd that was once so loyally watching is now writhing in pain. Something or someone is going around spreading pain dust in the air.

But that is not all. There are gaps in the crowd, huge holes where there used to be people seated thickly. Portions of the onlookers are gone. No, it wasn't by the door, for that is still locked. It wasn't through the stage, for that too is guarded. But look up to the ceiling. The source of the light that caused all on the stage to retreat into the shadows is streaming in from above. Up and up streamed many who had been seated. They are going up and out through this hole.

This was the best part of the show indeed, and entirely unexpected. Unnatural. Seemingly unplanned. But where are they going? Upstairs to prepare the true ending of the show.

"Arrgh" you hear, and then "clunck" and "click" and a sound of pounding, as if someone is trying to get free from being boxed in somewhere. It seems those on the stage have fallen into, or rather have been forced into a trap door that was on the stage floor. Down they went into the hollow compartment, and click, it was shut.

"Boom!" the doors of the theatre are broken into from the outside, thoroughly knocking the guard out of the way. What broke them open isn't too apparent, but the sudden gust of fresh air is truly refreshing.

Yet before any of the mob can leave, the reason for the opening of the doors is plain. There is a troop coming into the theatre; a clean-up crew of sorts.

The crowd can either watch or help —or be escorted out if they wish to do neither but instead are objecting to the change of hands and whoever it seems is now in charge.

It took a while, but at last things are ready for the final scene to be played out.

This one ends dramatically, with the floor boards of the stage being pried open to reveal the hidden-away evil cast. They are let out, not to play a key role and to make things end their way, but they are let out so the new stage players can use them to end the show with drama, the like no one had ever seen before.

Soon the whole stage is lit on fire and flames engulf the wicked crew. Ashes and dust are all that is left when that scene ends.

Or is it the end?

Soon, right over the burning embers and through the smoke, walks a lone figure. This one is dressed in white. He too commands the attention of all who are watching, the sword adorning Him commands respect.

"Be Mine!" is all His voice booms out. It echoes all throughout the theatre.

As soon as He says that, the very walls around the theatre start to crumble, topple, and are removed away.

Suddenly you find yourself in a new reality. You are no longer confined to one state of being, but there are vast spaces all around. And the light, the light is now so bright, and it surrounds you all. It surrounds everything. There are no shadows, only light.

The lone figure in white grows in size until His foot could trample everyone there in one step, if there was reason to. But each one there, one by one, made the choice, the wise choice, to say to Him, "Take me. I am yours."

To this, He smiles and says,

"Shall we be going then, team?"

And it is as if wings are given to each one there, up and over and all around they go, every which way, almost like a dance. They move and flow and are transported to the furthest places, far more distant than their eyes could see.

"This is a wild show—and so exciting," one previous onlooker says to another.

"That's a good thing—that you have chosen to do as He has bid," comes the reply, as they motion to the molten and melted and smoking remains of the rebels in ashes on ruins of the stage floor.

They both nod, and they are off to dance in the light and find out what is over there, just beyond what they can see now.

Revelation 19: 12-21 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself. And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God. And the armies which were in Heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean. And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS. And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of Heaven, Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God; That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great. And I saw the beast, and the kings of the Earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army. And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone. And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh.

~THE MILLENNIUM~

A NEW BEGINNING

THE LAW OF JESUS ~ THE LAW OF LOVE

You are on a journey to discover the Mystery of Who I am and what exactly I can do.

“One reason the Keys were created was to restore everything to its true and proper state. They begin by leading you, My children, through the Endtime, through the Great Tribulation, and through the tests to come, into My Heavenly Kingdom, and back to the perfection of the world as it will be in the days to come.”

(Jesus:) This means the Keys have the great authority of restoring balance to the universe. The Keys are the opposing force of self and pride. It is those things that really create the imbalance in the universe and in the world. It is man's desire to be higher and more honorable than I intended him to be that brings on all those lies. If man didn't desire these things, Satan's lies would not work on him. Because you are using the Keys now, they are working on you and restoring balance in your hearts and minds. It takes time, as little by little the Keys part the veil to reveal the reality of the universe you are living in. Because you used them by faith, they were able to begin working on you and washing away the negatives of doubt and skepticism so you could receive the even deeper truths of the spirit world. If you get offended at some truth and stop receiving, there is nothing that Keys can do until you again choose to embrace the truth—as hard as it may sound to your carnal mind. The truth is hard, but what would you rather believe, a lie?—just because it's comfortable for you? Or will you throw out all the lies and really grow and become what I intended you to be? In Heaven everyone will be forced to leave behind all the lies and will begin the retraining course. You can be way ahead and not have to go through the washing out of lies. So keep believing the Keys' Words to you and don't resist the wonderful positives of the universe just because they sound like negatives to your flesh.

(Dad:) The Lord wants to use the Family to be witnesses of His Law of Love to the world, because in so doing, He's paving the way for the world of tomorrow when He returns to rule the world by His Law of Love. This should be the biggest incentive for our folks to start living the Law of Love right now--knowing that this is how the Lord's going to rule in the Millennium. He's going to govern by the Law of Love because it's His law. How else would you expect Him to rule? And those of His children who are obeying and following and living His Law of Love right now are the ones He's going to use to help Him reign then! The Lord's giving the Family a head start!

God's plan is not going to be stopped! So what our folks need to ask themselves is this: Do you want to be a part of that plan and be at the top of His list--His shining examples to the world to help Him usher in His Kingdom on Earth?--Or would you rather be left behind and have an awful lot of catching up to do later? It's time the Family faces their fears about the Law of Love--because like it or not, the Law of Love is going to rule the world of tomorrow!

(Jesus:) It's all for a purpose, dearest. I need kings and rulers, priests and teachers, but first I must try them to see of what manner of substance they are made. We can't have weak, greedy or unstable people in positions of authority in the Millennium, can we? No. So now I have to squeeze and test and purge everything of the World that is in you. I need to remove all your desires, wants, temptations, and weaknesses. Not because I want to hurt you or turn you into some brick of a person—that is what the enemy will tell you, that going My way will only lead to loneliness and pain—but because I want you to be ready and able to take up the jobs I will have for you when this little age of man comes to an end. I'm fashioning you into a better, more useful vessel. I know you want it, and you know that it is only going to bring out good in the end. You just have to fight to not get your eyes on the World and on the present battles so much. Look to Heaven! Look to the future! Look to all that I have in store for you when this life is over! You may be on the battlefield now, but soon you will be at My side, enjoying all the wonders of Heaven and Me! Oh, My dearest bride, look to Heaven, look to Me, and remember that this world will soon pass away. All the things of this Earth will be gone, and we will have to start over again. Everyone will be given their place of service—well, not everyone, because there will be those who will have a bit of schoolwork to catch up on.

The Millennium is a serious time, really. It's man's last and final chance to accept Me and My ways. There is going to be a lot of work to do, and I am going to need those who have learned to sacrifice and forsake their own wills and ways, desires and plans, their own ways of thinking, their personal mindsets and everything that doesn't go along with what needs to be done. Does this scare you a little bit—the aspect of still having to sacrifice in the Millennium? There will be many new lessons to learn in that time. Things that you have not been able to learn now, you will learn then, like the sexual side of the Law of Love or the jealousy battles, and any other things that you have not yet had the time or proper situation to learn. I want to tell you that you shouldn't worry about what is ahead. I'll be right there with you to help you through. Your spirit helpers also will still be around and will be able to talk with you and help you in any way they can. It's going to be a new age and a new life and whole new way of doing things! Oh, My love, it's going to be exciting! Don't fear the battles; relish them! For each new battle you face and win, you become ever closer to Me and My heart. You become more like Me and can therefore help others more and be an even more flowing vessel of love. With battles, come victories —and oh, aren't victories sweet!? We're all in for a wonderful time, My love! Don't let the Devil deceive you into viewing battles and sacrifices through his perspective. Throw off those muddy, broken glasses of his and look skyward once again! Look up to Me. Look into My face, My eyes, and let Me show you the truth. Eyes are one of the best mediums of communications, you know. So just sit there and stare into My eyes of love and see that all I have destined you to go through is for the sole purpose of making a better vessel. Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby (Heb.12:11)

Isaiah 55:13 Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall be to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

(Jesus:) In that day, all shall be made right. The joy will be unspeakable. All those who truly love Me will be filled with joy. For man's wicked rule on Earth will be ended, and I will make all things right. Like I said, "Weeping may endure for the night, but joy cometh in the morning." This will be the real and final morning. The long, dark night will be past. All that you have fought for will be fulfilled. The weeping and trials of the Earth life will be finished. But that morning will be all the sweeter for the struggle and the forsakings. You have fought the good fight; you will have kept the faith. And so I will have someone to share My happiness and My new kingdom with, you My faithful brides. Those who didn't keep the faith will be full of shame and will be busy catching up on lessons. But you, who have taken every step that I showed you and learned what you were meant to, will be ready. It's like you have already been walking by My side all this time, and now we will walk together right into the new era. The Earth itself will sing, the horrors of man's rule will be a thing of the past. Creation itself will be free to truly live, without the curse, without the scourge of man's abuse and pollution. Even My creation, nature itself, has a spirit, and it finds fulfillment in completing its purpose. There is a cycle; there is perfection. Man was meant to live in harmony with that cycle and partake of the benefits. But instead modern man has twisted and corrupted and sorely abused My beautiful world. My creation, My world, is sick, that's why it's heaving with earthquakes and blowing with hurricanes. It cannot last. It cannot go on. It groans, waiting to be delivered. Its day of deliverance is coming soon. The mountains and hills will break into singing and the trees will clap their hands. The Earth will be like a young maiden. The curse will be lifted, and she will rejoice and dance and will, gradually, with the strength I have given her, take back what is hers. The cities and signs of man's pollution will be erased and the scars covered over with blankets of flowers. It will be for a sign. It will show My everlasting love and mercy and that I can truly make all things new.

MANSIONS IN HEAVEN

(Jesus:) It's the aloneness, the separateness of the "mansions in Heaven" concept that needs to be broken down. This is a worldly concept —everyone each in their own little boxes. No matter where you are in the world, what makes a home a home is the family, the extended family in many places, that all live together. If they were to be separated and each have their own palatial residence, they would miss one another.

What people are trying to get away from, besides poverty and all the ills that have formed on a sick world because of it, is the lack of love. They don't want to live with this or that person because a lack of love has caused them to be hurt. So living alone or imagining that they will each have a place to call "their own" seems a comfortable thought in comparison.

So what these past few messages seem to say to you, dear girl, is that there is more of a "group house," a shared dwelling. "Come home and arrive in our palace."

It won't be up to you where you live and with whom, but know this —that you are loved and you have a place in their hearts, in their home, and in their arms. There is so much to be explored. You have a safe haven in the Heavens.

But "family", a Heavenly family team, isn't made up of just who you happened to be related to on Earth; because actually, who was born and when they were born has more to do with what experience one needed. ...Say you felt a strong kindred spirit with someone born thousands of years ago? What if they are on your "family team"? Perhaps there is someone from a tribe you never heard of, but both of you were sent to Earth to learn some similar things, and so you have lots in common. These might be a part of your "tribe" in the next life.

True "family reunions" in the Heavenlies are going to be a whole lot of fun.

Now you might have your own "living quarters" in the large palatial estate, a place to call your own, where you and I can meet and be alone or where others can meet you in the privacy of your place. You can go over your lessons and learn what you need to in a place of peace and beauty—like a rather large room, maybe with a terrace and fountain, or a garden and pathways through to a meadow, or perhaps a garden house, patio, fish pond, grapevines, or whatever you want in the grand estate.

To some that might seem like a very luxurious house, but it's not on its own, labelled with its own "street address", but a part of a larger place. There are united dining halls, and many rooms where visitors are free to come and attend your family banquets—"family" being the main team abiding there.

I know you like very large places, with halls and halls and floors and levels to explore. This can happen when you live as a team. Just think, with so many friends and "family" living with you, you can have plenty of friendship time, lots of chats and great times of fellowship.

Of course the main feature in one such a place might be the grand hall where I sit and commune and teach you, My children, what you need and want to learn. And I can visit you each privately as well, each in your own living space where you dwell.

I also have My own Master bedroom in the palace, where you are free to visit and love with Me in "style". That's the time when we are waited upon, and special treats happen there. But mostly, I am with you, and so are others. I am with you, in the form that is best, right where you are. But with Me on the 'property' you never know just when I'll show up. There are no locked doors to Me. I have the Keys, remember? Not that people close and lock their doors much, but I can walk into any room at any time and see what is going on, or join in anytime I wish. —Like a father does with his children, or like a lover does with a mate, I join in.

And since I can be in more than one place at a time, this isn't a problem. I can be in one room talking to someone, while another part of My spirit is engaged deeply with someone else. There is enough of Me to go around.

And each household has an elder who keeps watch, someone who knows Me very, very well and reports all to Me. In some ways it feels like you are with your Master when you are interacting with this one, whoever it may be. My Spirit can live through them and touch those there in the household when perhaps it would feel less intimidating to have someone of a "lower rank", quite a bit lower, than the "Son of God." Yet, I will be experiencing it through them, hearing and feeling all that is going on, such as I do today through you, My presence on Earth.

Now it doesn't mean that all in the "family" who dwell within those walls are there all the time. They each have missions of the Kingdom to tend to, treats to be granted, places to explore, and people to help. But I've made it be that each one need somewhere to call "home". You look at the animal kingdom and most creatures need a "home". Why? Mostly to reproduce, right? Little ones of all sorts, need places to grow and to be nurtured.

And so into these “family homes” made up of all types of souls from the distant past, beings you have yet to learn about, I place the young ones who need nourishing. You can teach and train them. You can share God’s Word with them. This is one of the home duties, to bring some up in the way of the Lord. They didn’t “earn” a “mansion in Heaven”. They are young in faith and need nourishing. All God’s “grown up” children can help raise the young ones—young in age, in maturity, in faith.

You never know who you might have housed with you—perhaps even appearing in age as a young child—for you to teach and train, because they didn’t “grow up” while on Earth and missed some big parts of their training. They might have reached grey-haired age on Earth but didn’t learn about Me and My ways enough to teach others in the next life.

Are you learning enough now to be teachers in the world to come? Are you willing students now? Or will you reach “babe’s status” when you get Home, and “become as a little child”—the first step at the point of salvation. Perhaps some just squeaked in through Heaven’s doors with the ticket they managed to get through a wee bit of faith. They might be as children in My kingdom, so others can teach them of Me, and so they remember their status—a humble child who needs to learn.

But they might just really enjoy it— a new childhood complete with new memories and the best upbringing. They’ll have Me as their father, new childhood playmates and those caring for them as their teachers and caretakers.

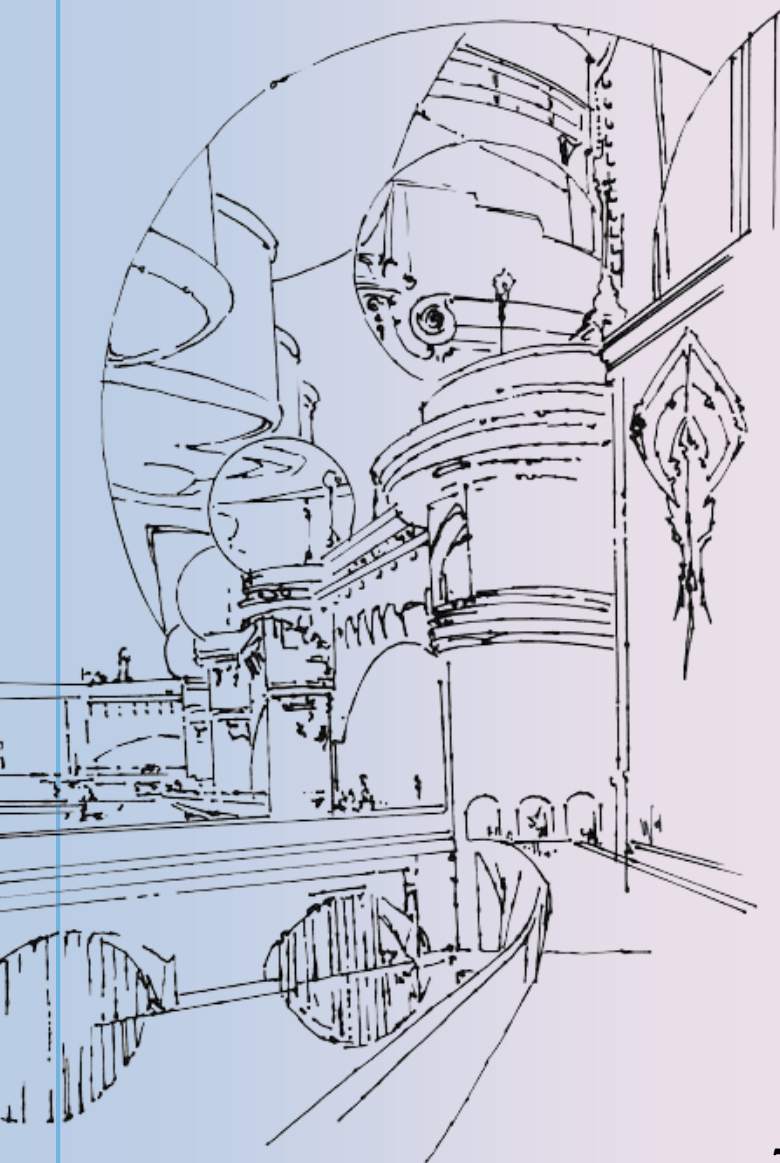

You can’t choose whom you will get to “teach”. It could be someone you prayed with on the street that I send to your Heavenly house as a boarding child to learn something from you. It could even be someone you felt you greatly despised on Earth and were at odds with, but they ended up being saved. And now you get to “raise them again” the proper way. You don’t like how they turned out? Here, you have a go, and you have at your disposal all the Heavenly aids and tools to do the job—all the sages and prophets and people of by-gone days that can visit and give classes and of course the best excursions and outings to take them on.

I think you’ll end up learning more than they.

So be careful who you sharply criticize on that planet—you might get to teach that little boy or little girl, right in your own home in Heaven. And through it you’ll learn to love them in a new way, or love them at last. If making them be a child you care for is what will help to bring unity between some of the different people I have created, that’s what it might take. What if I make a whole church group be your new toddlers that come for lessons at your house one of these days? Would you like that? You just might. But I might also have you attend a few classes elsewhere. There are worlds of hidden knowledge you have yet to learn.

So don’t be too sure that you’ll never be a child also. For in some of the giants’ houses, you might seem very very small indeed. You might be a young one, there for a class on whatever they can teach you.

There are lots of surprises coming up, and a whole lot of learning left to do, and eventually all My children will learn to love and appreciate each other.

MENDING BROKEN TIES

(Jesus:) One more thing, I've hinted on it before. If building a relationship with someone that you became cold towards while on Earth is better done while you both are of a different seeming "age" in the next life, this can happen too. For a while, while broken strands are healing, whenever you meet each other, you are some other age, like children or teens out for some adventure together with a guide. Then once those new ties of getting to know each other form, you can "grow" in appearance as your respect and trust and friendship grows.

Just like you are children to Me in many ways, I may have you appear to be so at times, just to keep that part of our relationship going, that Father-children respect and eagerness to learn. You needing My help and permission to do this or that, and Me being the provider for all your needs—so might it be in other relationships on this side of the veil.

Parent and child swaps happen, for example, if the child knows much about Me, but the parent does not, but had a rather "deathbed conversion." The child who has lived for years for Me might get to "parent" them to greater maturity.

I love you and will tend to each and every need of every human being and immortal soul I have created, in some of the most creative ways.

But just because one is as a child when in a certain setting, that doesn't mean they always are. There's variety according to the situation and need. For indeed you all are as children, very little children to Me, yet you also are as a Bride. There is variety according to the learning moment and the needs of your own hearts too.

Be prepared to be surprised, but mostly extremely loved!

[Note: Later in the day as I was thinking about this amazing insight and message, I asked "Can we have balls and dances with live musicians in our special palace?" And the thought came to me that birthdays of those living there are celebrated, and special things like that could happen. Then I remembered the message about how "time" is measured by spiritual growth. So a "birthday" might be more like a graduation celebration when someone moves up to another level of maturity—rather than just a "year" as it is on Earth.

AND LIFE ON EARTH

(Spirit helper:) In Heaven there is no time as you know it. Rather it's like, "There's no time like the present." You linger until you learn. Time doesn't move you forward, but rather your "knowledge of the Holy" moves you forward. As you progress in spirit and heart and mind, so do things move along for you.

On Earth, seasons and years of age move people to this or that activity and station in life, regardless of their emotional stability and heart condition. On Earth, the clock can tell you what you are to do, but in the Eternal Kingdom of the Redeemer, His will alone dictates what to do.

On Earth the "changing of the guard" says what happens next (as in old days where guard changes told the time, or a king's reign's coming to a close and a new king starting his reign) but in God's Heaven above, only He says what happens next.

On Earth, the sun's light moves you forward in time. In the realm above, the enlightenment of mind and heart move you along to progress. This is the "time" of Heaven that comes from the light of God.

The sunshine is not needed to dictate times and schedules because the Son of God rules. He is the clock, so to speak, and moves along as He wishes. And what moves you along is your readiness and eagerness to learn of Jesus. Your ability to grasp the concepts and ideas of Heaven is the “time changer” for you and makes new things happen.

Where you are at in spirit indicates what “time” of life you are in. You can’t make forward progress in “time” unless you have truly learned your next grade. So that is something very different than on Earth. When your eyes are opened and you see and grasp new things in the spirit, you move on to new and better things.

So why was the selfish rich man in the parable not in the bosom of Abraham? Because he didn’t learn what he needed to, to get to that station of joy. And what did he want to do? He wanted God to send someone to teach his relatives something about the life to come, while they were yet on Earth. And why couldn’t that request be fulfilled? Because they hadn’t learned from the scripture what they should have. If they had, then they might have been ready for the next lesson from Heaven. But they didn’t pay attention to the written classes, so they weren’t eligible for the more Heavenly interactive lessons that would have gotten them higher up with more pleasures in the world to come.

So, learn your lessons well. Each thing you are able to fully and competently grasp here, the higher level you’ll be able to be there. Earth is a learning station for so many lessons. Take this chance to hop up as high and fast as you can—by not just watching the clock, hoping things go by quickly so you can get on to other things, but by learning good and well what you must, so in the Heavenly realm you will be moved to the levels I know you really do want to be at. Learn now, laugh long later.

So, was today a battle? But did you learn something you wouldn’t have been able to before? Be glad. The battles were a gift to teach you, and thus to get you into a higher level of joy hereafter. —That is, if you learned from them and didn’t just sulk and fume and fuss about the difficult challenges.

It’s all about waiting for the prize, and not being too anxious and so eager to fast forward to the “fun bits” that you miss learning what you were meant to through that exercise. They are all exercises, to see how you’ll cope and what you’ll do—and if you’ll react as God has been teaching you to.

Each day is like a test, to see if you learned. So don’t be shocked if tests come and battles rage, even after you’ve had all this nice time with the Lord and read all kinds of Word. That’s what it is for—to test if you are remembering it and to practice putting it into practical living.

A VILLAGE ON THE NORTH SIDE

(Spirit being:) I'm going to take you exploring. There's a cute little village on the north side of this place that I want you to see. It's set up to the "T" with everything that a lovely, quaint town would have.

I'll show you to the bakery where lots of fun conversation goes on. Not only do the folks gather here for tea and talking, but they help out as well. It's a town bakery —as in all help out and all know the skill of making the breads and pastries.

See, in this town, no one is overworked, and certainly no one is stuck with a "job" of doing only one thing, again and again. That is for Earth life, for it teaches you lessons through that tough challenge.

But here, it is set up so that whatever aids the overall joy of the town, whatever helps to "up the joy mood" of the people is what happens. You can only do that by discovering what each one finds the best joy and fulfilment doing.

Variety is something that nearly everyone needs.

No, no one is lazy, for that brings neither joy nor satisfaction, and certainly not fulfilment of needs. Each one likes to be able to give, and so chances for giving to others are abundant.

The children here also learn to work in a wide variety of ways. They find fulfilment and challenge through learning one thing one day and another thing another day, and switching around from various teachers and elders who can train them in all sorts of skills. They are never left to wonder what to do.

See, that is the reason for "group helping" in all the main functions of the town. The children and young people learn that the adults don't carry the full weight of all that needs to be done. Each one can do their bit and even be an apprentice to help out and to learn some skilful craft.

Perfection is a thing of the past, for the goal is joy and inclusiveness. No one need feel alone. No one even needs to waste their time thinking "What am I going to be?" —as in one exclusive skill that they work themselves to the bone doing for the rest of their life. If they had any joy in doing or learning that skill, by the time the first year or two are through, all joy has been beaten out with the lack of variety and the lack of group support. The sheer weight of it all resting on their two shoulders drains the love of their task right out of them.

But since joy is the theme of this town, nothing of this sort happens. There are collective goals instead of personal competition, racing against time or clashing with others' interests. No one needs to compete against another, but they can rather aid one another if they find they both have the same interest.

Let me take you around. As you can see, all around this town there are flowers and parks. It's hard to even find more than a couple buildings one against another; for space, and lots of it, aids in the thinking process. Too many buildings all boxing up the population makes the mind close up just as tightly. Open air and places for worship, while the children run and sing or ride their animals, makes for joyful gatherings.

Another feature to this place is that there isn't any piping system going through the town. Nothing has to be dug up nor plants and animals disrupted to set up new living quarters. New and far more effective solutions are found, some you have never thought of before. Beauty, harmony, beautiful sounds, beautiful sights, and peaceful surroundings are thought of as the biggest priorities when setting up living places or when new areas are added to this town.

I'd like to take you to the town's waterfall. A lovely place of peaceful gathering it is indeed. There is joyful bathing in the nude and the town's wee folk laughing and splashing in its pool as mothers spread out picnics and share around the food they brought —trading this and that with another family's picnic spread. Here no one needs to envy what another has; for always, in advance, each one tries to bring or make a bit more than they actually need, all for the purpose of being able to share with others who might wish to have some too. Indeed it would feel rather saddening if a family only had enough for themselves and their own and had nothing to share. For joy comes when seeing that another is made glad as well.

I'll take you now through the forest that surrounds the town. A deep and vast forest it is. There is never a lack of wood or leaves for any of the town's needs. Abundant supply is there, and all are freely able to take what they truly need.

See, with no one trying to make a living by taking from others or trying to get more than another by exploiting, then only true needs are tended to, and all have what they need—and a bit more, as everyone generously shares the extras for the pleasure of it.

And now we have reached the outer edge of forest that surrounds this town. And what is there? A vast body of water, a beach, and some mountains coming out of the clear water some distance from the shore. Boats are on the shore, and there are some men preparing for a trip to a sea mountain. Goods, raw goods, are found in these places and can be gathered and brought to shore.

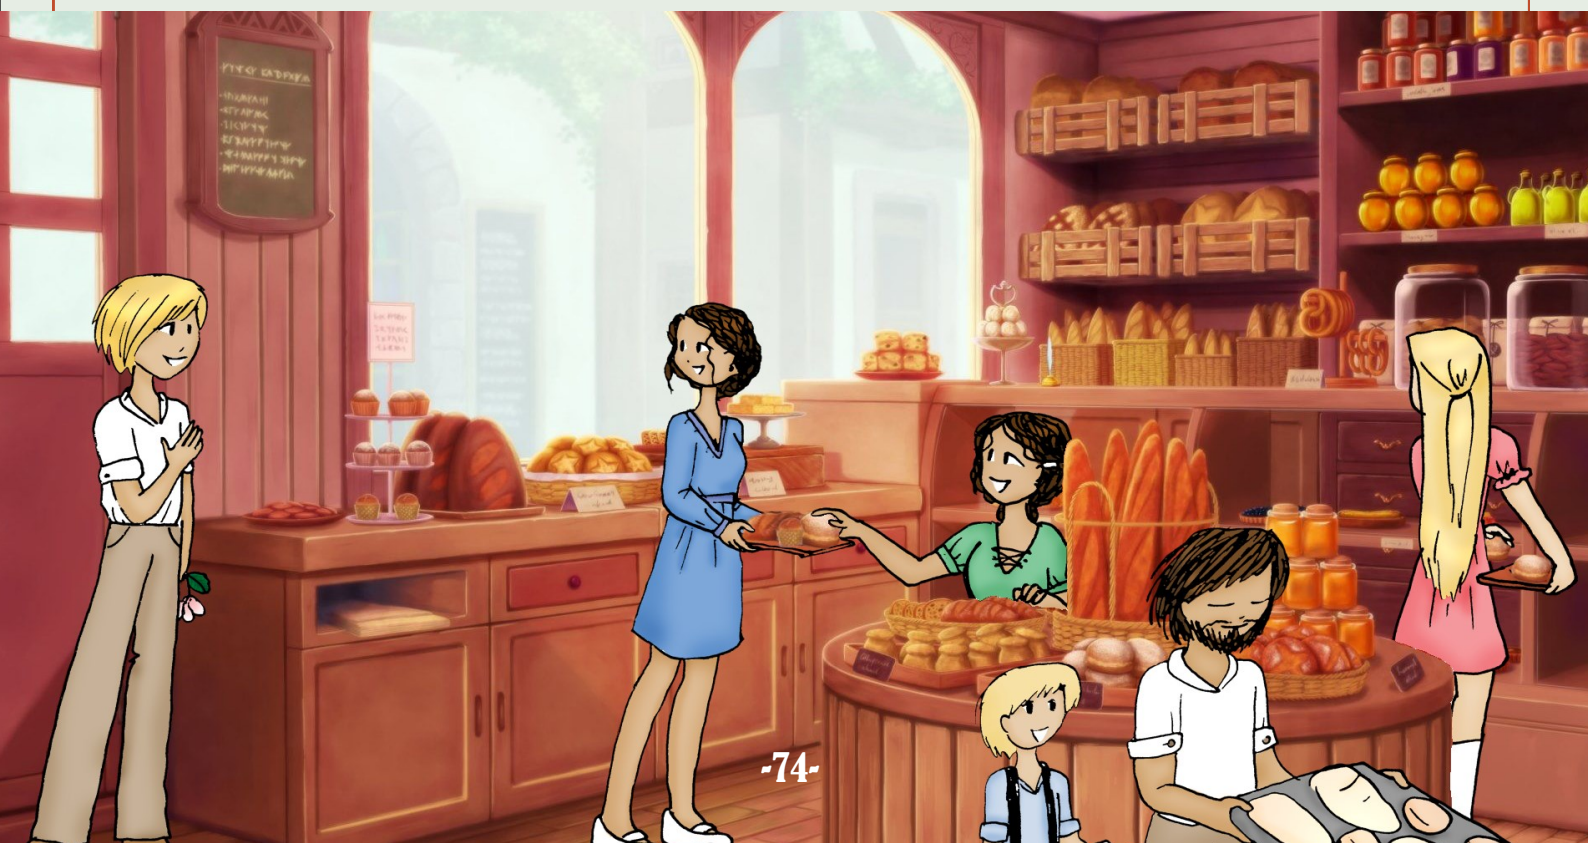

There are some cottages along the shore where folks can stay when they are here to explore or to gather needed goods for the towns all around. If you were to stand on the tall mountain that resides in the body of water, you'd see that there are many other little villages and settlements around, much like the one I just showed you.

Each of these settlement places has free access to the body of water and the goods in this sea and in the mountains. Each village is surrounded by many, many trees: a vast forest that goes on and on.

There are some log cabins in the middle of the forest as well, for those folks who wish to camp out and be rather alone for a time. Village life isn't for everyone, as lovely as it is, and this forest provides accommodation for those who want time surrounded by nature rather than people. Everyone can get what is needed for their personal joy maintenance. Some people just need more quiet than others, and so the arms of the deep green trees of the forest welcome any who wish to reside there, for however long.

I can't wait to show you around this place, some years in the future. I think you'll enjoy your trip. What a change and difference it is to the world you live in now that does all it possibly can to drain all joy from a heart and mind and life.

Here is a place where a visitor can literally soak in the joy, and smile just about nothing really, just because the air of the place fills their heart with a light and cheery feel. It's rare to see someone who is not smiling, in heart at least, but faces too are usually clothed in a grin. It's just the way it is.

(Jesus:) When you pass a test, then you move on in spirit. Things change for you in the physical too, while you are here, and they'll change in the spirit when you come back to the realm of God's throne, His Kingdom.

(Jesus:) The more you shed the flesh and the things of the flesh, the more of the Spirit you can take in and imbibe. That is what I am trying to do with you here, on Earth—get you prepared and adequately adjusted to the Spiritual ways, so that when you come back Here, you will be more knowledgeable of the carnal ways and how to overcome them and surpass them. You'll have learned how to live in My Spirit even while you are in the flesh. In the Millennium, all you who have gone through these sort of tests—the tests of learning to forsake the flesh and its attitudes—will be the most invaluable leaders, teachers, bellwethers, and example-setters of all. I will need brides like you who are devoted and have learned to live My Law of Love while in the flesh, so that you can pass on your insight and experience to the Earth peoples that are left.

(Jesus:) The reason is, you're in training for the next world, the next life. You —nor anyone else for that matter— can stop the coming new world. I will rule and reign with My Millennial saints and then rule on Earth with those who remain. These things are set. What each one does with the time that I have given them before those years of peace and correction is up to them. Many do not know it, but all are in training for those days. You, My Children of David, have been made aware of this fact first through your Father David, then through your gift of prophecy. You, My brides, are already living in the Heavenly culture. You have been given many of My Heavenly principles, such as the Law of Love and your spirit helpers. These things are the true reality. They're the true culture, the culture that will last. The more you give to living these truths and obeying and sucking for the Words I give to you (the New Wine), the less of a culture shock it will be for you when you are at last reunited with the world that is your real home: My world, the spirit, the true reality. I said, Heaven is within you, and I say, as you go deeper into My living Words, as you suck them down, believe and do them, Heaven will well up inside you and you will walk more with Me, just as My servant Enoch did. And though your road is different from his, for his eyes were opened to see and to walk with the angels, yet I say your road is no less great. For he walked in My Heavenly culture, as you do. The things he saw, I reveal to you. You must only believe, and all things will be made known unto you. Believe the Words I give. Believe and you will know the things that Enoch knew and more. You are greatly blessed because you believe without seeing. My Heavenly Culture is open to you. You must only listen, receive, and believe, then you will walk as the angels walk, and you will be a well-prepared citizen and leader of My Heavenly Kingdom that is to come.

“The only way you can get back to freedom--the freedom of the Garden, the sinlessness of the Garden, the perfection of the Garden, the liberty of the Garden, openness of the Garden--is to get back to perfect fellowship and relationship with God and belief in His Word, faith in Him and faith in His Creation and obedience to the Lord's law of Love! “

“God now only judges us according to whether we have love, or selfishness and lack of love. If you know you're acting in love, then you can go ahead by faith according to God's Word and you don't need anything else. If it is in love, it is lawful as far as God is concerned. “

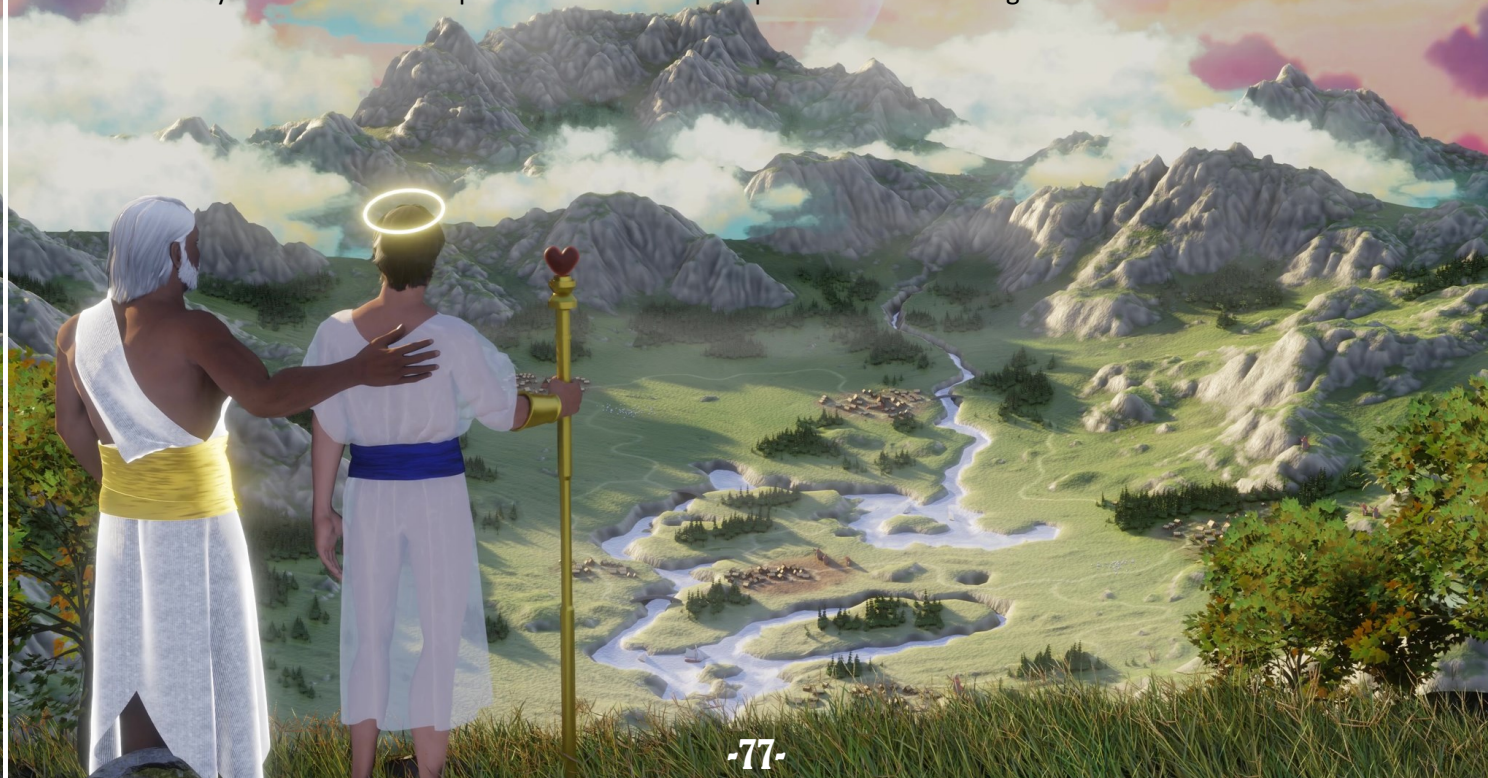

~AN INTERGALATIC GOVERNMENT~

(Jesus:) You are being trained to stand with Me, as part of My government, a government that will rule not only this Earth but all of creation. (I saw a vision of Jesus, standing on a high mountain, much like the one illustrated in the Revelation 21 video. He swept his hand outward at the heavens and the planets and stars and solar systems and galaxies as He spoke these Words.) Earth is My footstool. I call it a footstool because it is where I will place My City of Light, My home, a place of rest and recreation, a place where I can put My feet up whilst all My wives and children gather about Me for fellowship and enjoyment. It will be a place of great peace and learning. It will be the centre of the world. You, My brides, will be My ambassadors, always on call, always ready to go, to do, to be My representatives to all creation. Wherever you go, you will be sent by Me as My messengers. You will herald My coming; you will prepare the hearts and minds of those who will be receiving Me. I will not just sweep in unannounced. Not even as a babe did I come unannounced to Earth. That was an official visit that took much preparation of heart and mind in many people. Yes, sometimes I come incognito, dressed in garb that hides My true glory and identity, but when I send you, My ambassadors, then everyone will know I am on an official visit. You will make sure everything is in place and that all in that city or planet or solar system will know that the King of kings is visiting their kingdom. This will be only one of your responsibilities.”

SPOKES OF LIGHT

(Jesus:) The all-important, vital ingredient in any work or job or accomplishment you are involved in is Me. Are you doing what you are doing for yourself or is it for Me? If I am the center and you are the spokes of light that emanate from Me, then together we will create a Ferris wheel of love that others will see and get excited over and will therefore want to buy a ticket for. Your lives, if centered on Me, or in other words, lived for Me, will be lives lived for others. But once people’s lives become self-centred, then that once Christ-centred group of people lose their balance and begin to wobble, and in time, their vision perishes. One spoke of light, just as one spoke on a bicycle wheel, out of alignment makes the vehicle unstable and dangerous.

The whole Millennium and eternity must be Christ centred. However, those people who live during the Millennial dispensation that do not wish to be part of the wheel of God’s creation will be permitted to find their own lands and ways and means of living. Nonetheless, the same physical rules will apply to them as to everyone else. I will send rain on the just as well as the unjust. The sun will rise and set, and the Earth will yield her bounty for all. The spiritual and physical laws will still apply to all, both the just and those who resist the order of things. However, this will be My last attempt to show the recalcitrant that there is an order, that there are laws —unbreakable cosmic laws that all, you, they and I have to abide by. Chaos will not be permitted to take hold upon this Earth ever again. If it is self-will and chaos they want, then they will be given that opportunity in Hell. It is there that they will see the utter fruitlessness of the self-centred way. Hell will have its rules too, but being a place where one learns the hard way, the system will work somewhat differently than in the world of My spokes of light. Time has been given to man to learn the order of life. It is not a matter of Me, you or them. It is not who is right, but what is right. It is quite insane to think that there is another way besides God's way. It is incredible to think that a person or angel could think that the Creator of all things got the basic guidelines all wrong. My loves, it is nothing but rebellion in its most basic form, man resisting the embedded spiritual and natural laws set in place by a loving Creator.

So how does a small community of people thrive, whether they are family or believers who simply share the same ideals and goals? Again, the spokes of light illustration: they must be Christ centered. They must be married to Me as one wife, and be governed by the Law of Love. They must be bound by the laws of My spirit. They must emanate My light. I must be their center and shining through them. Self must go, as well as all desire to be someone other than what I want them to be. Fulfilling My will must be the whole purpose for existence.

(Spirit Helper:) This life, this Earth and the purpose of living here is so much bigger than we realize. It's not just about sin and salvation. Yes, that plays a big part, but just the fact that the Lord has allowed and sent, not just His only Son to Earth to learn lessons, but also His not-so-perfect Warrior Band members, as well as others, to come down to Earth to learn lessons in this great school. Yes, the lessons will be used for the Millennium, but the Millennium is also a time of learning, so there's more lessons there. So what are all these lessons for? The future of course! So all we spirits and humans can learn how we are to live, how to teach others to live, the ups and the downs, the yes's and no's. It's not that we here in Heaven are made perfect as soon as we are created. It's not that we know everything, no, certainly not. Even we have made mistakes and fought battles whether to yield and obey or not. Earth is our training ground too. We learn a lot from the mistakes and choices of man. Earth has changed and matured us greatly, and we're very thankful for all that has transpired. We're also very eager to see the next lessons start. We've seen the choices, where they led, and the suffering that's been caused. We're eagerly waiting the next phase, the time of peace and restructuring, of training new leaders and citizens of the Kingdom come. It's a culture change as well as growth for all involved, even for those that don't know it. They will get a chance to see, to be shown that all they lived for was a lie, and they will be given a chance to change. Even these ones will have learned much, for once they have been shown, and if they choose the light, they will have much experience in dealing with the ways of sin and will be able to be of great help in the new Kingdom. Yes, they will have to be brought back to square one, and they will advance more slowly, but they will nonetheless have learned many lessons and had experience that others, that never fell that far will not have. Each will play a great part in the new culture that is to come. So rejoice, my dear brothers and sisters, that your culture shock has already begun. You're already walking through the gates by living and hearing the Words of your great Space King.

(Jesus:) I am the route. I am the way I want you to walk. I want you to be seeking and searching Me out. Man left to his own devices will only bring ruin. Even if his intent is good, in the end, failure will come. For the heart of man was not made to understand. You are the sheep, and I am the Shepherd. I am the Creator and you the creation. Only I have the full view, the whole picture. Only I can lead you through every twist and turn that the road of life takes you down. This is the way I set it up, and this is one of the foundation stones of the Kingdom that is to come. This is a great part of the Heavenly culture. All will be brought to understand this truth, for it is the only way to proceed into the future. It is the future for all My children, for it must be. Only My way will work in the end, for I am the Creator. Yes, it will be a long road of learning, but it will bring peace and real lasting joy and fulfillment to all mankind and creation.

(Jesus:) The way you see things, and the way I do things can be very different. My ways are higher than yours, and though you prayed and asked for this one thing, I may send you another, for I know what is best and what will bring about the best result in the end. As long as you seek Me with an open heart, not setting down the way things must be, you'll come out satisfied. It may take some holding tightly to your crown at times, but you can know this: no matter how different My answer may seem, I will always fulfill My Word. My Word is truth, My Word will be accomplished. Answers may vary, but My Word is the rock, the center point, My unbreakable promise that you can count on. You can trust that I will never break a promise, and I will bring about the best result to those who put their trust in Me. Even if it takes time for you to see it, trust, for that is the mindset of a Citizen of the Heavenlies.

(Jesus:) So what is the whole purpose of this great experiment? Where are we all heading? What is the Millennium going to teach us and how is life on the New Earth meant to be lived? —Christ centered, with Me as the root of all things. For I am the lifeblood of all things. I am the Word. I am life. I am joy, peace, and fulfillment. I am love. All other routes, all other road maps will get you lost somewhere or lead you to a dead end. But the Christ-minded map is the map I am leading all My New Worlders to. This is how the future will be run and how it will work. I am the oil that keeps the engine of unity and love moving, for without Me you can do nothing. Without Me, it is flesh, not spirit. The flesh cannot last. It is bound to fail. So rejoice, My dear ones, My Children of David, for you have been given the Words of life to start you on this great journey.

THE CAPITAL

(Spirit helper:) We are spiritual beings from a world that is spiritual in almost all ways. Our city is spiritual, and it can grow in ways that no earthly city can grow. It expands, and those inside it don't even notice that it is continually expanding to make room for the daily influx. It is multi-dimensional and a living, breathing spiritual entity. The life forms inside the city are also constantly growing and changing. Our God is omnipotent and omniscient. He has no end and is everything that we, His creation, need to be happy and fulfilled. Our city can never reach full capacity because it has dimensions that have not yet been opened to the public. There are cities within cities here in our eternal home. It is somewhat like being possessed by different spirit helpers at the same time. There is so much about the Celestial City that only its Creator understands. The best illustration I can give is Lambda One. Cast your mind back to the chapter where the author is explaining its construction and there you are given only a minute concept of the magnificence that is our City of Love.

THIS IS ONLY THE BEGINNING

SPECIAL THANKS

To the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, our Creators.

To the millions of angels who have fought for millennia beside our King against the forces of evil.

To the “great cloud of witnesses” who have faithfully run their race and have passed into the true Kingdom of the rightful Heir, Jesus.

To our personal contingent of angels and counselors whom we call “the Whisperers”.

To all our mates and Warrior Band members in the material plane, who received the prophecies and artwork held within this book

To David, Maria and Peter, who gave of their lives for the “Eternal Flame of Revolution” and to all Family members who have played a part in this mighty war to win back the Earth and its people from the usurper king, Satan.

And finally to The Keys of The Kingdom: Thank you for the promise of power to carry on to that final day.

It won't be long now.
