

BROKEN PROMISES...COMPILATION

April 5, 2024...loving Jesus intimately

Clear, I am having a serious problem staying focused when I try to love My Jesus intimately. I know you are helping as much as you can, and I know you would help even more, if you were able. I realize that I have to do my part, but for some reason I can't concentrate for more than, well it seems like only seconds before my mind has drifted off on some totally unrelated subject. You know me well enough, you see what I'm going through, so let me just ask if there is anything that I'm not doing right.

Clear, Blue Angel speaking: You are doing everything right my love, all there is to do now is to hold on and not give up the fight, be persistent and determined to win through to victory. Don't say it can't be done, because you know, and the Words of David teach that you have all the tools you need to win through to victory; so call on the Keys of persistence and gnarly resolve and you will have success. Jesus sees your heart, He knows what you face, He knows that you are His very own, so don't allow the enemy to tell you that there is a gap between you both, there is not. In fact He is well pleased with your efforts to reach out to Him through the veil, He's very happy when He sees you trying and wanting Him so much that you would even put down who you are to be His lover. Don't allow the enemy to tell you otherwise, he's a liar and only wants you to give up and not try, which is the last thing you should do. Whether you are able to picture it in your mind's eye or not Jesus comes and ravishes you when you ask, it isn't necessarily about you having to get a panoramic scene in your mind of loving Him intimately; it is a matter of asking and desiring Him to come. He comes when you call, and He comes in all His majestic power to fill you with His golden seeds, I am a witness and a partaker of these loves feasts, they are wonderful, thrilling and we are all left with the desire of our hearts. His loneliness is alleviated and His satisfaction is boundless because He has found His bride and future wife. This is what He's been waiting for and it is because His search has come to an end that He is now able to bring to pass the remaining unfulfilled Endtime prophecies in the Bible and the Words of David. It is as He has said to you; He's been waiting for you, His bride to commit herself to this union by saying yes to His invitation of marriage. I am fulfilled because as your chosen door to the branch of the mind of Jesus, my purpose for being by your side is being rewarded, forgive me for being blunt, but I see my mission succeeding. You are our mission and if you succeed, then the final Key will at last be set free to open the veil, the barrier that separates the material and spiritual worlds and the reign of Christ will begin. Do not think that all these promises; the final war, the preaching of the last gospel, the final key event, the coming of the King of Kings are events that will happen just as a matter of fact. If that were the case then why go through all these tests and trials; why send all the prophets, why even bother with this experiment, why place the promises in the bible and the Words of David at all? The Father may as well have swept everything and everyone aside at the flood and instead of placing Noah in the Ark, He could have, if it pleased Him, started all over again with another creation. Why would Jesus give up His glory to come to earth to become a man and live an earth life with us in the dust and then willingly give up His life if there were not some genuine purpose in all of this? Again, it all comes down to believing in your destiny, in your calling. If you or anyone for that matter were created as a creature of mud and clay and that is all there is to it, then man is no better than a foot-footed beast or a creeping thing or a fowl of the air or a fish in the sea. To truly grab hold of your destiny you must believe that these promises are true and them being fulfilled is dependent on you and your faith in their veracity. And by you I mean anyone that chooses to believe, anyone that opens that Bible and begins the journey of faith, could be in your shoes right now, right this minute. Do you want this story's chapter to have a happy ending? Then grasp the immensity of what is happening here and step out as one who believes and take hold of the crown that is being offered you and run the last lap of this race that is set before you, and finish the course. The Words of David have not lied to you, Satan has, and he will continue to do so as long as you listen. He wants to be king of this earth, but it is not ordained; what is ordained is that man will rule, reign and have dominion of all the earth. So let's leave everyone else out of this picture, they could be here if they chose, but they didn't you all did. You each have your own blue angel, your door to the King's very own mind, so it is you we are focusing all our attention on right now, you are our best bet, the odds on favorites, you are the all-out favorites to win the race and reach the gold. But as I said, and never forget this, anyone could be in your shoes right now, so don't think that it is a done deal and nothing can change the result; the race is only over when you cross the line. And on the other hand, don't believe the lie that you are nobodies and no ones. You are elites, simply and only because you chose to be, do not let the lies of Satan convince you otherwise, because that is akin to unbelief and actually handing back your rightful crown to Satan. Isn't that what he convinced Adam and Eve to do? Yes, it was, and do you want history to be repeated? Don't concern yourself with anyone else, and that includes all those that came before you. As the Words of David have said, you are the ones that have been chosen to take the light of Israel across the finish line; you are the remnant, the Philly church, the last church. And you are because you have fought through in faith and have grabbed that baton from the runner before and are now heading for the line. It is all by faith and will remain so until the second you cross the line and only then will it all become reality. The Words of David and Maria and the Bible say it's so and the new new wine you have been receiving are confirming these truths. So our elite warriors by choice keep on believing; for the wicked one would steal your crown and thus thwart your destiny and change the course of the race and have us all in for another lap or two or three. He would dearly love to continue sitting as king of this world; in your place for eternity if he could. Do not think that there is not much at stake here, and do not think that all these events are going to happen with or without you. Well I guess they can happen without you if you decide you don't want to believe, or Satan convinces you to give up. It is only in your mind that you will give up, once you give up in your mind the course that the rest of you is on will follow. Fervently believe, hold fast that which thou hast, do not give up and the crown is yours. If you fall through unbelief and unheeding then it will now or in the future be given to someone else more deserving. The choice is and has always been yours. We love you and are rooting for you, but we can only do so much to help you, otherwise, as you were reading yesterday we would be taking away your honor.

Broken Promises

"Don't give me a choice...I'll just make the same mistake again"

"Don't ask for promises, because they are no promises I keep"

Choosing to obey and follow immediately when the Lord calls, is part of the majesty of choice, and He doesn't force us. And yet sometimes we cling so tightly to the ability and privilege of making the wrong decisions. Alas! Some tears will be shed in Heaven over some of the wrong decisions that we were so determined to make. Lord help our folks!

Even if you've only taken tiny steps so far, as long as you keep saying yes, as long as you keep your eyes on the Lord, as long as you keep moving forward, you are guaranteed to make it! So don't be afraid or feel that you can't make it, because you can!--As long as you keep moving forward, trusting the Lord, saying yes, and forging ahead.

(Our Accountability [#3452])

I can't find the brakes

YOU BECAME DARKENED IN UNDERSTANDING, ALIENATED FROM THE LIFE OF GOD, PAST FEELING & you didn't even feel like it any more, you didn't even believe it any more! You wouldn't even accept it any more, you didn't even feel like getting saved any more & it's too late! Too late, too late! As the old poem used to go: "Too late, too late! The carriage sped down the fearful embankment at an awful rate! And many there were who died that day & suffered an awful fate!"

105. OR LIKE THE CARRIAGE DRIVER THAT MY GRANDFATHER HAD PREACHED TO TIME & AGAIN. In the old days sometimes going downhill the carriage or wagon was too heavy, especially big beer wagons & that sort of thing were too heavy even for the team of horses of four to six to hold back the terrible weight on a downhill grade. So the team driver had to have brakes on his wagon or carriage & had to really stand on that brake to hold back the carriage so it wouldn't push the horses right to their knees or run right over them or just push them aside & careen on down the hill at an awful rate to suffer a fearful fate!

106. MY GRANDFATHER USED TO TELL THE STORY, THAT HE WAS WITNESSING TO & DEALING WITH THIS CARRIAGE OR WAGON DRIVER MANY TIMES but he always put off receiving Christ. He came to his church & heard my Grandfather preach but he said, "That's not for me, not now, later! I wanna have my fun first! I'm gonna have my fling & I'm gonna enjoy this World while I'm still here. Then when I'm old & ready to die, then I'll accept Christ & get saved & that way I'll have the best of both Worlds! I'll have fun here & then get saved & go to Heaven!"

107. WELL, HE DIDN'T GROW OLD & DIE ON A SICKBED AS HE THOUGHT HE WAS GOING TO DO. Instead of that, right in his prime, just a few days later after the last time my Grandfather preached to him & dealt with him he was on a downgrade & something happened to the brakes & the wagon careened down the hill & crashed & he was fatally injured & rushed to the hospital!

108. MY GRANDFATHER RUSHED TO HIS BEDSIDE TO TALK TO HIM TO TRY TO GET HIM IN AT THE LAST MINUTE like he'd always said he was going to do, but he was in a delirium or an unconscious state & he was moaning & groaning in his unconsciousness.

He was crying out saying, "I'm on the downgrade & I can't find the brake! I'm on the downgrade & I can't find the brake!" And you're going to be on the downgrade & you're not going to be able to find the brake because it's too late!

109. YOU WENT TOO FAR, YOU TOOK TOO BIG A CHANCE! YOU WAITED TOO LONG & THE TIME OF YOUR REPENTANCE IS PAST! "His Spirit will not always strive with man!" It'll be too late for you & you'll be gone! Too late! Too late to cry out for salvation! My Grandfather couldn't even get through to him, he didn't even hear him. All he was saying in his delirium was, "I'm on the downgrade & I can't find the brake!" It was too late, his whole life was on the downgrade! He had a chance to find the brake all of his life but he just didn't even try to. And when finally he saw he was rushing to his destruction, "I'm gonna crash!"--he tried to find the brake & it was too late!

110. IS THAT WHAT'S GONNA HAPPEN TO YOU? Are you gonna wait around 'til the last minute & rush off in a big hurry & discover you've waited too long, you're too late, you're on the downgrade, you can't find the brake? You've caught the wrong train, the wrong plane, the wrong ship & you're headed to the wrong destination, you're going to Hell instead of Heaven because you put it off too long! "His Spirit will not always strive with man!"

111. YOU'RE GONNA PASS THE POINT OF NO RETURN! You're gonna reject Jesus Christ for the last time, you're gonna put off & postpone & procrastinate for the last time until you have become so darkened in your understanding, so alienated, separated from the life & salvation of God that you're past feeling, don't even feel like it any more! You don't even believe in it anymore! You sneer & scoff & reject it for the last time. Having been often reproved you've hardened your neck until there's suddenly nothing left for you but to be suddenly destroyed & that without remedy!

112. LET ME TELL YOU, IT CAN HAPPEN TO CHRISTIANS, TOO! Not that you're going to be lost, but the Work that God's been trying to get you to do for years, you backsliders, you disobedient, you rebellious, you selfish & wayward who have gone your own way for years now. You went back from the field, you went back from the plow, you went back from His Work, & you go on in your selfish easy living. Well, it doesn't always become easy because the way of the transgressor is hard. (Pr.13:15)

113. A LOT OF OUR BACKSLIDERS WENT BACK HOME & DISCOVERED THAT IT WAS A LOT HARDER THAN IT USED TO BE & a lot harder than you expected it to be & had nothing but trouble. I was just calling Maria's attention the other day to some of the FN News how that nearly all of the serious sicknesses & serious accidents & serious diseases ... are back on the home field, back in North America or Europe.

115. YOU WEREN'T WILLING TO REALLY WORK & REALLY BE DILIGENT, WELL-SERVING SERVANTS OF THE LORD, so God could never have said to you, "Well done thou good & faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord!" All He can say to you is, "You poor & unfaithful servant, you never did get it done & you're going to enter into everlasting shame & contempt even though saved!"--Because of your failure & your disobedience, your rebelliousness, your laziness, your waywardness & your backsliding!

116. YOU PUT OFF OBEYING GOD TOO LONG, & LET ME TELL YA', ONE OF THESE DAYS YOU'RE GOING TO FIND OUT IT'S TOO LATE! The time for your repentance to return to His Work has passed & you too have become darkened in your understanding, alienated from the life of God, past feeling, often reproved but hardened your neck, there's nothing left for you but to be suddenly destroyed & that without remedy--at least destroyed in this life ... & barely saved by the skin of your teeth, barely making it in with all of your works burned--wood, hay & stubble--nothing lasting that you did. No real service for the Lord, no real genuine witnessing, litnessing & soul-winning.

120. IT MAY BE TOO LATE & YOU'LL FIND OUT THAT YOU WAITED TOO LONG & you're too late & you wound up on the wrong plane, the wrong train, the wrong fate, not what you expected, & God had to cut you off & send you maybe out in the boonies somewhere or down in the basement where you belong for your failure & your disobedience & your rebelliousness & your backsliding & your neglect & your laziness & slothfulness & refusal to do the Will & Work of God! May God yet have mercy on you!

(Is It Too Late? [#1203])

It's so difficult to say yes to My will sometimes. The Devil exaggerates all the reasons why it isn't the best path to follow. He illuminates all the sacrifices involved, making you feel that the path of following My will and saying yes is strewn with misery and pain. He yells in your ears, telling you how much you will lose if you follow Me. He does everything within his spiritual power to hide from you the fact of My Word, that

"whoever will save his life will lose it, and whosoever will lose his life for My Name's sake, the same will save it."

The Enemy brings his imps and minions and sometimes his archdemons to blind your ears and eyes to the multitude of blessings I have given you, and do give you, when you follow My will. He does all that he can to cloud the issue, whatever it is I'm asking you to do.(Issues, Part 15 [#3444])

Nobody ever hears of the quitter, the one who never makes it, the poor soul who gives up and ends up saying those sad words, "I can't." Anybody who sang this sad tune never made it, or worse yet, they never even tried.

(Cry of the Harvest [#007])

Sonora speaking: you listened to the enemy and now you are falling, yes falling down the mountain; you are trying to dig your feet in, but you are descending and losing ground. Because of your doubts and unbelief the enemy was able to get in and now you are determined to make this wrong choice.

He looked up at my Grandfather & he said, "That's not the worst of it, Dr. Brandt. I'm not the man that I could have been!"

(What If? Part 4 [#2211_4])

Turning your back on the Lord and the truth is a hellish way to live. (Issues, Part 15 [#3444])

Anyone who wants to make it will make it!

All you have to be is willing! God can change your heart, your mind, your life, your spirit, and your mode of operation in a flash. Nobody has any excuse! Everyone can make it!

(Our Accountability [#3452])

If you invite old Mr. Devil and old Mrs. Doubt to come in and talk it over, to hear what they and all their little doubtlets have to say, you'll wind up thinking, 'I sure am confused! I guess you're right, I must have made a big mistake!' And you'll be all torn apart and all mixed-up and confused, halting between two opinions --double-minded!

(Crisis of Faith!--More on Doubts! Part 1 [#3088])

It all depends on whether you're looking at it from the realm of the spirit or from the way things look in the physical realm. The fact is that this world is a tiny moment of time compared to the big picture, but the choices made in this world are going to determine our eternity.

That's why we're so sad when our young people leave. It's not just that we want them to follow in our footsteps; that's not the point. It's because we know their decisions have eternal consequences. The Lord's given them such a privilege to be some of the few Endtime heroes. He's poured years and years into these young people; then if they lay down their crown, you can't raise somebody up to take their place, just like that. It leaves a big hole, and there is often loss to the great work of winning souls for Jesus, not to speak of what they lose out on as far as rewards and training and spiritual progress.

It's more than just saying, "I want to do something else in life." It's really going back on the Lord. It has repercussions. (Issues, Part 15 [#3444])

He sought to slay Me through so many doubts. But by crying out in desperation to My Father, and in asking Him to fill Me with His Truth, I was able to clearly see His plan. I was able to see that all the wealth of the world was nothing.

I did not know it at first, but as soon as I made the decision, as soon as I said yes to My Father, as soon as I cried out to Him in total desperation, pleading for deliverance from the doubts that were trying to take hold of My mind and My spirit, He delivered Me. And it was from that time on that My eyes were opened, and I could begin to see more clearly the true battle that was raging. I could see the hypocrisy in it all, that all these riches and kingdoms of the Earth were going to come to nothing. They were nothing but a facade, hiding the heinous reality behind them. My eyes were opened from that point.

(Crisis of Faith!--More on Doubts! Part 1 [#3088])

Timothy:

What if I told you that your life on Earth was "as the twinkling of an eye" in the big picture? So many people put so much into their time on Earth that has so little to do with their life after death, that it's quite a shock for them to see how far off they were.

The greatest shock many of them have is that life isn't just flesh and blood. Life isn't just what you see. There is a spiritual world that coexists alongside the physical one. There really is a God. And there really is a Devil. There really are angels and there really are demons. This is often a great shock to people when they arrive in the spiritual world and find out that the physical realm is peanuts in comparison--temporal and puny. Many didn't even realize there was a spiritual world.

When people don't believe that there is a spiritual world and that people are spiritual beings that will be leaving their bodies behind on Earth and continuing on as spiritual beings, it's unfortunate. Some even believe this wonderful truth, yet don't realize that there is a reason and purpose for each person's life--to be united with the One Who created it and gave it life. When someone is united with their Creator by asking Jesus into their heart and being born again, that can be the beginning of a most incredible journey.

You are given the majesty of choice. You are free to make your own decisions. If you want life, if you want the truth, if you want to know what to do, you need the Word. You need to read the Word. You need to obey the Word. You need to be doers of the Word, not hearers only, as Jesus said.

Many young people have left the Family seeking secular education and a life of their own. That's their decision. That doesn't negate that they are loved by their parents or children or friends. That doesn't mean God doesn't love them. He will always love them and go with them wherever they go. What it does mean is they have laid down their crown, their spiritual reward, their calling to fulfill God's will. It means they have chosen their will over God's will.

It's sad, because God has poured His Word, His ways, His thoughts into their spirits for years and years, decades in some cases, and they have chosen their will instead of God's will. God is a loving God. But what many do not understand is that you will give an account before God for your actions, your decisions, even your words. The Bible says that by your words you will be justified and by your words you will be condemned.

Man doesn't want to be held responsible for his actions, and the Devil is right there to influence and make it as easy as possible for man to think he isn't going to be judged or held responsible. Man has swallowed the big lies he has been fed. Nevertheless, that doesn't change the facts.

In all these things, God's Word stands true and will come to pass. It's not just a case of a Family member leaving to pursue whatever it is they want, but it's that person having chosen their own will over God's will, laying down their crown, despising their crown, settling for what they can see rather than holding to that which takes faith to behold. From personal experience I can tell you, the greatest sadness is to be one who lays down their crown and then dies, and then sees what could have been had they decided to choose God's way instead of their own.

I am one of those who chose their own way. I am one who chose my will over God's will, not just once, but one time too many. I am one who was in a position a little like Lucifer. I was a right-hand man to one of God's leaders on Earth. I was held in esteem, and although I didn't see it then, I had a crown that would have been mine in Heaven, radiating great honor among all the inhabitants therein. But I laid down my crown. I walked away, my own way, and then something happened I didn't expect--I died suddenly and unexpectedly after I walked out on God's will for my life. (Issues, Part 15 [#3444])

“How many times can I resist CONVICTION?”

If you think your times of testing and trials serving the Lord are too hard to endure, they are nothing compared to what it is like when you say no to Jesus. For each lonely hour you pass in service to Jesus, you'll be rewarded Here in Heaven. The hours you pass pursuing your own selfish interests out in the world are lost forever. You will never have anything to show for them.

I've learned a lot since coming Home to Heaven, but things are different than they could have been. I have since come to see a great truth, a wonderful and magnificent reality that I had failed to see while on Earth. Sometimes, out there on the mission field, I was tempted to think I was doing so little, making hardly any difference in the world, and I sometimes wondered if it was really worth it all. But now I can see how the life of each missionary is multiplied--hundreds, thousands, millions and even more times over. I can see it now. Even though in the end I threw my crown away, and gave away the opportunity to have received greater rewards by continuing to serve the Lord and give my life to Him, still, I was richly rewarded and blessed for the ten years in which I did give my life and heart to others. I received great satisfaction and fulfillment from my years of service, on Earth and in Heaven. But it was so short of what it could have been.

It pays to keep your eyes on Heaven, to set your affections on things above, to keep on forsaking every day, to keep on loving every day, to keep on fighting every day, and to not quit. You'll never be sorry. It's the only way you will ever be happy and satisfied. You know the truth, and you'll never be truly happy with anything less.

Don't fall for the "fun" temptations of Satan, because I can tell you from personal experience, they won't last. Keep fighting. Keep presenting your body a living sacrifice--like Jesus did for you. Keep setting your face like flint, and look straight on. Keep climbing those steep slopes, and before you know it, you'll look down on creation. The view will be worth every rocky step you had to take. It's worth it all--every single bit.

Don't be discouraged, don't ever give up, keep on believing, and most of all, whatever you do, don't quit! Just think, all the great missionaries that ever lived are counting on each and every one of you to finish the job. Every one is watching from the Heavenlies. That's a pretty good reason to not quit, isn't it? We're all praying and shouting, and rooting for you!--We're counting on you to finish the job! (Cry of the Harvest)

I did not have the trust or the faith to wait, to hope, to patiently expect that in His good time, He would give me all that I needed, even in that lone missionary outpost in Namibia. Rather, once I believed that I was in possession of what I needed to make me happy, I resigned myself to not let go of it. Never mind whether or not God had a better choice of man in mind for my life, I would not have it. I would have what I wanted and needed, and I would have it now. For if I let it go, in such a remote part of the world, perhaps I would never find it again. But it was not worth it. It brought such unhappiness, such dissatisfaction, such despair and regret.

(Cry of the Harvest [#007])

You weren't what God wanted you to be & you didn't do what God wanted you to do.

(Is It Too Late? [#1203])

When you lose sight of that truth, you lose true wisdom. Then there is only the carnal mind and the blindness and overconfidence that enter your life when you feel that there will never be consequences that you can do as you please and it will never come back to you in the form of loss, punishment, hardship, problems, sickness, accidents, and the many other ways your life can go downhill.

The longer someone is disobedient, the further this problem spreads in their life. The more someone feels they can "get away with" little sins and wrongdoings, the more their heart is set to do evil, because they feel there are no consequences. And pretty soon they sink deeper and deeper into compromise, until they're eventually compromising on things that were previously "untouchables," Everything good in your life depends on having My blessing, and having My blessing depends on your obedience to Me and the Word.

(Are You Robbing God? [#3461])

Fight against Arakan--the muddler of channels, the clouder of minds and confuser of thoughts. Break his power over you through the keys. Rebuke him by name, and do not let his confusion reign over you.

That's all the Lord asks of us--to just yield to Him and turn and start going His way, start going up the right path. Then, once our will is on His side and we're determined to fight, He takes over and gives us the strength we need to make it through to victory.

(Road to Commitment!, The [#3064])

"I was having lots of doubts about the New Wine, but I just couldn't shake the feeling that it had to be the Lord speaking and it had to be Him behind it. I would just go back and forth in my mind trying to reason it out in the flesh, and I wasn't coming to any helpful conclusions. I wanted to give up, as I really wasn't prepared for facing all these battles.

(Road to Commitment!, The [#3064])

What I have finally found out, though somewhat belatedly, is that the more you keep your eyes on Jesus and the more you believe in His Word and spend time with Him, the more your problems and battles melt away.

19. "Anyway, I finally decided that whatever happened, I wasn't going to have it said about me that I gave up. I just couldn't fail the Lord and you and Grandpa and all the rest of our Family like that, just because I felt I couldn't make it. However, I knew that no matter what kind of commitment I made, it wasn't going to last very long if I still had doubts about the Family and the Word, etc. I think that's why my other commitments and 'fresh starts' didn't work.

20. "I knew that the Word was my only salvation, and the only way to keep me here and inspired and give me faith and everything. But up until this point, the Word did not profit me because it was not mixed with faith to believe it in the first place. So I asked the Lord to help me believe in the Word with all my heart and give me the faith to believe it. I did already believe a lot of it, but I wanted to believe all of it and not keep these doubts in my heart about some things, which were actually pretty major things.

21. "I started to see that as much as I hated to admit it to myself, a lot of my doubts were born of pride. I doubted that some of these things were of the Lord because I felt too weak or not ready to live up to them, so in my pride I didn't want to believe them.

(Road to Commitment!, The [#3064])

I want to tell My children to stand up to the Enemy. Call his bluff when he spews his lies and deceit at you, trying to prevent you from following Me and saying yes to what I ask you to do. I only ask these things of you that "you may be saved." I want to save your life, your spiritual life, so that it will bring forth much fruit.

The way you can call the bluff of these lies, deceits, discouragements and hindrances of the Devil during these times is to obey Me. Do it. Do it now! The sooner the better, for in the instant you say yes to Me, the Enemy's power over your mind is greatly diminished. Just say the words, "I want to do Your will, Jesus." "Not my will, but Your will be done, Jesus." "I want to yield, Jesus, help me." "I want to obey, Jesus, help me." "I yield." "I am going to obey." "I choose You, Jesus."

Just say the words and the power will come. Call on the keys and they will be turned to swords and will slash and cut and defeat the Devil and all his demons, and you will be triumphant! Just tell the Devil that "Jesus rules!" and rebuke the Enemy and resist him. I will not fail you, My loves. You might not see the blessings instantly, but I will bless you.

The blessings come instantly in the spirit, but you've got to fight. Sometimes it's a long haul, but don't give up. Don't quit. No matter how long the battle, keep fighting, and I will honor you and come through for you. Some of you who feel like it's such a long haul, a constant battle--keep claiming the keys for strength to be yielded, to obey, to submit to Me, and proceed as if possessing, and it will happen. You don't see it, but those of you who have such struggles receive special rewards in Heaven.

I know it's hard to take it by faith, especially in the midst of your battles there on Earth. You grow weary in your fight because "blessings" and "special rewards" don't have a face. You don't see them or know what they are. If you could, it might help you. That's where strength of spirit is made--in the believing, in the faith. That's what's going to overcome the wickedness of this world--your faith.

And now I have given you the physical manifestation of key power, heavenly thought power, of being possessed by Me. You have it now, and will use it more and more, and begin to see the manifestation of the fruit of following My will. Didn't I tell you that I would not leave you comfortless? Didn't I tell you that I would make a way of escape for the time of temptation, so that you would be able to bear it? Well, think about all that I have written in My Word of the powers you will have in the Endtime, that you will be strong and do exploits. That power comes from following My will today.

So the next time you're getting fought by the Devil, remember that fact and you will understand why you are being fought so hard, and you will have the power to resist, rebuke, and rise above.

I love you, My children. Great are your rewards in Heaven for following My will, for saying yes to Me, for forsaking your life to do God's will. Well done, My good and faithful servants; you will be entering into My joy! Heaven awaits you, along with a multitude of rewards that are far beyond any thrill or happiness you have experienced on Earth. (End of message from Jesus.)

(Issues, Part 15 [#3444])

"Don't let it be said of you that you just followed the flesh and followed the path of least resistance and gave in to whatever carnal desires you had. But rather let it ring out when you step across the veil, that you fought and you didn't give into the pull that so many have. You depended on the spiritual weapons, rather than your carnal mind. Darling I love you, I know it's hard and your being resists it because it's hard, but don't forget the heavenly vision is to spur you on."

Jesus : you want the fight to be an easy one? You want it to be all nice for you, but that is not the way of pilgrims and warriors of David. Through blood and the sweat of their faces did these get where they are. Do you expect to get to stand in these ranks by barely lifting a finger? Do you want to be given to you what others had to die to achieve. My love, expect battles and expect to struggle and to give your all to My cause. Do you want this life? Then pour out yourself into it and don't look back. Fight to give all. Bleed to give all. Die to give all, and don't listen to the mocking of the enemy. He is taunting you and tempting you to look at your circumstances, but I say, your war is not a fleshly battle, you fight and win in the spirit and unless you take out your spiritual sword and start cutting down his lies, you will have this attitude that it should all be handed to you, and if the challenges arise you are offended. No let it not be so...fight beloved, for soldiers aren't surprised by the need to shoot! Ready yourself for though the battles are hard now, the war will only get hotter from here on out. Prepare dear and fight.

The upkeep of this house is dependent on My supply, so you have to be staying close to Me if you want Me to continue to bless you.

" He that forsaketh not all that he hath cannot be My disciple."

My Word is very straightforward...too straightforward for some people; they just can't stand it, so they compromise and make excuses for themselves. They can't stand the conviction and find the price too high.

Yes, I won't deny that to your human eyes the cost of being My disciple is "too high"...it is impossible when looking at it through the eyes of the world and the flesh. And especially these Words of David that speak of full possession and transparency and all that... your mind says it's too high for the likes of me.

BUT and it's a very big "but" if you'd just find it to look past this world and into Mine, you would see that there's no comparison to what you are giving up to what you are gaining... there is nothing that this world can offer you, that I can't give: only it'll be a million times better. You just have to believe. Believe in that which is, for the present, unseen... RIGHT there is where so many fall by the wayside. They want to hold something in their hands, to feel something and see SOMETHING. They just can't make it past the part of My Word that requires blind faith. I understand that it's a challenge, but the dividends are more than worth it. Belief is where you just fall down... because it hurts to let everything go, so you just sort of get out of it, because I'm not standing in front of you telling you to do these things... your carnal eyes can't see Me. You have to look past it and look into My eyes and there find your courage to give all til your last breath...you will fall and fail but you must not stay that way for long, because great is the reward of faith, My love... pursue it....

"You hold in your hand the key of Heaven and your part is but to take hold of, embrace, grasp, and never let go of it, nor of the precious treasures that it allows you access to. Never set aside this key or let it out of your sight. Never let its value diminish in your eyes."

This key is your yieldedness and commitment to Me, your DESPERATION OF HEART to fulfill My will.

You can never lose your place in My heart, nor your place in My Kingdom. The only thing you can lose is the full power, anointing and strengthening for this new year and this new millennium. Therefore I charge you to diligently guard your hearts, your spirits and your channels. I wish to make the passageway between your physical realm and My spiritual realm a very short one. I wish for you to always have the key wherewith to enter My spiritual realm to receive all that you need to face what lies ahead.

ONLY with the power, wisdom and guidance that you will find when you search beyond the veil will you have the ability to endure--and not only to endure, but to overcome.

Every day is a day of choice and a day of strengthening. Depending on your choices, you shall either be strengthened or weakened.

I will walk beside you on here the way, you will never be alone. I will be shade in the heat of the day; your refuge in the bitter cold...I'll be Home to you

Do you want this pearl?

Oh yes!

Here's the price

Oh.....

For those of you who view your life as a disciple as a pearl of priceless value, you're going to fight for it with all of the strength in your heart, mind, soul and spirit. You will take hold of the keys and put them into action, and you will make it.

(me:) I know now what that means Jesus, and it's so hard to say yes. When I was young it was easy. I'd say yes, I'd give you all, as if I knew what it felt like to give you everything of me, as if I knew what death felt like. Now I've had a taste and sweet Jesus I feel too weak to walk this road. But I don't want to fail you. It seems like there is something inside of me that is pushing me to make the step. To say yes to You means laying down everything I love; no plans, no will, no desires of my own, nothing but total service... I know that once I've passed through the pain, I would find that total joy that You've spoken of. I want to make You proud, but the breaking, the loss, the death! Am I able Lord...?

(Jesus:) Not you, but I... I love you My darling. And it is this love that drives you onward and will see you through and at last across the finish line. I understand the fear you feel; I too felt this fear as I prayed in the garden that night. But I'm not going to ask you to have the grace for all that you will face all at once. I know that you can't do it. All I want is for you to look Me in the eyes and say yes to this first step. It is our love for one another that will see you through to the finish. So can you say yes just for this one step despite all that may oppose you? Do you love Me? ...You know I love you beyond measure.

(me:) Yes Jesus, I love you. You satisfy me. When I'm with you I feel totally complete. When you hold me in Your arms I know that this is real, this is where I want to be, this is the meaning to life. So I say yes. Help me to do my part to fulfill whatever requirements You ask of me in order to step through and walk through this wilderness. I can't do this on my own; I've failed too many times, I'm too weak, but I want to do it for You...

(Jesus:) Then take My hand sweet one, and I will lead you through. I will show you the way in which you must go. I will show you where you must place your feet; I will be with you as you take each step. And if you should stumble or go astray, I will remain faithful. I will bind your wandering heart to Me, and as a strong cord I will pull you back upon the path I have set for you. So take heart, look to Me. Remember the love we share, for it shall be for you as a light when all other lights go out. And take that which is in your hand, hold it out before you and walk onward. Never put it down, hold it out before you always. For with these Keys you shall open all heaven, and bind all hell. You're not alone, so walk not alone, reach forth and avail yourself of the experience of all the ages. Great shall be My spirit in you as you yield your all to Me. Now is the time of the wilderness, now is the time to bridge the gap between Heaven and Earth. You're My keys, you're the completion of My church, and with you I will open the portal between the worlds. So walk on faithful, be not afraid, for I will do it all through you. Carry My words proudly and faithfully onto the end. I love you... (End of prophecy) (James)

"Some Tears will be shed in Heaven over of the wrong decisions we were so determined to make."

"I'm not calling for a second chance...I'm screaming at the top of my voice"

The core of the matter and what I really desire is the hearts of My brides--each one's personal love for Me, dedication to Me, and willingness to obey Me through whatever personal tests and choices they have to make, whatever weaknesses they personally have to overcome, and whatever cross they personally have to bear.

(Shooting Straight, Part 8 [#3512])

i was in darkness...till You came and lit up my world with the stars in Your perfect eyes.
