

The Last Hours

(Weaved Version)

There's no way this is right...there's no way that the way the world is going is how it's supposed to be, that all your brothers and sisters that have left are right and are the ones making the good, smart decision while you guys are just living in an imaginary dream world. That would mean that the smart thing to do is to go into the System, forget about Jesus' return, and peace and love on Earth, get a job and pay tax money to a government that will use it to slaughter innocent women and children... It doesn't compute or add up or make sense...there's no point in living in such a world any longer; you don't want to! Jesus has to return to put an end to the madness. Or else what? You and your brothers and sisters that remain are left to this world that has completely turned towards Satan and his way. It can't be right...even if you still 'believe in Jesus,' what good can you do in a world that is so rotten from within? What's the point of this world continuing? It's too dark and too evil.

The world is sick and the people are sick; and it is because they chose the things of this world and have put them above the precious things of love and mercy. They are eaten from within and their attitude and behavior shows their sickness and disease. You don't ever want to be part of this world and its people...it's so shallow and empty and the way you behave when white magic is the most important to you is so gross and twisted. It just consumes you and your thoughts and there isn't room for anything else. Whether it's worldly entertainment, fashion, or making money...these eat at your soul and spirit from the inside and ruin your perspective on life and what's important. You've experienced how you become when you get into the things of the world... suddenly you are discontent and unhappy and all that you think about is the next time you can satisfy your addiction. But as you strive to push these things out of your life, you see things as they are and I'm opening the truth to you more and more every day... You've learned to love the simplicity of living for Me and just doing your job and not having to deal with the unhappiness and confusion that the things of the world bring. Yes, you are tempted by this carnal way, but when you pull back and focus solely on Me, it becomes clear in your eyes and it feels so wrong and unnatural to you, and that is because you are drinking from My fountains and believing what I've said, but be certain that if you were to step away from My flowing streams of Living Waters, you would become just as darkened and corrupted from within. You would become just as dead in spirit. It's all the Word. Only the Word has the power to remake this world and change it from within. People need My Word more than anything; they need it running through their very being and then they need to yield to it and realize that the sacrifice of their own will is the way to true and lasting happiness, that caring for others more than yourself is actually the natural way...the way that you will feel the most happy on. They've been deceived by the deceiver, so they don't yet know the beauty and freedom to be had in My Spirit, but soon, very soon everybody will get a chance to hear and choose whom they will serve.

You don't see the immensity of what you've been given; and it's the day to day living that is so hard on you. It's the flesh and the carnal mind that muddies the waters of My Word and makes you forget all My wonderful promises and the greatness and grandness of all that My Word has said to you. You lose sight of it in the doing and you fail to keep the real living Heavenly Vision. That 'alive' knowledge that you are who I say you are and that what I said is going to happen is really going to happen...I'm not faulting you; the flesh is strong and you can only be faithful each day or not. Faithful to pray and praise with feelings...or not. But what I am saying if you find yourself forgetting, remind yourself. Find the Vision within the Word in your times with Me...it is there shining out on the pages; don't let the day pass without having awakened the vision within you. That's why it's so easy for those who stop reading My Word to just disbelieve it all...only My Word can sustain you and keep you going through thick and thin...otherwise the flesh will win over you eventually. Its relentless pulling and dragging gets you down and you simply forget everything that you are fighting for. It drags on you...it's so heavy and the carnality that is in you confuses you and the truths that you absorbed in Word time suddenly seem hazy. But this is what you must not let happen. Every day you must stir your heart and spirit to recapture the wonder and truth of My Word and the promises given or else these things will slip through your fingers. You must fight to find that Wonder and that Beauty that is yours for the taking...all those amazing promises that would blow your carnal mind away if you actually believed them. It's so hard for your spirit to push pass the mind and flesh and really grasp what I am saying. The members within you that are warring against My Spirit will steal away your destiny through simply making you forget the Word's promises and making you feel like it's impossible anyhow, so why bother? I can only tell you through My written Word, but with these Words I implore you to not ignore all the Promises I have given. Don't let the flesh pull you so low causing you to doubt, waver and fall. Rise up and fight and determine to claim that Vision and let it fill your eyes with strength to keep looking at Me no matter what. (March 7, 2026 Dream about Crossing a River)

Today your voice is small; today My children are persecuted in a world that is not their own. Tomorrow your voice will boom, not only throughout the spiritual universe but the physical universe as well. Today is not the day of the mighty; today is the day of the meek. Those that they persecute today, those that live in their caves and dens and who wander in the wilderness today, will be those that stand at the top of the world tomorrow. Today you are little people, and it would seem you stand alone, but tomorrow you will not stand alone, for all the world will see that I, your King and Husband, stand with you. I have chosen you, because you chose Me. I chose you from the beginning of time to pass through this time as a sample to the world that My promises are true to those that do not forsake My name. Today is your finest hour, but today's finest hour will pale into insignificance when I come into My Kingdom with you at My side. Fear not, I come. The night is passing, and the light of a new day is dawning. Light the beacon; I will not fail to lift it high for all to see who are My true children and who are they that have hoodwinked the whole world with white magic and black magic. These that make white black and black white, who change the seasons and times, who say right is wrong and wrong is right, these who spread their poison through education and commerce, who abuse the poor and downtrodden and build their houses on the blood of My martyrs, cursed are they. The outer rim of the darkest universe will be their next home, whilst My own will be given the Kingdom of God. As the Son of a new dawn rises for you, their son shall set and they and their kingdom will fall into great and perpetual darkness.

This devil-filled kingdom of man must be put to a stop; it must meet its deserved end. I am about to step forward and say, —IT IS ENOUGH. I can't hold My anger and wrath for the wickedness any longer...it will all be done as I have said, but it is your part to pray it through to completion. Don't get weary in this last hour but fight on. You see what America and Israel are doing now and it makes you feel so sickened and frustrated by the evil. The little information that you hear causes you to feel so saddened for the world and what man has come to, but don't just feel upset, but get stirred in prayer, so I will truly know where you stand and that you are one of My own calling Me to come and be the rightful King of this broken world.

Fighting Your Way To the Finish Line

You are the Remnant, the Philly Church, the last church —because you have fought through in faith and have grabbed that baton from the runner before you and are now heading for the line. It is all by faith and will remain so until the second you cross the line. Only then will it all become reality. The Words of David and Maria and the Bible say it's so, and the New New Wine you have been receiving is confirming these truths.

The race is only over when you cross the line. And on the other hand, don't believe the lie that you are nobodies and no ones. You are elites, simply and only because you chose to be. Do not let the lies of Satan convince you otherwise, because that is akin to unbelief and actually handing your rightful crown over to Satan. Isn't that what he convinced Adam and Eve to do? Yes, it was, and do you want history to be repeated? Don't concern yourself with anyone else, and that includes all those that came before you. As the Words of David have said, you are the ones that have been chosen to take the Light of Israel across the finish line. (JUN 11, 2025 Fighting the Seventy)

Right now you guys are esteemed by the world as less than nothing and are worthless in their sight, but very soon I will lift you up. I'll put this little group here up there and say this here is the Index team, they were faithful to the Words of David...they loved not their lives unto death, and these I choose as Wives and Lovers. It's up to you if you want to really be a part of this team or just sort of hang on till I return. If you want to fulfill your destiny, you must take hold of it with both hands and not let go of it when the carnal mind and the enemy come along with ten thousand reasons that this is impossible. It's your destiny to uphold the flame, the Words, and you can't, and in fact, aren't doing that when you are entertaining doubts and unbelief in My promise to return.

I'm desperate to not take away any of your honor; it's so hard to believe and to hold on and you feel like you can't see anything, and My return being so close you feel like you want to see some sign, but I want to wait to the last minute to prove and try your faith to the absolute limit as gold is tried in the fire. I can't show you any more signs than I already have...all those little signs you see in My Word, are in reality trumpets sounding declaring My great love for you. I want to help you believe, but I will not take away your reward of faith. I will not rob you of this, though your mind and heart feel buffeted, you must carry your cross and your burden all the way and be faithful and full of blind faith. (1st February 2026)

Listen to Me and you will carry the Light of Israel across the line. You must apply the Seven Thunders --all of them if your desire is to carry what I have put within your hearts. I am with you, but as I have oft said, I cannot carry you to the threshold between our worlds; the last part of the journey is yours to finish. As your loving, doting Husband I will be there at the threshold to carry you across. Now pick up your flickering light and let us leave this place. Let the dead bury the dead. I will return in a short space and gather to Me all that are Mine. (FEB 4, 2025 DreamAboutM&P)

Jesus: Oh My bride! Even now your eyes are watering and your heart is longing for that day. Your soul is pleading with Me to come and save you. My love, My love, My love! I promise on My honor, that if you do everything I have asked of you, if you be My faithful virgin bride, if you fulfill the calling and destiny I have given you, I will, I will, I will, I WILL, Return.

Hold fast that which thou hast, let no man steal your crown. My hand is above your head; the crown is descending and will soon be yours. Hold on, the last trump has not yet sounded, but when it does, I want with all My heart for you to be standing right where I asked you to stand. I will come, not a moment too soon, not a moment too late. You are My chosen one, you helped Me write out the invitations, you helped Me set the date, you know not the hour, but you do know the day of our betrothal. (SEP 1, 2025 The Great Appointment)

You now stand on the icy lake, naked, no clothes. The hand that holds your crown is descending as I speak. There is naught left to do but wait patiently in your earthly prison. The remaining pages have been turned; you are on the last page of the last chapter of this book. Once the page is turned, the book itself will be closed and set in its place in My great library of saints. The reason I speak of the icy lake at this time is because of the lesson of endurance and faith in the story Crowns on the Ice. If you feel alone and as if you are the last one—the only one left standing—do not fear, and do not look anywhere but up, and listen to no other voice but Mine.

The winds that blow across the icy lake are bitter, and they bite hard. Do not listen to that carnal mind asking you why you are standing on this icy lake, in the dark, alone, when just within walking distance are warm clothes and fellowship—of a sort. Wait patiently, My heart. Those who have passed on before you call your name from just beyond the veil. Their whispers join with Mine, saying, Walk on, just a little ways more, and you will be home.

The carnal mind is clearly the enemy to you crossing the line with that Torch of Revolution held high above your head. You could say that your carnal mind is an even greater threat than the Devil and is quite capable of defeating you without the Devil's help. Will I find faith in the earth at My return? If you overcome this enemy, I surely will.

Your enemy will steal your crown, and neither you nor I can hold it to an accounting. Those who are led by their carnal mind will not be those who receive the crowns and rewards at the Marriage Supper.

Those in the grandstand who are there by compulsion are those who listened to their carnal mind over the voice of My prophets.” (Feb 15, 2026 Stand in the Midst of Jordan)

The flesh smothers the spiritual man. It’s a daily spiritual fight for the spiritual man to stay out from beneath the smothering blanket of the material man. Your carnal mind has very strong influence—very strong—and that is because the material man cannot see. (Feb. 15, 2026 Stand in the Midst of Jordan)

That carnal mind that some of you listen to so intently will be left on Earth at "the twinkling of an eye." It will be blameless—a stupid thing, your and God’s worst enemy. It will not stand beside you at My Judgment Seat. That enemy has caused the fall of millions, if not billions, of people. Men of faith have fallen at its hand right at the crest of victory, as the crown was coming down upon their heads.

Do not resist the entrance of My Words. Resist the carnal mind by keeping the door of the spirit ajar. Continue pushing away the accumulating clutter of voices and distractions. Put off the carnal mind and allow My mind to replace the receding darkness; demand that it remain in time-out. (Magic Master Painter Dec 19, 2025)

We are taking the Light of Israel to the City of Light. This step we are taking now is part of that ascension, if you will. The old man has to die as we pass into the spirit with the Light of Israel. This is our commission. Our enemy is Satan and he wants to destroy us; he does not want us to succeed where he failed. He failed to hold the Light on high. He dropped the torch. With all his heart, he does not want to see us cross that line.

The enemy will try every foul trick to knock you off orbit, but fear not, neither be dismayed; I am with you. But never forget, I can only help you if you keep every part of your spiritual being focused on the power. The power for this final hour is the Seven Thunders; living them, wielding them, allowing them to fully and completely possess you.

The enemy is desperate to just get you off the point. The point that you are upholding the Light till I come and get you to focus on anything but the very thing you are on this land for in the first place! If he can’t get you to doubt and disbelieve it altogether, then he will get you to look at some insignificant detail about your physical life or what you are forsaking or what you really want but can’t have or lethargy or worldly distractions or whatever...he wants to separate you from My heart and the heart of your calling: to completely believe in My coming and the Words of David. (Morning Star)

These days leading up to My return are difficult for everyone...the heaviness is real and you all feel your weaknesses acutely and the confusion and the wondering and fears besiege you daily. You feel heavy and depressed every morning when it’s time to get Word because this is the warfare and you have to fight for your life and your faith. You can’t let it get stolen away. It’s an attack to make you feel like it’s all pointless and too hard, and you just can’t believe it or do it...But it’s this way because it’s the last lap, so run with courage, and don’t listen to the taunts of your mind and of your enemy, saying it’s no use and even if Jesus does come back, you are a failure, and well, if He doesn’t, you are screwed anyway. Take courage in My Words and hold on, for great is your reward for believing without seeing. You may be less than nothing, but you kept the fire burning in your heart, and that is what I needed you to do. You believed and believed, and this I will acknowledge and place My arm around you in gratefulness, for you carried on in belief even though the rest of the world and your loved ones turned away saying: “Impossible.” You sat at My feet and buried your face in My garment when the deception of the enemy rained down on you. You didn’t listen to the taunts of your mind and your enemy, but carried the banner of faith. Be what I created you to be and be faithful; just be faithful and I’ll call you by My name. Hold up the banner and stand right there in that wilderness where I’ve put you, even though your hands are shaking and the sweat is pouring into your eyes...look up, for very soon I’m going to pierce that cloudless sky with My power and My light and you’ll be the glad ones. Even though you were nothing, you held onto My Words, and that’s what I wanted...though you feel unworthy and even incapable, hold on and fulfill your calling. I just need faithful men...not anyone great or glorious, so stand in your lot and keep the flame living and I'll come and get you when the time is right. Don't let the enemy waste your time and cause you to waver and doubt, but fight him off with the Keys. It's a struggle to survive, but very soon you will see the reward of your faith.

Your enemies are desperate to take away the honor of your faith and belief; faith to believe even though things looked so bleak and the fulfillment of all My Promises seemed so unlikely. The crown goes to those who believed and obeyed whatever My Words asked of them.

It's not free, and you must lift your hands and fight all the harder when the enemy comes pounding on your door and yelling at you to compromise...to make contingency plans, to hold a place within your mind that doubts and disbelieves. He just wants to be able to say that he does own a place within you...that place that fears and looks around for ways of escape. Do you want that compromise and that Achan's gold to be within you when your Lover comes to get you? This is the last lap; the struggle to climb that last stretch of rock face...truly let go and don't let this compromise touch you. Cast it from you and stand. Drive the picket Key into the mountain face with force and climb. Don't look back; it's already gone and you are free. This last month will try you and purge you, but be happy that you can fight your hardest to the last minute. Each second is passing by and you are getting closer and closer to the Day of Graduation. Let every minute and every hour that passes be time that you use getting closer to your Jesus; don't waste it being crushed by the fears and heaviness that are a very real part of this time. Obey your orders and be faithful. Be faithful to pray and do your part to wield these weapons of the Spirit throughout the day instead of just thinking about nothing; make sure you do your part and don't let your side of the battle line sag. Just because you have a bad day that doesn't mean that's an excuse to lie down and rest from wielding the Seven Thunders. You must attack the enemy at every opportunity. Bring down his kingdom and destroy his devilish works. Keep unlocking those little locks, each and every day, by yielding and learning what He is trying to get across to you, and then your piece will be inside that Final Key when It slams into the Lock and that barrier comes crashing down and you all see with your eyes what you believed by faith. Don't wait for that 'seeing' time, because by then it's too late to do what you were called to while on EARTH. Don't look around, but straight ahead; if you look around, the heaviness will get to you and drag your spirit down. Keep your eyes on that Picket Key right in front of you and hold onto it. (FEB 27)

Jesus: There is no free pass across the line...every one of you must fight your way there. If you truly want to win the crown, you must fight for your life each and every day. Prove your faith as you stand there in the gap and cast down every evil imagination of the mind and of Satan. Because of disobedience, this enemy got in, but still you must be prepared to fight it and overcome it. There are wounds afflicted on every soldier during a battle, but you must not let these things stop or overcome you. These insidious attacks are designed to weaken your stand and ruin your faith right before the very end. If you let them continue, as well as this speaking fears and entertaining doubts, they will be as a sad regret when I do finally come crashing through the veil of your world; cast it far from you, My love.

What is the best way to fight these battles?

Sonora: The best way to fight them is to think about what's really true and what you actually want...and you must do this through the Keys. Claim your key promises and fight it off. The carnal mind will shut up then, but you must be persistent. Even as these doubts are persistent, so must you be. Be faithful to rebuke them and don't allow yourself to keep traveling down that pathway every time. You should definitely recognize it by now, so stop going down it so far like you don't understand what is going on! Surely you know and have no excuse not to fight. Vindicate His return every day within yourself and the Blue Light within you will grow and overcome the lies of the enemy, and when the day comes, you'll be holding that torch high just like He asked...but if you allow these attacks to continue as they now are, your light will dim and it won't be the testimony He desires. So fight, beloved; make it across the line with shining colors. You have to claim this prize and fight for it each and every day...Let faith's fire burn away the superfluous...this lust for the world and the easy way is your carnal man wishing to just sit back and forget about sacrifice, suffering, and sin...It wants to just relax in its own world and forget everything else. It's so cloistered in its own desires and wishes. It wants to forget and be distracted from the state of the world by the lusts and toys of white magic. Surely white magic works so well on the carnal man because the enemy designed it just like that: To make you docile, numb and dead...and this is exactly what your flesh body wants! It wants to enjoy and rest always, and it doesn't even want to have to deal with service in the Millennium....it's so selfish it's almost ridiculous. It has fears of the unknown, so it wishes to just forget about the reasons why it's fighting and suffering, and just relax. You must resist this part of your makeup and fight! Refuse to be like the rest of the dumbed-down-by-white-magic masses! Break out of it and shout out those Key promises and prove to us that you are a live one! Your spiritual man knows and understands the disaster it would be if these things were so, and it longs for the right things, so you must put to rest your carnal man and all its outlandish desires of just rest and relaxation. Even if things were to happen as it is thinking, it would be the farthest thing from restful. Resist these thoughts, for they lead only to a dark place. Fight for this dying world with all your strength and refuse that sleepy way of Satan. Claim your crown through tears and the sacrifice of a willing and broken heart. Let the pain of it break you, but don't go off on your own seeking surcease; come willingly to His chamber and find comfort and rest from the battle in His arms. He is the rest from your labors and the healing balm to your pain. Don't hold back and compromise, because when the days of waiting are finally over, you will be sorry...very sorry. (25th Feb 2026)

All that has gone before, all the tests, the struggles, the trials and revolutions have led you, My Warrior Band, to the final stand. There is a voice you hear that tells you, "What if the Master does not return as promised?" —You want to believe, but you are told that you must not put your faith on that hope. But without hope we are lost. Your hope, My loves, is to be in My unfailing Word. I have not lied to you, but remember do not rely on that rope around your waist. Do not rely on anything but My unfailing Keys. This is the final stand; do not doubt it. I will come through for each of you, just as I came through for your brother Job. Look around you now; all you see is the rock face of impossibility. Well, that is because you are not looking at the Keys. Remember, the Keys are Me and My Word. We are those vital companions that will give you everything you need to make the final stand. Ask for My Keys to filter those voices you hear in the wind. The enemy is trying to drown out the voices of those that climbed this mountain before you. Call on Job and he will hand you the picket of Job 13:15. Drive it deep into this difficult situation and tell Me, "Though You slay me, yet will I trust in You, My lover and King."

Remember, this is the final stand; you are the last climbers for this era. You carry the Light of Israel in your heart. That wind that snatches at you is trying to blow out the flame. It is deep in your heart so it's only recourse is to snatch you off the cliff face. Be bold and brave, My Warrior Band; as you believed in the Words of David and Maria, so believe in the Words that you hear as you listen on this deadly climb in this final stand for truth. (MAY 17, 2023 TheFinalActoftheCOD -Part2-) that. The line crossing you is like you dying, simply because death comes to everyone. You fall, as any fire escape Christian falls, and in your falling, the line crosses over you. Spiritual death or physical death in this manner is all the same to Me. (November 19, 2025... The Fall)

Just be faithful each day and I will do the rest; be true to all the Seven Thunders and you will fulfill your destiny and carry the Light of Israel across the line. Like the above prophecy said: Cross the line...don't let the line pass over you. Struggle and war against the carnal man each day if that's what it takes, but let Me find you faithful to what I've told you to do. Don't let this time slip through your fingers, but take hold of it with both hands and use it to the best of your ability and claim the crown that I have for you. (The Master Key Nov. 22, 2025)

These are hard days, and there are lessons to learn and that means I will have to put you in the fire...I don't want to leave any part of your soul unpurged. I want you bright and shiny when our wedding day finally arrives. I want you to be able to stand with your people on the Day of our Wedding, in the group of Tribulation saints that kept the Flame alive in that last desperate hour. Each of you who was faithful will receive your mark, an emblem embedded within you as a sign that you did your part. Like your blue ribbon of success, only it is something that is part of your being...both like a trophy and a battle scar...for it did cost you to obtain this. People will know what class you are from then and it's an honor, but to be worthy of such an honor you have to be doing your part...you don't just receive this reward by virtue of just being where you are. No, you have to claim it by your sacrifice and by your love. I want so much for you to receive your full reward, and for you to not let any compromise mar the beauty of that day. Yes, you failed and fell a lot, but if you get up again and don't let the condemnation and feelings of utter worthlessness stop you, but keep running and running to the finish line, this is what wins the prize...not you saying it was too hard or that you aren't good enough anyway. Even if you have to crawl because you are weak and the battles were so hard on you, you still have to be determined to reach My line I have set for you to cross. Get up; just get up and do your part in this last hour.

Pray and call on the Keys and put your all on the altar of Prayer and of the Seven Thunders and fulfill the Word by living it. I say it is an altar with a fire burning because living these Words causes self and flesh to burn and die, so you have to be willing to do this again and again, and this, My sweet, is what I reward. The willingness to die, even though you were full of faults and reneged often, you kept running back to that Holy Altar where secrets and beauties dance within the flames that burn self and pride down to ashes. This is the Altar of My Seven Thunders...come and here feed the fire with your life and I'll call you faithful when all is said and done. (1st of March 2026)

I understand the vicious struggle as you daily battle anxiety and fear, but you must wield the Seven Thunders against these deadly enemies. I know you feel like you are on a roller coaster of emotions, from excitement to gripping fear and despair, but I can steady you in this sea and be your Rock of Truth and Steadfastness. My Word is Truth, and there you must stand and let nothing dissuade you. Rebuke the fears and let Me stir the fires of longing and excitement within you.... Let it rise up within you, for indeed you have a lot to look forward to! You feel like the incredibleness and the shocking truth of it is bottled inside you, and sometimes you feel like you might burst. You don't know how to put it into words...it's so unbelievable, yet it's going to happen! You are about to experience the greatest day in all man's history! Your mind and heart can't contain the excitement and wonder of it! You want to shout these things out, but must be content to pray and patiently wait for all these things to come to pass. There are no words to describe the Glory and the Wonder of it. You truly are blessed beyond your wildest imaginations. Truly you cannot conceive it or contain the excitement of what is about to come on the earth. You understand it a little, but there is so much your human earthly mind simply cannot grasp. But when you get Here and see everything and truly understand with your spiritual mind, you'll just explode like a firecracker with color and beauty. You'll truly see and be able to fully appreciate everything I've done and thank Me for doing it and fall down and weep that you were able to be a little part of My glorious plan! (1st February 2026)

Warrior Band counselor: Proclaim that you believe! Pray for it to be so with all your soul, heart, mind, and body...with every ounce of strength that you possess. Cry it out and use your last breath to say you believe and to ring out for His Word to come to pass and be fulfilled, and you will be found faithful in His sight. You are desperate for His Words of David to be found true, and they will be! You carried these Words and that faith through long nights and endless days, and He'll say thank you to you for carrying that piece of His heart so faithfully, even though it was heavy and cost you, but in the end you'll just count it an honor that you were even able to do so, and you'll say, —No, THANK YOU! You chose me to carry Your precious Golden Words to the end of the line, and I can't think of a greater Honor!

We desire above all things to be standing in the Hall of Warriors with you beside us, head held high, not in proud show, but in humility, knowing that what you did here on earth in this last battle was done for Me and others. The glory that you will receive there only comes through the path of humility and transparency. Can I trust you to be transparent now? If so, then you will stand with Me in that Hall, before all, singing the song that only can be sung by warriors, who in spite of all odds, crawled, ran, climbed on to cross the final line. I love you. I need your total and absolute dedication now. Put aside those sins and weights that so easily beset you and run with us, your team mates, lovers and dearest, closest friends.

More that brothers are we; dearer than sisters are we. We are brides, called and chosen for this time in history.

It's a Struggle All the Way

One day you will look back and thank Me for these days leading up to My return, these days of struggle and growth—two words that fit together like hand and glove. Struggle and growth: that is what these days are for, My band of warriors; days of struggle as you fight through to the finish line, casting off the weights and sins that so easily beset you. (The Magic Master Painter December 19, 2025)

Jesus: The struggles will continue, for that is what makes you. These things force you to fight and to grow when you would prefer to just go along at your own pace. It is pain and discomfort that makes you desperate and to seek Me out in more substantial ways. It makes you find your bravery in Me, when all you want to do is hide your face in fear. It teaches you to be brave and to fight on even though you would rather curl up and forget about it. Your nature is not to fight, but to preserve yourself and your comfort at all cost, but as you obey and follow My strong Words, they give you courage and the fortitude that doesn't come naturally. So embrace these daily struggles and grow. Grow into My place I have for you and don't surrender to the feelings and the attacks, but rise up with the strength of My Thunders and claim your place beside Me as one of My sweethearts who will do anything just to please Me. Keep fighting these battles with the weapons I gave you and you will make the progress I desire from you.

Every Word I've spoken will come to pass and every promise will come to fruition and you'll be happy for these struggles then, for they made out of you a warrior and someone who can just keep going regardless of signs or not, feelings, fears, or whatever the enemy may throw at you. Let the steel of the enemy's blade as it clashes down upon your own weapons only stir your fervor to destroy him and his kingdom. (2nd/5th of March)

I love your spirit and I am helping you when you cannot help yourself. Your flesh is a heavy weight, but as your spirit lifts it each day and doesn't succumb, but keeps fighting, it is strengthened and I can use such a spirit as that. A slothful spirit doesn't fight the flesh, but gives in to every whim of the mind and body...and goes down the path of carnality and flesh which doesn't lead anywhere really...so be courageous and fight the flesh and resist it, for though it is part of you... it is a part that you fight, not that you get along with. (Your Blue Heart)

Jesus: To run free in the Fields of My Spirit, you must first lock and bind the carnal mind and all that tempts it to step away from Me and all that I am offering. Your flesh will always choose the easy way, but that way is the way of spiritual death, and this is what you must fight against. Your members are warring against each other, and that is why it's such a struggle, but if you use the Keys faithfully, you can rise above your lazy and carnal nature. You have to choose to sacrifice it and kill it, and remember that there is a better promise, a better life waiting for you if you can just endure hardness now. The world and its trips leave you dying of thirst and, as you can see, quite empty and depressed, but you already know this, or at least you should know this. But at times you seem to lust after that way, and you allow your flesh and mind to lust after it, and this is what you have to root out. You still hunger after this "easy way"...but darling, you are Mine and I am Yours, and this is what you must hold on to and never let go. Keep getting up and claim your crown. Don't just sit down and cry and wish you had the strength to do the right thing; stand up and claim it. Resist the mind and the continual besiegement of your stronghold. Don't surrender...all your helpers stand beside you; use the Keys and claim your crown now. We are almost to the finish line, and that is why your enemy is hoping to knock you out, but fight harder and don't despise your costly birthright.

Those that sharpened their swords against the rock will be the ones to fight the battles of the final time of man's rule and be victorious in the day of rain and thunder and lightning and fire of vengeance. I say to you who kept by My side even though the fog was great upon the land and the deception came upon thy head like stones pounding against the walls and gates of your mind. You were besieged like a stronghold being attacked day and night with all manner of weapons to bring an end to your standards. I say, "Come now and rest in the wilderness. Come and see Me fight for thee. Watch how I trample our enemies under My feet." (Revelation of the Seven Thunders)

This is your test and your honor; keep fighting it and I will faithfully help you rid it from your heart and spirit. You voice your doubts because of fear, but put away this fear and I will enlighten your darkness. The discouragement feels so deep because this is the last round and the enemy is going all out on you now.

Hold My hands tightly now and those of your spirit helpers and keep pushing on. Ask Me to purge you and it shall be done. I want to make you white in the fires of testing, so come yield to My hand that places you gently in these fires of trials. (Feb. 2026)

Don't let the flesh blind you to the magic of your situation. If you let it, all you will feel is the heat and all you will see is dirt and struggle...and of course you will give in to the taunts of your enemy to just quietly slip into the non- thinking state, where nothing physical and sadly nothing spiritual can touch you... It's a dead zone and you don't feel as you should. You grow cold and fall silent and nothing moves you, for you are trapped in an imaginary world. That's how the enemy made it to be... it's so obvious to us here in the spirit world. Countless millions are living in a dream world, so even when they see Palestinian children being blown to bits, they aren't moved; and you become like that when you move into that dream world. Yes, the real world hurts. But to fight your enemy you must face the grit and heat of the battlefield. It's not easy as you feel every stinging wound and see all the gruesome details of war, with none of that cloudiness of the Novocain to blur it over. It's a painful and tiring struggle, but you are alert and able to swing at the enemy and hit him where it hurts. Stay awake, virgin of the end, for though the struggle is persistent, the shinning reward of the Bridegroom Himself is before you.

Claw your way forward, because you have gotten yourself all beat up...crawl forward and hold on with your finger nails as the enemy sends gust after gust to blow you away and back down the mountain. Claw desperately because this is what you really want. This is what you want. Please don't forget it. That no matter how dirty this has all become...you, yourself, must hold on. (With Your Last Breath)

You must feel it from within the spirit; you have to travel behind the veil—at first difficult to pierce, but through persistent, believing faith you slice through it to gain your reward: that of a solid, immovable faith that you are indeed on the right path. It is full of battles and trials—that is what tells you the path is true and narrow. It is the warrior's path, so keep climbing. The artificial highs of the enemy leave you lying in bed, an old man, uninterested in spiritual warfare and true adventure (Example by Illustration)

It's the enemy and your flesh mind that makes it feel so pointless and heavy, but just be faithful to what you know is true and learn those hard lessons that at times knock you down flat ...be still and learn... don't sit there whining just because it's difficult. Every moment is a test and you have to realize your enemy is out to get you at any opportunity, so please don't give him that opportunity and learn to put off that carnal mind and listen to what I really want to tell you if you would just listen.

That heaviness you feel at times is the weight of Satan's heavies sent to harass and hinder you. Fight and call on Michael, the Captain of the Host of Heaven's Armies, to aid you in your struggle to be set free. Satan attempts to keep you locked in the physical realm. He shouts lies and abuse through the portal of your mind in an attempt to discourage you and have you believe there is no escape. He is lying; there is indeed great freedom of spirit waiting for you if you would just fight to fly off the mountain. Call on the Keys; they will lift you with eagle's wings and you will soar to great victories and progress. The enemy's grip on the world of men tightens. He is as a great python coiled around his prey, squeezing and constricting the very breath out of his victims. You must slip through his fingers and fly. Focus on the power of flight, and it is yours. Don't look down at your mountain of flesh. Those wings are real, but if you don't activate them by faith in the Keys, then you won't escape as a bird into the heavenlies. (Aug 20, 2025 Make This Man to Understand)

Repeated disobedience weakens your faith and it weakens your resolve each time you indulge in these things I have told you not to touch. These thoughts are simply an attack of the enemy and the carnal mind that you have to fight off. But they were allowed in through your wandering away from the circle of My protection. Your mind grows tired, but that isn't an excuse. Your enemy is hoping to weaken you in these last days before My return...the continual flood of confusion and the muddling of thoughts and just the tiredness and doubts is a concerted attack to get you off the wall...to get you to stop proclaiming that you believe. It is that belief that he is after, for it opposes him and proves him wrong. So with everything that you have within you, you must plant that flag of belief and let the flame of the Word burn brightly within you. Call on the Keys all the time to remind yourself what you are fighting for. Each moment, every attack and each battle you face, you have to remind yourself what is at stake and what you stand to lose, if you allow yourself to waver in this last hour. I'm not angry...I'm just desperate that you don't let yourself be overcome in this last lap...this race to the finish line. Everyone is feeling the heaviness, and it's a fight to survive, but this is when you must harden and be strong and meet the forces marshaled against you with all your weapons of war, those Mighty Seven Thunders. Use them and rise up on their power. Let them be your wings and fly above those things that pull so desperately on you.

You must give Jesus this cord that keeps pulling you back and keeps making you back down and lose your vision. Allow Him to cut it from you by obeying His Words and not looking back. You simply just have to rebuke the thoughts when they come; that's the only way to fight it now...just obey and keep it out of your mind as much as possible and He will do the impossible of severing the cords binding your heart and mind. Obey and do as we say and the victory will be yours. Disobey and you will continue to struggle with doubts, unbelief, and the cords will tighten and choke your usefulness. And when He comes for you, you will be filled with shame. Don't look back in your thoughts and He will be faithful to cut the cords that bind you as you obey by faith to not look back. Rebuke the thoughts as much as possible and He will come in for you and give you the victory you seek. It's a vicious battle of kill or be killed and we know the viciousness of it, but that doesn't mean you have to weaken under the strain, but rise up and claim what is yours. Call on the Keys and call on me and I will be strong when you are weak and I will be your courage when fear is choking the life out of you. I will be there for you every second, every moment...hold on; please hold on and believe in the heritage and birthright that has been given to you. Every waking moment you must fight and you must not let this vision slip from your grasp. It is this struggle that is strengthening you and making you the warrior bride that you were always meant to be.

"I don't want to be that sniveling coward that lets the line pass over me...I want to be faithful to everything You've given and walk or crawl over that line in faithfulness to every Word You spoke in the Words of David. I want to die on this frontline...I want to hold this banner up for everyone to see...but especially for You to see. So You can see that even though I am weak and pathetic, I believe and I kept the flame alive in this weak heart of mine. I want all those Seven Thunders to shine brightly from continual use within me as an everlasting insignia that I believe all You said."

Will you stand with Lot's wife in the end of days, as a pillar and testimony of disobedience and faithlessness, back turned to the spirit, looking longingly at the world, or will you flee into the Wilderness of the Spirit of God?

The straightway is the faith way...Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him. (Hebrews 10:38) (Nov 22, 2025 22 The Master Key)

Alvin York speaking: You have to be quicker when identifying the enemy's fiery darts. First thing in the morning is a very dangerous time, as your flesh and carnal mind awake. They are like a soldier stumbling out of his barracks not realizing the enemy has surrounded the camp and is about to open fire on the first fool that ambles out the door stretching and yawning and rubbing his eyes as they adjust to the dim early morning light, not even giving a thought to the fact that he's in the army and is always a target.

... Well, you are not outside taking in the early morning stillness. You are still in bed and your spirit has been engaged in heavy spiritual warfare all night long; it's not weary, but fully alert. But when the flesh blunders onto the scene, as it frequently does, the enemy open fires and his fiery darts often hit the bull's-eye. If you are one of those soldiers that is not always on the lookout for enemy snipers, then I suggest you get your act together, soldier.

The enemy is out there 24/7...You wonder what on earth some of those dreams you have are about. Well, they are the enemy fighting you. These days, as you near the end of the race, it is a rare thing that our Commander in Chief will allow you to have some dolly daydream visit to the Heavenly City partaking of all the things you wish you could have here in no-man's land. Your flesh will almost always want to roll over and go back to sleep, trying to wish those sounds of battle aside...It is true what David once said, you are your own worst enemy.

A good soldier sleeps with his rifle loaded, with the safety latch on, of course. But he's ready to flick the switch off as soon as his flesh has caught on where it is, and that is what I'm trying to get into your thick skull...You are at war, and it better not take a flesh-and-blood attack to wake you up to the fact that the bad guys are all around you in these last few months of the great war of the Spirit. I'll remind you of one of your Key promise memory quotes: "Even though this battle is manifested in the physical, it is a spiritual battle and can only be won in the spirit and through the power of prayer."

First thing in the morning, the enemy is intent on stopping you from picking up your weapon of prayer. Forget the safety latch, soldier; they weren't installed on these high-tech weapons you are using. You don't have to worry about them shooting you in the foot or killing one of your own. These weapons recognize who is who and they simply don't fire on friends. One fiery dart that is coming over the walls of our encampment these days is very poisonous; it was dipped in the pool of confusion, fear, uncertainties and reservation, and is laced with deadly doubts.

Your enemy is trying to get you to doubt that your prayers are having an effect, trying to make you doubt there is enough time to accomplish what needs to be accomplished before the day of Jesus' return arrives. When just one of those darts hits home and you allow its poison to seep through your spiritual mind by playing with the thought...Watch out...You have to quickly realize that the poison is heading for your spiritual veins... where it will quickly reach the heart...and you will ultimately be paralyzed.

(Jan 5, 2026 Are You a Sharpshooter?)

I know so little time is left, but be faithful with what is left, and even though you stumbled and fell, you rose up and want to make the most of what is left. I love you and I am waiting on the other side of the veil for you; I'm waiting, desperately praying for you to complete your mission and destiny. I want to gather you up in My arms and for you to be as happy as can be! So fight on, beloved, and meet Me with open arms and bright light on that day! Live Full Possession; don't just talk about it or get prophecies about it, but ask for it and crave it in your daily life. Desire not to go one step forward without My loving Presence over you. Then you can truly fulfill My will and do some good. (Aug. 25, 2022 A Prayer and a Blue Angel)

Just obey the Words no matter how you feel or don't feel. You know the truth and no one can force you to live it on the days that feel like a black hole sucking you into the vortex...You have to choose to fight and really be strengthened instead of just giving into it. All those little choices you make do have an effect on you...they are either weakening you or strengthening you. That choice to daydream or pray, to sing a worldly song or to praise, to voice your doubts or to speak faith, to just lie there feeling bummed or to get up and fight...all these things that happen to you are there to test you and try your spirit to see what manner of substance it is.

There is an endless array of distractions to trip you up...just to waste your time and weaken you through lazy choices to just piddle around...even if it's just something stupid like changing your wallpaper or reading some useless label. Lethargic choices weaken your spirit and even if just a little tendril can wrap around you, then that can make it a little easier for your enemy to get you when the those big temptations come knocking on your door. So if you feel like you are making the wrong choice a lot of the time, then it's time to look at yourself and your weakened and lazy spirit and make a decision to stop the slaughter. It's Obstacon's trick to get you with a little here and there...to steal away what you could be and have. He uses little disobediences to weaken you. You've been given the Seven Thunders of God. Don't let him disarm you by causing you to put down even one of those thunders. He wants you to compromise by just accepting to surrender in this or that area, but you've been given all the power you need; why flop across the line when you could cross it having done all you could to strengthen your spirit and become the bride Jesus is looking for? It's his tactic to make you not stand your strongest and to place that little niche of unyieldedness, laziness, and unbelief within you, so that when He comes for you, He'll see that little piece of darkness marring your beautiful blue light. You didn't try your best for Him and were just holding on for Him to come and make it nice for you, but failed to really grow in the ways He longed for. You held back that little reservation and that will be something between you and Jesus when your wedding day finally comes. You are given tests to try and purge you and to make you white, but you must make the decision to stand so that these choices to compromise and take the easy way don't stand between you and Jesus when He looks into your eyes on that day. Be sure there's special lessons for you during this time and if you don't want to miss out on lessons, then you have to be desperate to seek out His will and not just go from day to day in the flesh. Call on the Keys to reverse your very real nature that stands in your way and ask Him to change your heart into what He is desiring. Don't weaken under the strain, but be determined and get stronger instead of weaker. Open your arms to the battle and embrace the feeling of falling and He will be there to catch you and reward your dying faith. There is such a short time left, my love...and He is wanting you to hold your ground and not surrender no matter what. Challenge yourself and burn the candle at both ends if you have to...it's the last hours; keep your oil trimmed and ready, for the Bridegroom cometh. It's these last few hours that will try you and test you, but great is your reward if you don't give in but give it your best shot.

In Your Words I have found my home. I have found my true Safe Place; I can't imagine how I would feel without knowing You in this place. You are my Love, my Dearest Sweetheart. I love what You've done with us and how You've come down to touch us in these ways. First dying for us and then giving us the Words of David! Thank You. Jesus, I don't ever want to step away from You. I don't ever want to stop hearing these whispers of the Mountain. I never want to be swallowed by the white magic world just to hear the enemy's voice and lies all day. No, I refuse it! I am convinced that You wouldn't leave me to that. I know now that there's no way this isn't real...that's why I can have confidence in Your promise to return and save me from that terrible fate of being left to this world and its sirens calling and calling to me. You won't lie, Jesus. Your Words of David won't lie. Your Words are too beautiful, too real and alive. They move and They work. They dance in Color right before my eyes...they've touched me too deeply and moved in my life too strongly to just fall flat like that. You can't tell me that in the end the Words of David are just going to fall into the ground...I refuse to believe that. I know You will keep Your Word, Jesus...I know You will...but yet still, it is a struggle, and I feel like the carnal man and flesh are just sitting down and digging their feet in...refusing to let me be as excited as I should be. I feel the weight of every step...and even though the time is short I can't feel the excitement, and that too is a testimony that this is spiritual warfare and these last hours of Earth's history will be true to the nature of earthly life: a damned struggle and battle every step of the way. I don't think I should have expected it to be any other way. So thank You for this last chance to learn through the struggle and to come through as gold tried in the fire. Help me, Jesus, be faithful and not put down the Seven Thunders at all. Help me; help me.

How can I not miss my destiny?

You must be faithful to what I've put into your hands and never let your faith slip away. You have to keep trying to achieve Full Possession even though you feel like a failure and you don't know what to do or feel the confusion of the enemy. You must not entertain doubts and unbelief and hold that torch of David as high as you can. And when something comes up, whether you've made a mistake or you feel really discouraged, you have to realize there is a Key to be had and a lock to unlock for that particular situation. This will enable your piece of the Final Key to enter into the Lock, and thus you will have done your part and been faithful. Each and every situation is testing you and trying you and you have to be willing to learn and do, even though you feel the heaviness of the battle...it matters not, you must continue regardless, remembering that your strength comes from Me. Learn from your mistakes and grow into your place. Even though at times it feels like you are ramming your head against the wall when trying to get these lessons down...Full Possession? Faith? Humility? Love? ...Your carnal mind cries in frustration as it is met again and again with these things I am asking you to do. It wishes just to be set free and run away, but stay, darling. Stay still as I kindle the fire beneath you to purge you and to make you white. Keep coming closer when you feel yourself slipping away. Take the lessons I lay on your table...don't get too discouraged when you see the little X's meaning you didn't do too well in that area and it's time to go back in the Book and see where you went wrong. Sit down and learn your lesson and be relentless and don't let your faith fail you when again it's time to study up and learn from a mistake instead of looking at a success with pride and fulfillment. If you can learn from these mistakes then you will be so much the better than if you had a spotless record. Ask for the tests and for the trials to purge your soul and I will never fail to keep you on the straight and narrow way. I will hold you to your word and together we will reach the destiny I have for you.

I know so little time is left, but be faithful with what is left, and even though you stumbled and fell, you rose up and want to make the most of what is left. I love you and I am waiting on the other side of the veil for you; I'm waiting, desperately praying for you to complete your mission and destiny. I want to gather you up in My arms and for you to be as happy as can be! So fight on, beloved, and meet Me with open arms and bright light on that day! Live Full Possession; don't just talk about it or get prophecies about it, but ask for it and crave it in your daily life. Desire not to go one step forward without My loving Presence over you. Then you can truly fulfill My will and do some good. (A Prayer and a Blue Angel August 25, 2022)

You Must Be Relentless in Prayer, This Is Your Reasonable Sacrifice

You are heralding the King's return through your prayers, and all the worlds are hearing your cries for the Bridegroom. The whole Spirit World, every corner of the Kingdom, every crevice of Hell, can hear the heartfelt, heralding prayers of the Children of David. You are not unheard. You are not hidden. You are proclaiming from the house tops of the Spirit that Jesus is coming in 2026, and your calls are messaged abroad throughout all the Kingdoms! The only ones that don't seem to be hearing your heraldings are the Earthen. Even the devils do hear and tremble, but the systemites do not hear because they have been so engulfed by the Enemy's fleshly kingdom, so overrun in their minds and hearts that the Spirit can no longer speak to them. Not even a whisper, not even a feeling or premonition of things to come; they are so darkened in their minds, so alienated from the Spirit World and the events and causes and effects of the other dimensions and those who inhabit them. There will certainly be a very great widening of the eyes when the King returns to this world. Pray desperately for those who still have a spark of life left in their bodies. Pray that they be kept safe from the Beast and that their hearts not fall for the suffocating blanket of carnality. (Sept 1st, 2025 The Great Appointment)

Jesus: All your prayers and effort to use the Seven Thunders are culminating behind the barrier, and it's about to explode. It's all going to happen, and all that effort you put into obeying My Words and praying for these world events and for My return continuously and nonstop is going to pay off. All that work and effort is being stored away, and I catch every prayer uttered, so please pray this thing through to completion. Unlock every lock you are faced with and use the Keys to get that Victory. Don't let the enemy or the carnal mind silence your voice of faith or make you get tired in this last hour. Fight to the finish and win the crown that goes to those who played the part of prayer warriors to bring Me back to the lost and sad world. Be faithful to the last second and push it through. Push the Final Key into the Lock...Push it and don't give up pushing. All your praying and trying and yielding and breaking and fighting have made it possible for you all to be standing here at this moment in time right before My glorious return to the world. Everything you've been through has brought you to this point, and I'm begging you not to put down your weapons in this last hour...your prayers are causing these demonic powers to bow at your feet and to do My will. Every little piece is falling into place...it's almost time. You only hear the enemy's voice in your ear because he is afraid and knows he has no chance of escape now. So he wants to weaken your personal stand, but don't let him do this. Fight on in belief and see this through to the end. There's no way that the people out there are right and are doing the right thing and this freakish world is going to continue...you know this now, so hold on to this knowledge. My return is imminent and it's all going to collapse, and then you'll see just how right you were. That Golden Wave is about to flood over the whole Earth. It's all going to happen. Stand with all My Endtime pieces: the Palestinian martyrs, the Warrior Band, and the sighs and cries of My children for release from this terrible system. Stand and keep doing your part to pray and use the Seven Thunders at every opportunity, and the Final Key will enter the Lock and every Promise I made to you will be fulfilled. (Nov. 29, 2024 They Came For the Palestinians)

You must concentrate more when exercising the Seven Thunders, because the strength with which you beam in greatly influences the output intensity. Your belief and faith in who you are and what part you play in this Endtime battle greatly affects the outcome of future events. You have to resist the lies of the enemy. If he can downplay your position as Warrior Band in your mind, then he is stealing your power. You must resist him; he seeks to clutter your mind with doubts and confusion, because he knows that it is your prayers that are defeating his forces, so he does all he can to get you to power down.

Hate the Whore, the world, and call Me through your prayers to come burn her sickening system with fire. Let all My pent-up fury enter you and pray like you've never prayed before for all this to end. The rest of the world, the Beast, and his people don't want to do it; they love the white magic it gives too much, so you must force them with the Mighty Keys. You must force the world to kneel and do My will. This is the final battle of this era and the Whore shall not escape. I will fill her double all she has poured out, and the world will know WHO I AM. I need you to be desperate in this last month for her destruction and judgment. Let the suffering of the world tear at your heart and cry out for your land to be saved. I will come to destroy them, for My wife has commanded it and so shall it be done. Call on the Keys of Divine Fury and I will grind these wicked men to a fine powder and they won't have anything left of their kingdom they fought so hard to preserve. It can't continue...this system based on selfishness is bound to destruction. The prayers of the Warrior band have brought us to this point and it is ready and I am ready to put a stop to this creation of Satan and man.

Let Me hear and feel your desperation and don't let unbelief mar your prayers and pleas for Me to come and make you Mine and chase away the evil darkness that now suffocates the world. You can't imagine how this world can manage to continue if I don't return, and rightly so, for it can't...the devils and demons of this world and their ravaging of My creation is about to be put to a stop. Their time is up. You look at the world and you feel despair at its depravity and wickedness, but let it drive you to pray more desperately; let it stir you to cry out for the deliverance of My people. There is no reconciliation for it within your mind; it's too evil, too depraved...it's sickening and you don't want to live in such a world or even for it to continue to exist. It's gotten to be so heavy in your mind and heart, and you desperately want Me to come and stop it... So pray beloved, pray for Me to come and rescue everyone from their own wickedness and the heavy hand of Satan's rule over them. They've allowed it through turning away from Me and now they will truly see where this sort of selfishness and greed has led. But through your prayers and belief you can stop it and peace can come to earth again. Call on the Keys and don't let the enemy cause you to waver or doubt or be distracted...fight harder My love. Get angry at these demonic elites and fight against them with all your strength using the Seven Thunders to blast them into Hell where they belong. They will get their just reward; they will not escape the wrath to come. But do your part to make it Hell for them right now and bring down the kingdom they've fought so hard for. It's all about to come crashing down. Don't let anything stop you from craving this with your whole soul, for I promise on My honor that I will return when the world is at its darkest. Hide in your cave and keep that light of the candle burning and let not another steal your crown. (JAN 24, 2025 ATroopCalledCongress)

We are moving into the last phase of world history.... Put aside the distractions of Satan, for he would make of you prayerless warriors, as old men without teeth, sipping porridge in your tent. He would that you not take up your weapons and run to battle. He is sore afraid of the power of the Keys and the people of the Keys, the Key bearers. I have called you to a mighty task, one that will have great impact on how much damage Satan and his fallen ones will inflict on the people of this last generation. It is largely up to you as to how many people will reach that final day and be counted as the blessed. Daniel 12:12 "Blessed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days."

All Heaven is at your command. We, the angels of the highest order, are at your command. You only have to call and according to the will of the Father, your wish is our command. I said the darkness will not touch you, and that is true, but the darkness will try and steal away these Words. His attacks will be relentless, for there are very few that hold the Light of Israel as high as the Children of David, and none as high as the Warrior Band.

Your prayers are guiding the lost home. You must be more fervent in your use of the Seven Thunders. You must believe more ardently. Reach out into the darkness to those without hope. You feel frustration and as if you are bound in the darkness of this world. I say it is nothing to what those in the world feel and experience. Empower those of the spiritual realm who have the power and authority to guide those ones home. (Aug 20, 2025 Make This Man to Understand)

As your prayers continue to tug and pull on the heart string, the cunningly contrived ball of string will loosen. Be patient and be faithful to do as I say. Do not rest; you must be relentless as you pull and tug and yank at those Keys embedded deep within the ball. Your part is to pray. I hear the chimes as the Keys respond to the frequency of your fervent demands for My Return to the Throne and justice on the wicked. (JAN 24, 2025 A Troop Called Congress)

Six thousand years of world history, millions of little schemes and plans, hundreds of millions of lives, and trillions of dollars and zillions of hours of time have been spent creating his ball of string, yet it will all unravel before his very eyes. (JUL 14, 2024 June_2024 Endtime Update)

Yes, My love, his darkness is complete; but for one thorn in his heel, one stitch untied in his tapestry of doom. You, My elites, are that loose thread that will unravel his whole artless work. It is your Key-powered prayers and those thoughts you send to Me in the night season and during your working hours when your heart reaches up to Me in desperation asking Me to steady the wobbly axis. I see your frustration and that impatience which causes you to lose that simple, childlike trust that everything is in My hand—Satan, his plan, the planet and its wobble, the masses and their spiritual condition, but most importantly you. And you are the most vital of components because you are the proof of the pudding. Yes, you are what I am using to take out the wobble, burn Satan's plans and set in motion the correct spiritual course of man once again. This is all too much for you to comprehend, and that is because you are just a simple little cog on a big big machine. (JUL 14, 2024 June_2024 Endtime Update)

The tests are set deliberately high; they must be. This point—when those passing through tribulation choose their path—is where your prayers come as ministering angels, comforting them in their losses. Your Keys shine a light on the path ahead, their soft glow gently coaxing weary feet off the road that leads downward, over the rocks of their broken world, and onto the upper path. And although much more difficult to climb than the downward-sloping way, it leads the pilgrim to the City of Light. The downward path, as you know, always seems so natural and appealing at first, yet always—always—leads to desolation at its end.

You say, —Oh, what an impossible climb they face. It is in those moments, when your mind shuts down as it tries to understand My purpose for allowing such tests and trials, that you must offer Me your highest praises. In your times of weakness when in fierce hand-to-hand battle with the enemy, he tries to get you to underestimate the power of your praises and prayers and their role as intermediaries assisting My martyrs to achieve the impossible. Grasp firmly the weapon of the Seven Thunders, My warrior brides. Come in under those martyrs climbing toward their mountain summit. Make the impossible possible. Pray desperate, extreme prayers. Praise Me for the victory, for it is through your prayers that My promises to you are fulfilled. (DEC 30, 2025 The Magic Master Painter)

It is time to fight for your subjects, My young warriors. For how skillfully you wield the weapons of war, so goes the battle. Gird up the loins of your minds; put away childish ways and the things of this world and run into the fray. We are waiting for your prayers to release more power to our fighters on the front line. (FEBRUARY 24, 2023 Blessed Is He That Waiteth—Daniel 12:12)

You have to be convinced beyond a shadow of a doubt that you are pivotal in winning this war. It is that simple. You begin this charge; it is your prayers that are going to change the course of history. (NOV 21, 2024)

In the Millennium I Will Make All Things New

REV.22:17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

And the Spirit and the bride say COME...then when I finally return in 2026 I will say COME to you and you won't ever have to live amidst such wickedness and darkness. The Blue Key saw you through and nothing will stop you from coming to Me. And then when I come to the Earth again in the Millennium, I and you will say COME to all those who love light and truth. And those who hear and love My Word will say COME to those who have not yet heard. I will set all who come to our call, free from the horrors that Satan and his followers had placed upon them, and they shall drink of the waters of My living Words and shall be satisfied, and all of these shall know and love Me and I will love them with an everlasting love. Fight now for these ones, because they too are part of your mission. You hold the Keys to the Millennium and you must put it into the lock, so that the world can be healed by the Golden wave that is behind that barrier...keep calling to the world, but don't let the world call you. You will forget your mission if you let their ways into your life. So keep your eyes and mind only on My water of life and it will see you through to the end. Remember right now I say COME to you; come and you shall be given the strength of My heart to get you all the way to 2026 and beyond! John.14:3 I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

There so many wounds on the people of this world. Wounds of physical abuse and wounds of mental and emotional torture, and of course wounds on the spirit from all lies that Satan has spread across the world. They will need healing and the love that passes understanding. The people left from war-torn countries will need to be healed from the fear, the hatred and the trauma of watching all they loved be destroyed. Their hearts and spirits are broken and they will need special care. And the people who are left from the many different countries will all need to be cleansed from the deception that has ruled their lives...all this will take time. It will take time to establish our rule over them... Many will be in a state of shock and there will have to be places of recovery for these, because as you know, most of the world has been on some sort of drug or was addicted to something...not to mention the shock of having such a supernatural government change. All these ones will have to wake up and realize that they haven't lived the right way, and they will have to start over and begin to take care of the planet and each other. Right now the world is dying and its suffering has reached Me... Selfishness and greed are strangling the world and Satan stands at the top of this dog-eat-dog kingdom. I will come with a sword and with vengeance and to all that have hated light and have brought such torment upon My little ones, will I give that same recompense. I will fight against them and they shall not escape. All these that promote transgenderism and force it upon mere babes and all these that love war and killing and love the suffering of others and commit such wickednesses that you can't even imagine, I will slay with the sword that proceeds out My mouth. Then I will rescue the oppressed and give unto these broken ones light and truth. The Sun will open its heart and will shine kind rays on that sad and broken world. Because you listened to the Deceiver, and took his fake promises to be reality, he was able to ravage you and this world I gave to you, but now I am here and the darkness that once reigned is gone. I will love the sad earth and will bring back the good things that have been forgotten.

Isaiah 55:12-13 For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands. Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall be to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

Breath, My creation, for no more will wicked men and demons rule over you. I shall bring light and salvation with Me and I and My people will give you the truth that you forsook for the lie of Satan. I will burn with fire all those material things that were used to lead the people into the worship of the system. All the places of worship of that system shall be no more, and I, with My faithful servants, shall teach the world to truly live and not just consume the Earth and each other.

No more the law of Jungle, for you are Children of God; do not believe the lies that have been fed to you all your lives. Drink truth and feel your souls and feel your spirits breath for the first time. Although it will be a hard time of learning for you, I promise you will be a million times happier if you say yes to Me,

Your God, Your Lord and Creator. No more playing the rebel, but to come into My bosom and drink from the Fountains of God. I will teach you the Law of Love instead of the law of the devil of kill or be killed. Come to Me and now know Newness of Life that you have never known before. (Morning Star)

Jesus: This is an epic moment, we are joined as one, and together we call to the World. We call to the lost and needy; we call and call, and this is all being done when you come unto Me in prayer. "Come and be a part of us; come and drink and be filled with the water of life that truly satisfies." I don't want anyone to choose the devil's poison over My life-giving flow, but they won't listen to My calls, nor the call of My bride to come, to come and drink, to come and call others beside us. They have loved this present world, and have despised all that is pure and lovely. My love, do not grow weary in calling, for there will be some who will fall down at the pool and drink. They will drink of My waters and shall be changed. This verse is spoken in a whisper and only those who desire to come will hear our beckoning. They loved light and beauty in their hearts. The enemy tries his best to crush that love and squelch and destroy it, so that they grow weary and faint in their minds, because of the much evil that surrounds them. But you must keep calling them to come. You, My brides of the end must see to it these caught by the devil's system come into My fold. Send forth My armies and rescue those whom he has taken captive. They are so darkened in their minds, and the thoughts they think are so twisted and in such opposition to My Word. They are confused and don't even know what to think about most things. They hear so many voices and so many that claim they have truth, but they don't know which way to turn...there is almost no light in the world today, the church can't offer anything being just as confused as everybody else.

The suffering of My own reaches Me each moment, and I see them and long for them and I hate them to be shrouded in such DARKNESS. Even if the world is almost completely taken over by this gross darkness, I want to see on My return in the Millennium some who have rebelled against that darkness and who thirst for the LIGHT I have to give. This will be done through your prayers using the Key of 6.66. you are breaking it down through your Blue Key prayers. So that those wish to hear and come are able, because the power that held them captive has been broken. The Earth and its people have suffered so much and I will heal their wounds on that day, and both the broken people and the Earth itself shall weep for joy. All the sad little children that have been starved and abused I will gather to Myself, and I will send out My saints to love all those sad ones who have been hated all their lives. Oh how the children's need reaches My heart and when the glorious dawn ushers in New Light I will heal their traumatized lives and take away the stones they have carried within them: stones of hatred and being hated, bitterness and the weeping that they could never quite do enough of. When they weep in that day, all the pent up sadness shall pour out and I will wipe those tears off all faces, saying "I am here now, don't be fearful. I have destroyed your enemies and none shall make you afraid anymore." I will give these meek the Earth and they shall inherit it and because they were despised all their lives, I shall love them with My love and give them a chance to live life in a beautiful world that was taken from them by wicked men. None shall take away My little children, and I will give them the love that they have craved all their days, so at last their souls will begin to heal and their smiles will come down from deep within their happy hearts. Then I too will cry for joy, for My little ones are redeemed and the downtrodden are raised up to stand upon their feet. Behold I make all things New!

At last peace will reign over the whole earth and I will wipe the tears off all faces...Love will come down and it will give birth to the New World. Hunger for it and don't let anything dampen that longing. Let it come out in your prayers and call Me back to this broken world. Let it spark the fire in your soul and come back to life. Look up at the sky and believe in something more than this physical world...I am going to come back and rip through those clouds and pierce the spiritually dead world with the Melodies of Heaven! Glorious day, My love! (Morning Star)

So sing My lovers, sing of your redemption, for the new age of light will be brought forth through your songs of prayer and praise. (DEC 17, 2024 OurChristmasGiftRevelation)
