A Higher Calling

And then there's the Enemy, always walking about as a roaring lion, competing for your soul, broadcasting the sights and sounds of this carnal world and all its supposed pleasures and liberties in ever greater volume, hoping to lure you from the still, small voice that tells you that all these things will pass away, that there is a greater Kingdom and a higher calling to which you are born, and to which your soul belongs.

{ Rising Above}

You need to remember who you are and what you are, and how important your job is--and jealously guard it from the attacks and onslaughts of Satan when he tries to tempt you with worldliness and worldly ways and a hankering for the world.

You need to remember you're strangers in a strange land, that this world is not your home.

Great difference in mountain & multitude. Mountain is opposite of multitude. Jesus left the multitude behind. The mountain peaks are never crowded. I climbed many mountains & I was almost always alone. Why?

1) It's hard work.
2) Not very many people desire to climb mountains.
3) It's lonesome.
4) You have to forsake all to do it.
5) It's apt to cost you your life.
6) Lots of scratches & bumps.

The valley land is Man's country--the high lands are God's country. Man dominates the valley--only God dominates the mountain, & the men living on the mountains know this. But men living in the valleys--they think they are God, because they dominate themselves. Can you see it? But those on the mountains live so close to God & the things which are so frightening & terrible & dangerous that they have to live close to God. The men in the valleys have become so secure they don't need God because they have forgotten there is any God for they can't see the sky any longer.

10. It's a rough & a rugged road, a hard & a heavy load & the people you meet aren't always kind--on the way up. But they're even worse down in the valley & in the valley they will do everything they can do to discourage you from climbing the mountain. They're aren't many places to live on the mountain--little rugged shelters, lean-tos. Not much to eat, it's cold & windy, but it's a thrill even to die there. It's better to die on the mountain than to live in the valley.

"The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures."--Psa.23:1,2. Where have you pictured those pastures? I've always pictured them as mountain meadows with beautiful little crystal mountain pools. "Restoreth my soul...Leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His Name's sake." What is His path like?--A narrow & rugged mountain path! "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death!"--

. My children on the mission fields are like those on the mountain. They have to really struggle, they have to climb hard, there's not much grass, there are difficulties, and they look upon the sheep in the lowlands--those of My children who are living in the West, dwelling in the pleasures of sin for a season--and wish that they could have the abundant grass and other foods. They desire more fellowship like those in the home fields. They desire what the lowland sheep have because it seems easier.

57. But I'm now calling these, My lowland sheep, those who are in the West and other lowland fields, to join My fold upon the mountaintop. I've been calling for a long time, and some have taken heed to My call; others have not. Of those who have taken up the challenge, there are those who forsook all and found total freedom, happiness and contentment in their service for Me upon the mountain, on the mission field. Others have been as the children of Israel who did not fully trust Me.

I said, "Let me walk in the fields."

He said, "No, walk in the town."

I said, "There are no flowers there."

He said, "No flowers, but a crown."

I said, "But the skies are black;

There is nothing but noise and din."

And He wept as He sent me back;

"There is more," He said; "there is sin."

I said, "But the air is thick,

And fogs are veiling the sun."

He answered, "Yet souls are sick,

And souls in the dark undone."

I said, "I shall miss the light,

And friends will miss me, they say."

He answered, "Choose to-night

If I am to miss you, or they."

I pleaded for time to be given.

He said, "Is it hard to decide?

It will not seem hard in heaven

To have followed the steps of your Guide."

I cast one look at the fields,

Then set my face to the town;

He said, "My child, do you yield?

Will you leave the flowers for the crown?"

Then into His hand went mine,

And into my heart came He;

And I walk in a light divine

The path I had feared to see.

--George Macdonald

These days are to strengthen you, My soldiers, and part of that strengthening will come through the freewill offerings that you give to Me.--Not because you're forced to but because you love Me more than this world, and you of your own accord wish to stay clean, strengthened, and uninfluenced by the perverse doctrines and ways of the world.
I not only wish to keep you strong in spirit--which you do by not submitting yourselves to the lies and darkness of the world--but I also wish to strengthen your personal resolve, your self-discipline, your first reactions, your bedrock faith, and your willingness to be different and set apart from those in the world.
Without this kind of spiritual progress on a personal level, you will not be ready for the kinds of tests that will come your way in the Endtime

What's the secret to happiness?--Giving, unselfishness, and making others happy, because it all comes back to you. Making others happy makes you happy. That's one of God's spiritual laws, just like gravity is a law of the earth. Sometimes it takes a while, but it's never left unfulfilled.

(Jesus:)* It all comes back to spelling J.O.Y. Putting Me first and obeying Me falls into that category, as well as keeping things in My spirit, then putting the needs of others next, and yourself and even your personal preferences and desires, last. That's the way to be truly happy and to hit the bull's eye!

I AM real and I AM really ready to fill your heart and life with My sweetness

There is much pain, but someday there will be much reward. There is much sacrifice, but someday there will be much glory. There is much heartache, but someday there will be much comfort. There is much confusion and much doubt, but someday you will see Me face to face.

Have courage, My dear ones, and know that I am here for you always. I lift the load when I can, and I promise that I will never allow you to be crushed beneath it. I will not take the load from you completely, but you have My word that My grace will be sufficient for you. I can't make the battles any easier or the tests any lighter, because these battles and these tests are among the main reasons you're on Earth in the first place.

If you are going to be able to access the power of the keys you hold in your hands, your faith must be as pure gold.

Where are you…I'm ever looking for the veil and waiting for it to part so I can at last find You.

People in the world are lonely and broken and i have given you the Light. You are different and you will never be one of them.

You are called and you are chosen by Me and as you go through these difficult times i will show you WHO I AM. I am all kinds of beautiful and i want you to see this, darling, the world's all tin and plastic and although it might look so pure and lovely right now…it's bitter Spirit Helper: what is the world compared to what the Spirit world has to offer? Wait honey for the next life to receive your reward and satisfaction. Endure hardness right now as a good solider and reject the world. ask Jesus to show you how fake it is. All the fun and the pretty things are cheap, they are fake and worldly. You don't want them sweetheart…you are different and special…if you could see how many spirit helpers are around and how they want to speak to you…they want to help you to be a part of their world. Ask Jesus to change your heart and make you desire the Spirit …because that's what lasts forever. He understands your heart and your mind really He does…

Worldliness is a state of mind and heart and spirit. It's carnal-mindedness and thinking like the world. It's very subtle, and our folks need to be on guard. God help us for meat not to destroy the work of God; not to compromise for some carnal idea or fleshly desire. Who needs it? We've got so much more! Our folks need to get their minds on Heaven! You folks need to enter into the Heavenlies by receiving all the New Wine that we're trying our best to pour out to you and help you understand. The Lord is pouring it on to prepare people.

The keys to keeping this vision are found through doing those things that bring you closer to Me; those things that enhance your faith and encourage your spirit; those things that draw you closer to each other as one body and one wife; those things that merge you with the spiritual realm and bring the spirit more to the fore in your life. This is how you keep the vision.

This is how you stay connected.

This is how you will run with patience the race that is set before you--and win

(Heavenly Vision!, The [#3608])

Our people must arm themselves with the Word and the Spirit! They've got to stay so full of the Word and the Spirit that there won't be much chance to get tripped off. That's the only way; they've got to stay filled up. The thing is, they have to see the problem first. Be not ignorant of the Devil's devices!

The Lord tells us to hold on to our crown. That to me doesn't mean just barely touching it, but instead grabbing onto it tightly and clutching it with all our might, no matter what might happen that tempts us to let it go!

You who I have made My darlings, My brides, My lovers, must love and cling to the light, and hate the darkness. It is not enough that you love the light. In order to stay free and strong, you must also hate the darkness. As it was said of Me, "Thou lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness: therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows" (Psalm 45:7). If you would truly be happy, if you would truly be free, if you would have the oil of gladness above thy fellows, your peers, you must recognize the darkness when it tempts you, and not give it place; you must take up arms against its sticky, murky goo, and crush it.

(What the Hell is Lethargy?)

It's very subtle for those who are in the forest. It creeps up on them and they don't even realize it's happening. There's nothing wrong with enjoying life in itself, but which life do you want to enjoy--the life of Christ and all His joy and love and ecstasies, or the life of the world with all its confusion, woes, and pain? All that glitters is not gold!
This temptation with worldliness is a plot orchestrated by Satan and his ilk to slow our folks down, if not bring them to a final halt and render them useless. It's a clever way to fight our folks, to get in with a hankering for the world. The Devil tries to get in and knock them for a loop with ways of shallowness, foolishness, carnal-mindedness and compromise with the System.

(Cathar speaking:) We have been amongst those Heavenly counselors round about you, to encourage you to keep fighting and to keep trusting, to not compromise, to not let down the banner of love, to not let go of the freedom that you have been blessed with from the hand of Jesus. To not lose sight of the precious riches that have been entrusted into your care in the Words of David. For these are the Last Days, and this is the greatest battle! And you, the children of David, must be stronger than ever! You must be purer than ever, in your thoughts and in your hearts and in your desire. You must be more dropped out than ever, hating the System more than ever and loving Jesus more than ever!

It is not a time to compromise. It is not a time to take into your hearts and minds and souls the thoughts and ways of the people of the world. It is a time to reject them more than ever--to separate yourselves so that you may stay strong and clean and close to Jesus, because the battles are great and they will be yet greater! There will be demands placed upon you that will be so great and so fierce, that only by staying close to Jesus and strong in the power of David and mighty in the ways of the Word, will you be able to withstand and conquer in the battles that are ahead.

Jesus:) Your testimony to the world is one of living by My Words

--not according to what the world thinks or says or does. The Enemy is always trying to get you to conform to the world. But being revolutionary, completely different, separate, doing things My way, is what I need you to be. There are lots of people around telling others that Jesus loves them. But their lives bear testimony against that truth, because of their selfishness, their compromise, their lack of willingness to be My love for others, to live as I lived.

There are so few who are willing to live their lives in sacrifice, who are willing to put aside all of their own desires and preferences except one--the desire to serve Me and love Me and be My face to the world. Your revolutionary heritage is an essential part of My face. Your obedience to Me, your willingness to live dropped out of the System--that's what makes the Family what it is. (From "Shooting Straight, Part

It's a spiritual thing, and the only way our folks are going to be able to stay on track and stay dropped out is to stay mighty close to the Lord, pumped full of the Word, and in tune with the Lord and the whispers that all their helpers are sending down. You can be in the world but not of the world.

Some of you may be thinking, "Is this really all worth it?"--All the things of the world that you have to forsake in order to put on God's mind. The answer is, without a doubt, yes! Why is it worth it? Because Jesus is worth it. He makes every sacrifice worth it. This world needs those who are willing to give their all for Jesus, and He'll make it more than worth it in the end. You'll look back and feel ashamed that you didn't give more; you'll feel remorse that you couldn't give more compared to what Jesus has given back to you in reward. So is it worth it? Without a doubt! (From "Shooting Straight, Part 3,").

If you want to live the life of a disciple, you're going to have to endure the hardness of forsaking the attitudes and opinions of the world. But if you do, the joys and rewards that are awaiting you are beyond compare. Live for Jesus! It's the only freedom! The only life! All the rest is death and a pile of shit. Life for Jesus is the only way to go if you want to be "the strong," "the powerful'" and the overcomers that you are destined to be! Follow Jesus all the way and He'll pour out His power on you like you've never seen! Every day you live for Jesus you're reaping more eternal riches than you would make in 10,000 lifetimes for the Devil. Live for Jesus! (From "Shooting Straight, Part 3,").

I hate the System! I hate the vanity of vanities and vexation of spirit. This carnal world disgusts me! It makes me sick because I know the purity and beauty of Heaven. You want an open mind? You want to really be cool? Then reject the sickening puke of man's ways and embrace the pure, powerful, liquor of Heaven! It'll knock your socks off. Are you man or woman enough to take it? Can you handle the power of the Spirit? Or are you going to settle for the milk toast of this world?--Worse than that, the poison of this world? Me, I can't stand the filth of this world! Give me those who are free enough to live in the spirit! God give me those who are radical enough to reject the world and all its vile corruptions! True children of David hate the System--they hate the ways of man because they are corruption and filth compared to the powerful intoxication of the Spirit. Spit out the poison of the world and drink in the power of Heaven! Be an intoxicated "spirit-bibber"! (From "Shooting Straight, Part 3," ML #3501:105, GN 1088).

Forget the ways of this world! Forget the thoughts of men. Who do they think they are to besmirch God's children with their vain philosophies? You are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, chosen from the foundation of the world to be the greatest threat to Satan that there ever has been! Don't throw away that God-given right through drinking in and watering down your convictions with the pollutants of this world. Shake them loose, break free of the chains of conformity! Live as heirs of the Kingdom! (From "Shooting Straight, Part 3,").

I'm not going to pretend that the life of a disciple is easy. I'm not going to deceive you. I'm going to sock it to you as it really is. Life as a disciple is hard work, sacrifice, pain, suffering, and you're going to have to give up a lot. But life as a disciple is the most thrilling life there is! The pain you may feel at having your mindset realigned is nothing compared to the thrills and overwhelming joy of serving Jesus with all you're worth. There's just nothing like it. (From "Shooting Straight, Part 3,").

Did you ever think that your idea of "perfect" might not be the Lord's idea of "perfect"? Perhaps in His eyes the "perfect" situation for someone to grow and learn lessons in is a less than ideal one. (From "Shooting Straight, Part 4,").

It's the way of the world to say, "I know better! My way is best!" In fact, I'm going to go further and say it's the way of Satan to say "I know better." That's what he's been doing since the beginning. Do you know better than God? Do you know better than the Lord's plan for you? Do you know how to run your life better than the Lord does? Those are serious questions you're going to have to ask yourself. Are you doing what you think is best or are you doing the Lord's will? Are you going your way or the Lord's way? What are you doing today to obey and sacrifice and follow the Lord? (From "Shooting Straight, Part 4,").

Nothing in this life is worthwhile compared to the Lord's will and His thoughts and His ways. Nothing this present life has to offer could ever compare to the fantastic rewards awaiting His 110%ers. Whatever you give up can only be counted as your "reasonable service" for the One Who has given so much for each of us. Fight to retain that in your thoughts, Jesus is worth it! Sacrifice for Jesus is worth it! Nothing of this world could compare to what Jesus has to offer. (From "Shooting Straight, Part 5,").

The ways of the world can be appealing at times, but the true revolutionary is repulsed by them because he knows they are in direct contradiction to God's way. He rejects the vain and ungodly mindset because he cherishes his higher calling and committed mindset. You've chosen God's way, so to hell with the ways of the world!--They'll never satisfy the radical flame within your heart. The world sickens you because you just want Jesus. He's all you need, and that makes you a deadly force against evil. The more you go all-out for Jesus, the more the attachments to the world will fade day by day. (From "Shooting Straight, Part 5,").

(Jesus:) The less like the world you are, the more attractive you will be in spirit to those of the world you are trying to reach. My true sheep do not want to be reminded of the hell they're trying to escape. They want to see something different, something spiritual, something real, something from the fifth dimension. But they'll never see those things in you if you are contaminated by worldly attitudes and practices, looking so much like everything they're trying to get away from. (From "Shooting Straight, Part 6,").

(Jesus:) Yours is a life of faith. It's a life of basing your actions, your choices, your belief system, your everything, on My Word, and ignoring everything else when necessary. It's a life that will be greatly rewarded when you step out of the surreal façade the Enemy so carefully sets up to snare mankind and you're able to see--not through a glass darkly, but face to face--how things truly are. It will be like Neo stepping out of the matrix and seeing reality for the first time. You'll be so glad you gave your life to set others free.

(Spirit being:) Though you might feel unpopular at times here on this earth where you must constantly buck the norm and go against the grain, the reality is that there are many more who think like you than those who resent you and disagree with you--you just can't see us right now. But we're out there, we're on your side, and when you awaken in resurrection, you'll see that you were actually with the majority all along--you were the popular ones, the cool ones, the normal ones, and it was everyone else who was weird. (From "Shooting Straight, Part 6,").

You cannot serve God and mammon--and the day of forced choice is upon the entire world now. It's going to be forced because there will be no sitting on the fence then. Those who are setting their affection on the things above right now are going to be the ones who will stand strong in that day, because they will already have that connection. They're going to be the super-dupers of the End!

The ones who are giving their all right now to serving the Lord with all their hearts and minds and souls are going to be strong and do exploits! They're going to have the power and the wisdom and the strength to instruct many, because they'll have their minds and hearts in Heaven. They're going to live right through things that those who have fallen to worldliness and worldly ways will not be able to stand.

It's coming; there's no way out! Will you be a super-duper? Don't submerse yourselves in fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness--reprove them, beloved! Come out from among them, dear Family!

So what should you do? What is My desire? My desire is that you come out from among them--from among the world--and enter into My world, a world so much more real, with much greater thrills than anything you could see around you. You've been steadily losing the vision and losing touch with the things of the spirit as you've become more attuned to the things of the flesh.

The time has come to devote yourself fully to the study of My Word, and the work that I have presented you with. The time has come to close the door on any inroads of Satan that are not of Me.

So remember, everything you're being TAUGHT NOW and DOING NOW and the DECISIONS you're making NOW and the LESSONS you're learning NOW are all a part of your SCHOOLING and your TRAINING HERE AND NOW so you can be greatly used by the Lord THERE AND THEN!--If not, a lot of what we're doing now would be a big waste of time, except for what little we get done HERE, which isn't very much compared to what we will do THEN! So let's really try to LEARN our lessons TODAY and learn to be faithful and obedient servants of the Lord NOW so He can TRUST and BLESS us with a place of blessing and usefulness to Him and others TOMORROW

(Millennium!, The)

Things do not continue as they were. I'm requiring a higher level of commitment, and for this I am requiring a higher level of prayerfulness and of hearing from Me in all matters of your life and your work. If you do not make the effort, things will go wrong, you'll have accidents and difficulties, and I will blow upon your efforts to force you into situations where you are humbled, where you see the need for Me. These will be times where you realize that you can do nothing without hearing from Me, where you see that you are nothing without Me, where you come to the point that you see that My will and My love are all that matter. But this is a hard road to walk down, and the easier way is to accept it by faith and begin to put these things into practice.

40. Be as Jacob, who wrestled with the angel and did not give up until he had received the blessing. Fight for it, desire the things of the spirit and make the effort to receive them! Clean your channel, forsake the desires of the flesh and the things that hinder your channel and make it more difficult to receive My Words, and give yourself fully to Me. This is My challenge to you. This is what I am asking of you. Will you do it? It's your choice, your decision.

I've spoken to your heart, and through the words of your queen have pointed out that you need to be cleansed. Maybe you didn't realize how much you needed the cleansing, but now you see more clearly, and I want to comfort your heart that you don't have to cleanse yourself. It's too big a job, and it's a dirty job. But right now I'm sending a cleansing in the spirit, and it will never be easier to be cleansed and made new than right now. I'm pouring out the New Wine in abundance, which is exactly what those who desire to be strengthened must take in. In the spiritual realm there are great troops fighting on your behalf, keeping the Enemy at bay, and enabling those who want to make the right decisions to do so. It is the time to be cleansed, and I am doing all in My power to pour out the healing waters in great abundance. But those who desire to partake of them must open up to them.

You Can Make It!--Part 1

These days are to strengthen you, My soldiers, and part of that strengthening will come through the freewill offerings that you give to Me.--Not because you're forced to but because you love Me more than this world, and you of your own accord wish to stay clean, strengthened, and uninfluenced by the perverse doctrines and ways of the world.
I not only wish to keep you strong in spirit--which you do by not submitting yourselves to the lies and darkness of the world--but I also wish to strengthen your personal resolve, your self-discipline, your first reactions, your bedrock faith, and your willingness to be different and set apart from those in the world.

Without this kind of spiritual progress on a personal level, you will not be ready for the kinds of tests that will come your way in the Endtime

Come out from among them and touch not the unclean thing! You guys need to remember who you are and what you are, and how important your job is—and jealously guard it from the attacks and onslaughts of Satan when he tries to tempt you with worldliness and worldly ways and a hankering for the world. You've got to remember it's a constant battle and keep your armor on all the time.

You need to remember you're strangers in a strange land, that this world is not your home.

A few years ago I was faced with a choice…when i fell in love with someone; they weren't a disciple, so i had to make a decision as to what i would choose…life seemed it would be completely empty and boring and i considered giving up…

But in that time period …the Lord led me to these paragraphs that literally were my life raft in the waves:

From Apples of a Gold

You are shining as lights in this world despite all of the difficulty, and for this I will someday greatly exalt you.

But don't be surprised that it's difficult.

Everyone who has done anything of value for Me has found it so. It's always going to seem difficult while you try to live for Me in the Devil's kingdom. It's not that I have no authority or couldn't save you, but it's that it's not the right time yet.

In Heaven I will make everything perfect. But not here. Not yet. It's not the time. To answer each one of your prayers, and to resolve every situation, and to remove every thorn, would be to damage the purpose for which you're here, and which you agreed to when you decided to come here for Me in the first place

In all of this you battle most of all in your hearts and minds.

You wonder where I am and where My power is.

You wonder why I haven't saved you, and why I haven't made your load easier and your burden lighter.

You wonder if you're doing something wrong.

You wonder if I'm angry with you, and have decided not to lend you My help or support as I have promised.

You wonder if the Enemy's power is greater than Mine.

You wonder if it's a lost cause to serve Me on this Earth.

And, yes, sometimes you even wonder if I'm really here at all. Or if I am, if I really care and really love you--for if I do, why would I let you struggle so?

28. But what you see as your struggle I see as your glory. I would not rescue you for all the world! This is the trial that is bringing the crown! This is your martyrdom. Some are called to die once for Me in body. Others are called to die daily for Me in spirit. I do not set one above the other. Everything that you're going through now, everything that's so difficult and painful, is making you worthy to be My stars, My greats, My called-out ones.

I am not doing this to you: You have chosen this life for yourself.

Any of you could quit your service to Me at any time. You could go back. You could run off the ice and put your clothes back on. But you don't, because you want that crown. If you stopped struggling against the flow of this world, you could find temporary peace, you could have a break. You could stop living for Me and stop being so revolutionary, but at what price? It's a price that you're not willing to pay--to gain the world, but lose your crown.

30. You are willing to continue this struggle because you love Me, and because you're willing to stand for My truth and to obey My Word no matter what it costs you.

I look on and I marvel. I shed tears of alternating sorrow and joy--sorrow, because it hurts My heart to see you who I love enduring such pain and such wounds; joy, because I know that you will someday be rewarded for each trial to such a degree that it will make every difficulty seem meaningless in comparison with the glory you will receive.

31. Yes, My loves, I watch you and I am filled with pride and admiration as a result of what you endure for Me. You are making it, you are coming through your own personal tribulation, and you are remaining true. Life is difficult, and you are choosing not to be rescued from it. You are choosing not to make it any easier on yourselves so that you can win the crown that is rightfully yours. So many voices are telling you to stop and telling you to give in, but you don't listen.

32. In your moments of greatest pain and agony, sometimes in a few fleeting seconds you lose focus and you wonder why I don't help you. You forget, and you think that I am the One causing this pain. This is when I want to draw close to you and comfort you. I want to encourage you and tell you that I am so proud of you for fighting for Me. I want to remind you that this pain is not My doing, but is your love gift to Me. Your struggle and the wounds you acquire are the wounds received in battle for My banner, and for this you are gaining great eternal glory.

33. You look at the martyrs and the missionaries of the past and you wonder if you could do what they did. My Family, you are doing what they did. Every single one of you that battles for Me in this Endtime army is right here, right now, doing what they did--doing equal to their sacrifice and equal to their struggle in My eyes. You are proving your love for Me moment by moment, day by day, step by step, by continuing to undergo all that you must in order to be here for Me, fighting in this war, and enduring all that comes with being a revolutionary Christian in this world gone to Satan.

(End of message)

I realized that this earth life, is a very short one and compared to what the Spirit world offers…it can't compare. Everyone in the world right now…are fighting for things, for stuff, and it's so sad because it's not going to last. We are human and these things like boyfriends and fun appeals to us, but most of the world is doing just that …and they aren't happy. Their lives are hell; they wake up every day and sit at a shop or have to study to get an education…but they aren't happy. I can tell you this a hundred times, but until you tell Jesus that you want to feel His touch and know for yourself…i can't convince you, but I know living for Jesus is the only life that i could ever live.

Let's do what no one has dared to do…and that's give Jesus all we have.

So many times…I cried and You were there with me in my tears.

Sometimes I forget why I am even struggling on and on and I lose the vision and my whole being aches for purpose and hope.

I hit bottom and when I've lost all hope and everything I have been fighting for has crumbled and broke and all I can do is fall down before You.

When I am completely out of resources and my plans have failed and I am ready to quit…that's when You appear and say to my soul,

"I AM your SALVATION"

From a heart that loves Jesus:

I can't say it's easy and I don't feel I've done so well. Last week was probably one of the darkest I've ever been through... I felt like such a failure and bad sample to fall so hard when everyone goes through extremely hard stuff... I didn't know how or if I would ever get out of that place either, I felt like death and I still don't know what lies ahead, but each day He does something to give me hope and His Words have been nothing but beautiful and encouraging even when I turned in anger from Him. It's so hard to understand Him and trust Him sometimes, yet He always allows you to feel His deep penetrating love somehow and in those moments when you feel most like dying He just seems to do the impossible and comfort your heart even if you don't feel it right away... later you can always look back and see how He was really right there holding you so close otherwise you wouldn't be waking up this morning. I don't know, I don't feel I have any words to explain what happened last week and I still need so much strength to keep trusting and not think too much... I couldn't answer any questions about how He did it or how He works in hearts and gets you through stuff because I don't know, I just know He's still holding me up even though I don't deserve His love...He has been so beautiful and patient and kind, I cannot even describe it and I have been so wicked and weak. It's amazing He can desire us and love us in our weakness and anger. He is so humble

You can turn this Cave…into a Holy Place

Nov 1st 2022

Life and love are in My hands…this place of struggle, this dark cave doesn't have to be so when in My presence…life with Me can be beautiful, it's just up to you to accept what I have done and what I am doing in your life. When you rebel all you see is the dark sides of this cave and misery is then your only companion.

But I make everything beautiful

If you let Me, but you must realise this and call Me to come so you can at last experience My glorious brightness more than ever before…I am waiting for your call.

My children, you must realize that in traveling down the wrong path, you stand to forfeit your crown to others, whom I will raise up to fulfill My plan. If something is not done to correct this problem, you stand to lose everything; you stand to miss the mark of My highest will; you stand to fail in the great commission I have given the children of David. You will be left wanting.
It all depends on you and on how much you want to be a full-time disciple with real power and anointing. It all depends on how much you want to see miracles and see My Word fulfilled in you. Whatever you love the most, that's what you'll cling to, that's what you'll tolerate, that's what you'll seek.
That brings us full circle back to My original counsel. As I called to My disciples of old, I call to you, the children of David: Come out from among them and be separate. Touch not the unclean thing, and I will receive you, and in receiving you, I will grant you full access to My miracle-working power. Then you will become the Endtime prophets that you are called to be!

You are working for that which does not fade away, that which is eternally worthwhile.

The Heavenly Vision!
