

Regardless of your circumstances, there will always be times of abasing and abounding (Philippians 4:12). There will be highs and lows; that's the cycle of life.

(Vitamins: Faith in the God Factor [#3820-3821])

We've stepped into the era when more is expected,
Where more faith is expected, and then more power is returned.
It's a time, a time of miracles, of wonders and rewards,
So stay in line with the times 'cause the keys are gonna shine.

(Focus on the Power)

8. ALTHOUGH THE WORLD WILL BE GETTING THE MOST HELL THEY'VE EVER KNOWN, WE, GOD'S CHILDREN, WILL HAVE THE MOST HEAVEN WE'VE EVER KNOWN!--Heavenly power & defense & help & protection! And just as God rained down bread from Heaven to feed His children of old, & fire to defend them from their enemies, & sent His mighty angels to guide & protect them, He'll do the same for us in these soon-coming days! So don't worry!

9. THAT LAST 3-1/2 YEARS WILL BE A TIME OF MIRACLES FOR GOD'S CHILDREN, as the Lord protects & keeps us until the very End, when Jesus will return to rescue us & save the World from total destruction! (Mt.24:29-31) Until He comes, the Lord promises that we will be given "wings like a great eagle to fly into the wilderness", where we will be miraculously fed & taken care of for that entire 3-1/2 years! (Rev.12:6, 14)

(The Great Escape! [#2005])

The day of miracles is not past! Through the power of the keys and the closer link that you have with Me, you will do even greater miracles than I did!

What you weren't able to do before is now possible through the power of the keys!

Call down the power of the keys and ask what you will, for it is by these petitions that great miracles are wrought.

4th August, 2022 (Prophecy) As time comes closer know that the spiritual warfare will be much stronger. You feel it ever present and you sense the time of great turmoil reaching its climax. His time is short and he must move ahead boldly now. It is not chance that your money reserve has reached where it has. It is precisely as I would have it. It is time now My loves for the greater miracles that you have been waiting for; expecting! Do not worry or fear, for I have promised. I brought it to your attention so you can more prepare your heart and mind for feats needing faith. You realize it has to be miraculous even more so than it has been so far. Just stand on the Keys My love. That is what they are for. They will not fail you. I will not fail you. Keep focused on Me and My power and I will lead your little flock safely through the valley of the shadow of death and I will prepare a table for you in the presence of your enemies. And that won't be just food but whatever you require. (End of prophecy)

Excerpts from the prophecy -October 11, 2021—The Final key

(Prophecy) Yes, it is time, indeed it is time, look at your watch ("The Watch")...see how late it is. I now know that you will not turn back, for you are committed to the cause of David, and to the fulfillment of prophecy.

If you will but obey and do your best to fulfill the Words of David, I will hand you the final little key, that, when slipped into place, will begin the greatest show of power this world has ever seen. Read the prophecy Assembling the Final Key and you will see that I have reserved this moment in history for you, not you, but you --you of the children of David, who through obedience to My Word, come to the place where you now stand. What are you but worms, but it is through your obedience and faith that this key is now being placed in your hands. Go now and in spirit insert the key that lies in your hand; for I tell you plainly that the hour is upon the world, the hour all creation, since the beginning of time has groaned in anticipation for. This is the hour of your destiny, this is the hour that your faith and obedience has brought you to. This is your commission; this is My promise to David and to his children. It is almost finished; in performing this task for Me, one more mate hath found its fulfillment. Doubt not, be not faithless only believe. Go and do, sound the trumpet, sound the charge, insert the key and it will begin. I stand on My Word and I cannot lie." (End of excerpts from prophecy from Discovering More on the Keys Comp.)

24th August, 2022 (Prophecy) My ways are not your ways My beautiful Philly brides, My women of the wilderness! If you ask for bread would I give you a stone? But sometimes it really does look like a stone doesn't it and you swallow hard and say, "thank you Lord but how so?" It may appear to you that it is the time for going without, a time to abase but I see it much differently and I wish for you to do so too. Rather it is time for you to abound with wonderful miracles! It is for you to abound with the greater faith I gifted you with and it's time to abound with seeing the power of the Keys. What you have loosed from Heaven with them! You, by faith, placed your blue Key into the Final Key and it set in motion the final stage of world history! (on October 11th, 2021) You are eligible now to receive greater power in these last days, because of your faith to insert your Blue key! Look forward with expectancy for miracles of supply and protection and amazing events. The promises of the Children of David have been released and you are seeing them and many more to come. Indeed, in reality you will not want for your needs, for you will be miraculously fed and cared for.

The keys will bring on-the-spot power, direct answers, and are created specifically for times when tremendous surges of heavenly intervention are needed in an instant, according to My will.

Clear: All it takes is for one of the Key bearers to cross the finish line by inserting their Key into the Final Key and all that has been promised for these final days will get underway.

13. You are also eligible to receive My power now in even greater ways because of your decisions to obey, to fulfill My will, and to remain true to the standard of My Word. No battle you face will be greater than My power to overwhelm the Enemy in every fight. No drive of obedience will be more taxing or difficult than the supply of key power that is available to you to accomplish what you have set out to do in accordance with My will in your life. Nothing has the means to stop the power I have made available to you. Everything is possible to you through the keys you hold as a contract with Me.

14. You hold in your hands the token that I have given you of victory in every area. In your hands you hold the power to open any door, to follow through with any commitment, to make any change needed, because you have My Name written on the keys.

15. The key of obedience is a vital one for you to claim and use now. It is through this key that the gates of Heaven will be opened to you, and through which you will come into My presence like never before." (Assembling the Final Key)

Clear Continues:

One simple step of obedience and the promises given to the Children of David will be released, the day of final release has come, you are those that these promises were given to, they are yours by faith, take up your blue key and by faith insert it into the Final Key and set this final stage of world history in motion. (End of prophecy)

(Using the Blue Key to Assemble the Final Key Comp.)

(Jesus:) I'm not ever going to give one of My brides more than they can bear. For every trial or cross, there is going to be grace enough, and strength provided by Me, for that person to be able to handle it. That's a core element of your faith in Me, and part of our contract. When you agree to serve Me, I don't promise you an easy life, but I do promise that it won't ever be too much for you, and that when the going is roughest, I will help carry you through it.

In the time to come you will be called upon to be a wielder of strong faith, and when the faith of others runs out, you will be able to hold them up and replenish their faith. You will be the ones, My loves, who carry them across the sand during those times. I have carried you, and in those times you will help to carry others. You will be My representatives in the flesh, and in the times when the faith of the weary, the distraught, the worn, the abused, the misused, the misunderstood, the tortured, the frail and the weak runs out, then it will be you upon whom they cast themselves and around whose necks they throw their arms to hang on for dear life.

It will be you who help to pick them up and carry them across these places where their faith didn't reach. It will be you whose faith lasts through the heat of the day. It will be you whose faith is fresh and renewed day by day and whose faith is an unquenchable stream of living water in those days. I will be counting on you, My loves, to be literal representatives of Me, whose faith is not only alive and well but gushing forth in the midst of the wicked, crooked, and perverse manifestations of the Devil's evil and wickedness in those days.

It will be you who walk through the Great Tribulation and who do not faint, but whose faith is renewed every morning and whom I can flow through to the needy, the weary and the worn-out. It will be you who carry My very Spirit to them and who walk amongst them with your eyes on Me, knowing, absolutely knowing, that I never fail and that I won't fail them in even this, the most trying time of their lives.

It will be you who give them the faith to keep going, who teach them to renew their faith, who encourage them in it, and whose faith kindles theirs into a flame of fire that brings them back to life in the spirit. It is you who I am counting on, and who will not fail but who will walk with Me through Great Tribulation and through times that would try men's souls.

So strengthen your faith! Find out where its borders are now, and expand them greatly. Follow Me in faith, say yes to Me in faith, hold not back through lack of faith, and I will see to it that we cross those spiritual lands and circumstances that will strengthen you, that will enhance your faith.

All the land that you claim by faith in the spirit is yours. In other words, as far as your eyes can see in the spirit, across any circumstance that you encounter, I want your faith to encompass that and even more, so that you will always have that foundation of faith under your feet no matter what circumstances you encounter.

Strengthen your faith. You are called and chosen. You are My faithful ones whom I am counting on to be the supporters of the weak and the ones who will carry them through. And no matter how strong you think you are, you will not be strong enough for that task in yourself. It must be your faith in Me, your trust in Me, your dependence on Me that is strong. Then I will be able to use you to do far more than you could have ever dreamed of. (Gold, Roses, and Thorns! [#3639])

6th August, 2022 (Prophecy) As you tighten your belts My loves, it will heighten your spiritual senses, for it must. You have to come away from the normal, for it will not be normal from here on in. And you must start now while it isn't so difficult to do so, so when it is truly by faith, you will slide into it much more easily. Right now all the murmur dross will inevitably come to the fore. I do expect it, as you do too. But be warned I will not always and I need you to adjust now and adjust well. I have said that I will supply food and raiment but of course, you will be playing your part by being frugal. It's the learning to abase time again and being careful and thoughtful and praying more about everything. It's also very much about staying positive and full of faith for the changes too. It's a lot to do with the Law of love and being considerate of everyone and taking care of your brother instead scheming to get the most or more for yourself because in your pride you think you deserve it. And if someone else has a special need there's no need for nasty comments or any comment at all. It will only bring contention. There is great strength in unity. You have heard it said so many times. But there is unity because there is no selfishness and backbiting and there's a spirit of care that everyone has what they need and to bestow the most care on the weak and needy. If you are not staying positive and keeping your eyes on Me and calling on the keys of brotherhood and the Cathars then there will be rubs that will cause friction and it will make your situation difficult. It takes a lot of love...which is supernatural. Some of you don't even have that now, 'in the good times' let alone when you may have to go without your seconds so all can have enough. Will you have the grace for that or will you try to sneak more on the side thinking it's ok because of whatever reason. If you are doing that now how will you fare when you have to learn to abase? Better start now My children to learn to trust Me actually that everything is going to be ok, because I promised it so. (End of prophecy)

Blade: Abounding and Abasing

(Jesus:) In your life for Me, I will continue to bring you to two special places--the place of abounding and the place of abasing. Both are needed in your life at different points in time, and both work something important in your life while you are in that place. And you know what? Both places can make you just as happy, if your happiness is orbiting around Me as opposed to the circumstances around you. I am your Sun, and the most perfect course of happiness always revolves around Me.

No matter what your situation, no matter what your condition, no matter who you live with or don't get to live with, no matter what talent you have or don't have--no matter what--you can be happy, you can have peace in your mind and heart, you can have My joy which will be your strength.--Because with Me, you have all things. No matter what situation you find yourself in, you'll still be with Me--better said, I'm still with you. If I'm with you, then you will lack for nothing, happiness included.

I know it's a little more difficult to adapt to abasing right after having visited the place of abounding. But there are times when I know that it's important for your spiritual life and growth to be taken from one extreme to the other, from the high place to the low place. It's in this change, when you feel on shaky ground, that you plant your faith more firmly in Me. You hold on to Me more tightly. You come to Me more desperately. Our connection is tested and strengthened through these times.

If I choose to bring you to this place of abasing, you can be encouraged to know that this means I am also bringing you to the place of greater depth and closeness to Me. And just remember that wherever I place you is where I know you will be happiest in the end. As you choose to accept My will and yield to My doing, you open yourself up for the free flow of My happiness to you. Day by day, I will make you happy. Day by day, I will give you My best.

99. The fact of the matter is that you're not going to become the greatest witnesses of all time through any amount of physical accomplishments. You're going to become that way through the opportunities I line up for you. You'll only be in the right place at the right time through miracles--miracles that will only come as you learn to work in the spirit and stay in tune with Me. You're going to become that way through the supernatural power I pour down upon you as a Family and as individuals, and you're not going to get that power through any other way but spending time with Me and learning to work in the spirit.

100. Those days aren't far off. The clock is ticking, and if you want to have time to do those miracles and really reach the world in the way that I've been preparing you to all these years, you're going to need to make the break.

101. This is a good topic to meditate on, reflect on, and pray about, because it's something that each of you, in your life and work style and decisions, need to recognize and understand clearly. These are very personal issues. How desperately do you pray? How much are you growing in using the weapon of praise? How well do you know your spirit helpers and work with them? These are things which no one really knows except you.

102. But they are the tools I've given you to do the job in these Last Days. They'll make the difference between success and failure. And while I've spent a lot of time helping you to root out compromise and establish a clear discipleship standard, this switch to working in the spirit is another pillar that must be in place in order for the Family to fulfill its destiny. It's as simple as that.

(Resting In the Lord, Part 1 [#3621a])

Notable Quote:

(Dad:) It hardly matters what happens around us on the constantly changing sea of life. We can survive it and surmount it and we can live on! We can live through these [changes], because the Lord is without change. He remains the same--faithful, always trustworthy, always there, always solving every problem, answering every need.

When you don't know what's going to happen, you just know the Lord's going to somehow work everything out just the way He wants it. He always does!

("Our Anchor Holds!" ML #2587:8-9,13) (Xn 141)

(Dad:) Basically, it's the life of faith that helps us to reach that place where Jesus is enough. It's the trials and battles; the things we lose and sacrifice; the things we forsake--and learn that we don't need; the times when we see Him supply for us, satisfy us, and make us happy despite our not having the things we may think we need. It's the forsakings, the hardships, the fulfillment, the abounding and abasing, all our experiences lumped together that take us step by step--and in reality almost forces us--to the place where we truly feel and know that Jesus is enough; He's everything to us, and compared to Him, nothing else matters.

The way it works is that, on the one hand, breakings, battles and forsakings drive us to Him in desperation and in need. On the other hand, they remove the props and the crutches that keep us from being more spiritual and leaning more on Him, from really discovering that He can be the beginning and the end of our satisfaction. (Jesus Is Enough [#3611:37,38])

August 9 Prayed about dismissing Atta, our laundry lady, and washing our own laundry!!

(Prophecy) Well, yes it wouldn't be a bad thing for some of these young people to have to wash their clothes. It would give them a taste of real life. In the system people have to go to work or school or both and still take care of themselves, cook, clean and all of that. Some of these young people who are completely taken care of, having all their laundry delivered to them clean and having all their meals cooked, can barely get themselves out to put in some decent work hours. You have a whole farm to run and develop here and I have given it to you for good reasons and there are some real solid lessons to be learned. Some of these lessons you can see clearly, but there are others that will become more obvious in time or even when you reach the other side.

But you can all plainly see that this farm is a gift but that God's gift is God's work. So are you going to accept this gift and the work that goes with it? I will bless you if you do and the lessons learned and the spiritual depth gained will be with you for eternity. So keep in mind that's what you are after, the lessons. That's what I am after, the love and faithfulness to do what I tell you, to take whatever I have given you and put your whole heart into it, whether it's farm work, cooking, or witnessing. That's what will last forever even when all this temporal stuff has passed away.

So consider your next step carefully. When you see the dwindling finances, it's natural to want to cut and chop and bring down expenses. But just trust Me and counsel together. If I show you to take on washing your laundry, then I will show you how to do it so that it doesn't take away from the farm work too much and so that it doesn't overload anyone. (End of prophecy)

Now is the time when you must begin stepping out and exercising your gift of faith to a greater degree by putting it into action, by going to work on the plan of this new era! Step out and prove there are no impossibilities to a man or woman who depends on the power of God! Stretch your faith to greater measures. Take greater leaps of faith every day and defy any and all impossibilities that get in your way.

I've given you the "Ask Me Everything" plan to "watch, pray, listen and receive." You're moving along on this, learning to make this a part of your everyday lives. Now I ask you to amplify this vision-I ask that you "watch, pray, listen, receive, and do!" "Watch, pray, listen, receive, and take action!"

Take action like never before!

So in other words amplify your faith! --- "Use your faith, stretch your faith, work your faith; put your faith to use by putting it into action, by stretching it, by taking action. Go to work proving there are no impossibilities to the man or woman filled with My Spirit who acts in faith, believing My promises."

I'm pleased that you're becoming attuned to the pulsations of My power, and that you're becoming increasingly sensitive to the refined stimuli of My Spirit. Continue to acknowledge Me and attune yourself to Me, and you will greatly please Me, your Husband and your Lover. When you use these keys, (the Keys of frequency) you will grow more and more aware of our multifaceted, amazing relationship, both physically and spiritually. Come to Me and heed My Words to learn the strength, vitality, and mastery of the keys of the Kingdom. (More on the Keys! What the Future Holds, Part 2 [#3351])

Regardless of the world's economic state and financial upheaval, My promises to you are just as true as ever, and as good as money in the bank. You take care of My business, and I'll take care of you. It's as simple as that. "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God, and His righteousness; and all these things will be added unto you" (Matthew 6:33). I have given you many promises of supply, and they all hold true today, just as much as they ever have. The future isn't clear, and you don't know where I will lead you, or through what ways and means I will supply for you. Regardless, My promises are as good as gold. (Vitamins: Faith in the God Factor [#3820-3821])
