Be Faithful to Pray

Be faithful to the greatest duty I give you--to fight in prayer. [69]

Prayer is the most you can do. Prayer is the best you can do. Prayer is the answer. Nothing is impossible to the man or woman of prayer. There is no barrier that strong prayer and the power of the keys cannot break through; there is no enemy that prayer and the keys cannot conquer. There is so much more you can do through prayer than by any other means available to you. Laboring prayer, prevailing prayer, intercessory prayer, unfailing prayer is the answer. [70]

(Spirit Helper:)

I think that I shall never see,
So great a wonder, 'tis divine majesty,
Such are the prayers, I see them rise,
Of these faithful ones, as they reach the skies.
Majestic power do these prayers wield,
Their call is answered, sent to the fields.
They touch a life, they empower a soul,
Deliver courage and faith to reach a goal.
Such splendor exudes from these heartfelt prayers,
As they reach out to those for whom you care.
In human words I cannot convey,
The magnitude of the energy released when you pray,
For so great a force is given to none,
As to you who take the stand, and count it done.
The magic, the marvel, the wonder of it all,
Divine majestic power in your hands,
who answer the call.
Who take up the torch and stand firm in prayer,
Reaching out to the world, showing you care. [71]

I am so desperate for prayer warriors. There is so much to be done, and more can be accomplished through prayer than through any other means. Yet, in spite of prayer being the absolute most efficient and productive activity in the world, there are very few who fully embrace the calling and make the most of it. There are so few who are faithful with their prayer vigils. There are so few who labor in desperate prayer. There are so few who allow My Spirit to move them and burden them for others, to the point that they feel the need to pray consistently and wholeheartedly, calling on the keys and commanding Me to work on their behalf. [72]

(Dad speaking:) If you're looking for something different, a new challenge or some kind of change, I'd venture to say you can find what you need in taking up the challenge to be a prayer warrior. Do something different by adapting your schedule to pray more often, more desperately, more faithfully. Review the messages the Lord and I have given on the importance of prayer and take those Words to heart. Become a support to your loved ones when they need you most! Be available for the Lord to delegate some of others' burdens to your shoulders, and then cast that burden on the Lord through your prayers. You won't be disappointed, because you'll have a part in the results!

You might think this is a poor substitute for the kind of excitement or change you were hoping for. You might think I'm exaggerating here and being overly optimistic. But I guarantee that you'll be surprised at the excitement in the spirit you'll discover if you really put your heart, mind, and soul into being a prayer warrior for those in need.

The Enemy's power to disrupt, destroy, hinder and bring to naught is nothing when countered with the power of the Lord through your prayers! Please recognize the spiritual battle, and not only the great responsibility to pray that the Lord has given you, but the wonderful new ministry of being a prayer warrior that He wants to give you, if you'll just receive it. Then you'll be able to say like Sophie the washerwoman, "I was there! I had a part--because those prayers I prayed are me!" And great will be your reward!

You who stay by the stuff as prayer warriors will receive equally the rewards of those who go forth to battle! The Lord will say to you as well, "Well done, My faithful ones; enter into My joy and My reward!" (73)

This is the greatest duty you'll ever have-to pray. And faithfulness to this duty will also bring the greatest blessings you will ever have, for My rewards match the duties I give you. Thank you, dear loves, for your faithfulness to this great responsibility. I know I can count on you. That is why I ask you to pray. (74)

I wish to thank My faithful brides, My yielded channels, for your diligence and faithfulness to this, the greatest duty of prayer that I place in your hands. Such a labor of love is a great thing in My sight. As you cry out to Me in prayer and supplication, not one request will go unanswered. The prayers you pray will return to you not an hundredfold, but a hundred times a hundred will the blessings of prayer return to you. Don't think that I will not bless you so greatly and so mightily for your labor of prayer. For great is your reward in Heaven--above and beyond all you could ever ask or think or imagine with the human mind. (75)

It excites Me to see so many of My brides opening their hearts in prayer to Me. It moves Me to want to do special things for them, to answer them when they're in need. It can change My mind and move My hand to work for them. There are so many blessings that come from being a faithful prayer warrior. (76)

You do your part through prayer, and I'll do Mine. Together we will reap the results in the form of a life blessed with power and many more answers to prayer, due to your faithfulness in prayer. (77)

Even a short prayer has power and effect, and I work through those prayers to bring about My will. Sometimes your prayer is just what is needed to finish the chain of events, to complete the circuit, and then I'm able to fulfill My will. I give you the thoughts, the burden on your heart to pray for something or someone, and as you are faithful to do so, then I'm faithful to work behind the scenes to help and bless others. (78)

The important thing is that you must pray, you must not give up in prayer, and you must see that the answer is this weapon of prayer, together with the keys and the additional weapons I have placed in your hands. These are your best defense; use these weapons together with faith and trust, and stand back and see Me fight for you. (79)

Part of your "works" and your service to Me and what earns you reward in the realm beyond is your faithfulness to pray... so prayer is a very important part of... determining your destiny, your place, your position, and your reward, in the life to come. (80)

Pray earnestly, faithfully, daily, desperately, vigorously, and know that I will answer each prayer. I will work on your behalf to do that which you cannot do. I will make the mountains melt away before you, one by one. (81)

I've seen your tears, I've heard your prayers, and I've delivered time and again. I'm well pleased with your faithfulness and your importunity. [82]

The faithful prayers of My children are powerful and they can do--and will do--mighty things. [83]

I will always bless and answer your prayers as you are faithful to claim My promises. [84]

You can never pray too much. Any time you grow weary in prayer, that is the time for revival!
As My Word never returns void, so your prayers never return void. Keeping your prayer fires burning brightly is the answer. [85]

So much is dependent on your prayers. Your prayers can do so many things; the frequency and strength of your prayers make a marked difference. I do not ask you to pray, pray, and pray again to bring you to boredom, but so that you can explore new frontiers in prayer, thrill to new ecstasies in prayer, and gain new ground and ever greater victories in prayer. [86]

(Dad speaking:) The Lord protects you from a lot, from so many bad things that you don't even know He's protecting you from, because you prayed. He overshadows you and shields you with His force field of protection, His angels and Heavenly helpers, because you faithfully prayed and asked for His help.
You can't possibly foresee everything that could happen. You have no idea of what's going on down the road, what all the other people around you are up to, what's happening in the area you're traveling through, or the building you're in. But because of your faithfulness to pray and acknowledge the Lord and seek His protection and blessings, He protects you from so many bad things that could befall you. [87]

The ministry of prayer is a very precious one, but so neglected. It is a great privilege that I bring this need and challenge to your attention, for through this, not only will you find great fulfillment and satisfaction personally, but you will help to change the course of history. You can change the world from your humble prayer corner. You can take hold of the power of God and change lives through your faithful, importunate prayers. [88]

Prayer is also Listening

Through prayer, you can not only intercede, not only set the Enemy back, not only raise a great wall of protection around those for whom you pray, but through prayer I will give you the answers, the personalized solutions to each situation.
You must not only pray, but you must listen. [89]

Be faithful to seek Me, to love Me, to come before Me to hear My Words. [90]

You might be able to muddle through, or even do fairly well in some decisions, by using your common sense. If you're prayerful and pray at each step, you'll do even better. But by tuning in to Me and getting My guidance or confirmation in prophecy on every plan or decision, little or big, you're bringing the full power of My Spirit into your life, and it will change you and others around you. [91]
It will bring the whole spiritual realm closer to you, and help you be more firmly connected to Me. This will keep developing and developing, until hearing from Me and communicating with Me will be as natural as breathing. It'll be something that you do constantly, automatically, without having to remind yourself and prod yourself into doing it.

It takes time to form these good habits, but once you do, you'll never regret it. You'll see its fruits, and you'll realize that My way is the best way. (92)

Before, many of My children struggled in their own strength to find the solutions, not knowing what to do or how to do it. But now they feel the tremendous relief and strength of knowing they can come to Me directly and hear My voice of counsel for themselves. They faithfully seek My face and are blessed beyond their own understanding with message after message from My throne. (93)

Your thoughts should be, "Lord, I'm Your servant. I come before You and ask You what You would have me to do. I don't presume to think that I know Your mind by running off and doing what I think You'd have me do, or even what I see needs to get done. I wait to hear Your bidding, and will do whatever it may be." In doing this, you'll prove yourself a faithful and wise servant in whom I am well pleased. (94)

When you are faithful to calm yourself before Me, then you're more inclined to receive the jewels I want to speak to you about. Your channel is more aligned with Heaven, as through calming yourself you remove the clutter and rubble that would create obstacles in your ability to freely receive the things I want to show you. (95)

Your faithfulness to practice "Ask Me Everything" will save your life one day. That's a promise! Each of you will need it at some time in the days to come. (96)

(Dad speaking:) Only He can keep you faithful. All you have to do is listen carefully and follow. (97)

Keep fighting the fight! Keep striving to follow the direction I lead, and be faithful to get any new directions I have for you, so that the light of My Word can continue to guide you, enlighten you, and show you the way. (98)

(Dad speaking:) If you're faithful to obey God's voice and where He's leading you, He'll take care of you. He'll protect you and do miracles for you in order to take care of you. (99)

In the last days, if you’re faithful to use your gift of prophecy and trust Me for the answers that I give, I’ll be able to speak to you in those days and give you answers that the worldlings cannot receive. I will anoint and give My children supernatural revelations, formulas, solutions, and direction that is beyond the intelligence of man. I will outsmart all the education of man, and I will use you, My yielded ones, to do so. (100)
