

And their children, whom he raised up in their stead, them Joshua circumcised: for they were uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them by the way. Jos.5:7

(Compiled 21-3-23)

I didn't understand the Word, UNTIL I was BROKEN...

(Jesus-) Whatever you feel in your confused little mind and heart... whatever bombards you every blessed day reach forth your hands and find Mine... entwine your fingers with My fingers and I'll get you through what you think you can't take one more second. Whatever you feel ,don't let it stop you from FIGHTING....

God this will kill me, but it's for You that I die.

Yet I hold before you the promise of a better tomorrow and the promise of the keys that will bring everything back to its perfect state. I promise if you do not fail to depend on the keys, I will not fail to heal and restore. And My promise to you is a great closeness to Me, if you fight this battle as it should be fought. My everlasting promise to you is a special closeness to Me that will make it worth it all.

Psalm 38 For thine arrows stick fast in me, and thy hand presseth me sore.
...Forsake me not, O LORD: O my God, be not far from me.

Make haste to help me, O Lord my salvation.

How I love to see the broken vessel... that one who has allowed the breaking of My hand to soften and warm them. These will pour forth My living waters and these truly see and desire to see Me as I am and they have chosen to embrace Me. That's why I can pour out My heart and deeper secrets to them.

I want to remind you that this pain is not My doing, but is your love gift to Me. (Apples of Gold 1) ("I Can't Live without You" 16TH May,2022 Excerpts from Brit's Compilation)

"For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh" (Philippians 3:3).

If you have been besieged by extra-strong battles of any kind, don't be discouraged. It's because (you) are on the threshold of the great and marvelous victories our Commander in Chief has promised, and the Enemy doesn't want to let us succeed without a fight.

Never before has the Enemy been so insanely angry at what is about to be accomplished in the Family, about the changes that will mark the beginning of the great losses he will feel in the spirit and the strongholds that will slip from his grasp. He is attacking many ferociously.

(Faith for the Future)

FOR UNLESS YOU HAVE BEEN BROKEN, humbled, humiliated & come to the end of yourself & have nothing left but God, He will never be able to use you as greatly as He would like! But when He can get YOU out of the way, then HE has a chance!

(New Life!--New Love!)

Feb 24 2023 (Jesus speaking:) You must let Me be your strength. I know you know this, but you are just relying on your own strength to hold you through the day. But your strength is not enough, for you are just a weak human being. You must let My spirit and power flow through you. You must let Me be strong for you, because you will never survive on your own strength. You must go to the Word, always to the Word, for It is Me and It is your strength. When the devil comes to you with his lies, run to Me, My love; My arms are open for you, but you're just sitting there, not minding that the devil is pouring his disgusting mud on you. Instead of running to Me, you are just sitting there, nodding your head that the devil is right. You wonder why it's so hard sometimes; My love, you know why? Because you're not running to Me. I've been here the whole time, but you've just been sitting there. It's hard because you just believe the devil's lies, hardly thinking they're the devil's lies, thinking they're actually true. Stop looking at the muck. Look up; look to Me. I want to hold you, but you don't think I'm there, you think I don't care, but oh I do. I care so much for you! Please, please look to Me. I love you. (End of Prophecy) (From Tilly)

More from Tilly

December 1, 2022 (Read from, "What ur flesh wants doesn't exist") (Jesus:) The Devil is playing for keeps, and you can't sit on the fence forever. Will you fall into the world, or will you jump wholeheartedly back into the world you've grown up in and the world where you belong? You can't pick up the pleasures of the world or you'll be putting down the pleasures of the spirit. If you continue looking over to the world and hungering after its pleasures, you'll soon fall into its grip, which will be so hard to get out of by yourself. I warn you, the world is not as dreamy as you think. The Devil paints this picture of fun, beauty and freedom and says this is what you'll get in the world, but don't believe him. You will find the exact opposite; you will find true beauty, true freedom, true fun in the spirit, and only in the spirit. This is where you belong; you don't fit in the world. I love you, My bride; if you choose to be the Devil's bride, go ahead. You'll break My heart in two, but it's your choice. But deep inside I know you love Me so much. Deep in your heart you know that you want to always stay by Me; you want to be forever My bride, and sweet girl, I want to be yours too. So don't believe the Devil and his lies; he is trying to trick you. Come into My spirit world and see where the true fun and excitement is! Love you! (End of prophecy)

November 4, 2022 (Read from, "Prophecies for TCO3, yieldedness") (Jesus:) When you yield to My will in your life, it brings both you and Me happiness. It might seem like it's too hard, and you wonder why you have to forsake this, but it's all for a purpose. It's to draw you closer to Me. It's to make you a better vessel for Me. Don't you want that? Yes, you do, I know you do.

I know it's a struggle, and you don't want to forsake it 'all'. You don't always want to lay everything on the altar. But I tell you, you'll be so glad you did. You'll be glad that you yielded to Me, so that I may possess you, so I can fill you, so you can take on My mind, My thoughts. You'll see that this is what is preparing you for the last days. So, My love, don't be afraid to yield to Me; I know it's so very hard for you just to yield, but if you do you'll see the benefits. I love you and I care about you; that is why I'm asking you to yield this up, to forsake it. I'm not being mean; I'm not just doing it because I want to take everything away from you to make you bored, no, I am slowly taking everything away from you to show you, you don't need it, and that I'm all you need. You will then find that I am enough, and you can truly say, "You can take the whole world away from me, I don't care, all I want is Jesus." And then you will find true happiness and fulfillment. I love you, don't forget that. (End of prophecy)

November 29, 2022 (Read "Your Need") (Jesus :) I love you, My sweet. I care about you and that is why I want you to let go of the worldly things that crowd your heart. Let it be bare before Me so I can fill that hole. It sounds impossible to you, but it's not...that's one of the first steps in becoming a Blue Angel. You have to let go of the things that you're clinging on to. Faith isn't clinging--it's letting go. Man fears becoming invisible; he fears there'll be nothing left of him. And there won't be: it'll only be Me. But My love, don't fear this. Are you afraid of letting there only be Me? But then, how do you become invisible? By letting yourself go; forsaking the flesh; dwelling more in the Word, in the spirit; letting Me have control of your actions; letting Me and you become one, but still, you're afraid. Why are you afraid of love? You want to let go, you really do, but when you think about what it will cost you, you get scared. Let go of everything, you ask? It seems like a lot; and it is! But this is how you become a Blue Angel. It's your choice—will you let go and become one with Me or will you hold on to your things and continue in your ways? I love you, please choose the right choice. (End of prophecy)

I'm slowly taking away your "crutches" and the things of Earth that you lean on, and more and more I'm requiring you to stand on your faith in Me and My promises.

November 25, 2022 (Read from, "A Soldier's Life") (Jesus:) I have to take away the things that come between Me and you. It's not because I want to make life boring, but because I love you and want us to be closer. I want you to be a better soldier. This is your life, not a time to play around and have fun. I'm slowly taking away your crutches and the things of Earth that you lean on, and more and more I'm requiring you to stand on your faith in Me and My promises. You must purge the things that clutter your spiritual life and make way for more of Me. (End of prophecy)

November 30, 2022 (read a number of different things like "Blessings from Battles" "A Soldier's Life", etc.)

(Jesus:) The battles are for a reason, My love. It is because I love you, you know that. You know I'm not careless; from the battles you change, you become a more seasoned warrior; you become a comfort to those who are going through the battles u went through. For through the battles you gain blessings.

The Enemy has been firing and so far you've been mostly been out of his range, so it might not have been so bad if you didn't listen right away when I told you to get down. But now you're walking right into his fire and you're so close that he can mortally wound you if you don't listen. I can't make you listen; it's your choice. You can continue down this road, or you can turn around and come straight back to the war field. I warn you, don't go down that road of resistance and rebellion, it's a dangerous road. You might end up like some of your other brothers and sisters. Take My hand, I love you, let's win this war together. (End of prophecy) (End of Tilly's prophecies)

Below are some of Chloe's prophecies. You know she goes through similar stuff so I thought it might help.

(Jesus I need You so much, my Love. I love You, and I want to please You.) (Jesus speaking:) Thank you darling for doing this for Me, thank you for giving up having your own life, a normal life. That sacrifice is great in My eyes and I know it isn't easy. But it can become only harder when you are not depending on Me and getting your strength from My Word. You have to fight; the desire isn't just going to come! You can't wait to want Me; search and you will find Me, knock upon My door and I will open it unto you and show Myself to you in greater ways. You do not feel satisfied with your life? That is because you are still relying on circumstances to bring that happiness or excitement. You are not reaching deeper into Me like you should be; you are sitting in the shallow waters waiting for something in the physical to satisfy you. (End of prophecy)

(Jesus:) Sweetheart, focus on Me now. When the pain is great and the confusion and fears are real, allow yourself to be held in My arms and let the cares go. None of that matters anymore; you have to keep telling yourself that and then calling on the Keys when the feelings overtake you. Call on the Keys of faith, the Keys of leaving your life in My hands and then My bride love Me, tell Me you love Me and only Me; tell Me I'm all you want even if it's by faith at the beginning. If you keep fighting to love and give your desire into My hands you will learn to love Me and you will come out better for all the hurt. It's not the end, darling love, you are not destined to be in this place forever! Just have faith and trust Me during this time and learn what you're meant to. (End of prophecy)

Oct 30, from THE KEYS OF NEED AND THIRST comp

Woe, woe is me! that sin hath made so many madmen, seeking the fool's paradise, fire under ice, and some good and desirable things, without and apart from Christ. Christ, Christ, nothing but Christ can cool our love's burning languor. O thirsty love! wilt thou set Christ, the well of life, to thy head, and drink thy fill? Drink and spare not; drink love and be drunken with Christ! Nay, alas! the distance betwixt us and Christ is a death. (Rutherford)

(Prophecy) Are you seeking the fool's paradise, the things without and apart from your Husband; the seemingly more desirable things of the flesh, while you leave your spiritual life to the side? Many search for happiness in this world and its things and entertainment, but they find it not. They seek to cool the tip of their tongue with the pleasures and distractions of the world but instead they are being burned with fire and find not what they seek. Those of the world that I speak of are not as you, they do not have the knowledge of the Words of David, they have not been brought to an understanding of Jesus and His great love and desire as you have. You are blessed in the spirit far and above, but yet you want to stoop down into the mire, that the whole world is swimming in, to try to find happiness and fulfillment where they cannot. It does not line up. It is because you want to escape; you do not feel like drinking in the Word, your flesh wants to be entertained. But I believe we must pass by that; we must ignore our feelings and set Christ, the well of life, to thy head, and drink thy fill. Drink and spare not; drink love and be drunken with Christ! For time waits for no man and those who wasted time in these days will be found wanting and ashamed that they did not redeem the time, but instead let their spirits be dry for lack of the True Water as they partook of the waters of the enemy and of the world. It is a serious matter and whether you actually are taking part of those waters or only wishing that you could have some things and that things in your life could be different or more exciting, you are wasting precious time and starving your spirit in the process. So as you sit there wondering what to do and you hear that little whisper, 'Why don't you get in the Word?' what do you do? Do you shake it off with an "I don't feel like it", or maybe some other excuse and then go on being bored and unhappy? Yes, and that is what you need to change. Sometimes you do obey the whisper, but not enough. Set the Word of Life to your head and drink thy fill. Drink and spare not; drink love and be drunken with Christ. That's the only way to get rid of 'yourself' and your own attitudes and ways. Just get so drunk on Jesus, as the Letter says. Get so high with Him that you don't think about your stinking self. Nobody wants to hear your worldly thoughts; your selfish attitudes aren't doing anyone any good or yourself for that matter, so just forget about them. Fill yourself so full of Jesus that only He comes out, He's gotta be the one shining through. (End of prophecy)

Cry out to the Lord Jesus to fill the dry beds of thy rivers until they overflow, and then empty thou the channels which have hitherto been filled with thine own self-sufficiency, and beseech Him to fill these also with His superabundant grace. If thy heavy trials sink thee deeper in the flood of His consolations, be glad of them; and if thy vessel shall be sunken up to its very bulwarks, be not afraid. I would be glad to feel the mast-head of my soul twenty fathoms beneath the surface of such an ocean; for, as Rutherford said, "Oh, to be over the ears in this well! I would not have Christ's love entering into me, but I would enter into it, and be swallowed up of that love." Cultivate an insatiable hunger and a quenchless thirst for this communion with Jesus through His communications. Let thine heart cry for ever, "Give, give," until it is filled in Paradise. (Spurgeon)

All your life I have been looking for your love. I never gave up looking for the chance to love you and to be loved by you. Trying to find happiness, you have tried many things; so why don't you try to open your heart to Me, now, in this moment? I stand at your heart's door and knock. Open to Me, for I thirst for you. (End of prophecy) (END 014)

Oct 21 (Prophecy) It takes dying daily to yourself and to the things you want to do and the way you want to do them. This life is a sacrifice and I'm going to keep reminding you of that until you start acting like you know that that's what you signed up for and stop letting the 'drag' drag you down. You know where your focus needs to be and where it is now, so what you've got to do is shift that focus onto the right thing: the Word and prophecy. It's not like a big impossible thing that is being asked of you. The Lord wants desperation. Desperation to keep fighting even when you don't see the change you desire, desperation to keep seeking Him through the static and confusing thoughts. And what are you meant to be desperate for. You're desperate for the goal, your desperate to complete your mission for Him, you're desperate to hear Him say well done and to see His smile and feel His love. Even if you're being spurred by the rewards; your eyes are on heaven and you will do your best while you're down here. You are pushing forward for whatever reason. But you have to have a reason. Without a vision the people perish. Get your vision through reading the Word and then at the beginning of each day call on the keys and pray for that vision to be kept before your eyes, and for the strength to keep calling on the keys and using the other weapons. As you keep this up: reading, hearing, calling and putting into action, you will see forward progress and you will see change, even if you don't see it or feel the change, others will see it and you will feel your burden becoming lighter and you will be given the strength daily to keep doing whatever He is asking of you. (End of prophecy)

Oct 23 reaction

(Word:) "You have to allow yourself to fall in love with the Spirit, but how can you if you are saving your heart for your hopes and imaginary dreams. You have to stir yourself and read and study and fill up your mind with the Word even if you don't feel like it."

(Prophecy:) Fill your mind with the Word even when you don't feel like it. You lack dedication because you lack faith and you lack faith because you are lacking the power of the Word in your life. You aren't filling your mind with the Word so yourself and the enemy's thoughts can come in and just go out if you don't have a watch over your mouth. If you really believe something is going to happen this year/next year then don't you think you should do something to prepare for that 'something'? Read the word, strengthen your faith in it and in the keys. (End of Chloe's prophecies and reactions)

March 15, 2023 Jesus: Slowly I am taking everything away. I am slowly showing you that you don't need these things to make you happy...you're convinced that if I take them away you'll be left empty and alone, but no My love, in its place I will fill you, I will be there and I will never give you something less than what you gave up, but I will give you a hundred-fold more. Don't be afraid of letting go, for if you let go, you will find the beauty in the ashes of what you forsook, what you threw into the fire, what you gave up. I will make you into My beautiful shining bride through the fires of life...will you let Me? You're afraid to, you're scared, you're terrified, but if you'll let go you'll find true freedom of spirit. Will you let Me make you into My humble, beautifully broken bride? Will you let Me take your heart and burn away all the filth? You may be shaking and trembling, but will you do it? You'll find that all you needed was Me all along, and all the things you thought you needed will be nothing to compared to what you have now. ILY (End of prophecy) (From Tilly)

You are my beautiful brave daughter, who I am so proud of. I so admire your maturity in the decisions you face; tough difficult choices. You have been set apart sweetie and He's making you a pillar in His house. What an honor! Yes, of course it comes with a price, but that's what makes it all the more honorable and special; that you chose Jesus and what He wants for you over everything else and that's not easy. If it was easy then everybody could do it. You wanted Him more! Don't give up honey, keep fighting, keep plodding, keep loving! It will be so worth it! You'll see and you'll be so glad you chose Him above all your wants and wishes. Xxx I love you!

"It's the year of yielding to My will, of forsaking your own and doing Mine. I know that you have secret hopes and desires of what you'd like to have. Those desires will not go away, for I use them to teach you to yield to My will despite those desires. Otherwise, it would be too easy to yield, and there would be no test. But know that this is the calling to which I have called you, and you are in the center of My will."

YOU'VE GOT TO KEEP "FORSAKING ALL" EVERYDAY! You can't just be a martyr one day, you're a martyr all your life!

You have to keep leaving Egypt every day, or you're going to build up a new Egypt. We're pilgrims & strangers!

("Accepting the Cost to Gain the Reward" comp.made by Bella)

I want to thank You, Lord, even for the ache in my heart, for the feeling that my life is coming unraveled. Thank You for the feelings of emptiness, frustration, loneliness, the feeling of being desperately thirsty in my soul, because all of these feelings drive me to You.

I know that if I will just come to You, You will soothe my frazzled nerves, You will patch the rips and tears, You'll fill my emptiness and be my Companion through the lonely moments--loving me and giving me to drink of the refreshing waters of Your Word.

I always know to come to You, because You alone can do all these things for me. You alone can reassure me that all is well. You alone can calm the troubled waters of my soul. It is the sound of Your voice that I long for, the touch of Your hand that I faint for, the kiss of Your lips that I would die for. As the hart panteth after the water brook, so panteth my soul after Thee, O God. My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God. When shall I come and appear before You? Thank You that I can enter the peaceful forest of Your Word. I can rest beneath the towering trees there. I can be cooled by the soft shade and satisfied by the fruit thereon. (To Jesus with Love 2:99)

Help me to let go of all this and not have any desire for it. Is that too much to ask? That You take away my desire for the World and replace it with desire and love for Yourself?

(Jesus:) it is not too much My darling but if you truly want this then you must fight to let go, you cannot keep brooding over this, you must open your hands and drop them, jump over that pile of mess and dreams and run into My arms where I will fulfill all your needs and cravings for love. Don't look to the world for anything sweet one, everything that your spirit and heart needs can be found with Me. (End of prophecy)

September 2, 2021 (Dad :) We're different darling, we choose an unpopular outfit. We're different, we're crazy, and we don't do what is expected. We cannot do the same things as the systemites. You have to forsake things that everyone else has, you look and act different from everyone else, and it is because you have chosen to be that way. You have chosen to be a disciple, and there are a lot of things you can't do as that. I know it is hard sometimes, but it is really the best. The restrictions are there for your good, and to protect you. The restrictions are for you if you want to be a disciple, that's what it means to give your whole life to Jesus; you give it all, your whole life, everything you want you have to give into Jesus' hand and let it go. You want fun and freedom to do your own thing, well honey that'll only lead you to hell, so you shouldn't wish for it too much; you've gotta give it to Him darling, you've gotta give your whole life and everything you want to Him and let Him have His way. Cry in His arms sweetie, love Him and forget the world. Lay with Him and forget the world and all its troubles. He has true freedom for you, He has true satisfaction waiting for you. You don't need the world to be happy, you don't need to have independence and freedom to be happy, you just need Jesus. So take Him sweetheart, take the love that He has to give you and stop hoping for the world to satisfy you. I love you. Jesus knows best darling girl, everything is going to be alright and you will be too if you hold onto Him and don't let go to reach for any other loves or distractions.

Sep 14 (Prophecy) Seek to fall in love with the Spirit more. The more you crave it, the more it can satisfy you. But if you shut yourself off and go seeking other routes to happiness, then how can the Spirit help you? You must yield yourself wholly to us, to Jesus, and to His will. Only then, when you are empty of your own desires, or means of fulfilling those desires, then can we help you. Prepare yourself for us, for we wish to come into you more.

Don't shut yourself off to My happiness by looking for your own routes. In searching for ways to make yourself happy, you are closing yourself off to the ways that I want to use to make you happy. Like when you want to do something and you think you won't be happy if it doesn't work out. That is closing yourself off from My joy for you, because you think that what you want is the only thing that'll make you happy. So darling, keep putting down your desires and making an empty space so that I may come in.

But sweetheart, even then, you must fight, you must attack and you must hold fast to your destiny. What is your destiny? Is it not to be one of the faithful that Jesus will find on His return? Is not your destiny to burn out on the altar of sacrifice? To be a diamond of dust and to give your life in whatever way He would bid you, for however long. Remember, when Christ calls a man, He bids him come and die. Are you willing to die? Die to your own desires and wishes, allow the self to die that the Lord's spirit of humility and self-sacrifice may live and rein in you. If dying for you means giving up these desires then are you willing? Are you willing to say not my will but Thine be done? Are you willing to give up these petty desires and fleshly wants if that is what I ask of you? If I tell you that the desires of your heart are pulling you away from Me, then are you willing to release them and yield to Me and My ways in your life? Everyone has to make that choice, and you are not any different. You can't keep sitting on the fence of indecision and expect to be truly happy. You aren't growing in spirit and you aren't getting what your flesh wants either. So what are you doing? You're just sitting there wishing for something that isn't real or that you can't have if you really do want to be a disciple like you have said. You're lost in your thoughts and dreams, so introverted. You look so glum, but you don't have to. You don't need to feel empty or bored whenever you're not engaging yourself in something "fun" or that excites your flesh and mind in some way. You can feel fulfilled and even happy without all the things your mind tells you you need. (end of prophecy)

Jan 10 2023, (Jesus:) Rest My love, call on the keys and allow them to calm the storm inside you. I am the light darling. Yes, this tunnel is dark and the fears surround you like wolves, but I am here, I am the light that you are searching for, open your eyes to the spirit, to My spirit, not just to the spirit and voices of the enemy, block him out for he is hindering you from seeing My light. He is bombarding you with emotions and dragging you down, he is covering your eyes by putting in your vision all that pertains to this flesh, and the things of this world. Push them aside, call on the keys to clear your vision and lift the cloud of despair off you. All is not lost, though it feels that way, you have to fight the darkness trying to descend on your soul, Move through the clouds, holding My hand, yes it is cold and wet but we'll come out the other side into the sunshine again. (When? What is the other side?) Will you wish so soon to be free from the pain that has brought about so much good in your life? Have you had enough of the fire? Darling do not ask for reprieve so early on, for the fires have not yet been heated to the full heat of the last days, so if you run out now because you can't take the heat, then you definitely won't be able to face what is coming. Hold on sweet one, for it is the trying of your faith that is more precious than gold, it is the fire that will give you the endurance that you need for the coming days. Don't give up now in the face of darkness for lo, great darkness is coming, and the children of David will have to stand on the faith they have built now. Build your faith, don't allow the evil one to trip you off and distract you, but call on the keys and focus your eyes mind and heart on Me. Love Me long and tenderly, come so close to Me so that I may come into you, and possess you for the days ahead. (End of prophecy)

Oct 3, 2022 (Jesus) Now as the loneliness over takes you, remember that I stand beside you. Reach past the pain and the rebelliousness and call on the keys, just say their name and the clouds will part just enough for you to see the light and in turn be given the strength and the faith to reach a little further, and as you continue to call, pray and plead for the strength to go on, I will give you what your spirit needs and lift you above the earthy...

Reminding me once again that You're enough.

God I need You so close, so so close.

(Jesus) Every time you call I come, I come running. I am so so close. You're not alone as you feel. You don't need to be afraid of being alone, darling because you're never really alone. It is when you feel the most destitute and forsaken that I am the closest I ever am. But darling don't turn your face from Me in anger and rebelliousness, yes the fire burns but it is not unfair and hardening will not help you; let your hard exterior break and let the brokenness make you better. You have given Me your all, will you take it back now? Will you cry that it is too much and you don't want to go on for you fear being alone, you fear greater pain and forsaking. You fear not being able to make it despite your efforts, so you figure you might as well give up now. Don't give in, even though your world is caving in. (Oh Jesus I can hardly hear You, why if You say You're so close do You feel so far away.?) Yield darling, let go of your will, tell Me that you're not afraid of the future because you know I'm closer now than I have ever been, and I am, your brokenness has allowed Me to come close, but then you in your rebelliousness hold Me at arms length and say I do not love you as I say I do. That is why you feel so far from Me, becos your pride and rebelliousness is keeping you away from coming into Me completely. Let go of all that, accept that what I'm doing is best, and then place your heart and life in My hands without fear or resistance to what I might do. Do not keep saying I am unfair and that I do not care for you. You are slapping Me in the face when you declare that in such a way. Becos darling there is nothing farther from the truth. There is no one that loves and cares about you more than I do, no one who knows better than I do what you're going through and what you need to come through it. (End of prophecy)

Below is From Mitchy

Oct 9, 2022 (Prophecy) You are where I would have you. For now I need you here, learning and growing your spirit. You're a team, this family, and this is where I'd have you now. Don't be deceived by the enemy who always tells you you're doing nothing, for all he wants for you to do is go running off on your own in rashfulness. I know the feelings you are experiencing, we all do.

(But I feel like I'm wasting even this time I've been given because it seems that I'm not getting the training it would seem I need, like witnessing and people handling and people training skills.)

Ah, yes, but that is where the flesh falls short. For I know better than you and your carnal reasoning, and I know how to train My soldiers-- I've been doing it for 6000 years... Moses didn't seem to get the right training in his wilderness to lead all those Jews. He himself said just what you just did, I am a man of slow speech and how can I lead these people? But I told him what I tell you, I Am that I Am! I Am He that made the living and the dead, the seeing and the blind, the dumb and he that speaketh, the hearing and the deaf. It is more important to be humble and meek than to be a great speaker and one that is confident in himself. I need spiritual leaders and teachers, ones who have depth and a great connection with Me and the Spirit World.

Going through wilderness training always takes faith and perseverance. It's just a day by day fight, nothing special or fantastic. Just like Moses, tending sheep for 40 years.

(I just, I don't want to waste, or use, half my life and then when I'm finally around 40 or 50 years then finally I am ready to be used of You. Why can't I start now and use my whole life, including my youth, to serve you?)

Well, that all depends on how fast you take to learning the lessons I have for you, but, Love, humans most often learn best through time and experiences. What you're saying is that you wish you could be those two witnesses overnight and start your flaming career the following day. But I most often do not work like that. But sometimes I do, and time IS short. And actually, I have already used you to reach many, so don't belittle the feats I have done through you. There are times of battle, and there are times of waiting. Both are needed and both come with their challenges. Right now you are learning to have faith and trust and patience and to see the need and to be happy and content and learning to choose Me over what you want and desire. I have not left you here to rot or waste away. I have planned your whole life, your entire existence! Every step you've taken and every step you will take I have designed it--and this current step is no different. Have faith and be patient, and instead of worrying that you're wasting your time, worry instead about what you should be learning here--every day--and you will do fine. I know the frustration of not really knowing what to do. I know it's hard. But I am teaching Faith. Faith to follow Me and to hear My whispers in stillness. All My men of faith need Faith. Faith to walk on their own and to hear Me for them self. Faith to just plod on and on and on by faith. This is what I am really teaching you, Faith. (End of prophecy)

Sept 17, 2022 (Prophecy) You have to rebuke them. You have to resist all your wants and desires and just hold onto Me. Because these wants and these desires do not line up with My wants and desires for you. You are on a mission and these things are just distracting you from it. And not just a little bit, but quite a lot. Your flesh and desire for it is too strong. It's not a sin to want good food, women, and fun, but if those things don't come then you just have to soldier on and not complain or look back. I like giving you nice things in the flesh, but that is not My major priority. So stop wishing and wishing for them, stand up, straighten up, and praise the Lord! Lift up your swords, look to Heaven's rewards! Look to Me. Look Me in the eye. I love you. Do you hear Me? I love you. And I don't want your Earth life to be a waste. Rebuke the pride. Rebuke the desires, and feed on Me. Count all things as loss. Be happy in whatsoever state you are in. And look not to the world, the lust of the eyes, the flesh, and the pride of life. I know it's appealing to your flesh, but it's not good for your spirit, just trust Me on that one. You can have fun and joy, but you can't have everything, because some things are not good for you. And I only want what's best for you. Because I love you. I need you to praise. Praise no matter what you feel like, no matter where you are or what you are doing. Praise is the voice of Faith, and this is the victory that overcomes the World, even your Faith. All things will be made new, all wrongs will be made right, and all joys will be given to those faithful ones who just plodded on no matter what. When you enter the Kingdom of your Lord, I will pour down such a reward that there will not be room enough for you to bear it! But first you must fight, and struggle. (End of prophecy)

Sept 19, 2022 (Paul:) You have to put others before yourself. You have to put Jesus and His plan before you and your own desires for comfort and joy. In sickness and in health, in poverty and in plenty, in joy and in sorrow, you must count it all a loss for Jesus Christ. You must just focus, only focus, on that one thing, that one point, JESUS. Look to Him, look to His Word, which is Him. And don't let any other thing pry your attention from walking towards Him. You almost have to steel yourself to the pain and just walk through those coals of Fire, ignoring the pain, enduring hardness as a good soldier. How do you be happy? By letting the image of Jesus consume all else in your heart and mind, till He is the only thing you think about! Forcing and pushing your mind to stay on Him and on His eternal happiness, on the great things to come. You're living for the next world, and that vision has to consume your mind and heart. And when sad things happen, that vision will flood in and be a constant soothing power. (End of prophecy)

Sept 23, 2022 (Prophecy) Yes, Love, it is the endurance that you need, the endurance of the Saints. The will to go on, and on and on, no matter what comes, or goes. Will you set your face like a flint towards the goal? Will you endure hardness, as a good soldier? Will you forsake the present pleasures of Egypt for a more lasting crown and sweeter reward? It takes endurance, most times, of a pilgrim's life, to continue to walk the strait and narrow way. So pray for it. Pray for a spirit that will not give in or give up or ever get weary in well doing. Use the keys and unlock the inner recesses of strength the Lord has hid within each one of His Brides. Remember the gift of greater Faith and tap into it. No matter what falls by the wayside, no matter how many times you must also fall there too, keep clinging to that Love in your heart, and get up and keep going... (End of prophecy)

Sept 24, 2022 (Prophecy) What is that to thee? Follow thou Me. Does it really matter what others have, dearest? Is that where you get your joy from??? This is a hard lesson to learn, My dearest, but it must be learnt. Do not look to the right or left, follow thou Me... My grace is sufficient for thee, for I am a satisfying portion. And those who give their all to Me--plans, desires, dreams, needs--will get the best satisfaction there is. The Heavenly kind, and the Earthly one too most often. But you can't be looking around at others or you'll miss what I have for you. Look to Me, look ahead, and see that your redemption draws nigh. I am near to those who have a humble heart, and save those you be of a contrite spirit.

There are many thoughts and words, which the devil would try to place in your mind, but you mustn't let him. For all those thoughts of self, and pity, and anger, all lead to one destination--Pride. And when strong pride is in the heart of a man, destruction soon follows...(End of prophecy)

Below are prophecies from Josh

(Prophecy) So since you know that this is what you must go thru in order to learn more about Me, you just need to yield to the breakings, you just need to stop your constant struggle against My will for your life, you need to take what you're being given and learn what you must from it. For you must see by now that fighting and rebelling against My will is futile and only leaves you sadder and more depressed than ever. For indeed, it is very hard to fight against Me and the devil. Yield My love, yield, you'll find so much happiness that way, you'll find so much fulfillment and satisfaction in learning these lessons. I know it's hard, but trust Me, it could be a whole lot worse. Yield and let go, you will find the clarity and peace of mind you seek in letting go Praise Me for anything, just get your mind out of that rut it's built for itself.

Just see it as you moving up a level, you overcame the last one, now you've got one that's a bit more difficult.

Press forward with the power of the Keys! Call on the keys of satisfaction, that you'll find your fulfillment and satisfaction in Me. Call on the keys of rising above, that you can once and for all rise above this battle. Call on the keys of surrender, that you can keep letting go of all the things you think you want so badly. Call on the keys of fight, that you will never stop pushing on until the devil is completely out of your territory. Call on the keys of determination, that every morning you will recommit yourself to fighting this battle. And My love as you do your part, and I mean really give it your best shot, I will do Mine and give you the victory.(End of prophecy)

Feb 3, 2023 (Prophecy) Yield. This five letter word will set you free. Yes My love, rebellion is a heavy weight upon your heart. You think you deserve a relationship, just because I've given it to other people, you think you deserve friends besides your family, you think you deserve better food, you think your living quarters should be a good deal more comfortable. You don't really see this as rebellion, but honey it is, because that is not My plan for your life, so in saying that you deserve these things is saying that you don't want My will, you just want to be happy in your little world of flesh, and I should supply these things for you.

But that is why I say unto you, yield everything, even your very will. You don't see how you could possibly be happy with only Me? It is the spirit that quickeneth, the flesh profiteth nothing. Do you know what that means, the flesh profits nothing? It will profit you nothing, it will give you nothing, it will leave you empty and alone, it will never satisfy you. It is only the spirit that really matters.

You will see My love, as you give yourself over more and more to Me, I will become much more predominant in your life. Things won't look so outrageous, stuff won't be so "unfair", people won't cut you so deep when they fail you, things will start to make sense, the confusion of rebellion will lift and you'll start to see things how I see them, everything will start to look brighter and more positive, you will be happy to be alive and serving Me!(End of prophecy)

(Prophecy)I want you to be thankful for all that I give you. You may accuse Me of giving you a stone, but I want you to look hard at that "dirty, black thing". Look over it carefully, dust it off a bit, take note of even the smallest details. Don't believe the lies of the enemy when he tells you how cruel I am for giving this to you, don't let him tell you how to react to these different circumstances, block out his thots by coming to Me and listening intently for My whisper. What I want you to do with this "ugly" thing is praise Me for every aspect of it, you've looked over it completely and you know everything that's wrong with it, though you did see a few good things and bright spots on this rock of yours. Those spots are what I want you to look at and admire, tell Me exactly why you like them, forget all the stuff you dislike, even though it is the majority. Praise Me, let your heart sing to Me, and even if at first you still feel the same, frustrated and annoyed about things, continue. And as you surrender more and more of yourself, as you keep giving your will to Me, as you let yourself be drawn deeper into My world, the black covering of your "rock" will start to fall off, and you'll admire more and more of it, it really will start to look more and more beautiful to you. And if you keep desiring Me, and keep giving your will to Me, as hard as it may be, the open parts of your rock will start to shine, with the blueish color of My kingdom!(End of prophecy)

Feb 11, 2023 (Prophecy) Sweetheart, you really do do things without thinking. You have become quite careless, not taking your actions into account, not being mature enough to realise what the repercussions of making such a silly mistakes would be. When you were in heat of the battle, you gave in to the enemy in quite a few areas, and this is one. You don't want to push yourself to do the things you know you need to do, you don't want to care about this whole farm and all the work it takes to run it, you just want to sit in your little world of apathy and let everyone else do the work. Trust Me, this battle is far from over, but if you let bad habits like this to develop, then it will push the victory even farther away. Trust Me My love, you have to get more on guard, you have to get out of the self pity mindset, you have to take responsibility for your actions and thoughts. This life of yours is not that hard, you've just been listening to the devil and letting him blow your emotions way out of proportion. I'm telling you honey, it is time to get your mind back to what's most important. Please, fight even though it rips you apart! There is only freedom in obeying My word! Keep focusing on Me, tune into Me! I love you! (End of prophecy)

Feb 12, 2023 (Prophecy) So strap your armour on, get in the spirit and get riled up with the word, get inspired about overcoming this enemy, get hot and angry at this damn Satan for pushing you down for so long, refuse to think his depressing thoughts any more. Fill your heart and mind with the keys and praise, and you'll be so much happier for it! I'm telling you honey, if you keep yielding to your emotions and the enemy, you will be overcome and you will not fulfill your destiny, for you will have sunk so low in the pits of depression that nothing and no one will be able to get you out. And when you reach the end of life, and I come and pick you up and take you home, the shame that will flood over you will be far more devastating than any loneliness and heartbreak. For this is the whole purpose of you coming down here, and suffering all this, so why would you give in just cause it looks too hard? This is what you signed up for, this pain is the reason you're here at all, so why would you surrender because of it? Nay My dear, but take these trials and learn from them! (End of prophecy)

February 8 2023(Prophecy) Yes dearest, you do need to be more on guard. You tell yourself that if you make any dumb mistakes or do anything that is out of the spirit it's cause you're going thru a difficult time and you're excused from the laws that others in this home have to follow. Except, the fact that everyone in this house is going thru a difficult time, going thru their own personal Jordans, doesn't even cross your mind. You're not alone in your frustration and anger, you know. Almost everybody in this house wants exactly what you want, a real life, as you call it. Although as I've told you billions of times, the spirit is the only reality, the facade of the flesh is going to pass away into oblivion in just a few short years. So stop with the self pity, stop with the jealousy, stop with the licking of your wounds! Don't you remember what Grandpa said? You can't catch happiness by chasing it, it's only when you forget your stinking self and all your "very necessary wants and needs", and start looking for someone else to make happy that happiness will catch you. Stop wandering around looking like a victim of some terrible abuse, as if your life was all that bad. At least you haven't lost any siblings to some earthquake, or your life is ruined by some war, or you've been kicked out of your home and country because it's too dangerous to live there anymore. If you could just see what other people in this world go thru, with absolutely no hope of a better life after this one, you would be so damn thankful for every bite of food you eat, every breath of clean, fresh cool farmland air you breathe, all the fulfilling jobs you have to fill your time with, you'll realise that every single thing you have is a blessing. So when you feel the weariness and tiredness of the desires of the flesh pulling you down, remember that your life is far better than so many people out there, your basic little life style, yes. And if reminding yourself of that doesn't really help you, then grab the keys of contentment, and ask Me to help you to trust that I'm watching over your life and I'm performing My perfect will for you. And My dear little Bride, My ways are far, far, far above your little carnal mind. So when your flesh says it wants that and I'm so mean and merciless for not giving it to you, call on the keys of trust. And if it really can't seem to understand why I shouldn't give it what it wants so badly, call on the keys of faith, and know that I am withholding this thing for a damn good reason. And if it starts murmuring and getting restless, call on the keys of contentment, and praise Me for all that I do give you, cause really I could just take everything away from you and only give you grasshoppers and honey to eat. And when it cries in pain at all its going thru, call on the keys of peace and come running to My arms, pouring out your heart out before Me and showing Me how much you need Me. And yet still if it persists in its stubborn ways, take all the Keys you've just used and stuff them into its mouth, and leave it alone for a while and come and spend some quality time with Me, cause you already know doing anything else when you feel like this just makes you feel oh so much worse.

So baby, it's time to fight, it's time to get off your sorry backside, stop feeling sorry for your stinking self, stop comparing with others, stop all this crap and get serious with Me and what I want from you. It doesn't matter if it's hard, every blessed person on this blessed planet goes thru things they don't like and that are hard for them, but they keep moving, they don't give up and cry on the sidewalk. And neither should you, being the child of David that you are. So dearest, get with it and start fighting like you mean it! I love you forever and beyond! (End of prophecy)

Feb 15, 2023(Prophecy) Now, there is something you should've noticed, you rely on your feelings as to whether you can do something or not far too much. If it feels hard, then you don't want to do it. If you don't feel like praising, for example, you just don't do it. And since you really do "feel" like satisfying some of your fleshly desires, you think you should be allowed to. Feelings My love, will take you out of this discipleship training program. Simply because a lot of the things I'll ask of you you will in no way feel like doing them. So dump that line, I don't feel like it; I don't feel like fighting, I don't feel like working, I don't feel like getting up today. It is of the devil and will just weaken you even more. A lot of the problems you're having now are from your unyielded attitude. When you're feeling unyielded and discontent you don't want to listen to others, you definitely don't want to yield to others, or Me for that matter, and you basically just want to be left alone to do what you "feel" like doing. So darling, that's the first step for you making the progress you need to make; yield. Yield to Me and yield to others. A very good way to see if you're yielding to Me in your life is if you can humbly yield to others and what they want you to do. So that's your test. If you're in a bad mood or something's bothering you, and someone asks something of you, like to do a job you really don't wanna do, then yield to them, lay down and let them pass over you. Darling, if you can do this you will find joy in your work. And the way I want you to fight these never ending, pointless, useless, stupid, unrealistic, daydreams is to get deeper into My word. These days you haven't been too serious about your word times, and so the enemy has had more access to your mind, that's why the longings for the world have grown a bit stronger, because if you're not yielding to Me, then you're yielding to My enemy. (End of prophecy) (End of Josh's prophecies)

CONSIDER YOUR THOUGHTS

(Prophecy, Jesus speaking:) "Thoughts are real things. They can bless or they can curse; they can help or they can hinder; they can provide comfort and peace, or they can emit emptiness; they can give protection and security, or they can lead the way to accident and misfortune—all according to how you turn them. By turning your thoughts into prayer, you turn them into creative power. By allowing them to sit idle, you turn them into an empty, hollow shell, with no purpose, no worth, no profit. If you turn your thoughts into prayers, they will accomplish that which is good. If you turn them toward vanity, they will come to no avail. Thoughts are real things! Thoughts are powerful, for thoughts can be turned into prayers, and prayer is powerful! If you want to know how to pray more, consider your thought power!

Take stock, My loves. Take care and watch your thoughts. Tap into Heaven's thought power!

I have equipped each of you with this great gift, therefore learn to use it. Learn to wield it. Learn to convert your thoughts into powerful prayer. Thought power turned into prayer will materialize into My blessings, My intervention, My protection, power and strength, My healing balm poured out on those for whom you care. Thoughts turned into prayers will accomplish great feats, make the impossible possible, and change the course of history! On the other hand, thought power left running idle has little worth and will only float off to oblivion and fade away to rust and ruin. Thought power aimed in the wrong direction—that which runs wild on dangerous highways of negativity, doubt and besetting sin—will end in destruction. Watch your thought power and take care, lest thoughts left unattended catch you unaware. For thoughts left idle can slip away into the gray mass of nowhere land, into the cracks and crevices of complacency, where they will rot and ruin and go to waste." (PFTCOD#14)

"By applying this counsel and becoming efficient at it, the enemy will think twice before sending you his thoughts. Because every time he does, you'll turn it into a prayer...against him. It's not that he won't try, he will, but every time he does, it's going to hurt him more that it's going to hurt you."

1 Thessalonians 5:17 "Turn every thought into a prayer. If you want to know how to pray more and how to get more things done, transform every thought into a prayer. Think of all the things you do throughout the day, all the things you think about, all the thoughts...

Mystical Bible The New Good News Blog If You Want to Do More in Prayer By mystical bible MAR 21, 2023

17th March, 2023 The best way to help those around you is by being the guide. Being the guide is one who knows the way and is on the path with your fellow travellers facing the hardships with them. You know the path they are walking and that's because you have walked it so many times. And funny, but here you are again on this tight narrow stretch with difficulties that challenge your 'skills'. Easy to tell them 'chin up' when you are coasting, but oh, when you have rocks in your own shoes and you also must keep going up the rugged path holding the banner high still, and quote with all assuredness and from all sincerity, 'he that does not deny himself cannot be My disciple'; and 'with Him all things are possible' because we have the Words of David and the Keys and prophecy and our spirit helpers! They will probably not know you have rocks in your shoes but you can encourage them and their climb from a soft and broken heart which has more understanding and compassion that helps those who are also trying to get that damn rock out of their own shoes. Instead of just giving them a kick in the pants, you instead offer them sustenance and walk beside them and remind them of the means of the strength they need to keep climbing. Maybe they have too much in their back pack and you have to gently help them unload some of the contents; contents that are very painful to part with; things that are dear to their heart. But you know all about that so you ease them into the laying down, mingled with tears of your own, for you must do it over again too. You fear the aloneness, because that's what it really is...whatever you think you have, does not belong to you; so you are alone. But not alone My love, for in the laying down, is the moment you draw nigh to Me, and in Me you have all things. It helps you enter more into My realm for you find no sustenance in the physical world; a part of your heart has been torn. Instead of growing weaker I want you to see the purpose of the pain is to make you stronger actually- so the opposite of what you think is happening. You think you are growing so much weaker when these tearings come. Not so My sweet bride. You have so much more climbing experience now and you've learnt so much. Yes, you stumble and fall, and sometimes it takes you awhile as you sit there in a crumpled heap, nursing your wounds, but you also know you can't stay there; you don't even want to; it's a waste of time feeling sorry for yourself. It doesn't help; it doesn't get you anywhere. You lost sight of the path for a bit and started watching something that was some juju thrown on the path in front of you. Yeah, give it a good kick and start rebuking the filthy wiles of the scumbag devil! Imagine trying to trick you with a chicken egg and cola nuts! Truly for the simple and ignorant! But it did get your attention didn't it? But don't be fooled and stay on guard My sweet. Because he is out to stumble you with simple tricks and fears. Don't you be one of the simple and ignorant! (End of prophecy)

If there is only one route to securing your goals and dreams, and you determine that your goals are so worth it that you're willing to take that route, come hell or high water, then you realize that you have a choice as to whether you'll look at that path positively or negatively. Since you have to take that path anyway, and there's no alternative, then why not look at it positively? Why not decide to enjoy it and make the best of it, to relish every moment of the journey? Rather than just letting your feet flop along, mechanically putting one foot in front of the other, put passion and determination into each step! Choose to do so, because in doing so you will have the kind of outlook needed to lead others to victory. ("The Nature of War," ML #3754 also in Realities)

(Jesus:) When you're in the heat of a battle you have to be able to rely on some absolutes, and these are that I love you and that with Me you will always be victorious. No matter what else you question or what seems up in the air and twisted around, those two facts are unchangeable. If God be for you, who can be against you? (Rom.8:31.) Count on Me and I will never disappoint you.

The Enemy knows that if he can make you doubt that fundamental truth--whether by condemning you and reminding you of how short you fall, or by making you wonder if the battle will ever end, or bringing up some mistake or sin in your heart, or whatever other tactic he might try--if he can make you actually wonder whether you can be victorious, or whether it's possible to win the battle, then he has taken away your faith, your most powerful weapon. He has effectively disarmed you, and anything you do from that point on, until you regain your knowledge of that basic truth, is just going to wear you out and be so much wasted effort. Because your faith, My loves, is the victory that overcomes the world.

That's why it's so important that you walk by faith, not by sight. To your eyes, things may look scarier than they've ever looked before. To your carnal senses you might be more beaten and bloodied than you thought was possible for a Christian soldier with the armor of the spirit. To your doubting mind you might wonder if this time is going to be the end of you. But in your spiritual man, which has perfect trust and faith in Me, you will know that you are unbeatable and that I am going to save you and help you and that nothing I'm allowing you to endure is going to finish you off, because I am in you and I have promised victory.

Then you're going to bravely endure the battles and seek Me for the solutions and the keys to victory. You're going to stand up once again, take your weapons in hand again, and charge at the Enemy with renewed courage, knowing that you are going to win because I have said so and because I love you and will give you My power. Then you will win, My loves. You will taste victory and it will strengthen your faith to see that nothing is impossible and NOTHING is too hard for Me. ("Nothing Is Too Hard for Jesus," ML #3658:71-72,74-75.)

You will get there humble, you will get there loving, and then we will celebrate! Then I will use you in the ways you so long for, and you will know that it was worth waiting and learning love, patience, humility, and dependence on Me. ("What Really Matters to Me," ML #3555:149,160-162.)

June 4, 2022 (Jesus) I don't know how I'm going to make it and actually get through this. I need to fight but I'm just not doing it...) Do you want to fight? That's the question you need to ask yourself. You're not fighting because you're not even sure you want to, you are not happy here because you don't want to be. You could be happy, you just have to decide that this is what you want and get out of this limbo of indecision. Do you want the world or do you want Me and all in the spirit world that I have to offer you? Is this pain, this loneliness too much to bear, too much to ask? (No, it's just that You are so not here, I need to feel You but I can't and at sometimes it does get to be too much.) This is your faith training. You have to decide if you want to go through with it, or if it's simply too much to ask and you aren't willing to forsake all for an unseen goal. Just remember that when this world passes away you will only have the things of the spirit that you have gained so far. You will only be as far along as you go. You've been given this talk many times, and each time you chose My way; this weight is heavy and you are not sure you want to keep living this way, but you are not deciding against Me, yet you are not totally for Me either, therefore you are in between, lukewarm and sitting on the fence. Yes My side looks dark and you see nor feel any reprieve. But you know why that is. It is because you are not on My side, you are not allowing Me to hold you because you feel hurt and you are angry at Me, you feel that I have made it too hard for you and that I do not care enough for you. You hold back very much from Me because you say you do not find the love and peace and reprieve that you need in My arms. And so you sit alone, thinking I am so very far away and can't be reached that you don't even try. And yet still each day, you feel less and less like living and giving all. You are being driven to the point of surrender; either to Me and My love, or to your flesh. You won't be able to hold up in this state of indecision, you will fall, you will have to make a choice either for or against Me. If you choose Me, if you choose faith, I promise I will be with you, but I can't promise it will be easy. But I can promise that it will become easier than it is now if you yield, if you do choose Me and turn over to Me all the way, it will be easier. I am not in this to hurt you, to see how much I can poke and tempt you until you give up, I am doing this to you My love because you asked Me to. And I don't mean in Heaven, that too, but you asked Me to draw you closer to Me, to help you grow in spirit. That is what I'm doing. (End of prophecy)

Like Job, she lost everything that was dearest in this world; but she believed that the Lord allowed all these things for the humbling of her proud heart and will. She saw the hand of God so clearly in them that she exclaimed: "Oh, adorable conduct of my God! There must be no guide, no prop for the person whom Thou art leading into the regions of darkness and death. There must be no conductor, no support to the man whom Thou art determined to destroy to the entire destruction of the natural life." By the "destruction of the natural life," she meant the destruction of carnality and selfishness. (Biography of Madame Guyon by J. Gilchrist Lawson)

(Jesus) It was a battle royal, and it was a test. It was a test that I had to pass. I had to go through it, so I would know how you, My precious ones, are feeling. That time there in the wilderness, that time of testing, I thought it would never end.

When I realized to what scale these monsters of doubts were capable of growing, I heard My Father's voice. It was still, and it was small, but crystal clear, as He said to Me, "Son, I am fighting for You, that Your faith fail not." That is all I heard, in one distinct moment, and that voice gave Me the courage to carry on.

As I heard His voice, I fell to My knees and I cried out with the loudest cries I ever uttered in My entire life until that time! I fell down weeping and crying and pleading to My Father with all that was within Me! I fell down in utter desperation and asked Him to please deliver Me from these attacks of doubts that were plaguing Me on every side.

I made a decision, and that decision was that I wanted to fight!

The Father allowed that time of testing. It was necessary. I had to go through it, as I was about to embark on the greatest mission of all mankind. If I could not have licked the Devil then, in that wilderness, I would not have been able to go on to complete My life's mission that was ahead.(end of prophecy)

Like Jesus, you have to choose to reach out and receive the help and deliverance you need. If you call out to the Lord, He will open your eyes and renew your strength. He won't fail you! (Crisis of Faith ML#3088)

Today is the 22nd March, 2023. ...22-3-2023...That's 223 and again 223. Significant numbers day today. I looked at my old '322' compilation and thought it appropriate to add the following to this compilation, even though you've read it before.

When Worldly Pursuits block your Vision of your Spiritual Inheritance

Numbers 32:2 The children of Gad and the children of Reuben came and spake unto Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and unto the princes of the congregation, saying,

Here you have two and one half of the tribes of the children of Israel on the wilderness side of the Jordan who had many cattle and they wanted to remain there in Gilead and not go over Jordan into the Promised Land. So they went to Moses, and Moses as you know, has been preaching about Canaan for 40 years. These three tribes come to him and say 'Look, we know that God's inheritance for us is on the other side of the Jordan but we don't actually want that. What we want is what we see here, this land is really good for our earthly business, which is grazing stock. We don't want what God has got for us on the other side of the Jordan; we want this area that we see here. So what you have here is a separation that is happening within the nation. You have one group of people that are interested in God's blessing towards them and God's inheritance and another group of believers that are really only interested in their earthly lot. It's amazing to think that after hearing about the land flowing with milk and honey for 40 years and all of the good things that God had stored up for them within the land of Canaan, that they would settle for something less. Yet, when they saw this land on the wrong side of Jordan and because of the fact that they had truckloads of livestock, they were dominated by this thought, and gave away what God had in store for them.

Remember another separation between Abram and Lot. When Abram went down into Egypt everything he brought out of Egypt caused him trouble and Lot came up with him. (Genesis 13:5-13)

So here you have the same sort of scenario of two Old Testament believers; and Lot was a believer. He is actually even called righteous in the New Testament. There is trouble between Abram and Lot over grazing pastures for their animals. Abram told Lot to choose which part of the land would be his... so how did Lot choose? It says here 'that he lifted his eyes and saw the plain that it was well watered'. He chose the best of the land that he could see for what he needed and it says that he pitched his tent even as far as Sodom. So the warning that you have here is that he didn't know what he was doing, he thought he was choosing the best, but it came at a cost. He didn't know the cost that would come to bear upon him and his family. He chose (as did the two and one half tribes) what he considered would be the best for his livestock. He pitched his tent as far as Sodom. Every step he takes is another compromise until he becomes an elder sitting in the gate of Sodom itself.

[[Note: Let us be as Abraham, calling on the Keys of obedience and choosing His way, even when we don't understand, but trust that if we follow Jesus and do as He asks of us, that He will come through and find an alternative lamb for the sacrifice, once we have given all to please Him. He will make a way, where there was no way, as we stand our ground and refuse the Mark of the Beast]

GEN. 22:3 And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and saddled his ass, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son, and clave the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up, and went unto the place of which God had told him.]

What I am trying to do is draw an illustration between what Lot did when he chose the best of the land and the bearing it had on what would happen to him later on. It was the same as with the two and a half tribes, they picked what they thought was the best for them, but again there this had consequences for them later on.

Joshua 22:1-10 tells of how Joshua summons them, the Gadites, the Reubenites and the half-tribe of Manasseh and tells them their job is done and they can go home. On the way, before they cross the Jordan, they build a huge altar.

On their way back, they are confronted with the thought that perhaps, in future generations we will not be recognized as part of the nation of Israel; so they decide to build an altar on the banks of the Jordan. So they want to be separate and live on the other side of the river, but they also want to be recognized. In Christendom as a whole, there are lots of splinter groups and people that are committed to the cause but they want to do their own thing or be separate... yet they still want to be recognized. And this altar that they build is a really great and impressive altar. It nearly causes civil war in the nation, because the only place of worship for Israel was in Shiloh. You cannot have another altar. You cannot have another place where burnt offerings and worshipping the Lord takes place; so all of the other tribes are going to go down there to wipe them out because the two and one half tribes are now looking out for themselves and not for the nation as a whole. This is the first result of independence.

Joshua 22:17 Was not the sin of Peor enough for us? Up to this very day we have not cleansed ourselves from that sin, even though a plague fell on the community of the LORD!

The second thing that it brings out is the iniquity of Peor. They are worried that the Lord is going to come and judge the nation. Will He judge the nation for independence? Will these two and a half tribes cause God's anger to come upon them just as in the day of Peor. The day of Peor was when Balaam couldn't curse the nation because they were blessed. But how did he actually corrupt the nation of Israel? He got the nation to intermarry with the women of Moab. (Numbers 22:3 ... amazing! The reverse of Numbers 32:2) the enemy meant it to be bad and wipe out the Israelites but God has the last word and Ruth a Moabitess is the Royal grandmother.

And then they ended up worshipping at the altars of Baal; this caused the wrath of God to come upon Israel.

Joshua 22:21-25 (They have gone back to the System, but they will always be Children of David)

So the outcome of all of this is that finally Joshua and the people come to the conclusion that the two and one half tribes are not trying to set up an altar by which blood could be sacrificed; it was just an altar that they could be recognized by - it was an altar of witness and nothing else. However, when you think about it, if they hadn't wanted to be separate in the first place, none of this would have come about. If they hadn't built another altar none of this would have come about. But their heart was back on the other side of the Jordan and it caused a separation in the body.

The final harvest of worldliness

So what happens to the two and a half tribes? 1st Chronicles chapter 5, from verse 18 down says that they have got lots of men and they are really strong. In verse 21 they have got lots of goods. They increase their lands yet when you get down to verse 25 it says

1 Chronicles 5:25-26 But they were unfaithful to the God of their fathers and prostituted themselves to the gods of the peoples of the land, whom God had destroyed before them. (26) So the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Assyria (that is, Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria), who took the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh into exile. He took them to Halah, Habor, Hara and the river of Gozan, where they are to this day.

Out of all the nation of Israel the first ones to go astray were these two and a half tribes. They were the first ones to go after other gods and commit harlotry and they were the first ones that were actually taken captive away into Assyria. So, yes, they wanted to be separate. Yes, they wanted their earthly lot. It was really good for their cattle and everything else but like everything and like Lot, everything comes at a cost. If an earthly lot is what you are after, sure you can go and do that, but there will be a cost. That is what I believe these two and a half tribes in scripture are there for. I believe they are actually there as a warning to us.

One final related warning from the New Testament

When you get to the New Testament, do you know where you find remnants of these tribes? Jesus goes across the land of Galilee and He crosses into the land of the Gadarenes who are the descendants of Gad; present day Jordan. And what do the Gadarenes do? They are pig farmers, so they are still in the livestock business. (Green Paper pig propagators!!) Pigs, for the Jews, were unclean, so they are in an unclean business. Jesus arrives on their doorstep and is confronted by the man with the legion of demons that no one can bind. He sends the legion, which means many, out of the man and they go in to 200 pigs and run down the hillside into the water and are drowned. When news of this gets back to the city of the remnants of Gad, what is their response? They entreat Jesus to depart from their region. They actually cannot receive the Messiah Jesus. Their livestock has been destroyed, and this is what they are living for. It is interesting that those pigs actually ran down into the sea, apparently to get away from the presence of Jesus. The Messiah comes into the land, but the people are not able to receive Him because their earthly lot has been destroyed. This is the same for the two and half tribes. (Jesus plusnothing.com)

Matthew 6:33 Seek ye first the Kingdom of God, and His righteousness and all these other things shall be added unto you.

33. BUT WE EACH HAD OUR WAND, we still had our wands, and the wands...Oh, that had something to do with when we came to that curve and I saw the toboggan wasn't going to make it, I remember gripping my wand real tight and holding it out like this in front of me, and all of a sudden, zoom! The toboggan just look off like a rocket right up into the air into the sky!

62. AND THAT TOBOGGAN RIDE:--AGAIN OUR WANDS SEEMED TO HAVE THE POWER! When the toboggan would have crashed, it just took off instead and became like a rocket!

71. THE WAND OF THY WORD RESCUED US BY ITS POWER! We took off, Lord, for where I don't know, but I was sure relieved to be flying through the sky! Thank You, Jesus! Praise You, Lord! Hallelujah! Amen! Thank You, Jesus!

72. DO YOU HAVE THE MAGIC WAND OF GOD'S WORD TO SAVE YOU IN THE TIME OF TROUBLE? (The Crash ML#284)

For those of you who view your life as a disciple as a pearl of priceless value, you're going to fight for it with all of the strength in your heart, mind, soul and spirit. You will take hold of the keys and put them into action, and you will make it.

Oh my Lord, hold me ever so near You! Never let me go or drift away from You. For without You, life is not worth living, and the light in my life would slowly die and be gone. Thank You for lighting my way, lifting my heart and raising me up. I love You and praise You, my Lord, my friend, my guide, my Savior. I praise You forever and hold You always dear. (My King and I)

(Jesus)Yes, My young lover, indeed it seems so, but in that blizzard of turmoil and utter despair you will find your Shangri-la, that special place of peace and tranquility where in lies the fountain of youth, where you will find the secret to eternal bliss. Oh, what a joy you will find My love, if only you will believe that I wish to bring you here, with all My heart, as many times as you need. There you will find the clearing in the wood and I will take you deeper than before, each time we meet in this place. I will calm the raging of your wound. What you caught ahold of, I will help you to release My darling, as painful as that may seem, I will heal your broken shattered heart and You will know Me like you've never known before. You will breath in clean fresh, pure blue energized air to bring you back to life. I will search you and know you, because I know all about you and all your ways and all your heart aches, all you are going through and I understand; I will lay My hand upon you and you will know that I embrace every particle of your being. And you will find Me. You must find and know that I want you to be that one leaning on your beloved coming out of your wilderness. Over and over again, as many times as it takes, I am here for you until you know, again, that I would die for you, I would bleed Myself dry... So why do you think I told David, "where does your help come from, but from the hills? Because these tough climbs that you are faced with, bring you to Me and there you will find what you need to face this path that I Myself have placed you on. You feel numb and say mean things to Me, because your spirit is crushed and your heart hurts so excruciatingly; why must I deal with you thus, it is too hard, you say. My darling one, you know well the answer...he that forsaketh not all that he has, cannot be My disciple. You are holding on and not letting go. I must have you...all of you, no less will do. Would you deny Me My prize? I bought and paid dearly for you too. I wanted you that much, I could do no other. I so desperately want you now to choose Me.(End of prophecy)

"Only those who walk by faith alone will be able to continue on in the days of action. You've heard Me say this so many times. You've heard David say the familiar verse "Walk by faith and not by sight" over and over. Now you will come to fully realize what this means. So walk on solely by faith and faith alone. Praise Me and thank Me that this is all you can do! You can only walk by faith, but because of this, you receive the greater blessings and the greater rewards. Because of this, I can accomplish My greatest work in you and through you." (End of message from Jesus.)

Angelica, personal spirit helper, speaking:

The heathen rage and the people that were once called by the name of David imagine a vain thing. For the Enemy of the truth—he which opposes all that is of our dear Husband, and who exalts himself above all that is called God or that is worshiped—is now marshaling his forces to both hinder and destroy the faith of many. He is now inspiring many to speak his words and to accuse the saints—those who have dedicated their lives to our dear King.

All that has been spoken of the Time of the End, all that has been prophesied by the prophets, is now coming to pass. For there shall not be one jot or tittle of all that has been spoken by our dear Jesus that shall not be fulfilled. Did He not say that there shall come a time of great tribulation as has not been since the beginning of time, nor ever shall be? Even now does the mystery of iniquity work in the children of disobedience—those who have forsaken the truth and have been overcome by strong delusion that they should even believe a lie. This is now being fulfilled in the wayward children of David. Each passing day the delusion of the Enemy grows stronger, and the belief in the lie that the Enemy has placed within their hearts grows stronger. They have been overtaken by the Enemy's wiles and he now controls the thoughts and intents of their hearts. The Family (Children of David) must prepare for the Enemy's fury that he will unleash during the coming days of darkness, for even now has he begun to vent his wrath against the children of David, for he knows that his time is short. Each one must prepare for that which is to come by setting their face as a flint; by giving their thoughts, mind, and heart to the King of kings; by placing their feet upon the Rock so they will not be moved.

Today, this day, if the children of David will hear and receive the Words of David which have been given them through our Lord's appointed queen and king, and will write them on the table of their hearts, they will not be moved, and they will enter into the victory and rest that have been promised them.

This preparation, this determination to give themselves wholly and completely unto the Victor must happen now. For those who delay, it will be too late, as it is already too late for some. Our dear Love has given the plan as to how to prepare for the coming battles over these many years. Those who have taken heed shall be used of Him to become the victors of the Tribulation; those who have not will become casualties in the battle and will fall away when persecution arises. Our dear Lord weeps for those who have fallen away and for the many who will yet fall away, but this must come to pass that the Words of the Lord may be fulfilled and that His purpose may be accomplished.

For you who have been chosen to bear the heat of the battle and to engage in hand-to-hand combat, I say that you must utilize all the weaponry that has been afforded you by your Commander in Chief. The power of the keys of the Kingdom must be used upon each engagement when doing battle with the Enemy, for it is through the power of the keys that you will be sustained and kept from all doubts and shielded from every fiery dart of the Evil One.

You must keep your weapons ever ready that you may fulfill the role that the Lord has ordained you to play—that of the guardians of the Flame, the Light of Israel. Your hand must always be upon the sword of the Spirit so that you may lift it from its sheath at a moment's notice, that the Enemy will not find entrance, and that the breaches in the wall might be filled.

Fight on, dear loves, fight on, looking neither to the right hand nor to the left, and the victory will be yours!—And through it, the Kingdom will be strengthened even until the coming of our dear Lord. (Pray, Obey and Prepare!
