

But If My Circumstances were Different.....

(Jesus :) When you reach the perimeter of your ability as a man, when you fall defeated at the retaining wall of your own limitations and realize the impossibility of escaping what seems like the prison house of your own human frailty or ability, that's when you come to really know your limits, and that with man it is impossible. But the place that seems to be the end of all that's possible for you is not the end at all that's actually possible! That's really the place of great beginnings.

That's the border, the frontier, the great divide, the place where you end and I begin.

Realities! [#3790])

What may seem like a place of great defeat for you and your pride is not a place of total failure, complete loss, or of despair and utter hopelessness. Just the opposite is true, for just beyond that line that marks your limitation is the beginning of Me, an eternal sea of limitless power and possibility that is yours in Me.

A soul that has come to the end of itself, to the end of its human endurance and abilities, is actually a greater threat to Satan than a soul full of its own self-confidence. That's why he attacks these broken and fallen ones with such fury and force, trying to cause them to totally despair of life and fall into great self-defeat and condemnation, feeling totally worthless. He doesn't want them to see that they've come to that place of great power--that sacred place where they end and I begin. He doesn't want them to discover what infinite power is there; that My Spirit is ready to rush in and fill them and give them more power than Satan ever had or could have--the pure power of My presence in them, lifting them up. What wars are fought at the border of My Kingdom to prevent those weary souls from calling out to Me and casting themselves upon Me that I might deliver them.

("Rising Above," ML #3379:125,126,129.)

(Jesus) Each of you, My brides, will come to understand the strength of weakness in a way you have never known or understood it before. You will live the reality of this spiritual principle, because your own strength will fail. You cannot make it through otherwise, for I have designed it that way. I have made [it] so beyond yourself that you will be forced to fall upon Me, your Rock, and in this falling you will find the strength that only I can give.

The best followers and the best disciples are those who yield the most.--And that applies not only to disciples, but to soldiers and warriors as well. Being weak, reaching the end of yourself, and having more than you can possibly do in the natural makes you yielded. It humbles you, and it causes you to lean on Me and My strength. [I] will bring you down the path of weakness, because only there will you discover true strength and become a true warrior of the spirit. It's only through weakness that you humbly take up My strength and the weaponry of the spirit instead of your own.

("The Art of Dependence," ML #3537:42,46.) (Realities! [#3790])

Do the best you can with the life that I've given you. When you get to Heaven, you'll see with your own eyes that I was fair in what I gave each person and just in My dealings with them. I think you'll be thankful when you see how the cross that you bear in life was designed perfectly for you--to strengthen your weaknesses and to add new strengths, rounding out your character in a beautiful way. Life is what you make it! (End of message from Jesus.)

As a wise poet* once said, "Every man has his secret sorrows." You may look at some people and consider that they have all that a person could want or desire, but this is just because they have what you want and desire. Maybe their desires are very different, or at least were at one point, and they had to forsake a dream, a person, or something that was very valuable to them. Maybe they've handled it well and learned to live with it, and in turn, I blessed them with a lot of wonderful things in life, which in time eased the pain of loss that they once felt. (Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, 1807-1882.)*

Oct 8, 2019

I know it's a hard love, I know you wish things could be different, a bit easier or somehow more understandable and you struggle with being still and not questioning My love and great power and the concern I have for you. You don't understand how I work at times, you see very little in fact of My hand working on your behalf and you wonder why, why can't it come when you feel you so desperately need it? I have told you so many times before; this is the trying of your faith, the building and the growing. It cannot grow in peachy situations or even in situations where there are others to make it easier on you. You have to learn how to pull and suck from Me all on your own; to want Me just because you yourself want it and know how much I mean to you and not because others are doing it and you are just being pulled along with them. I am strengthening your determination, your desire. You feel you've never stuck to something before; well, here I am sticking to you and helping you to stick to Me. I know you want Me, I know you need Me and desire nothing else, that's why I am training you and carefully choosing what you go through. It's not haphazard or random. I know exactly what battles and trials will work on each area you need help in. Even the mistakes are working for your betterment. I love you dearly My sweetheart. (Personal prophecy)

(Dad :) What's happened to the revolutionary spirit our Family was built on? What's happened to the spirit of do or die, sink or swim, and being willing to march into Hell for a Heavenly cause? What's happened to the willingness to follow the Lord and do what He asks of you, to lay down your lives for your brethren, that the end result might be more souls saved from the Enemy's clutches and even from the fires of Hell?

33. Look at the men and women of God throughout history and the sacrifices the Lord asked of them in order to use them as He saw fit. You say, "Well, things are different now, and the Lord isn't asking things like that of us." But you know what? He is asking something of you. He's asking you to be willing to lay down your life for your brethren in whatever way He calls you, even if that means being in leadership or a position of responsibility.

You have to forsake all.

You have to be willing to be what the Lord wants you to be.

If it means a life of isolation and trying circumstances, giving up all that you thought you would be, or all that you hoped for, wouldn't it be worth it for Him?

Wouldn't it be worth it, just knowing that He's going to use your sacrifice to further the Kingdom in some way? "Only one life, 'twill soon be past. Only what's done for Christ will last!" Praise the Lord!

43. Lord, give them the grace and willingness to heed Your call! Not just the grace for right now as they make their decisions, but the grace for each day as it comes, each moment, every time You ask them to make sacrifices to help others. We know it's worth it to live for You, Jesus. That's what the Family is all about. So help these dear ones to choose Your first best, even if it means a life of total sacrifice, breaking and remaking to be able to give life and strength and comfort and help to others. You can make us a blessing in spite of ourselves. We only have to be willing--the rest is up to You! Hallelujah! (End of message)

47. (Jesus:) My young leaders, My bellwethers, I commend you for choosing the good and not giving place to the bad, to those who would mock, condemn or criticize you for your yieldedness and dedication. I'm calling you to a life of commitment, of freedom and happiness, of meaning and fruitfulness. Don't let the jeers and the backbiting of any of your peers pull you off the wall.

48. This life will be a difficult one, a life of constant change, challenge, forsakings and even breakings. But you will be worthy of high honor and praise in the day when you come before Me to receive your rewards.

49. So come, My young ones! Come, My called and chosen leaders! Don't be ashamed of Me or of My calling and Words in your lives. Be proud of Me and of the life I'm offering you, the mission I'm calling you to! And I will be proud of you in that day, when you come before Me and before your brethren in My Kingdom. (End of message.)

April 7

Trust Me that I will take you and have you where I want you. I will provide and care for you and will continue to train and purge you as I see fit. Stop My love, stop what you want to do and let Me do through you what I need you to do. Make this your modus operandi. I am not taking away anything that you don't want gone. You want to be pure and spotless before Me; then allow Me to dictate your every move and plan. This is how you will draw closer to Me for you will be seeking and striving to do what I ask all the time. This is how I need you to be; closed to the world and tapped into Me and I will show you what to do and give you the faith to do it. Hold your keys high and let them lead the way into this gross darkness... another adventure begins My sweet. Another time of testing your faith, a time of stretching and growing. Let's do this together hand in hand I will lead you through the days ahead My sweet one. (Personal prophecy)

Each of You Will Be Tested

22. (Jesus speaking:) The fact that you've entered the era of action means that the action has been upped in every area—including the area of the Enemy's attacks against you. This is destined to be, in many ways, the greatest era since the beginning of the world, because it will be the era of the greatest witness this world has known so far. It will be the era when many are brought to a decision, when there is potential for My Word to go out like never before. The Enemy knows that and is furious, and he is doing all he can to keep My children from entering in with their whole hearts.

23. It's field-testing time, to see what you'll do with the new weapons that you've learned to use, to see what you'll do under extreme circumstances, because the days to come will be full of them. This will not be the last test, or the only one. Be prepared, My children, and be ready to fight for your place--because it's a place of great honor, with guaranteed victory. It is not given for free. There is a price to be paid. If you're willing to pay it, congratulations! You will participate in a spectacular show of My anointing, power and strength--which will be given freely in order to complete this stage of world history. These are the days all the prophets have dreamed of! (End of message from Jesus.)
(None Of These Things Move Me! [#3307])

April 26 Slowly, I am peeling away the world from your heart. It comes off in little pieces at first and sometimes it's painful and you pull back from My touch but I am trying to make you see you'll be so much lighter so much more beautiful without it. You really don't need all these things My love, all these things that you feel you just won't and can't be happy without. You feel as if I am tearing at your heart and asking you to give up everything that should be a normal right to have, that should be part of the blessings I give, but I want you to see that these things are only getting in the way of you being totally Mine. Just like a man and woman don't want to share each other with those around them when they are new lovers so it is with you and I; I must have you all for Myself. I want your eyes and heart only on Me. I want you to feel the way I feel about you. The shivers of ecstasy and desire that takes Me over when I see you and when I touch you and you Me. How much My heart beats and My senses are heightened and I can't hold Myself back any longer and I must have you, I must touch you and hold you tight in My arms and feel your body against Mine and feel your love for Me. So I wish for your love to be returned to Me.... and I am teaching you to love Me in this way and so I must take away everything and anything that would distract you or make it hard for you to let go of the flesh. I am able to change the very tides of time if I so will, it is a small thing to change you, but I want to do it with you fully on My side, with you here working beside Me to draw us ever closer to each other. We are in a relationship together it takes two sides to make it a tight, passionate, close relationship. So don't be afraid to let go of all these things you're holding on to, consciously or subconsciously. You will feel a bit shaky at first.... a lot shaky but I'll be right there to steady you and to hold you and you'll feel Me closer than ever before, more real and tangible for there won't be any layers separating us. I want this badly My love, as I know you do too. Please work with Me to peel the dross away.... I want to see you shine and love Me with a passion unmatched on this earth... My sweetheart.(Personal prophecy)

It's Not Your Circumstances; It's Your Attitude!

The point is, folks, that it's not your circumstances that determine your happiness; it's your state of mind.

Look at the Devil--Lucifer. He was once God's right-hand man, the light bearer. He had the most ideal circumstances you could ever imagine, but despite all this perfection, he still turned his back on it all.

And ever since, he's lied about the One Who was the most perfect Man ever to walk the Earth, our loving Husband and Savior Who made the ultimate sacrifice in dying to save us. Satan has lied about Him, fought Him, put millions and millions of doubts in people's minds about Him and His Home in Heaven and His world and the way He does things. But why did he do that? Was it that he was mistreated, misused, put down, talked badly about, or dealt with unlovingly? No.

It was because pride and bitterness entered into his heart and he no longer looked back on his life in Heaven as the beautiful gift it was, the rich heritage it was, the Home of Love it was, with the greatest King of Love. Even with the perfect conditions he was blessed to live with, he still threw it all away, and through pride and bitterness could no longer see any good in his past, and ever since his whole purpose for existence has been to try to tear down what he once cherished and loved. And that's what some of our ex-members are doing as well. When they look back on the good and happy times, all they can see is the bad and the negative. It's a change in perspective.

(Jesus:) Lucifer is a clear example of the spiritual principle that pride, bitterness, doubt and other sins are not automatic byproducts of a bad situation, of negative things happening in your life, or of rough circumstances. Even rejection of My Spirit is not something that is caused by circumstances. It's the result of choices--choosing not to yield, choosing your own way over My way, choosing to disobey a little here and a little there until you've drifted farther and farther away from My Spirit.

That's what Lucifer did: He chose the wrong way--the way of pride, the way of self, the way of independence, the way of glory, the way of destruction. No one made that choice for him, and there were no reasons that compelled him to rebel.

And the life he had once lived, a blessed existence that was once beautiful and lovely and wonderful, morphed in his mind into something horrible, evil, and worthy of being destroyed. He chose rejection of truth and embraced the darkness, and ever since has been trying to convince men to love that same darkness rather than the beautiful light and love of My Spirit, truth, Word, and all of My fruits and blessings.

Even though people have gone through things that weren't right, things that shouldn't have happened in the first place and weren't good, the Lord has the amazing ability to take things that are bad and shouldn't have even happened and turn them around and actually make something so good out of them. That's the miracle of Romans 8:28! It transforms you when you accept things that come into your life and you say, "Lord, I know that You allowed these things in my life. You care about me so much that You wouldn't allow anything in my life that wouldn't be good for me in some way in the end, and that You can help me turn into something good for my growth and my blessing."

In everyone's life there are going to be battles, trials, and difficult things, or else we wouldn't build any strength of character.

The brass-tacks truth is that it's not the circumstances that determine your state; it's your attitude toward them.

You become bitter and resentful when you leave the Lord and the Word out of your life, when you fail to see the Romans 8:28 in a situation.

You Can Go Forward and Far with Jesus!

If you're tempted to think you're too weak and wonder if you should just give up, if you feel like there's no hope, please give the Lord another chance. Realize how much you'd be giving away if you just gave up, and fight for change and renewal.

(Jesus:) If you feel weak, if you feel like you've been a lousy soldier and disciple, don't give up! There is hope, and you can make it if you want to badly enough. If you're willing to give Me everything--your whole heart, your desires, wants, plans, sins, treasures, loved ones, and all that you possess--you will be strengthened.

There's a place for you in My ranks, a place for you in My army, and a treasured anointing and crown of glory for you, if you'll reach out for it with all your heart, might, soul, strength and willpower. It's not going to flutter into your lap like a feather; you're going to have to fight hard and with every ounce of strength you possess. But if you desire to move forward with Me, if you desire My Words and truth, and if you want to be strengthened so that you can be the man or woman I need you to be, then you will be.

There's nothing in Heaven, Earth or Hell stopping you, not even the Enemy's dirty tricks, or his voice when he tells you it can't be done. He can't defeat you unless you believe him, entertain his doubts and lies, and give in to his false reality. The keys will conquer all impossibilities and empower you with forward movement, if you cling to them tightly enough.

Even if you don't know what to do or how to change, just say, "Lord, I'm a mess. I can't do anything without You. I'm weak and not even fit to be Your soldier or disciple, but I want to serve You with all my heart and I'm willing to pay any price. Even if I have to forsake some things that are very dear to me, or things I think I need in order to be happy, or things I don't fully understand the need to give up, I'm willing to do it because You are asking it of me, because You know what's best, and my place in Your service and my life for You is worth paying any price for.

"I don't understand everything right now, Jesus, because I'm weak in the Word and lacking in faith, but I do know I want to take a stand and make my calling and election sure. So I claim the keys of change that You have promised will work miracles for me. I need a miracle, Lord--a miracle of deliverance, change, newness, and strength to rededicate myself to You. I know I can't do it on my own, so I'm trusting You to help me make it. I want this badly, Jesus. I want this so badly that I'm willing to pay any price."

If you can pray this and are willing to take the steps I show you, then you will see miracles and forward progress. No matter how lost you are, no matter how far you've strayed, no matter how wayward you've been or how you've allowed your faith to be weakened, you can make it, and you will make it if your heart, mind, soul, body and will is on My side. I specialize in replacing the old with the new, transforming the weak into the strong, and bringing change and renewal to every heart that cries out to Me! (End of message.)

June 10 As you take My hand into this fantastic future you'll see that I do all things well and that mostly if not all you go through and experience is for you to learn something and grow in a certain way. Each block is adding to your future and making you able to bear and go through and be what I want and need you to be. Yes, it's hard at times and you wish it could all be over and not have to go through the pain and confusion over and over, but be comforted to know that if you continue to go through something then it is because I see fit to use this tool to continue to teach you. I see the good fruit it bears, the lessons it brings and the maturity it is growing in you. So again I tell you, don't seek to wiggle out of difficult, painful or hard experiences, though they may burn like fire, for they are the very things you so often ask Me to bring into your life, they are the very things that are propelling you closer to where and what you want to be for Me. Try to glean as much as you can from them; set aside the pain and look at it from My perspective; step up a level and though the pain and hurt and confusion is still there, it doesn't affect you so much. So many of My children of old had to learn this "stepping up a level" during their hard and difficult trials/lives. They had to, otherwise they would not have been able to do all that they did for Me and endure when they did. They stepped up into the next plain, they looked not on the flesh and what they were feeling or going through, but they, to a degree, took on My mind and were able to see it as it really was, see the end goal if you will and the purpose or lessons that were being taught and gathered through the trial and that it was making them more useful and more one with Me, for you learn through the things you suffer... if you allow it to. If you would learn to not get so involved or allow the enemy to have such a heyday in your mind and with your emotions, to instead of getting all caught up and tangled in it all, step aside and bring it to Me and ask Me how I see it or how to handle it or what I think about it then determine not to let it settle on your spirit and weight you down. You've done what you can by bringing it to Me and if there is something I ask of you to do then do it and don't let the battle worry you or your own short comings worry you. They don't worry Me, I know I can handle them and help you through as you come to Me about them and then start to do what I ask. If you've done that then you are doing the best you can to win and learn through the battle and you don't need to let it settle on your spirit and bring you down. This is where I am leading you and the way I want you to see and experience trials and battles. On a higher level, not so much down and in it, fighting in the muck of it all, but fighting from a higher perspective a more heavenly perspective, a winner's perspective. (Personal prophecy)

A Revolutionary Challenge from Dad

(Mama:) I'd like to end this Letter with a tremendous, inspiring and vision-increasing message from Dad, which was given specifically for you young people. But FGAs, I guarantee you'll find jewels aplenty that will apply to you as well. It's about what we're all here for:

To serve Jesus, to take a stand for Him, and to not let the Devil or anyone else dissuade us from the privileged place we have been called to as His revolutionary disciples!

(Dad:) You are it! You are the chosen ones for this millennium, and this is my millennial cry of revolution! It's time to take a stand! It's a time of decision. The revolution continues, and I need you to be a part of it. I need you to choose to break away from the System. I need you to choose revolution above popularity. I need you to choose discipleship over fame and glory.

The Family's future is at stake, because if you young people don't take up the challenge, don't choose to hold high the torch of revolution, don't allow the shocking truths of the spirit to burn brightly in your hearts, then who will carry on? I need you to be proud of the truths you hold in your hearts. I need you to be proud of your heritage and upbringing. I need you to be proud of being a dropout, an iconoclast, a new-millennium revolutionary.

Just as I called your parents of the first generation to forsake all and drop out many years ago, I'm calling you to do the same now. I can't promise you fame, popularity, riches, honor or glory. But I do promise you challenge, fulfillment, joy, deep happiness, and thrills of the spirit that will be more than enough to sustain you. I can't promise you a comfortable life of pleasure and peace, because the life of a disciple is uncomfortable, difficult, and a spiritual battle. But I can promise that you'll never regret a life lived for Jesus!

I need those who are willing to carry on the Revolution, not just those who are willing to live the life. I need those who are willing to steer the Family in new directions, pioneer new works, and change the course of history. I need you young people who are willing to be pillars in the Family, not just members. I need you young people who are committed to carrying the Revolution for Jesus into the future. I need you who are willing to be despised by the world in order to be recognized and honored by Jesus for all eternity.

I don't care what anyone else is doing or the choices that anyone else has made. I'm talking to you. I need those with crazy faith, who don't give a damn what the System or anyone else thinks, as long as they're obeying the Lord. I need those who are proud of the truth, the new weapons, the new revelations, and who aren't afraid to live them. I need you young people who want to be iconoclasts, dropouts, idol-smashers, fifth-dimensioners, loving Jesus brides, key-power wielders, prophets of the End, and those who are going to usher in the Kingdom of God on Earth!

You've got to give your all, everything you possess--your dreams, your hopes, your desires, your secret wants, your lives, your hearts, your all--to Jesus. No matter what anyone around you is doing, no matter who else has forsaken their plow and calling, and no matter what odds you face or what sacrifices are required, you've got to fight on! I'm calling you today to choose the mountain, not the valley; to choose to be revolutionaries, not flatlanders.

Many of you have already made the choice and your actions have followed. Others of you have made a choice in your heart, but you have yet to speak loudly of your convictions and decisions and to take action. Yet others of you are still hanging in the balance, not sure if you want to burn your life out on the altar of God's service, not sure if it's really worth it. So my call to you, the hope of the future, is to choose to burn--and burn brightly. So what if you don't have anything to say for your life in worldly terms! God will have a whole lot to say about you in His world that lasts forever!

Burn like a bonfire out of control! And that fire will grow and spread, until it's a raging forest fire that will sweep the nations. Burn with the white-hot fire of the spirit! Burn with the truth! Burn with conviction! Burn with a dedication in your heart that no waters of the world could ever put out! Let your life burn with the fires of revolution, and the world will see the blaze.

The future of the Revolution is in your hands. What will you do with it? Will you cherish it, invest in it, love it, and fight for it? The Enemy is fighting you hard, so you've got to fight back even harder--with your spiritual weapons, with personal decisions and commitments that the Enemy can't shake, and with determination to give your all and live the truth as never before.

What you have accomplished so far is tremendous and worthy of praise--but what will be said of you tomorrow? Will you hold true to your calling? Will you cling to your faith? Will you boldly proclaim the truth? Will you receive with open arms your commission for the future? Will you live, breathe, and speak the Revolution? Will you carry on for me? Your future is in your hands!

These are the days of strengthening your faith, of proclaiming your convictions! It's the year of the resolute and determined, the bold and the brave, the year when those who stand strong on the rock of the Word and truth will be raised above the storms, and those who stand on earthly soil will be washed away. It's not the naturally strong or charismatic who will stand, but those who live the Word, proclaim the truth, and dwell in the Spirit. It's the year when the children of the children of David must take a stand! Will you? (End of message.)(So You Want To Be A Disciple? [#3458:46-51,57-77])

June 14 He will never leave you comfortless, destitute, alone or forsaken. I know it feels like that now and a lot of the times, but how do you expect to feel when you are being broken and formed into something new? Do you think crushing and breaking and molding and crushing feels good? Do you think the enemy is going to stand back while this process is under way? When he sees that He is making something that is going to be used against him? Do you think he will not try his hardest to get in the way and make it as difficult as possible? Do you think Jesus can make you into the broken and humble vessel He needs without trying and testing you, without putting you through the wringer, without allowing the enemy his chance to prove you before all of Heaven? It's all part of it you know? And Jesus' way up is down so look on the flip side, look at it the right way up or the right way down or however. He's gotta make you nothing before He can use you. If there is 'you' there, then He's got to root it out; root 'you' out and that is always a painful process. Ripping up the roots of 'self' never feels nice and you should pray you feel the soreness for a long time afterwards too so you never forget that self gets you nowhere and only gets in the way of what you really want; to be used of Him, to be nothing, just an empty, broken vessel for Him. That's it. An empty vessel is willing to go through anything, be anywhere, and do anything for Him because it just wants to please Him. It doesn't have to be told twice to wait or to come when He calls, it knows its Masters voice and believes it without doubt despite what it may look or feel like to obey.

October 16, You want to be happy, you want to be free, you want My true joy? Then I say to you My love; let go! Let go of all that you hold onto. Shed the shackles of the flesh and your old stinking garments, and fly free and weightless into My embrace. It is not easy to let go of the things that hold you back, but it is the only way you will ever be truly happy. Only if you forget yourself and what's comfortable or uncomfortable for you and give your heart, mind, and body to serving Me and others. It is not a matter of how you feel about any given situation, it's about being willing to do or not do whatever it is I'm saying you can or can't do. It's about having no will of your own and being yielded to My will and plan that I have for your life. I know there are things you would like to have, but is this about you or Me? Is it about you, or the lost souls out there in the world? It is about being My disciple and giving up everything that you could call yours or that you want, to reach the world and give them Me and My message. If you don't forsake all that you have you cannot be My disciple. It is about forsaking all and having nothing for yourself, so that you might be free from the snares of the world, so that you can in turn free others from the enemy's grasp. The world is full of selfishness and pride and I want My children to be a complete contrast to those out there, I want them to be a light. But so many choose to cover that light, they don't want to be different They make excuses for themselves; why they can't or shouldn't be expected to, and they back out. They hide their light from the very ones who need it because they fear what those ones will think, not knowing that they hold the answer to many peoples searching. Do not be as such, do not hide your light for fear of being rejected, do not cower at the enemy's attacks, but rather stand up to him and burn him with the white hot heat of the Word of God. Let go of your pride and let Me come in and possess you fully and without restraint, then you will see some power. If you want to be My witness then you've got to have My power, so come here to Me and let Me give you some of that raw power and energy that will take you forward and send you flying through the enemy's camp as a fire ball, burning everything in your path. I know you want the victory, and it can be yours if you just fight for it. Call on the keys and hit the devil where it hurts. I love you and I am going to be the one doing the hitting, just call Me whenever you need to, I'm always there for you. (End of personal prophecy)

I've placed you in Your Circumstances to break your Heart

32. (Jesus speaking :) My love, I don't condemn you for these feelings, these emotions, these desires, these longings. I know and understand your frame. I know that you're dust that you're earthbound, that you're a creature of feeling and touching and sensing, and you want a lover who will be on your same plane, in your domain. You want a relationship that is tangible, that is fulfilling in both spirit and flesh. You want someone by your side all the time, and you want it to be someone you can see.

33. I know it's hard for you not to have this, and you're sure that it's what you want, and it pains My heart to see you hurt so. But My love, that's just the way it has to be. I've made you as you are and placed you in the circumstances where you are so that I might soften and break your heart.

34. I've told all My disciples that if any man would come after Me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow Me. This is the cross I've given you to carry, and which I'm asking you to take up cheerfully, for My sake, because of your love for Me. I've given you many of your desires and the things that you wanted, but I don't make life perfect for anyone.

35. I can't give you everything you want and desire, for then where would be the spirit of sacrifice, of forsaking all, of dying daily that is part of living for Me?

But, My love, it's not hopeless, and it's not meant to be all sorrow. Yes, I am here, and yes, I do love you, and yes, every word of love I've spoken to you has been from My heart, and I mean it with all sincerity.

36. Someday you'll see and know and feel and experience--in spirit, heart and body--all these wonderful pleasures of love together with Me. Even now on this Earth I've provided a way for you to enter more deeply into the realm of My Spirit, and it's at your disposal. It requires you to step out, to say the words, to enact the motions. I know that now you do it only by faith, and it doesn't change the way you feel about Me or toward Me, and you don't experience any great change or excitement in your body.

Jeremiah 18: 4-6

I have you My love, I've got you in My hands and I am working on you diligently and thoroughly. I won't bring you out of here until the last lump is removed and you are clear and smooth for all to see.

(Spirit-helper) He's got you where He wants you right now and it will be clear when it's time to move on, but you have to realize He can't use you until you are sufficiently broken and ready for what He has in store for you up ahead.

It's a life of sacrifice My love, from the start you had to give all to Me and while you are on this earth you are going to have to keep giving all to Me even all your plans and desires to serve Me. I don't want you to compare and look at others thinking I love them more and give them a better place of service; more honored and more important. You will be known as meek, as humble in the courts of Heaven, you don't get that title without being sorely tested and tried and made humble! I want to use you, but you cannot compare with others and what they are doing for Me, it won't work. I know the struggles of your heart and mind and you just want to be used, but you can't be fully used until it is the right time, until I am done what I need to do first, until you are so fully Mine. That is what I am working towards, please hold on and trust Me a little longer and I promise you will see some fruit from this time of purging and breaking. (Personal prophecy)

34. The impulse to say, "I can't!" and "It can't be done!" You must resist the "it's impossible" tendencies in your life. Remember that it's Me working through you, and the power to change is nothing of yourself. All it requires is your giving yourself to Me and saying, "Jesus, I want to change, I need to change, and I'm willing to make the sacrifices involved in bringing that change to fruition." When you say, "I can't," it means that your thinking is centered on yourself and your circumstances rather than on Me. So you're defeated before you even start. Exercise the weapon of faith against this enemy! (Rising Above)

June 23 If you can endure this My love then you can make it through the days ahead. This is your testing ground the place that will stretch you beyond what you thought you could endure and get through. I cannot take you out; I cannot rescue you, not until all is accomplished, not until you are ready. The fire is hot, but it is doing its job. You will only get through this if you hold fast to Me. No one else will get you through My love, this is between you and Me. So be strong and of good courage. As I have said, it is only fair that you go through these tests if you are destined to receive some of the greatest rewards for your faith and part in this End Time game. So My love be not weary for the grinding is making you sharp and refining you into My pointed sword, which I will use to slay the enemy and set many captives free. All this is not in vain. I must create a stout heart in you My brave soldier, My warrior queen. You will rock the nations with the love you have for Me. I am making that love right now, that trust and knowledge that I always come through, that I always know best, that I am worth everything you give up or go through. That I am enough.(Personal prophecy)

39. Enemy Seven: Looking back. My principle is always that the best wine is last, and with Me there is always newness, new growth, change, and new challenges. Forget those things that are behind (your habits and “natural” you), and reach forth unto those things that are before (the new “rising above” you). Expect miracles! Anticipate all that I'm going to do for and through you, because it has already been done. In the eternal now, this power to rise above yourself and your circumstances has already been given you; all it requires now is for you to reach out in full faith and claim it as yours. Have a large vision-not a narrow one-of all that I'm going to do through you!

40. Recognizing these personal enemies to your faith will put you on the road to truly rising above. Then you'll be blessed in every sense of the word. You won't be bothered or so easily irritated or stressed by external circumstances or little things that come up, by all the little nagging details of daily life that seek to pull you down so easily, for you will truly live in Me, drawing from Me, My internal reserves and springs of faith within you. The only qualification is your coming to Me, admitting you can't do it yourself, and then waiting on Me as I pour into you and give you the power to rise above!
(Rising Above)

Don't Limit Me!

60. (Jesus speaking:) When you become familiar with the way you perceive yourself to be, and you think certain things aren't doable for you personally, this is the greatest hindrance to really pulling down My power for you. You tend to put yourself, with all your personal limitations, in a box, with a sign that reads, “I can do most things You ask of me, but some things just aren't attainable. Note the ceiling on my box. Please don't ask more of me than You can see I can do.” And then when it seems that I do ask something of you that in your mind or heart you seem to have resolved is beyond you, then you start to worry that I'm not looking out for your good or your welfare. You've put limits on what I can ask you to do, or what you've resolved you can or want to do.

61. I ask you, with the deepest love I can express, to let yourself break loose. Don't look at the walls you're encased in, thinking, “Thus far and no further-that's all I really can do.” Break a hole in it and face the light in the sky above! That's really where you can reach to, with Me and My power.

62. If you get offended because I ask certain difficult or near-impossible things, according to your perceptions, this greatly hinders Me being able to use you to your full potential. Reach for the stars and let nothing stop us! Situations--no matter what they are--will never be too hard for you. It's like working with weights. When you first start and are rather weak, you may look at people using 10 or more pound weights and think that must be super hard. But as you see, if you work up to it, it's no harder for them than it is for someone starting off with three pounds who's not used to it.

63. Let Me bolster your faith and give you courage to reach what I know to be attainable, though it may seem so far for you to reach. I can give you the faith to face anything that you have to encounter, and the wherewithal to see it through. Medals will be yours for the encounters you will face, claim My help for, and live through.

64. Don't shy away from hard things, but face them with a sense of joy, because you will get to know more how I can come through. Each hard thing that you face is or can be another opportunity to see a side of Me that you knew was there but haven't yet seen in full action. Let Me show you amazing things, things out of this world, by going through with and tackling what I lead you in, or what is placed before you.

65. Men or women who wither in the face of that which they think is unattainable never get to see triumph. They may see it one day, through another who fought that battle they chose to pass up. But when one lets Me use them, and they see the victory before their own eyes, yet more strength is given to them. Faith in Me to see them through all impossibilities builds the muscles of the men and women of faith, and they will go on to see yet greater impossibilities conquered. Courage is a result of faith that one can do it, or is at least willing to try. And when it's done, the faith grows yet more--and thus the willingness to conquer, in faith, greater foes. Such are My men and women of faith-going forth, with Me beside them, conquering and to conquer. (End of message from Jesus.)

(Rising Above)

Sometimes there are spiritual afflictions like pride, negativity, jealousy, etc.-besetting sins that you seem to have to always fight no matter what spiritual power you have wielded against them.-Or battles having to do with circumstances, that I expect you to persevere in, even though they are not your cup of tea and you'd rather be delivered from them. I have instead chosen to deliver you through them and to teach you many things in the process.

These kinds of battles can be long term, and they can be the sort of fight where it is My will for you to be tested in your endurance, to see how long you will fight in faith whether you have evidence of victory or not.

25. These battles are a great honor. To any who fight in this way, I tell you that you are highly esteemed in My sight to be given the gift of a battle of endurance. You have passed many other tests successfully and have thus been handpicked for the special honor of this test of faith. I want to prove you faithful before the hosts of Heaven, as I did with Job, to show that although you are nearly slain, yet you trust in Me.

26. Don't forget that your time on Earth is very short compared to eternity, and that above all it is a testing ground, a school, and a demonstration to the entire universe. Life is not guaranteed to be easy. Life is full of tests and battles, and someone who endures through long or seemingly endless battles and tests of faith is a powerful testimony to all the watching hosts of Heaven.

It's a testimony of the kind of faith that truly pleases God-the kind of "but if not" faith that endures endless difficulties because it believes in My promises and in My goodness and faithfulness to deliver, no matter what the circumstances look like.
(Art Of War, The, Part 2 [#3533])

Aug 24 It's not something that's just going to happen all at once and this is why it's a dying daily to obtain this most precious pearl. You cannot give your will just once and boom it's gone, it must be given to Him every day, every moment, every decision you must choose to choose Him. This is why those who do this are so few and so precious for they did not just stop at once or twice or even a hundred times; everyday they said yes to Him and this is the road you now walk, to say yes to Him no matter what He puts before you. He chooses you Bella will you choose Him? Over everything, over yourself, over your flesh and through whatever pain and forsaking it takes to reach this goal? It cannot be just given or easily obtained it is hard fought for, for only those who are willing to go to the utmost can have it. For you will be with Him, in Him, one with Him. You cannot have this unless you, like Him give everything of yourself to be in that special place. You have a chance at it and we know it's not easy, but if it wasn't obtainable or meant for you then He would not have told you or put it before you, that alone should spur you on and make you fight for it with all you've got for you and a few others have been placed in the very position as Your Lover was, to obtain this ultimate prize. He has chosen those whose hearts He knows will choose Him, but it is still a choice and it matters not how hard it seems or how incapable you feel. It's so different from the way you are used to thinking; you think you have to obtain to this, to do something or be good enough, but it is not like that. Think of it like rising above it is not you doing it but it is not altogether effortless. You choose it, focus on it, you ask for it and keep asking for it you follow Him you do what He says. That is it; listen, follow, delve deep and soon it won't seem so hard to understand what it means to do your part, it's just yielding to Him to the ultimate. (Personal prophecy)

21. In order to have a lasting change, the change has to begin in your heart. It's not enough to alter the circumstances surrounding the problem--although that sometimes helps. It's not enough to just put forth willpower to change the habit--although sometimes that's necessary too. You have to start with your heart. And for those of us in the Lord's Endtime army, all change begins at the root of the tree of our spiritual life--with our relationship with Jesus, drawing closer to Him, asking Him to help us yield and overcome.
(You Can Make It! [#3277])

Of Circumstances and Situations...

26. (Dad speaking :) Until you can learn to be happy in any situation, you won't be able to be happy even in a situation that you think is just right. Happiness doesn't come because of the situation--it comes from inside, and from the Lord. So if you wonder why you go from one situation to another and all of them seem inherently flawed, it's because the Lord wants you to learn not to depend on circumstances. He wants to show you that you can be happy anywhere, if you accept His will for you and allow yourself to be content with what He's given you.
(Jewels On Comparing [#3326])

October 31, 2020 If you base your happiness on the things that happen in life, then you will not find true happiness. If you build your house on the sand then when the storms come it will wash your house away. When things don't go your way, or things happen that you find hard to accept, and you're relying on things to make you happy, then you will be tossed about by every wave and upset by every unpleasant turn in the road. You have to learn to hinge or base your happiness on the right things. Learn to praise even if you feel rotten. A good way to learn that is to not dwell so much on the things that don't work out. If something just doesn't pan out or you are down about something then you need to just praise Me and then move on. Don't dwell on the bad when there is so much good to think about. And one way to move on or not dwell on those things is to take more time for others. As I have been telling you recently to take more time with others, and spend time just doing things with those in your home. When you're down and feel like stewing or moping instead of lying down on your bed and doing that, go to someone else and spend time with them; get your mind and eyes off yourself and onto the happy and more positive things in life. So when things don't work out for you or you're feeling low in enthusiasm then go and find someone who may also be wanting for something to happen and do what you can to make them happy. This and reading My Word, are what you need to do when you feel like getting into yourself and closing up to others when you're upset about something or feel like life is unfair or unjust. Or maybe you are discouraged about something in your spiritual life that you just don't seem to be making progress in, and you think that surely that is something to get discouraged about. But no, that also should be combated with some positive action. (End of personal prophecy)

Instruct the Angels

(Jesus:) Your time on Earth is very short compared to eternity, and that above all it is a testing ground, a school, and a demonstration to the entire universe. Life is not guaranteed to be easy. Life is full of tests and battles, and someone who endures through long or seemingly endless battles and tests of faith is a powerful testimony to all the watching hosts of Heaven. It's a testimony of the kind of faith that truly pleases God-the kind of "but if not" faith that endures endless difficulties because it believes in My promises and in My goodness and faithfulness to deliver, no matter what the circumstances look like.

... When you get up here and the whole spectrum of life and reality is revealed to you, you'll be glad that you went through what you did, because the strength of faith that you gain is priceless, and the strength of faith that you impart to others, both on Earth and in Heaven, when they watch your valiant struggle, is priceless.

Don't let it surprise you that what you go through can teach lessons to those in My heavenly realm and inspire them. If Satan was able to persuade a third of the angels to follow him in rebellion against Me, it is obvious that even angels' minds are not above changing, or at least persuasion. They aren't weak, but they are not so sinless and perfect that they cannot be motivated and spurred on by a good sample that they see from someone in your realm. They know the difficulties you face in having to believe and take by faith what they see every day with their eyes.

So when you go through one of these long-term battles and you've done all in your power to overcome, but you're left to fight on in faith, know that you're instructing angels and great numbers of heavenly helpers who are motivated by your faith and your conviction and your fighter's spirit. They're motivated to likewise trust Me more, do more for Me, and serve Me with greater love and fervor. ("The Art of War, Part 2," ML #3533:26-29; March 2005)

(Tamal :) It's not easy to be a fighter, a warrior. Sometimes you just want to give up and call it quits and go Home. We all feel that way sometime or other. The battles that we engage in are not pretty and can at times even feel pointless, if we don't keep the Heavenly Vision. We of the Spirit Realm also face battles and testing periods in which we have to fight and push and "get the victory". No, it's not exactly like what you face on Earth, but it nonetheless requires us to fight and win, and we've been on Earth and have helped you through enough battles to know what they're like. I think one of the biggest problems is that humans can be so shortsighted. They hardly have any concept of the vastness of Eternity, they can be so temporal, so "Now" in their thinking. They only live a meager 70, 80, or 90 so years on this earth and can still get so worried and fretful and down about a present battle they are facing that will probably only last them a few months or years, and even if it lasts longer and is with them for life, so what?? Do you realize how small 90 years is alongside ETERNITY??? There really is no comparison. _____ I just want you to see how small your time is here, on earth. Don't get so hung up on these small and short battles and lacks and little annoyances and desires. Look up and see the vast, glorious, unending stretch of the future that is just before you. It's close, closer than ever before, and is getting closer by the day! Keep your sights

Heavenward and off all these earthly things—seek ye first the kingdom of God and all these things will be added unto you!! We love you and are here to help you stay focused and on track and full of the Lord's joy for all the days of your Earthly life. Don't get discourage over these petty things that will soon pass away, look up and see, for your redemption draweth nigh. (End of personal prophecy)

To desire something above Me is worldliness. To be dissatisfied with Me and My way to be searching for happiness in other things that is worldly and sin. You can enjoy life; I am not against doing things that you like to do. I am not trying to only make your life one big forsaking, although it will be if you truly wish to follow Me all the way. Forsaking and breaking and letting go are all things that come with serving Me because you cannot serve two masters. It can sometimes take a lifetime or more for someone to realize that these pleasures of the flesh do not satisfy. So as I take them down this road of seeing this truth it usually involves suffering and forsaking because your flesh has strong ties to the earth.. I can tell you right now there is complete and total satisfaction to be found in Me and My spirit. You don't need anything else. But it depends how far you go with Me, if you give Me everything I will give you the peace and happiness in full measure because you're not seeking it in anything but ME thus I can pour in full because you're empty of everything else. But if you only give Me part and hold onto some pleasure that you feel you need I cannot give you everything I can only pour down in part. It's about your heart and how much you're willing to count everything else a loss to win Me. I don't expect you to reach this place instantly what I do expect is for you to keep trying. To keep leaving behind those things that begin to be important to you. Living on earth is not about enjoying the things of earth it's really about learning how you don't need them. That's My goal for you I want you to truly see and feel that you don't need them. But you say I do become attached to things and I do love some certain freedoms " but that's the thing I want to show you that you can live without them you don't need them. Yes initially it will hurt to let them go but that's the kind of hurt that beautiful lilies grow out of. You can experience total satisfaction in Me if you would let go of the notion of needing certain things. You don't need anything of this earth to be happy. I can fill your heart and give you life and love you've only dreamed of. Yes darling forsaking and breaking are part of your life don't resent this do not become angry because it costs to follow Me all the way. Do not say I am unmerciful for it is My love that I give you opportunity to give of yourself to Me, that I might reward you in Heaven. I am far wiser than you, do not look at My way with a doubtful mind but believe and act and you will see the fulfillment of My promise to be absolutely everything to you. I love you and I understand your confusion and fears. Give it all to Me and do not worry for others that they will stumble and fall at these things. Trust Me and stop trying to understand everything at once only give Me your faith and obedience I will do the rest and I will answer your prayers to be Mine alone. I will answer in the way that is best. I love you even if you're doubting and fearing come now and lay down the idea that I am unjust in My ways. Give Me your faith first then I will help you understand fully

. . But you say the grind of daily life sometimes becomes unbearable and then forsaking everything on top it makes life seem so horrible to say the least. Yes it's great when I am in the Word and with You but then life and the day go on and I feel like crying because everything is so hard to bear.

That's where your weapons of praise and rising above come in. That is where My ability to save and comfort and fulfill comes in. But you must humble yourself and forsake your misery and you must truly desire to rise above and forsake the things of earth. Little by little beloved do not look at it like you're trying to attain something in the flesh. Just every day when you feel like crumbling under the weight of the monotony of the daily routine just look up to Me and praise Me let Me comfort you and show you I can be enough and you don't need tons of variety and excitement to be happy. In fact those things won't make you happy if you don't have Me. And if it's not My will for you to have those things but you go looking for them I cannot allow you to find happiness in them. You are of Heaven and I will not allow you to happy with the things of earth. So the key is in looking to Me and letting Me lift you above the grind of the mill. Discover Me in a whole new way let Me fill every empty and sad part of your life. Stop hiding those dark little empty corners from Me they only make you sad and dissatisfied with life here. Come into My arms and I promise to show you that you don't have to be miserable when your life grinds on in the mill of the sameness. You've seen some of My wonderful joy enter your life through forsaking. Yes it's still painful and a drag sometimes but really it's very good and necessary for you to experience these things. I will come in more and more as you let go. I love you (end of personal prophecy)

'I have been thinking for a long time that I don't like the person I have become because of the difficult circumstances I'm in. It makes me be someone I'm not, someone I don't want to be like; not a nice person at all. If I was under different circumstances... I'd be a much nicer person..... '

115. THE CORE OF THE THING IS YOU! Quit blaming it on everybody else & on the doctrine & on the Family & on this one or that one or your bedmate or your husband or wife or child or whatever it is!

116. THAT'S THE DEVIL'S OWN TACTIC TO ALWAYS TRY TO BLAME YOU & YOUR PROBLEM ON EVERYBODY ELSE! "Why me, Lord? I didn't do it, they did it to me! It wasn't my fault; it's his fault, her fault! They're the ones to blame! They're the ones that made me feel like this!" I've been that way with Maria sometimes, isn't that sad? "It's your fault, you made me unhappy!"

125. I WANT TO TELL YOU RIGHT NOW, THERE IS NO SUCH THING AS GOOD SELF AT ALL! THERE IS ONLY BAD SELF!

Your self is only bad, it cannot be good, not any part of it!—Not half of you good & half bad. There's no good thing in you!

Even the Apostle Paul said that: "No good thing dwelleth in me!" (Rom.7:18) The true victory is not yourself, but His Self, Him Self, so that "it is not I that live, but Christ that liveth in me!" (Gal.2:20)— The theological doctrine of habitation, cohabiting with the Lord. God tosses out the bad self & He also tosses out the good self, because it's bad too, it's even worse!—It's self-righteous, hypocritical, holier-than-thou & critical! We've had a few people around like that too & that's been their problem, they're critical of others, they're holier than other people, they're better; they don't make that kind of mistake. They think they're good.

126. NO SELF IS GOOD! NONE OF YOU ARE GOOD! "There is none righteous, no, not one! All have sinned & come short of the glory of God!" (Rom.3:10, 23) You're no better than me & I'm no better than you!

There's nobody any better than us except Jesus!

He's the only One Who can be good, & without Him you're nothing!

—You're empty, zero, nothing, absolutely nothing!

You can't be good without Jesus, so why keep trying?

Why keep trying to be good?

You can't be good, you can't be righteous, you can't get the victory, you can't overcome it!

Don't try to chase out the darkness, let the Light in!

Let Jesus in & He'll take care of the whole problem!

Get your mind off of your God-damned self, & even your good self, &

Your Old Self is Rearing its Ugly Head Again..... April 02, 2020

(Dad :) You just have to fight on sweetheart, I know it's tough but let me tell you it can get a lot tougher, and if it does what are you gonna do then? Throw in the towel? Quit? Leave it all behind? I want to ask you what would you be leaving all behind? Well for one you'd be leaving all that you've struggled so hard for all your life, you'd be forsaking your crown and destiny and your position here in heaven as one of David's mighty fighters of the end, and let me tell you honey, it's a very high position indeed. You might think that being one of David's lovers and the Kings brides is just a figure of speech, well it's not and one day you will see and the whole world will see and all your friends and family will see, in fact some of them already see. Your parents are here and they now know the truth and now know what choices you've had to make and they are in awe. I was told they just sat down and didn't move for hours when watching what you laid down for your King and Husband, what sacrifices you made during your life and right up to now the present. I know what you are thinking right now, you're thinking; I'm not about to let all that go, that's not the problem here, the problem is this hell of a husband I have to live with, that's the problem, he's like this and he's like that, well that might be so but that's the problem right there, you're not looking at the right thing are you, you're eyes have drifted off center and your old self is rearing its ugly head again. Yep honey, self, it's that old man that keeps wanting to go back, not you, not your spirit, your spirit is free, it was set free a long time ago and just wants to move forward and onward and upward to the exciting future. But the old man is saying nope, don't want to go that way, can't go that way, I'm tired, I'm fed up, I want it to be different, wants to throw those chains around your ankles again and drag you back down into the mud and mire.

There's been a lot of change in your little heavenly home and there are more changes coming, situations have changed people have changed and are changing, they are fighting battles just like you are and are just as interested in moving ahead as you are. And believe it or not have to fight the old man just like you have to. And yes sometimes they forget to fight and forget what we are all here for and just want to lay back and relax for a bit, but when reality hits, which it always does, and they take a look at where they are going, they realize that they just can't think that way. No matter how right they feel, how justified they feel, they just can't afford to walk down that path. They just have to close the gate and put up a sign saying DANGER DEAD END in big black letters with bright yellow background so that it stands out real well and can be seen from a distance. So honey, what are you gonna do? What stand are you going to make today, now and from now on. Yes it has to be done every God damned day; yes old general Patton was right, you just have to pick up that Bible, the Word of God and determine in your heart to obey it, do it, act on it and fight on. Just fight on, cut off those chains and fight on. There will always be another hill to scale and the enemy will surely be there entrenched and stubborn and unwilling to move, and your job will be to kick his arse right off that hill and reach the top and then look around you for the next one. I love you and am right beside you every step of the way, just as every good general should be. (End of personal prophecy)
