

For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all. 2Cor.4:17

Lift up your hands you weary souls, our God is not done yet,
Our King will come with the morning light bringing joy to the darkest of night
Carry on, all you Pilgrims, don't lose heart for the journey is long
At the end of your wanderings, lift your hands and bless the Lord
Carry on all you Pilgrims don't lose heart His strength will still come
At the end of your wanderings you'll see the grace that He giveth and giveth and giveth again.

I know that at times your life is rough and basically every day you're being buffeted on every side and you feel like you can't take it anymore. But know that in your darkest hour, in the times when you can't place one foot before the other, I am there, and I'm carrying you through. I have you in My arms now; I'm holding you and helping you. (Fight for Life, Part 3 [#3392])

Satan's Plot to Try to Bring Us to a Stop!

(Dad speaking:) As you know, the Devil is fighting hard right now in every way. The Devil's trying hard to hinder our people and slow them down, or even bring them to a deadlock. He knows he can't have them--they're saved--but he's slipping them a Mickey (an alcoholic beverage that is secretly altered to stupefy, render unconscious, or otherwise incapacitate the person who drinks it). He's trying to get in with compromise, carnal mindedness, and the ways of the world.

It's very subtle for those who are in the forest. It creeps up on them and they don't even realize it's happening. There's nothing wrong with enjoying life in itself, but which life do you want to enjoy--the life of Christ and all His joy and love and ecstasies, or the life of the world with all its confusion, woes, and pain? All that glitters is not gold! (PFTCOD2)

If you are not loving God then you are loving something else...and whatever it is that you love better than God is your idol! (Spurgeon)

(Dad speaking:) It's time to wake up to who you are and what you are and what God is going to do with you--right now, today! Because it's happening, it's here, and this is it! This is marchin' time! You've been hearing this all your life, but now you must open your eyes. Don't fall for the Enemy's tricks when he tries to push your nose down to the ground, or so close to the forest that you can't see the trees. Don't let it happen to you, because the future is here and the future is now.

And now, Beloved, this is the day to make the stand! And if you choose to stand with the Lord and with me--well then, it's time to act like it! For God's sake, and for my sake, if you are with me, then act like it, because I need fighters!

(PFTCOD2)

9th February, 2023 (Prophecy)(Jesus:) Some through the fire, some through the flood, some through deep waters, but all through My great love. I love you more than you know. I'm caring for you in a very special way. It's hard to see right now in the flesh, but I am. The answers are there in My word, if you're willing to search them out. I will fight for you, so come unto Me. I will help you, so fall upon Me. I will give you strength so lean upon Me. You walk through the fires of earth, but only for a season. You have been given truth, therefore you have the ability to see all that I am doing. Please don't forsake it for the tempting lies of your enemy. He does not watch for your soul, he is not the creator of all things, he is not who you can run to. He is the father of lies and a murderer; he hates who you are and what you stand for. He hates Me and all My creation, and he'll use whatever means to destroy you and what I am doing through you. Believe Me now and hold on. Keep climbing the mountains I place before you. I do reward all those who remain faithful. Fear not, only believe. Put your hands into Mine and learn of Me. I am the way the truth and the life. In Me you will find what you're looking for. I am with you always, even unto the end of the world, I love you, I'm caring for you, I am seeing you through. Don't doubt My love for you. Don't look at things through the glasses of doubt and discontentment that the enemy is giving you. I am indeed your good Shepherd. I am leading you down the road to greener pastures, I am leading you homeward. Yes, the road is getting hard now. I know it's hard to adjust. I know there's less to eat and it's a fight to survive, but My love, I am here. We're headed in the right direction if you'll continue to follow Me. That means letting go. Let it all go and come follow Me. That's the price, but the reward is great. You're called, and chosen, will you remain faithful? I'm counting on you to keep lifting up the banner. I know you're too weak to do it, but I in you am not. You're there on Earth for a reason, and through you I can work. I want to be able to use you. I've given you a lot through the Word; you have much potential, but will you yield? Will you give Me your all? Will you let go of the sands of temporary time, the crowns that fade away, and pick up your cross daily? Your parents did it, will you also? No one said it was easy, but it is worth it. Even the tiniest fraction invested in Heavenly treasure is worth it, because it lasts forever. I've given you the ability to invest big. Will you take up My offer? You'll only benefit. For he who saves his life will lose it, but whoever will lose his life for My sake, the same shall save it. Only one life twill soon be past, only what's done for Christ will last. I have the joy you seek, so come to Me. I love you.... (End of prophecy)

He will try to get you to question Me and My love, and get you to doubt My Word and My promises. The antidote to that is to cling even tighter to Me and to My Word and promises, which is the opposite of what the Devil wants. My Word brings peace and is a balm to your troubled spirit, so cling to it, embrace it, envelop yourself in it, and let that spirit of faith and trust overflow on you. (PFTCOD2)

(Prophecy) The tests and temptations are part of the climb. I am teaching your spirits to be in command. If your flesh were to have its way you would be in the world following the ways of the world, just like the billions of others who have allowed the lusts of the flesh, and the pride of life to dictate their lives. If I were to place this great power into the hands of material man, can you imagine what he would do with it? No, My brides it cannot be that way, it has to be done My way and in My time. If you reach the level of greater miracles it will be because you have followed My way and not the way of the flesh and selfishness. If you succumb then the flesh has won and I will not be able to use you as much as I promised I would. Will you see attainment in this life; it depends on you. You say you have given all, but the tests continue to come and the battles and trials seem to be getting stronger. If you feel this, if you feel overwhelmed, then come deeper into My spirit. Heaven is waiting for you to push the door open and come in. Use the Keys more, that is what they are for; to make a way of escape that you may be able to bear it. If you have turned around, and like the rest of the world, are looking for escape in the things of the world then you will not find them. You've been told this umpteen dozen times; the flesh is a mirror, an image a mirage. You spend all your time getting there and find only sand, the water that you thought was there has moved further away. You have to fight the lie, you have to tell the devil and yourself that you want what Jesus is offering. The way through the door begins with picking up the keys, only the keys can unlock the door that you seek. Believe Me, the miracles will happen just when you need them to, just when it is My will. So don't put the miracles before My will in your life. Don't put the loaves and fishes before My Word. I have brought you aside to this lonely desert place for a reason. The devil is telling you that it will be forever and you will never leave, that you will die in this wilderness. He is lying, he is sore afraid of you passing through this wilderness having learned what you came into the wilderness to learn. If you want the spirit then fight for it, keep on walking through each battle and trial using the sword that I have put in your hands. All the weapons to make it through this part of the wilderness are at your disposal, use them and in time you will pass through to victory. And victory isn't necessarily what the flesh wants but what I want for you. Only I know what you will need for the next battle. I will give you respite after each battle, but be assured there will be another one after the short period of rest. Your flesh may be telling you that you are weak, that you are not able to fight this battle let alone another and yet another, but again, it is a lie. With Me all things are possible. I walk with you, I've never left your side and I will not leave your side, even if you turn from the way and head back the way you came, I will be with you, but having forsaken your plough, I will be with you in a different capacity. March 06, 2022—Using the Blue Key more

(Excerpt of Prophecy) All of David's children are entering the last years of this earth's dominance by man. Momentous changes are coming and this is the last call to those who are ready to give their all. Many will not heed the call and so scripture will be fulfilled; many are called but few are chosen. Our Husband is looking for desire of heart in those that will be chosen to move forward into the great tribulation. (End of prophecy)

Elisha's Journey - How far do you want to go?

Look at the testing of Elisha. At each step of the journey Elijah was saying 'stay here, don't go any further' and he was testing Elisha to see if Elisha would stay with him and how much Elisha wanted to follow him and to be with him. And Elisha passed the test saying (in so many words!) 'Look, there's no way, no way at all I am leaving you. I am staying with you and I don't want to be anywhere else.'

John 12:23-26 'Jesus said 'The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. I tell you the truth, unless a kernel of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains only a single seed. But if it dies, it produces many seeds. The man who loves his life will lose it, while the man who hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me; and where I am, my servant also will be . My Father will honour the one who serves me.'

Notice that Jesus, while thinking of the cross, said that 'where I am, my servant will be also.' This eternal principle of the wheat falling to the ground and dying was not just for Jesus! No, Jesus clearly said that to be His servant would mean that the same principle applied. Elisha knew this, and when the call of God came his way, he readily let go of his own life, his own hopes and dreams, and followed the call of God to wherever that would lead him! What a fantastic attitude and a great picture for our lives.

Heb 12:2 Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before him endured the cross

(Bride:)None of these things move me, for here I stand, on the rock higher than all other. Here I stand, for I have found in Him all things. In Him have I found my joy, my peace, my love, in Him is my everything. Oh, what heights! Oh, what joy! Oh my love you have ravished my heart. Teach me thy way oh Lord, and renew in me a right heart. Make my feet to run after thee and my heart to rest in thee. Oh that I had wings, wings as a dove, then would I fly to my Maker, then would my soul have rest..... Teach me to fly sweet Jesus... (James)

While I care for your needs and your earthly forms as My dearest loves, your spirit is of greater importance to Me. Soon your earthen frames will pass away, as will all the things of this Earth. So take care to lift your eyes above the natural--even if that means looking above the trying circumstances and conditions surrounding you or your loved ones. Rest your eyes on Me, for only in looking to Me will you find the grace and the faith needed to rise above. As you look up, you'll find that your perspective will change, because you will be stepping back from the trees and seeing the forest. What is truly important will come into focus, and that which is temporal will fade. This is when you will have the ability and the fortitude to lead others. This is when you will have the kind of faith and trust that, though you or even your loved ones are called to walk through the valley of the shadow of death, you will fear no evil, because I will be with you. Your faith will be grounded firmly in Me, the Light and Love of your life. Remember that you don't need to understand all My ways or even the manner in which I choose to work in people's lives in order to have faith. All that's necessary for faith to flourish in your heart--even in the most trying and heart-wrenching situations--is placing your trust in My great love for the individual, knowing that I am always working toward a greater purpose. January 10, 2021—Staying focused

(Prophecy) "I am illuminus and I work in the area of your mind. That is where my enemy Pan lurks; he loves the dark unyielded parts of your mind, those areas that are not fully yielded to our Lord. In the shadowy places of your mind, he directs your thoughts away from the Word and onto the things of this world. Pan loves to confuse, to muddy, muddle and weaken the mind of man. He is the enemy of the Word; the Word brings light and life, so I fight by illuminating the muddy waters his darkness and dark thoughts bring. I work with the FAF; these are fairy angels of intense light, and they bombard Pan and Arakan like bees of light; their buzzing is particularly annoying to these demons. Like bees protecting the honey of God's Word that you are trying to store in the honeycomb of your mind, the FAF are fearsome protectors and will not relent whilst you have the mind to put the Word of God first in your life. The enhancing power of the Blue Key really makes these FA fighters aggressive! They become killer bees to these demons of dark thoughts and dark alleyways and secret rooms of the mind. Call on us when the filthy polluted waters of the river of death begin to flood your mind; we know who is at the sluice-gate upstream! We will go on your behest and destroy that gate and chase these mind destroyers back into the darkness. Use the Keys of light to enhance our fighting ability, for these demons are strong, they are surrounded by Satan's darkness, it is thick and gooey; I fight with light, it is like a light sabre to his cloying blackness. "The key of light is a source of infinite power that can counter the darkness with which the Devil tries to shroud people's hearts and minds. Call on this key to turn on "floodlights" in the hearts of those you love and care for, and it will illuminate the things of the spirit in their life."

Your part is to put on the mind of Christ through deep desire for His Word! His honey Words give light and life to those dark corners and hitherto closed rooms of your mind. Fling the doors open, unlock the window along those corridors and allow us full unhindered entrance and we will sweep clean the cobwebs in those corners and mop up the slime and filth left on the floors and walls by the receding flood waters of Pan and Arakan."

The enemy is trying to mop up the last pockets of resistance there in the physical world, so a lot of pressure and attention is being brought to bear on you all. Those Keys you've been learning to wield are the vital element in keeping the bubble of protection strong around you and your loved ones. As the battle rages all around you the Keys are the wall between those darts and fireballs of Satan delivering a deadly blow. Keep up your blue Key shields beloved, they are your only protection, and whilst the enemy's darts cannot enter, your weapons can fire right through the Key empowered force field and dissipate any defense shields he has. He may have upped the ante but I have also, and some of the weapons and defense mechanisms I've created since he's been locked out of the know, he cannot even begin to copy or comprehend. (End of prophecy)

When we think of Elijah, we think of steely determination, the willingness to defy gods and kings, in scorn of the consequences. . He verbally spars with his opponents—sarcastically mocking their impotent god. He confidently pours water on his own sacrifice, he cries out to the skies, and then, with a bolt of incandescence, the fire falls. The real climax point

The Elijah narrative is certainly about courage, but not in the way that I always assumed. Much of what I admired about Elijah is not actually the point of the story. I aspire to the sort of fearlessness that could respond right back to Ahab that the king, not the prophet, was the "troubler of Israel" (1 Kings 18:17–18). The same sort of sass and swagger seems present when Elijah threatens drought, holding back rain by his word, and when he challenges the prophets of Baal to their contest on Mount Carmel. He doesn't just defeat them; he humiliates them. Though they screamed and cut themselves, trying to get the attention of Baal, "there was no voice. No one answered; no one paid attention" (v. 29).

Elijah needs no such theatrics. He simply calls for fire, and the fire falls. He was vindicated, uncontestably, as the one who bears real prophetic power.

When it comes to bold and unflinching courage, Mount Carmel is not the hinge point of the Elijah story but a prelude to something else. Right after this moment of triumph, Jezebel—the murderous wife of Ahab—vows to see Elijah dead by the next day. The Bible states, "Then he was afraid, and he arose and ran for his life" (19:3). The story only goes downward from there, as Elijah treks out into the wilderness to flee from this threat. The picture of Elijah in the wilderness is almost pathetic. He is afraid. He is weak to the point of collapse. He is lonely and exhausted. He is questioning his own calling and mission. He seems depressed to the point of, at best, whining and, at worst, self-harm. And even when the crisis is resolved, God speaks to him not of his own bright future but of what God will do through others, rendering Elijah seemingly irrelevant. (In the New Testament, Elijah is everywhere, in hints and allusions and images.)

In the wilderness, God was doing for Elijah what Elijah had done on the mountain—removing the Baals, this time from the prophet's own heart.

You've been steadily losing the vision and losing touch with the things of the spirit as you've become more attuned to the things of the flesh.

The time has come to devote yourself fully to the study of My Word, and the work that I have presented you with. The time has come to close the door on any inroads of Satan that are not of Me. (PFTCOD2)

Mystical Bible- The New Good News Blog Straight Is the Gate and Narrow Is the Way

YOU ARE ACCOUNTABLE TO DO THIS

“My dearest loves, you have been through many battles, many tribulations and I say to you “well done” You have fought well and now you stand at the gates. You have entered the wilderness of My Spirit. You have heard My call in the night seasons. When I said to you, “Seek My face,” your heart said to Me, “Your face will I seek,” and for this gift you have given Me, have I carried you into this safe place—not safe in the way that it is free from difficulties and tribulation, but safe because it is in the shadow of My wings. Indeed as you pass into 2023, you will face more challenges and battles, but, My dear children, always know that you are fighting on My side and no matter how dirty the fight gets, you are holding up My banner, and I will come fight for You when it seems the fight is too long. This Christmas is a sober time, but rejoice in your hearts, My sweets, because soon you will be in My everlasting arms, and everything you have passed through will be wiped away.

Keep holding your candles up. Be faithful to the Words and the torch of David, and no matter how dark the darkness, cling, cling, cling. Hold up the light of My words no matter how small your candle seems. Each of you is burning there on Earth, and you are fulfilling what I need you to; you are keeping the light alive. My fire burns in each of your hearts. Don't feel insignificant; you are the light in the world, in this dark age. My little lights, keep burning, even though it costs you. You are keeping the light burning till I come back to claim you. Then, you will never have to walk in this dark place. I have brought you to this secret place and here you will be kept 1260 days, kept for Me. I've kept you for burning in these last days, so keep drinking the fuel of My Word and be faithful to the death even if it feels like the enemy is winning or your light is too small.

Give Me the best you have, and I'll do with you what the world said was impossible. I do the impossible with you, and with you I will prove My Words of all ages to be true.

Matthew 7:14 Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

“You are accountable to do this—to prove it. Who do you have to prove something to? First to yourself, then to Jesus, then to everybody else that says it can't be done. No, it can't be done, but yet it can be done through the power of the keys, by obedience to the Word of God, to the new weapons, and to the Words of David. It can be done. IT HAS TO BE DONE. It has to be proven! We have to live the Words of David. Somebody has to do it. If you don't want to do it, the Lord will have to find someone else, but that just delays the end. He has to set somebody up as an example and say, “Look, I don't need to listen to all you people's excuses anymore—Here's somebody that's done it. I know it's just one person, but he's done it; she's done it. No, she's not some superman; she's not some super Paul, or Peter or super Elijah. No, she's just a teen; he's just a teenager, just like you were.”

But how did he do it?

He obeyed the Word. He fought the enemy at every crossroads, at every signpost—he fought the enemy, and cut that son of a bitch down. That's all; I can't tell you anything more. It's a tough road; it's a difficult road, and it's a thin, narrow path—very thin, very narrow. One step off, pick up that foot and put it back on the path.” (From a 2022 podcast) (End of blog post)

“Living on earth is not about enjoying the things of earth; it's really about learning how you don't need them!”

11th February, 2023 (Quote:) To your human mind My love would seem to be manifested in how much I give you, but in reality My love is manifested in how much I take away from you leaving only Me in their place.

(me:) Jesus, I don't understand this. I don't feel content right now. It feels like you've taken all fun away. Why is it that everything fun is bad. I feel terrible. I can't escape the pull on my heart. I don't even feel like fighting it. I know I'm so much better off than some people, but that doesn't make the forsakings any less harder to bear.
Jesus please help me, I'm sinking, I need you.

(Prophecy)(Jesus:) My grace is sufficient for thee, for in your weakness, My strength is made manifest. Cling to Me, fall upon Me. Learn to make Me your strength. I have allowed this testing in order that I might strengthen your resolve and closeness to Me. For the war is at hand and the battle will continue to increase in intensity till I return. I can no longer hold back the evil, but I can and will keep My children through it. So learn to cling to Me now, for in learning to hold to Me, you will have gained much. For one day this trial will be over and the pain will be past, but the lessons will remain. You will have been strengthened for the bigger battles ahead, and been proven, yet more, that you're My bride. I love you my sweet one. (End of prophecy)

(me:) Jesus, I feel empty inside. I'm bored and dissatisfied with this life. It's not that I don't want to serve You; I just want to have fun sometimes. I want to play a computer game. You know what I want, and I know I'll never get it in this life, so it's torture getting through each day. I don't even know if I'll get it in Heaven. Heaven is too good. But a computer game needs some bad in it in order to make it fun, something to fight, something to strive against. I don't know. But please Jesus, don't make Heaven so lame and holy. I don't want to hurt anyone with evil, but I don't want to live for eternity like a slave that stays away from everything I enjoy. It's so hard living for you, and we're not even witnessing. I feel disillusioned; I don't know what I'm fighting for. I don't love you enough to live solely for You and receive nothing else but only You. I also don't want to get left behind just because I can't let go of my desire to have fun. What I'm really saying is, why does the best way have to suck so much? Why can't it be fun and exciting to live the highest calling? I'm tired Jesus... How much longer is this going to go on? I'm sorry; I'm just so weak and weary. I need you. I'm afraid. I want You but I'm afraid of letting go of my desires, because that might mean just being happy with nothing. I don't know what to do; I'm getting carried away by the current of my desires. Why have You made it so hard Jesus, why do You want us to fail?

(Jesus:) My love, I'm here for you. I understand what you're going through. I know it's tough going right now, but I know you can make it. You've got what it takes because you've got Me. The question is, are you going to call out to Me? Are you going to forsake that which is seen for that which is unseen? Are you going to carry your cross up this last hill, or are you going to go after the deceitfulness of riches? This is your test; this is what you chose to fight. I haven't given you more than you can bear, but it's you who has taken too much upon yourself. (End of prophecy)

The Enemy will try to use it to get to you if you're not on guard--to make you dissatisfied with our frugal and simple lifestyle as you look around at all the goodies of Egypt, or slant your thinking into feeling that you need more of it to be happy.

That's why our folks have got to stay close to the Lord and on His channel, because fellowship with the world is all around.

(Dad speaking:) Our people must arm themselves with the Word and the Spirit! They've got to stay so full of the Word and the Spirit that there won't be much chance to get tripped off.

That's the only way; they've got to stay filled up. The thing is, they have to see the problem first.

Be not ignorant of the Devil's devices! I'm here to tell you, he's trying to pull the wool over some of these guys' eyes! Our folks who are questioning how far they can go need to ask themselves a few questions: How far do you want to go, and for whom? What kind of balance do you want? Are you looking just to do the least you can for the Lord--just to make it by the skin of your teeth, so you can go out and wallow in the muck and the mire of the swine pit the rest of the time?

How far do you want to go, and with whom? That is the question! A lot depends on people's motives. What kind of liberties and freedoms do they want? Do they even know what liberty or freedom is?

Worldliness is to be full of the world and worldly ways. Who in Heaven's name wants that? We are dropped out of the world! For God's sake, who wants to go back to the world? It has nothing to offer but death! As the apostle said, "to be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace." Who wants death?

(Dad speaking:) The only way to be in the world and not of the world is to stay pumped up with the Word--to be inoculated with the Word and the truth. To hear fresh from Heaven on a daily basis, so that you will be able to stand up with conviction and give an answer to every man that asks. The way to be in the world and not of the world is to not go out and play their game along with them. If you want freedom to go out and be just like them, you're going to find out that fifth column in your heart will poison your soul! It's the Devil's own tool when our folks are being tempted with worldly ways and a hankering for the world. (PFTCOD2)

(Jesus:) I want you to be happy, but whether or not you feel happy about something I've told you to do isn't the best indicator of whether or not you're in My will. Knowing My will is something deeper than emotions. It's a firm conviction inside your soul that I have shown you the correct path, and that no matter what it feels like or looks like at first, I will help you and be with you.

Knowing My will is based on faith in your ability to hear from Me, faith in My written Word, and faith in the godly counsel of others. It's primarily based on faith that I have a plan for your life beyond what you could ever plan or foresee for yourself.

You need the faith that our relationship is like that of a father with his children, and that I know things you don't know yet, and have a plan for you that is greater than what you can see. If you have this kind of faith, then you'll be able to seek My will and successfully find it.

The process of finding My will can be difficult at times as you struggle to look past all the earthly ways of making decisions based on reacting to emotions or relying on what is the acceptable thing to do by man's standards. It's a lot easier to base your choices on those earthbound factors; it can be challenging to push them aside in order to find My will.

But if you have faith in My plan for your life, and faith in the knowledge that there is a "God's will" in every situation, then with time and desperation, you will discover My plan. Settling for what feels right emotionally can cause you to make a mistake or miss My will.

Sometimes what I want for you is perfectly in line with what you want for yourself, but not always. You need to know that what I want and know is right and what you want and think is right will not always be aligned. It's nice when it works out like that, but there will always be those challenging times when you feel pulled one way but I'm pointing in another.

You need to be prepared to accept My will even when it seems difficult or illogical. My ways are higher than your ways, and My eyes see a lot farther than yours. Many people have regretted choosing their own paths (when those paths were not in line with My will), but no one who has seen My will come to fruition has ever regretted following Mine.

Some people jump to conclusions and say, "I did it God's way, and I don't like how things turned out." But those people haven't seen the final outcome. I promise you that those who have come to the end of the road and have seen the full story of their life in all its detail never regret choosing My will for them.

I want you to come out of life with as few regrets as possible. You want that too. No one likes living with regret and having to look back and wish they could have done something differently. The solution is to simply be desperate to find My will for your life, and to live your life in alignment with My will to the best of your ability.

I know who you were, I know who you are, and I know who you're going to be. I know what you want now, and I know what you will want in the future. I know everything about you. What I put in front of you as the course I want you to follow is the path that is going to make the most of you and ensure that you live the best life you possibly can. The more you take My advice, the more likely you're going to be happy and look back on your life with joy, not regret.

I am the only solid footing you can find on which to base the decisions of your life.--And you will find that the better you know Me and the more time you spend yielding to My plan for your life, the more often it will happen that when I want something, you will want it too.

My Word says, "Delight thyself also in the Lord, and He shall give thee the desires of thine heart" (Psalm 37:4). If your foremost desire is obeying and serving Me to the best of your ability, I promise that I will see to it that you are happy. However, true happiness is much more than just feelings. True happiness comes from My foreknowledge and fulfillment of your true needs and desires, and those who yield to My wishes for their life experience that to the full.

So if you want to be happy and you want to live the best life possible, remember that as much as you think you want something, or as much as something sounds like a good idea to you, it's always better to base your choices on something more lasting than your whims or impulses.--That something is Me and My loving protection of you and your future.

If you're faced with a choice, ask Me about it. Find out what My Word says, and ask Me personally what I think. If what I want and what you want are the same thing, then you can be happy about that. But if I'm pointing in a direction that isn't your personal preference, that's when it helps to remember that you don't know everything, you can't see the future, and I know best. I also love you very much. So if I am asking you to do something that is difficult, I'm asking it of you for your good, for your long-term happiness. I love you and want you to live the best life possible. It takes faith to choose My way, but it always pays in the end. I won't let you down. (1) (PFTCOD 3 -Target: God's Will #3791:46-60)

Faith, obedience and yieldedness are vital ingredients to creating fertile ground where My promises can blossom and bear fruit. My promises are like seeds that have to be planted, watered, cared for, and tended to in order for them to bear fruit. How are they tended to?--through faith, obedience, and yieldedness.

If you don't cultivate the pathways for My promises to come to fruition through your obedience to My leading, your yieldedness to follow wherever I lead, and your faith to believe and see beyond the present circumstances, then chances are you won't reach the promises I had in store for you, because you didn't follow "the little dog line" that would have led you to them. You want Me to suddenly plant you on the horizon of your dreams where My promises instantly become reality, when, instead, My will is for you to follow the pathway that leads to the goal--My promises to you. (PFTCOD 3- Yield Fully to what I Ask of You! Apples Of Gold, Part 2 #3662:63,64)

What gives you courage, courage to do & obey & act in a brave or courageous way?--Your faith! Faith in the Lord, in His Word.

(Fight Discouragement! [#1376])

Discipleship is discipleship! I require the same of the Family today as I did of the first disciples in the Family.

The Enemy has come in and spread a great lie throughout the Family, and many have bought it and swallowed it. This lie says: "Family members today aren't expected to uphold the same level of dedication and conviction that was expected in years past, because times have changed. The world is different, the battle is different, and we just have to accept that people are going to be weaker, more worldly, tolerate more worldly influences, compromise in certain areas, and even take back some of the System garments that they threw off when they joined the Revolution."

This is the Enemy's lie! It's not true, and believing this lie and allowing it to come into your Home and life will ruin the Family. My spiritual requirements for you as Christians and full-time disciples remain the same. The required level of dedication or conviction has not dropped any down through the ages. It remains the same--a high goal and standard to reach, but one that, when reached, can turn the world around and light the hearts of many, igniting a revolution! Over the years, the Family has been weakened by many who have accepted a little of this System influence, a little of that System temptation. People felt the stronger spiritual attacks, and after fighting for a while, gave up and let the Enemy gain some strongholds in their lives and in the lives of their children. They then figured that with the increased intensity of the battle, they were only expected to win 80% of the fight now, rather than the 100% of victory that they used to hold tenaciously to.

The Enemy has tricked many into believing that now the spiritual playing field is no longer level, therefore they can't be expected to keep up with everything, and they quit trying and quit expecting to maintain on all fronts. But this is not true. Even though the spiritual ante has been upped, and the Enemy has pulled out his big guns, and the fight is definitely hotter, harder, and more vicious, your weapons have been upgraded also. You have at your disposal all the power that you need to fight against the Enemy and combat his attacks. (Full Time Discipleship Book 2, Compilation #3 of TCOD)

7th February, 2023 (Prophecy) And so it is with you My beautiful beloveds of Mine. I need to see how determined you will be for Me, whether you will press forward and cling to Me despite...despite seeming defeat and pointlessness. Even the darkness is not dark to you but light! I am here...and even though sometimes it doesn't seem so, still you hold to Me and figure where shall you go --"Thou whom thy soul loveth!"?

(Jesus:) You're here because you love Me, because you believe My words, because you know this world is not your home, and because you count the riches in Heaven far greater than anything this world has to offer.

(me:) Jesus, what do you want me to do today? I keep falling down into the dumps and I know that if I don't fight I probably won't make it. I have questions...

(Jesus:) Thank Me, praise Me, lift your heart up to Me in prayer, seek Me and ask of Me the things that are on your mind and heart. Questions are My greatest joy to answer, yet on the other hand, you My love must have the faith and the trust enough to receive the answer. I'm not always going to make everything perfectly clear for your carnal mind to understand, some things you'll just have to take by faith. And as you read and study up on these topics, you'll usually get a very well rounded answer, and even more truth than you got from your personal time with Me. I'll give you a tailor made answer, but don't stop there. The hungry will I not send away still hungry. If you seek you will find. Humble yourself therefore, and allow Me to work in your life. You are in need of patience. Wait upon Me and then I will renew your strength. You getting whatever you want right here and now is usually not good for you, because what the flesh wants is usually corrupt in some way. Your heart is not right with Me. It's seeking temporary satisfaction. You resent the trials of your faith. Your eyes are blinded by self-pity, so you are unable to see the good that I am doing through these times of purifying. Lay aside this weight, and run with patience the race that is set before you. You chose this life for a very special reason. Reasons you may not remember now, but if you can take My word for it, you can trust and know that it's well worth the suffering you're facing now. I'm keeping you My love. I'm keeping you separate from the world and it's filthy ways. I'm making you white till the time of the End. Do you want this? I know your flesh cries out in protest, but what about your spirit? Are you willing to make these sacrifices to have Me? It's a choice you must make every day, each morning when you get up, every second of the day, at every turn, at every test. Believe My promises and be free.(End of prophecy)

To My Mighty Youth Army

(Book 1, Compilation #16 of TCOB pubs on the subject, by theaudiokey.com team - April 2018)

(Jesus:) You, My children of David of the second generation, face a unique struggle. You face a battle that has not been fought by any yet on the face of the Earth. It's a great battle, for you are destined for a unique mission. The Enemy knows this, and so he fights you hard.

Hearing about the spiritual warfare that is waged has become so common that to most of you it's nothing more than a cliché. You fail to realize the great truth behind it. If you were more aware of it and how real and how true it is, you wouldn't let these battles dissuade you.

The Enemy's attacks would be much less powerful against you. But because you choose to see things from the realm of the flesh, from circumstances and outward appearances in the physical realm, the attack is much greater and it influences you and hinders you much more.

If you could only see how much the Enemy hates you, how severely he attacks you, and how terrified he is of you and the future that you have been promised, you would have renewed strength to withstand his attacks. You would have faith to continue hanging on. You would fight back, knowing that his strength is little and that he has but a short time--thus the increased intensity of the battles.

If you could only see through the veil to the other side--into the mysterious spirit world--it would all become clear. You would understand why you suffer such big trials; why sometimes one thing after another goes wrong; why you feel so lonely and your mind undergoes such arduous strain, struggling with the questions of life. You wouldn't mind the struggle half as much, because the purpose would be clear. When you lack purpose, you lack the strength to continue. You might wonder how long the tests will continue, and if you have the strength to make it through these very strenuous battles which seem to just keep coming and coming and coming. You might wonder why I let them continue to come, and why I don't put a stop to them.

As I have said, you of the second generation have a special calling, a unique destiny. You who endure will be blessed to partake in the culmination of all that has gone before you, the final scene of the play, the grand finale, the last leg of the race, the cherry on top, the orgasm, the greatest moments in the history of mankind! You'll be the star players! That, My loves, is your destiny. That's what you were born and created for. That's what you've been prepared for, and continue to be prepared for. And that is a very great honor.

Many prophets and righteous men have desired to see these days, but did not live to see them. Those of you who are blessed to see them--and not only see them but participate, have a leading role, and receive the final honor and great glory of being the final runners in the race--must endure a few tests. This honor is not going to just anyone. It's going to those who hold on. It's going to those who determine to endure. And just when you think you can't endure any more, hang on a little longer. That's the way you'll make it.

I'm sorry it has to be that way, but I think you'll agree that it's only fair. You have the weapons you need to fight. I've been teaching you how to use them. If you haven't learned yet, the classes are still open, but now it's the advanced course, so you'll have to do double-time to catch up. You're equipped. You've been prepared. You have a very great prize--the top prize, the million-dollar jackpot--waiting for you. You might not be able to see it with your eyes, but if you choose to believe, you'll know it's waiting for you.

Now it's up to you to endure the preparation and make it through. If you don't want to, that's up to you, but only those who endure will get to run and win. Once you're actually running and the crowds are cheering, it won't be difficult to push yourself a little harder. It's all, the training and preparation leading up to those days that's difficult--trying to imagine the crowds in the stands, trying to psych yourself up for winning, trying to endure the coaching, trying to muster up the strength to keep running with those weights on.

I've used all kinds of illustrations here. Do you get the point? Your future in the Family will be the most exciting life you could ever live! Of course, you have to believe in the spirit world, and you have to choose to believe My Words in order to grasp the magnitude of that statement. You're not just going to be winning a few souls here and there--although each of those count, and are worth it all--but you're going to be the leaders of My children in the End!

You haven't seen it yet, but you will soon.

Now that you've entered the era of action, the era of greater works, I'm not surprised one bit that the Enemy is fighting you harder than ever, trying to get you to give up. There have been a lot of tests, and there are more to come, so don't hold your breath, thinking the hard part is over. But don't you see? That's what you have to go through in order to be worthy of the very great honor that you're going to receive just for living in these times and playing the part that you will play in the final days of the history of the world! Many, many of My children throughout the ages would have loved to be in your shoes. Of course, you say, knowing what they know, that's easy for them to say. You have to take it by faith; that's part of the test.

I know it's difficult when you look around you and see folks that you think have it much better than you do. Those world-class athletes probably feel the same some Sundays when they're up early training, sweating, aching, and almost everyone else in the world is resting in bed, sleeping, or reading a novel in the sunshine. But if they want to win badly enough, they keep up with it! They see beyond the present difficulty to the goal. That's the price they pay. It's the same for you, except the goal is something you have to take by faith.

I said that the battle you have to fight is one unique to your generation and your calling, and that's true. But My children down throughout history have fought battles that were equally difficult, even those you call great men and women of God. You can be encouraged that, though your battles are severe, your resources are plentiful. You've been given a lot in the way of truth, My Word, the knowledge of where you're at in world history, and exactly what's happening with the race. All they knew was that they needed to run. Most of them had to go it alone, with very little support from others and very little Word in comparison with what you have. You think you have to take it by faith--they really did! You have many in your Family to back you up, the ability to hear clearly from Me, an intimate connection with Me, knowledge and training in how to witness to many cultures, nationalities and people, and a multitude of other benefits.

You think you work in Homes and don't get many results? Think of some of the greatest missionaries and how they labored for years and years without seeing one soul saved! Everyone that I've ever used has had to pass great tests. Yours happen to be particularly intense, because your reward is very great, one of the greatest honors that could ever be won by anyone on Earth--the honor of serving Me in these Last Days when so much will be accomplished so quickly. You have the ability to impact world history like very few people have ever had. You shouldn't be surprised that the personal sacrifice involved is great.

You have entered the era of action. You have to take that by faith right now too, but very soon you'll see the action, and that which was once accepted by faith will be apparent to the sight. Once things really get rolling, you'll no longer have to fight the battles of wondering what you can do to make a difference, or if there's really something worthwhile to give your life to--that will be obvious. But then there will be other battles. Your life will be a battle until you come Here to Heaven. Then you'll see what mattered most in life, and will understand that all your sacrifices for Me were worth it. Then it will all be clear, and you'll feel like kicking yourself for ever wondering. I have told you all I can to prepare you and have given you a lot of encouragement regarding what's to come. You must simply choose to believe it. That's your part of the bargain.

I'm sorry that you struggle with loneliness, feeling unfulfilled, and wondering if you're really doing anything that makes a difference. I'm sorry for the battles, I really am. And as you come to Me, as you read My Words, I'll kiss and soothe and comfort and show you how I see things. I'll remind you of My promises. I'll explain the reasons behind what you're going through at the moment. I have all the answers, and I'm always happy to give them to you.

But the bottom line is, the Enemy is fighting you. He's fighting you hard, and he's fighting dirty. You have a very big battle on your hands, but that's because the victory is going to be so great! It's going to surpass any victory you've won so far. In order to make it through the difficulties, you have to see the reason behind it--and the reason behind what you're going through is that the Enemy is trying to get you to quit.

Every time you feel like quitting, remind yourself that that's just what the Enemy wants you to do. Every time you feel useless, remind yourself that's another of the Enemy's lying vanities, his illusions, trying to convince you that it's reality. You're entering the greatest days this world has ever known. Remind yourself that you're destined to defeat him and go on to win the most outstanding, far-reaching, world-changing victories that have ever been won in history! No wonder he's trying to scare you out of the fight now.

I'm sorry that I can't rescue you from the battles. I'm right beside you, ready to comfort you, to tend your wounds, to instruct you in how to use your weapons better. I'm there to strengthen you and to give you what you need to keep fighting. But continuing to fight is your choice.

Keep your eyes on the goal, My love. Yes, the battle is difficult--it's like no other. But you've got what it takes, if you choose to keep fighting. (End of message from Jesus.) (2)

(Jesus:) Truly the spiritual warfare has intensified and will continue to intensify. Have I not said that in the Last Days the spiritual and the physical worlds will merge more and more, and the manifestations will become more and more obvious? (#3447:199-201).

I do not say this to scare you into submission or obedience, but to spell out very clearly just where we are heading and what the days to come will be like. Those who know the truth, who know the Word, who know My Spirit, will be held accountable, just as everyone in the Family is being held accountable at this time for their knowledge of the Word and their obedience to it.

Have I not said that the days of preparation are over and that now begin the years of war? Will you use the new weapons I have given you? Will you make your stand? Will you make the decisions that will push you on to greater dedication, or those that will leave you to find a lower level of faith?

Can't you see how the Enemy is targeting you young people? Can't you see that he has it in for you and will stop at nothing to wipe you out, whether spiritually or physically? Why does he attack you?--Because he knows that it is up to you to carry on the Revolution. Because he knows that if he can destroy the second generation, the effect the Family will have in the long term will be reduced greatly. He knows that many of your parents are dedicated and will live and die for the cause. He knows this because each one has had to make that decision, even if it means being a martyr, or dying of old age, or passing away because of sickness and disease.

He knows that, for the most part, those of the first generation who have stuck thus far are not quitters.

But many of you of the second generation have yet to make that call, to make that break with the temptations and lusts of the flesh and the call of the sirens of the world. He knows that once you have rallied and held high the banner that has been laid at your feet, it will spell the beginning of his end. For you, the youth of the children of David, are destined to play a major role in exposing his kingdom on Earth, and then riding with Me as conquerors in the Battle of Armageddon that will wipe out him and his forces for 1,000 years! You are conquerors in training, and all you have to do is realize your calling and be willing to fight! He knows that once the children of the children of David gather and commit to this war, there will be no stopping you; thus he tries to pick you off one by one, and discourage you one by one, and attack you spiritually and mentally with everything in his power, so that he might check My moves of the spirit.

It's fighting time! It's time to pull out the weapons and attack! It's time to either get on board or get off, because the stakes will be higher. And the rewards will be higher. You don't win the gold by being second best. You don't reach the prize by relying on others. You must strive with all that is within you and with the power of My Spirit to be the best for Me--for My Kingdom, for My work's sake, for the sake of the lost.

Fight, youth, fight! You will be the ones who will lead the Family into the future. You will be the ones who must make that break with the world and its ways like your parents did and become the do-or-die martyrs of the Endtime that I need you to be.

We're all waiting on you. The next year will determine what the future will hold for you.

Get on board. Let those out in life rafts who would rather not face the coming storm wait and watch while you, the brave pioneers, loose the sails and lift the anchor and put out to sea.

Who wants to give it a try? Who wants to face danger? Who wants to be a part of the greatest finale of any story, movie, or war that has ever been written, played, or watched? Will you rally around each other and attack? Will you, like John Paul Jones, say you haven't even begun to fight yet? Are you willing to leave behind your peers who are less than willing and obedient to follow you into the fray? Will you be willing to fight for the lives and souls of your brethren? The choice is yours. The decision is yours. Start today. Obey. Study My Word and live it! (End of message from Jesus.) (3)

(Jesus:) As a Family you have gone through the days of preparation and the days of strengthening. I've given you new weapons to use to fight the attacks and onslaughts of the Enemy. I've given you insight into the spiritual warfare, both into those helping you and those fighting you. You've been given Letter after Letter and prophecy after prophecy on the new weapons, on the importance of the Word, and on the need and the means to strengthen yourselves spiritually in an effort to prepare you for battle so that you won't be caught unawares. You've got the weaponry and the protection. You've also been given many challenges to find your place of service for Me. You know that I love you no matter where you are and that I have a place of service for you even if you can't give 100%.

Why have I been doing all this?--Because I knew that things would get intense, and that as the days grew darker the Enemy would unleash his power against you with more ferocity. It's all in My Word. This is the Endtime, and the Enemy's forces have been unleashed on the Earth in greater ways, and of course he's going to be fighting you, My brides, more than ever before.

I've held back many of the attacks in the past, but it's prophesied in My Word that in the Last Days even some of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge them, and to make them white. And it's not only to purge those who go through these things, but so that all My elite forces might learn and make their calling and election sure.

It shouldn't surprise you that the Enemy is fighting and that he's hit some of you young people pretty hard. No matter how much you might not want to hear it, you are the hope of the future and the Devil knows it. He's out there like a roaring lion, waiting to devour those that step out of the protective circle of My will. He's not a little pussycat; he's a crazed and ferocious beast that's out to kill! So you'd better watch out if you step out of My protection through disobedience to the Word as well as My personal Word of prophecy to you.

The Enemy knows what a powerful force for good you young people will be, and that's why he's focusing on you in particular. He's really afraid of you, and that's why he's fighting you so much. As he prepares to take over the world completely through the Antichrist, he's trying to neutralize his greatest threat. He's playing for keeps and he's using every dirty trick he's got up his sleeve to get results. He sees the Family restructuring and your forces uniting and getting stronger. He sees many of you young people putting away childish things and dedicating your all for this final assault on his kingdom, so of course he's mad and he'll fight hard.

But remember, greater am I in you than anything the Devil can throw at you. You are victors and mighty women and men for Me. Will you give your all? Will you stay in the constant protective circle of obedience to Me? Will you make your calling and election sure? Will you put away the things that hold you back and jump in fully for Me? (End of message from Jesus.) (4)

(David:) You are it! You are the chosen ones for this millennium, and this is my millennial cry of revolution! It's time to take a stand! It's a time of decision. The revolution continues, and I need you to be a part of it. I need you to choose to break away from the System. I need you to choose revolution above popularity. I need you to choose discipleship over fame and glory. I need you to choose to be despised by the world in order to fulfill your destiny.

The Family's future is at stake, because if you young people don't take up the challenge, don't choose to hold high the torch of revolution, don't allow the shocking truths of the spirit to burn brightly in your hearts, then who will carry on? I need you to be proud of the truths you hold in your hearts. I need you to be proud of your heritage and upbringing. I need you to be proud of being a dropout, an iconoclast, a new-millennium revolutionary.

Just as I called your parents of the first generation to forsake all and drop out many years ago, I'm calling you to do the same now. I can't promise you fame, popularity, riches, honor or glory. But I do promise you challenge, fulfillment, joy, deep happiness, and thrills of the spirit that will be more than enough to sustain you. I can't promise you a comfortable life of pleasure and peace, because the life of a disciple is uncomfortable, difficult, and a spiritual battle. But I can promise that you'll never regret a life lived for Jesus!

I want to tell you young people that it's okay if you don't want to be a disciple. You can still love Jesus, and even if you don't choose to remain in the Family, you'll still get credit for all the years you've given to Him, the souls you've led to Him, and the lives you've helped to touch with His love. You'll still receive rewards in Heaven, because everything you've given to the Lord is remembered and rewarded. But for those who want to fight on, who are willing to brave opposition and remain called out, there are even greater things in store.

I need those who are willing to carry on the Revolution, not just those who are willing to live the life. I need those who are willing to steer the Family in new directions, pioneer new works, and change the course of history. I need you young people who are willing to be pillars in the Family, not just members. I need you young people who are committed to carrying the Revolution for Jesus into the future. I need you who are willing to be despised by the world in order to be recognized and honored by Jesus for all eternity.

I don't care what anyone else is doing or the choices that anyone else has made. I'm talking to you. Life is hard, I know. It's difficult when others leave and you feel like you're fighting the war on your own. The Enemy's fighting, and fighting hard. But are you willing to fight back, even if no one else is willing? Are you dedicated enough to the cause, to the Revolution, that you'll carry on with or without your loved ones, with or without the moral support you used to lean on? Are you so sure of your place in the Family that you're willing to die for it?

Those of you who are still in the Family today, you're heroes! You've held on through battles while others chose different paths. Many of you have sacrificed things that were dear to your hearts in order to be where you are today. It's not easy to have your friends, or those you used to be close to, tell you that you're crazy, that you could be living a better life and making a name for yourself, that you could be so much happier if you choose the path they did. It's not easy to be ridiculed for your beliefs, doctrines, and way of life. So I'm proud of you who are still here, still fighting, still disciples. You have made me proud!

But I have to tell you that the battles aren't going to get any easier; the Enemy will keep fighting viciously through whatever means possible. So you've got to make a decision. You've got to make a commitment. You've got to decide in your heart that you're a revolutionary and you're never going to be a part of this world and its ways--that you want the riches of Heaven, the power of the future, and the anointing and destiny promised you. You've got to decide that you're in the Family with no strings attached, no conditions, and that you will fight to be a disciple with everything within you. I need you! The Revolution needs you! I need those with crazy faith, who don't give a damn what the System or anyone else thinks, as long as they're obeying the Lord. I need those who are proud of the truth, the new weapons, the new revelations, and who aren't afraid to live them. I need you young people who want to be iconoclasts, dropouts, idol-smashers, fifth-dimensioners, loving Jesus brides, key-power wielders, prophets of the End, and those who are going to usher in the Kingdom of God on Earth!

You've got to give your all, everything you possess--your dreams, your hopes, your desires, your secret wants, your lives, your hearts, your all--to Jesus. No matter what anyone around you is doing, no matter who else has forsaken their plow and calling, and no matter what odds you face or what sacrifices are required, you've got to fight on! You are the hope of the future! You're destined for greatness, to be the spiritual leaders and prophets of the End.

But who will choose this life? It's not a glorious life or one that will be honored by the world, but it's a life worth giving your all to.

I know you're tired. I know you're weary of the fight. I know the battles you face. I know how the Enemy fights you. But I'm calling you today to choose the mountain, not the valley; to choose to be revolutionaries, not flatlanders. You, the youth of the Family, need to rally together and hold high the Words of truth. Face Hell, the Devil, and all his demons, as a united wall of fire. You are a mighty force to be reckoned with, and united as one, determined and resolute in your calling, there will be no stopping you!

Many of you have already made the choice and your actions have followed. Others of you have made a choice in your heart, but you have yet to speak loudly of your convictions and decisions and to take action. Yet others of you are still hanging in the balance, not sure if you want to burn your life out on the altar of God's service, not sure if it's really worth it. So my call to you, the hope of the future, is to choose to burn--and burn brightly. So what if you don't have anything to say for your life in worldly terms! God will have a whole lot to say about you in His world that lasts forever!

Burn like a bonfire out of control! And that fire will grow and spread, until it's a raging forest fire that will sweep the nations. Burn with the white-hot fire of the spirit! Burn with the truth! Burn with conviction! Burn with a dedication in your heart that no waters of the world could ever put out! Let your life burn with the fires of revolution, and the world will see the blaze. Don't be ashamed of being called-out, chosen, a revolutionary, a disciple, a bride of Christ, a prophet, a child of God! You are it! You have the spirit, the anointing, the power, and the tools for the job. You've just got to reach the point of no return and decide you'll never turn back.

The future of the Revolution is in your hands. What will you do with it? Will you cherish it, invest in it, love it, and fight for it? Do you think the first generation can carry the Revolution on their own? No, they need you. And it doesn't matter how many or how few of you young people there are. Little is much if God is in it! So don't let the Enemy convince you that there aren't enough of you to make a difference. If you put your will on God's side, if you give your all, holding nothing back, even if you're a Gideon's band, you're more than enough!

Never before has it been of such great importance that you young people raise the banner of revolution high and unite as one and take your stand as dropouts. The Enemy is fighting you hard, so you've got to fight back even harder--with your spiritual weapons, with personal decisions and commitments that the Enemy can't shake, and with determination to give your all and live the truth as never before.

I love you! I commend and honor you for making it this far. You've scaled rough and rugged mountains, swum through raging currents, and made it through many difficulties. What you have accomplished so far is tremendous and worthy of praise--but what will be said of you tomorrow? Will you hold true to your calling? Will you cling to your faith? Will you boldly proclaim the truth? Will you receive with open arms your commission for the future? Will you live, breathe, and speak the Revolution? Will you carry on for me? Your future is in your hands!

These are the days of strengthening your faith, of proclaiming your convictions! It's the year of the resolute and determined, the bold and the brave, the year when those who stand strong on the rock of the Word and truth will be raised above the storms, and those who stand on earthly soil will be washed away. It's not the naturally strong or charismatic who will stand, but those who live the Word, proclaim the truth, and dwell in the Spirit. It's the year when the children of the children of David must take a stand! Will you? (End of message.) (5)

Of course you know that you are not going to get through the next couple of years before Jesus returns, without His power. You know that your strength, money, intelligence and arm will fail you miserably. Just when you need all the power you can garner, it won't be enough.

The Gift of Heavenly Thought Power is the lifesaver, tailor made for the days of tribulation.

The mind of God is powerful, and as you reject the thoughts and reasoning and conclusions of the world and put on My mind, My Heavenly thought power can then be activated within you. When you put on My mind you will have greater focus, greater perception, greater insight, greater wisdom, and true knowledge—for it will be the knowledge of God, not of the world, that controls you. (MB blog post The Gift of Heavenly Thought Power Part 2 FEB 14, 2023)

Faith comes to those that believe in the Word, yet at times it comes slowly.

(Blue Bear speaking)

You were moving mountains before you knew!

“When You Believe” song

Be Farmers in the Spirit!

79. (Jesus speaking through Peter): Oh, My beloved children, how I love it that you come before Me to seek Me, that you may move according to My direction and operate according to My will. You acknowledge that you know nothing and that you are nothing. You are not full of yourselves and your own ideas, but you are willing to listen to Me and Mine. You know that My blessings come from doing My will, and that the way to find My will is to seek Me and to ask Me. This brings Me great pleasure and great joy! It shows Me your love for Me, your faith in Me, and your faith that I will do the things that I have said I will do. It shows Me that you desire to serve Me, to listen to Me, to follow Me, and this pleases Me well.

80. Oh, that all My children would learn to hear from Me in this way, to come to Me in such faith, knowing that I will answer and that I will show, and that which I show will work, and if they will just do what I say, that it will bring forth fruit in its season. But so many are impatient. They wish to rush ahead. They wish to see action now. They do not have faith--faith to trust, faith to follow, faith to know that I will bring forth the victories in My time, in due season.

81. For I am the Farmer God. I slowly till the field, prepare the ground, and plant the seed. I wait patiently as the seed grows. I nurture it, and I stake it, and I weed it, and I dung it. As it grows, I see and know that fruit will come. I know that fruit does not come in the first day, or in the first week, or in the first month, but that it takes time--time for the plant to grow, time for it to receive its nutrients, time for the roots to grow deep, and time before it brings forth the fruit that will benefit others.

82. Before the fruit there is much labor, much tending, much watering and weeding and fighting against the pests. Oh, that My children would understand these things!

83. Having to wait for the fruit is a test--a test of your faith, a test of your patience. As you wait and you see not the fruit, you begin to waver. But I say to you, have patience. Know that the plant must grow fully and completely before the fruit is ripe and ready.

84. So it is with My blessings and with your obedience. As you obey, as you do the things that I say, as you believe My Words, this is as the plant growing. This is the watering and the nurturing. But if you give up and say, "There is no fruit in my obedience, there is no fruit in my yielding, there is no fruit in my doing what the Lord has shown me," and you walk away from the plant and you no longer nurture it and you let the weeds grow and you no longer water it, it weakens and it dies. And the fruit that it may bring forth is not the same fruit--not as healthy, not as full as if you had had faith to nurture it and to let it grow to full maturity.

85. So though you do not immediately see the fruit of your labors, of your obedience, have faith. Have faith that it will come. The farmer has faith, for he knows that if he does those things which he must do--the watering and the nurturing, the fighting off the pests--and if he has patience, the fruit will come and he will be rewarded.

86. You, My children, must be farmers in the Spirit--farmers who move slowly, patiently and faithfully, who know that the fruit comes forth through their patient labors. They can't make it come forth faster. They must do what they must do in obedience, in faithfulness, and then the fruit comes forth.

87. In your patience possess ye your souls. For the trying of your faith worketh patience. But let patience have her perfect work, that you may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

88. Trust Me as the farmers trust Me, that you may receive the full fruit and the full benefit of the harvest after patient and diligent laboring.

(Problems and Solutions! Part 5 [#3073])

The time of sleeping and conformity is over; if you want to continue down that route, then only one thing awaits you--spiritual death. Are you prepared for that? Are you ready to give away your sword, your shield, and your armor, and take a seat in the cesspools of Satan's shit-pits? Are you ready to give it all up? Are you prepared to fail Me and fail God, and fail the saints of all time?

I didn't think so. You're Mine! You're children of David! In you burns that fire that refuses to let you give up. It won't die.

You are My destiny.

You are called to forsake all, and those with the true heart of David will give all to their dying breath to see to it that this world is never the same.

I only have you; I have no others at this time. I'm counting on you!

Your generation has to choose, not because someone else did it first, but because you choose to explode and light up your world.

You're the sparks to light the fuses of many. I'm going to use you to help launch many into the night of the end of this world to fill the sky with the light of My truth. Yours is the first stage in this Endtime display. Play your part well and rejoice for the glorious things to follow. (PFTCOD 1 My Youth Army -Renewal: Mama's Letter to the JETTs and Junior Teens #3493:35-50)

December 14, 2021—Full possession

(Prophecy) Full possession is coming, the secret is to keep asking and desiring it, to slow down in the flesh and use the keys more often. You may think you are using them a lot, and you are but you don't use them all the time. When you are using them absolutely all the time then full possession will be yours. Sometimes you just float along in the flesh enjoying the scenery; that is not full possession; it is cutting the breeze when you should be on duty. There really isn't a time when you shouldn't be working the keys and thinking His thoughts, always keeping your mind in the heavenly realm is where we want to go with this. Full possession is not just going to fall on you, it takes practice and it takes concentration. It takes continually fighting the flesh, keeping it in the cage and not allowing it any say, and certainly not any actions. It is your most deadly enemy really; if it is in subjection to the spirit of possession then the enemy will not find any chinks or cracks in your armor. Using these important keys all the time in every situation will greatly enhance your ability to fight off any and all attacks of the devil. The power of the blue key is immeasurable, use it all the time and it will embed itself in your very being. (End of prophecy)

Clear speaking: The calling I speak of is the calling of Endtime prophets, your Father David spoke of it and the desire to be so has been placed in your heart many years ago. You and those around you are the ones that have held on to this secret. Many tests have you passed through, there are more, but you will not let go, for you have passed the point of no return, the bridges have been burnt and the battle is about to begin. Everyone has a blue angel so everyone is called, yet the conditions are there and they must be fulfilled. As you can see by looking at the recent history of the Children of David, many children failed to fulfill the requirements and in so doing lost the power of the blue angels. It is very sad for us when someone turns from their calling and the light in them fades, very sad indeed.

But let's talk about those that haven't turned aside. As was said earlier; only a novice or a blue angel can receive the call to stand as an Endtime prophet. So anyone who has a blue angel spirit helper is called, if they so wish. But as I said there are stipulations and conditions that must be fulfilled, and so the tests continue. Some tests are easier some are harder, but all tests require you to call on the keys, the keys are for everything and must be used habitually. Don't listen to the devils it can't be done or it's not possible, the keys are there so call on them. Some of your people are lagging behind so I want you to give them this talk, it will help them see how serious all of us are. (End of prophecy)

"Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your heart, all ye that hope in the LORD."—Psalm 31:24.

Do all your measures lie about you, or behind you? If so, the text speaks not to thee; this arrow flies beyond thee. If thou art indeed a child of God, thy hope lieth where, as yet, thine eye does not see, nor thy hand grasp.

God's people are a hoping people, and therefore hoping for the fulfillment of the promises God has made to them.

They hope for good things. We are not led, by hoping in the Lord, to hope even for temporal things beyond a certain limit. We hope not for riches; we hope not for a long continuance here, for we have heard a voice saying unto us, "This is not your rest, for it is polluted." Our hope could not, even if it would, content itself with the things which are seen and temporal; we are hoping for a city whose Builder and Maker is God! We are hoping for joys which eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have they entered into the heart of man. We are hoping for things so good that they can only come from God himself; our hope about them, therefore, is entirely in Him. Are you a man with this good hope? Are you a man with a hope that you would not exchange for ten thousand worlds? (Spurgeon)

You must be prepared and have pure, simple faith in My wisdom--that I know what is best, that I am in full control, and that I know where I am leading. The preparations of your heart are in My hands and under My control. (From Jesus with Love 1:47)

(Dad:) These are important days of preparation in the Family. These are days of a real dividing of the men from the boys--to show who really is determined to go on for the Lord by faith no matter what! These are days of great decisions for the Family.

So don't worry about it! It's in the Lord's hands and it is part of His plan. He's bringing the Family through many testings as stepping stones to the future. They are being trained, although they probably don't see it as training!

The Endtime days ahead are going to hold just what the Lord said they will. His powerful, meaty messages are messages the world needs to hear, and it's going to take messengers who are powerful in the Spirit to deliver them!--Those who know that their only power comes from the Lord, their only strength is in Him and His Word, and that the only way they're going to make it is just by simply hanging on to Him and continuing to have faith.

So there is a sifting here, and a weeding of a little here and a little there. It's an important time of preparation for the battles ahead, and we're going to end up with a strong, fighting army of real warriors--strong soldiers who are willing to do anything for Jesus! We're going to be very proud of them and happy that they hung on--and there's going to be a big reward waiting for each one!

So the messages are coming! The messages are on their way--the Family just has to be willing to be the messengers. Sounds simple enough, but it's going to be a test!
(From Jesus with Love 1:51)

My precious love--do not give up! Do not let go! I love you and I need you! Hold on to Me, for I love you so much! Hold on to Me and to My Words, which give courage and strength and faith and hope and life and power, where there is none. I have so much more yet to give you, to show you, and to use you for. There's so much ahead of you! Don't let go of all that I have in store for you just because you can't yet see it. There is more! This is not the end; it's just a bend in the road. And though I know the way looks very dark and bleak and dreary, around the corner there will be glorious sunlight and much happiness and fulfillment! But I can only take you one step at a time.

I want you to show your love for Me by trusting Me. Put your hand in Mine, like a little child who utterly trusts her loving father and is willing to go into the fierce and raging storm clinging desperately to his hand, even though to her it looks so great and fearful. Even though she is afraid, yet she trusts her father more. As she puts her hand in his and steps into the dark and stormy night, little by little, step by step, her fear is replaced by faith as she sees her father leading her safely through the storm unharmed.

Reach out, My love, and take My hand, and I will not fail you! Not only reach out and take My hand, but throw your arms tightly about Me and cling to Me with all your heart! I will put My arms around you and I will carry you through the storm, close to My bosom, and nothing shall by any means harm you.
(From Jesus with Love 1:15)

In the fear of the Lord is strong confidence, and there shall His children find that place of refuge. This place of refuge is promised to all My children, yet so few venture therein. I say unto you, come aside, My dear one. Come under My wings, into My place of refuge, that you may experience My love and My peace that passes all understanding of your own. When the storms blow about you and you are tossed and buffeted and carried to and fro with the winds of tribulation and adversity and difficulty, then I would say unto you, come into My chambers for a little while, until these calamities be overpast. Come into the warmth of My arms. Rest your head upon My shoulder and see how I will care for you, and how I will stroke your brow and make these mountains of problems melt away entirely.

This is the refuge that I have promised you--the solace in My love, the comfort in My arms, the peace that flows from My heart to yours, that fills you and envelops you and transports your spirit to another realm, a Heavenly realm where you see things with new eyes. You experience new thoughts and new feelings that you never had before, because they are being taught you by Me.

In those quiet moments when we commune together, I can change your perspective. I can give you new ideas and new thoughts. I can plant little seeds in your heart and mind, which over time and with careful watering of My Word shall grow into strong trees that shall bear much fruit to benefit many, that shall be a source of comfort and encouragement, and of restoration unto many. So you can see how many things I can do for you, if you would just step aside into the chamber of My refuge. (From Jesus with Love 1:26)

Come, My dear one, into My arms! For, oh, how greatly I love you and care for you! I long to comfort you and soothe your hurts. I wish to lift you from your depths of despair, to cheer your heart, to give you fresh courage, a renewed vision, an enlightened mind, and a heart with wings, that you might fly into My presence, into My love, into the temple of the ecstasies of My Spirit.

Alone with Me in the intimate chambers you will find the strength needed to continue on in the battle. Only in gazing upon My face and receiving Me through My Words will you find the vigor and stamina you so desperately need. Without My love you are powerless, you are incapable, you are helpless. The job at hand is large, and the task which lies before you is great--overwhelming, in fact! My jobs require My power, My anointing, and My divine inspiration. (From Jesus with Love 1:31)

You ask why--why the battles, why the trials? That's easy. It's a simple answer: I wanted you to understand! I wanted you to be able to feel the infirmities of those that you work with, those that you serve. I wanted you to be able to feel the pain, to be able to be touched by their infirmities so that you could understand!

I have also grown you up. You have grown! You have become a new creature! Many old things have passed away and many things have become new, because you did battle! You battled, and now you're being made strong. You battled, and now you understand. You cried, and you understand what it means to cry, to hurt, to feel lonely, to feel pain. This is why I've brought you through this.

These are the reasons for your trials and for your pain. Now you've got a foundation that's strong, so continue to build on that foundation by feeding on My Spirit and My Word. Let Me break you and make you the person that I've wanted you to be all along. Don't worry or fear. Have faith in My love. Have faith in My breakings. Have faith in the trials. Because when they've done their work, you'll be as fine gold--gold that is pure and gives help, gold that can do great and mighty things! Gold is a special and precious thing. Be thankful for those trials. Be thankful for those hard times, because now you're able to appreciate the joy and the beauty of My salvation, the joy and beauty of My Spirit! Now you're able to appreciate and understand what it means to be happy, the contrast of sadness and joy, of hate and love. Now you understand. This is why, My child, this is why. (From Jesus with Love 1:21)

(Spirit helper:) Things in the world aren't always going to be easy. They aren't going to seem easy. They aren't going to be problem-free, and it's not often going to look like we're winning. But that's what "taking it by faith" is all about. That's what it's all about--just standing on the Word and believing that the Lord is going to do it (ML #3073). (From Jesus with Love 1:34)

I have given My children the key to the door of victory. Only a mustard seed of faith is needed to reach out, to take the key, and to try it--thereby opening the door of My will and blessings in their lives.

I have given unto you the gift of faith, the gift of a believing heart. You must fill up your heart, your soul and your mind with good things--with the instruction, the counsel, the inspiration and the answers from My Word--which will cause the evil seeds of discouragement, fear and despair to wither, vanish, and melt away.

Lift your eyes unto Me! Open the windows of your heart and soul and let My light, love and power flood into your heart and once again renew you. Take hold of My Word with a believing heart, with a willing mind, and receive My Word. Hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown! Cling to My Words, for they are as a strong pillar to which you may hold as the waters and torrents of the deep splash and whirl about you. My Word is as a high rock upon which you may stand firmly, resting sure that the foundation is solid. (From Jesus with Love 1:35)

This is a time of learning to submit your mind and your heart and your spirit into My hand so that you may learn My ways, that you may be strengthened in heart and spirit; that you may be strengthened in the use of My Word and in closeness with Me; that you may draw closer to My bosom and become more strongly connected to Me--to My heart and to My Spirit--so when I open the doors for you, when I release you to serve Me in greater spheres of usefulness and to move forward according to the path of My will, you will be ready and you will be closer to Me and will follow Me whithersoever I lead you. This is My will for you, and I pray for you, that your faith fail not.

I love you, My son. Have courage. Have strength--strength in Me and in My Word. I will lead you and I will help you. I will give you the strength that you need. I will give you the faith. I will provide all your heart's desires if you will desire Me above all else.
(From Jesus with Love 1:44)

Precious in My sight is the death of My saints--the death to self, the death to sin, the death to your own ways. From this death springs forth the beauty of life, the beauty of resurrection, the beauty of My Spirit. For this death to self and the decision to say, "Yes, I will go to the cross; yes, I will go to the flame; yes, I will go through the flood," is what brings forth the beauty of the resurrection and of the life to come. Without this death there can be no resurrection. The laying down of your life, your will and your desires--even though you do not see what is beyond the grave--is the step of faith that brings forth the beautiful resurrection of My Spirit in your life!

For without faith it is impossible to please Me. If you can see the way, or if you know all that is ahead, then the decision is not one of faith, but one of knowledge and one of understanding and one of clarity. But when you see not what is ahead, when you look forth and see only darkness and know not where the light is or when it shall come or from whence it shall come, but you say, "Yes, I will follow anyway, and I will take the step because You have said this is what I must do, this is what You require of me," this is great faith and it does greatly please Me. And because I am well pleased with you, so will I pour forth unto you all that you have asked for. So shall I strengthen you and so shall I lift you up, and so shall I pour forth unto you My Spirit and My love, My compassion and My understanding. So shall I bring you into the rest of My Spirit that you seek (ML #2987)
(From Jesus with Love 1:53)

No matter who you are, where you are, or what you are doing--whether you are a prisoner, a captive of the System, whether you are in a dangerous situation, a war or any other difficult situation, or whether you are in a peaceful situation and experiencing days of Heaven and happiness--you can choose your state of mind.

You have power over your mind. Just as you can choose to say yes or no to Me, you can choose to have a strong, sound mind of faith, or a weakened, handicapped mind that has been dulled and darkened by being on the wrong channel. Anyone can lose their soundness of mind, whether it be temporarily or permanently, for the warfare rages for the minds and hearts of My people. The battle has always been strong within the minds of men. The decisions that are made within the mind are at first unseen by others. They often are unknown and subconscious, but they surface later in an attitude, a thought pattern, an outlook that is not of Me and not of My Spirit.

Those who have been weakened mentally can become strong through the power of My Word and My voice, or they can remain weak through lack of faith and belief.

Those who will be the strongest in spirit and in mind and in faith will be those who let My Word live in them--those who live and breathe and drink My Word! Those who absorb My Word and believe and let My Word become life and strength to them will continue to walk with great strength of mind, spirit, faith and heart. Nothing shall be able to quench the strength of My Word in those who cling to it and keep it always foremost in their minds! (From Jesus with Love 1:63)

(Dad:) The way you stay strong mentally and spiritually is by living in the Lord and drawing on His strength, because we can't do anything without the Lord. We can't even think the right thoughts or depend on our own thoughts, understanding or reasoning. You just have to have the Lord's mind.

Anyone who has spent any time entertaining the Enemy's thoughts and letting him use their mind and their channels will probably come to the realization that there's no end to what the Enemy will do once he gets you on his channel. It's a pretty frightening thing to give your mind over to the Devil and his doubts and lies, because the end of that road is destruction. He's out to destroy, and he'll drive you insane!

So thank the Lord for our dear folks who have seen the light and cried out for help and are on the road to victory and recovery. But it's going to be a fight--probably from now until the day they come Home to Heaven! They're going to have to fight to stay on the right road and close to the Lord, because the Enemy's always going to hope he can get his toehold in there one more time. But that's probably what the Lord wants to use to keep them desperate!

Everyone has something in their life that the Lord uses to keep them desperate and close to Him. We should be thankful for that, because that's where we want to be--desperate and close to Him. Then He can keep using us and keep feeding us His thoughts, giving us His mind and helping us to be a reflection of His thoughts and His mind. (From Jesus with Love 1:74)

There is nothing hid from Me. I know your every thought, your every desire, and every secret prayer. Every time you look up to Me and you cry out to Me, I am near. I hear your prayers and My heart is moved with compassion. I never harden My heart. I never get tired of listening to you. I never turn away. I never sleep. I never have a "Do Not Disturb" sign on the door. I am never distant. I am never too tired or too busy for you. I always hear and answer your prayer--sometimes in the way that you would desire, and sometimes in ways that you know not, or in ways that you cannot yet see. But I do hear and I do answer! (ML #2985) (From Jesus with Love 1:77)

Faith is the key to the life of a Christian, to the life of My missionaries, My children. It is the key to faithfulness and blessing and provision and power and protection and inspiration and receiving every good thing that I wish to bestow upon My precious children whom I love.

Do you believe that I love you? Do you have faith in My love, in My care, in My provision, and in My protection? Do you believe that, as a most loving and caring and doting Husband, I would not leave My wife comfortless, without the utmost care, without her needs met, without guidance and direction, without the solutions to her problems, the grace for every situation?

No, I could not be such a Husband that would neglect the care of a wife so precious to Him! For you are My precious one, My darling bride, My yielded and obedient wife who seeks to do My slightest bidding, who loves Me with all of her heart and who lays down her life and body in service for Me, because of her great love for Me and My children. Would I not care for her as My beloved? Would I not cherish her as the precious treasure she is to Me? Would I not help her and deliver her from every evil thing and provide her every need and surround her with My love? Yes, I will do all of these things, and more!

But the key is faith--faith in My love, faith in My promises, faith to obey in spite of the odds, in spite of overwhelming obstacles and seemingly impossible situations. For this is the proof of My bride's love--her faith in Me, her faith in My Words, and her faith in My power to fulfill them. Her great love for Me is manifest in her faith--the golden key of faith. So guard this precious treasure I have given you, this golden key of faith. It is something that must be kept through constant care and nurturing and feeding from My Words, which are spirit and life. By doing these things, by believing and receiving and imbibing and drinking in and partaking of My Words, you keep the golden key of faith bright and shiny and polished, and you will be well able to use it to open many mighty doors of My blessings for all that you need in every area of your life. For you are My precious bride and loving wife, and I love you (ML #3073). (From Jesus with Love 1:86)

(Dad speaking:)

6. Every single Family member who's still around today, whether you joined back in those early days, or you joined us somewhere along the way, or you even joined us fairly recently--if you're in the Family today, you deserve a medal! I have every right to be the proudest father in the whole world, because you, my children, have stuck it out through thick and thin. You're doing what the System said couldn't be done! You are the living proof that love works, that Jesus works, that the message works.

7. You are the living sample! You're not just preaching a sermon, you're living the sample! You are it! You're proving the message works! Hallelujah! Praise God! God said He wanted to use you, and He is! You're doing it! You've forsaken all to follow Jesus, and follow me, and follow Mama and Peter, and that deserves a medal!

8. In spite of the times when it looked like you might not make it, you kept on going! Even if the only thing you were standing on was blind faith alone, you stayed faithful, loyal and true. Some of you folks might have felt like giving up at one time or another, but you didn't, and that's what makes the difference! You may have experienced times when you felt like you were in a fog that was so thick you couldn't see your hand in front of your face! But you didn't let that stop you. You kept on going by faith. You trusted that the fog would lift and you'd see the sun shine once again, and you have!

9. You kept on fighting! You kept on believing! You didn't give up and wave the white flag of sickening surrender when the Devil was hitting you hard. Instead, you stood up and yelled in his face! You hit him back, you fought and won! You were determined to fight on at any cost, because you knew the Lord expected it of you, and you did it! You're still here to tell about it, and that's what counts!

The Lord has made you a strong tower! You are His mightiest witnesses of the Endtime! I know you can't always see it and you don't always feel like it, but believe me, you are!

11. The very fact that you're still here today speaks loud and clear and is proof of the same. You've survived insurmountable obstacles, and you're still alive and kicking, because God is with you! You've held on, you've obeyed the Lord, and followed Him through thick and thin. You've marched in time and time again where angels have feared to tread. You've been willing to change your methods and tactics at a moment's notice, to make a complete about-face if it was necessary to get the job done. You've obeyed the Lord, even when His instructions seemed crazy or contrary to your own ideas. But you trusted, you kept your faith in Jesus, and you found that His way always works out.

12. You've learned to abase and to abound and to keep praise on your lips! You've obeyed the Lord's call to go into all the world and preach His Words to the lost. You've forsaken all to follow Jesus no matter what the cost. You've stayed dropped out and separated from the world. You've resisted temptation and refused to entangle yourself with the yoke of bondage of the System.

13. You've embraced the new day! You've learned to hone the gifts of the Spirit that He's given you. You're listening to the Lord and letting Him guide you in personal matters, both big and small. You've committed yourselves to live the Law of Love. You've learned how to wield the new weapons and are determined to keep on sharpening the use of your skills, and this is making you stronger yet. You've followed closely where the Lord has led. You've fought on through rain or shine, through thick and thin, through times of peace and times of war, through ups and downs, through times of disappointment as well as times of joy, through the fat times and the lean times.

14. You've launched out into the deep and taken plunge after plunge by faith into new areas where the Lord has led you. Your faith has been tested time and time again, and through it all, you've held on to your courage. You've endured afflictions, and these have brought forth the peaceable fruits of righteousness in your lives. You haven't let go of your faith. You've demonstrated your trust in the face of great opposition and barriers. You've held on. Though at times surrounding circumstances looked impossible, you chose to ignore possible consequences and trust God instead.

15. You've committed yourselves to live for love, and you've refused to believe it can't be done. You've fought a good fight! You've held the Enemy at bay, and you've determined in your hearts to keep on going for Jesus. You've proven your willingness to trust Him in spite of what others may say or do. You've abandoned all to do His will because you know it's the right way, and you know it's the truth.

16. Now that you've come this far, because you've held on, the Lord is about to highly exalt you as He uses you in a mightier way than He has ever done before! Because you've given your all for Jesus, He's going to give His all to you! Because you've entrusted your all to Him, He's going to trust His all to you. Because you've stood the test, because you've not faltered, He's not going to falter in all the promises He's made to you. Because you've held on, because you've committed yourselves and determined in your hearts that you want to follow all the way, the Lord Himself is now going to make His face to shine upon you in brilliance and glory such as the world has never seen before! Hallelujah! Thank You Jesus! It's going to be beautiful, so beautiful--absolutely spectacular!

17. You're standing on the threshold! Do you realize the days you're about to enter? "Sure, Dad," you say. "Of course we know. It's the Last Days, the Endtime. We know that." Yes, you know that, but believe me, you have no idea how magnificent it is, how great it's going to be! Hallelujah! Praise You Jesus! You're the One Who does it all!

18. You have no idea how bright the Lord is going to shine through you! Remember, although the Lord has revealed great truths to you, although He has told you many things about the future, you nonetheless are still looking in part through the dark glass right now. But while you can only see through the glass darkly, I can see more clearly. (New Era of Greater Works!, A [#3267])

The Word, the Word, the Word! It's the weapon that can fight all attacks. The Word takes on many forms. It's comforting and encouraging, helpful and uplifting, and I'm giving it to you. I'm giving you the key to unlock every door, to overcome every obstacle, to leap every hurdle, to rise above every impossibility, to heal every wound that you get, to comfort your heart, to give you courage to carry on. All of this is in My Word, and I want you to never let it go. Never let a day pass without immersing yourself in My Words. (Fight for Life, Part 3 [#3392])

(Bride:) Darling of my life, my most ardent unfailing Husband; the one who watches out for me, always! even though sometimes I say You've forgotten me in my most trying times; in my pain. How silly of me to say such things. You are all around me and in me and do so many wonderful things for me. Your love is never-ending and so sweet and adorable and You have never left me alone. It was me that couldn't see the truth in my darkness. You give me so many precious moments of joy with You when You reveal secrets and when You are finally able to open my heart and I 'see' what You are doing in my life. Those moments are the most wonderful highs in the spirit and mean so much to me. They are highlights and gems of special worth and I hold them dear and soar in the spirit. They bring me back to You. They are just the best Jesus. Thank You so much. They open my eyes to a little glimpse of what it's all about and they keep me going even though the way is long and slow; You fill me with love for You afresh and I want to please You again and love You more and do more for You and be who You want me to be. I love that Jesus. I don't want to miss a thing Jesus. I don't want to miss what you are doing in my life, because if You're doing it then You're doing it because I need it. You are loving Me through these difficult trials and lessons. You are doing it because You love me. You have a plan and purpose for my life and I need this pain to make me who You created me to be. I see that now my Love. Thank You for enduring with me all this time and putting up with my kicking and bucking, my hesitation and resistance. You saw my heart and You knew I didn't want to miss anything You had for me. Help me to not mind the painful parts but embrace all the highlights of Your love showered on me and how You are changing me and making me a better more useful loving vessel for You.

Finish the Race...Hebrews 12:1-3

Since we are surrounded by those who've gone before, let us throw away everything that hinders as we go. Let us throw away all the sin that tangles up our souls and fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith and run with perseverance and finish the race!

Think of Him so you won't lose heart.
