GET THEE UP!

November 14, 2024

And the LORD said unto Joshua, Get thee up; wherefore liest thou thus upon thy face? JOS .7:10

Joshua 7:11 Israel hath sinned, and they have also transgressed my covenant which I commanded them: for they have even taken of the accursed thing, and have also stolen, and dissembled (covered it up; hidden it; been dishonest) also, and they have put it even among their own stuff.

Joshua 7:12 Therefore the children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, because they were accursed: neither will I be with you any more, except ye destroy the accursed from among you.

Joshua 7:13 Up, sanctify the people, and say, Sanctify yourselves against tomorrow: for thus saith the LORD God of Israel, There is an accursed thing in the midst of thee, O Israel: thou canst not stand before thine enemies, until ye take away the accursed thing from among you.

O Israel: thou canst not stand before thine enemies, until ye take away the accursed thing from among you.'

Prophecy) What are you doing down there on your face in the mud, the swamp? I thought you told Me you still want to be a disciple. You know it comes at a cost, so why are you questioning that price? And is it so great a price to pay to yield your will to Mine and to sit still in the place I, Myself have placed you? Do you propose to know the timing or even the way in which I work? And yet you brood! Joshua was lamenting the deaths of many of his men slain at the hand of their enemy. He really had something to be hurting about especially when all those men died not even because of anything they did. But yet I still quite roughly told Joshua to get up and tend to the enemy's inroad and to deal with it harshly! Because, 'You, They had transgressed the covenant that they had made with God and taken some of the spoil which was agreed beforehand to be all for Him. "Ye are bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit which are God's"; "He that forsaketh not all that he hath cannot be My disciple"

And what is the accursed thing you are holding onto? Are you still eyeing 'the haves' and lament yourselves as 'the have not's or have you been feathering your nest with little tasties and trinkets to make yourself feel better and placate that hungering for nicer things? It's because of your image and your rebellion of holding onto your stinking pride, pride that you thought you had covered up and concealed all this time. I told you that it is going to take this cup of humiliation and deprivation, but you push this cup away from Me as I offer it to your lips to succor you. The brew is bitter to the taste and you would rather not, so you scorn Me for prescribing this foul brew. You are so used to prescribing your own remedy, a regime that pampers the flesh and your pride and keeps your integrity, at face value at least, or so you think. Do you forget the words I spoke to you so quickly? You seemed to run well, at first, but when you thought it was enough, you got angry and forgot that you aren't calling the shots and you started struggling again. Actually, you didn't really give it all up and sign a blank sheet of paper…you had conditions. The cup is so bitter, so that I can open your eyes for you to see how chronic your pride is.

"I came to you and said "He that gives not all he has cannot be My disciple, and you refused My ways and hid from Me the goodliest parts of your soul. Because of this, now I come to you bearing something different. I come to you with fire and I come to you with heat and now you must bear this love of Mine and let Me melt you. You wanted love and My heart, but you didn't want humility. You wanted to touch the core of My Spirit, but when I came to you desiring to cleanse you, you went your way. You wanted the Pearl but hated the price...so now I say to you, love humiliation, love deprivation, love bitterness and love these hard things that are of the cup that I have for you. Don't only desire My beauty, but desire these things that purge you and cleanse for Me to even be able to use you as a bride. Let Me expose you and bring you into the light. There be nothing and accept that you do Me no favor by choosing to give Me your whole life. For that is yet your reasonable service. Let Me, choose now what I will do with you and don't struggle anymore. Be nothing before Me and I will receive you. Close your mouth and learn. Don't be so fast to give opinions and say things that aren't true. Don't speak; learn of Me: I am meek and that's what I seek in you above all. A meek bride, not one who thinks she does some good thing by serving the Bridegroom...Be lowly and learn because you don't know how to please Me and you are just a weak thing, but I can get in when you are weak like this, so sit down and be silent and be taught. You don't know where to go from here, so sit there and listen to My instructing."

Prophecy continues) So how is it that you can be content to stay in the in between wishy-washy land of unyielding and pout because you don't like what you gave Me permission to do? Get thee up, My bride, and read words from your very own channel and you will find your answers. Sit there and listen to My instructing and to your Blue angel's loving teaching. They have the key of humility that you so desire. "The keys of humility hang between the breasts of your Blue angel. Call on this key and the path of transparency will open to you!" I and the keys and My word are one, so entwine your little self around us. (End)

"Entwine your fingers with Mine and let Me take you away from this earthly place; this place that doesn't make sense, this place that affects you in such ways that makes you depressed. It's so confusing here …and I don't require you to remain here in such a state. Come under My arm and let Me show you your Home, let Me show you the way past all this stuff that is weighing on your heart. I know you wish you could escape it forever, but it is for a reason and it will teach you, My love, it will.

What will it teach me?

It will teach you to look into My face when the confusion and the feelings come in so strongly. Don't be afraid, simply look up and see the beauteous power that surrounds My throne. Kneel here and place your head in My lap. Gently will I remove your fear, carefully will I undress from you your cares and emotions, and in their place I will give you the power of the Blue and the Gold which is to be fully possessed and to replace your thoughts with My thoughts."

We are the keys that will carry you to the Throne of God, to the source, where revitalization is found, the source of all things created. Why run around on the earth plane looking for happiness and fulfillment, even within the creation of God --let alone the contraptions of man. The flesh is so easily distracted; the mind is wondrously made. The mind of the unborn, and often the newly born, is so easily muddled by the author of confusion and distraction. A little flash of color here, a new invention there, he is continually at work distracting the mind of fleshly man. You must yearn, and with great desire, struggle for evaporation, to be vaporized in order that you once again espouse the River of Life and once again be poured forth and replenish those you were sent to help. It is not you looking for something from them, but you giving of the River of Life to them, a conduit, a channel, a moisture-giving cloud. (From B&G)

27th October, 2024*"There is something so special about this Earth time, something that will only be given once but will go on and on into the annals and archives of eternity! The prize is before you. Hold it fast…"* (A Thousand Years)

Blue angel) Yet, there are many sidetracks that you can take; so many options laid out before you. You have been granted to choose for yourself; to search out your own heart and decide whether you will stick with Him and what His word says or whether you want to go looking around to see what other opinions there are and then make your choice. But that doesn't really sound like you're trusting fully in your Husband. Imagine your earthly husband has asked something of you or instructed you in a certain way and you decide not to heed his voice but rather go off without him on your own independent search because you aren't satisfied with his answer or the way he's explained it to you or what he has asked you to do for him. How do you think that would make your husband feel? I think it would slowly separate you and you wouldn't be very close and maybe he would not even tell you things anymore or share his opinion because you don't listen a lot of the time. Afterall, as he stays the steady pure path fully focused and completely possessed by our one true Husband, only having eyes for Him and only having ears for His voice, then you will eventually not be able to relate to each other because you will be on different pages and your relationship will become cold and formal. His influence is from Him and yours will be from a completely different school! Can two walk together except they be agreed? Why would the lion roar if he hadn't captured anything or why would the young lion not be eating in his den as he cries out? Would Jesus tell you something and not mean it? Is there really any question as to His veracity, Lord forbid! Your love for Him should make you fear to not want to disappoint Him but to always endear His heart to His chaste bride by being adhered to Him and His instructions; by being obedient; by being willing to give up everything for Him.

Jesus wants your pure, unadulterated attentions, not tainted by other 'lovers'! And if His Word has said it and you choose not to obey, then you walk a hesitant path because you can't be sure He will come through for you when you need Him.

You choose the fervency of your love for Him. You choose how far you want to stay the course. You choose the level of dedication, of faithfulness, and closeness; of obedience! He would like for you to have eyes only for Him even when there are others or other ways to choose from around you. Only in this earth life is this choice given you; the realm of believing without seeing Him. And it's not simply believing in Him but so much more than that --going deeper and deeper into His world and coming away and turning your back on the alternatives and choosing for Him to inhabit you and having no room for anything else. Full possession equals perfect love, utter and complete. 'Utter' means more than just words but a gushing forth from the Source, the Fountain of your life that is buried deep within you because you chose for Him to dwell in you. It's a promise; a covenant of love and devotion between you. You are His and He is yours forever. (End of prophecy)

Soldiers are asked to put on a uniform and leave everything behind--things, family, friends, lovers--and go and fight the war!
And so it is with you, My children. I need soldiers out on the battlefield who put on the uniform of My Spirit and forsake all the gadgets of this world. I need those who are willing to set aside the material goods and comforts and even their own desires so that they may fulfill My desires. It's the only way we're going to win this war. (Trash Your Trinkets and Head for the Hills! [#3186])

Jesus, I need Your help, desperately. Please, please help me. I'm always going on the Internet and it's really bad. I don't want to go, I want to fly. Please, please. You said when I ask for help, You'll surely come. Come for me now. This demon Bacchus is on me…I need to love You intimately. I need to hear Your Words straight from Your mouth.

Jesus speaking: This demon isn't something you can get rid of on your own. He fights to hold you in his strong, tough tentacles of addiction. He has a tight grasp on you, and though sometimes I do see you struggling to loosen yourself from his grasp, often times you just slump back and that's when his tentacles slightly tighten even more. This demon not only has a hold on you through the Internet, but also through the things to do with yourself. The mirrors, your looks, your weight, how you think people see you, etc. It's all the fluff and bubble of this world that quickly simmers down into nothing. So you see, you are caring so much for this present world, which by the way, is ending in a very short period, that you've lost track of what you're really here for and your real destiny. Your faith is weakening and Bacchus is sucking your life and strength from you. He sends doubts and because your faith is weak, you believe them. Thus your faith weakens even more. It happens slowly, and though you do notice it sometimes & try to attack it, it just overwhelms you and it's too strong. Thus it's a seemingly endless cycle. You need to reach out to Me, hold desperately onto Me and I will hold desperately onto you. And you must continually come to Me, you must try. Run into My arms when you see Bacchus coming with his temptations. Call on the keys of Intimate Love and just turn your face away from him. Try, My love! Fight! (End)

(Spirit Helper:) He's pulling on you with his slimy tentacles! Rebuke him in the power of the keys. Call him by name and fight back.

(Jesus:) Call My love, you must call out to the keys, and fight in the spirit. This is something you're not practiced in. You go by your feelings too much, or you try to ignore the battle. I don't want you to do either; I want you to make it a habit to call on the keys and do just the opposite of what Satan is trying to get you to do. (And what your feelings tell you to do; it's like getting out of bed very early when it's cold) When Bacchus comes around calling, claim the keys of dedication to Me and get into the Word or praise Me for what I've given you and what I'm trying to teach you. Don't just sit there and try to ignore it. It's not a habit in your life, so most of the time it doesn't even come to you to pick up your weapons, but that can change. You can become a warrior in the spirit if you start now. Ask your spirit helpers to remind you and to speak to you about how you can improve in their use. Don't let time slip by, redeem it, do something useful, get into the Word at every opportunity! Fight back and the devil will flee from you! Believe and hold on! The tests will come, and it's going to be very painful at times, but you can make it through the power of the keys! I love you...

(Jesus:) It used to be that you saw all the devil offers is a lie, and you told yourself that you'd rather live for the truth even if it's harder than living for the lie. But by and by you allowed yourself to be blinded to the lie. You began lying to yourself or turning a blind eye to the sin and thinking it wouldn't hurt. But the truth is that this world and all it has to offer is a lie.

"But Lord," you say, "it's seems impossible to keep going day after day in this desolate place." With man it is impossible, but with God all things are possible. You just haven't endured long enough. It has to be a free-will offering, not something that is taken from you. Remember what I said before My death on the cross? I lay down My life freely. It was not taken from Me. You must give your life as a free-will offering. Count it all joy when you face diverse temptation, knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh a much better fruit. For is not the promise of the Celestial City of more value than the current suffering that you face in this world? It clearly is, but are you seeing it this way? For you must esteem the reproach of Christ greater than the riches in the world.

Question: You know me. You know my heart and all that I think. You see everything that I do; I can't hide anything from you. I'm weak and rebellious. I feel so far from You and lost in sin. I wanted my way, and I really let myself believe that I deserved all that I took for myself, or maybe I just wanted it and so I took what I wanted. I'm sorry, I'm such a mess. I've lost my fear of you and become so familiar, so foolish. You've made it so hard and it hurts so bad. Why Lord, why must it be this way?

(Jesus:) There isn't much that I could say that would satisfy your carnal mind, and in the end you'd just have to trust Me because this is the way things are and like it or not, you're trapped within the flesh on earth. But if you allow Me to take you up into the spirit, and if you will relinquish your pride and stubborn will, your carnal mind and desires, I can show you what it's all for in the spirit. Of course you'll still have to take it by faith. (End) Comment: All men are born weak, just weak little babies carried around in mama's arms, nursing on mama's breasts! No one is born intelligent or strong or fast or a hard worker, or diligent or a spiritual giant full of faith and love for Me. Whether it is a physical path or a spiritual path a person takes, if they want to be good at what they do, they have to fight for it. The only difference between the two paths is that one only lasts a dot in eternity and the other goes on for eternity. It may seem to you that you have to struggle along on the spiritual road, and you do, but even in the physical world, if you want to be a bit better than a factory worker, then you will have to struggle also. As I said to Adam, "Now you have to work for your food through the sweat of your brow." It is a struggle to grow spiritually, but there is one thing you don't see and that is I am helping you all the way. Your carnal mind is telling you that you are doing all the work, but that's simply not true, because growing in love with Me is not a work of the flesh; it is a work of the spirit and there is no way flesh can grow in the spirit. You grow through your obedience to do what I tell you to do; it's that simple. When I see you trying to obey, then I come in and lend you a hand! Of course you don't see My hand, but it's there. I pull you up to the next foothold, but I don't pull you to the top of the mountain, because if I did that, then you would not learn determination and all the other things you learn whilst climbing. Not to mention the fact that you wouldn't appreciate the summit nearly as much if I just did it all for you. The only thing you'd appreciate would be the fact that you didn't have to struggle, but let Me tell you, that appreciation would soon disappear as you turn around and realize there is another mountain range up ahead. Eternity is a long time, and there are many more mountains ahead, so don't be satisfied with going back down; you will only have to face the mountain again sometime in the future! No one --and I mean no one-- is allowed to sit at the bottom of the mountain for eternity…in the end everyone gets really sick of just doing the same old thing. By going back down you are only buying yourself a little time. And speaking of time --well, time is moving on. So if you are sitting in the carnal world, you are going to find out very soon that the carnal world has moved on, and along with all the devil's goodies, it is going to be thrown out. (End of comment)

Question: Why did you give us desires and will if you have to put us through thousands of years of world history just to show us that our will is not the way?

(Jesus:) Because you're not a plant or an animal; you were made in My likeness and you're very special to Me. I know you wouldn't want to be forced to do My will and neither would it be as interesting for you. Of course, I'm not saying the suffering of man has been interesting. I'm talking about living and learning. Eternity is a long time, and you'd want lots to do. If everything was already set up and you had arrived as soon as you were born then you'd get bored real quick, trust Me. (End)

Question: But why then would You create a man just for him to choose wrong and then be destroyed in hell fire? You made him and allowed the wrong choice to be there, yet he has to pay for it! Obviously there will be many that choose that way because you made us imperfect.

(Jesus:) Well My love, I know it seems cruel to you, but it's not quite that black and white. Eternity is a long time and there is much space for repentance and change. Life is a school; therefore, there must be the right answer and the wrong one. If every choice you made was right and man could choose whatever, then life would be in somewhat of a chaotic mess. There are those that have gone the wrong way and those that have chosen the right, both are a lesson. I love each one dearly and I have not created them in vain. I will bring good about through each vessel that I have made. Even if I had to completely break down and remake those that have gone too far astray, would that be so bad? Do not I break you down when I see a mar in your clay and then remake you? I do, and it is for a purpose and in the end it brings forth much fruit if only you will let it.

And My love, there are many things that you won't be able to understand until you get here, and even then, it may take you many more years to understand them, and some you may never understand. But if you will learn here and now and trust Me that I love and care for you and that I do all things well, you'll be able to trust Me for the hard things that you can't understand, knowing that I do all things in love and that it will turn out for good in the end. (End) Comment: Now you've climbed to the top of this summit. Yes, you've complained quite a bit and you've thought it quite unfair what I've asked of you, but you've made it nonetheless. And now I'm asking you to take the next step. Should I take away your majesty of choice and just force you up the next incline? Or should I carry you the rest of the way? The crown for the next part of the journey would not be yours if I did. You already know the answers to most if not all to the questions you've been asking and that is because of the climb you've been on. You are learning as you climb. Now all of a sudden you've decided you don't want to climb, so you are digging in your heels. You just need to put your back into the next part of the climb. Once you do that, you will begin to enjoy it. You've experienced that before where you've actually begun to enjoy the hardship, the tests and trials. I'll tell you what happened this time: you stopped taking in the nutrients I put in your backpack. Instead of the nutrients, you've opted for the devil's junk food, so in time you've grown weaker; until now, you don't even believe you can or want to make it the rest of the way. Empty the duffel bag of all that junk food and get back in shape. (End of comment)

(me :) Very well... I'm not very smart anyway, not even by human standards, so it's only my self-righteousness that questions You and demands an answer. I should be glad You even speak to me, You who made all things, and I, a rebellious sinner. You've already proved Your love in dying for me, so I should trust You more. That's better.

Please help me to trust You and to spend more time talking to You in a believing way so that You can answer my questions before they turn to doubts.

(Jesus:) Yes My love, that I will always try to do. That is why I gave you the weapons, to help you to fight to break through into the spirit when your flesh and feelings are pulling you down into the pit that the enemy has laid for you. You really can't go by how you feel, because most of the time you won't feel like it. It's the enemy that is using your feelings to drive you away from Me, so you need to be more on guard. Don't just sink down into your rut, but rise up and I will be there to help you win the battle, I love you...

(Jesus:) You can't run away from Me. You know where you stand; you know that you're not letting go of everything. Stop running My love, give up your will, give up what you think you want in this life and let Me have full control. You know this world isn't worth it, so why are you holding back? Time is slipping through the hour glass! Don't waste what little time you have left. You don't think you can make it, but I know you can. I know that if you humble yourself to the pain and the breakings and just being willing to endure the hardness to gain the reward, then you will make it through to the other side.

But all this side-stepping and going only half way, compromising and second guessing... Why My love? You know you don't want the world. You're trying to avoid the heat! My heat and the devil's... Don't run from the heat of God. Yes, it hurts, but it's a good pain. It will burn off the dross and make you into the person you know you want to be, the person that you know I want you to be. You'll find the joy you're looking for. I love you...

(Jesus:) Drink My love... Come and drink in the waters of My Words to flush out the world and the darkness that you've let in for so long. Drink, drink, drink, drink! You must drink in and do it. This is the only way to get strong again. And this is what you're not doing enough of. My Word needs to wash over you like a waterfall washing all the dirt and filth of the system off of you. Drink My love, drink deeper and more often.

(Jesus:) I need your heart, My love; I want every corner, every inch, every room. I want My light to flow freely through so that the darkness will have no place. This will only happen if you are yielding to Me each and every day, if you're letting go of the old man and fighting hard to not pick his ways up again. I want you to fling the doors open to My light. Don't hold back thinking that you'll be happier with some parts closed off to Me. I know it's scary and you feel like everything you are, all your comforts and crutches are being ripped away from you, but please don't fear. Trust Me; you know I will catch you each time you loosen your grip and let yourself fall off that branch. Reread over the free-fall prophecy; you'll find some good counsel there. Please My love, take hold of the keys with more determination and fight to stay above the waves that are threatening to sink your boat. I know you can make it because it's not in you; it's all in Me and if you call on My power you will win. I love you...

(Jesus:) Trust the loving hands of the Master Watchmaker, who cares and knows just how and why things must be the way things are. The tapestry of time is woven in such a way that the finished result can be a work of art and not wasted material. Each thread is spun in just the right order so that the rug will not only be beautiful but strong and lasting as well. You are but a thread, as is each man and woman on earth. Each one is important yet the thread cannot know its full purpose until the work is done. I know you're confused and you question and doubt, but if you will turn to Me and leave off these doubts, I will help your heart to find peace. It takes laying down your own righteousness, and ideas, and just being willing to be whatever I want you to be. But how do you trust this way, you ask... Let go! Believe and let go! I will catch you, and you will find rest for your soul. Stay in the Word and fight the enemy when he comes around to lie to you. Know that I am a loving God and I will work everything out for good in the end. (End) Comment: The only reason you are confused is because you are listening to the devil's slop…You've had a lot of training and tons of input and a lot of what we've talked about just now you already know. The devil will always take your side, especially if you are looking at quitting as an option. He will lather that road with self and pity and poor me's, and all of a sudden you're telling yourself you're just dumb and can't learn anything. It is a lie; instead of all that, let's build on what you've already learned. You will be surprised how quickly it will all come back to you by just getting into the Word! (End of comment)

(Quote :) You are distracted by so many thoughts and things, and whenever you try, you just don't get around to actually doing it. I want to speak to you, but even now you are distracted. You have to enter into My chambers. These days you linger at the door and I can barely speak a few words. I want to help you overcome these oppressive battles, so that you can forget these petty things that don't help you. I want you to fall into My eyes and get lost in My love, but you are thinking about this world and things that wouldn't ever satisfy, even if you got everything you wanted. Keep fighting the thoughts and I will help you overcome!

(Jesus:) The earth is dirty. The ways of the world don't edify the spirit. So when you climb into his pool, you're going to get dirty; you're going to need cleaning. That's why I told you to come out in spirit all the way. I need you for Me, wholly and pure. I need a heart that is running after Me seeking My voice and love. Of course you fall at times and get dirty just like any child would, but I don't love you any less for these times. If your heart is fixed towards Me in yieldedness, then I see it as if an earthly child were to fall down when learning to walk. Of course the father wouldn't love him any less; it's just a part of learning. But when you turn from Me in rebellion and are not yielding a part of your heart to Me, that's when I must bring out the rod and try to direct you in a more firm way. It hurts Me to see you this way, and it doesn't bring Me pleasure to have to punish you. Yet I know that it will help if you allow the breakings to soften you to My touch. You see, it all depends on your choice. The whole spiritual warfare revolves around man's decisions. That is why your prayers are so powerful, because you have chosen to pour out and call down My power which then releases Me to come into so many different situations. I work off of man's choices. So don't stop climbing, even if you fall. Get back up; get back into the Word even if you don't feel like it. The Word is what will give you the power to make those right choices. The battle belongs to the Lord, but it is within your power to loose My hands. I love you...

(Jesus:) I love you, My dear one. I see what it takes for each of you to be what I'm asking of you. I know it hurts and I feel greatly for you. I haven't forgotten a single sacrifice you've made for Me. Each one is accounted for, each one adds to your heavenly reward. And not only that, but as you give to Me, I give back in ways that you may not yet see. Your spirit grows with each step forward. (End) Comment: Remember, to obey is better than sacrifice and to hearken than the fat of rams. Don't be like Saul and think that you can do it all alone. Obviously you can't; look at the state you got yourself in by trying to do your own thing. Come to Me and let's talk a lot more than we've been talking of late. Fill in those empty hours with My Word. Don't hang around chatting or lying around when you could be lying with Me getting strengthened for the next part of this journey. (End of comment)

Without the Keys to open the way into the wilderness of the spirit there is no way you will be able to accomplish My purpose for you on earth during the days that you are about to enter soon after you leave the City of Light. (Where did David's Gypsies Go? Class transcript)

(Azoria:) It takes a willing heart, to pass over that line of the dimensions. You have to first of all want to partake of the Spirit for it to have a real genuine effect on you. Those who really want it and really desire it above all else can, of course, go deeper--because they want to. So we look into your heart and see if the desire is there first. We probe you to see if there are any obstructions, anything that you're hoping for more than what we want to give you. Remember, Jesus only fills the empty vessels--the ones that want Him and His. But if you are still hankering after the world and its little no-good trinkets, then we can't very well give you anything of the Spirit, because it is not what you want, so it would be a waste.
But, when we see that you are desiring Jesus, when we see that you are not satisfied with the world and the toys and even the spiritual things that you have received so far; then we come!

Then we do enter you and fill you with all the spiritual delights and wonders that your soul so desires. Then we can commune with you deeply and show you higher and more profound things. Then and only then, can we truly fill your wants and needs with good things, because you are receptive and willing and wanting. Love begets love. Love us and we can love you in return. Come to us and we can come into you right back. The spirit is willing--and able--to fill your spirit with the Heavenly things that will properly satisfy and slake your thirst. Seek to fall in love with the Spirit more. The more you crave it, the more it can satisfy you.
But if you shut yourself off and go seeking other routes to happiness, then how can the Spirit help you? You must yield yourself wholly to us, to Jesus, and to His will.

Only then, when you are empty of your own desires, or means of fulfilling those desires, then can we help you.
Prepare yourself for us, for we wish to come into you more.

You mustn't let the Evil one play with your mind. This is the battle, the battle that wages in your mind. He has sent out his great flood of lies into the world and its tempestuous currents still rage all around you. It is not over yet; it has just begun. The end is here, the battle lies before us all—that great and final battle that we all must now face. You must be prepared in your heart and mind. You must come deeper into us, into the doors of prophecy and intimacy with Jesus. You must strengthen yourself. You must put off ALL that weakens you now, all that holds you back from being strong. You must put off your pride and self-desires. The battles are almost upon us… you must come deeper! Come, come! Flee into the strong tower that we have prepared for you. This is the gift of prophecy, the ability to hear the whispers, and you must hone it at every moment. Many are the lies that surround you, and if you are not on guard—diligently rooting out all that distracts and confuses—then you will stumble in yourself and make a wrong turn. Don't listen to these things that do not give you strength. You must throw yourself completely onto us, giving all else away and not picking it up again. This is the only way you can stand in the last hours, by giving up everything and committing yourself wholly to the spirit, to the love of the Bridegroom. Perfect love casts out fear. (A Thousand Years)

Go to My written Word to align your thinking. The world is a swamp. I'm the only good guy, so listen carefully to what I am saying to you. This is where we are at now.

July 28, 2024…The Devil and the Deep Blue Sea
With no-one in between! There are only two realms in these days prior to My return; Mine…which is the deep azure sea that is at times called the "River of Life" and the other is "the swamp."

My warriors of the faith, you must come to grips with the fact that there is no world called "in-between." He that forsakes not this world is not My disciple. They may speak of the light, yet they remain part of the world. They are in the world and of the world. They do not understand the ways of My spirit because they do not live in the spirit of My Word. Just as I have told you that you must live the Words of David in order for them to come to life, just as I have said the Keys must be your thoughts and your very nature in order for you to do the miracles in these last days, so it is with these ones out there in the world. They do not know Me because they do not what I say. They do not keep My commandments; they do not have the guiding light of David. You have a stark reminder of this in your former brethren. Why was there such a sudden dramatic falling away at the time of the "Change Journey"? It was because you were not living My Words; you were not keeping My commandments, therefore you lacked the authority to resist the power of Satan's flood of lies. I could not fully protect you because you were not steeped in My Word. My Words were not your thoughts; My Words did not flow through every fiber of your being. The only way you are going to be able to keep your spiritual self above the swamp is by imbibing, soaking, drinking and swallowing the Words of David. If you think there are Christians out there that are in some sort of in-between world, then Pan's tune has caught your ear. Where in My Word does it ever say there are three atmospheres, hot, cold and lukewarm? Where do you think the lukewarm go when spewed forth? Where are the worldly Christians going? Are they coming out of the world, or are they still very much a part of the world? I gave the Words of David to My children… you! Only the Words of David give a Christian the power to walk in the wilderness.

Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? And in thy name have cast out devils? And in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity. Matthew 7:22-23

Are you listening, My loves? Take the word "knew". I never knew them as I "knew" you. I did not come in unto them as I have come in unto you. There is a great separation, a great spiritual gulf separating them and you.

And what are you praying when you pray for your deluded brethren in the world? Pray that they come out of both divisions; pray that they find the portal of David that leads up and out of the swamp. There is, and ever was only one way. Listen carefully, My warriors, and listen carefully, you blind children that linger in the world, you who speak of My light but know not what you speak of: "Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? And your labor for that which satisfieth not? Hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness. Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David. Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people. Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee because of the LORD thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he hath glorified thee. Seek ye the LORD while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near: let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. For My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways, saith the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater: so shall My word be that goeth forth out of My mouth: it shall not return unto Me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it." (Isaiah 55:2-11)

The Words of David are the leader and commander; the Words that come out of My mouth are those Words that you are given to speak to those who would listen. You may speak to many in one day, but the Words that you speak are only for those that would listen. As for the others, well they are as the swine that trample My Words in the mud. Mind My loves, that they do not turn again and rend you. AUG 5, 2024

All things have been formed with this key embedded into the fibers of their makeup. With man, this Key of Praise is capable of opening even greater doors of the Spirit. The Brides of Christ have been given full clearance to Jesus' entire Kingdom—including the very Power Source itself. You can enter into the highest courts of Heaven; you can open gates leading to the Source, to the very heart of Creation. Jesus wants to give you all things. He wants you to run in Heavenly pastures and drink from high mountain streams. But you trudge through the mud of depression and wade through the swamps of weariness (or addictions or pride of self)? Let not this world drag your free spirit down. Call on the Key of Praise; enter into our courts, into the Blue Chambers, where you will find all the strength you will ever need to continue the fight. You must rise above this world, remember? Keep your mind off of the carnal. Step out onto the waters holding the Keys and see how they will buoy you up and how you can walk across the waters. The Keys are not confined to this world or the carnal mind; they work in the Realm of the supernatural and miraculous.
