

Are you loving Him? Part 2- God's Spirit is at the Heart of it all!

It is the last hour, the world of man is in decay and Jesus is the rising power. We are a special called out cadre of God's Endtime Children, we are the Children of David and this is our time, called out from the world in its midnight hour before the coming of the Holy One. We have been called to herald the incoming King of kings. In a very short time the world will crown its last king, but he will not bring the answers they are seeking, the world has forgotten God and will be taken into perdition by their false savior.

It is time for the last witness, and we, and there are others out there, have been called to deliver the Words of God to this last generation.

Our weapon is prophecy, which Jesus calls New Wine. We are not our own, we belong to Jesus and we love Him intimately, we are His bride. We hold the Keys of the Kingdom in our hands, we are called Key bearers and our Keys have the power to destroy all the works of the wicked one with fire. We commune with angels and departed saints, these ones are our guides from across the spiritual veil, and they direct our thoughts and actions on this side of the veil.

We are candles created to burn out on the altar of sacrifice, we are Nazarene's in this last and final hour and we are calling you to come and join, not us, but the spirit of the living God. We do not follow a church, group or organization, we follow the One who loves us more than His own life, the One who asks us to lay down our lives that others may find Him and His love.

And He has a message for you who hear His call in your heart.

Jesus Speaking: Let Me pollinate your flower, My loves, let Me sow My seeds deep. Your nectar has attracted Me, and I am aroused and ready to sow. Hurry now, we must be quick, for the time of the final harvest is upon us. Don't worry My loves; we are not late. Everything is as scheduled; My timing is perfect, just be ready for My pollen, My golden seeds. It is the last days, and I wish to pour out of My spirit upon all flesh, old and young, master and maiden. Open your petals to My caresses, and let Me enter your secret chamber. I am love and I wish to love the world through you. In its last dying hours, I wish to pour out upon all who will listen. The Bridegroom comes, and I need you to call all who will hearken. To the highways I send you, to the byways I plead, with new wine I send you, calling all who wish to come to My wedding feast. Trim your lamps My dears; fill them with fresh new oil, the oil of our lovemaking. Lift your lamps high, for the darkness has come and those that are lost in the gathering gloom must see your light. Compel them My brides, compel them to come, to be ready, for the Bridegroom cometh quickly. (End of message) (Mystical Bible- About Us)

If we were to ever lose the Spirit of God, we would become has-beens.--As Grandpa said, urns that were created to pour out and minister and slake others' thirst, only to become dry and useless; lamps that were meant to give light, only to be darkened without power; flowers that were meant to give life and beauty, only to fade and die.

As the Lord said in prophecy: "Each is but an urn; each is but a candle; each is but a light; each is but a flower; and each is but a word, which has no usefulness, no ministry, no power, no light, no beauty without Me" (ML #9:11, JunDB2). He said that in 1970, in "The Temple Prophecy," and it's as true today as it ever was.

That's what we are without the Lord--absolutely useless! Nothing! We're nothing without Him and the essence and the totality of His Spirit. This immovable belief is what makes our faith alive, and what sets us apart from mainstream denominations and churches. As long as the Lord is moving and guiding us, we will be spiritually alive, we will be in His will. God's Spirit is at the heart of it all--everything that we do, everything that we are, and everything that we will ever be!

The key is the Spirit--desiring the Spirit, valuing the Spirit, capturing the Spirit, depending on the Spirit, and allowing the Spirit unrestrained access and movement in our Homes and lives.

This is what the Lord means when He says that the Offensive (The Great Tribulation) is a move of His Spirit. (Fuel 012)

The things of the spirit are not easily understood by the carnal mind, and yet they are more real than the things you can see and feel and touch. They are more real than your feelings.

It's really all very simple. The carnal mind fights, absolutely fights, against the Spirit of God. That's what is happening in your minds and why you are facing these questions, dear friends of Mine. The carnal mind just cannot understand the things of the spirit. The things of the spirit don't make sense to the carnal mind. They seem illogical, wrong, off on a tangent, and unreasonable. So if you don't make the leap of faith into the spiritual mind, it is very important to realize that you are choosing the carnal mind to think and view things from, and that there is a world beyond it that is completely different. The spiritual realm is true; it has another dimension to it that you just can't understand in your natural, carnal mind. It's very important for you to realize this truth, otherwise you open yourself up to strong delusion; you start believing something that isn't true in order to justify your choice in your thinking.

It's simply important for you to know that there are worlds beyond your carnal mind that are open to you if you want to grow and take that leap.

It's difficult, I understand. But it's very possible, and if you make that leap you will receive strength of the spirit that will be like meat to your growth, adding muscles for the times you have ahead of you.

If you are quite bound by your carnal mind, then of course it will fight against this. So in a major way how comfortable you become has to do with how much you let go of your carnal way of thinking and yield to My Spirit.

That's the way it always is, isn't it? It's got to be by faith, because the carnal mind fights against the Spirit, so the only way into the Spirit is by the vessel of faith. The carnal mind simply cannot get there, and if you are trying to reason it out in your carnal mind, you will not get there.

There's a gap between the spiritual reality and your carnal mind, and the only entranceway there is by getting into the vessel of faith and making that step or leap of faith, whatever it is to you. It doesn't really matter whether it's a step or a leap, because the vessel of faith can bridge that gap no matter how big it is. The main point is that it takes faith. Your own carnal thoughts and reasoning will never bridge the gap.

You can become comfortable with loving Me intimately if you get used to leaving your carnal mind behind and stripping off your pride and not worrying about what you think or what other people think of you.

That's a big step, because it's not only your mind you're leaving behind in preference for Mine, but it's your pride too.

Can you do that? It'll be a bolster for you if you can, meaning you'll be stronger in the spirit and more capable of tearing down the Enemy's strongholds if you are not held back by your carnal mind and your pride. And that's what I'm doing-creating spirit warriors out of you.

The benefits are that you receive My seeds, which in turn make you stronger spiritually, which in turn help you win spiritual battles much easier. I need spiritual warriors, remember. That's why I'm planting My strong spiritual seeds in you.

The point of verbalizing this spiritual event in a physical way is to bring My Spirit and My spiritual mind into you more and more. The spiritual Endtime war is going to take place on Earth. The spiritual world is merging with the physical, therefore it is of utmost importance that My warriors are filled with My Spirit, that their minds become receptacles of My mind, and that you are filled with and possessed by Me.

If you cannot yield your carnal mind to these inexplicable, non-understandable things of the Spirit, then you are not letting My Spirit have full control. You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your mind, and all your strength. If you are holding back some of your mind because you want to understand before you believe and trust, then you are not giving all your mind over to My control.

It's going to be important for Me to have control if you want to be used to the full, especially in certain battles with the Enemy where My mind can dominate and defeat him but yours can't. In those battles, if I don't have adequate control and possession, he will be able to outsmart you because that's his realm-the carnal mind-and if you haven't gotten over the little hurdles presented by your carnal mind and you haven't gotten used to going deep into My mind, then there are battles that he will be able to win against you and which I therefore cannot use you in. It's as simple as that. I can use you for certain things, but when it comes to the big games I'll have to put you on the bench and call in My first string.-Not first string because they are better than you, but because they have yielded all to Me and are going in with My full capabilities.

One other point that has also been mentioned before: You should remember that when My first disciples heard that they had to eat My body and drink My blood, it didn't make sense to them. They just couldn't figure it out. It wasn't reasonable. And those who were stuck in their carnal mind in the way they thought about it, and couldn't get it in the mind of My Spirit, left and walked no more with Me.

Those who stayed on had to take it by faith, that somehow, because of everything else they knew about Me, this must have some truth in it, although they couldn't perceive it at the moment. They chose to hang on by faith anyway.

I'd like you to believe by faith even if you can't see the reasoning behind it all. But again, that choice is up to you. At some point you'll have to choose either the carnal or the spiritual mind. So choose well, My loves. I need all the warriors I can get, and your rewards will be unfathomable. I love you.

Leaving your carnal mind behind and entering the realm of the spirit is very good, and that is the bottom line. You have to leave behind the way you know things to work or be in the physical, and simply believe that things are the way the Lord says they are—that in spirit, you are His bride, and He loves you and wants to be one with you.

(Spirit helper:)Yes, your faith in the Keys will see you through this ending Earth era and into the New World to come.

Study hard now, and practice using the Keys, putting Them to the test at every turn for any situation, no matter how small. The more you learn how to use the Keys now, the better prepared you'll be for how things will operate in Jesus' Kingdom that's about to take over. He (Jesus) needs people that are in tune, on-the-ball and ready to listen and receive the things He's saying. He needs leaders to help Him run things, and the more trained and professional they are, the better. In other words, the more practiced they are at using the tools He's put in place - like the Keys, the easier it will be, because they will be in sync, in the know. They will have put on the mind of the King and will know what He wants. Therefore, they will be more prosperous and fruitful, a bigger help and better servant for the Millennium. Just think about all these Christians that haven't learned anything. Do you think they are going to be put in charge, or be placed in stations of authority? No, they will have to be, to their humiliation and embarrassment, put into basically the same class as all the other worldlings --A class of "back to the basics". How humiliating it will be for some, especially those who HAVE had this truth and HAVE had this opportunity to get ready, but rejected it, spurned it, and chose a mess of pottage over their massive, in-comprehend-ably vast heritage. (End of Prophecy)

By right of possessing the keys of the Kingdom, you become part of the dynamics of the spirit world.

You possess the power to keep things stirred up and moving in the spirit. Principalities and powers are subject to your command. You hold the power in your hands, and if you fail to activate the keys, then there is lack.

Satan's forces are busy at work. But how they work, how much or how little they are able to accomplish, and how successful or unsuccessful their efforts are hinged on the force and energy you release through the power of the keys. This is the responsibility that rests on your shoulders, My children of David. If you do not wield the keys as I want you to, if you fail to do your part in keeping the power of the keys flowing, you not only forfeit power and give your enemy advantage over you, but you are responsible for slowing down the dynamics of My Spirit.

The fact that you are key bearers makes you responsible. The keys are not ornaments to be admired and set on a pedestal only so they can be appreciated for their beauty, but not have their power activated. The keys are to be kept in use. These are the dynamics of My Spirit: You must not let the keys lie dormant. You must use the keys or you will fall behind. There is no standing still for those who bear the keys of the Kingdom.

You have done well in practicing with your use of the keys. But let this knowledge be an added incentive to step up the pace in your training with the keys. Let these prayer days serve as a platform to join in a concentrated effort to effect change through the spiritual realm, to direct forces, and to reach deep into both realms-physical and spiritual-and make a difference through the power of the keys.

(Prayer primers)

Grandpa said in "The Temple Prophecy": "When you are strong in the Spirit, God will do anything for you! You're one with Him, and when this happens, you can command Him to do anything" (ML #9:5, Vol.1). This oneness with the Lord and His Spirit, this strength of spirit, this connection to the Spirit, is something that we can't ever afford to lose as a Family. The Spirit must be alive, on fire, and fully present in our lives, Homes, and hearts.

(Fuel 012)

The Spirit is really stressing the subject of priorities at the moment. He instructed me to read the Book of Haggai. Right away in chapter 1, The Spirit addresses the people's wrong priorities. They have been spending far too much time and attention and effort building that which benefits themselves. What they should be doing is building His house—the order to do this had already been released by Cyrus 18 years previously and yet they were still saying, "Not yet, the time is not right!" That's what one calls procrastination. They were far too focused on dicking up their own dwellings. Now in the world of types and shadows, a person's house or tent is their body. So basically, God is saying in this day and age, you spend so much time on your appearance, clothes, health, image and you completely neglect the building of a spiritual space where I can come and manifest My presence. To manifest means 'to make visible'. We won't just feel His glory; we will SEE His glory! That's if we reprioritize! So, after pointing out what they are doing wrong He gives them a direct instruction: Hag 1:8 Go up to the hill country and bring lumber and rebuild [My] house, and I will take pleasure in it and I will be glorified, says the Lord They have to leave the plateau of self and ascend to the high places and return with what they need to build the temple of the Lord. Everything they need to build a spiritual space to hold what God wants to pour out is found higher up than the level where they have been functioning up to now. The level they have been living on has been fleshly; self-absorbed and short-sighted and on the first day of the 6th month, God has had enough. He sends Haggai to call them up higher. The sixth month is Elul, which is the last month before Rosh Hashanah and the Fall feasts. Elul is the month of repentance and return; of examining one's ways and making course corrections before a new calendar year clocks over. Twice, God says to them, "Consider your ways!" (Hag 1:5,7) To paraphrase—"Take stock! You can't continue on like you have been. The month of harvest is around the corner and because of your self-centeredness, I have been resisting you every step of the way. Despite all your efforts, you have achieved very little and the expected harvest is not even taking shape. Now, get your act together; come up higher, put in some much-needed effort! Get in sync with Heaven and get your priorities straight and I will bless you." While I was pondering all this, I saw in the Spirit, sluice gates being opened on a vast dam, and a torrent pouring forth. "This is the store of glory held back and appointed for the time of the end," explained the Spirit. But where is He going to pour it if we haven't built a space to hold it? Haggai's impassioned message found fertile soil in the heart of Zerubbabel, the governor of Judah. Remember I spoke in the last message about Judah becoming His sanctuary; the place where He presences Himself. Well, here we have a governor of this very tribe's allotted territory whose heart is tender and instantly responsive to the word of course correction. Both he and the high priest, Joshua, and 'all the remnant of the people' were moved by the Spirit to be obedient. Did you see that? It was the remnant that participated in building a place to house His presence! On the 24th day of Elul they began the preparations for construction of the second temple. That means for the first 3 weeks of the month they were examining their hearts and changing their priorities! The actual construction began exactly 3 months later on 24th Kislev. So what is significant about this date when they gathered together to begin preparing? It connects to another very significant event which began that evening many years before. It was at this moment that God spoke and said, "Let there be light" and created the first evening and morning. Before that, the Spirit had been brooding over the face of the waters because the earth was without form and void and there was reconstruction work to be done—much like the state of affairs in Haggai's time. And now here we are, living stones of God's 3rd temple; the one not built with hands and again the Spirit is saying, "Your priorities are all wrong. There is far too much focus on attending to the building of your own house. Come up higher and get the necessary instruction to build a place for Me to pour out My glory. I have so much I want to pour into you but you are focusing all your attention on things that will pass away. All your effort is channeled into temporal things. Come up higher and work with Heaven to build that which is eternal. Change your focus and I will be able to release the Tabernacles harvest; the corn, wine and oil —BUT this can only be released if you build a spiritual space for Me to tabernacle in your midst." In chapter 2 of Haggai, God makes reference to something that is appointed to occur in the time in which we are living; that time when He shakes everything that can be shaken: Hag 2:5 According to the promise that I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt, so My Spirit stands and abides in the midst of you; fear not. Hag 2:6 For thus says the Lord of hosts: Yet once more, in a little while, I will shake and make tremble the [starry] heavens, the earth, the sea, and the dry land; Hag 2:7 And I will shake all nations and the desire and the precious things of all nations shall come in, and I will fill this house with splendor, says the Lord of hosts. Hag 2:8 The silver is Mine and the gold is Mine, says the Lord of hosts. Hag 2:9 The latter glory of this house shall be greater than the former, says the Lord of hosts; and in this place will I give peace and prosperity, says the Lord of hosts So, here we see that at the same time as the shaking is going on, the glory is being poured out. And where is the receptacle that will hold this glory? It is the spiritual place built by the prayer and worship of the remnant as they come up higher and focus on building that which is eternal. When we come away with Him as Songs 2:14 describes and are positioned in the cleft of the rock, the little foxes that spoil the harvest can be dealt with and all potential fruitfulness can result in a great harvest. He wants to see your face and hear your voice. Let's tear our focus off our own faces and our temporal needs and focus instead on His face. A good friend of mine had a vision a little while back. She saw the remnant in tents on the low slopes of a mountain and they were all sleeping, unaware that their oxygen supplies had almost run out. They urgently needed to awaken and complete their ascent of the mountain. When one is in the foothills, one has very little perspective of the big picture. To see what God is doing, we have to ascend higher; to the place where the eagles gather, the place where the thermals of the Spirit blow freely. Recently, I was driving in the countryside and saw a wind farm, where 9 huge wind turbines stood in the field. Seven of them were turning fast in the wind, but two were not functioning. Even though they stood in the same location and the very same wind passed them by, they were unmoved; disconnected and switched off. Such it will be in these days: There will be a great move of the wind of the Spirit but some will be moved by the Spirit of God and others will be completely untouched and unaware that God is doing anything, even though they stand in the same field. To be switched on and in tune with what Heaven is doing, we have to come up higher and get building that which is eternal. God will pour out His glory in the place and the heart which has been prepared before the time. What are you hungering for, Beloved remnant? Is it the banquet of earth with its fine dining and many dishes to titillate your taste buds? Or do you hunger for more of Him; for a greater touch of His Spirit, to move as Heaven moves? Come up to the hill country and gather timber with me and let's build a place for Him to presence Himself. There is a beautiful translation of the last verse of psalm 23. The KJV says 'and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever', but the Amplified says 'and His presence will be my dwelling place forever.' Us in Him and Him in us, perfect in one. Let's press toward that. (Christine Beadsworth)

A father has caused various dishes to be placed upon the table, some far more delicious than others. One of the children has taken a fancy to the dish that stands nearest to him, though it is far from the best, and requests to be helped from it because of his liking for it. The father perceives that if he were to give him a far better one he would reject it, his mind being set upon that which he sees before him; and so, lest he should remain hungry and discouraged, he reluctantly grants him his request. Thus God granted the prayer of the Israelites for a king; it was not what He would have chosen for them, nor what they needed, but it was what their hearts were set upon having.—(John of the Cross, Ascent of Carmel, Book ii. ch. 21.)

26th October, 2022 Satan has not stopped his wiles since the Garden. He may not be using an apple anymore but his tactic is the same. He implants the very same thoughts to cause you to want to reject the truth, to want to go your own way which you have been deluded into thinking is better; he wants you to believe that I don't have your best interests at heart and that I am withholding something good from you when it is within your reach to take. He then makes you feel resentment, rebellious and hurt that I could be so uncaring and if you don't watch out he will escort you right out of that garden we share, which of course is his intention. Sacrifice is a requirement of a disciple for Me. It is the laying down at the altar of those things that are so dear to you because I asked it of you and you trust Me when I do, knowing the exact opposite, that I have your very best interests at heart! The devil plants the seed of doubt and your flesh can easily run away with those thoughts he implanted. They appeal so very much to your feelings. And they make you question My way for you, the path we chose for your earth mission when we were in the Garden together. It's so hard because it's a test My love. Earth life is not actually meant to be an easy one, if you choose to be a disciple. He that forsaketh not all that he hath cannot be My disciple. Why is it like that? Why can't you have some of your own desires? Because I created you for Myself ! but My desire is that you choose that willingly, because you love Me so much you're prepared to give up what you want to instead please Me. That is the kind of Bride I want. Someone who is lovesick for Me; someone who is totally devoted to denying oneself to care for Me as their Husband; someone who realizes the price I paid for them to have freedom and is so indebted, so in love with that Savior, they would willingly do anything, for their life is not their own. But it's not by force! I want the choice to be yours, to come from your heart. Sadly there are very few who are willing to pay that price. Many take the apple to enjoy the pleasures for a season. It's so much easier, or so they think. But eventually they will learn. They will have to.

There are few who are willing to give up self and its many selfish ways. But you, the Children of David, are not ignorant of this. Dad has taught you this principle called the Law of Love, so we know very well this is what I require of My closest. And even when you know, you still chose the way; this hardest way! It is an awakening, a revelation that you must live above the carnal earth life perspective and keep the Heavenly vision instead. And then it takes a commitment and real dedication to live it. It becomes this crucial battle of the serpent lie "Who hath said?" Darlings, do not fall for his subtle, devious questioning of My Wisdom and ultimate love and care for you. This is his great scam; don't fall for it! Want only for your walk with Me and repel any hankering for any other way. His enticements, that the world has to offer so much more than I can; that it will be more fun and you'll have more freedom is a big lie! Ultimately he will make you his slave and you will have no freedom at all. He will suck you dry and throw you away! His purpose is to destroy. All for a mess of pottage! And this is the essence of his whole plan, to steal My bride! (End of prophecy)

(Prophecy) You see the Keyes are helping you get back the powers that was originally your birth right, Jesus wants to give it back, that is obvious through the price He paid; but He cannot do this whilst man remains in the same state he is in. Death on the cross was only the first step, man accepting that gift of love, out of free will is the second step. The happenings in the Garden of Eden are a perfect example of what I'm explaining here. Once Adam and Eve sinned the power that was sitting right there in the middle of the garden had to be taken away, why, because sin is about self and self is the opposite of love. Only pure unselfish, sacrificial love can be trusted with the tree of knowledge of good and evil and the tree to eternal life, the two god like powers that were going to be given to man at a measured pace, as he learned to love the way God loves His creation. Satan hated that thought, he knew that if he gave the whole apple to the baby it would choke itself and the plan of God would be foiled. You must see the importance of the Children of David hanging on to the faith that has been planted in them. The Words of David are the Words of God which are the nutrients the young saplings need to grow into strong trees. Here it is again in sequence: The Bible, The Words of David, The Words of Maria, and The New Wine which is simply a continuance of feeding the crystal the light of God. It truly is a wonderful plan, but it must be adhered to if the crystal is to continue to grow. There is no other plan; man's plan, the devil's plan, well those plans are simply selfish rebellion to the Master plan. Only the Master plan can work, because the Master's plan is all about bringing love and light into the world and light creates life. The letter Lovelight is a wonderful letter to read on this subject. (End of prophecy) (The Crystal Pyramid with added Prophecies by Stephen)

"But you must hearken unto the Words of David! Let them not fall to the ground, for ye must CHERISH them & hold them within your bosom. Ye must spend time with Me to hear the Words that I would speak unto you. For ye must hear My Voice & ye must hear My Words giving you your directions. Though ye have wisdom & though ye have talents & strength, without ME ye are nothing. If ye would assay to go forth without the power & the strength & the direction & the leading & the Word & the guidance of your father David, & of the Words that I give unto you, & of My Holy Spirit, ye will FALL. But if ye will hearken unto Me & listen to Me & do the things which I command you, & if you will sit in quietness & solitude & wait until I speak unto you, that your bottle shall be full to overflowing, then shall ye be PROSPEROUS, & ye shall go forth & WIN the battle! And I will be proud of you, & I will give you many kisses of David in that day."

"I will give you the keys of the Kingdom, even the key of David, which is all the Words of David that I have given."

NEARLY ALL OF THESE NATURAL THINGS WHICH THE LORD HAS CREATED ARE VISIBLE ILLUSTRATIONS of the unseen spiritual realities of the spirit world to help us to try to understand it and grasp its truth, so we can know God better and love Him more--and also to warn us of the Enemy and his evil devices which try to jam and short-circuit our circuits and even burn out our spiritual and mental and physical mechanisms, so they'll be rendered useless! Which is why He says that we're not to be conformed to this world or wired according to the printed circuits of the Devil's System--after the Enemy's patterns--so that we respond only to the Enemy and his vibrations, so that we are keyed to react only to his impulses to do his damnable works--But we are to be completely transformed--rewired by the renewing of our minds to an entirely new circuit pattern with different responses keyed to different reactions entirely--a completely new mechanism--a new creature in Christ Jesus--old things passed away, all things become new! It only takes one blast of the mighty searing power of the Holy Ghost to completely burn out all the Devil's old circuits in a mighty infilling of God's Spirit--God's great electrical power!

THEN BEGINS THE TRANSFORMING--the creation of totally new circuits--responses--reactions--by the tender loving hands of the Holy Spirit, following the circuit patternry or schematic of His Word--God's blueprint for a totally new kind of machine, completely rewired for His constructive purposes instead of the destructive purposes of the Enemy, then keyed to respond to His particular signal for us--tuned to react to His personal call for us by name, for the special job that He has for each of us to do!

ARE YOU TURNED ON TO HIS POWER, TUNED IN TO HIS FREQUENCY, AND OPERATING ACCORDING TO HIS WILL? You are, if you are keyed to His design, and you'll accomplish the purpose for which He made you!

GOD USED THE KEY OF DAVID TO TURN YOU ON! Thank God David responded to his key! Hallelujah! Thank you, Jesus!

He did it all! We are but His instruments!--His workmanship and the work of His Hands! Praise God! Thank you, Jesus! THESE THINGS SAITH THE AMEN, THE FAITHFUL AND TRUE WITNESS, THE BEGINNING OF THE CREATION OF GOD! Are you ready for Him to turn your Key! Will you respond when He tries to turn you on? (Key of David, The [#0078])

(Natalia in prayer :) We--Natalia, Tola, and Tor--call on the power of the keys of the Kingdom! We thank You, dear Love, our Husband, our Provider, our Miracle Worker, our King, for the awesome firepower that You have put within us. We thank You that this same mighty power that brings destruction to the enemies of God also brings light and life, strength, power, energy and fortitude to Your brides. This same power that conquers all evil also charges Your brides with strength and stamina and all that is needed to do Your will.

We thank You, our mighty Lord, that the keys and the Word are one. We lay our hands upon these, the children of David, Your faithful, Your brides, Your called-out ones in the Time of the End--these whom all the prophets of all ages look to; these who are little and weak, who are nothing in themselves, but who are everything in Your sight; these who are destined to fulfill Your sovereign will of establishing Your Kingdom on Earth! We lay hands upon these to whom You have given the keys of the Kingdom, these who are destined to defy Satan and his dark kingdom, these whom You will empower to defeat evil, these who are Your chosen ones of the Last Days. (According to Your Praise Be It Unto You! [#3432])

We're facing some storms as a Family, but that shouldn't surprise us. The Lord forewarned us from our beginning that as we got closer to the End, things were going to get harder, that we were going to face more of a struggle.

A key to keeping the Lord's perspective on the storms and struggles that we face--and it's crucial to keep the Lord's perspective, as otherwise the difficulties and troubles can be overly wearying--is to remember that we're in a very great spiritual battle. I know we've talked about that so much that it sounds redundant or like a cliché. But that's the reason we're going through the things we are--both as a Family as well as each of us in our personal lives.

That is the big picture: We're in a very intense spiritual battle. We've chosen to invade the Enemy's territory, we're actively witnessing our Savior's love and salvation, as well as exposing the Enemy's plans, and so naturally we're prime targets for the Enemy. He really fights us hard. And he's smart, too. He doesn't choose tactics that are easy for us to resist and not be fazed by. He studies our weaknesses, the things that really mean something to us, and he fights us in those areas. (Keep the Faith! [#3459])

(Jesus speaking:) There is a fearsome battle being fought in the heavenlies! It is a battle royal, for the Enemy knows that his end is nigh. He fights his three greatest spiritual foes--Me, the Word, and the keys of the Kingdom--for we are one and the most powerful force in the world, in the Heavens, in the universe. Satan knows that his end is drawing nigh, and he fights like a madman, savoring his last days in power as king of the netherworld, grasping at any thread of hope that his reign might be prolonged.

He has always fought My Word, but his attacks today are even more vicious and relentless. Never before have the battles in the spiritual and the physical realms been so intense as they are today.

Never has My Word been as powerful as it is today for you, My children. For up until recently, you had only two parts of the puzzle, and now you have all three--Me, My Word and My keys. Me and My Word you have had since the beginning, because these are the basics of your spiritual weaponry. And only recently, as we have entered the Last Days, did I find it necessary to reveal to you the full power of the keys of the Kingdom, this additional portion of My power and your anointing for these Last Days. You must have all three parts, My loves--Me, My Word, and the keys--for we are one.

The Enemy relentlessly fights the importance of My Word, the power of My Word. He uses familiarity, for he knows this is a trick easily accepted by many. You have had the Word all the time you've been in the Family, an abundance of it, so he makes you wonder, "Why is it now more important than ever?" It's because it's a piece of the puzzle, it's a part of Me, and when the Word is combined with My power and the keys, its power is intensified a hundredfold. Thus the Enemy wages war with great force, with his most powerful underlings, to oppose the Word in your lives--to stop you from reading, believing and receiving it.

Don't you see? The three pieces that fit together during these Last Days to defeat the Enemy, to give you power to rise to victory and to make it through till the End are Me, the Word and the keys. Together, we are your salvation, your anointing, and without all three you won't make it.

I am powerful, My Word is powerful, and the keys are powerful, but combined we are your vital companions in these Last Days! You will be fighting evil forces such as you have never imagined, and will need power such as you have not yet experienced, but which can only be achieved when I, the Word and the keys are one in you.

To neglect My Word is to neglect Me, for I am one with My Word. To neglect the keys and their power is to neglect Me, for I am one with My keys. Thus the Enemy attacks in these two arenas, to get you to doubt, procrastinate, or lose your sense of urgency in the spirit. You can't use the full power of the keys without the Word. You can't use the full power of the Word without the keys. The Enemy knows this, and so he seeks to distract, divide and conquer.

The Enemy delves into each person's heart to find out where their greatest weakness lies. The Enemy is the accuser of the saints, the tempter, and just as you are not ignorant of his devices, so he is not ignorant of your thoughts, desires and weaknesses. That is how he is able to use the mind as his battlefield in attacking you, for he can monitor it, to some extent. He does not know it as I do, nor does he have power over it as I do, but he can tempt and attack in these ways, and I allow this for the purpose of strengthening you, My loves. Your adversary is your friend in this respect, as I have said before, for he forces you to draw nigh to Me.

But if you are hesitant to use the keys, he enhances those feelings and fights to pull you back. If you are weak in the Word, he puts distractions in your life that make it even more difficult for you--busyness, things to do that you think are more important than time spent in the Word, doubts, familiarity, or perhaps just plain laziness.

Your Adversary knows My power with My keys and My Word combined. He knows the plan I have for the End of Days. He knows that I am his demise, and that you will carry out My plan as My witnesses in these Last Days. But you cannot be My tools if you do not obey, if you do not know, live, breathe, and think My Word, and therefore this is where he attacks. You must let Me, My Word and the keys become one with you, for unless all three are an integral part of your life, I will only be able to use you to a certain degree, but never fully.
(What Is Jesus Worth to You? [#3433:67-76])

If you're bound and held back by one of the Enemy's vices in your life, then you can never have full hold on the keys to the Kingdom. With fear in your life, you lack faith to fully access all the wonders of Heaven. You automatically cancel out some of the most wonderful and needed features of the keys that I've given you.
(More on the Keys! What the Future Holds, Part 5)

Be My Love!

(Jesus:) Your lethargy is shown when you feel that you do enough, you read enough, you stir yourself up enough, and you're doing just fine. Yes, sometimes you are doing fine, but is fine all you want to go for? Why not go for great, wonderful, awesome and out-of-this-world with Me? I want you to be so filled with Me and My Words all day long that you live Me, breathe Me, carry Me in your heart and mind, talk to Me, love Me, and be My love for others all day long. That's what I want, and you're still a far cry from that.

You let lethargy come in and it keeps you from trying to step out and love others. It makes you get bugged too easily and you feel like it's your right because you're just a little sensitive to people's idiosyncrasies. But is that right? Is that living the Law of Love? No! That is living like a Systemite who doesn't really care about his or her fellow man. You don't want to be that way, do you?

I want to give you love that covers all sins--that gives even when it doesn't feel like it, that smiles through the many tears, that cares and loves and gives again. How can you get this love?--By reading My Word. By being so full of Me that nothing else can come out, that nothing else can come through. Ask Me to change your heart, to change your character, and I will help you.

Take up that torch.

(What The Hell Is Lethargy? [#3482])

This is the paradox of God, that those who are weak in their own strength shall go from strength to strength, and those who think themselves strong shall go from weakness to weakness.

You must look to Me for the strength that only I can give you. You must be willing to put away your strength for My strength, for your human strength is but weakness in My eyes, and it must also be so in your eyes. Each person must realize this for himself.

Before you lies strength and weakness. I will give you My strength if you will trade in your strength that I have called weakness. Choose this day. I shall give bountifully to you if you shall be willing to give your life that others might live. For he that seeks to save his life shall lose it. This is the paradox of God.
(God's Forever Love [#004])

"Duty makes us do things well; but love makes us do them beautifully"? This is the case with you and how your spiritual love relationship with Me is a much stronger motivator than anyone else in the world has.

When you think about how the love of Christ compels you, and then you think about how your love for Me is deepened through the weapon of loving Me intimately, it makes a lot of sense how this is beneficial for not just your spiritual self, but also for your physical self. The love we share is an actual morale booster and can help your physical work seem not so heavy or tiresome because of the motivation of our passionate relationship.

I'm sure you all remember the story of Jacob working for Laban so that he could marry Rachel. He worked for seven years straight, and let Me tell you, as someone who actually lived in those Bible times, life was tough back then. The lack of modern conveniences made every task much more difficult than a similar job is today. To care for cattle and sheep and all that goes into raising prosperous herds and flocks is a whole lot of work. And he wasn't getting paid either; he got room and board and the promise that afterwards he'd be able to marry the woman he loved.

But what does the Bible say about how he felt? It says, "And Jacob served seven years for Rachel; and they seemed unto him but a few days, for the love he had to her" (Gen.29:1-28). That's quite something. Because he had a passionate love for this woman, he was willing to gladly pay the price of hard labor and count it as nothing. And then when Laban cheated him, what did he do? He did it all over again because of love.

Don't you think that if he wouldn't have had that girl there to inspire him and motivate him, he would have gotten pretty tired of working for no wages under someone like Laban? Don't you think he would have struck out on his own to go somewhere else where he either wouldn't have had to work so hard, or where he would have gotten a little more personal gain out of it? He might have done that, but because his love for Rachel held him there, it made all his work seem light and every step he took seemed worth it because of her. The emotion in his heart made the actual physical tasks of the day seem lighter.

This is the feeling that you can have in your heart too as you practice the weapon of loving Me intimately. As you strive to build and deepen our relationship, the love we share will fill your heart and motivate you to go any distance and pay any price in order to make Me happy.

My love will indeed compel you--and what love it is! Our sexual relationship allows us a level of intimacy that very few other Christians in history have shared with Me. My love was there for every great man or woman of God, but you're some of the only ones who have ever had so much of My love in so many different ways. This love is powerful and it can motivate you to go above and beyond the call of duty.

Just like Jacob's love for Rachel had the consequence of making his physical work seem easier and the years of labor go faster, so our love together will make your load seem lighter and more bearable.

Also not to be minimized is the boost of energy you receive when you know that you've satisfied your spiritual requirements. When you've had your Word time, when you've loved Me intimately, when you've prayed for your work and for others, when you've heard from Me about your day, you actually receive a boost of energy and get-up-and-go because you know in your heart that you've put yourself in a position to receive My blessings.

You know that you haven't cheated Me and that you've given Me My due, and the best part of your life and day. Thus you have more faith to know that I'm with you in whatever you do, and this actually serves to make you happy and more on the ball in the physical as you go about your work. (Practical And Powerful: Your Spiritual Weapons At Work! [#3602:21-30])

Let Me show you the secret of instant and perfect connection with Me. At any moment, any time, if you feel yourself slipping just a little, your courage fading, your spirit falling, your happiness and joy being lessened through some encounter, through some words you have heard, or through the attacks of Satan, stop for a moment, halt everything and concentrate on Me.

Focus your mind's eye on a mental picture of Me and then slip out of the work mode. Slip out of the business gear, away from accomplishing, away from the busyness, away from working. Slip down out of the mind, into the chambers of the heart. Open the door to the chamber of My love and walk softly in, for I wait for you there. I do not ask for a long stretch of your time, but only short moments consistently throughout the day.

This is the secret, slipping away to be with Me throughout the day, keeping Me ever-present in your mind and thoughts in all that you do. As you slip in and out of My presence, you take with you a little more of My glow, of My aura, of My wisdom and power and Spirit. And this aids you in your work and in the decisions you make. (God's Forever Love [#004])

13th March,2022(Prophecy)(Jesus:)You, you who are from My ardent church, My closest; those who have come apart and who lift their heart to Me and lay all else on the altar of sacrifice, who give up all that is dear and go into all the world to tell of Me and My love, of My sacrifice for those who will receive Me into their heart and life. You, who feel the urgency because you have discerned the times and are looking for the signposts that I have given My brides, those brides who have their lamps and hearts full of My hot, deep, dividing word that cuts to the bone and marrow, who are fervently telling others of My soon coming and what to watch out for and to be ready! Key wielders who know the power of the Keys of the Kingdom and the what they will afford all those who revere them as they do Me and the Word. And all those who respond to the tune of the key of David, who resonate and assimilate with the spirit and can 'see' that open door and walk through it into that safe place that I have prepared for them, My 'woman of the wilderness'. These are My Philadelphia church. When it is your time, and you have reached the brow of the cliff to pass through the midst of them (Luke 4:30), and escape; or flee as a bird, grow wings as an eagle you will walk through that door that no man will close. Only by My hand, My beloveds. I will rapture you into your safe place. I will keep you and yours safe; I will feed you and keep you safe. But know this, that this will be your greatest time to let your light so shine and to bring many to Me and My Kingdom. This will be your biggest harvest! So although I will keep you in your wilderness, that door is open, always, and you will be able to traverse backwards and forwards. I know your works, I know your desire and mission is to find and win the lost; I know, even though there is much trouble, you will not deny My name, you will witness unto the end. I will keep you through it but not out of it. But I do know your frailties and your need of My hand to protect and cover you. I will whisk you away through that open door, that portal into My realm when you need to be kept from the dark forces of the enemy. Only My most ardent can do that; My Philly brides; those who adore Me and have left their door open and our souls inhabit each other. We are not just casual acquaintances but soul mates. Our love has been tried and has been found to be true so now when the SHTF they will not be moved. They know I will never let them go or abandon them; they are so sure because their love for each other is so intimate, so tried and proven. They know Me, really know me and our love is so deep, it cannot be shaken. They know My door will always be open... You are that Philadelphia church, My loves, My beautiful faithful brides. I will gather you and keep you safe and cover you with peace. You have the Key of David, My Loves, so no man, no emissary of Satan can close that door. That door has been open to you for long now and we have enjoyed sweet communion, so much so that it is the very air you breathe. You know that without it you will perish. So come baby, let our love continue and let us ravish each other right up until I come to get you. And you will see Me come through that door... for real! (End of prophecy)

You are as a jewel that not only reflects light, but warmth-warmth of spirit, warmth of understanding, warmth of comfort, warmth of love. But understand and remember that the true warmth of God, the true comfort of God, the understanding of God and the love of God, comes from abiding in Me, in My Words, and letting them and Me abide in you. For it is not possible to pour forth the love, understanding and comfort of God without being full of Me. So learn to rest in My arms, to fellowship with Me, to receive of Me, to drink in My Words and My Spirit and My love. You must draw near to Me so that you may become full to overflowing, and so that My Spirit may pour through you in great abundance. How can you do this? By loving Me, by seeking Me, by drinking in My Words, and by believing, by yielding, by enacting and doing those things that I say you should do. For it is in these little tokens of love, these little acts of obedience, that you will learn to draw close to Me and to do those things which I tell you to do, and so you shall become filled with Me and My love and My Spirit.

Let Me cup My hands about you, so My warmth can be absorbed by you, so that you can reflect My light, and so My warmth will emanate upon others through you.

Be a bearer of My Word in your heart, in your mind, and on your lips. Let My Word fill you to overflowing, so that you exude its warmth, its cheerfulness, its love, and its positiveness. Live according to My Word and the love that is in it, for My love is synonymous with My Word. As you let it fill your heart and mind and spirit, it will come out of you. It will be what others feel when they are around you. It will provide an aura of love around you that others will want to be around and partake of.

(God's Forever Love [#004])

Was I accepted by the world? Did My sayings and teachings sit well with the world? Did everything I said make perfect sense to everyone? Was I understood, respected, and loved by all? No! Did it matter? No! I had a job to do, I had the truth to give, and I was determined to give it no matter what.

As the days grow darker and iniquity abounds, you, My children, and the world will be increasingly unable to reconcile with each other. Let not the Enemy confuse and deceive you into compromising.

You must be more vigilant and careful now. You must begin readying yourself now by holding to My Words of truth ever so closely and by guarding your heart and mind. You must be committed to believe and obey all that I have said, even if you don't understand it all.

Stay true to My Words of truth and be committed to stand by and up for them no matter what. Even if you don't understand everything, even if some things seem a bit extreme or even strange, you must be committed to follow Me wherever I lead. Your highest desire must be to please Me and to obey, even if you don't understand it all, for understanding is the reward of obedience.

Stay dropped out. Stay vigilant in spirit. Stay clean and pure through receiving, believing, and obeying My Word, and so shall you be prepared to do all that I would have you do.

In order to pass the big tests, you must first pass the little ones. In order to be able to stand strong for Me in the big things, you must first stand strong in the little ones.

Keep your heart with all diligence. Touch not the unclean thing, but rather refuse and reject it, and so will I receive you. (End of message from Jesus.)

Now I want to occupy a few minutes of your time in considering OUR POSTURE. We are here, like soldiers on guard, waiting for the dawn. It is night, and the night is deepening; how shall we occupy ourselves until the day break, and the shadows flee away? Well, first, we will wait in the darkness with patient endurance as long as God appoints.

Whatever of shadow is yet to come, whatever of cold damp air and dews of the night is yet to fall upon us, we will bear it. Soldiers of the cross, you must not wish to avoid these shadows. He who has called you to this service knew that it would be night time, and he called you to night duty; and being put upon the night watch, keep at your post. It is not for any of us to say, "We will desert because it is so dark." Has not the thought sometimes crossed your mind, "I am not succeeding; I will run away"? Have you not often felt, like Jonah, that you would go to Tarshish that you might escape from delivering your Master's message in Nineveh? Oh, do not so! The day will break, and the shadows flee away; and until then, watch through the night, and do not fear the shadows. Play the man, remembering through what a sevenfold night your Master passed, when, in Gethsemane, he endured even a bloody sweat for you. When, on the cross, even his mid-day was midnight, what must have been the darkness over his spirit? He bore it; then you bear it too. Let no thought of fear pass over your mind; or, if it does, do not let your heart be troubled, but rise above your fear until the day break, and the shadows flee away. Be of good courage, soldiers of Christ, and still wait on in patient endurance.

What next are we to do until the day break? Why, let there be hopeful watching. Keep your eyes towards the East, and look for the first grey sign of the coming morning. "Watch!" Oh, how little is done of this kind of work! We scarcely watch as we ought against the devil; but how little do we watch for the coming of our Master! Look for every sign of his appearing, and be ever listening for the sound of his chariot wheels. Keep the candle burning in the window to let him see that you are awake. Keep the door on the latch, that when he comes you may quickly open to him. Watch hopefully until the day break, and the shadows flee away. Then, further, dear friends, while we maintain patient endurance and hopeful watching, let us give each other mutual encouragement. Men who have been shipwrecked will give each other a hand, and say, "Brother, maybe we shall escape after all." Now that it is midnight all around, let every Christian give his fellow-soldier a grip of his hand. Courage, brothers, the Lord has not forgotten us. We are in the dark, and cannot see Him; but He can see us, and He knows all about us, and maybe He will come walking on the stormy waters in the middle watch of the night when our little bark seems ready to sink beneath the waves by the boisterous wind. I seem just now as though I were a soldier in this great guard-room, and as if we were sitting in these shadows, and perhaps in the darkness, and seemed very much dispirited; and I would say to you my comrades, "Come, brothers, let us cheer up! The Lord has appeared to one and another of us. He has given to some of us the light of His countenance, and He is coming back to welcome us all to Himself. Let us not be dismayed; our glorious Leader does not forget the weakest and feeblest of us, neither is any part of the battle-field beyond the reach of the great Captain's eye. He sees which way the struggle is going, and He has innumerable reserves, which He will bring up at the right time. I seem to hear the music of His horse's hoofs even now. He is coming who shall tip the scales at the worst moment of the conflict, for the battle is the Lord's, and He will deliver the enemy into our hand. Let no man's heart fail Him because of yonder Goliath; the God who raised up men to slay the lion and the bear will yet find a David and a smooth stone to kill this mighty giant. Therefore, brothers, be of good courage." What further should we do in the dark? Well, one of the best things to do is to stand still and keep our place. "Until the day break and the shadows flee away", let us keep our place, and firmly maintain our position.

It is dark, very dark, so we just stop where we are, in steadfast confidence in the Lord who has placed us where we are. We are not going to plunge on in a reckless manner, for we mean to look before we leap; and as it is too dark to look, we will not leap, but will just abide here hard by the cross, battling with every adversary of the truth as long as we have a right hand to move in the name of the Almighty God, "until the day break, and the shadows flee away." What else ought we to do? Keep up a careful separation from the works of darkness that are going on all around us. If it seems dark to you, gather up your skirts, and gird up your loins. If ever there was a time when we needed the old original stamp of Methodists, we need them now — a people separated to God, a people that have nothing to do but to please God and save souls, a people that will not in any way bow themselves to the fashions of the time. For my part, I would like to see a George Fox come back among us, yes, Quaker that he was, to bear such a testimony as he did in the power of the Spirit of God against the evils of his time. God make us to feel that now, in the dark, we cannot be even as lenient as we might have been in brighter days towards the sin that surrounds us! Are any of you tempted into “society” so-called, and into the ways of that society? Every now and then, those who read the papers get some little idea of what is going on in “society.” The stench that comes from “society” tells us what it must be like, and makes us wish to keep clear of it. The awful revelations that were once before made, which caused us to be sick with shame and sorrow, might be made again; for there is just the same foulness and filthiness beneath the surface of the supposed greater decency. O Christian people, if you could but know, as the most of you ought not to know, how bad this world is, you would not begin to talk about its wonderful improvements, or to question the doctrine of human depravity! We are going on, according to some teachers, by “evolution” into something; if I might prognosticate what it is, I should say that it is into devils that many men are being evolved. They are going down, down, down, save where eternal grace is begetting in the heart of men a higher and better and nobler nature, which must bear its protest against the ignorance or hypocrisy which this day talks about the improvements of our civilisation, and the progress that we are making towards God. “Until the day break, and the shadows flee away” — keep yourselves for your Lord, and hear this voice sounding through the darkness, the voice of a wisdom that sees more than you see: “Come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, said the Lord Almighty.” (2 Cor. 6:17-18) “Until the day break, and the shadows flee away” — lift your hands to heaven, and pledge yourselves to walk a separated pilgrim life until he comes, before whose face heaven and earth shall flee away. (Spurgeon’s Song of Songs Page 269-271)

ONE DARK NIGHT

One dark night

Filled with love's urgent longings

-Ah, the sheer grace!-

My house being now all stilled;

In the darkness and secure,

by the secret ladder, disguised;

-Ah, the sheer grace!-

In darkness and concealment,

My house being now all stilled;

On that glad night,

In secret, for no one saw me,

Nor did I look at anything,

With no other light or guide,

Than the one that burned in my heart.

This guided me

More surely than the light of noon

To where he waited for me

-Him I knew so well-

In a place where no one else appeared.

O guiding night!

O night more lovely than the dawn!

O night that has united

The lover with his beloved

Transforming the beloved in her lover.

I understand and forgot myself

All things ceased
I went out from myself
Leaving my cares
Forgotten among the lilies.

St. John of the Cross

It is the road of humility that will keep you on the right path, close to Me and out of the clutches of the Evil One.

With your personal times of hearing from Me, he knows he can't convince you that they don't apply, so he tries to minimize their importance by lulling you into a sense of complacency that it's really not that important to hear from Me all the time about every little thing, or even to come before Me first before you start your day.

Anything that keeps you from the Word and from seeking Me is the influence of Pan in your life. He often works hand in hand with Bacchus, who uses his allures, distractions, and tentacles of temptation to divert your attention from the spiritual infiltration of the Enemy in your life. It's the old "Stand in the Gap" story, where he gets you so busy with other things that you neglect to see that the walls of your spiritual defenses are crumbling and being carried away brick by brick when you're not looking.

Pan will not be easily evicted, but he is no match for My strength and My power, and the power I give you through the keys. Use the keys to let the light in, and his darkness will flee of itself. That light will be to fill yourself with the tenets and truths of My Word, to make them a part of your being; to appropriate to yourself the spiritual weapons of prayer, praise, hearing from Me and coming to love Me intimately, knowing that by using them you cut the Enemy to the heart; to give no place to the Evil One when he seeks to enter in with this little thought, or that little hesitation, or any distraction he would use to keep you from seeking Me in all things you intend to do.

Turn your eyes toward Me, toward the light of My crystal, and as you are drawn in closer by its power, those insignificant globs of darkness that seem as if they wield such a strong grip will loosen and fall away, and you will be wholly Mine once again, ready to fulfill the destiny and calling to which you were born, for which you were prepared from the foundation of this world. (End of message from Jesus.)

Dwell in the Shadow of My Wings Daily!

(Jesus:) They that dwell in the shadow of My wings have nothing to fear from these. Pan and Bacchus prey upon the straying ones. When you get weary and cease to fight, when you get bored and begin to roam outside My protection, then these are there to entice and suck you in.

Resist and rebuke them in My Name, and seek desperately to stay within My hallowed protection! Daily cleanse and shower yourself in the wonderful cleansing waters of My Words and hearing My voice. These things refresh and invigorate you, as well as cleanse you. (End of message from Jesus.)

(Recognizing And Resisting Pan! [#3401])

In this game of the Last Days, it's not enough to just be passive in the spirit, waiting for the Lord to change you. He'll do the work and the changing, yes, but you need to be desiring it. (ML 3452:50)

"Give up your right to yourself to Me," says Jesus, "let Me realize Myself in you." He quenches the fury of desire by detaching us from things so that we may know Him. In this way God brings us into the fullness of life.

Ps.139:13 For Thou hast possessed my reins: Thou hast covered me in my mother's womb.

So start now, by obeying My tugs on your reins and I will become more and more part of your mind. Say daily to yourself "You possess my reins" that will help keep things in perspective.

(Prophecy)If you're serious about wanting My thoughts then you should have a daily cleansing where you pray over your mind and ask Me to heal it from all the battle that it faces all day every day. It's a fierce warfare, so if you really desire to possess My thoughts and know them, you must be always throwing away your own as well as the enemy's. If I see you really want Me, I'll pour more and more into you, because only when you are emptier of your thoughts can My thoughts be poured out. "You have to give up what you have to have Me" What is it that you have? What are you holding onto that's stopping the flow of My thoughts. Darling it's not as complicated as it seems, just let go of your own way and ask Me My way regardless of your personal desires. And determine to follow through with what I give you. Isn't that simple? Just obedience, just letting go and moving on despite pain in your heart.

I too desperately desire to give you My thoughts, but you must do the work of closing the doors and calling on the keys and fighting off the enemy's temptations. I can't wave My magic wand and presto you don't have carnal mind problems anymore. It's a process, but My love we are making progress and we're getting closer as you embrace My ways above your own. I promise I won't leave you stranded with no comfort, I promise to flood you with Myself as you open yourself to Me. (End of prophecy) (Brit's "Psalm 139")

We can't afford to ever lose the Spirit of God. We must allow that Spirit to flow through without restriction. We must actively draw on the power of the Spirit in all that we do. (Fuel 012)

(Cathar speaking:) For these are the Last Days, and this is the greatest battle! And you, the children of David, must be stronger than ever! You must be purer than ever, in your thoughts and in your hearts and in your desire. You must be more dropped out than ever, hating the System more than ever and loving Jesus more than ever! It is not a time to compromise. It is not a time to take into your hearts and minds and souls the thoughts and ways of the people of the world. It is a time to reject them more than ever--to separate yourselves so that you may stay strong and clean and close to Jesus, because the battles are great and they will be yet greater! There will be demands placed upon you that will be so great and so fierce, that only by staying close to Jesus and strong in the power of David and mighty in the ways of the Word, will you be able to withstand and conquer in the battles that are ahead. So we say to you young people that it is a time to awake out of sleep! To awake out of compromise! To awake out of the lethargy and laziness of spirit, and to take your place among the ranks with your parents, with the faithful ones, with those who have proven themselves and who have been willing, as we were, to lay down their lives for the truth. And now we proclaim the day of challenge to you young people. Are your hearts and minds one with us? Are you, too, willing to live and die for love? Is love that important to you--freedom to love one another and freedom to love Jesus? Does it mean enough to you that you are willing to die for it? Or are you willing to let the System steal it away little by little until you become blind and numb and you don't even notice that you have lost the love and freedom that you once had, and the love and freedom that your parents and those who have gone before you were willing to give their lives for?

We have helped your Father David and your Queen, Mother Maria. And we have helped your parents in their hour of need. We strengthened them because we knew their hearts' desire was to believe and to follow and obey and live a life of love, no matter what the cost.

And now we are willing to help you. We will help any who call upon us, who need our help, and desire our help. No matter how weak you feel. No matter how incapable and lacking in love, and selfish and tainted and polluted by the System of the world. No matter how bad and sinful you feel. If you will call out to Jesus for strength, if you will forsake your ungodly and wicked ways, you will find strength. We will be amongst your Heavenly counselors who will help you and give you strength that you know not of.

We have been in the war room with Jesus and with David, planning the great battles ahead. We know the battles and the choices you will face. We know the dangers and the temptations. But we also know of the great victories that are in store for you and the mighty exploits that you will do if you will only call out to Jesus for strength and power and anointing!--If you will only kneel before Him and yield yourself completely, in mind, body and spirit, and let His Words and the Words of David wash you clean of the contaminants and the pollutants, the dirt and the filth and the evil ways of the System. For they are many, and it is slowly sucking the very life out of some of you--you young warriors who should be the strongest and the most valiant, the most dropped out and the most dedicated and the most in love with Jesus because of the training that you have had, and the wonderful privilege that you have had of reading and feasting on the Words of David.

But instead some of you are weak and your lights are dull. Some among you are confused because you have not chosen the ways of David, but you have rejected them, and in rejecting them you have received strong delusion. And now many go about believing a lie, living a lie, weakening day by day. And these who have rejected the truth of the Words of David will not have the strength that they need for the battles ahead.

Therefore take heed to these words of warning. Prepare yourselves for the day of battle. Forsake these evil ways, these distractions of the Enemy, these lies of the Evil One, these weaknesses of the flesh, these carnal thoughts, so that you can find strength in Jesus. If you will call upon Him in your hour of need, we and many with us will be there to strengthen, encourage, support and lead and guide you as we did for your Father David. (End of message from a Cathar) (Letter Links 3 for "Shooting Straight, Part 1" [#3499c])

(Prophecy)Jesus: You feel a wonderful peace having Me as your doting Husband that you are coming to see has depths of wisdom and at times incomprehensible ways that I work. You may not understand but you feel more that you don't even have to always understand. You just feel so safe and secure tucked under My warm and loving wings. Such assurance! And as Stephen said, It is time now! It's not time to doubt or hesitate anymore. If I say, then it is and will be. Me and My Word and the Keys are one and the same. They are the power. The keys work. There is not one false Key Promise. My word is Truth. I am the way, the Truth and the Life. My love for you is unfathomable and My honor is upon you as I put you through these difficult faith stretching tests and trials. Remember, whatever comes through that door, there is nothing I will not help you through. Believe it! (Excerpt of Prophecy from Thy Gentleness hath made Thee Great))

Let's always remember that the ~~Offensive~~ Great Tribulation is a move of the Lord's Spirit. He is going to do it, along with the help of the many mighty warriors, sages, generals, and strategists in Heaven, and us down here on Earth. We are just earthen vessels for Him to work through, and we can have full faith that as we look to Him, lean on our spirit helpers, and follow the instructions we receive, we will be successful. (Fuel 012)

The fact that you've not given up, that you've not turned your back on My service, and that you've not turned your back on the Words and teachings of David proves that you are a strong soldier and that you belong here, in the elite troops. And if you belong here, if this is your destiny and your mission, then believe Me that I will make it possible for you to finish the training and that you will pass the grade and graduate with honors. It's tough, it takes time to graduate from officers' training, but once you do, you've gained something that nobody can take away from you! I know it's hard, I know it's painful. You feel like you want to give up trying and like you're not going to make it, but I want you to make it!

As you love Me, as you spend time loving Me and becoming filled with Me, thus will I be able to fill you with My love, My seeds, My truths, My thoughts, My views, and thus will you be able to see things as I see them. When you can see things the way that I see them, then although your natural man may struggle and buck against it, you'll be able to fight, knowing that you're doing the right thing, and knowing that I will give you the strength for it. (Law Of Love, The [#3424])

The Evil One seeks with all his might to smother the flame of David, to put out the light, to lure even My chosen ones to the darkness. He tempts and he woos, like the sirens, with his sickeningly sweet worldly goo--the goods of the world, the black, sticky, smothering quicksand of the System, and many of My children have been lured into the murky waters and have attempted to swim in them.

I have now thrown out the lifeline of My Words to all My Family, young and old, strong and weak. It doesn't matter what condition they're now in, even if they feel that they're too old, or too tired, or too compromised to struggle and to escape the sticky clutches of the Evil One's gooey mess. All they have to do is grab hold of the lifeline and I will pull them out of the darkness.

My Words are as lifelines.

You who have dedicated yourselves to Me and joined the selected service of the priesthood must not allow yourselves to be lured by the murky waters, the entrapping pastimes and enticing goo of the world. For you have not just accepted a ministry, but you have offered yourselves upon the altar of My sacrifice. You have given yourselves to Me, to do with as I may. You have promised to be My love slaves.

You who have sworn yourselves in humble service and fealty to Me and to My cause must stay clear of the darkness that is all around. You must not allow yourselves to be pulled into the hold of its lethargy and apathy. You must carry with you at all times the sword of the Spirit, the Word of God, to cut yourselves free when the Enemy tempts you or one of your brethren with compromise.

It is not enough that you love the light. In order to stay free and strong, you must also hate the darkness. If you would truly be happy, if you would truly be free, if you would have the oil of gladness above thy fellows, your peers, you must recognize the darkness when it tempts you, and not give it place.

Continue to give yourself to Me each day, humbly asking Me to have My way. As you do, I will not fail to keep you malleable and yielded, broken and weak. (End of message.) (What The Hell Is Lethargy? [#3482])

(Jesus) Every time I open this book, (The book of your heart) I weep, for I read words that you haven't even whispered aloud, but have only conveyed to Me wordlessly in prayer. I see tears that you haven't shed in the flesh, but have shed in your heart and in your spirit. I see pain and I see suffering. But I also see bold markings of faith, bright highlights of ardent love and praise, precious reference points of dedication, trust, and endurance. I weep to read the words on the scrolls of your hearts, for they are both beautiful and deeply moving. ♥

(Finding Beauty in the Collage of Life! Para. #48)

PSA.4:1 Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousness: thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress; have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer.

PSA.4:2 O ye sons of men, how long will ye turn my glory into shame? how long will ye love vanity, and seek after leasing?(lying) Selah.

PSA.4:3 But know that the LORD hath set apart him that is godly for himself: the LORD will hear when I call unto him.

PSA.4:4 Stand in awe, and sin not: commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still. Selah.

PSA.4:5 Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, and put your trust in the LORD.

PSA.4:6 There be many that say, Who will shew us any good? LORD, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us.

PSA.4:7 Thou hast put gladness in my heart, more than in the time that their corn and their wine increased.

PSA.4:8 I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep: for thou, LORD, only makest me dwell in safety.

DESPITE ALL THE DARK HANDS that would hold the Crystals back, the Power and Light within the Pillar is so powerful that anything that tries to hold them back is dragged with them and by them, and almost torn out of the darkness into the Pillar! But these ugly creatures of Darkness don't want to leave the darkness or be separated from the Darkness, so they finally have to flee and let go, and let the Crystals go to keep their Darkness from being destroyed by the Light!

"OH HOW BEAUTIFUL THE LIGHT THAT I HAVE GIVEN UNTO MY CHILDREN! How beautiful is the Light, and how beautiful even to be at the foot of the pedestal, that part which rests upon the floor, so even that which is lowliest is most honored!"-- Even the clusters around the foot of the Pillar on the floor are glad to be near the Pillar, even though they are on the floor!

OH THE DARKNESS IS SO ANGRY! IT'S FURIOUS! THE DARKNESS IS RAGING BECAUSE IT'S LOSING ITS GRIP ON THESE CRYSTALS OF LIGHT, and it thunders and rages, and it storms. but it can't put out the Light, because it is afraid of the Light! It can't put it out, because it can't even get close to it, because the Light destroys it!

THE DARKNESS IS ALL AROUND AND SEEMS MUCH LARGER THAN THE LIGHT, AND YET IT CAN'T OVERCOME THE LIGHT!--It can't put out the Light! It tries to surround the Light and cover it, but it can't put it out because the Darkness itself is destroyed by the Light! Every time it comes close to the Light, or tries to attack the column or the Crystals, it is destroyed by this terrific Power! The Children of David are like a small island in a sea of darkness, the end is near and gross darkness is consuming the people. But the crystals of David hold on to the pillar and will not let go. And in so doing the darkness cannot grasp hold of them, it is too bright and it will draw back into itself. Do not fear Crystals of David for you are surrounded by a cloud that hides you from those that gaze at you from the darkness. You have absorbed much light; you are infused with the light of God and are now power crystals that cannot be touched. Touch not Mine anointed, neither do My prophets any harm, for in so doing, you touch the apple of Mine eye saith the Lord.

(The Crystal Pyramid with added Prophecies by Stephen)

As the battle rages all around you the Keys are the wall between those darts and fireballs of Satan delivering a deadly blow. Keep up your blue Key shields beloved, they are your only protection, and whilst the enemy's darts cannot enter, your weapons can fire right through the Key empowered force field and dissipate any defence shields he has. He may have upped the ante but I have also, and some of the weapons and defence mechanisms I've created since he's been locked out of the know, he cannot even begin to copy or comprehend.

Use them sweetheart, use them at every opportunity; these keys are pure power, they are connected to the power house of God, there is nothing that can stop them, nothing dare stand in the way of the wielders of these Keys. Imbibe their power, think about them, live them, and allow them to possess every fibre of your being. You have been told that they are a very special gift to you; this gift of the blue key has been given to you because of your calling, you were called and you answered.

Our Husband is looking for desire of heart in those that will be chosen to move forward into the Great Tribulation. (The Blue Key Compilation)

(I couldn't resist adding this from our recent study of Jesus is Enough. This part sums it all up.)

111. So many people are like this. Thousands upon thousands and millions upon millions are searching for happiness, but in all the wrong places. This is what your lives on Earth are all about: finding this door back to true happiness, which is only in the spirit. And for you, My children of David, it's all about showing others where to find that door, that entrance--Me.

112. And once you've found the doorway, once you've opened it and what lies beyond it becomes available to you, the next choice is which direction you'll follow. You still have that choice! Are you going to go the way of satisfying your spirit, often at the cost of your carnal satisfaction? Or are you going to choose to satisfy your carnal desires, usually at the cost of your spiritual satisfaction?

113. Now here is the problem: The flesh and the carnal world are only for a time. They will pass, and your spirit will leave this body and will go to another place and be housed in a spiritual house, and what you have there will for the most part be framed and built upon what you gained while on Earth--by your choices on Earth to either grow your spirit or to feed your carnal ways.

114. It simply comes down to the fact that you are first and above all a spiritual being. And only when you learn that happiness, fulfillment, and satisfaction only come through satisfying your spiritual nature will you be truly happy. As long as you're giving anything carnal--any carnal desire, any carnal nature, any carnal proclivity or tendency--a higher priority than the needs of your spirit, you will not find true satisfaction.

115. Because you are naturally so earthbound and so steeped in the carnal nature that your forefathers chose, and which you were born into, that is your natural direction, the one you would normally choose. But when your spirit begins to grow and mature through experience, then you begin to learn that those choices don't really satisfy your spirit. They may satisfy your body temporarily, but the only thing that satisfies your spirit are choices made for Me.

116. That's why it all comes down to "Jesus is enough." I am enough because I am all the things that satisfy your spiritual needs. I am love, I am kindness, I am gentleness, I am longsuffering, I am mercy. I am the satisfaction of your spirit. It is Me. I am the tree that contains the fruits that satisfy you. And by "you," I mean what you primarily are and what you were primarily created as, and that is a spiritual being. It just so happens that you are housed in a physical body and a carnal nature, so your proclivity is to go the carnal way and make carnal choices.

117. But through life on Earth I try to lead each person back to Me. First through salvation, and then through feeding on My Word, and through experience, I try to lead everyone as deeply into My Spirit as they will choose to go. The further they go, the happier they are.

November 11, 2022...Prophecy: "Again it comes back to one thing, unless man chooses Me over his own way, this wonderful experiment called life can never move forward. If self-preservation is the way and the truth then why does My Word say 'except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die it abideth alone, yet if it dies it bringeth forth much fruit.' I say this because to bring forth good lasting fruit it takes giving of yourself, and not just so that you can gain something from your giving. Many church people and systemites only give out because they want something back in return. They tithe because they want a kick-back, and most times it's not a spiritual kick-back they are desiring, they want Me to bless them materially. A systemite works their tail off to make material gain. Someone that loves Me above self is searching for spiritual growth, and not because they want to become more powerful and more all-knowing, but because they want to become more like Me. My nature is sacrifice, dying to self that others may live. And that is the nature you must have in order that this building we are constructing together is built on the right foundation.

The earth life is the best place to establish this primary building block, this kernel of life. If you can achieve an understanding of this principal, even if you do not reach fulfillment in this life, if you understand, accept and desire this path whilst in the flesh, and are making efforts to walk the path, then when you graduate you will enter the next stage with the right stuff, you will be a vibrant seed ready for planting. The Keys play a part in My plan too. The Keys are a spiritual gift that hold within themselves unlimited power, yet I am willing to give them into the hands of carnal man, you. However there is a small safety latch that won't open for selfish users. In other words the more selflessly they are used the better they work for the one who is calling on them to be activated. So in a sense you can monitor your spiritual condition according to how well the Keys work for you. And of course My will plays an integral part in how well the Keys work or if they even work at all. But that too shows Me and you, if you truly desire My will over your own. If your will is in line with Mine then the safety latch opens and you can fire at will. I hold all the power in the universe, yet I don't go around enacting change or doing things just to make Myself happy or better situate Myself. Take a look at My life on earth and you will see by My example what I am looking for in My creation of you." (End of prophecy)
