I am Nothing!

15th September, 2021

Thank You that I don't have to know anything; all I have to know is You. Thank You that I don't have to be anything; all I have to be is with You. Thank You that I don't have to know where I'm going; all I have to do is follow You. Thank You that I am weak, so Your strength can show through. Thank You that I don't know what to say, so You can speak through me. Thank You that I don't know what to do, so I have to ask You.

Thank You so much for the way You made me--such a nothing--because that's just perfect for You.

The perfect vessel for You is the one that doesn't know anything and can't do anything without You, so it can be what You want it to be--an empty cup that You can fill, a nothing that You can make something, a weakness that You can turn into a strength, a zero that You can transform for Your glory.

Thank You that I have only to yield to You, to let You work through me, move through me, and speak through me--and then I don't have to worry about the things I can't do. You've made it so simple to let You help us with our problems. It seems hard at times to put our whole trust in You when things are going wrong, yet it's so important. Help me to be a perfect vessel for You by always being open to what You have for me.

(TJWL2:110)

The Lord said, "It's nothing you're doing, it's just Me." We can't live up to it, the Lord just has to do it. It's nothing in us, He's going to do great and mighty things with us all. So when you hear what He says He's going to do with you, you'll just have to say: "We'll just say yes and let You carry us along. We can't really live up to what You're saying, we can't accomplish these great and mighty things. They're too great for us. We can hardly even comprehend them, but we'll just go along for the ride." That's what the Lord said, didn't He? He said, "Get in and leave the driving to Me!" He said it's really easy if we just get on board and ride and let Him do the driving. So that's what we have to do, because we're all certainly nothing at all!

I must stay ever so close to You, for without You I am nothing. I am lost, weak, powerless, faithless, and hopeless without You! There is no strength, nor beauty, nor sufficiency in me. Yet by dwelling in You, I can partake of Your wonderful, amazing attributes and enjoy them as my own. Oh, how great You are! How beautiful, how mighty! How blessed I am to have You; how blessed I am to be Your Own. (To Jesus with Love 2:63)

1. (DAD IS SICK:) I'M ALL CORRUPT! (Maria: No, you're not!) Oh, yes I am! I have a verse to prove it: "For this corruptible must put on incorruption." (1Cor.15:53) I'm wicked & I'm evil & I'm corrupt! I guess it's just to show the World what He can do with a bad man, what grace God has. It's all the grace of God. I'm horrible but He took me & He used me to show His grace & His forgiveness to the World & His Love.--That though I am nothing, yet I became something. I can't quite get it. It's something about, "Though He was rich yet He became poor, that we through His poverty might be rich." (2Cor.8:9) It's sort of turned around for me, that though I was poor yet I became rich, that they through my riches might become richer.

2. "O WRETCHED MAN THAT I AM, WHO SHALL DELIVER ME FROM THE BODY OF THIS DEATH? I thank my God through Jesus Christ my Lord!" (Rom.7:24) I am nothing but a body of death, Honey. It is just a miracle of the grace of God that He saved me & made me an example of what He can do for others. No matter how bad or evil or corrupt they are, He still has enough grace to save them. In other words, if He can save me, He can save anybody. That's the way it is. And you can't deny it.--That His grace might be made manifest in my iniquity. "Where sin doth abound, grace doth much more abound." (Rom.5:20)

3. THOSE MUST BE SCRIPTURES SOMEWHERE, they sound familiar. Don't you think so? At least it sounds Scriptural. They shouldn't abandon the Bible entirely, because the Lord still uses Scripture on me. I guess it's because I believe it. I sure hope they didn't get the idea we were abandoning the Bible, because I love it! It is the Word of God for each generation in its time. They certainly should pin their faith on the New Testament--that's for this generation, this dispensation of grace, the Jesus generation.

4. THE OLD TESTAMENT WAS FOR THE JEWS, BUT WE LEARN A LOT OF THINGS FROM IT.--Sometimes I think mostly what not to do so we won't be like them! But the New Testament is for us.--Except Paul sort of vacillates a little bit between his love for Jesus & his love for the Jews, so you even have to sort that out too. He didn't care much for women either. But God bless him, he did the best he could for a Jew, & I guess that's what I'm doing--the best I can for a Jew.

5. SOMETIMES I THINK WE OF ALL MEN ARE THE MOST MISERABLE! If it weren't for the Resurrection there would be no hope for us. Praise You Lord! Thank You Jesus! Because I am a mess! XXX! I love you, Sweetheart! It's only by His grace & His love that we are saved. Nothing saves us but Jesus, otherwise we'd all be lost! Praise the Lord! Thank You Jesus! Amen, in Jesus' name. Good night, Sweetheart, we need to go to sleep. It's only Jesus & we have no other hope, only through Jesus.--His love & sacrifice on Calvary, only Jesus.

6. I LOVE YOU, HONEY, YOU'RE THE MOST WONDERFUL WOMAN IN THE WHOLE WORLD--THE WWW! Wonderful Woman in the whole World! Whole, that begins with a "w" too.--WWWW! Because you're a double double double blessing.--The most wonderful woman in the whole World! I love you! Do you know why I know you're the most wonderful woman in the whole World?--Because I know you & because you married me, the most wonderful man in the whole World! See, that doesn't mean the most righteous or the best or good. It just means I'm full of wonders, the wonderful grace of God that could save such a sinner like me, that's the wonderful part. That's why I'm so wonderful, just because God took such a bad man, such a sinner, & saved me by His grace. Isn't that wonderful? And because I think I was the worst, that makes me wonderful, full of wonders, the wonders of the grace of God! If He can save me, He can save everybody, anybody! Thank You Lord! In Jesus' name. There's hope for everybody!

(O Wretched Man That I Am! [#1847])

I can of my own self do nothing, and I am nothing. I'm weak. I have a weak heart, a weak back, and other physical afflictions. Yet You've been with me each step of the way this last year, and have accomplished mighty things through someone so weak and nothing.

There's a Name that I love to hear! There's a Name that I love to praise! There's a Name that I love to sing about! There's a Name that brings such comfort to my heart. It's Your Name, Jesus. Jesus, Yours is not only the sweetest Name I know, but You're the dearest One to me! I've had many loves, but You're my greatest Lover. You satisfy me completely and give me much more than I could ever wish for or desire.

In this last year You've been like a father to me, instructing me and teaching me in the way that I should go. You've lovingly guided me, just as an earthly father loves and guides his children in the ways of truth. You're not harsh or unfeeling, but all that You've brought into my life this last year has been for a reason, because You were trying to teach me something, because You love me.

In this last year You've also been like a mother to me. You've comforted me in all my tribulations. You've been a cozy shoulder to cry on. You've understood all of my pains, worries, and fears. Not once have You looked down on me for my mistakes, but You've loved me anyway. Sometimes I feel like I'm someone that only a mother could love, and You love me just like a mother, with such unconditional love and care.

And most important, You've been a Lover to me. You've been the One that I can count on at any moment of the day. You've been the One Who has comforted me and satisfied me in my times of loneliness and heartache. You've been a sexy Lover, a dear Husband to me. You're the dearest in Heaven and Earth to me! You satisfy me completely and fill every longing, every desire, every need--even my wishes and secret dreams. You're my Lover of all lovers! You're the Lover of my soul!

Jesus, You give me Your love in full measure.

My most ardent desire is that others will see You in me. Please take me out of the way and let Your Spirit shine through in full force. Nobody wants to see me and all of my faults and weaknesses; they want to see You--the only One Who makes any of us strong, loving, useful and wise. Lord, without You I wouldn't even be worthy to be called Your servant. But with You, I can be living my whole life to serve You. Please do all that's needed to keep me dependent on You, and You alone.

Are you yielded, or leaning to your own ways? Do you look to your own strength or to My strength? Is your attitude, "Thy will, Lord, not mine, be done"? Do you think in your heart, "I am nothing, Lord, and

You are everything--do with me as You will"? Do you lean to your own reasoning, or do you come to Me with your questions to get your answers? Do you insist on having your own way, thinking you know better, or are you willing to yield to My instruction and direction for your life, knowing that I know what's best? Do you murmur, or do you praise? Do you secretly think, "I'm strong and I know what I'm doing," or do you know you are hopelessly weak and don't know anything?

The key is yieldedness; because yieldedness makes you weak--weak in yourself--because all you want to do is follow Me. And when you want to follow Me, all you want to do is do what I'm leading you to do and lean on Me. You're surrendering your will, your agenda, your program, your heart, even your own thoughts and opinions so that your own ideas don't get in the way. Then there's no problem with whatever revolutions I bring, because you're yielded. You follow Me without question, without argument, without a fuss, without criticalness, without whining, complaining or murmuring.

When you're yielded in your heart, then you're yielded to My Spirit, which will bear witness and have its way in your life and even make following Me easy--whether it be praise times, or "Loving Jesus," or "Law of Love," or spirit stories, or voices from beyond, or instruction. It won't crack or break your bottle, but it will be exciting and fresh and thrilling and a joy to your spirit!

Yieldedness makes you receptive to whatever comes your way. It gives you faith, like the faith of a little child that follows eagerly and with joy. So this is a good test if you ever want to test how you're doing: Check to see if you're yielded to what may come your way in the New Wine and My new revelations, or even on a day-to-day basis.

The best followers are those that are the most yielded, and being weak helps to make you yielded. When you know you don't have anything in yourself and you don't know anything of yourself, it's much easier to be yielded. But when you think you're strong or talented or better or smart or good, it gets in the way.

I've been bringing you, as well as many others, down the path of weakness to help My children be more yielded--yielded to My every whim, My every desire, My every whisper. It's the weakness revolution, and those who think they know best or pride themselves in their strengths, abilities, knowledge or capabilities will not be prepared.

It's time to lay all on the altar, the things that are the most dear, which are usually pride or things that are easy to be proud over, the things that are the hardest to let go of--abilities, accomplishments, works, knowledge, opinions, ideas, or whatever it is. Sacrifice it and burn it and let it go and become nothing.

No one has to fear being weak; the only thing to fear is not wanting to be weak. I only require My children to be willing, and I will do the rest. Like the man who said, "Lord, I believe, help Thou my unbelief." All it takes is saying, "Help me," and I will.

It's the day of the weak--weak in themselves--and the weak will inherit all things. (End of message from Jesus)

21st SEPTEMBER, 2021(Prophecy) When you cry out 'I am nothing!' are you saying it in a disappointed way? Are you, petulantly making a statement to Me, a complaint, a murmur, that I didn't do well with you; with the way I made you; with the character I gave you; with the talents I did or didn't give you? Are you bitter in your heart, because you think you've been short-changed? Are you questioning why you are nothing? You question Me as if I made you make those mistakes because I didn't equip you properly or made the conditions too tough for the way you are. Did you secretly want to be somebody then? Are you looking for the praise of man? Do you hanker for recognition and acknowledgement of how good you are? Then, My love, you are still missing the point. In quietness and meekness and lowliness of heart is how I want you to be. In this state of humility and surrender is how I can best use you. My spirit will dwell fully in you when you have a yielded heart. You will carry My grace, My peace and My strength of spirit. When you get out of the way then others see My spirit in you and it causes them to think on Me. They know that your serenity comes from giving your will to Me and that it came from spending much time with Me and putting many sacrifices on My altar. They know it was very difficult to forsake those things dear to your heart, but the light and peace and joy that shines out of you is compelling and mesmerizing. They can see what a yielded spirit can do. They see that when you are a nobody, a nothing, then I can truly be seen. It takes humility, My love; it takes realizing that you are nothing without Me. But you truly can be somebody when you bow down and surrender all to me. You can be My beautiful broken vessel that I Myself have meticulously repaired so My light can shine through you. Beautifully broken! No more striving My darling. Only I can do it, if you let Me. And you will be free; free of trying to be somebody, because you've let Me take over and you won't have to worry anymore about who you are or how you are, because it won't be 'you' but Me. I love that and you'll love it too. (End of prophecy)

If you can usually do things in your own strength, then it's hard to see or feel the desperate need for Me. This is when you must fight. This is when you must strive to overcome. This is when you must say, "Lord, You've given me a lot of talents and strengths, but I know that they came from Your hand and that without You I wouldn't have any of these gifts in the first place. So take me as I am. I desperately cling to You because I know that You are the glue that holds me together. Without You I am nothing." It's much harder for those who are naturally strong in the flesh to stay in a state of constant desperation, because they often lean on the arm of the flesh and think they can make it on their own.

Desperation and dependence on Me usually come more naturally to those who are weaker in the flesh, yet they also have to fight against the feeling of being too bad for Me. Each personality has its weaknesses, and I've designed it this way so that no one would be sufficient in himself. I've designed it this way so that all would know that they need Me and they're desperate for Me.

I'm attracted to those who yearn for Me, who desire Me, who are desperate for Me, who can't live without Me. I'm more willing to show Myself strong on the behalf of one who is completely dependent on Me than to one who is dependent on himself--his own strength, his own wisdom, his own arm of the flesh. This attitude of self-confidence may not be a spoken one, but is made manifest by your actions. If you do not come to Me for your strength, wisdom or help, are you not striving in your own strength?

So if you want My strength, My help, My power, My miracles and My anointing, then stay in a constant state of desperation--constantly wanting Me, needing Me, loving Me, acknowledging Me, and spending time with Me--and I will be drawn closer to you and will show Myself strong on your behalf. If I know you're depending solely upon Me, then I'm moved to work on your behalf and give you all that you desire. (End of message from Jesus.)

(Desperate for Jesus! [#3250:82-85])

Jesus, I love the way You remind me that I can't do anything without You. I'm sorry that I don't get the message sometimes, and I think that when I'm not feeling strong and capable, there must be something wrong. When I stop and yield to You and take time to let You love me, I realize that I'm exactly where I should be--feeling incapable without You.

I'm so happy to need You and to be wrapped in Your arms, where I find grace and strength. I know I simply have to yield to You, give everything to You, surrender to Your beautiful Spirit, and let You take full control. The best place I could ever be is in the position of utter dependence on You, because I know that as I lean on You and depend on You completely, You will accomplish what You want.

Thank You for reminding me that I don't have to do anything in my own strength. Thank You for giving me Your strength whenever I need it--and I always need it!

(TJWL2:76)

The thinner you are, the more the light gets through. The less there is of you, the more the light shines through.

Your desire for Me in all its purity washes you and causes you to shine and gives you supernatural strength to continue on. It’s nothing of yourself, but this desperation draws Me nigh to you and I love you.
