

I believe …help Thou my unbelief

ML#M:53 OTHERS FIGURE THEY'LL JUMP OFF OF THE UNCERTAINTY OF GOD AT THE LAST MINUTE & land on what they consider the certainty of the flesh--in case God fails them! They don't burn their bridges behind them! They don't sacrifice the plow & the oxen!--1Ki.19:21. They hold a little reservation in the back of their mind, of what they plan to do in case God doesn't work! This is not faith! This is only pride & man-pleasing with eye service!--Supposedly trusting God because it's the popular thing to do--the accepted thing--the expected thing--not because they really have faith, but because they're trying to please others. Some folks here are waiting for an excuse to go back. They're ashamed to go back otherwise! They want to go back, but they're ashamed to without an excuse, so they wait until somebody offends them, or they can say God has failed them, or "My Grandmother's sick, & I must go back & bury the dead." They didn't really cut all ties by faith! They still have a few strings attached--a few things they're holding onto. The truly faithful have totally & utterly cut themselves off from the rest of the world.--The "ecclesia" of God--the separated ones who have burned all their bridges behind them & cannot go back. These are the ones who are faithful to the end, who attain to the Crown of Life! You can't get rid of them; they won't take "no" for an answer. They refuse to go back!--Even if you try to throw them out or send them back! Hell, no!--They won't go! This is where they belong: they'll die trying to stay here!

It was a battle royal, and it was a test. It was a test that I had to pass. I had to go through it, so I would know how you, My precious ones, are feeling. That time there in the wilderness, that time of testing, I thought it would never end. (Crisis of Faith!--More on Doubts! Part 1 [#3088])

So I fought! I fought and I battled and tried to ward them off. I fought long and I fought hard and My strength grew weak.
I had not fallen, but I was growing weak, because I was being buffeted about on every side. It was My testing time, and the Tempter was let loose upon Me. Then I realized that I could no longer fight on in My human strength. I realized that I had to have a greater power to win this victory. I had not given in. I had not bade them stay with Me. I did not want to accept these beasts of doubts. But in My flesh, I could not muster up the strength to fight on.(Crisis of Faith!--More on Doubts! Part 1 [#3088])

Doubt is eventually followed by disobedience & disobedience by denial & denial by betrayal.

(Doubts [#025])

JOE.3:14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision: for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.

Are You there… I'm disillusioned…when I think of what we used to be and the words and all we've been through and now what we are, there's no comparison …all I can say is that we've come away from faith…I'm unraveling; I feel beyond repair. Like this is supposed to be the "year to get strong" but haven't I been trying and failing to do that all along? I'm so filled with unbelief and fears Jesus. I'm sorry for my unbelief even though You have taken care of me and us for all our lives…You never forsook us… why then am I forsaking YOU?

Jesus: how can I save you if you don't believe…darling, I am here, but if you don't reach out to Me I can't do anything for you. Why do you believe the lies? Why do you leave My side? I have poured out My very heart to you, and yet you turn away in unbelief.
I want to believe Jesus, but I'm afraid my faith is shaken
I can heal your faith, but you have to take steps to strengthen it. You have to draw near Me even if it hurts your heart to feel and know these things.

Doubts are not just a little nothing that you push aside as not very important! Doubts are monsters that devour & destroy you & things around you! They are the Devil's thoughts & Satan's words--& when you're doubting in your own mind, you're thinking the Enemy's thoughts! When you're voicing your doubts to others, you're spreading Satan's propaganda--& it's all designed to bring division, & through division, destruction of the Word of God!(Doubt & Worry [#016])

WHICH WILL YOU BE?--A DOUBTER, DISOBEYER & DENIER?--OR A BELIEVER, OBEYER & BROADCASTER OF THE TRUTH, even if it kills you?

(Doubt & Worry [#016])

10. The intensity of the battle, the length of the battle and how much you are weakened through the battle depends on your reaction to the attacks of the Enemy. For all of My children are attacked at one time or another by the Enemy through doubts. I am not talking about legitimate questions where you just don't understand and you need an explanation, you need to be taught, you're hungry to learn, and you're open and respectful and receptive to the Word and counsel and explanation. But I'm talking about doubts where the Enemy comes in to strike a deadly blow at the foundation of your faith.

11. With such attacks of doubt, the Enemy tries to get you to close yourself to counsel, to My living Word, and to help and explanation from others. He tries to get you to resist asking for prayer, confessing your need, and showing yourself weak. He ministers to your pride with intellectual thoughts so that you resist the simplicity of My truth and you are no longer a little child before Me. You are no longer a little babe before Me, receiving truth at My hand, but you become smart in yourself, great and mighty and full of your own answers, your own explanations, your own solutions.

12. It is not enough for the Devil to just speak to your mind with doubts about My Word, but he must also work in your spirit if these doubts are to take hold in your mind and heart. He works in your spirit to cause you to become proud, resistant, unyielded, strong in your own mind and your own flesh, independent, worldly, unyielded, stubborn. It is through this hardening of your heart and spirit that doubts are able to take hold on your mind without your realizing that you are yielding to the voice of the Enemy.

13. So it is not enough to just rebuke the voice of the Enemy and his doubts, but you must also seek to stay yielded and soft and malleable in My hands by constantly confessing your need for Me and for others, by staying deeply immersed in My Word, and by feeding deeply from the cool waters of My living Word that I speak to you personally through My still small voice in your heart, and through the channels which I have provided for you.

(Crisis of Faith!--More on Doubts! Part 2 [#3089])

I knew full well the cost of that decision & that's why I had hesitated so long in making it! But the valley of decision brings us very low & it's better to get out of it as soon as you can with the Lord's help & the help of others!-- The Lord can't wait forever, there is too much to do & time is so short, & so much yet to be done!

God Gives the Power Once We Say "Yes!"

I was thinking particularly how it's so much like our teens; I feel they're going through a very similar thing & I really feel for them, my heart goes out to them. I have so much compassion for them because I know how the Devil fights that decision to totally yield & he makes it seem like the hardest thing in the World to make it! He really fights it with all he's got! I know the battle that is raging for us because I've just experienced it--the internal struggle of our own will versus God's Will.
(Faithy's Victory!--Saying "Yes!" To Jesus! [#112])

February 2024

The world can suck you and your mind can become an open field. The more you listen to the doubts, the more your mind is inclined to believe them. Then everything that happens feeds those thoughts of unbelief. This is how the enemy leads you away from Me and down his path. He knows just when to push and when to pull back, so you don't suspect him. He has sought to sever your connection with My voice with many distracting factors, but are you going to let him do that? After all we've been through, are you going to believe his voice over Mine? Just because he tells you, you are wasting your life, and it's a lie, an imagination; he reminds you of your losses and all the things that don't make sense to you. And these distracting thoughts are just so you don't focus on the only thing that can save you. Only sitting here at My feet and letting go of these doubts and accepting that I AM. And that I have asked you to do all these things…that gnawing fear is part of the attack and it has the power to overcome you very quickly. A person motivated by fear can act foolishly and rashly, so come to My arms and let Me save you from this attack of fear. I want you to stand on your faith, that's why I have moved My hand and allowed this to hit you. I see that you are shaken, and though it hurts My heart to see you doubt so, I know that if you fight harder than ever before, you can rise up past this—you can overcome.

….I am in the dark and I feel like we are losing everything and holding on with barely enough strength to continue.

Yes, I put you in the dark, for a time, to teach you that indeed I am the Light…I am the Color and everything else in the world is darkened and dying. He is lying when he says you are throwing everything you could have…cover your ears and don't throw away your heritage for a mess of a pottage. You can become strong again; you just have to desire it more than anything this world can offer. It can't offer you anything, really. All that it can offer is fake dreams, fake promises, and fake fulfillment and satisfaction. Can you believe Me? You have all this time…what makes this time different?

I BELIEVE …help my UNBELIEF

I want you to not only believe, but to actually feel, that I and the things of My Spirit are enough for you, that they are what you want and desire more than anything. Even if your personal life seems to be in shambles, if your relationships and friendships aren't going well or aren't meeting your needs, if your health is poor, if you're not doing terrific in your work, well, you still have something sure, stable, and steady to hold on to, and that's Me.

If I'm truly your center, then you'll weather the difficulties and storms much better, because all these earthly things just won't mean or matter as much. That's the beautiful happiness of being a true disciple, a real committed and devoted follower. You can truly say "none of these things move me" and remain solid and balanced no matter what you feel like, and no matter what is going on around you. (End of message from Jesus.)

(Issues, Part 16 [#3450]

Yes, the enemy is playing dirty with the thoughts he is putting in your mind. He's pulling out everything he has on you because this is last chance to get you to choose his way. Because whoever makes it through this year behind Me, in the City will be ready to face him down in 2025. So the fight will be all that much harder and dirty.

THE DEVIL WAS ORDAINED TO SEE IF HE COULD GET YOU NOT TO BELIEVE GOD.

ML#M:21 It is so easy to make excuses-legitimate, reasonable, acceptable excuses why you can't make it --why you shouldn't be expected to make it, & in most cases people will accept your excuses because most people don't have faith either, & in excusing you they're excusing themselves. But is God going to excuse you?

ML#M:39 BUT SOME PEOPLE WEAKEN JUST BEFORE THAT FINAL HOUR. THE GREATEST DARKNESS IS JUST BEFORE DAWN; THE GREATEST DESPERATION IS JUST BEFORE SALVATION! The greatest hopelessness attacks just before rescue! Some people almost make it!--Almost, but lost! If you could have held on one more breath, one more step, one more hour, one more day, you could have had glorious victory & a wonderful testimony! But you suffered all these things in vain, & you didn't quite make it, & a "miss is as good as a mile!" May God forbid this ever has to be said to you!!(Doubt & Worry [#016])

February 20th Hong Kong Goolagong

YOU KNOW WHAT HAPPENED TO TIMOTHY? That damned devil hitchhiked on that package from Deb to him & subverted him because he didn't receive it, he didn't receive the message. He didn't really personally rebuke the Devil, he didn't believe what I told him, & he didn't like destroying that picture. He resented it. So he was the door, the opening, see?--The crack in our armour. (Hong Kong Goolagong! [#0980])

It gets a grip on you and you are helpless without the LORD. It's not just he didn't read the Word, tons of family members read tons of Word and look at them now. You get to a point where you just reject something, and once you reject it—off you go, down that little path that's leading off…

HE DESTROYED HIM, HE'S GONE! BECAUSE HE LET HIM IN THROUGH HIS UNBELIEF & his rejection of the truth of the Word of God of the Lord's Prophet about the Talisman! He rejected it because he didn't like it & he didn't want it, so he didn't receive the truth. So it jumped onto him & the Lord let him have strong delusion that he might believe a lie, which was that what I said was not the truth. (Hong Kong Goolagong! [#0980])

It's just like the carnal mind comes in so strongly. And even when miraculous things happen, you don't even see it. You can't believe it.

You have to be totally wowed by (what Jesus has done here.)Are you asleep? Is your spirit dead? Are you unheeding? Are you unbelieving? What is it?

. SO THE DEVIL GOT ON TO HIM, & IT WAS RIGHT AFTER THAT THAT HE FAILED, RIGHT? (Maria: Yes, that's right.)

(Hong Kong Goolagong! [#0980])

Gird up the loins of your mind for that is where the battle begins. Listen to the whispers and do as they instruct, for this is the only way the victory will be won. You not only fight for yourselves, you fight for all men. You hold the Final Key in your hand.

If you're not heeding this and not believing this, then you are no good to the Lord. He can't use you. You've got to realize: there's nobody out there with the Keys of the Kingdom and all the spiritual weapons but the Warrior Band. There are a very few people with all the right weapons. So who do you think the devil is going to attack? And you are not taking it seriously?

Mystical Bible Blog Pages:

Belief is a funny thing. You can't really "will" yourself to believe. For some people, that thing you can't seem to swallow might be standing in front of you like a huge mountain or rock. You want to get over it. You want to believe. But your mind just doesn't let you. You even tell yourself that you believe, but when you look into your mind, you know that you actually don't. So you try to go on, perhaps taking a side path, just hoping that the huge rock in your way doesn't hinder you too much, but somehow you know you'll be brought back to face it. This is when you are in the state of "Lord, I believe, help thou mine unbelief." You are trying and you want to follow where the Lord is leading. You want to believe your Lover.

But it almost seems like it's too much. How can you believe that Jesus is going to come back in 2026? You feel like there is a chain around your ankle stopping you from attaining that belief. You don't have the faith. You don't have the substance of things hoped for, the title deed, and you know it.

You just have dust and ash that blows away when you look too hard at it. You can't stay like this forever. You might last for a while and you keep going along "in faith, or is it hope" that the darkness will be removed or that you'll find a way to reconcile things between what your mind can handle and what Jesus is saying. It's not like you can get yourself out of this state. You can't undo that chain around your ankle that has you pinned down. You can't get that huge boulder out of your path. And sometimes you don't actually know what is going to happen to you. And it's true, the time will come that Jesus will pick up His staff and start moving on. If that chain is still there, you won't be able to go with Him to the next level. So what are you supposed to do? No matter how you try or struggle, you can't undo the chain.

But if you really want it, if your attitude is really "Help thou my unbelief" If you are crying out to Him and you desperately don't want to be left behind, He will come to you and He will shine light into your little mind. He will speak to you or show you something, something that will speak just to you. It might be something that wouldn't mean anything to someone else. But it turns a key for you. It opens the door. You look down and that chain is gone. You find that you can accept what He has been trying to tell you. You are free to walk through that door into the light with your Lover.

The key is that you have to want it. You have to be listening to Him and the helpers as much as you possibly can. You have to be taking in the Word and be believing and claiming the keys. Then He can get through. Then those blue angels can get through to your poor carnal mind with some of that 6.66 frequency and show you the truth. They will knock down a few locked doors in your mind to enable you to believe, to accept, even when the rest of your mind still doesn't understand. It's a beautiful thing. You will be so thankful when you can rest on that faith, rest in His love. There is a certain freedom and it takes you deeper into His love and the beautiful mysteries of the spirit world. So it isn't that big boulder that's the problem. It is in using the Key to move that boulder for you. You can't lift a boulder, let alone a mountain, but you can quite easily pick up that small Key and "by faith" ask it to lift the boulder or move that mountain of unbelief for you.

MB BLOG POST "OUR BLUE ANGELS ARE THE DOOR" NOVEMBER 29TH, 2023

Clear speaking:

So you see, a little is still left up to you and your willingness to obey by faith. The "Roll ye away the stone" story in the Bible is another example. You guys are bound mainly by the mind. As was said earlier, the port of entry to full possession is through the mind, so your minds are holding things up. They have to be brought into subjection through the Keys of the Kingdom. They are still running on the wrong frequency in too many cases.

Is it possible in this life? Of course! All things are possible through the Keys. It's the effort to get up and walk through our door and into freedom that is required now. A frequency creates a wave, and a wave is for riding. Surfboard riding is a good illustration. Use the Key of 6.66 to create that spiritual wave. (End)

You cannot entertain the thoughts of the Enemy & yet receive the thoughts of God.

Feed your faith, & your doubts will starve to death.

Sometimes the price of doubt & discouragement can even be defeat & death!

(Doubts [#025])

2024 :

I see what I become without You and I don't want to experience that darkness. Despite the plaguing thoughts and fears and the anxiety that the enemy brings with these doubts…I don't want to live in a world that You aren't. I want to fiercely believe every Word You've spoken.

Teach me to hate this world;

Sonora--If you believed what you are hearing with all your heart, you would find the endurance and the assurance needed to go on no matter what came your way. Yes, the pain remains, but there would be a clear vision before your eyes. You would be willing to grit your teeth and hold on because the honor for doing so far outweighs anything that you have to endure. But because there is doubt and unbelief residing in your heart you are held back, held down—like an anchor it hits the bottom and you remain stuck to old fears, old battles and all the while you are getting weaker and weaker. You can't blame your problems on the "hardness" of the forsaking, because if your faith was bright and shiny and you were fully believing you would see the price for this Pearl is completely worth it. It's completely WORTH it and you have to believe that or you won't last here. I think you have noticed that the battle just became much more intense and that's because the Lord wants purge everyone's hearts: to make them either for or against. You have to cut this anchor and ask for faith to believe no matter what anyone else has done or believes. Your faith has been hanging on others' for a while and you sought to use other's strength to build up your weakness, but now that is failing you and you are shaken and yes, afraid. Afraid that you chose the wrong thing in following Us in the Spirit—which means you are double-minded and unstable in all your ways. The Lord can't help you when you are like this.

191. In a cellar in Cologne, Germany after World War II were found these words on the wall:

I BELIEVE ...
I believe in the sun, even when it is not shining;
I believe in love,
even when I feel it not;
I believe in God,

Even when He is silent.

10th January

Blue angel: Oh the flesh is such a burden to your spirit…such a weight, but this is where you can gain strength if you follow my words and willing to taste the bitter cup of humiliation and the crushing that it takes to even somewhat overcome the flesh. Yes, this journey kills the flesh in every way, and you should expect no less than death to world in you. Everything within your body and mind tries to pull you away from me and my words, but that's why Jesus gave our Key, to cut through all that and to break through into our world where you can escape that depressing pull. But it'll always be a battle while you are on Earth but there is victory in this Beautiful Blue Key. You can see above it all and resist the carnal mind and body that has strong ties to this world.

You can completely waste this time by longing for these things, or you can say yes, to just being NOTHING. Just being a vessel for using, like me. I gave up everything I had and He clothed me with Blue and Gold. That's what He wants from you: Give up everything you have: image, desire to be someone and look better in the world's eyes, the shame you feel from the life you live and the unbelief you hold within your heart. Those things right there can finish you off if you ever are faced with persecution and are REALLY tested in your faith…how can you stand up for Jesus, if you are ashamed? Ashamed of Jesus? In unbelief? Darling, lie down here on my heart and feel that I am real, alive and breathing. I am trying my best to get past your carnal mind, but you are one that has to keep pushing it back so my words can settle in place of your own thoughts. I'm desperate for you to accept me and these words, but I can only come in where there is a place made for me. I can only become part of you, as much as you forsake yourself. There is only so much room in your spirit and to have more of me, you have to let go of more and these things that I am speaking of are standing in your way. Yes, there is more…more of self and pride and so many manifestations of it, but we have to begin at the beginning and there we purge, there we light a fire and ask you to give up the you 'you' are, to be set ablaze and come out different than you were. That's what happened to me…I went in as me and came out as a reflection of His glory. I want with all my being for you to do just that for Jesus. To love Him more than the air that you breathe and whatever it is that you are. It's so hard for humans to stretch themselves to believe these sorts of words, and we are ever searching for those who will drink them in…so few, so few…that's why the battle is so fierce over you and your siblings, because if the evil one can steal away faith in these words, he has won a great victory and we will withdraw ourselves to wait and search for any who will receive us. There is so little time now and soon our world will merge with yours and the age of faith will be over…you have been given this little time to gain so much spiritual riches. You can't imagine the chance you have been offered…would you throw it away, for this decaying world and the corruption is offers?! Please no… don't let it be said that you gave in to that pull of the wicked one and your mind that has destroyed so many. Believe…call on my Key and let it open your eyes, even if just for a moment, to the beauty and the reality of this world, my world—Jesus. Then let that moment give you enough courage to not let go of the cliff face like so many others, who got tired and dropped back into the valley…Hold that vision in your mind's eye and don't let go. Let go of the weights and the sins that only drag you down and proceed to climb higher and higher, closer to me and to our LOVER. Every step and every piece of yourself you let go of, bring you that much closer to Us. That much closer to fulfilling what you were created for…Don’t say the flesh is too strong; you are chosen and to turn away would mean so much would be lost. No, come take my hand and hold tight; don’t let go of the vision that I impart to you here. Let it fill your eyes when the day wears on and you find it hard to remember why and how you will ever make it. Call on the Blue Key and remember from whence you have been called.

Can't we just be faithful... can the story not have a sad ending. Jesus can't we just make it to the end and be true to You? Can't we just let go of all these things? oh Jesus, can't we just be faithful to the end? Please, please what's the point of quitting and giving up so much that has been invested in us. Turn my eyes away from beholding vanity. Fake emotions, fake dream relationships, fake happiness...oh Jesus please help us to fight and fight. Help us to give our lives; help us lay down these lives, so others may live. Please, please I want to be faithful to You forever, Darling. I want to give till the end. I am sick of stupid fake stuff I just want You. Fake daydreams and false promises... Jesus, just You please. I am begging on my knees that we can be what You want. You are so precious and really so precious we take You for granted and all the beauty of Who You are. We are familiar with Your love and the safety of Your arms. Oh Jesus open my eyes to what I have, help me to realize just how much people need what I have and that I can't just can't be focusing on these FAKE things. I worship You and I lie down here... right here please have me. Make me and teach me how to love You better.

Jesus:

Oh darling, I so want to use you, but the choice is left up to you. I so desire to pour in so you can pour out, but oh it takes so long to break your will. You still cling to empty dreams and the enemy still blinds you. You allow your weapons to slip and you listen to the lies. You believe the lies and oh then the story becomes a sad one. The light in you fades and you stop shinning. Oh that you would hold on, My diamond of dust. That you would be faithful and linger in My light always. Oh that you wouldn't listen to the darkness and that you wouldn't allow the enemy to bind you with chains of conformity. Will you be fight till your dying day? I too am deeply heartbroken that so many stories become sad ones. That so many once faithful ones stop short of the final victory...they almost made it, but they listened to the darkness and now they don't call on My name anymore. The tentacles that they had to fight all their life, every day, finally got them. The world has another castaway...oh that is the saddest story. Those ones who gave so much and served so well, are now part of the forces they once fought against so hard. Now you look around and you know how the tests will come— pray, pray, pray and fight for yourself and for your brothers and sisters in prayer. Never feel you can never go back. For once you grow lax and comfortable in your place, you've stopped fighting for it and then the enemy can begin to steal it. This is something that takes constant fight and it takes a steel will. Burn the bridges and then burn the memory of them using the keys and then burn any desire to go back to the old by replacing your desires with My Word. For once you allow yourself to go back at all...it is a downward spiral. Fill every void with Me and don't allow your heart to gather cobwebs for the enemy would like to hide in these places. Clean your heart and empty it out before Me, then when the sore testing comes around you will have no corner hidden from Me for you to hide in. Bare all and always take from My hand what I give you. There's nothing that can ensure that you won't give up, expect what has been instructed you in the reams and reams of Word. Stay faithful by never allowing self-pity to strangle you for too long. Because once self-pity takes hold you begin to look for things that shouldn't be yours... whenever self-pity begins to come forward remember the lost. Remember the missionaries and remember Me. Remember what we gave and how we are depending on you to carry the torch to the end. The baton is being passed to you... you can't sit in the pools of selfishness and self-pity wishing for things you don't really need or that wouldn't help you in your mission anyway. The keys of staying called out. It's one thing to be called out, but it's another thing to stay called out till your last breath. There are so many so things that can pull your heart and mind away, but there is really one enemy and that is the enemy who seeks to empty you of the Life blood...once they can empty you they can pour in their substance of darkness. Don't anything take you away from My Word. No matter how you feel read and pour into your heart My Word and if you really want to stay faithful tell Me so, in the desperateness of a heart that is losing what it really, really wants. If you feel your heart drifting and the brakes are broken...beg Me in desperate crying to preserve the flame and I will see to it that the oceans of cold water all around you will not put it out. Let your wandering heart to cry to Me... even the faintest whisper can be filled with desperation. I promise to always bring you back if you don't stop praying, if you don't stop trying to make the Word the most important again. There is pain and there is forsaking but they are nothing to take you away if you are determined to stay no matter what I take from you. That is the power of your free choice... you can't be defeated against your will. When someone is defeated they willingly succumbed to the enemy. You have power to win if you want to win. If you really want to make it you can. Stoke and ever preserve that flame of desire for that is the beginning of the end if you allow your desire for Me to be replaced with desire for the world. Please always want Me and I will keep you here close to Me. Yes, you will want other things and you will stray, but continue wanting Me and I will lead your heart back to Me. I will be faithful and darling I will make this a happy story...I will, with your yielded heart, make the ending a happy one. I love you

"Be not afraid, only believe."--Mk.5:36b

Jesus: Whatever I have given you, wherever I have placed you I expect you to take My Words and follow faithfully. The mind and the enemy will have a lot to say and you may find it an uphill climb just trying to obey My instructions. Everything in your flesh and carnal mind will oppose to My ways. The reason for this is because My way is the way of unselfishness and that usually means death to that mind and flesh. It doesn’t really matter how many miracles you see or how many supernatural things you experience. The mind has a way of forgetting and looking at the impossibility of the situation before it. Because it feels it is too hard, it doesn’t want to believe; it wants to escape. Your flesh doesn’t want to go through the pain of giving up all it has ever wanted, so it says it is not true, it has to be lie. Over and over it goes through your mind: “what if we are wrong?” Not taking into account your whole life and everything you have seen and been through as a disciple. The flesh wants to escape the death, the pain and just get out of from under the pressure of the life I have asked you to live. But again, My darling, you need to look these attacks in the face and acknowledge that they stand in your way. Yes, you need to push the boat away where all your dreams are and accept these My fiery Words. Take them into your bosom now and let them burn away all that stands between us. Stand here with Me on the shore and let them sail away 27th January I'm standing on the beach and there's a boat that is preparing to take off to sea. It's like they need my permission to go…I feel the pressure in my chest like I just can't let them go. I can't watch their ship sail away, away from me forever. I feel His Presence behind me and I let a tear fall down my cheek… Goodbye it has to be and I give the boat a push with both hands and I feel the wind pick up and catch the sails…pulling it away. Farther and farther the wind and sea take it. I sit down on the shore and watch—letting go, finally saying goodbye to what could have been mine. Jesus, hold to me now.

Prophecy continues: Yes, if you truly let go the unbelief and fears will go as well. Because then I can fully embrace you; let go of the life that you think would have made you happier than what I have given you. You see having all this stuff on the shore keeps you from pulling yourself away to go into the deep waters. I'm not staying here, so you are either coming with Me or you are going to cry for your boat of all that I have asked you to forsake to come back for you and be assured that if you do that they will come and take you so far away from the Water of My Word…deep into the world and away from your spirit's only Life-Force.
You said you wanted this Pearl. Only deep-water swimmers even catch a glimpse of these beauteous pearls. These are the pearls of great price. And only those are willing to lose sight of the shore and the land and everything they have ever known to dive deep, deep with Me, until there are lost in My limitless ocean. Then day by day I will nourish them and all they will know is Me and My Words. The world and the land people become strange to them…it is to these that I give My precious Pearls.

Come away from the shore and leave it and be completely different from this world. Completely other-worldly and when you come Home to Me you will find yourself fitting in and everything that you let go of on this side was not at all desirable Here.

God has not given you a life in order that you might throw it away, that you might cast it aside, that you might trade it for another which you find more fashionable, more appealing, more enticing. God has given you your life, and He intends for you to ask Him what He would have you do with it. He would have you live your life as He has planned for you to live it--for in doing this, He is able to fulfill your every wish and desire. He is able to bring happiness and joy into your life. (Cry of the Harvest [#007])

It was still, and it was small, but crystal clear, as He said to Me, "Son, I am fighting for You, that Your faith fail not." That is all I heard, in one distinct moment, and that voice gave Me the courage to carry on.
As I heard His voice, I fell to My knees and I cried out with the loudest cries I ever uttered in My entire life until that time! I fell down weeping and crying and pleading to My Father with all that was within Me! I fell down in utter desperation and asked Him to please deliver Me from these attacks of doubts that were plaguing Me on every side.
I made a decision, and that decision was that I wanted to fight! I wanted to go for it! I wanted to stand! I wanted deliverance! Up until that time, I was on the brink. Up until that time I was still in the valley of decision. I hadn't sinned yet, because I hadn't decided, so Satan was trying hard to sway Me. He fought hard to win Me. Yes, he wanted to convert Me.
But in that moment, when I cried out for help with all that was within Me, it was done. I made the decision to say yes. I cried out to My Father with strong tongues and pleading, saying, "Deliver Me this day! Fill Me with Your power, that I may fight, that I may stand strong in Your might and be delivered! I don't want this way! I don't accept these doubts! Give Me Your strength, and take them away!"

It was from that desperation, from that decision to yield My all, from that plea for deliverance that My eyes were opened. It was from that deliverance that I was able to find renewed strength, because My Father heard and He answered. My Father was there all the time. He was waiting and ready, but I had to decide. I had to choose. I had to reach out and receive help from His hand. It was from that deliverance that there came the words, "Get thee hence, Satan! Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and Him only shalt thou serve!" As soon as I called on My Father to help Me, in that instant I was able to avail Myself of the truth of His promise.

(Crisis of Faith!--More on Doubts! Part 1 [#3088])

Doubt sees the obstacles,
Faith sees the way!
Doubt sees the darkest night
Faith sees the day!
Doubt dreads to take a step
Faith soars on high!
Doubt questions, "Who believes?"
Faith answers, "I!"

(Faith & Trust [#031])

If this is the truth …give it everything you have…if you believe then live it and don't go back because of pain and difficulty, even regret and loss…go on if this is indeed the TRUTH…

I see You standing there in the sea, up to Your waist in the beautiful blue waters…You beckon to me as they swirl about You. I can feel the sand beneath my feet and I'm truly afraid of losing that contact. You are so beautiful…I look at You; Your gentle smile and eyes piercing my very soul. Everything about You so perfect and mystical, and yet I am afraid of You. Everything behind me is known to me and I am used to everything about it. You keep beckoning and I want to go with You; I want to leave this world and follow You, but I feel chained and bound. Please, please save me from who I am and from this bondage. Pull me away no matter how much it hurts…pull me out into DEEP WATER.
The Water 1ST January 2021
I have come to this place in my life
I'm full but I've not satisfied
This longing to have more of You
I can feel it my heart is convinced

I'm thirsty my soul can't be quenched
You already know this but still
Come and do whatever You want to

I'm standing knee deep
But I'm out where I've never been
I feel you coming
And I hear Your voice on the wind

Would You come and tear down the boxes
That I have tried to put You in
Let love come teach me who You are again

Take me back to the place
Where my heart was only about You
And all I wanted was just to be with You
Come and do whatever You want to

Further and further
My heart moves away from the shore
Whatever it looks like
Whatever may come I am Yours
Further and further
My heart moves away from the shore

Whatever it looks like
Whatever may come I am Yours

Then You crash over me and
I've lost control but I'm free
I'm going under, I'm in over my head
And You crash over me
I'm where You want me to be
I'm going under, I'm in over my head
Whether I sink, whether I swim
It makes no difference
When I'm beautifully in over my head

Whether I sink, whether I swim
It makes no difference
When I'm beautifully in over my head
I'm beautifully in over my head
I'm beautifully in over my head

1st of January 2021 Let Me wash through you like water. Over you, through you, and in you, I rush into you... washing away the past year. All the filth, blood and scars. Today you are a new being, I remake your heart and give you My heart. I am healing; I am refreshing; I am life. Feel Me I am water, I am all around you. Swim in Me. Don't be afraid I am rising up past your neck and your feet are losing touch with the ground…let go. My level is rising; I am coming up going over your mouth and your eyes and over your head. Are you afraid of drowning? Beloved open your eyes, open your mouth and let Me pour into you. Into your lungs, into your very heart. I won't suffocate you, you might feel like you're dying for a bit, but I promise this will make you more alive than ever. Drink Me and absorb My refreshing streams. Embrace the waters going over your head. Embrace the helplessness of the feeling of just floating in My water. Drink, just drink Me and that in itself will give restore your life and give you strength.

And immediately Jesus stretched forth
