

PSA.34:5 They looked unto Him, and were lightened

“The Light of the Body is the Color”.

(JAN 5, 2024 The World Already Worships the Beast)

I will do it through you. I will shine through you. The gold shall come forth out of your mouth, and through your eyes, and through your fingertips, and through your steps. And My golden Words, My golden love, shall do the miracles.

(From Jesus with Love 1)

Bride: My hands are reaching for You, Jesus.

The desire of my heart and the color of my life is You.

Jesus: No one can take you away...I am taking you to faraway places and enlightening the dark spaces of your life. I am removing the dark covering and I am painting you with New Colors. I am filling You with Me and darling you are shinning with My Beauty.

These are the colours that stand to give Me glory. Look at My darling Blue Angels; atop their heads shines the Pure Gold that is tried in the fire and they shine as they were transparent glass. Darling, I say believe, and though you don't understand really, yield to the power pulling you closer and closer to the power of the keys... and you will be drawn irresistibly into our arms (Blue and Gold)

This color is the color of complete submission, because there is nothing in us but His power. We're empty, and this is the manifestation of being empty of self. Thus we choose to be seen by you in this form. Upon our heads is His glorious golden light and running all throughout our being is the (Blue) power of God. (The Blue Key)

Do you know all this frequency stuff is related to seeing? In Hebrew the word for "color" is the same word for "eye". Satan has rendered the world color blind and has made their world all dark and shadowy. Now they have no choice but to be led around by the hand, his hand. The fake light, the fake Lucifer, with his fake embedded crystals and pipes, fake color, fake music, as the fake Pied Piper, he is leading the blind into the pit –blind Satan, leading his blind followers to Hell.

Now what's really amazing about that verse, "The light of the body is the eye" is this: The word for color in Hebrew is eye. Right there is Matthew 6:19-24 it is saying "The light of the body is the color". What's our number? 6.66 What color does it correspond with? "Blue".

"Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye(color) be single, thy whole body shall be full of light. But if thine eye (color) be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

(The Frequency of The Blue Key -Part Six-)

Matthew 6:22 "The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light. Clear, Blue Angel speaking: You are that beam of light that Satan is trying to bend. With all that is in him, all his dark and evil powers, he must stop you, and you, with all your powers of light, must not let him. As I said earlier, you have the training and the weapons to win this war. You must use this time with us in Space City to become fully aware of the raging spiritual warfare that surrounds you. (The Diminishing World of Self)

Saramay:

Call on the keys of Blue and Gold and remember your life as it was and that your heart wasn't meant for this world.

The Light of the body is Color. You can see this clearly in me and how I reflect the very Majesty of Jesus. You look at me and the beauty of God hits you... because I look only His way so He fills me with the higher frequencies. What colors you reflect, shows how much light you have allowed inside. This Earth is in the dark and when Jesus looks down into hearts of men He sees the dark colors and low frequencies... only very few shine bright in His eyes. That's why it's so important to stay apart from the world: because if the light that is in you be darkness...how great is that darkness? Once you look away from us and our purity, the world will begin to color you. You start to lose the blue and the gold as you drift towards what the flesh so craves. Everyone is yielding to one or the other sides and the more one yields to Him the more they can make this world a little brighter. That's really His goal: to make this world bright again, to make it beautiful again and that it might give Glory to God and not the Red Dragon. Right now this dark world pretty much glorifies Satan. That's why you are so hated by this devil because you are on the opposite side of the color spectrum. You shine with Colors that for him are a fire that burn and torment him. They are like a little bit of Heaven right there on Earth. You have let Heaven's Colors of Blue and Gold come in and fill your eyes, so you see the world through our eyes: dark and sickly ... don't give up that clarity for the lusts of this carnal world, so that you are no longer a testimony of Heaven's love, but a reproach. Every time you take in a little something of this world it colors you. And you can take in from this world just by dwelling on the wrong things. Like wanting more and better things in the flesh and desiring these things of the world. It's extremely hard to be only Heaven's Colors, like me...some in Heaven haven't even achieved this level--not that they have the world's colors, but even they have a little bit of self there and that's not bright like Jesus... it can't be, for you are the creature and He is the Creator. His Light outshines all and that's what I want. But right now you are trying to keep the lower colors of the world off you and that in itself is a feat, but NOT impossible. Come near me and I will give you what I have: Blue and Gold. LIFE and PURITY. I will replace the darkness in you with light as you pull away from your own way. If every time you feel that pull you call on the keys, then you will be able to escape...but I warn you the tentacles of darkness are impossible to get off unless you throw yourself these Keys. It's an uphill climb and you can be sure that millions of things are desperately trying to pull you down into the morass so you can be darkened like mostly everybody else...but if you stay here on the cliff face and resist all the carnal mind and the cries of the world that you are insane for believing in Colors like Blue and Gold and Purple and even the Light which created this Earth you all live in...which are so far above their comprehension. You simply have to choose what you want to live for. What are you going to put your faith in? The Millions? Or This One Voice that calls you away from the multitude and up to the Heavens where real Magic and Beauty are.

It's all so hard to believe sometimes, Saramay...

Of course, you think you can stroll effortlessly into His court, into and through the portal that leads to Our world without anyone chasing after you and attacking you? There will be so many voices telling you that you are dreaming... dreaming? If you are dreaming, then let's dream deeply, so His love can take us away from reality so-called. Close your eyes then and dream. Close your eyes to this world and finally you'll be able to see into ours. Close your eyes and I'll lead you into places where your spirit is finally able to breathe and break free. The light of the body is also the eye, so keep your eye on God's Eyes--Keyes and your whole body shall be filled with Light.

But if your color be evil, your whole body shall be filled with darkness...

Note: In remembering dreams that others and I have had, red light had been present when the enemy was there or someone was being tempted by him.

THE GOLDEN POND PORTAL DREAM

Submitted by Esteban

02-January-2024

And for you, My band of lovers, I've reserved a special seating area. It is sort of like a round table that has in the middle a golden pond. The liquid inside is a new juice, or a new drink with a sticky feeling when touched. It's sweet, but not like honey even though it looks like it. You are all sitting on top of the table. Some of you choose to lie down and others put their feet inside the pond while sitting on the edge.

But there is a small group that realizes that it's a swimming pool and takes off their old dirty clothes and dives into the realm. I say the "realm" because this water is more than just a delicious & refreshing liquid; it's a portal. You see, if you drink, it will give you new life and energy. But if you submit to it by submerging yourself in it, you will see the other side and become one with it --and thus become part of the gold of the crown of the blue angel. You shall become part of the godhead, the part where the power begins to flow into their beings.

The entrance is a beautiful color that springs out of the star above their head.

"If you close the eye of man and open the hidden eye, you will see the other side of the spectrum of life and comprehend what I'm teaching you with this experience"(End of Message)

January 22, 2024

Quote: If you wish to be powerful conduits of My Spirit, if you wish to turn this world right-side up, if you wish to become full-time disciples whose wish is My command, then you cannot allow the Enemy's evil influence to steal away what is rightfully yours in the truth of the Words of David.

Jesus: The light of the body is the eye... What light is in your eye? What color does yours reflect? Are you reflecting Satan's red light, or beaming out My blue light? Is your system corrupted with the enemy's up-side-down frequency and your mind polluted with his red color, or have you been filling your heart with the blue waters of My Words? His words are everywhere now. The world is turned over to him. Just as when all sound gets muffled when you go under water, so in the same way must you, My COD, dive deep into the blue frequency waters of My Words. My waters will shut out the red frequency of the enemy that is broadcasting all the time. But just as with water in your world, the deeper you go, the less you can hear, so too must you, My loves, go deeper, deeper, deeper into this golden pool of blue water. Do not fear that you will drown. The death you feel is only the death of self and the earthly man. As you die, I come in. My water will fill your empty frame and you will become one with My blue frequency. (DAVID)

From Jesus With Love

“The Enemy goes about as a roaring lion, seeking whom of the children of David he may devour and turn away from their faith. Those who are tempted with his doubts must cry out desperately to Me and cling to My Word and receive of My Spirit to be washed and cleansed and kept from the lies of the Enemy. I will keep them, and not one of My children will be lost if they cry out desperately to Me. For I am able to deliver them from the doubts and the power that the Enemy wields.

But those who choose not to cry out to Me, but prefer to go their own way and to live their own lives according to their own plan, and choose to reject My Words and the truth that has been given to them by the Light of Israel, and choose not to uphold the standard of their Father David and of My Word and to teach it unto their children and to speak of it in the gates and to raise it high and proclaim it and be proud to be part of the Endtime army of David—these will grow weaker and weaker, and soon will not fight with David’s mighty men. For how can they fight with David’s mighty men except they wear his colors and carry his banner and display his symbol, and that for which the (Children of David) stands and has been anointed for, to carry the Endtime message to the world?

For you are a peculiar people and a chosen few through whom I have chosen to work and whom I can trust with My messages. There are few of My children in the world who continue to have unfailing faith in My fresh new voice, but you have been yielded and open and receptive and willing to follow Me wherever I go. Such faith have you received from your Father David, who was willing to receive My Endtime message and My anointing upon his life as the Endtime prophet, and continued to follow Me wherever I led, every day of his life. You will receive this same anointing if you continue by faith, not yielding your crown to the Enemy.

You stand at the gate of halfway-to-Heaven land, and you experience its magic, but you must now come in deeper. It must be each one’s personal choice and faith to step through the thin veil of shimmering glass and enter the portal. There is no turning back; this is what lies ahead upon the road for all My pilgrims as they make their way to that Great City, the City of Light, My Celestial City. This is the high road, and all who choose to forsake their ways to take up Mine may pass through this last gate into halfway-to-Heaven land.

Blue Angel: The keys aren't for filling your need-- they are for the fulfilling of the Lord's desires. It's not about what you want and need, but it's very much about changing your desires, so they can fit with the Lord's. You must ask for this. It means sacrificing even your secret dreams, so the Lord's dreams and desires can fill every last part of you.

This is full possession: when you let go of the flesh and all its dreams and revel in the Lord's colors.
(Blue and Gold)

You think you see colors now. You wait until the real colors come, the heavenly colors. Now we see the fake greens and blues of this world. The trees are probably pretty close to the real thing. They are an “alive green.” The sky on a clear day is an “alive blue.” But look at that green cup there; it’s a dead green. Look into someone’s eyes, whether they be green, blue or brown, and then compare them with the fake colors of man.

“In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God *moved upon the face of the waters. And God said, Let there be light: and there was light.” (Genesis 1:1-3) And what did God say? Let there be light. Without light nothing would have moved, and light, you could say, rides on frequency and wavelength. (The Frequency of The Blue Key -Part Three-)

"In this land there lived a great lord, who had great, magical powers. He had created the land and all that was in it. But his greatest achievement was the creation of light. The light, he proclaimed, would be above all, and over all. It would be everywhere. This light had power to create magical reflections called color. It fell upon everything he had formed--hills and mountains, lakes and oceans, trees and flowers; each was gifted with at least one of the endless hues of color that light could create.

"This lord was greatly pleased with his creation, and bequeathed it to his many children as their inheritance, to live in and enjoy. And so his children lived, walking in the beauty of the colors all about them. Wherever they looked, whenever they would see the colors, they would be reminded of the great power of the light, and remember their father who had created it.

(Seven Keys, The--Denith's Story [#021])

GEN.1:3 Then God said, "Let there be light"; and there was light.

GEN.1:4 And God saw the light, that it was good; and God divided the light from the darkness.

I call on the Blue key to light this dark way...let its blue light shine and make this dark world turn –magical. You are Magic in my life and what makes this life become something beautiful. Without You it's a dry existence; without You yes there's no point in living...there's nothing here for me, but with You suddenly there's light, suddenly there's beauty and color and a passion to fight and die for Your cause. This earth and its people do a vain thing if they don't include You. It's just nothing; it's naught and vain if You are not there to light up the world. We are all blinding walking around doing nothing if You are not the center of our thoughts and motives. I don't want to live a meaningless life; i don't want to walk in the dark. No matter what the pain and the discomfort i want to try to follow Your path and be close to You. Oh how i long to be close to You. Without You it is like living in the dark and not seeing anything or being aware of anything, but just stumbling around trying to survive.

I want to walk in the Light

PSA.13:3 Consider and hear me, O LORD my God: lighten mine eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death;

Jesus:) As the world grows darker, it is more important than ever for My children to be beacons of light, and the only way that you're going to be able to do this is if you shine with the light of My Spirit and truth and Word and love.

This is not something that can be generated from within yourselves. It has to come from My Spirit and be channeled through your spirits. Your spirits have to be fresh and clean, open, free from sin--not in the sense of being perfect, but in the sense of having regular cleansing in the spirit. You need a strong and healthy connection with Me in order to be the beacons of light that I have called you to be today, and even more so in the future.

You also need to be the warriors of the spirit that will be needed, and thus you need to be very adept in your use of the spiritual weapons. You need to tap into My power through praise, through proactive prayer, through intercessory prayer. So much is going to be required of you as you step into the future that I have ordained for you. (Beyond Duty, Part 1 [#3749])

Thank you, My loves, for coming to Me. Thank you for being My willing brides. Thank you for marrying yourself to Me. Thank you for accepting My love, for accepting the rod of My Spirit. Thank you for desiring My seeds, for sucking them, for wanting them, for wanting Me with such passion and desire and longing. I've promised that when you desire Me with your whole heart, you'll have all of Me. When you cast aside the things that don't satisfy, the things that have not made you happy, and you look only to Me, I will fill you with all of Me. I will give you all of Me.

105. Doesn't it feel good to be called Mrs. Jesus? Doesn't it feel good to be My bride? Isn't it wonderful? I love the way you love Me! I love that you're young and exciting and hot and passionate. Aren't you happy that I've called you to be My new brides, My new church, those who are ever young and lively in Me, no matter what their age in the flesh? Would you want to be part of the old church, the dead, the lukewarm? Isn't it wonderful to have this wonderful relationship--this hot, sexy relationship with Me? Who would want anything else?

106. I've not called you to be My mistresses or My secret lovers. I'm proud of our relationship. I speak plainly that I married Myself to you and you to Me, that I've chosen you and you've chosen Me. You have accepted to be My brides--My young, new, exciting, hot, wild and free brides. Is it anything to be embarrassed about or ashamed of?

107. Are the wives of important men in the world and those who rule the world ashamed to be married to their husbands? Are they embarrassed to be the wife of a president, prime minister or king? No more should you be embarrassed to be married openly to Me, to be called Mrs. Jesus.

108. You are My brides, and I want to show you off to the world. I want to let your light shine. How sad that the whole world is flooded with darkness and lies, and there are so few of My children to be lights in comparison to the great darkness. I send you forth to be My light, the light of the world. Your light will not be hid. It will shine brightly. This light comes not from yourself. It comes from being married to Me, from being My bride and loving Me.

109. My seeds are magical. They are luminescent seeds--glowing, shining and vivid. When you take them in, they shine. They can't be hidden. They become part of you, and they glow. They glow in the dark. The more seeds that you receive, the more you'll shine--the more you will glow in the dark.

110. So take hold of My magic rod and let Me pump you with My golden magic seeds. Let Me fill you with light. Let Me pump you with the spire of My Spirit and spurt My seeds into you. Let Me fill you to overflowing. I have so much more I want to give you--more and more and more! I want to love you more! I can't get enough of you! Let Me love you. Let Me love you. Let Me love you. (End of message from Jesus.)

111. (Vision:) I saw Jesus. He was smiling so big and happy. His robes and garments were open and pulled back so that you could see all of Him. He was reaching out to us, calling us, His Bride, to come sit on His lap. He kissed us and blessed us, like in the consecration ceremony, only rather than being down on our knees, we were sitting on His lap, straddling Him, with our face to His and kind of leaning down on His shoulder.

112. After He blessed and anointed and kissed us, we then went out into the world, which was pretty much in total darkness. But although there was darkness all around us, we were glowing and giving off light. It's not that we were glowing ourselves, though it did seem that our faces and heads were shining brightly. But not only were our faces shining, we were also kind of transparent, and inside of us could be seen the Lord's golden, glowing seeds, moving around in our hearts and bodies and giving off light. They were fluorescent--not a weird, bright fluorescent color, but luminescent in the sense that they were glowing.

113. We were happy and proud to be carrying the Lord's seeds inside us, and we went about our business of letting our lights shine in the darkness. The feeling I had was that the glow of the seeds would get fainter after a while, and we would go back to the Lord, Who was always there, waiting for us to come back and get filled up again with His powerfully glowing seeds of light. We could always come back whenever we wanted to or needed to. (End of vision.)

Jesus:) They shall shine brightly with My love and ... they shall be beacons in all the land, beacons of My love in the time of darkness when the world is so dark.... My beacons shall be deep wells of love, and deep wells of light, and deep wells of encouragement, for they shall be filled with Me because they have loved Me and they have lain in the bed of love and they have been empowered by My seeds

(Our Patient Lover: Questions and Answers on Loving Jesus [#3559])

26. (Mama:) When you keep your face--your crystal--facing the light, then you're pulled in closer and you see things as the Lord sees them. You're able to receive the Lord's Words, His truth, and you're fed and grow thereby. But if you begin to listen to the Enemy, whether outright or when he cleverly packages his message in the deceptive covering of a friend telling you about some of his bad experiences, sharing his reasoning with you, or complaining about his gripes, and tearing down the Word or Family leadership, then your face begins to turn toward the darkness. And as Dad brought out, when a crystal turns even a bit toward the darkness, then the darkness has some power over it, and you can be pulled further and further into the darkness. (None Of These Things Move Me)

I am joy when all is sadness. I am light when all is darkness. I am hope when all is despair.
I am peace when there is fear all around.

So I call you, My children, to be a light amongst all this darkness(China's Hour! [#3273])

This collage is ... meant to be held up to the window of My light. My light will shine through the stained glass window of your shattered pieces, revealing beautiful colors, enhancing depth, adding light and beauty to the lives of those who walk in your footsteps.

(Realities! [#3790])

Fear not, I say, fear not. Look not to the darkness, but turn your faces to the light. Turn your face unto Me to find the strength which ye need to fight this battle. Fear not when the darkness seems to be pressing down upon you, and battle after battle after battle comes your way. But lift up your eyes and look unto Me from whence cometh your strength and I will empower you for the battle. Lift up your eyes and look up and find your strength in Me.

(Persecution Prophecies-Part 4 [#223])

July 5th 2023 In these days the physical circumstances can seem so dismal and repetitive and just plain neverending. But I am working something special within your spirit. And I want you to learn to disconnect with your physical situation and connect with My Spirit. It's true, it's too difficult to be living in the flesh... that's why I say you must live in the spirit world. You can't be living in the flesh... it's getting too dark. Walk into My light and visit Me. Let My Spirit touch yours and what was once dark will brighten. Live in the Light, darling, and when the darkness pulls on you turn to the keys and revel in their beautiful light. Everything in the physical right now looks and feels the same, and it's difficult to be happy all the time when you feel like your life is going nowhere... that's why I say don't look to your circumstances, but look to Me. Look into My Word and bury yourself within My Spirit and there will you see the way even if there seems to be no way at all. I am the Light in this dark world and unless you look at Me the dark depression will eat you up...the wondering, the hoping and the wishing things could be different will swallow you up. I'm asking you to not even try to get satisfaction from your physical circumstances, but to just look to Me. Don't worry about your life... It's not yours anyway and you have no control over it. The enemy wants to pull you into the dark of " same thing every day. So weary, so sick of fighting...so TIRED." And it's true that if you dwell on that side everything is depressing, but that's why I'm saying LIVE, BREATHE, DWELL IN My light. Where you can at last see things as I do. Where things can make more sense and where there is healing, peace and understanding or at least acceptance of what I am doing in your life. In the light you don't have to feel confused and wonder why you are wasting away here... you look at Me and peace fills you. I'm in control and you are in My highest will. I adore you. You live in the light through prayer and through praising Me when the despair starts encroaching on your mind and spirit. Thank Me for being in control and don't wander into the dark of doubts and fears of the enemy.

Keys of Beautiful Light...

Keys of HOLDING ON

Keys of Your strength

170. Suddenly I hear her voice again in my head, "This is the 'Pavilion of Renewal.'" Around me are many ministering spirits; others weary like me are being renewed by them. The atmosphere is so peaceful and uplifting. If I had the strength I would reach out my hands and feel it, but my arms are weary.

171. Silky drapes seem to be the main decoration in this room. They have sparkles woven into the fabric--but it's not really a fabric, for I sense that it's pulsating. These many drapes that hang from every pillar create the setting; they alter the environment. To me they seem alive.

172. Oh, one just changed color--from a vibrant white to a lavender hue--and now it has faded into a mild blue. Slowly the color composes into a dark blue and begins morphing into a pastel green. There's no wind here, but they sway as if caught and enticed by the breeze. It's this unusual display that causes me to believe they're alive. I watch another one of these mystical drapes display variant colors once more, only this time I see the person beneath them. It's not like they're covered by these drapes, but more like the pavilion has been divided into various rooms, and these awesome drapes are used as the separation, or rather what defines the room.

173. Once again I look at the person within this other section, and I see him being revitalized. It's like the drapes and the colors they change into are a healing process to the soul of whoever the person is. I get the impression that for each person the drapes will use a color combination in connection with what their needs are. I suppose this is sort of like the healing power of colors. There are colors I have never seen before, that I can't begin to describe. It's so awesome!

(Issues, Part 11 [#3413])

(Jesus speaking:) The Heavens declare My glory and the firmament displays My handiwork! Have I not set My bow of many colors in the sky as a sign of My promise to mankind that I will no longer destroy the Earth by the deep waters? Learn of Me, therefore, the mystery of this magical spectrum of Heavenly hue, for within this archway of color I open up to you the world of coloronics

All you have to do is continue to bathe in My sunshine, keep your face turned toward Me, keep looking to Me, and you'll reflect My light. I will shine My Heavenly hues down upon you and you'll glow with the power of Heaven and shine with the colors of the rainbow

My Heavenly colors are coloring the world! And in that soon-coming day when I return in all My power and glory, every knee will bow. For when they see Me coming in the clouds, I will be riding on the power behind the rainbow! Phooey on the fireworks of man! In that day all the world will marvel after the colorworks of Heaven!--My Heavenly coloronics in full display--shining brightly for all to see!

(End of message from Jesus.)

(Color Power)

Pavilion of the Power of God!

MB: Can you remember the vision about the Pavilion of the Power of God that the Blue Angles are the protectors of? That vision was pretty much our first encounter with the Blue angels. Well, in the vision, it talks about a purple cloud. Here is a very small excerpt from that vision.

"The plasma stream begins from a cone-shaped base in the floor, which is concave and sweeps down from the enclosing wall to this cone. The cone doesn't have a top. The plasma shoots straight up in a gentle flow. As I follow it, I see that it's supporting something--another cone-shaped object, made of the same material as the base wall and also blue in color. Around the cone/ring are women's faces and upper torsos with their hands outstretched as if bearing this object on their backs. Following the stream up through the ring, I see that there are numerous other rings in line with this flow, all with the same faces on them, all blue in color. The energy stream goes straight up, as if these rings were its conduit, and my eyes follow its flow till I can't see any more. Around the conduit is a cloud of deep purple and blue, almost like a gas, but it swirls around and around, forming a cone shape as it ascends. This must go for miles, because even though it's straight up, I can't see the end of it. I'm now standing outside the clouds and cone. Something that's very strange is that when I was nearer the cone, I was aware of the presence of others around me, but they seemed to be outside these clouds. It seemed that it was some sort of a library, as I got a faint picture of a circular hallway with shelves and inlets around this central power source. The clouds seem to be a way of shielding whoever goes to this library from the energy's flow. You can't see it from inside the building, only if you're inside the actual power generator part. (More on the Keys Part 3)

The Color Blue stands for Spirit, for deepness, and for the Word of God. It is also the color of wisdom and mystery. Wide as the boundless sky and mysterious as the ocean, Jesus is so immense. There is so much to discover...

"If you believe that I can change everything, if you believe that the Blue Keys work, if you believe that the golden Key of David can open all doors, then open it by your obedience to the Words that I give you through the Old Wine of David's letters and the New Wine that tells you in more detail how these things will come to pass."

The Blue Key Shields

The enemy is trying to mop up the last pockets of resistance there in the physical world, so a lot of pressure and attention is being brought to bear on you all. Those Keys you've been learning to wield are the vital element in keeping the bubble of protection strong around you and your loved ones. As the battle rages, the Keys are the wall that stop those darts and fireballs of Satan from delivering a deadly blow. Keep up your Blue Key shields beloved. They are your only protection, and whilst the enemy's darts cannot enter, your weapons can fire right through the Key-empowered force field and dissipate any defense shields he has. He may have upped the ante, but I have also, and some of the weapons and defense mechanisms I've created since he's been "locked out of the know", he cannot even begin to copy or comprehend."

Sapphires and our Blue Key.

MB: Because Sapphires are blue and oft mentioned in the Bible, I conducted a search on this special crystal and this is what was found.

Note from Internet of things: The sapphire is considered the gemstone of the soul. Its blue color is reminiscent of the sky and represents the purity of the soul. (Mystical Bible Blog Pages, John Weaver)

(Blue Angel:) Come... Deeper into the Pavilions of the Power of God. Stand no longer in the outer court, come deeper. Take my hand, and come... Do you know what the purple cloud is for? It is a transporter of the Spirit Realm. Read in the Words of God and see. For by a cloud were the children of Israel led through the wilderness, by a cloud does the Chariot of God fly, and by a cloud did our Lover ascend to the Spirit Realm.

4. (Vision:) I see Jesus and a beautiful girl...

5. They're standing before a door, and I see a purple sparkling mist begin to descend, almost as though there were a vent above them. Together they breathe in the mist, and as they do so, more begins to flow down upon them.

6. (Jesus:) Do you sense it? The earthly life is diminishing around us, and now with our eyes closed we can't be distracted by anything in our surroundings. Just continue to take in this gentle mist, because it's changing you and preparing you for this trip I want to take you on.

7. The sensations are rising within us and you begin to feel lighter with every breath. With each breath, you're becoming increasingly detached from yourself and the world that surrounds you. I'm freeing you from your physical boundaries.

(Art Of Dependence, The - A Spirit Trip [#3619]) (The Bride and the Blue Angel)

"AND THE FOUNDATIONS OF THE WALL OF THE CITY WERE GARNISHED WITH ALL MANNER OF PRECIOUS STONES: The first foundation was jasper."—That's diamond! "The second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony (sparkling quartz); the fourth, an emerald; the fifth, sardonyx (striped onyx); the sixth, sardius (ruby); the seventh, chrysolite (olivine); the eighth, beryl (magic crystal aquamarine); the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus (green emerald or jade); the eleventh, a jacinth (amber); the twelfth, an amethyst (clear purple quartz)."

MB: I believe the importance of each stone has something to do with the order they are laid out in. From the top of the wall, the first is royal purple, and then gold. From the bottom the first is diamond, then sapphire. So you have diamond and royal purple in the same position and you have sapphire (blue) and amber (gold) in the same position. Or perhaps it's the other way around and the diamond is at the top of the wall. The Bible doesn't actually say which direction the foundation is laid. I have a few theories, but I'm not going to share them here. At present I am looking at the paring off of the colors. I do love the idea of the diamond being at the top of the wall, as it would represent the white light of God passing down, instead of up, through the sapphire that would give off the blue frequency of man. Man was given dominion over the Earth and is supposed to shine with God's light, not his own. That is where Satan came in and told man he doesn't need God's light. He has his own from within. A sapphire with no light passing through it is dark.

A sapphire does not have its own light. (Mystical Bible Blog Pages, John Weaver)

I was created a simple being...an empty one. I was created a hungry being and from creation I was brought to the keys or the keys came to me and being empty I embraced them, I received them and they brought me to life. The power is embedded in the very fibre of my being. I breathe the keys and without them I have no being; I have no existence. The power has always been here; God the Father, the Almighty, is the power, and we the vessels display His beauty.

Without the power of the Keys, we are useless things, empty things, like an empty vessel that offers no help to anyone. In our willingness to be filled and to be a display of His power, we became absorbed into it and we are now one with it. (Blue and Gold)

The colour power of Heaven is power to change hearts, power to change minds, power to mend bodies, power to heal, power to bring light and life and hope and joy! (Colour Power)

When someone is willing to suffer and die for the love of God and brethren, I weep, yea I tremor with heart wracking tears. This is love. You wonder what love is? This is love. (Anguish and Love)

Blue angel: the love that compels the heart to give all is what I wish to put within you.

I'm trying, always, to make you see what you could have at His hand-- being a bride...He wants you close, wants to tell you His heart. He's only waiting for you to put out your hand to find His. I'm trying to get you across the gulf, but you have to move with me... you have to seek after it and use every opportunity you can to reach out to me. Remember I'm the door to Him and you must first love me and join hands with me to enter into His deeper Chambers. He wants you to come deeper, so deep, that He can place within you that love...that yearning love, which rules my every step. For this is the love that, when I saw it and tasted it, knew I had to pursue it till I could hold it in my embrace and feel it running through me. You've caught glimpses of it and even, years ago, you saw this love as beautiful colors, some of which man hasn't even seen. This is the love that I speak of which ascends over even the colors of blue and of purple and goes deep, deep--so deep He wishes to take you, if you would be willing to walk away from the these earthly things, that mean nothing when even just catching one glimpse of this love. This is the love that can rise above self. It is even seen in the world when one puts someone else before themselves-- sacrificial love. The highest point of this love that was ever seen on Earth was when He Himself gave His life to save mankind. This is the love that has motivated every deed of true kindness and sacrifice done for another. And this is the love that needs to fill your eyes.

You can't see past the blue and purple... it is too bright that it even appears as darkness...but if you pass through me your blue angel and then the purple cloud you can begin to see this love I speak of and though you and the world has tasted it, I speak of something deeper. It's how the martyrs and righteous men of old were able to transcend their dark circumstances... because of their willingness to step away from themselves and to keep walking forward no matter where it led. Their spirits soared through up to the Heavens and claimed that Love, and He opened Himself to them, giving them every last drop of power they needed to finish their Earthly mission...this is what you need to pass through these last years on the world's History. You need this compelling love that dies again and dies just to please the Bridegroom--just to light up His face. These are the colors that fill the pinnacle of Heaven and that is where you have to find your power to pass over whatever the Lord might ask of you. You don't know what the future holds, and I'm telling you now that nothing else but this inexpressible love will see you through. For this is the most powerful force and to even come near to it, your spirit has to be ready to submit as a Blue angel is submitted so must you learn to be. It's not the attaining, but the searching and the desiring that our Lover so wishes for. As you hunger and thirst for this, you will feel me pulling you deeper, yet deeper up past the comprehension of man to know this love and to indeed see that there's nothing that can be compared to possessing even a small portion of this love. ... follow me and I will lead you to these beautiful places where I made up my mind to never turn back and to keep going in and deeper in to taste and drink more and more of this love...till I am just transparent, ready and cleansed of everything, so filled with Him that I'm washed away and no more. Until you can say, "here I am, fill me with whatever pleases You."

The color power of Heaven is power to change hearts, power to change minds, power to mend bodies, power to heal, power to bring light and life and hope and joy! (Color Power)

Saramay, I'm so human, so so carnal... how can I even grasp such depths... how can even dare to come so near ?

He's looking and looking for willing hearts. He knows that it is impossible to be without fault, for all even those prophets and martyrs who He poured out this love upon were men of like passions and failed at times. But the thirst and the willingness were present within their weak frames. They couldn't be perfect, but they were willing to take the steps that lead close to His heart and when they touched Him, He touched them and gave them that love that burns out all other opposing flames. All fear, all persecution, all forsaking is consumed here in this love. And He's offering it to you... He's inviting you to join hands with me His Blue angel and to discover this love for yourself. All He's asking for exchange is that you leave yourself and this world, so all that you are only looking up and longing at every moment to touch and experience what He has to offer. It can seem like a long way to this pinnacle, and yes the sacrifice is great. I tell no lies--pride of any kind cannot come with you. That is darkness on the other side, with the lowest of frequencies. If you are yielding to pride you can't even approach me, a blue being, because you are on a completely different frequency. I can't even touch you. Your other spirit helpers that will help fight pride can try to be there for you, but me as a blue angel cannot reach your spirit until to turn your heart away from pride and towards the higher frequencies...so as you embrace humility more, the more I can touch you, and you me. I am a gentle spirit and to live with me you must fight pride and your selfish ways. I can't exist with these things, so the more you shun these, the more I want to come near to you and the more I can take you higher and further past the known colors and frequencies...till at last you can revel in this great Love.

Time is running out, that is why I speak to you now. You must take hold of these Keys which are one with Jesus and Jesus is love, which means the keys are love. They are like a piece of that love that you can wield and use to get and reach the Source. That's why the Blue Key is so powerful because it is so near that indescribable Light. Take them and let them pull you away from the Earth. Let the visions of these mystical and magical things take your mind away from this plane so that you only hunger to know more and here at my hand be fed. Be fed at this table and quench your thirst here, so that the enemy won't be able to tempt you with his poison that tears down your spiritual strength. Drink your fill here and live for this time...let it give you the endurance to fight your battles on the physical. Give me your mind and heart to feed while your body does all those necessary physical things. Look upward and little by little you will find yourself being drawn closer and closer to your ultimate goal...THE LOVE OF CHRIST. Their colors dance right now in my eyes... follow me darling.

Don't think about the times when you fall and leave this beauty... you need to learn to get up faster so you don't go all the way down to the lowest frequency and get all messed up, but try hard to grab hold of those keys that are always there as hand-holds when you slip and fall. Grasp them tightly even as the enemy pulls you, and then once you've caught your balance, turn around give him a blast with one of those keys. Now, drive that key to into the cliff face and let's keep going upward. Keeping that constraining love in our eyes... holding to it DESPERATELY. I LOVE YOU. I LOVE YOU.

It's part of the other world. These colors that you're seeing are a glimpse of the other world."

(Return of the Seven Keys, The [#003])

"I never saw the colors until I was given the keys," Denith said.

"Ah, yes ... your keys from the other world. Very few have been blessed enough to be touched by this world, although it is said that to see the colors is a touch of this other world as well.

(Seven Keys, The - Warrior Lord [#022])

These keys--and it is a simple picture--are nothing less and nothing more than the keys to the other world.

They unlock the doors that keep our two worlds apart.

And when these doors opened for you, the power and colors of the other world could flood into your life."

(Seven Keys, The--Denith's Story [#021])

We have been given the keys to understanding this other world through seeing the colors that it is made of!

2017/2018:

Spirit of love

She is real, she is peace, she is My joy she brings down the blanket of My love and causes you to fly high in the spirit. Call on her and she'll bring the wings of faith to lift you in the spirit. If you don't doubt she will give you My joy and peace. She loves and it is she that brings down that warm fuzzy happiness down from My hands into the hearts of many who are comfortless. She is called to love. Call upon her when you need to have more of My heavenly love for others. When you find yourself in despair reach out in praise and you will find her. She has no definite form, but is a spirit of many beautiful colors not known to man. She is very beautiful and is the manifestation of My love; that is how My love is to look upon: many beautiful colors. She will find those who are in sadness and will bring them to My table of peace. As these days of trouble begin she has been pushed away by many. Their hearts harden without her to oil them with My everlasting love.

"Tara is the Queen of Heaven, my love, She is where all this that we see and care about issued from. She is part of the Trinity –Father, Son and Tara, the Holy Mother...the Womb of God...She is incomprehensibly beautiful, very sexy and is love itself. The Light of Tara is irresistible to all those that feel its presence. That is one reason why Satan turns his back on Tara and seeks the darkness. The Light of Tara is predominately blue and gold, but also blended in are all the colors of the rainbow, plus many more that are nonexistent in the material realm. The Light of Tara is music and resonates with all of creation, the planets, stars, the wind, water and the River of Life. It is existence itself.

One day, very soon, Jesus is going to present His brides to Tara, one by one, to ask Her blessing on their union. Oh, what a blessed day that will be. What wonders will issue forth from the Light of the throne of God on that day when all of creation will see the Lamb's wife. What music and colors will be witnessed on that day, It will be as the day of creation, because it will be the day of turning, the beginning of a new era." (Mystical Bible Blog Pages, John Weaver)

This World is in opposition with the personality of God, with His Frequencies. And the Final Key exudes these frequencies. It pulsates with them, and sends them forth—wave after wave, and this world of man twitches and contorts as it makes contact with them. The true World is underneath, dormant. Man, with the help of Satan, has polluted it's surface and covered it with a layer of darkness and the lower frequencies of greed, violence, and the love of self. But this Key is a cleansing agent, as spirits to a wound, as peroxide to an infection. The dark spirits, and the spirits of evil men, are the negatives, and We are the positives. They will resist Us, but they cannot overcome Us. Though the whole world of evil is in agitation, you, the Elect, the 144,000, will be in ecstasy—harmonized to the music of the New Reality, singing as it were a New Song! New Frequencies!(DAVID)

Your blue-frequency key better be on whilst going to sleep and still on when you wake up.

(Crystal Clear:) Well, it has a lot to do with your mind. Your mind is where the battles begin and where deadly combat is waged. So in saying that you should go to bed with the blue key on and wake up with it on its like saying you got to be keeping your mind in the right frequency all the time. To an untrained mind this can seem difficult. To some it can seem impossible or even undesirable. Why is this? It has a lot to do with the heart really. Because it's not impossible with the Lord's help, but it only feels impossible because perhaps you don't desire it enough. When your heart is sitting on the fence the way will seem hard and even impossible simply because you don't want to go that way. Once the choice is made and the heart has let go and yielded to whatever the Lord wants, though the way is still painful, it is made possible through the power of the Lord working through you. You see, there is light and there is darkness. The Lord is the light and we are but his tools to shine through. It's not about us, what we do, and how good we look. Our works are vain and will fade away. He wants to shine through us to show the world what the true light looks like. But we must surrender our will to Him. That is what we are. We are nothing but a glass container. The blue you see is not us, but His Blue frequency flowing through us. So in creating us, He created a need for a container to fill. In truth He needs nothing, or He could choose to need nothing, but He chose to humble himself and need us to be His glass jars to fill so that others could see Him in us. The blue frequency is much like us. As you have heard, everything runs/operates on a frequency. So those things that run on His blue frequency are much like us because if viewed in the eyes of the spirit you would recognize His power, love, truth, wisdom, beauty, and so much more. There was a time when all things were in tune to this frequency. I remember those days. Creation was perfect in His sight, man was young and innocent and all was love and beauty. But then darkness entered into the world. The destroyer came with his lies and his false frequency. To man he strung a tune and turned His blue light into dark red. Day by day this frequency of 666 has been corrupting the world more and more till this day where it is upon every face, every building, every road, and in every corner. There is not much blue left in the world... But to you His Child of David He has drawn back the current and shown His blue light frequency. In your heart's shines the blue light, that is, if you hold tightly to it. You are in the world and most if not all of what you see is on a different frequency. Some darker than others, but next to none on the frequency I have given you. It is your choice whether you will climb higher and stay higher in this blue frequency or you will allow the enemy to drag you down into his lie that is all around you...

(Jesus:) So, to wake up, and to go to sleep with the blue frequency on your heart and mind is firstly a choice of the heart, then a battle of the mind to stay there. But it is your destiny to do so. In each of you I have placed My blue seeds that will be a part of the final blue Key that I am about to send into the millennium where we will bring the world back to the garden, back to the blue frequency. Not just man, but all creation, all things. All those things that were created by the wrong frequency will be done away with and we will start afresh. The world will, for the most part be realigned with My frequency. The frequency of 666 will be no more. All that will be left will be My blue and gold light for all to see. Then the world will be as a blue angel, and all creation will know that I am love and My ways are good. (JAMES)

Clear speaking: So now you see the power of blue and gold...blue of submission coupled with gold power; the power that emits from the Keys of the Kingdom. Both colours must yield to the Master of the Keys; both must seek humility in order to be the conduits of the power they represent.

I want to walk on the symphonies of Your voice that ignites my heart with those beautiful colours of Your love. Change the colour of my heart and make of me a new picture, one that only gives You glory, one that when looked upon only shines with Your beauty and no one sees anything but You.(Blue and Gold)

(Jesus:)"The Light of the body is the eye, or color. Therefore, if thy eye(color) be single, thy whole body will be filled with Light"

"You mean this is what it looks like to be..."

"When your eye is single, when all you want, dream, and love is Me. When I am your only Ray of Light, then the prism of your soul can refract My full color spectrum. You become beings of light."

"This is the color of possession, though there are varying hues to each person's soul. Yours is golden, with tinges of blue and white. You share this hue with others, namely in the Warrior band. But there are other 'shades of the soul'. These are your colors, and this is what you look like in the Spirit—the high, high Spirit. You are a Star, shining in the Heavens. And I am your center. My golden seeds, My Words, are your life force, and in your veins runs the pure energy of the Generators. You are white because I have washed you clean, no more of your old self. When you return to My arms you will have accomplished your mission, and you will don your robes of light once more. Cherish this vision I have given you. This is but a glimpse into the glories I have stored up for you. Look to the future, your future, that I have reserved for you, My precious Warrior band. And hold My Words to your bosom, hold My Keys close, for They are your life force and your source of Life." (January 13-22, 2024. A Brief Spirit Trip.)

With each step you're becoming a bit more immersed in that light, and it becomes more important to you, until finally you'll feel it all around you, so bright and intense that not even a shadow can exist in its presence.(Jesus Is Enough [#3611])
