His Strong Right Arm

continued

"Faithful is He that calleth you, Who also will do it!" (1Thes.5:24)

3RD OCTOBER, 2021

5thOct.,21 (Prayer/prophecy) My darling Husband, I need You more than ever; always . Do not leave Me comfortless. Lift my heavy heart and hold it my Darling. I feel insufficient and alone and insignificant. Help me to only need You and to be satisfied in You. Help my downcast heart to turn and look in Your beautiful face. Help me to find my solace and joy and thankfulness in You again. I just feel inadequate for You to use Me. I wish I could be better for You darling. I am not useful enough for You. Shouldn't Your servant be a useable vessel? Otherwise what is the point of being a vessel? You need a cup for others to drink from, so what is the use of just being a shard of pottery? It's just a useless piece of rubbish fit for nothing!...Hmmm, I guess Job used it for scrapping his boils, so… I guess my rubbish piece of pottery could be of use for that; opening up the festering sores of myself and sharing my woes and lessons learnt. After all, aren't we all men and women of like passions? Help me then to be willing to be the worm and be happy to be a worm; to give others hope. Others feel as I do too. I know. So help me dear Darling to have a heart of love and compassion and to forget my sorry ass and reach out; reach forth. I'm good at being full of all manner of sins; so help them to soften my stony heart and fill it Jesus, with mercy and compassion; like You dear. You had soo much love and pity on others. Help me to be one of Your shepherdess'/ shepherds to gently gather the sheep. I know Jesus, You bring me low, only to lift me up and remind me again and again that You are My strength, my very heart beat. Without You there is no life for me. You are teaching me that only through You can I do anything! It is only, only Your strong right hand. It has to be the Keys running through my veins. You and the Keys are one, so help me to flood my mind and soul with them. Possess me my Darling. Come in unto me. Fill me with Your life giving seeds. I long for them. Help them to sprout in me and grow into a beautiful tree, that is Your beautiful spirit! I want only for You to shine forth, and out of me. Jesus, help me to be a great little shard of pottery for You. Thank You darling for counting me worthy to be that for You. I'd rather be a shard in the House of the Lord than to be dwelling in the tents of my sorry self and all my wickedness.

PSA.84:10 For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

The Gift of Incapability

(Jesus speaking:) Feeling incapable and inadequate is a gift. Most do not see these feelings as gifts, but they are gifts nonetheless. I allow these feelings, and I even place these feelings upon you so that you will know that without Me you can do nothing.

It's a gift to feel inadequate, to feel incapable, to feel that you're not sufficient in yourself--because these feelings bring out your desperation and dependence on Me, the only One Who is really capable, sufficient, adequate and able for the jobs. I understand that the feelings and emotions of knowing that you're not capable or sufficient aren't always very nice. These feelings aren't usually pleasant, but this doesn't mean that you should become discouraged or quit just because I'm doing a new thing in your life.

My thoughts and My mind patterns are totally contrary to the Enemy's mindsets. I would that you praise and thank Me for the feelings that you get when you know you can't do a thing on your own. You've got to fight discouragement and simply call out to Me to empower you and give you the sufficiency, power, strength and anointing that you need.

Make a U-turn in the way that you think, and realize that I give these feelings to you as a gift. I know that you want My power and strength to be shown through you, and so I bestow this gift upon you that you might call on Me and receive all of My blessings. You cannot do the jobs and tasks on your own. Your sufficiency and energy will run out before long, but the power of My Spirit never runs dry.

(Stay Humble! [#3235])

***

You must now, more than ever, daily take time to give the burdens to Me, and learn to work in the Spirit and not the flesh, leaning not to your own understanding but committing all your thoughts and all your ways to Me. When you commit your thoughts to Me, then I am able to strengthen you, for I strengthen your mind that it faint not in adversity. Your mind shall then be filled with My Spirit, with My thoughts, with the whispers--the same whispers that created the universe--and with My inspiration and power rather than your own.

So commit your thoughts and your mind to Me, that your thoughts become not entangled in the wisdom of man or in trying to figure out or analyze things. Give your mind wholly to Me that I may influence and speak to you through the simple whispers. For in simplicity there is great strength, power and conviction, because it is not entangled with entrapments and difficulties. You can then remain single-minded, looking unto Me, the Author and Finisher of your faith.

Come to Me, My dear one! Let Me take you. Let Me hold you. Let Me possess you every day and every moment! Let Me possess every part of your mind and heart, My beautiful bride in whom I delight, and in whom I love to live My life.

(FJWL1:20)

***

We need to admit our constant & ever-present weaknesses & failings, our “thorns in the flesh” that we'll probably keep battling as long as we're alive in this World. These are the things that keep us & others around us always conscious of just how weak & incapable we are, & how much we need the Lord!

There are many little things which, when combined together, keep me very weak so that I know that anything that I say or do that is good is only Jesus! But see, others who are looking at the good may not know how much it's only Jesus unless I keep telling them & reminding them how incapable I am without the Lord!

All of these are just plain old human weaknesses, frailties & lacks.--”The weights & sins that do so easily beset us” (Heb.12:1), against which we must daily battle.-- They're what keep us in shape spiritually, fighting & relying on the Lord! We all have our share of'm, amen?

(ML#2553:42, 43, 45)

***

One look at You, and quickly I see my worth is not of me, but my only worth is You and letting Your Love shine through.

Oh, how great and beyond all thought or reason is all the Love You have just for me! At last I see that anything of value in me comes from having You in me. Any good thing I have or do, precious Lover, is You and You alone. I am nothing more than an empty pot, and even that I would not be if my old pot had not been a gift from You. You are all there really is. At last I can stop trying to measure myself by myself, or compare myself to others. And I certainly can't measure You or Your Love. It's too big for me to measure. All I can see is my need for You.

(To Jesus with Love 1:112)

***

"If ye seek to help, then seek to pour forth the Words of David, seek to support those who feed and follow up on My sheep, for I am calling My children, My shepherds out to reach this people!" (Mama: Do you see how the Lord describes any of you who work to reach these people as "shepherds"? Maybe you never thought you were a shepherd, and maybe you weren't, but when you are in a situation where you are feeding the sheep, then you are a shepherd, and you have a great responsibility!

No matter how incapable you feel, or how many problems you think you have, if you're willing to go and yield and become one with the nationals(or your brothers and sisters in your own Home) as you learn to pour out to these desperate, needy people, then He can mightily use you!)

(Say Not Ye There Are Yet Four Months! [#2997])

***

If I have asked it of you, then I have provided the power, strength, wisdom, and all that you need to complete the task by calling on the keys.

***

A SENSE OF OUR OWN WEAKNESS.

There must be a consciousness of weakness before there can be any victory.

(C.H.S)

The first qualification for serving God with any amount of success and for doing God's work well and triumphantly is A SENSE OF OUR OWN WEAKNESS.

Depend on this—God will empty out all that you have before He will ever put His own into you! He will first empty all your granaries before He will fill them with the finest of the wheat. The river of God is full of water, but there is not one drop of it that takes its rise in earthly springs. God will have no strength used in His battles but the strength which He Himself imparts—and I would not have you who are now distressed in the least, discouraged by it.

Your emptiness is but the preparation for your being filled and your casting down is but the making ready for your lifting up!

He who is wise understands. He knows that he is a worm.

Lift up, now, your eyes—behold the heavens, the work of God's fingers! Behold the sun guided in his daily march. Go forth at midnight and behold the heavens—consider the stars and the moon. Look upon these works of God's hands and if you are men of sense and your souls are attuned to the high music of the spheres, you will say, "What is man that You are mindful of him and the son of man that You visit him?" My God! When I survey the boundless fields of ether and see those ponderous orbs rolling therein—when I consider how vast are Your dominions—so wide that an angel's wing might flap to all eternity and never reach a boundary—I marvel that You should look on insects so obscure as man! I have taken to myself the microscope and seen the short-lived things upon the leaf and I have called them small. I will not call him so again—compared with me he is great! If I put myself into comparison with God, I am so little that I shrink into nothingness when I behold the Almightiness of Jehovah—so little, that the difference between the animalcule and man dwindles into nothing when compared with the infinite chasm between God and man! Let your mind rove upon the great doctrines of the Godhead. Consider the existence of God from before the foundations of the world. Behold Him who IS and WAS and IS TO COME, the Almighty! Let your soul comprehend as much as it can of the Infinite and grasp as much as possible of the Eternal and I am sure if you have minds at all, they will shrink with awe! The tall archangel bows himself before his Master's throne, and we shall cast ourselves into the lowest dust when we feel what base nothings, what insignificant specks we are when compared with our all-adorable Creator! Labor, my soul, to know your nothingness and learn it by contemplating God's greatness!

Turn, if you please, to the history of all men who have done great deeds for God and you will find them saying, "I marvel that God would use me thus!" "This day my mind was exceedingly cast down," says one of them, "for God had called me to a great labor and I never felt so much of my own insufficiency as I did today." Says another, "I have tomorrow to do such-and-such an eminent service for my Master. I can say that when I was in my low estate, I was often exalted above measure, but this day my God has cast me into the lowest depths at the recollection of the work for which He has engaged me." Go and do something, some of you, and I will be bound to say it will be the means of pricking that fair bubble of your pride and letting some of it blow away! If you would understand what is meant by being a worm, go and do what the 15th verse says the worm should do—go and thrash the mountains and beat them small—make the hills as chaff fanned by the wind, scatter them and then rejoice in God! And if you can do that—"The more God's glories strike your eyes, The humbler you will lie."

“Devout contemplation, sharp suffering, hard labor—all these will teach us what little creatures we are!

Oh, may God by all means and every means keep us understanding and knowing that we are nothing more and nothing better than worms!” How easy it is, my brothers and sisters, for you and I to fly up! How hard to stay down! That demon of pride was born with us and it will not die one hour before us! It is so woven into the very warp and woof of our nature that till we are wrapped in our grave clothes we shall never hear the last of it.

Do you know what the sweetest flattery in the world is? It is that flattery that Caesar’s courtiers of old gave to him when they said Caesar hated flattery, being then most highly flattered! We do not hate flattery, any of us. We all like it. We do not like it if it is labeled flattery, but we like it if it is given in a little underhand fashion. We all love praise—

We all love it, every soul of us and it is right and meet that we should all bow before God and acknowledge that pride which is woven into our nature, and ask Him to teach us what little things we are, that we may claim this promise—“Fear not, you worm Jacob.”

***

Pride often results in fear-- fear of being incapable

The humble are not afraid because they've already accepted that they are nothing, that they know nothing, and can do nothing without Me and without the love and help of others.

(Stay Humble! [#3235])

***

The prophet says, “Fear not.” You are a worm but do not fear. God will help you—why should you fear? Let us labor to get rid of fear when we are certain we are serving our Master. And let these be our reasons— Get rid of fear because fear is painful. How it torments the spirit! When the Christian trusts, he is happy. When he doubts, he is miserable. When the believer looks to his Master and relies upon Him, he can sing. When he doubts his Master, he can only groan. What miserable wretches the most faithful Christians are when they once begin doubting and fearing! It is a trade I never like to meddle with because it never pays the expenses and never brings in any profit—the trade of doubting. Why, the soul is broken in pieces, lanced, pricked with knives, dissolved, racked, pained—it knows not how to exist when it gives way to fear! Up, Christian! You are of a sorrowful countenance—up and chase your fears away! Why would you be forever groaning in your dungeon? Why should the Giant Despair forever beat you with his crab-tree club? Up! Drive him away! Touch the key of the promises! :o Be of good cheer! Fear never helped you yet, and it never will! Fear, too, is weakening. Make a man afraid—he will flee at his own shadow. Make a man brave and he will stand before an army and overcome them! He will never do much good in the world who is afraid of men. The fear of God brings blessings, but the fear of men brings a snare, and such a snare that many feet have been tripped! No man shall be faithful to God if he is fearful of man. No man shall find his arm sufficient for him and his might equal to his emergencies unless he can confidently believe and quietly wait. We must not fear, for fear is weakening. Again—we must not fear, for fear dishonors God. Doubt the Eternal? Distrust the Omnipotent? Oh, traitorous fear! Do you think that the arm which piled the heavens and sustains the pillars of the earth shall ever be palsied? Shall the brow which eternal ages have rolled over, without scathing it, at last be furrowed by old age? What? Shall the Eternal fail you? Shall the faithful Promiser break His oath? You dishonor God, O unbelief! Get out of here! God is too wise to err, too good to be unkind—leave off doubting Him, and begin to trust Him—for in so doing you will put a crown on His head—but in doubting Him you do trample His crown beneath your feet. (C.H.S.)

***

So seek Me in weakness and in humility, knowing that you are nothing, that I may pour forth unto you My strength, My plan and My will; that you in your weakness can operate in My strength and thus accomplish that which is much greater than you could do in your own strength or in your own flesh. For your power is very, very small, but My power is very, very great!

Let your weakness lead to My strength. Let your weakness lead to My power. Let your weakness lead to My anointing.

(Loving Jesus! Part 1 [#3024])

***

The very fact that you don't feel like you can do it & you feel so incapable is one of the best things possible!--Because then you will seek the Lord, & God will manifest Himself!

When you don't even know what to do, then the Lord has a chance to work.--And He will, if you will let Him! "For it is God which worketh in us, both to will & to do of His good pleasure!"--Phil.2:13.

The weaker you are & the more incapable you feel, the more you will depend on God.--And the more He likes it & the more things He likes to do for you & the more He likes to help you.--Because then you will thank Him & give Him all the glory & credit! The Lord likes for us to be dependent on Him, He likes for us to know that we need His help, He likes for us to ask Him for it, to look unto Him & cry out to Him for the strength which we lack. It's then that "the things that are impossible with Man become possible with God!"--Luk.18:27. PTL!

The times when I was weakest in the flesh, I was strongest in the Spirit because I just had to completely throw myself on the Lord. You don't know how you're going to make it, & that's when He can make it through you. It's then that you trust in the Lord, & through your weaknesses you find His strength.

The biggest temptation for people who have a lot of natural talent, drive, dynamism & abilities is to just boom, boom, boom, push things through in their own strength! Such natural human force has its limits. "Men of force are men of faults," & their biggest fault is when they keep on going in their own strength, their own force, instead of letting the Lord work through them!

Having so much natural ability, strength & drive is often the very thing that stands in the way of the Lord showing His strength. It's more difficult for such people to just depend on the Lord because they've got so much natural strength that they're used to leaning on.

(What Is "Strong"? [#2559])

***

This is a gift that I wish to give to the children of David-the spirit of weakness, the spirit of humility. And if they are a humble band of soldiers, if they are a humble band of prophets, if their strength comes from their humility, they will accomplish great things for Me. This is a virtue that the children of David must continue to convey

Although you, My Family, are a called and chosen generation, and although you are special in My eyes, your special anointing, gifts, and talents will be manifested in the soil of humility. The world may look at you and laugh, but in the end they will be in awe at what I will accomplish through such a pitiful, weak, incapable band who focused not on their weakness, but rather used it to be a strength. Through this weakness, humility came forth, and through this humility great works were manifested.

(Promises of the Future [#3573])

(Prophecy)What an upside down view we have where weakness is strength; where affliction is one of the best gifts that we can learn by and is a great blessing; Here you are in a fleshly vessel and yet you are to deny the very substance you are made of, crucify the body to gain great rewards of strength of spirit. You are not normal! ☺ But you are likened to the Heavenly way and culture when you deny the crutches of the flesh to gain wisdom of spirit. Man does not understand because he has rejected Jesus and rejected the truth. So when you feel incapable instead of bemoaning and lamenting and feeling like such a hopeless, useless case be glad and know that you are going God's way and you are in line to be thrust into the spiritual realm and thus operating with our Lord's strength and power and not your own. This is the humble way, so humbly accept that, you in yourself, have limitations; great limitations sometimes, but not with our sweet Husband. You only need to yield to His hand and let Him use His strong right arm in you, instead of fighting it and trying to do it yourself. You need a new perspective to how you perceive strength. Be glad when He has you in the position of feeling like you can't do it, because then He is giving you the perfect opportunity for you to call on Him to do it through you. It's not a defeat but exactly how He wants it to be. So just surrender in humility. Ask Him what He's doing with you through these feelings of inadequacy and feeling you lack this or that. What's he trying to teach you? Instead of bemoaning, realize you are looking at it the wrong side up, the flesh way! Grasp this concept and you will learn and grow and be able to take greater advantage of what Jesus is teaching you. You will have more peace and happiness simply resting in His arms trusting, and knowing he's got it under control and he is going to use you just as you are and come through for you and all the glory will be His. Isn't that what you want after all? (End of Prophecy)

***

As you call on the keys of the Kingdom, your inabilities are cancelled out by My ability, your weakness by My strength, your fears by My faith, your questions by My answers, your carnal perspective by My heavenly perspective, your ignorance by My knowledge, your thoughts by My thoughts, your flesh by My Spirit.

***

EXTRA MATERIAL

Feeling Incapable Can Make You A Better Channel

(Mama:) The Enemy really fights our times of hearing from the Lord! He'll use anything he possibly can to get in and distract us, discourage us, condemn us, or even just keep us so busy that we don't feel we have time to stop and hear clearly. No matter how much we battle with it or how much the Enemy fights it, we have to remember that he's fighting because it's our very most important job--listening to the King!

I'm really sorry that you're having such discouragement over your P&Ps (prayer and prophecy times). Of course, the Devil's bound to fight you really hard on those because they're so important, so it stands to reason that the Devil is going to fight you with discouragement as much as possible. Actually, I think what you're feeling is a good feeling, but you're interpreting it wrong.

You're feeling very incapable and like you can't do it. But then you're interpreting that to mean that you really can't do it; whereas I think the Lord is allowing you to feel that way. Even if the Devil is trying to use it to stop you, the Lord is using that feeling as a good thing. He wants you to feel incapable and like you can't do it.

It's sort of a subtle differentiation there; the Devil makes you feel incapable and is trying to get you to just give up and say, "I can't do it." The Lord also wants you to feel incapable--not to the point of discouragement, but so that when you get to that point of incapability, instead of taking the downward road of discouragement that the Devil wants you to take, you take the upward road of looking up to Jesus and saying, "Yes, Lord, this is a mountain too big for me and I know I can't scale it, so I'm really desperate with You because I know You are the only One Who can. You have to do it. You can do it through me."

So it's just how we react to that feeling. Sure, it may be brought on by the Devil; sometimes it is. But the Lord allows it because He knows He can get a wonderful victory out of it.

It's up to you what choice you make at that point of decision where you feel so incapable. It's your choice to either look at this as, "Well, I can't do it, so I give up," or say, "Yes, Lord, I feel like I can't … I know I can't do it. I can't do it, so You've got to do it. I'm going to desperately cry out for Your strength!"

See, the Lord looks at that feeling of incapability as a gift, even if the Devil did bring it--like the story about the loaf of bread. That's exactly the way He looks at it--as a gift from Him--even if the Devil brings it. It's a gift from Him to help you to be where He wants you to be in order to get anything done. Because it's only those who are humble, who have a vacuum, and who are desperate for His help that He can fill and He can give the help to. If you think you can do it, or are already doing it in your own strength, then how can He fill you, how can He do it through you?

The Lord is trying to use this feeling of incapability to make you an even better channel, by getting you so desperate and calling out for His help in faith, knowing that He's going to do it. You can't do it; He's going to do it. Whereas the Devil's just trying to get you to say, "It's too hard, it's too much, and I can't do this kind of thing."

Feeling Weak in Ourselves Keeps Us Desperate with the Lord!

(Jesus speaking :) It doesn't matter how you feel or how you don't feel, or what you think when you sit down to pray and receive My messages--because I can and will override all of your ways completely, if you just ask Me to.

If you feel discouraged and like you can't do it, that you can't be desperate enough, you can't be good enough to receive something as wonderful as My messages from Heaven--all you have to do is ask Me to override all of those feelings and replace them with a gift of faith.

You don't have to have great faith, My love, you just need the simple faith of a little child. Just ask Me for the faith of a child who reaches up and receives her Father's gifts. She doesn't think about it and analyze the message, because she has childlike faith and trusts that her Father knows what He's doing and He knows what's best, and all she has to do is trust.

If you're ever tempted to feel discouraged that you're not spiritual enough, or good enough to receive My wonderful, life-changing Words of direct prophecy, just remember that I have chosen the weak things of this world, the despised things, and the people who most of the worldlings look down on in scorn and disbelief to accomplish My will. I like to use the little people, even the underdogs that no one else wants, but who have a burning love for Me and are willing to do whatever I ask of them.

I love to use men or women who don't think much of themselves and are little in their own eyes, so that I can pour through them and give My wonderful life-giving Words through them. I delight to use you, and often when you feel the least usable and the most incapable is when I use you the most, because you're the most desperate for Me to do it through you.

So don't worry if you feel incapable, because that's how I want you to feel, and that's how I need you to feel. I need you to stay humble and with that feeling of insecurity when you sit down to pray, because I need you to be desperate for My Spirit, for My anointing and My help. If you felt like you could do it, if you felt a little too secure, then I would have to work in your life to make you more dependent on Me and more desperate for My help and My Spirit working through you.

This is the very thing that is your biggest strength, My love--that feeling of being incapable, that scary feeling that you can't do it, that awesome feeling that it's too big for you, too much, too great, you're too small and incapable. This is your strength, this is your security, because it keeps you desperate and dependent on Me. This is exactly how I want you to feel and to be--weak in yourself and needing Me.

So don't despise the weakness, don't despise the insecurity and the feeling of being incapable. Don't let the Enemy use it to discourage you, because it's really your biggest strength, for you have the assurance of being in the center of My will.

So whenever the Enemy tempts you to feel discouraged, like you're not doing good enough, you're not receiving good messages or clear messages, or that it's too hard and takes too long, or whatever he tells you that discourages you--just remember that if it discourages you, it's not My voice; it's of the Enemy, and whatever he says is the opposite of the truth, because he is opposed to the truth. For he is a liar, and the father of lies.

If he tells you that it's too hard and takes too long, just remember that's not true and it doesn't matter how long it takes. It's not a competition and he has no business analyzing how long it takes for you to receive a message--it's none of his business! He's just trying to discourage you from receiving any messages at all! He wants to do all that he can to discourage you.

But you can't listen to the voice of discouragement, or to anything negative when it comes to prophecy and hearing from Me. You have to resist the lies of the Enemy, because his aim is to make you feel like it's not for you, you can't do it. But I say you can, and I will continue to help you each day, each time you sit down. I will speak and I will pour through you what I want.

You have to have believing faith, faith that just trusts and believes and receives, no matter how hard it might seem, no matter how long it takes, no matter how you feel at the time, no matter what you think about yourself or the message. You have to set all that aside, and just reach up and receive.

If you're obeying, listening, and doing your best to stay in tune, to stay close to Me and to keep your heart right with Me, you have nothing to worry about and nothing to fear. Just keep close to Me and trust Me to do everything else.

Opening up your channel to Me is often a test of faith in many ways, and a battle, because you're receiving My Words from Heaven--you're receiving life and light and spirit--so the Enemy fights it and he fights you to try and hinder you and stop your faith. But even that is good for you, because it keeps you humble, and that keeps you close to Me and dependent upon Me. So it all works together for good and for My glory.

I'm sorry for the tests and battles, but some of them are necessary in order to help you to stay on the right track, to stay humble and desperate and in need of Me. It's My way of ensuring that you remain a good and usable channel.

Don't worry about it being a big responsibility. Just continue to cast your cares on Me and trust Me to do the work through you. When I ask you to be a channel, in some ways I am asking you to be a robot--to relinquish your free thoughts and ideas and ways of analyzing while you receive My clear Words and pictures from Heaven. Being a robot means that you shouldn't think about or analyze what you're doing, or what you're getting, or why it says what it says. Just go sit down like a good little robot, and open up your channel and trust Me. And I promise that as you obey, as you manifest faith, as you stay prayerful and desperate and close to Me, I will always give you My Words and keep you on the right track. (End of message from Jesus.)

(Stay Humble! [#3235])

***