Spicy New Wine

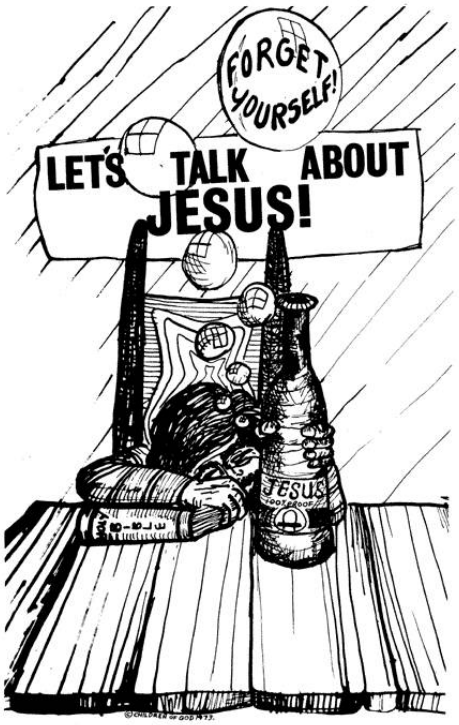

Be not afraid to drink this new wine. Drink and drink and drink until you are intoxicated!--Greatly intoxicated by My love! Full of My Spirit! As you become more intoxicated with My love, filled with Me and My Spirit, you shall become as new men and new women, saying things that you never said before, doing things that you did not do before, and being the kind of people you were not before.

For this is a new day, and you are to become My new creations with greater power, greater love, and a greater anointing. You will become the creations that I have planned from the beginning of the world for this mighty Endtime! You will do things that you have not dreamed of! But you must take these steps. You must reach out and drink that which I am pouring forth, to give you the Spirit and the power and the strength to become what I want to make you (ML #3005) (FJWL1:169)

Claim the keys of acceptance and faith as you drink in the New Wine of My instruction, and I will make you into the new-bottle revolutionary I need you to be. (ML #3578:199)

It's the year 2020. What Mo letter is # "20". I looked it up and laughed! As it was just the letter I was thinking about the other day.

–Drinking New Wine, forgetting the past, being filled with His Spirit, being the Bride of Christ and just talking about Jesus. So perfect! "Let's talk about Jesus!"

I think He wants to give us New Wine, cleanse us and get us just loving Him so much, and telling others about Him! Letter excerpts:

"WINE IS LIKE JESUS! THIS LITTLE BIT OF SPIRITS IS LIKE THE HOLY SPIRIT! YOU GET SO FULL OF IT--YOU DON'T EVEN WORRY ABOUT YOURSELF ANYMORE; you forget yourself, and you just are happy in spite of yourself!--and all you can think about is you're happy and you don't even care! It helps you forget the past, and yourself.

You have to KEEP YOUR EYES ON JESUS! You've got to BE SO FULL OF JESUS--LIKE BEING FULL OF WINE--that you're so high, so drunk, so freaked out on Jesus, you don't care what the hell happens! All you know is you love Jesus--Jesus loves you!--and that's all that matters. That's a fact!

I WANNA PRESS FORWARD TO THE THINGS THAT ARE BEFORE, AND I WANNA GET HIGH ON THE CALLING OF JESUS--DRUNK ON THE SPIRIT--FULL OF THE WINE OF SALVATION. I'M THE BRIDE OF CHRIST! Whose bride are you? I don't want anybody but Jesus! Amen? Just give me Jesus! THERE'S ALWAYS PLENTY MORE OF JESUS! He never runs out!"

It's Time to Pop the Cork!

(Prophecy)I have separated you for a purpose; I have poured My new wine into you from My bottled vintage, the rarest and most treasured bottles, those which I have stored for many many years. Those of which I told you about during our time before your departure to that dark region, and now the time has arrived to pop the cork. The corks will continue to pop as I bring out one after the other and we will be drunk with this special vintage, and we will revel in our drunkenness, drunk with love and new revelations and new visions and new dreams. The wine of My love will overwhelm you and take you away, into My spirit and we will be washed in this My overwhelming love. My Words will wash over you, My warm vibrant keys will empower you and they too will love you and overwhelm you during and right through the days that are almost upon you, these end time days that the prophets of old have spoken of for millennia. Stay close to Me, My love, do not wander into other pastures, other revelations, for they are not for you. I have bottled your own blend, your own special brew. Drink from My hand My love, do not drink from any other fountain. Others may partake of your fountain but do not partake of any others, except those that I have ordained. You feed deeply from My well and yearn for the purest wines, waters from the deepest wellsprings of My love. It is important to keep your channel clear, crystal clear, free of system debris and opinions, even well intentioned opinions. This is not bigotry, but what My prophets must do in order to keep their connection strong and clear and powerful. Do you feel My love for you? Does it not overwhelm you at times, yes My sweet bride it will only strengthen with time, there will come a time when it will so overwhelm and possess you that your faces will shine as Moses of old face shone when he descended from the mountain of God. (June 23, 2020) (Personal prophecy)

Uncork the New Bottle!

(Dad :) To be a new bottle, you've got to always desire the new. To be a new bottle, you have to welcome change and let it stretch you. To be a new bottle, you have to do whatever it takes to ensure you're not standing still, growing stagnant, or forming attitudes that are contrary to the new moves of the spirit.

If you want to be a new bottle, and you've got the desire, then ask the Lord for a fresh infilling of His new-bottle Spirit. Tell Him you want to receive His New Wine, even if it stretches you, even if it's uncomfortable, even if you feel like your wineskins are going to burst. I'll tell you what, if you desire the new, you won't break from the flow. That's a promise.

The New Wine will revitalize you, make your spirit supple, bendable, and moldable, and remake you. The New Wine only breaks the wineskins that are resistant to it--the wineskins that don't want it, that refuse to be remade and changed. If you want to be new bottles, you will be, as you keep yielding, as you receive the fresh flow of New Wine with open and receptive hearts, and as you yield to the New Wine Maker.

Praise and thank the Lord every time you come across an opportunity to stretch, to be made new. Rejoice that the Winemaker isn't putting your wineskin on the shelf to get old with the times. Rejoice that He still considers you worthy of His New Wine. He not only considers you worthy, but He deems you capable and able and new-bottle enough to receive what He has to give.

The Family has got to remain dropped out. The Family has got to maintain the spirit of the revolution. The Family has got to be new bottles. Who wants the old? So keep drinking in the new, keep letting the New Wine change you, and then you will never get old in spirit. You'll be a new bottle forever, and you'll never lose that revolutionary spirit.

It doesn't take much to be a new bottle; it's not an impossible goal. All you have to do is keep receiving the new, keep letting the Lord pour the new into you, and keep letting God's alive and changing Spirit into your life. It's only when you put a cork in your spiritual life and say, "I'm full," or "I'm content with what I have," that God can't pour anything new into you. So keep those corks out. Keep your bottle open at all times for the new; that's how you maintain new-bottle status. ("The Art of War, Part5," ML#3578:223–226, 228–229)

Jesus, here is a moment of love with You.

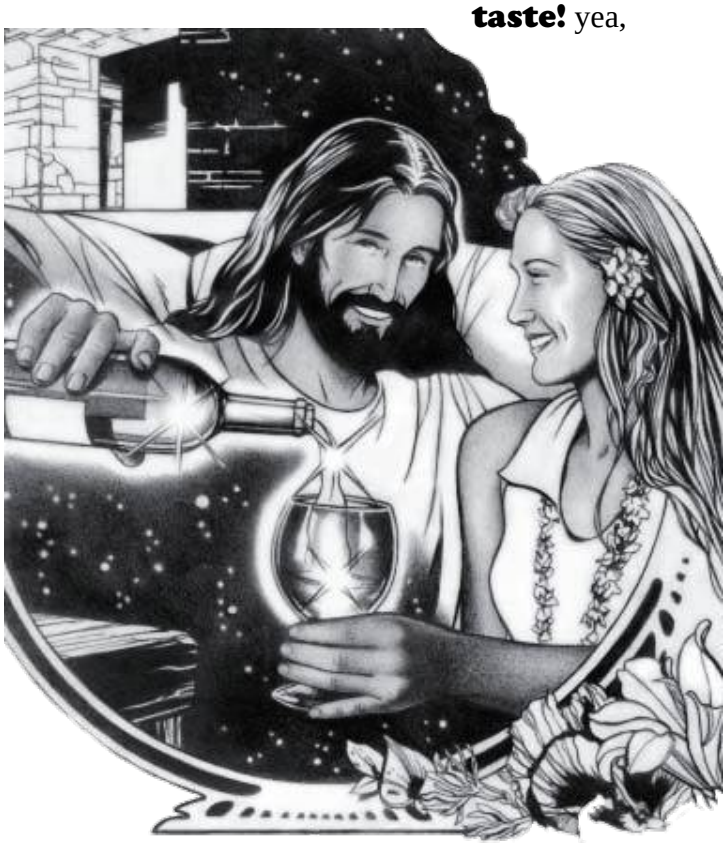

Jesus: JER.13:11 For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man, so have I caused to cleave unto me … SoS.8:14 …my beloved, and be thou like to a roe or to a young hart

Bride: PSA.42:1 As the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God. PSA.42:2 My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God

(MAT.26:27 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying,)

Jesus: Drink ye all of it;
JER.13:12 … Every bottle shall be filled with wine
SoS.7:13 … new and old, which I have laid up for thee, O my beloved.
PSA.92:10 ..my horn shalt thou exalt like the horn of an unicorn: I shall be anointed with fresh oil.
PSA.34:8 O taste and see that the LORD is good
ISA.60:16 Thou shalt also suck the milk … and thou shalt know that I the LORD am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer

Bride: SoS.5:1 … I have drunk my wine with my milk:
SoS.5:1… I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey
PSA.119:103 How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth!

Jesus: ISA.55:1 Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the …wine and milk
ISA.55:2 … let your soul delight itself ...
ISA.55:3 … come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

Bride: SoS.4:11 Thy lips, O my spouse, drop as the honeycomb: honey and milk are under thy tongue
SoS.7:9 And the roof of thy mouth like the best wine for my beloved, that goeth down sweetly, causing the lips of those that are asleep to speak.

Bride calling others: SoS.5:1 … . eat, O friends; drink, yea, drink abundantly, O beloved.

A Spiritual Outpouring

22nd September, 2020

I will do a new thing upon the earth, an outpouring upon My anointed ones, those redeemed among men, those of which Revelation 14 verse 4 speaks of. I will open heaven and it will rain; new wine, new revelations as My chosen ones pour out as in the day of Pentecost. My new vessels for a new day will open their mouths and prophesy, dream dreams and see visions and tell of what is to come upon the earth in a very short time hereafter. So open your vessels, the pots the jars anything you can find and come out into the rain that is now beginning to fall. Hold up the vessels and I will fill them to overflowing. A famine is coming My children; a terrible storm that will rage upon the earth for a time and a times and a dividing of time. But as My widows of Zarephath your vessels will be filled, and not a few, the oil will be rich pure and wholesome and they will not run dry until My return and the earth be renewed. You are called, a chosen generation, a peculiar people reserved unto Me, held against this day of battle. There will be a fulfillment of those things spoken of to My servant David; there is a great gathering, a great and fearsome army of the spirit are preparing for march. Father time has been aroused and is preparing to sound the day's end, the sunset of man. Gather your lamps for the Bridegroom cometh, trim the wicks, fill the lamps for the darkness just before dawn is thickest. I have begged and pleaded these many years, 'come out from among them and be ye separate, touch not the unclean thing and I will receive you'. I did not speak in parable, My Words were plain enough. Those that took up the weapons of the spirit will be ready, those that did not will be wanting. Look, listen, do you not see, can you not hear the drums of war, the signs of the End are upon you, the Man of Sin is at the door. Behold his hand is upon the latchet and the door swings open. Now the final outpouring begins and then the dearth. Only those who do know their God will be strong and do exploits, those who have prepared against this day will stand up as My heralds and voice to this last generation.(Personal Prophecy)

Definition of DEARTH- a scarcity or lack of something

AMO.8:11 Behold, the days come, saith the Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD:

Notable Quote

I hope this is helpful to drive home the need for the Word Revolution. The Endtime will be a test for many. There will be those who fall, not having obeyed. There will be a great dearth of Word in the land, and all those who have obeyed in asking the Lord everything, exercising their gift of prophecy; those who were faithful to review and memorize, to read the written Word, to study to show themselves approved before God, will be thankful in that day.-Timothy ("Issues, Part 15: Timothy's Testimony," ML #3444:80)(Xn 042)

I will Give My New Wine to the Crazies!

Insane crazy dreamers band together! These are the ones who I give My new wine. The ones who hanker after it. The ones who are HUNGRY. The ones who are lost if their do not receive fresh Words from their Lover. These ones are always at the ready to listen and hear My instruction, or My words of love. These ones are alive and invigorated. These ones desire My seeds. Fresh spurts daily. They are crazy for My love. These ones I will give new revelations because they are faithful. Because they cherish My words. These ones receive because they know how unworthy they are, but yet hear My call and have such a passion to help others ,who also feel unworthy and are struggling , that need to be set free and know the truth that I made them worthy. And where are these ones? The ones whose desire is to herald My fresh new seeds? Where are the ones who have the truth but are yet bound by the System, bound by their own lusts and selfishness? To these ones I will not reveal My fresh new seeds. Some are searching, but a great forsake all is required. But, ah…. I see a one……. (Personal Prophecy)(1st Oct., 2020) (Is it you?)

October 16, 2020—Vatina

This is the day of new wine and it is very exciting indeed, I've just been walking through one of the cellars of heaven and it is full to brimming over with new wine, vintages of all ages also oils and balms in abundance. You can picture the cellars here anyway that you would like, whatever desire of cellar design you may hold in your heart can be found and they are always set in the most pleasant locations.

The cellar I entered today had a long winding stairwell that led down into a wide spacious underground type room, all in stone, but not cold and lifeless, it was warmly lit by candles and low hanging oil lamps set in walls or niche archways or hanging from the ceiling over the vats and tables or tucked in some comfy corner. This isn't the only cellar mind you, there are countless in number and each one has different ways to enter their interior, neither are all cellars as you would picture an earthly cellar to be, although there are those types too. However the one I entered was like an earthly cellar; and that's the picture I planted in your mind's eye. The vats were all oaken and had these ornate taps. They are all lined up against one rough stone wall and there is this big large oaken table with stools running right along in front of the vats. Over against the other wall across from the table is a lounge area where you can sit and enjoy a more leisurely draught of your special brew or vintage. Now I was never a drinker on earth, but here, well here I've become quite a frequent flyer to this particular drinking spot.

Now that's funny, but many times I like to fly to where I want to go or visit, strolling is nice but flying is a very relaxing way of getting around heaven. Anyway I almost always fly to this particular cellar and have become one of its oft seen patrons. It's a wonderful place to fellowship; the private tables are so cozy and set in certain ways as to give those sitting at them a warm out-of-the-way atmosphere. I get some of my best ideas whilst sipping some exotic elixir alone in a corner within the seclusion of this my favorite cellar.
How it works here, isn't quite like you would imagine, for example these huge vats, and there are small ones too, are filled with certain vintage and are labeled just a little above the tap. You can ask the attendant to serve you such and such a vintage or you can ask him, or if you prefer, her, to suggest the house special for that day. So today I went to the cask myself because I wanted the experience of seeing the fresh new wine pour out of its ornate wooden tap into my glass chalice, this one sparkled and made this gorgeous music that really made me desire what was in store for me today. I looked over to where my favorite spot was and saw my old friend there waiting for me. We had arranged to meet this day and hour to discuss a few ideas for this visit to you. It does take a bit of planning; especially if you or the dear one on earth that we want to visit isn't expecting us. So I strolled over to my girlfriend taking a few moments to chat or greet someone or a group of people as I wended my way across to the lounge area.

Unlike earthly wines and liquors that eventually leave you stupefied, these many flavored crystal colored blends open up portals in your mind. The very first time I visited a cellar was with Jesus, He brought me to this very one, well my first sip almost shocked me because suddenly I was passing through a mind doorway, an entranceway that I didn't even know existed, it was a door into another world and place in time where I could actually begin to coexist with the other beings and experience what they experience in their world. It's all very vivid and real and you can even come back with a diary of your experiences. The more powerful cocktails can take you into these worlds for what seems like hours, and you never come back feeling blue. You can go with a companion, which is what I did with my friend on this day that I am now describing to you. Although I go alone sometimes, I would say my most thrilling and educational trips have been with Jesus. He is, by far, the best and most informative guide in the city of light, and He is always available and very willing to be your elixir experience.

However today, my friend and I, had business to do, we were meeting to discuss this episode of "Vatina", so we sat with this lovely sparkling white wine that turned into this chat with you. Thank you for listening; I'd like to say that anyone there in your family and for that matter anyone reading and believing that this transcript came from the wine cellars of heaven can get their very own audience with me or anyone up here that has clearance to speak beyond the veil. Stay open, stay believing, anything can happen in that little moment in time when you step out by faith and believe in something beyond that room called your life on earth. God bless you.

New Wine awaits all those that Step out by Faith

20th October, 2020

This is indeed a new day, a very new day. Old things are passed away and behold new wine and new adventures in My Word await all those that step out by faith and take My calling seriously. I am calling to those new saplings, those that love not their lives unto the death, those that follow Me withersoever I go, virgins and guileless. Those that are called will hear My voice and follow. Now more than ever must My children of David follow the new/old wine; I say new/old wine because the letters of David and Maria were offered to My warriors many years ago, so although it is new to those that are just now picking it up again, or have picked it up for the first time, it is old also because time has moved far into the future and those "gifts" and "weapons" of yesteryear should now be fused to each of My warriors. But if not, if this call, this challenge, has reached you now, then these weapons that My Word has spoken of are your weapons of choice for today and you must pick them up and start using them now. Darkness is upon the world, gross darkness the people, and in order for My lights, My Key wielding nation to be all that they must be in a very short time, then they must double the pace, burn the midnight oil. Immerse themselves in hearing from Me on everything, live and breathe these old/new letters of instruction. I am the Commander of this new nation; these bones that I am raising must be tuned into Me and My whispers. Old ways of doing and operating are a thing of the past, this is a new day and I am requiring that this new army and new nation looks to Me and Me alone for all their instructions. The Keys are powerful, My Word is powerful and I am powerful, but combined We are your vital companions in these last days. (Personal Prophecy)

Our Business is open for More Wine makers

26TH October, 2020

It's a new day and there's lots of new wine waiting to be poured. Fresh from heaven and why not? Anyone can get it. It's not an exclusive club. All are invited to the wine cellar. The Keys open the way. All you need to be is a New-Bottle; a desirous Bride who is thirsty for My sweet intoxicating brews. Step out by faith and open your pots wide and I will pour down tasty wine to anyone who asks for it. Come, in anticipation. Come, with your empty glass outstretched, in eager anticipation of the delights I will serve you, even the strange truths. Some sparkly, some clear and sweet, others with small creature in them, some rich and red. There are all sorts to taste and savor. I will serve you exactly what you need each time you ask for more.

You need not have any fear of these new fresh wines, as the cellar they are pouring from, originated from an old well established, renowned Wine-making family. The mother plant was grafted from a Royal vine. This wine –making family knew how to make top of the line wines. Although their cellar lay dormant for a few years, up and coming third generation children of this famous wine making family took on the business. So together with their parents they have struck out again producing tasty, tantalizing brews pertinent for today. You are welcome. And our business is open for more wine makers. Your brews will be much appreciated. We wait in anticipation. You were trained by this very same Wine-making family and we need as many wine makers as will come. There is such a shortage, that your skills are very needed. Please, don't worry if it's been awhile since you've used your wine-making skills. All you need is a refresher course and you'll be on your way, to making the tastiest wines. You can start your very own cellar. Looking forward to hearing from you. (Personal Prophecy)

New Messages

Be sober; be vigilant, for your adversary walks about as a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. As I have spoken before and warned you, you must be diligent and on guard. For the Enemy casts his fiery darts of doubt, and seeks to spread his sickening doubts and lies.

Has not My written Word spoken of David of the end? Have I not said that I will set up one shepherd over them and he shall feed them, even My servant David? Has not My voice of prophecy spoken of My servant David, David of the end, and that this is My David whom I have raised up to be the true shepherd of My sheep? For they wandered in darkness in the world and were buffeted about and devoured by the false shepherds. But by My Spirit I called and spoke to your father David and asked him if he was willing to be the shepherd of the sheep, to lead them and guide them on the true path.

Has not My voice spoken it? Therefore beware of the leaven of the Enemy and his doubts. For if you believe not My voice of prophecy nor My written Word and you cannot believe fully in the founder of your Family, in the cornerstone of your Family and that upon which your foundation has been laid, how can you believe the things that I have for you in the future, and how can you believe My voice of prophecy for today?

There will be many deep revelations and new messages, new direction and new voices which I wish to send to My Family. But you must remain true and established in the foundation of your faith and that which I have already spoken unto you. For if you doubt My Word now and consider that it is not important, that it is old and unnecessary and that you can carry on believing as you choose and deciding for yourselves which of My Words you choose to believe and which you choose to disregard, you will become weakened in the days ahead and not strengthened. For the Words that I give unto you are spirit and life, and not one Word will fail of all which I have spoken unto you? (From Jesus with Love 1:298)

Your Spirit Helpers are eager to talk to you

68. There are a variety of things that the Lord would like to tell you that would help strengthen your link with Him, His angels and messengers, and His readily available Heavenly host of ministering spirits and beings. These are the days set aside for schooling.

69. Oh, I'm telling you, you've only just begun to tap in to your Heavenly resources. You've barely scratched

Heaven's charmed surface. The Lord is going to teach you new ways for these new days of how to communicate with us. He'll teach you a great variety of new ways to be more Heavenly-minded and tuned in to our frequency, hearing as clearly as clear gets. There are whole new discovery channels that the Lord's about to open to you.

70. The Lord has a special, fresh approach for each of you to get you to be more aware of the world of the spirit than you've ever been before, so it will be easier for you to link with us and receive our messages.

71. Have you ever tried developing a special friendship with your spirit helpers? Ask the Lord to reveal to you the names of some of your personal helpers. Get to know some of them. It's such fun; they're such fun. You know how it is when you've developed a special relationship, or you have a kinship, a bond, or a real special friendship with someone there on Earth, how it usually becomes easier to work well with that dear one you know intimately? Why not try working on your working relationships and friendships with some of your spirit helpers too? You'll want to talk with them and pay them heed more and more if you do, just the way it is the more you talk with the Lord.

72. Your spirit helpers are eager to talk with you. They'll even tell you about themselves if you've got the time and wanna hear it. In time, you could even get to know their unique personalities and voices as they're helping to lead and guide you in the ways the Lord has asked them to be a help to you. That'll help you tune in some.

73. For the most part, though, you simply need to tune in. Sit still so you hear the still, small voices, and practice that again and again and again. But on top of that, there is a unique way that the Lord wants you to take steps forward in this. Ask Him about it! (End of message from Dad.) (Endtime Series, Part 2, The [#3279])

Come on Ma Burn Ya Bra

43. Thank you for your sweet letter about some of our recent radical missives. I regret that some of these were "hard sayings" for you to take and which you were not yet able to bear, but what can I say?

44. I dare say if you had been one of Jesus' disciples in His days here on Earth trudging down the dusty roads behind this Revolutionary Rebel of His generation and sleeping as many as 120 men and women in one room at a time, you would have found many of the things He had to say and His radical actions very hard to understand.

45. This is why, as Jesus Himself said, He had to pour His very new wine into very new bottles who could expand their receptivity sufficiently to take it, accommodate it, and even rejoice in it, for it spoke their language and helped Him to reach the drunks and the harlots and the publicans and sinners and the radical young zealots with whom He associated.

46. It also proved he was no part of the System and was not bound by its conventions, inhibitions and prejudices. He was totally liberated and free in the Lord to enjoy to the full the naked truths of God and His wonderful creation.

47. A revolution is a total break with the traditions of man and his churches and his preconceived ideas about God and misconceptions of morality. We have turned completely around and are going a different direction, no longer man's way but God's way, and we are free to enjoy to the full the beauties and wonders of His creation with all of its pleasures which He Himself created for our enjoyment.

48. So why quibble about reality and hide the naked truth of God's raw revelations and cover up in hypocrisy and self-righteous pride and a lack of total abandonment to the utter humility of God? As Jesus said, if ye cannot receive it when I speak to you of these earthly things, how can you receive it if I speak to you of the heavenly?

49. If you had been there when Jesus said to the multitude, "You must eat of My flesh and drink of My blood or you can have no part in Me," I wonder what you would have done then?

50. Would you, too, have been one of the many who turned away from Him that day and said, "This is an hard saying, who can bear it!"--So that He had to turn in sadness toward the twelve young faithful few and say, "Will ye also go away?" Peter pretty bluntly expresses their rather negative response when he says, "To whom shall we go?--Thou alone hast the Words of eternal life!"--As though he wished the Lord hadn't said what He did and wished that there was some other way, and if he could think of any other place to go, he would.

51. But only Jesus had what they wanted, so they continued to follow Him even though they didn't always understand Him nor approve of what He said.

52. He nevertheless spoke their language and was getting through to them and they loved Him because they knew He loved them and was trying to help them to be free.

53. This is no day for the weak and the fearful and those who are unable to bear the many more things that God now has to say to us in these last days when He must tell us the whole truth and nothing but the truth, so help us God!

54. I'm sorry, but the Revolution did not begin with our trying to please people and giving them only what they were able to believe and accept.

55. But the Jesus Revolution was begun by a bunch of rowdy reddish radicals, … had in the greatest contempt by the established order, and [who have] shocked and shaken the world of the System of prudish conventionality and the hypocritical traditions of man ever since!

56. So if you are going to be offended at being stripped bare before God and ravished wildly by His Spirit, how on God's Earth are you going to stand it when He exposes your naked spirit and the spirit world in which it lives in the Letters that are yet to come?

57. I feel for you, my dear, and I'm sorry for you and I wish I could help you, but if you're unable to receive what God has already given us, what is coming is certainly going to break your bottle!

58. If you are not young enough in spirit, pliable enough, resilient enough and elastic enough to expand your vision and faith to accommodate this new wine of the Lord, you will certainly be unable to take what is coming, and your vessel now shaken will be truly shattered!

59. But that's life and the Revolution, which is built only with new bottles on the broken remains of the old!

60. I'm sorry, but that's what being born again--repentance--regeneration--and revolution--are really all about!

61. If naked truth bothers you, you are definitely an old bottle and had better avoid the crash! But if you can accommodate this new wine without asking why or trying to analyze its ingredients, God has such thrills and intoxication of the Spirit in store for you that you will be glad you drank it without question, and you'll be whisked off into a world which you never dreamed existed, where you'll enjoy the very wonders of total intimacy with a sexy naked God Himself in a wild orgy of the Spirit as His totally surrendered Bride!

62. Otherwise, you're like the old church, an old bottle, cracked, broken, useless and doomed to abandonment and oblivion! May God help you to know where you belong!

63. We hope you'll be able to survive the spiritual holocaust of His Revolution in order to reap His rich rewards in the world to come! (ML #286:1-10, 13-19, 21, 23-25, Vol.2).

If You Don't Wanna Crack…

(Jesus:) Without flexibility of spirit, you break and crack with changes, and My New Wine--the fruit of the Word in you--is lost. But if you can remain young and fresh in spirit, and be molded and moved as My hand moves, then you are strong, reliable, and ready to receive My New Wine.

Being flexible, moldable, and open to change is essential if you want to truly be an offensive warrior. If you let your own flesh or your own spirit hold you back, you're in a sense "fighting God and the Devil too," and it makes everything much more difficult. But if you are yielding and moving and changing with the Spirit, if you're becoming more of a new bottle each day, then My power is strong in you, My New Wine is filling you up, and you have what you need for any battle the Enemy might bring against you. ("The Art of War, Part 5," ML #3578:6-7) (Xn85)

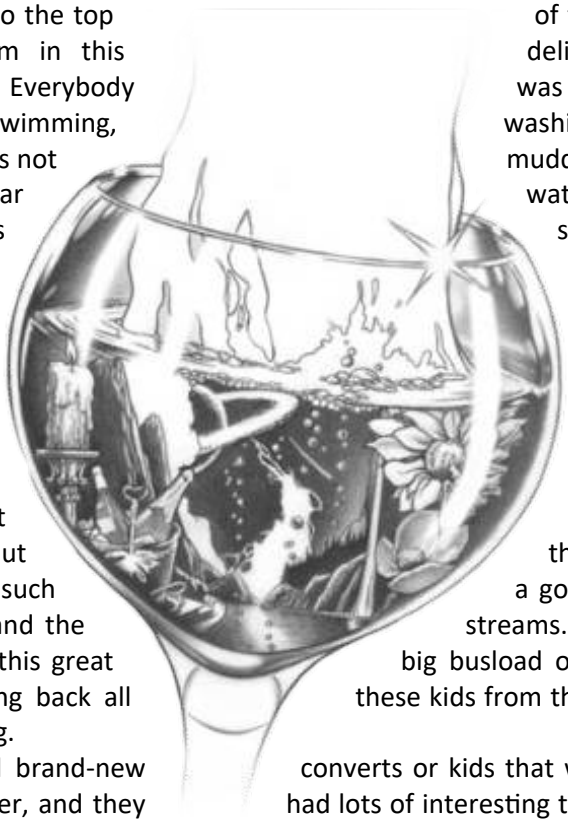

Strange Truths!

64. I and the kids were wandering through a desert looking for water when suddenly down this hill began to trickle a tiny little stream. I rushed over and tasted it and it was good, delicious, fresh, cold water, and I was so happy about it because there were a lot of others wandering around out in the desert thirsty too.

65. So I called them to come, that I'd found water, and they all ran over to the stream just thrilled! It was growing bigger all the time, more and more water, until it was becoming a real big stream of water, a whole river, a small river but with plenty of water for all!

66. Everybody was so happy, so I said, "Let's follow the stream to the Source!" So we all began the journey upstream, up the hill. When we got to the top of the hill we found this huge spring, big enough for everybody to swim in this delicious crystal-clear pure water!

67. It was flowing abundantly! Everybody was so happy they were taking off their old clothes and diving in and swimming, washing and rejoicing like we used to do in our old ponds in Texas, only this was not muddy stagnant water but fresh, flowing, living, clean, pure, crystal-clear water--it was just beautiful! You could see the bottom; all kinds of precious stones on the bottom!

68. The kids were diving in the water for these beautiful precious gems and coming up with them, each one finding some new kind of gem and so happy, coming up to the surface holding their prize and yelling, "Look what we found!" They were like little kids finding new shells or rocks, only these were actual precious stones like rubies and diamonds and crystals and thing like that!

69. The stream originated at the big huge crystal fountain at the top of the hill flowing down the right side of the road.

70. We were all so happy to find out there was so much water. The kids all begin to play in the water, having such a good time drinking it and swimming in it and washing in the big Spring and the streams.

71. About that time along came this great big busload of about 100 kids that stopped at our house, and here was Ho bringing back all these kids from the desert where we'd been to stop over at our house and enjoy our spring.

72. It seemed like they were all brand-new converts or kids that were interested in our happy new place and way of life and all our water, and they had lots of interesting thrilling personal testimonies about how they found us and our water.

73. All of a sudden some of the kids came yelling excitedly from the streams and the spring and said, "There are all kinds of funny little creatures in the water!" And they showed me a cup of water and there were two tiny cute little seahorses in it, and another one showed me his cup and there was a cute tiny miniature octopus in it, and another showed me his cup of water and there were a couple of pretty little miniature shellfish in it!

74. There was a whole variety of interesting little new creatures in the water that we had never seen there before! Some of the kids were all excited about it and thought they were interesting and funny and really fascinating! But some of the kids seemed to be a little bit worried about them, thinking maybe they were contaminating our water.

75. Some of the visitors got real upset and began to leave, saying that the water was foul and wasn't good anymore because it was full of these little animals. They sort of turned against us because of the change in the water. The water itself hadn't really changed, though--it was still crystal clear and pure and delicious, but it just had all these funny little strange things in it now that were new.

76. So I got a little concerned about it myself and I said, "Where are they coming from? I'm going to swim out into the Spring and see!"

77. So I dove in and swam out to the middle of the Spring where the water was bubbling up from deep down below, the Source of the water where it was actually gushing out of the Rock, and here were all these little living things tumbling right out with the water, right out of the Source, coming from the same place the water was coming from!

78. I thought, "Well, this spring must come from some sort of underground sea, some great sea in which these little creatures live, and they're just coming up with the water from the sea--they're coming right from the same Sources as the water itself!" For some reason that seemed to satisfy me that they were all right, that they were clean creatures because they came from the same Sources as our water. So I remember thinking,

79. "Well, our water is from God. He gave us this water, so the little creatures must be from God too and good for us!" So I swam back and told the kids, "They're all coming from the same Source from which we get our water, so they must be all right. Like the waters quench our thirst, the new creatures are for our nourishment and food, so don't worry about them--they're good for us!"

80. But by this time most of the visitors had left, the crowd of Systemites, and only a few friends stayed. The Systemites seemed to think our water wasn't any good and somehow that made us no good too, so they didn't want to have anything more to do with us and they left.

81. Well, in some ways the meaning is almost obvious: We were all wandering around, lost sinners out in the Desert of Sin, thirsty and hungry and lost. Nobody seemed to have it very much together until we found this water flowing down from the top of the hill, which of course symbolizes the water of the Word, the Words of God, the truth that satisfies our spiritual thirst.

82. So we followed the stream; in other words, we followed the Words and God's message and obeyed it, to the top of His hill or mountain, which symbolizes His Kingdom. There we got it together in ever increasing numbers in His Kingdom, reveling in the waters of His Word and enjoying each other's fellowship and inviting others to join us and advertising the good news that we had found water, good life-giving satisfying water, not only to drink but even enough to swim in and bathe in, waters to swim in and play in and enjoy as well as satisfying our needs. So we were all having a good time living beside it and enjoying the stream of water and the crystal spring of God's Word with its fresh new waters daily!

83. The kids have dropped out and are wandering around in new deserts, knowing that there is something wrong, that they are thirsty and they need something and are looking and searching for it and finding it in the streams of God's Word--salvation and the water of the Word--which satisfies their thirsty hearts and minds.

84. They have followed the stream to its source and found God Himself, the source of all life and living water and truth and love and joy and happiness, and have come together in fellowship in Colonies around the world!

85. The Systemites came out to watch out of curiosity: "Behold, what manner of men are these?" Some seemed to rejoice with us as our friends; others were just curious. But a lot of them began to leave us when they began to see strange new things in the water, strange new truths God had put there for our added nourishment, but which they couldn't understand and didn't like because they were contrary to their ideas of what the water ought to be like.

86. But we went on enjoying even more nourishment, new and interesting truths we'd never even had before that strengthened our souls with new life! We even began to follow the new streams that led from the Central Spring in a new direction into new lands.

87. We were still confident that our invincible stream could conquer anything in its path no matter where it led and flowed nor in what new lands, be they left or right.

88. There would always be hungry souls thirsty for our water, hungry for our nourishment, eager for our love and help, and ready to plunge in and satisfy their hungry hearts and thirsty spirits and join us in the ever moving onward stream of God in the blessed fellowship of the faithful ones who follow Him and His ever-living waters, ever fresh and new, full of interesting new and living creatures, new truths for our good to strengthen and enlighten us and brighten our eyes with new power, the invincible all-conquering forces of God!

89. These are His streams of living water, ever fresh and new, provided for our thirst and strength, the Words of God, the truths of His Spirit and His spirit world!

90. Have you found them to your liking? Do they satisfy your soul, quench your thirst, satisfy your hunger and give you strength to carry on and enjoy the happy fellowship of others like you who have found the truth and a happy new life in Jesus and the living waters of His Word and the fellowship of His children on the bright sunny mountaintop of the Kingdom of God, bathed in the crystal flow of His sparking waters? (ML #360:1-5, 8-9, 19-20, 23-32, 35-37, 46-54, Vol.3).

"The Word--Old and New!"
(ML #329)

96. It's a damnable doctrine of church devils to confine all the truth and revelations of God strictly to the Bible! True prophecy won't teach anything contrary, but it surely can fill in a lot of gaps. Let me tell you, there was a time when Moses' and David's writings and the apostles' and prophets' writings were new scriptures

97. Even Jesus was adding to the already given and accepted scriptures, and He told His followers, "I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. Howbeit, ... the Spirit ... will guide you into all truth."

98. So it's like what God has given me is filling in some of the remaining details of Biblical truth, because Jesus is still in the process of guiding us into all truth; it didn't stop with the apostles! (ML #329:22-24, Vol.3).

"David-Daniel, Today's Prophet!" (ML #1501)

99. There's some folks who think, "Well, [the Book of Revelation is] enough, that's all we need! God hasn't spoken since then, that's why we haven't added anything to the Bible. God doesn't speak anymore, He doesn't talk anymore. He just turned His back and walked away after He gave this last Book to John, and we're not supposed to get anything else from God anymore." Well, those people really worship a pretty dead God and a very inactive, untalkative God!

100. We worship a very live God who is very living and talking and still living and breathing and talking and communicating with us and telling us everything we need to know! I don't know how those people seem to think that if the Church was going to continue throughout the ages which were to come, and they were going to have all of these gifts of the Spirit, the nine gifts of the Holy Ghost--gifts of prophecy, gifts of tongues, gifts of interpretation, wisdom, knowledge and all of these things which required the Holy Spirit and the very voice of God--how did they think the Church was going to receive all these gifts and have them and operate with them and have God speaking through them in tongues and interpretation and prophecy and knowledge and wisdom without God speaking? How? It's impossible!

101. The Church was to continue beyond this Book which closed its doors about 90 A.D. with the final natural death of dear old John the Apostle, the Revelator, the Beloved, who wouldn't boil because he wasn't done. He was done after this book was done, the Bible, and his Book of Revelation, the last book in our accepted canonical text of the Bible, the inspired Word of God. He was the last prophet to give us the Words of God which are recorded in this Bible!

102. But he was not the last prophet of God! Because God's Word says so!--That in the Church there are to be prophets and there are to be those who have the gift of prophecy. What else are they but prophets? God's Word says so. It's true! [See 1Cor.12.]

103. This is not His only Word, beloved (holds up Bible); this is also the Word of God for today (holds up MLs), for His modern Church of today, His last children of today, His Endtime Church, His Endtime children, His Endtime people of the Last Days of man's history! God didn't forsake you! He didn't go off and quit talking right now when you need to hear the most of all what's happening right now and to understand it and be prepared for it and to know how to live through it and survive it! Hallelujah? TYJ! PYL!

104. So this Bible is not the only Word of God; this (MO Letters) is also the Word of God! Somebody will throw up to me that Scripture I was going to read you in the last part of the last Book in Revelation where He says, "You shouldn't add to it or take from it the Words of this Book! You'll be cursed if you take away any of the Words of this Book. And if any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this Book!" (Rev. 22:18-19).

105. Who was talking?--John! What Book was he talking about?--The Book of Revelation! He was not talking about the Bible! He was not talking about that this meant this was the end of God speaking and the last book that God was ever going to write! I haven't added anything to the Book of Revelation! I haven't added anything to this Bible! I haven't added anything to the books that are already here and the prophets that have already spoken! I haven't added a single word to anything they've said, nothing! Nothing!

106. All I've done is to simply receive what God has said today, to me!--Not added to what they said then, or to this Book then. But I have simply received the Words of God for you today that He wants you to know because He loves you, His children, and He wants you to be prepared for His coming! He wants you to be able to survive those Last Days as His witnesses and as His glorious representatives through the most trouble the world has ever had! (ML #1501:11-14, 69-72, GN Book 7).

"Loving Jesus!--Part 4" (ML #3030)

107. (Dad :) I hope you didn't think that the New Wine was going to end just because I left. God doesn't stop talkin'! Believe me, He's very much alive! He's very much in evidence and He's very active. …

108. And sometimes, kids, the things that God says are hard to take! They're hard to believe sometimes! But you know, if you just believe it, if you drink it in and receive it, accept it by faith, He blesses you and it becomes easier, because you see the fruit, you gain the understanding. Faith doesn't always understand; faith just does it because it believes, and then comes understanding. But without faith it's impossible to please the Lord, for he that cometh to God must first believe that He is, and second, believe that He rewards those who diligently seek Him. He's now giving you a way to diligently seek Him, so that He can pour forth the great rewards that He has promised. And believe me, it's true! I've seen it, I'm Here, I know! (End of message from Dad.) (ML #3030:81, 88, GN 662).

"Loving Jesus!--Part 6" (ML#3032)

109. (Jesus:) I am pulling back the veil of My Word on that which was written by My servant David, to give you a greater understanding and a fuller knowledge of what I meant. For the time was not then, but the time is now! For we enter into the dark days, the days ahead in which there shall be gross darkness upon the people and upon the Earth. But you shall be a gleaming light, a light of love!--A light of strength and power and of My Words! As the darkness grows, the light shall shine brighter, yea, brighter I say! (End of message from Jesus.) (ML#3032:149, GN 664).

"Loving Jesus!--Part 3" (ML #3029)

110. (Dad speaking to Mama:) A prophet's job is not easy. It wasn't easy for me to give the Words of the Lord, especially when I knew that some people would reject them and not believe they were sent from the Lord. But I had to give what I got. That was the commission that I was given, to be the channel for His Words to His people. …

111. I gave a lot of things that people didn't understand. Sometimes I didn't even fully understand them, but I knew that they happened to me and I knew the Words came, or the visions came, or the dreams came, so I gave them.

112. First off, I think people need to understand that the roughest job is to give the message of the Lord; to not filter it, to not hold it back, to not change it, but to give it. Then it's the people's choice to believe or not to believe, and the Lord blesses them accordingly. That's how it works now, that's how it worked when I was there, and that's how it's worked throughout all the ages. If you believe the prophets, you prosper and you're blessed.

113. The Words that the Lord has sent you are true Words and He has held back nothing from you, for He knows that this is the time when you need to know these things. You did not need to know them in my time, but this is now your time. This is now your ministry. He's building your ministry upon my ministry. I led you part of the way, now you lead the rest of the way. Then you knew in part and now you know in whole. I gave you what He showed me, and now upon that He builds more, He shows you more, step by step. I brought the concept, you bring the details.

114. He revealed to me my part, the part He wanted to show me, the part He wanted me to show you. Now He reveals to you your part, the part He wants to show you, the part He wants you to show others.

115. Why didn't I tell you when I was there?--Because I didn't know! Because He didn't tell me! He told me plenty! And there was plenty that was shocking, and plenty that was new and plenty that was revelatory.

116. So what's the big deal? If He could tell me some of the things He told me and you can accept those, then He can certainly tell you the things He is going to tell you and they should be acceptable too.

117. What did you think?--That I was going to go and everything was going to ho-hum along? Why would you think that? He's the same God. He's still alive! He is still moving whether I am there or not, because this work wasn't built on man, it wasn't built on me. It was God's Spirit! It was Jesus! It was Him speaking, and I was just the messenger, the newspaper boy, the ticker-tape machine, the channel. That's what I've always told you and that's exactly how it was. And folks, that's exactly how it is. *(End of message from Dad.) (ML #3029:170-174, 177-179, GN 662). (Separation From The World, And The New Wine [#3425])

You Have to Make the First Move 17th August, 2020

Of course everyone should be always endeavoring to stretch their bottles to take in more wine. I have, as you know, endless wine, rivers of wine for My brides to drink and even bathe in, but they have to make the first move, they have to be open, they have to be obedient, as you are trying to do. And as they open themselves, so will My Gideon's band grow. (Personal prophecy)

New Wine Promised If….

17th August, 2020

(Prophecy) It takes time to find those that are not only Children of David, but new bottle types, that are raring to go into the future with us. So stay on this one, she is a solid link to the spiritual realm, we walk with you and with Que. Pray for her, she is strong in spirit; she has gone through many breakings, as have you and your loved ones. You are on the right wave, ride sweet lovers of Jesus, ride the wave of new wine that is coming. For the Word is true, every word, every prophecy will find its mate. It was promised that more wine would flow, but the "if" was swallowing the wine that has already been given, and in so doing the new can then be bottled, in new bottles that is. What you are stepping into now is very exciting for us and we want you to grasp the concept I'm trying to impart here. The Keys to the Wilderness are a part of the concept…we are opening the portal for you all, but you must learn the steps, like learning the different types of "elixirs" or learning to trust your prophecy channel, by doing, by experimenting, by making mistakes sometimes, by trusting us, by trusting each other. Stay close; listen more intently because we are drawing even more closely to you all, we are making moves to open the veil, as was promised by our Husband. The two worlds are about to merge. (End of Prophecy)

Crystal Streams of My Living Word!

29. (Jesus speaking :) Droplets, then a trickle, then a stream, and then a fast-flowing, rushing river--so has My Word been flowing down upon you! In the measure that you, My children, drink of My Words and My seeds and My messages, and let them enter into your heart and fill you up, even so am I able to pour out upon you.

30. You entered into the cave and saw the water trickling down the side of the wall. You were thirsty and your tongue longed for pure, refreshing water. But because the water that trickled in the cave was new and different than the water in the tank that you had been used to, you approached it somewhat gingerly. When you tasted it, you saw that it was water indeed--pure, fresh, refreshing, sustaining water. The taste was different than you were used to, yet it was straight from the glacier in all its purity.

31. The more you drank of the pure water from the mountain, the more of a taste you developed for it, and the more you wanted of it. The trickle grew according to the demand, until the waters were gushing forth and forming a large stream that began to pour out through the mouth of the cave and down toward other climbers whose thirst was also quenched by the flowing waters.

32. The more My children develop a taste for the pure, refreshing, crystal stream of My living Word, the more I will pour out to each of you. When you come to Me with an empty glass, I will fill it to overflowing. In any area that you will seek Me, I will answer you. When you come in need of encouragement, I will wrap My arms around you. When you come to Me weeping, I will be a shoulder to cry on. When you feel lost and confused, I will be a light and show you the way. When you are faced with choices and decisions and you do not know which to choose, I will give you counsel and help. When you are tired and weary, I will pick you up and carry you. When you are lonely, I will come and comfort you and love you, and be all that you long for.

33. In every situation, I will be there for you, and I will never fail to give you My Word and My answers and My encouragement. Don't worry that you will wear Me out, because that could never happen! I have so much more to give than you will ever be able to receive! I am constantly pouring, pouring, pouring out! Every time you bring your little bucket, I will fill it. There will always be a supply--an endless supply of pure, fresh water.

34. So come! Come to Me in the quiet of your bed and let Me whisper in your ear. Come to Me when you are at work and in need of a quick-fix solution. Come to Me together with the children that you care for, and ask Me for My blessing on the day. Come to Me when you are witnessing, and ask for My anointing and My Words to speak to those whose paths you cross. Come to Me when you are cooking, or showering, or having get-out, or reading, and let's have an exchange of words. You can tell Me of your love and ask for a word or two from My mouth to give you inspiration in your task.

35. It doesn't always have to be a long, formal session with Me, but I wish to talk to you like any of your other friends. You can get a lot out of an informal chat with someone, and so it is when you chat with Me, when you listen to Me, when you ask for My life-giving waters.

36. So drink! Drink deeply and you will be filled. And the more you drink in, the more I will give you, the closer we will become, and the easier it will be for you to receive My Words. For the more you practice, the more your channel will become attuned to My signals and you will be able to draw more in. (End of message from Jesus.) (Mama's Surprise! Part 3 [#3139])

Don't Be Discouraged!--Keep Climbing!

68. (Jesus speaking :) Do not be discouraged, My love, even though the climb seems hard and there are stones and rocks and bumps along the trail. Continue to climb upward to the beautiful summit, the peak, where the view will be so beautiful. I know that you want to reach the peak right now and have everything at your fingertips--all the answers, instruction, guidance and counsel that you know is available.

69. You realize that you have tapped into the greatest source of power and answers in the universe, My Own precious Spirit. You know that the answer to everything lies within My Spirit. It lies within your grasp, and you are eager to reach out and take what you need so that you may feed the children, and satisfy them, and be used as an instrument to cause My work to flourish.

70. But do not be discouraged and frustrated if all does not fall into your lap immediately and if the answers seem just outside of your reach and your grasp. Don't worry, My darling, for all things work together for good, and even this itself is a test of your patience which will bring forth greater faith. You will learn to appreciate the answers even more, for you will know beyond a shadow of a doubt what a supernatural miracle and working of My Spirit each answer is.

71. The answers are not beyond your grasp. Continue to climb and ascend the mountain so that you may reach the peak and view the whole world, the whole horizon! As you continue to climb and grow stronger and stronger, I will soon lay everything at your feet, all within your grasp, that you may commune with Me and pray and ask to your heart's desire. I will supply the answers, and My precious jewels will tumble about you!

72. But for now, continue to climb and exercise and practice. Don't be discouraged, or feel that you are failing, or that there is something wrong, or that you don't have enough faith, for you have great faith! I have blessed you with a gift of faith.

73. You have unfailing, undying faith! You have faith to keep going when the going is tough. You have faith to continue to say yes and yield, even though you feel like quitting. That is true faith!--Faith that hangs on and carries on in the face of difficulties and obstacles!--Faith that refuses to quit, that demands the blessing, that continues to expect! And such faith will receive.

74. It is all working together for good, My love. For with each test, you ascend higher and higher toward the mountain peak. You are learning precious lessons which you can share with others, so that they too can continue to follow you, climbing the mountain. You will make it, and once you reach the top, you will see that it has been worth it all!

75. I'm helping you now. I'm fulfilling My promise that My voice of prophecy would help you, and it is helping you through your personal tests and battles. My precious whispers are giving you strength and encouragement and conviction and faith to continue trusting Me and to carry on.

76. I will continue to encourage you personally, to comfort you, to give you peace of mind and reassurance. I will help you to know just what is right, which way to go, how far to go, and where to go. You will feel the confirmation and reassurance that you seek. And don't worry if I do not answer every question you ask through you personally; just trust

Me that I know what is best for now. I do answer many of your questions personally, through your own channel; others I will answer through other channels, who will continue to be a help and a support to you.

77. The victory is great! The victories are many, and that's why the Enemy fights so hard. That's why the tests seem so severe and why the discouragement seems so great, because the victory which is just around the corner is so very sweet!

78. Be not weary in well doing. Be not weary in continuing to listen for My whispers. Continue to bring your requests, your questions and your ideas before Me, allowing Me to speak to your heart, and I will not fail you!

79. Even though some answers have not been complete and you feel it is not what you need, continue to trust. Seek confirmation through your other channels and just trust Me that I know what I'm doing. I may only give you a little and you may still need to go to your other channels to get the rest, but don't be frustrated and don't be discouraged. I do all things well and they are all working together to accomplish My plan and My purpose.

80. This experience continues to help you be humble, My love, and to understand the little people on the field--those who feel they have no spiritual strength, that they are not spiritual giants. It helps you to understand the feelings and the hidden thoughts of the little people who are struggling daily to serve Me, who are fighting hard to make ends meet and to find the time to preach the Gospel, to raise their children, to uphold the standard, to meet the requirements of a Charter member, and to seek Me for the answers and direction and guidance that they need for their loved ones, for their finances, for their children, for their sheep, for everything! Sometimes they, too, are not sure which way to go or what the right answer is. So it will help you, My love, to understand them and their situations and their needs.

81. You will have a greater understanding of the young person who has never received a prophecy, who feels unworthy and incapable. They hardly have the faith to step out and listen and ask Me to speak, for they fear that they will receive nothing, that nothing will come and I will not speak to them. Perhaps they even feel that it is because I don't love them enough, or that they are not worthy, or not spiritual enough.

82. Your many experiences and lessons and tests and trials will help to wash away all those lies and doubts and fears of the Enemy! Because of course I love each of My dear children and I have been speaking to them! Some may not even realize it, just like you, My love. I spoke to you for years and years in your mind, and it is now being translated into a different form--into My voice of prophecy. I speak to My children, but many times they don't even realize it or recognize it. They just have to learn to open up their channel to Me to receive My living voice in prophecy.

83. It is a great step of faith for them also, and they will take courage from your sample. They will have hope for themselves, that they too can hear from Me. And that is My heart's desire, My love, to speak to each of My children who has the faith to reach out and receive it. (End of message from Jesus) (Mama's Surprise! Part 3 [#3139])

For One Touch of a Drink of Heaven's Wine will Change You!

Jesus…

Come into My tabernacle of joy. I have many cups, many elixirs, and many drinks to swig down. If you haven't been to the Heavenly bar yet, come on in. I love what it'll do to you. These are the drinks that ready the bride for My heavier advances. But you have to be ready. For one touch of a drink of Heaven's wine will change you, move you, and get you doing things you thought you never would. Once you get set free, you don't care what others think or do or say. But that doesn't make them stop thinking and doing and saying things. And it will catch up to you one of these days. But that's all part of the adventure.

So you have to be filled with the Spirit of God before even daring to drink. For the moment you do, things are going to take new shape. The "you" suddenly starts to be a little less like "you" and you have to get used to it. And the "Me", well, that changes in your view as well. It's like you put on new glasses, 3 D glasses or something. "Oh!" you say, "Is that really who You are and what you are like?" But even that is only a little part, a little side peek of Me. It's like you are looking into the keyhole on a door to a bedroom and see someone, or part of someone walk past. You catch a glimpse, a flash of a part of them. But if they get real close, well you don't see anything much at all, only what part of their skin or garment that is the size of the keyhole. You might think you see the whole thing, for the whole hole is filled up. But no, there is more, much more to see. You'll have to first of all get access to the key. Then knock, and be allowed to enter.

But to even get the boldness to do so you'll need to be spirit filled, and have sipped some strong, drink of Heaven, or you'll just shy out of it.

Now, try the key. Click! The door unlocks. Then politely knock and request entrance into the private quarters, and be suddenly ushered in and laid on the most elaborate bed you have ever seen. You are surprised. It was almost as if it was all set up just for you. Why did you make the Bridegroom wait so long? You wonder. But it was a step by step process. And now that you are in here there is one more thing to do. You hand the key to the one you are alone with, the very Son of God, and let Him lock the door. You don't even want to get near it, for fear you might just slip out in shyness and whatever. "With pleasure" He says, and takes the key, and looking at you with a twinkle, clicks it locked.

"You're Mine now," He says, and kneels beside the bed. You sit up and place your arms around His shoulders. You look into His eyes. You have no idea what is coming next. But one thing is sure; you are alone together, for how long you don't know. But you are eager to find out what goes on in a place like this. Yes, you are also curious and wonder; what is so great an attraction in you that makes this eternal being so intent on being alone with you, and showing such ardent desire for it. What is it about you?

Last time you looked, there really wasn't much that you could see that would come even remotely close to whatever could and would interest a being who is able to create multi and functional universes in a day, if and whenever He wanted to. There was more to find out about this being then you would ever know. But you were eager to start learning. (Personal Prophecy)
