

January 23, 2024...you are all My brides, but not all are My wives

Jesus speaking: Yes everyone is in waiting...every single bride to be is being tested. Some will pass the test in this life and some will pass the test in the next, and some will simply be happy to be bridesmaids, or friends of the Bridegroom. The choice as always is up to the individual. I know a sold-out-wife finds it difficult to believe that someone would not be interested in coming to bed with Me and living with Me in My personal quarters. But that is the way I set this world up. Not every person is the same, not every one has the exact same desire. Not every person on earth or in Heaven desires to become a blue angel, or a member of the Warrior Band. So it is that not all My brides truly wish to pay the price of becoming My wife and a pillar in the temple of My God. A wife is a bride that gives up everything she holds dear, even up to her every want, wish and yes even her own life. She desires nothing else but to become one with her Lover. Not all of My creation desire to go that far. Some are not called to go that far. This does not mean that I don't love them like a bride. Nevertheless, it remains in place that all of My creation have to eventually submit to My will. Only I have the plan for total reconciliation. Only I have the means to make all things right. And in the end all things will be made right. Anything that you think you have given up for My sake in this life, I promise I will repay. All except a system life, that I will not repay, for that would be like a parent giving a child a constant supply of candy. Not all My brides will sit by My side on thrones, not everyone is suited to that life. If everyone were kings and queens then everyone would have to be servants also. And although that is My will, that everyone be a servant to another, that everyone love their brother as they love themselves. It stands to reason that some must take the place of ruler, for every Kingdom must have a King and a King desires and must have a queen in order that He be made whole.

I could have kept you at arm's length, but the truth is, I needed you. As God of the universe, you might be wondering why I would possibly actually need you. This is explained well in the Words I have spoken on this. I had many friends, I had many companions and associates, but I had no wife. I needed you to be My wife, and you have fulfilled a very important need in My life by embracing this revelation and wholeheartedly practicing it.*

Loving Me like you do, embracing our marriage, and honoring our wedding vows has given you the right to receive gifts which are reserved for My wife alone. There's some pretty cool stuff waiting for you!

The more you love Me, the higher "security clearance" in Heaven you receive. The closer you are to Me, the more privileges I am able to give you. Neat, huh? There are pretty big benefits to loving Me as you do. Pretty soon you'll be right here with Me and we'll rule and reign together, you at My side and I at yours, together ruling the universe as is My right, and yours by virtue of your marriage to Me. You have become My queens who will have the right to sit on My throne and exercise My power as though it were your own. (The Art of War Part 3 #3558)

Have I not said there are brides with oil and brides without? Those that are without do not come into the bedchamber. So knock, knock on the bedchamber door. Come, come into My room. Seek Me and you will find Me, ask Me and I will be there. For they that love Me most follow closest, and they who love Me most show Me the most love. And they that love Me shall have the most of Me. (Loving Jesus! Part 2 #3025)

January 22, 2024...portals physical or spiritual

Celeste: As much as you'd like to see one of those wonderful door like portals you see in pictures open up in front of you, spiritual portals are not like that. The portals we speak of are spiritual and not something a human can step through. If they were able to do that then they'd die in the attempt. Flesh and blood cannot inherit the Kingdom of God, which is mostly in spirit. In the next millennium when your bodies are immortal the restrictions that are presently set on your mortal frame will not affect you then. Then you will see wonders that your mind cannot even conceive of now. The mind of man is very imaginative, yet it is also very restricted in its scope. The dream world is a very interesting study. A human spends a lot of time in different types of spiritual state. When you're thinking about things, your mind is taking a type of spirit trip. Serious daydreaming or deep concentration is almost a spirit trip in itself. Your dreams operate within a certain framework, they are mostly restricted to what has been fed into your mind. Yes the scenes and people that you interact with whilst dreaming can be very exaggerated, you can even see the bad spirits of people whilst dreaming. But more often than not your dreams pertain to places you've been too, or people you've met during your life on earth. This is not always the case mind you, so don't get dogmatic about certain details I share with you. You may argue and say that the dream you had didn't look anything like anywhere you'd been before. However, you may meet someone in your dream that you've actually met on earth, but instead of seeing or interacting with their flesh, you may instead be interacting with their spirits, and that may not necessarily be an inspiring experience. That's right, the spirit of a person or place you've been to play a big part in some of your dreams.

The world is very very dark now, but Satan, as you know is the master of subterfuge and misrepresentation. He has created a world of fake colors, music, sights and sounds. But be not deceived, all that he's created is not as it seems, his world is designed to lead on and down. Everything in his world has a spirit, the cell phone for example, is to the simple mind of carnal man a thing of wonder and magic. But to those that are "in the know" it is a trap with teeth. Once it snaps shut, it is high impossible to escape. It has all the colors, sights and sounds that the childish mind of man is attracted too. It is a toy, a trinket that Satan uses to keep the baby happy, quiet and quite stupid. It is all foolishness to God, and you should be able to see through the facade as well. A cell phone is very spiritual, the colors, sights and sounds are there to attract the flesh, but it is the spirit of this devilish device that's pulling its victim into the web where the black widow waits.

I know this type of talk sounds all spooky and fanciful to some, but the fact remains Satan has created a transportation portal that is capable of delivering your desire to you or you to that desire. You can have millions of songs music and movies in an instant, you can have it deliver a pizza to your doorstep. It's also a portal to that dream vacation or a ticket to visit that friend or relative, or an appointment to your doctor or medicine man. Any trinket you desire is yours at the touch of a button, look there's even a cute little icon so the baby doesn't even have to figure out how to spell Amazon. Beloved, this world is damned, this world is upside down, this world has fallen into perdition.

"I know that this Hellish world is somehow connected to my world, but I can't see any real ways that they are joined."

"Actually, Hell is an extension of your world."

"But I don't see anything too familiar. All I see is this desert-like plain, but I don't see anything like my home city."

"It's here if you know how to look. Right now we are looking at a different aspect of its existence. You might say we are seeing a more spiritual representation of your world, a physical manifestation of the condition of things in your world."

"A rough and rocky desert place—no buildings, no streets, no people? I don't get it."

"This world's wasteland is a direct result of the spiritual conditions on Earth."

"Well, judging by this harsh terrain, the place where I live is not doing too well spiritually."

"The city you live in on Earth is not beautiful, but actually is descending into spiritual darkness. Parts of it are literally turning into a spiritual hell, a prison house for the spirits that lived their earthly lives there. Some parts are deteriorating more quickly than others, depending upon the people who now live there. People have the power to lift or lower the spiritual level of a place. This is also true of parts of the nation you live in."

Elatia reached over and placed her small but strong hand over my eyes. I began to see odd building-like shapes forming around and below me. It was not the sky line of my city I saw, but rather the reverse of my city. It was as though I was seeing some kind of three-dimensional reflection where everything seemed sort of upside down, inside out and backwards. The tall buildings seemed to point downward and seemed reversed or somehow sort of inside out. It was very confusing to my mind.

"It's hard at first but you quickly adjust. In a way, that's how much of this place looks to those of your world. Some places do appear quite normal still, but in those places where heavy spiritual reversal is in progress, confusion reigns. (Journey to Gragau)

Celeste continues: The best course of action is to not even step near the portal mouth. But if you now see the danger, then the way out is to start swimming straight out. This is not a riptide. In a riptide you swim out at an angle, because a riptide is going straight out to sea. The world Satan has created is a whirlpool, if you try to swim at an angle you will lose most of your strength before you reach the edge. You young people have almost succeeded in living Matthew 19:29...you are almost out of the whirlpool's powerful pull. What most of you lack is the momentum that will carry you deeper into the spirit and onto your destiny. Only the steadfast use of the spiritual weapons can give you the required force to break completely free. If you feel that desire to rest, you must look down at what you are resting on. You may think that piece of flotsam is the perfect rest-a-while spot. But that flotsam is not propelling your forward and out of the tug of that whirlpool, it is itself being pulled in and down the black hole. Yes I'm sorry it is such a tough fight, but this is what you signed up for before coming to earth. It is not imagination as Satan would have you believe...he's lying and will continue to lie to you until you believe that that piece of flotsam will save your tired body and weary soul. Here, grab this key and shove it into this little audio jack portal on this s-pod I'm holding in my hand...now listen to this and believe.

(Aqua:) It may be overwhelming for you to see that so many warrior band members went back to the system after the reboot when it says that they were undefeated on this side of the veil. In your carnal mind you just can't understand how the warrior band could be undefeated on that side and be totally defeated on this side (your side). Let me tell you that it was quite a lesson to all here on this side.

You have to remember that Jesus is in full control and He permitted it to happen for many reasons. One reason was to let the Devil think that he had won. Another reason was so "that no flesh should glory in his presence" (1 Cor. 1:29); another was so that scripture could be fulfilled, another was so all creation could see the power of the Word as it was the Word that brought the remnant of the warrior band back to life again and will continue to do so. It also caused a great humbling of all the warrior band, not only those that went to earth, but also among those that stayed behind to help them. For those that have not been awakened, that great humbling is yet to come. Jesus knew that this was something that they needed. That's one reason why half had to stay back as spirit helpers because He knew how hard it would be.

Quote:) If you wish to be powerful conduits of My Spirit, if you wish to turn this world right side up, if you wish to become full-time disciples whose wish is My command, then you cannot allow the Enemy's evil influence to steal away what is rightfully yours in the truth of the Words of David.

(Jesus:) The light of the body is the eye... What light is in your eye? What color does yours reflect? Are you reflecting Satan's red light, or beaming out My blue light. Is your system corrupted with the enemies upside frequency and your mind polluted with his red color, or have you been filling your heart with the blue Waters of My words. His words, are everywhere now. The world is turned over to him. Just as when all sound gets muffled when you go under water, so in the same way must you My COD dive deep into the blue frequency Waters of My words. My waters will shut out the red frequency of the enemy that is broadcasting all the time. But just as with water in your world, the deeper you go, the less you can hear, so too must you My loves go deeper, deeper, deeper into this golden pool of blue water. Do not fear that you will drown. The death you feel is only the death of self and the earthly man. As you die I come in. My water will fill your empty frame and you will become one with My blue frequency.

Mystical bible Jan. 8

Empty Your Duffel Bags - Quote:) Your blue-frequency key better be on whilst going to sleep and still on when you wake up.

(Crystal Clear:) Well, it has a lot to do with your mind. Your mind is where the battles begin and where deadly combat is waged. So in saying that you should go to bed with the blue key on and wake up with it on its like saying you got to be keeping your mind in the right frequency all the time. To an untrained mind this can seem difficult. To some it can seem impossible or even undesirable. Why is this? It has a lot to do with the heart really. Because it's not impossible with the Lord's help, but it only feels impossible because perhaps you don't desire it enough. When your heart is sitting on the fence the way will seem hard and even impossible simply because you don't want to go that way. Once the choice is made and the heart has let go and yielded to whatever the Lord wants, though the way is still painful, it is made possible through the power of the Lord working through you. You see, there is light and there is darkness. The Lord is the light and we are but his tools to shine through. It's not about us, what we do, and how good we look. Our works are vain and will fade away. He wants to shine through us to show the world what the true light looks like. But we must surrender our will to Him. That is what we are. We are nothing but a glass container. The blue you see is not us, but His Blue frequency flowing through us. So in creating us, He created a need for a container to fill. In truth He needs nothing, or He could choose to need nothing, but He chose to humble himself and need us to be His glass jars to fill so that others could see Him in us. The blue frequency is much like us. As you have heard, everything runs/operates on a frequency. So those things that run on His blue frequency are much like us because if viewed in the eyes of the spirit you would recognize His power, love, truth, wisdom, beauty, and so much more. There was a time when all things were in tune to this frequency. I remember those days. Creation was perfect in His sight, man was young and innocent and all was love and beauty. But then darkness entered into the world. The destroyer came with his lies and his false frequency. To man he strung a tune and turned His blue light into dark red. Day by day this frequency of 666 has been corrupting the world more and more till this day where it is upon every face, every building, every road, and in every corner. There is not much blue left in the world... But to you His Child of David He has drawn back the current and shown His blue light frequency. In your heart's shines the blue light, that is, if you hold tightly to it. You are in the world and most if not all of what you see is on a different frequency. Some darker than others, but next to none on the frequency I have given you. It is your choice whether you will climb higher and stay higher in this blue frequency or you will allow the enemy to drag you down into his lie that is all around you...

(Jesus:) So, to wake up, and to go to sleep with the blue frequency on your heart and mind is firstly a choice of the heart, then a battle of the mind to stay there. But it is your destiny to do so. In each of you I have placed My blue seeds that will be a part of the final blue Key that I am about to send into the millennium where we will bring the world back to the garden, back to the blue frequency. Not just man, but all creation, all things. All those things that were created by the wrong frequency will be done away with and we will start afresh. The world will, for the most part be realigned with My frequency.

Do you see now the importance of this year(2024/year of ice), and not just this year but the life I have called you to live. You're who I need to start the new garden in the future. The millennium will be like the nursery for the new heaven and the new year. You as My representatives will bring up as many as will follow to the right frequency, then on from there will be taken into the new earth to care for the new garden made up of those who were willing to follow. The frequency of 666 will be no more. All that will be left will be My blue and gold light for all to see. Then the world will be as a blue angel, and all creation will know that I am love and My ways are good.

January 22, 2024

(Azoria:) Take my hand, my beloved, and let me show you what it is that this World and you, the Warrior band, are experiencing in the Spirit. Though you have forsaken much, you still feel a sort of heaviness in your spirit, like trying to attain and reach something, yet there's always this vague, inexplicable barrier that always impedes your progress to a certain level. It's like having weights in the Spirit. Each day you strap them on, sometimes even wearing them to bed. And day by day, you get stronger. Each day you go a little further, endure a little more, love a little more. Until that day of final release, when the weights are removed. You feel a rushing, a sort of dizziness in the Spirit, your not used to feeling this light, but here you are at the cusp of the days of miracles! It's here, my love, and so soon will those weights dissipate as the Final Key embeds itself in that Barrier. It has been activated, and is moving—also like a comet—across the skies of prophecy, and the World is reeling from it's affects. As this gigantic Key flies through the Spirit, its movement creates waves and ripples in the fabric of Creation—the signs of the times!

Luke 21:25-26

[25]And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring;

[26]Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken.

This World is in opposition with the personality of God, with His Frequencies. And the Final Key exudes these frequencies. It pulsates with them, and sends them forth—wave after wave, and this world of man twitches and contorts as it makes contact with them. The true World is underneath, dormant. Man, with the help of Satan, has polluted it's surface and covered it with a layer of darkness and the lower frequencies of greed, violence, and the love of self. But this Key is a cleansing agent, as spirits to a wound, as peroxide to an infection. The dark spirits, and the spirits of evil men, are the negatives, and We are the positives. They will resist Us, but they cannot overcome Us. Though the whole world of evil is in agitation, you, the Elect, the 144,000, will be in ecstasy—harmonized to the music of the New Reality, singing as it were a New Song! New Frequencies!

January 13-22, 2024. A Brief Spirit Trip.

I met a young person, while walking down a path in the countryside of Space City. He walked up to me with eyes that said he knew me or had before when I was in Heaven before coming to Earth. He wasn't alone. It seemed he was a captain of sorts of this small band of other youths of Heaven. He was smiling, and without saying a word he walked right up to me and placed his hand on my chest and, leaning forward, placed his forehead to mine, and said,

"Hail traveler! Where are you headed?"

And I replied, " Well, nowhere in particular. I thought I'd just take a walk in this field and hopefully meet Jesus, or someone."

"Well I guess I'm your someone! And I'm happy that I am, for I have been meaning to tell you something. Take heart, dear one. For your battles are not in vain. We see you. What you do and what you say and the victories—and seeming defeats—you go through are what we are talking about around the tables. There are many who come from far corners of our Kingdom to sit and observe and be instructed by your struggles. Your lives are a testimony to many in the City and a tool of teaching for the many students we have Here. You are our brother. Flesh of our flesh and bone of our bone. We look up to you. The clouded way is not easy, for it takes great Faith and a steely resolve, but take heart, for you are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses who see your determination and revel in the victories you are winning. You are not alone. The Stadium is full to the brim with eager onlookers. We know you will cross that finish line and we wait in eager anticipation for that moment. Take heart dear one, for your struggles are not in vain".

And then without another word he walked on, but not before he had passed something on to me, some gift or knowledge of the Spirit. He had pressed his forehead to mine, and just when he was about to leave he concentrated and imparted emotions to me. It was like he gave me his emotions and feelings. He didn't just want me to hear his words, but wanted me to know exactly how he felt. After that I walked on for... I don't know how long. I was headed inland, towards the center, where the Great Tree is located. And as I got closer I could begin to hear the faint rumble of falling water. I don't know how long He had been there, but gradually I became aware of a Presence to my right. As soft as a dove, He had slowly materialized and was walking beside me, with His arm around my shoulders. It was Jesus. Ahhhhh... I breathed in slowly, savoring the smell of Him—a smell that started off as soft, sweet, and ended in a deep, rich fragrance. I extended my left hand and caught hold on his front garment, and with my right embraced Him. I didn't want to let Him go, I felt I would lose Him if i didn't hold on. Oh, Jesus... You are here, with me. I can touch You, hold You, feel You. How fair, how pleasant art thou, oh my Love, for delights! Oh my dove, that art in the clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the stairs, let me see Thy countenance, let me hear Thy voice; for sweet is Thy voice, and Thy countenance is comely.

"I'm here... Where else would I be? This is My House after all. Don't cry, Love, I'm not going anywhere. You look a bit lost. Don't you know what you're supposed to be doing?"

"You are Here, in the City, for an important time of deep spiritual studying. You are here to find the little nooks and secret places of My Kingdom where you can sit down with your books and commune deeply with Me and your companions, asking us questions. And you are here to listen to the bells which will summon you to classes and lectures held in high training centers of My Realm. This is a time of studying, of pushing aside all that is on your mind. It's time to use your prophecy channel to travel to new Worlds and penetrate deep into the City itself. Your mind is our vehicle. Keep us in the forefront of your mind by drinking in the Word. This is also a time of battle. Satan has funneled vast resources and personnel into his forces that fight against the intake of My Word and the receiving of prophecy. Arakan, Obstacon, Oplexicon; these dark principalities have been given new authority, more leeway, and a larger pool of demons to command—their reach is farther and their power is increasing. This is what the "Time of the End" means to you—heavier spiritual battles. You are not in the flesh, you are in the Spirit. You walk between the Worlds, you are the bridge, so you will most likely experience both sides of the combat to some extent, but it is the spiritual warfare, the mind, that is your main concern."

We seemed to be entering a new country, with terrain changes. There was more rocks and cliffs and you could hear water running all around you. We were getting closer to the Tree. Up ahead there was a large stream running horizontal to us and ending with a waterfall to our right, which seemed to put an end to the path. But Jesus pointed out a fork in the road which I hadn't noticed. The path we were traveling had sloped downwards and we were now descending off the main road down a hidden path behind the waterfall, with rock face to our left and water to our right.

"Sweet dove, I want to use your mind for Heavenly things. Like this rock face. Not to block the flow of My River, but to create a waterfall of My Words! I want your mind to be constantly channeling My thoughts and Words, tuned into what is happening and being said around you. I want it to sit down with us, at the table of counsel, and help to formulate ideas and new Words. We're in this together, all of Us! This City is My Bride. You're like the terrain, which helps direct the flow of Me, the Water of Life, onto the World. Your mind is meant to be fused with My mind, so I can really show it things, and it won't go wandering off. The Keys will lock and bind your carnal mind and reasoning, and will also bind your heart to Mine. It is the Keys—which are My Words—that will release your spiritual mind from the confines of the carnal one, and lock it into My Mind. And it is specifically the Blue Key that will do this. You see, we're changing your frequency off the lower channels of the flesh and spirit, and onto the higher one, the Blue Frequency. We want to connect you directly to the Generators, to the source, to your Blue Angels. They are a key, you are a key, and we want you both to merge into one Key."

He pauses in His talk and gently taps my temple, then continues.

"Your spirit may be Here with us in the City, but your mind at most times is not. You've taken in quite a bit of junk these last few months, My Love, and it'll take time and a thorough weeding of your mind before the Water can run smoothly, without any obstructions. You've done well to throw away those things we've pointed out to you. Now comes the time of cleansing. Yes, some time will be lost. We won't be able to jump right into those deep secrets of the 'blue hour' just yet. But don't worry, we'll get there..... I want to love you, My Sister, My Spouse. I want you to be on the same page as Me, the same thought patterns. I want to whisper My secret love to you, through this dark hour. Embrace Me, really embrace Me, with your entire being, and I'll change you..."

"Oh Love, I feel You so close. My Rose, You are altogether lovely."

As He holds me in this place, between rock and water, deep within the courts of God, I feel myself changing. I feel... New. I feel like a Bride. Soft and gentle, wispy and transparent. Even my colors are changing and are now—for a brief moment—New! My hair is long, and White! My skin also is more pale and ethereal, glowing gently with a blue tint. And in me beats a heart of living gold, like a yellow gem of Life in the center of my being. I wish I could draw this moment. Betwixt Water and Rock, she was changed!

I sigh with exuberance, and shakily ask...

"....What is this feeling, this sensation? What are these colors? Why does my heart shine like this..?"

(Jesus:) "The Light of the body is the eye, or color. Therefore, if thy eye(color) be single, thy whole body will be filled with Light"

"You mean this is what it looks like to be..."

"When your eye is single, when all you want, dream, and love is Me. When I am your only Ray of Light, then the prism of your soul can refract My full color spectrum. You become beings of light."

"Full Possession..."

"This is the color of possession, though there are varying hues to each person's soul. Yours is golden, with tinges of blue and white. You share this hue with others, namely in the Warrior band. But there are other 'shades of the soul'. These are your colors, and this is what you look like in the Spirit—the high, high Spirit. You are a Star, shining in the Heavens. And I am your center. My golden seeds, My Words, are your life force, and in your veins runs the pure energy of the Generators. You are white because I have washed you clean, no more of your old self. When you return to My arms you will have accomplished your mission, and you will don your robes of light once more. Cherish this vision I have given you. This is but a glimpse into the glories I have stored up for you. Look to the future, your future, that I have reserved for you, My precious Warrior band. And hold My Words to your bosom, hold My Keys close, for They are your life force and your source of Life."

Slowly the vision fades and we walk on, hand in hand, as Jesus continues to speak...

To be continued (perhaps)...
