Nothing Left To Fear

(Jesus:) Only those who fight with no fear of loss in their hearts conquer all. They have nothing to lose, therefore they gain all things. They conquer all, for they are not defending personal claims or possessions, but are rather fighting for the honour of the Kingdom. They proudly open their arms to the battle, and they smile into the fray, for they know that it can only serve to better them. They know there is no loss in this battle--only victory.

Therefore give all, without thought of the morrow, that you may gain all. Give without fear of loss, that you may gain the treasure, the spoil of the battle, the reward of the fight--for it is highly esteemed and precious. One soldier who fears no loss is worth more than a host of soldiers who fight with reservations in their hearts. Therefore, strive to have no fear of loss. Place all in My hands.

I shall keep it there and then you need not fear loss. You will not lose.

I am the Giver and the Taker. I never cause loss. I give and I take, but this is not loss unto you but gain--if you are able to leave all things in My hands. For I do not take and stop there, but the cycle will continue, just as the sun rises in the morning after darkness has veiled the land; I will give unto you again.

I wish to make you of a special caliber--those upon whom the Enemy can exact no fear or worry. You must trust explicitly and champion the cause of those around you, that you may show others the joy of fighting without reservation and of obtaining the perfect victory. This is the glorious conquest of a fighter. (End of message.) (Shooting Straight, Part 1 [#3499])

7-8-20 You speaking : Jesus my Love I make it my reason for living to show You that You are loved. I make it my goal to fill Your heart and show You that are so beautiful! I can't even do that without You Jesus. But I want to make it my purpose: to lift You up and not care if no one even looks my way.

I want to get to the point where I have nothing to lose, and You can send me anywhere to do anything because I am already at the bottom. Jesus please I throw my self at Your feet. I know I am bad, but Jesus I want You. I love You and I desire You above it all.

Sacrifice and forsaking all are simply a part of discipleship;

They're key elements to being able to live the discipleship life to the full.

Once you hold back in one area of your life, once you hesitate to give God that one key of your heart, it'll be so much easier for you to hold back next time, in one other area, and that leads to compromise.

Are you a disciple who is willing to give your all to follow God--even if it means forsaking something or someone you love? Are you a disciple who will hold nothing back from the Lord, but will humbly lay it at God's feet, desiring only to do His will? Are you a disciple who thinks beyond the personal family unit, beyond your intimate life and desires, and looks at what will benefit the Family and your Home as a whole, even if it means forsaking something dear to you? Do you live the One Wife vision to the full?

Do you trust God enough to obey Him, even when you can't see the reasons why?

Those may be hard questions to ask yourself, they may even make you cringe, but that's part of doing whatever it takes to become a full-time disciple. Sacrifice is the life of the disciple, but it is through sacrifice that the Lord brings about some of the greatest desires of your heart. It's through the humble forsaking of your own desires and will that God can in turn fill you with something better, something that will make you a better disciple, a better servant, a better bride, a better revolutionary.

Isn't that what you want? (Shooting Straight, Part 1 [#3499])

15-6-21 Prophecy: If that is your goal;(a better disciple, a better servant, a better bride, a better revolutionary.) If your only desire is to be something I can use then this is the way walk ye in it. If you want to come to the place where you are no longer afraid, no longer scared of the loss then I say allow yourself to be humiliated, exposed, crushed and broken. That is the only way the vestiges of self are removed. I am not saying you won't hurt and feel pain, but the fear that I will let you down won't be there; the fear that comes with pride won't be there. The fear of losing something so precious that you will seem to never get back won't be holding your heart so tightly. The fear that comes when you fear you'll lose who you are; fear that you'll lose your reputation and your image will be gone. You won't be held back by the fear of man; I will be able to put you in any situation knowing you'll do My will simply because you have nothing left to live for. I am everything and that's your one goal, and although you are tempted and tested you remain steadfast in My promises and you go and do whatever I put on your heart.

You have been so humbled, so broken so humiliated when I say speak, you speak, when I say go talk to those intimidating people you do it. When I tell you to put your heart and lessons out for others to see, you obey and hold nothing back. When I say stay put and stand behind so someone else can shine it makes no difference to you, since it has been Me getting the credit. When I say sit down and stop you can trust that the work will be ok. When I say go out witnessing and be the leader you do it even if you are stuttering and receive blank stares or are asked to go away, you don't care because you are doing it for Me. When I say make a blog to raise the bones, and keep doing it even without any feedback you do so. When I say pour your life and effort into making videos, but then you receive little encouragement and even scorn you don't stop because you have nothing to lose. When I say give Me your desires and let Me be for you your Lover you run into My arms and allow Me to satisfy you. When I say be whatever I want and look the way I want you to, you yield. When I say tell the world who the antichrist is you do it. When I say point your finger at the sky to command the weather and call on the keys YOU DON'T HESITATE. Do you get the point? I need you to be at the place where there isn't anywhere you wouldn't go for Me. A place where I can give you any job without fear that you would become lifted up and proud. A place where all that matters to you is Me and My will… and fulfilling it no matter how much the personal sacrifice. I need you humble. I need you broken and I need you without roots or attachments. I need you to be able to go wherever I say to. If you are continually in fear and always analysing why this is unreasonable you aren't going to be used very much. Fear is a strong force used by the enemy to bind you so tightly at times you feel it is impossible to move or do what I have asked. If you listen to the fear of the devil you can become like a drug addict basically useless for everything but taking your drug. There is so much fear in your heart, My love, and it's not until you step off the cliff and put your hand into the hand of God trusting will you find freedom. I need you to go the very seat and root of your worst fears and I need you to prove Me even amidst those things you have run from for so long. I need you to live through them. "then after that there's little left to fear" and the devil doesn't have anything to grab to control you and make you do what he wants. You now have nothing left to lose and here in this state you become able to fulfil My will in your life more than ever before. It's not until you fight your fears that you realize just how much they were hindering you. Here you are recreated; here you are made again a better vessel…no longer fearing what YOU will lose. This is where true humility and submission can reign. THIS IS WHERE YOU ARE GIVEN A NEW NAME…NO LONGER BOUND BY FEAR BUT SET FREE TO LOVE. Love is your goal, darling; Forgiveness, sacrifice, letting go and embracing instead of holding at arm's length. You become more like Me and are no longer a tormented soul, but a free one.

To get to that point where you no longer have that fear, I have strip to you many, many times and you have to find Me faithful through it all(that's your part to play). I shall be found, and I will show you what it means to be Mine. Yes I can crush you, but it's your decision to break. It's your choice to become soft and malleable. You have to say yes to the removal of all your garments and even help Me remove them which so many are unwilling to do. A struggle can even ensue between us, a back and forth of whether you will allow Me to really strip you bare, with no comfort left for you but save Me alone. This is where your faith in My promises must come in, you must believe Me when I say yes you will be okay without this one too, even more so you will be free. Free of fear. Forever free of the fear that you somehow have to be someone beautiful, someone useful, someone good and glorious and someone strong. Once you relinquish these garments then true brokenness and humility can finally begin to grow within you.

Once you choose Me you become that special instrument in My hand. You become that one who is Mine and Mine alone. You know Me and I know you and here we are.

Call on the keys of Desiring Only

Why do so many still run away from the qualities that I hold in high esteem? Why does your mind still rebel and resist these qualities of selflessness, humility, conviction, unity, and concern for others? Because it means you have to let go of the narrow vision of the moment. The carnal mind cannot grasp the bigger picture. It is natural for the carnal mind to fear what it cannot understand.

The Devil's greatest power is in fear, and therefore his greatest grip on your mind is through its inability to understand the things of the spirit.

Your spirit senses the true realities and longs to partake of them; it senses their value. That's why as you take on more of My mind through the Word, through communing with Me, through hearing My voice in your heart and allowing Me to love you intimately, the carnal mind's control weakens and your spirit's control increases. Satan's grip through fear of the unknown weakens, as I and My realm become more and more real in your life. (Heavenly Culture!)

So can you not trust in My love? Can you not give yourself wholly unto Me--your heart, your thoughts, your future? Do not fear the attacks of the Enemy, for he has no power when you are yielded. His power is manifested in fear, and My power is manifested in your yieldedness.

As you yield to Me and trust Me, you will feel the strength of My love. As you surrender your all to Me, you will feel the strength of faith. As you give yourself wholly to Me as My bride, trusting that I love you more than anyone, that I know you better than anyone, and that I can take care of you and supply your needs more completely than anyone, then you will have no fear of the future. You will have no fear of what you will lose, for you will have gained everything in giving your all to Me. You will gain peace of mind, freedom from fear, and faith for the future, knowing that I love you and that I will not hurt you.

I will not take anything away from you without giving you something better. I will not lead you into the darkness, but into the light.

So be not fearful or of the temporary heartbreak or of what seems to you to be a sacrifice. Even in this, trust Me, knowing that as you reach out with one hand to give, I will take your other hand and place within it much greater blessings. You'll give what looks like so much to you, but then when you see what you've received in return, you'll realize that it's been worth it all. When you see the fruit of such giving, when you see the love and happiness that it bears in the lives of others, you'll know that it was worth it all!

Fear not, My little one, for fear is the power of the Enemy. It's not of Me--it's of the Evil One. When you feel this fear well up in your heart, know that it's of the Enemy. He seeks to destroy your connection with Me, your confidence in Me. He seeks to wipe out the reassurance that I would give you of My great love for you, for he knows that this confidence and this reassurance is what gives you power and strength. He knows if he can do anything to undermine or destroy that, he will have won a great victory.

So resist the Enemy! Stand fast against his attacks, knowing that he seeks to drive a wedge between you and Me. He seeks to cause you to doubt My love, to doubt My constant care for you. He tries to get you to forget the pages of the book of your past and the history of your life and the many, many blessings, the showers of blessings, the constant care, and the love that I have bestowed upon you. He tries to get you to forget all of this and cause you to fear, to think that, "Oh, the Lord has loved me up until now, but maybe His love will run out! Maybe His safekeeping will come to an end!" But know that these are fears of the Enemy, and serious attacks to steal away your faith, your peace of mind, and your confidence. (End of message from Jesus.)
(Defeating Jealousy!)

I WON'T FAIL YOU

It is an utter forsaking that I require. It is not only a willingness to forsake your belongings or your ministry or your job or your mate, but it is a forsaking of your own self and your pride.

Lay these down before Me and come with nothing in your hands.

I will hold you and I will not let you fall. I will take you up into My arms and I will reward you many times over for this sacrifice and your yieldedness to Me. It shall not be a loss, but you shall gain and flourish and reflect the tenderness of My Spirit upon others.

Others shall find comfort in the comfort that you have found. Your brokenness shall bring unto many the sweet understanding, sympathy and comfort that they long for and need. You cannot see it now, but through your yieldedness and forsaking of your pride I will shape you into a vessel most dearly used by Me and cherished by others. So hold fast that which thou hast, that no man take your crown. Know that I will not fail you, but I will fulfil My promises unto you. Fear not, only believe, and accept My Words of love.

Not one thing that I have promised will fail.(From Jesus with Love 1)

22-10-20 Look past the torment of today and know it is availing in you something of great value. I need you, I want to use you, but Anorexia (whatever) is in My way. I'll beat you down if I have to, I don't in any way revel in this process, but I know what you really want, so I'll throw you in the deep sea, stoke a great fire beneath you, and send lions to chase you all in hopes that you will cry to Me and discover Me in full. That's what I am after, I so desire to be discovered and I need to be everything to you. Sometimes this is the only way you realize this. When everything else has been ripped off and you are and have nothing. In having nothing you gain all of Me.

God gets some of His greatest victories out of seeming defeats.--Victories of brokenness, humility, & more utter dependence on Him, which you must have if you're going to lead & inspire others! My Mother once asked the great evangelist, Paul Rader, "Why are the labourers always so few?" & he answered wisely, "I guess God can't BREAK them fast enough!" How true!

God only uses BROKEN men & women--no others will do! Others are too self-confident in their own flesh! God has to break them, melt them, mold them in the hands of the Potter, to make them a better vessel. But He won't FORCE it!

Did you know that the potters often do that?--When they're working the clay, when they have finished a vessel or are even half-way through, & they find an imperfection or something where there's a mistake or there's a lump or there's a mar, they will take that same clay & CRUSH it & add more water to it again, make it soft again & knead it again & work it again.--Mash it, crush it, squeeze it, till they make it nice soft clay again.--Then they REMAKE it into a NEW vessel & a BETTER vessel if the first one didn't come out quite right. (Jer.18:4) (Self-Righteousness!)

22-4-20 Forget those things which are behind. Now you can move on. Now you can rise up from the dust and walk away. Even if you're bloody and beaten even if the best you can do is limp away. Still progress is being made and I am fulfilling My Words to you. I ask not for you to "feel" completely healed I only ask you to continue walking forward.

I am sorry but your life is a life of crushings and smashing as are all the lives of those who I would use to accomplish My purpose. You don't need to do anything wonderful for Me. Your perception is wrong in thinking you have to accomplish something amazing in order to be fulfilling your destiny. But beloved have I not said your destiny is to love? To love and never stop loving for I wish to use you as a conduit of My love.

Do not despise being nothing and no one. Nothing but a lover, a humble conduit of love. A cup of love fit only for filling up on Me and then pouring out. In I pour and out you pour. This cycle must continue; don't hold back because of fear of the pain or rejection…is that not selfishness? Do not close your lid and I will continue to be able to use you to do My will. I don't want a someone…they have too many ideas, I want a no one looking for something to be…then you can be Me to others and I can freely pour My love out through you. Be nothing for Me and then it will just be Me in you. I love you darling come now into My bed and let us make love and hold each other for great darkness is all around. (End of message from Jesus.)

The breaking depends upon YOU & your YIELDEDNESS, & WILLINGNESS to be made willing, total HUMILITY, which is synonymous with total LOVE!—

So that you're willing to go anywhere, anytime, & do anything, for anybody, & be nobody, to please Him, & help others!

Apparently the Lord can't trust you with a high & mighty job or a high & mighty testimony, or a high & mighty responsibility, something that might really lift you up in pride, until He has really HUMBLED you & BROKEN you so that you know it's the LORD & you give HIM all the glory & all the credit & it doesn't go to your head & make you proud!--Which is why the New Testament says you're not to give a novice any position of great responsibility or leadership lest he be lifted up in pride & then fall under the condemnation (judgement or sentence) of the Devil by the Lord. (1Tim.3:6)--In other words, if you get all lifted up in that horrible sin of pride that caused the Devil to fall--watch out! You'll get the same judgement that he got, & you'll fall, too. The Lord will let you make a fool of yourself & a mess of things & you'll fall flat on your face & be humbled & humiliated!

Unless God is able to break your spirit, you can never be truly USEFUL to the Lord! If you have a proud & a haughty spirit, a selfish spirit, a spirit which is unyielding & unbending & unsurrendered, you can never be greatly used by the Lord! (Self-Righteousness!)

See if you keep putting yourself in a seat of humility, then you don't have to be forcibly humbled just to keep you on track and out of satan's traps.

Traps are for the proud who think they know where they are going and can do as they please.

Traps are for the proud who thinking they can get along fine on their own two feet.

Traps are for those who can't take a drop of humility when it comes to them in a cup to drink. But the humble are thirsty, and even if it is hard to swallow, they take the cup of humiliation and drink it, as they are thirsty for the truth.

So the humble do get refreshed, The humble are given stamina to carry on.

We watch for the humble levels in a person's soul, and must knock them down a notch or two, or quite a few if that's a need. So don't think for a day that you are going to soar or sail along without something that tests your pride, something that tries to get pride to flare up; and there won't be a day with out a test of humility, something that makes and keeps you humble.

Humans can tend to see these tests as a wide range of things, all with a different label on them. But really it's all about getting and staying humble. –-If you let it, and don't get so into the hurt side of things, but step back to view things from a new angle. "Ouch that hurt, but what can I learn about my weakness from it. Am I depending on the Lord enough? Or do I still think that if I practice my skills enough and work hard enough I'll be good enough to do things totally 'right' one of these days?"

See, you will never stop getting touches of humility.

King Nebuchadnezzar had to learn the long and hard way, what pride is and what humility was. He wasn't well acquainted with the dangers of pride.

We all learned. It cost us all a whole lot when those of our family fell to the serpent. When he turned in to a serpent—like a winged creature filled with light and colour, turning again to a worm in the dust. It was a backward step.

And now we know, pride is not the way to go. And we fight it like the plague.

Why are there so many of us monitoring you, our brethren there in the kingdom of pride? So the plague doesn't start. It's is easy for pride to be a part of your nature, because that is where you are dwelling.

Here, it's love and humility that surrounds us, so it's "infectious" if you want to say it that way. You breath and live it and contribute to it. For that which is loving and humble is what flourishes. Any bits of pride just don't take root. The air of heaven is like burning acid and kills off the spirit of satan, the world spirit, the spirit of pride. They are so similar these days.

But we are sent to watch over God's sheep to keep them from the "forbidden sin". Sin is pride, and pride is sin. So what did satan give the seeds to Adam and Eve? Pride, that was the first, and from that springs so much else. The "I know and am and can be just a bit better and wiser than God—at least in something. For example I wouldn't be doing such and such like it seems He has done in that situation. And I certainly wouldn't be making me have to go through that, for that just isn't right."

When we see symptoms of the sin of pride, of the plague on a soul we are to guard, we strike a blow in the best way. We "operate" as you could say. Like the expression says, "Cut it out", meaning "stop it". You have to remove something to stop the spread of the infection. And we do things that bring you low, but hopefully teach you not to do it. But you have to read the Word or listen fresh so you can get the full lesson.

Getting a "lesson on humility" is like saying "sit down". A humbler we give, a "wack" that hurts might be like saying "sit here and learn". So if you take the humble seat and sit down and then listen and read you'll get the point of the lesson, not just the humiliation.

And the older and wiser you get, the harder the "wacks" are. The lessons do get harder, but that is because you are tougher and might miss something if it wasn't made real clear to you.

So mistakes and short comings are built in humblers, that will always be a part of your life.

And every time you notice a flaw in the way you react to things or to others, that's to keep you on a humble road, and to teach you something.

Just about everything has a built in way to humble you. For indeed coming through this life with a cloak of humility on you, rather than a garment of pride, is very challenging, and very very important.

So we “dress” and “re-dress” you as is needed. The old is burned away, and yet the next cloak of humility is put on you. We just have to keep at it and keep pushing you off the pride pedestal that you want to keep being displayed on—even if the only one looking at you is the image in the mirror you are looking at. “Wow, I made it! I’m up here”.

But because we care about the condition you reach heaven in, “splat!” into the mud you go, off that high and holy place that only God, the one True God is meant to be.

Ah, now your clothing of pride got muddy, and have to be what? Yes, removed. Then comes the nakedness and the washing. Then what? Something shiny to put on? No. Just a ragged cloak to wrap around you. But the funny thing about this cloak is that to you it looks plain, worn, rough and ragged, but to others it actually looks really nice. And the reverse is so with garments of pride: what looks nice to you, when you feel you are nicer than others, they see it as rags and don’t want to brush up against you.

Man doesn’t have the eyes to see things as God does. Things aren’t as they appear.

So if you go through your life’s journals, and think of all the “worst moments” did they serve the purpose of humbling you or others? Say for example someone did something that was wrong and it hurt you. Are they sorry for it? Do they regret it? Is there a fresh cloak of humility put on them?

Then that is a gift you can give them, the chance to be humbled, though it cost you some pain. But you’ll be in the same boat time and again as well. Give each other the chance to be humbled time and again by allowing each other to make and keep making mistakes and do things wrong without getting all uptight about it.

To walk upright

Don’t get uptight.

“I’ll give you that lesson on humility, brother,” you can say in your heart. Because even if they aren’t learning it now, they will one day learn that it really wasn’t right, and most likely was done in a spirit of pride or self-preservation. Which leads us to the next lesson, right?

(23-MAR-2021_the humble get stamina)

(Forsaking All :
Once you have determined to serve the Lord, you can't lose--anything but your life!--Or maybe your wife or husband or children or mother or father or houses & lands or your money--but what is that in comparison to all He offers you?

The more He gives you, the more you're going to have to forsake!

Forsaking all is not just something you do once & for all, you have to constantly be forsaking in your heart. Every day you're forsaking the Devil's voice & temptations to try to suck you back into the old ways & the old system!

When you give everything to God, then He takes care of everything! But when you hold something back for yourself, then you must take care of it!

Give to God as though you never expect to get it back.

How can you take something away from the man who's given up everything?

You will never know the fullness of the joy of serving God to the utmost until you have forsaken all to follow Jesus Christ.

I don't understand how anybody can give God less than everything.

FOR UNLESS YOU HAVE BEEN BROKEN, humbled, humiliated & come to the end of yourself & have nothing left but God, He will never be able to use you as greatly as He would like! But when He can get YOU out of the way, then HE has a chance!

"THAT THE EXCELLENCY OF THE POWER MAY BE OF GOD, & NOT OF US!" "When we are weak, we are strong, for then His strength has a chance to be made perfect in our weakness"--to show it's God, & not us, that He may be glorified!--2Cor.4:7; 12:10.

THE WEAKER YOU GET IN THE FLESH, THE STRONGER YOU ARE IN THE SPIRIT. When you're so weak you don't feel capable or sufficient, then God has a chance to take over & do things to suit Himself. When you become nothing but a tool & a channel--then He can really use you!

IT IS GOD THAT GIVES US THE STRENGTH & GOD THAT HAS DONE IT ALL!--Phi.2:13. We are the work of God--the work of His fingers. So give HIM ALL the glory! Praise the Lord!
(New Life!--New Love!)

PSA.45:10, 11 Hearken, O daughter, and consider, and incline thine ear; forget also thine own people, and thy father's house;

So shall the king greatly desire thy beauty: for he is thy Lord; and worship thou him.

My goal is for each of you and the Family as a whole to get to the place where you are free of compromise, unconfessed sin, disobedience, and all those things that let the Enemy in and make things so much harder for you as My disciples. They're like spiritual weights that make everything more difficult. They hold back My blessings. They limit the power you could have access to. Once you get rid of the weights, you'll realize how much spiritual strength and faith and stamina I have made available to you.

Won't you follow Me to the place of greater blessings, happiness and freedom? You have nothing to lose--nothing except maybe a few remnants of pride, self-righteousness and sin. Who would want to hang on to those, anyway? So forsake these things that are holding you back, and reach out for what I have for you in return--the true treasures of humility, openness, forgiveness and freedom. When you think about it like that, there's no comparison!

(Renewal: Amnesty [#3495])

(Martin Luther:) The most crucial task that befell me in my sojourn on Earth was that of "having done all, to stand" (Eph.6:13). I made my historic stand, through the grace of God, and told the world, "Here I stand, I can do no other." Do not think that it cost me little or nothing to take that stand--it cost me everything! But it was worth so much more than it cost, as it changed the future of my day and I fulfilled my destiny. (Fight for Your Faith, Part 1! [#3667])

Sonara- This is what you have been searching for. This is what you have desired, "what? “You say “this doesn't feel like everything I've dreamed of.” It is these very feelings of weakness that you are after, so that you can chase Him to find and discover His strength and His satisfying Spirit.

58. That is the place where you see things in the spirit, through My eyes, which are the eyes of the truest, deepest reality. That is the place where you see that I am the center, the reason, the meaning of everything, and that without Me there is nothing. It's a difficult position to be in, but it's the most beautiful, the most glorious, the most honored in the heavenly spiritual realm.

59. Whatever specific circumstances I use, whatever it is that I have asked you to forsake, or to endure, or to fight for, the end result of allowing you, My darling brides, to go through breakings, is to bring you to this very place in spirit. This is the place where you end and I begin. This is the place where you are nothing and I am everything. This is the place where I enter you and make love to you and possess you in a way that I never could when you were covered with the robes and props and distractions that I had to ask you to forsake.

Prophecy - Is this your desire? You call for Me I will not turn away from you. I will pour forth your life and it will quench the thirst of many. I will tear apart that which pertains to you and your past life. I will shatter that sacred place. Then I will take you. I will take you I will hold you and I will never ever let go. I will answer your prayer and will keep you from anything that would draw your heart away. You will walk a bloody trail, the road before you walk is stained with My very own blood, for this is My trail which you walk. I will walk it over and over with anyone who desires this precious jewel of discovering that I am everything. You have heard this many, many times "I am everything", but only now do you truly understand what this means, and to what extent it will take you. And just how much it costs to realize this. I have never let you down, when I put you in the furnace I was always there to hold you through the burning, through the heat and through the torment. Come to Me now letting go. (End of message)

If you aren't willing to strip yourself of your false cover-ups, your layers and layers of unnecessary clothing and gadgets, then you're not going to be of much use to the Lord anywhere, let alone on the mission field. In fact, anyone who stubbornly clings to the things of this world and refuses to yield certain parts of their life to the Lord is not going to last in this Kingdom of the Family very long.

If you're going to give your life to Jesus, then why not go all the way? He went all the way to the cross for you. He bled and died for you! He came to this ungodly Earth and He took upon Himself the form of a man and walked this dusty road called life all because of you. He was touched with the feeling of your infirmities. He was persecuted and got weary of sacrifice, but He did it for you--just you. He did it out of love for you--just you.

Will you take up the cross that He's given to you, and only you? Will you walk this dusty road of life even if you're weary of sacrifice, out of love for your Lord and Lover Who gave His life for you? Will you pick up the cross of dying to yourself and carry it, just like He carried His cross up to Calvary for you? You have only one life to live for Jesus, and this life on Earth is slowly coming to a close. This life, this world and all that it has to offer, will soon be no more, and all that you'll have left will be the memories of your life for Jesus, your life as His disciple, your life as His missionary, and the fruits thereof in the form of His spiritual and physical children.

It's such a small thing to give up the things that are holding you down and hindering your usefulness to the Lord, when you look at things this way. To think that the Lord is going to honor you when He comes in the glory of the clouds of Heaven, if you're not ashamed to be called His and His alone and come out from among the world and be separate! But if you choose to be counted with the world and you're ashamed of Him and His Words in this adulterous and sinful generation, then the Lord's going to be ashamed of you when He comes in the clouds of Heaven with power and great glory.

You have only one life, and only what's done for Jesus and for lost souls will last! Make your life count and make an investment by being a 110% disciple and missionary for Jesus! It will last forever and you'll never regret giving your life to the One Who gave His whole life for you. I love you! (End of message from Dad.) (Trash Your Trinkets and Head for the Hills!)

Sometimes how you look at things comes down to a matter of how much you're willing to give all, to serve, to have no reservations left for yourself at all, to truly be a slave of whatever I ask you to do without hanging on to any personal desires of your own. That's really what a love slave is. When you give your life to Me, that's what you're doing, and that's really what I'm looking for--those disciples who are so in love with Me that they are willing to completely surrender their personal agenda; all they want to do is whatever I ask, no matter what, with no questions asked. (Issues, Part 12 [#3418])

This denying of self, this giving of one's life, is a daily requirement. Many have done it once or twice, but I love My children because they do it daily. I reward them with special faith for obeying, for believing, for receiving and for obeying My Word and for following My instruction.

(From Jesus with Love 2)

My Jesus how do I get back to You?
How do I get back to being simply in love with You? I feel so wrapped up and torn apart from wanting these things so badly. But Jesus I want to say it to You again*. I want to say to You that I am willing; I don't feel willing, I don't want to let go, but I am saying this to You because I know deep down You are all I want.*
I feel so fearful and unsure; I really feel I am missing something so special, and it's really hard to trust You.
It's hard to let go of it, but Jesus it's causing me to fall from Your arms and Jesus I never ever want to lose You. I don't want to experience life without You, so Jesus I am willing. Do what You have to do, only give me the strength I do not possess. Open my cage, loose my chains and please give me what it takes to walk away from all that I know and desire. I am willing to let You in*.*
Come into the room of my life and take away whatever You don't like.
I don't know where to begin because there's so much crap in here, so Jesus I am giving You leave to do with my life whatever seems good to You. I don't want anything to lean on. I don't want to be holding onto anything but You. Please take my security. Take my hopes and desires and replace them with Yourself*.*
I am afraid of being so humble,
so empty and just so, so nothing
with nothing to want,
Nothing to hold,
Nothing to show but my love for You*.*
I am scared of losing everything, because that means I will be transparent and then that means no one will look at or care about me at all; I am scared of that.
Scared of the loneliness and the emptiness.
I am desperately clinging to Your promise that You won't me leave empty, but that You will embrace me and will be enough.
I believe that there is beauty in forgetting about myself and my own needs, and just living to serve You and others. To praise and smile even if I don't have anything that I desire and crave. Jesus I want that, I want to let go of all that pertains to me and myself. Please, please, please, I am begging You Jesus. You are the only road i want to walk on. You are the fight I want to fight for. My God, My God please help me to give You my best just by faith, because my mind and heart are opposing this so much. I feel like somehow by holding onto it I'll get it, but I don't want anything You don't want. Please take me at these words and deliver my heart from these deeply rooted desires. I don't deserve Your mercy, but please I want to give my breath to You. You are wonderful and Jesus You are my desire. Please, please don't hold back because of my folly. Give me the battles that will draw me closer to You. Don't hold back because of my lacks; I really do want You. I need Your help Jesus please take my hand and lead me in the way that leads to You. I need You. I need You so badly.

"Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit." -- It's a strange paradox that life will come out of death. Except you die, you'll never truly live, just as the paradox, except you give forth you can't truly take in.

"Give and it is given unto you." But "If you withhold more than is meet it tendeth to poverty" (Lk.6:38 , Pro.11:24 .) -- These wonderful Verses teach us this lesson. And so in the end of this Verse from God's Word, this last line:

"It abideth alone" -- This is the loneliness of the "self" life. If you're not willing to die, there is this loneliness. "Except a corn of wheat fall in the ground and die, it abides alone," this is why the "self life" is so stunted and impoverished.

The one who lives so self-absorbed and enwrapped, and self-pitying, with the idea that the whole universe revolves around them, they live the loneliest of lives, they indeed abide alone. And so many times they feel the utter futility of life.

Someone has wisely said that the smallest package in all the World is a man wrapped up in himself, and that surely is true! But how different the life of a real Christian, a dedicated Christian, where self has died! They've been crucified with Christ and they've been born again a new creature.

As Paul said, "It is no longer I that live, but Christ that liveth in me." (Gal.2:20) -- No more self-absorption, no more self-motives in life*, but* motivated by Christ within, he loses his life in larger interests: In the wealth of satisfaction from an outpoured life.

An outpoured life instead of an ingrown life! The promise is, "If it die, it bringeth forth much fruit." This new life, the Christ-life that has taken over, will suffer for others, it's true, it will expend itself;

It will bleed for the suffering, but oh, what a harvest of fruitfulness there is! It indeed brings forth much fruit because it has germinated into communion with others, it has germinated into fellowship with God and into a self-forgetfulness which brings rest, joy and riches eternal.

Seek Him, yield to Christ.

Yield all of self, present your body to Him a living sacrifice, as that Word says: "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, which is holy, acceptable unto God."

And he adds, "Which is your reasonable service!" (Rom.12:1) -- A living sacrifice that He may come in and abide, living out His Life through you until you can say with Paul, "Christ liveth in me!" And that Verse in Colossians will be fulfilled in you, "For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God." (Col.3:3)

This is the happy life!

This is the useful life, and the life that knows no real loneliness! Now with the death of self there are heights of joy that you have never known.

"If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. And set your affections on the things above, and not on the things on the earth. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

"And when Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then ye shall also appear with Him in glory." (Col.3:1-3)(See Saramay's account)

-- And so the Christian life is a life that's hid with Christ in God. Isn't it wonderful to have the life hid away above all the turmoil and strife of the world?

"When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with Him in glory!" (Col.3:4)

Please tell me that You can work with someone like me. I am not a brave, forsake-all solider. I am a half dead cornered and conjualed solider and I am sorry...I am sorry because I have nowhere else to go. You are all I have left. Jesus if anyone is unworthy it's me. If ever anyone didn't deserve to hear You speak I am that person. But Darling I need to know where to go from here, because really and truly I have nothing left to hold onto. I am empty handed please come Jesus I need You I want You.

Jesus: I have taken your life. I have taken everything you are in My hands. Now My love I ask that you do not hold back anymore. Do not crave the old, your old misery , your old security I am taking everything of the past away. Now I want you to take My hand into the dark future. Trust Me for your life and your mistakes. They are part of the journey, part of the course that is your life. Yours is this bittersweet cup. Come with Me now and forsake your control your desire to be someone. I am waiting to hold you closer than ever before. Please let Me by not holding onto any of your will.Just to be a no one –smiling, filling your little place. I love you baby even if you feel like the worst I promise at this very moment I am so close. I know you don't feel Me so much nowadays, but I am so close to you right now. I am proud of you, because you are willing and that's all I am after. You have no idea how you are going to make it, but you have told Me you are willing and that is beautiful in My sight. I love that. Now let Me hold you as you have desired for so long. I love you My precious. It is your very unworthiness that draws Me close to you.

Psalms chapter 51

Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness: according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

Wash me throughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

For I acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is ever before me.

Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight: that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.

Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me.

Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts: and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

Make me to hear joy and gladness; that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities.

Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.

Cast me not away from thy presence; and take not thy holy spirit from me.

Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation; and uphold me with thy free spirit.

Then will I teach transgressors thy ways; and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation: and my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

O Lord, open thou my lips; and my mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

For thou desirest not sacrifice; else would I give it: thou delightest not in burnt offering.

The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness, with burnt offering and whole burnt offering: then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar.

28-2-21

It just comes down to loving Me more than yourself and wanting to be in My presence no matter what the cost.

I am a fire, My love, do you still want this burning that is Me? Do you still really want to pay? You only get confused when you run from Me.

I will burn anything you feel you can hold onto. There will be no more handles or strengths that you will lean on. unless you want to go through more agonising pain I suggest you come to Me and let Me fill that place.

When I am finished with you…there won't be any type of thing that you can say: oh I have this, oh I am good at this, oh I am always faithful in this, oh I have a thin waist, oh I have a wonderful friendship, oh I receive beautiful prophecies, oh I am strong and can resist food, oh he likes me, oh I am a good witnessor.

Every little thing that you think you can hold I will cut down. I will be silent; I will withhold. I will trip you and take away the anointing. I will battles in that beautiful friendship. I will cause you to fail and do the very thing you were self-righteously singing triumph over. I will move My hand and you'll fall. When I see pride coming up, you can be sure you'll be crying again. Don't hide in your frustration, don't think you can just get away from Me. I think we have been together long enough for you to know that I simply don't give up that easily. When you think you are strong I'll remind you that you are weak, it can take a lot to do that sometimes.

It has to hurt if it is taking you away from Me. I can't let be perfect if it isn't making you want Me more. If you having those special things makes you pull away I will set it up so those very things hurt you and make you sad.
You say you feel broken?
But isn't that what I am after in the first place? I break you down why are you so busily trying to find something to "fix" it? Why in your frustration do you step away? I long to erase you; help you relax and be the One to calm your sea of fears.
I don't compare you with others…why should you?

Quiet - Do not quit fighting and you will come out on top. You will learn what you need to learn and you will succeed that is if you do not let up. You can't rest; you have to keep going to the weapons. They are the only rest you can run to. There's nothing left for you honey. Jesus is all you've got left to live for. There's nothing anymore it's all been destroyed in the fire. There's only ashes honey if you ever feel like going back there. Come and follow there's no better place to be. It takes faith; I know to keep at this road of forsaking. Every time you're tempted with the idea of, "Is this worth it? " that's when you gotta fight and keep going by faith alone.

Praise Him because He is merciful to keep from you what He knows will not help you. The rocky path of forsaking all is not for everyone but you can certainly choose it and God Himself will take your hand and teach you through your tears how to continue following Him when everything you loved is being stripped away. Say ,"Jesus I want You and Your thoughts above my own " and He will take you there no matter how many times you fall as long as you never stay down.

Every Christian was intended to bury his life in the soil of God's service, to lay down his life and take up his cross and follow Jesus in order to bear fruit, many more Christians like himself (Luke 9:23-24; John 15:8). Jesus said, "Unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it produces much grain" (John 12:24). If we will go out and "die daily" for the Lord in His service by giving our lives to help others

(1 Corinthians 15:31), we will bring forth much fruit, more Christians like ourselves to preach the Gospel to more of the lost and win them to the Lord that He may have much fruit.

What a small price to pay for all He has promised in return-blessings, happiness, and eternal rewards in Heaven! If you give your all, God will reward you a hundred times over (Matthew 19:29). You can't beat that kind of investment. There's no other investment in this world that guarantees that kind of returns. (One Heart At A Time)

21-4-20

It's slipping away. All I have held in my hands is turning to ashes.

I undo the sweater. I unbutton the shirt. I pull down the skirt. I remove the coverings. I take out your hair I take off the jewellery and wipe away the makeup. I will take it all away. Even as tears stream down your face. I won't stop. I can't stop. Even if you beg Me to please let you keep some thing. I only look deep into your eyes and ask, "Darling can I take this off too? Can I expose you? Will you let Me take every comfort every thing you cling to?" As you fall to your knees, down, down, down into the dust into despair seemingly naked and wrecthed. My love oh how My heart breaks beside yours. (Weeps) Darling, darling I love you and I cherish your gifts more than you could ever, ever know! And as you sit in the dust and in the ashes of all you once loved is when I love you and when I am best able to touch you and hold you and become one with you.

Do not despise this state. It is the most beautiful state in My eyes. This heartache is most precious and through it you will come to know Me as I truly am.

You speaking: Break this life of mine and let it be poured out on what seems good to You. I want to give You everything. I don't care to have anything else but You.

I am shaking and terrified but I give You permission to undress me completely! Do it my Beloved. I am so scared Jesus please comfort me please hold me. I know I am weak and lowly but I need You to hold me so I can make it. I can't make it Darling I need You. I need You so much.

I lay down that which is precious to me I count it a loss that I might win You. Oh I am not strong I am faltering under this commitment I cannot with no strength of my own do it. It has to be You. Help me to be willing to suffer and to praise through my tears. To lift up my arms and trust You. To know that whatever happens You love me You care for me. I believe my Beloved help Thou my unbelief. I surrender help Thou my rebelliousness. I need You. To make it out of this alive I need You to hold me tightly. Protect me from the waves but help me face my fear and fight on. I am willing to give You this tiny offering which is my life. You already bought and paid for it. So I only give back what already belongs to You. I love You. I want to breathe for You and continue fighting for You. Never let me go and I beg You help me never let You go. Jesus burn this life of mine on the altar of sacrifice and let it only be for You. I beg to be only for You. You are my only true Love I desire nothing and no one above You my Delight. I love You!

There's perfect rest in humility, because humility has love & faith without fear.

GIVE US GREAT WISDOM, HUMILITY, & LOVE, LORD, these three being the same & virtually synonymous--wisdom, humility & love--but the greatest of these is love. Having at the same time faith & hope, Lord, still the greatest of these is love.

"HE THAT IS GREATEST AMONG YOU MUST BE SERVANT OF ALL". (Mt.23:11) He must be the lowliest servant of all & serving the most people & really a servant, a slave.

EVERY ONE OF US HAS TO HAVE A LITTLE COMEDOWN ONCE IN A WHILE to either make us humble or show we're still humble! We all have to go back to the bottom & the beginning again to start over again in some way once in awhile to see if we are still humble.

If you have truly learned your lessons, & been humbled & broken by the Lord through it, He will usually use your humiliating experience, as He says, to make of you a better vessel in the Potter's Hands, even better fit for the Master's use! Unless you have been broken, humbled, humiliated & come to the end of yourself & have nothing left but God, God will never be able to use you as greatly as He would like!

Now may we all have learned a lesson & be better for it, Lord, be more humble, more patient, more loving, more kind, more forgiving, more longsuffering with each other, Lord, in Jesus' name we ask for Thy glory. Amen.

"God hath chosen the weak things to confound the mighty, the foolish things to confound the wise, & things which are not to bring to naught things that are!" (I Cor.1:27,28) The very fact that she doesn't feel like she can do it & she feels so humble about it & she doesn't feel capable of it is the best thing possible.

I guess she just wasn't big enough for the task--or maybe she wasn't little enough! The Lord says, “When thou wast little in thine own sight, He did highly exalt thee.” (ISam.15:17) But when Saul became proud & depending on himself & leaning on his own wisdom & his own arm of flesh instead of the Lord, the Lord had to abase him!

OH LORD, HELP US TO BE HUMBLE & NOT HARDENED & BITTER.

HE HAS NOT ABANDONED NOR DISINHERITED YOU, but still has great things in store for you--after He has taught you humility, true sacrifice & genuine “mercy for the poor”!

COME ALL THE WAY DOWN FROM HER LOFTY PERCH & BE HUMBLED IN THE HAND OF JESUS, & she'll be sorry, & then she's going to love me & Jesus. Hallelujah!

May Thy daughter be a shining example, & her workers, of the real values, Lord, of life, of the kindness & the humility & the love & the deep spirituality, Lord, that is needed now to contend with the forces of the Enemy who have entered into some.

We're all little ones before Thee.

JUST TEACH US, LORD, TO BE LIKE YOU, JESUS--humble & sweet & loving & patient, longsuffering. Praise You Lord! Thank You Jesus! We are nothing, Lord, but Thou art everything.

I'M ALWAYS PRETTY MUCH ASHAMED OF MYSELF BECAUSE I'M A PRETTY BIG MESS. I sometimes wonder how the Lord ever could use me, but I know He does. So I know He loves me & I know He uses me to help you for your sake, & therefore I know He loves you. And He lets you know what a mess I am, that I'm no good either, so you'll have hopes for yourselves, that if He can forgive me, He can certainly forgive you! (Humility & Meekness [#029])

But the more we're fighting to humble ourselves before Him and others, the shorter the fall is when He humbles us, and thus the less painful and difficult--because we're already closer to the bottom, ha! Praise the Lord!

(Stay Humble!)

You speaking: I had to crawl back to You , but here I am I want to be for You I want nothing I have nothing I am nothing! Jesus please I have nothing left but a few shattered pieces I have nowhere to go nothing to do nothing to give my life to but You. You are the only life I'd ever wanna live. I don't want to chase anyone or anything but You.

Do not be fearful for your weakness, for in this very weakness you will find My strength. This very weakness will be a reminder to you of how much you need Me. When you call out to Me in this weakness, I will be there to lift you up. I will be there to give you power that you know not of. In this weakness, as you call out to Me in desperation, when you reach the end of yourself and you have nothing left and you look up to Me, then you shall find new anointing. You shall find a new beginning. You shall find a new birth.

You shall find Me and know Me as you have never known Me before! Your dependence upon Me will be greater. Your desire for Me will be greater. Your knowledge of Me will be more intimate. Your relationship with Me will be warmer and closer than ever before. In this you shall find strength, power, wisdom and anointing. You shall find all the things that you need for the future. You feel that your future is so ordinary. You don't see any place for yourself. You don't see any reason for all this testing and all this training and all this time taken out of the wings to be strengthened. You see no outlet for all of this. But don't worry, for you do not see as I see. Your vision is so shortsighted, but I know the future. I know the needs of the future, and I have a plan. Trust Me that I know you will need all of these gifts and more. You will be used to the full. At that time you will be so grateful for these times of testing, these times of purging, these times when your faith was sorely tested, these times when you learned to lean on Me, these times when you saw Me answer prayer and you learned to trust Me. You'll be so grateful for these quiet times when you learned to hear My voice.

(From Jesus with Love 2)

APPARENTLY THE LORD CAN'T TRUST YOU WITH A HIGH & MIGHTY JOB OR A HIGH & MIGHTY TESTIMONY, or a high & mighty responsibility, something that might really lift you up in pride, until He has really humbled you & broken you so that you know it's the Lord & you give God all the glory & all the credit & it doesn't go to your head & make you proud!--

THE LORD REALLY JUST TOOK AWAY EVERYTHING I HAD, ALMOST EVERYTHING EXCEPT MY FAMILY, THANK GOD, & I even had to forsake them & go out & work with TV & all, & leave them with Eve. A lot of times I had to leave Eve & the kids home. He had to really drag me down to the depths to where I was broken & humbled enough to be thankful for anything.
YOU'VE GOTTA BE MORE THAN SMART TO BE A LEADER! You've got to be more than well-educated to be a leader! You've got to be more than a king's son or a queen's son to be a leader, God's leader. What do you need the most? (Fam: The anointing of the Spirit.) That's right, but you're not going to get that until you get what? (Fam: Learn to be a good follower.) That's a good point. (Fam: Humility.)--Till you're humble, broken!

27-8-21 You must let go of all these things that are now old and I have taken them from you. You must accept that they are gone and you can never have them again. Now open your arms and let go. My love look at Me and stop trying in your own mind soo much. You can't analyze these things... You must just accept and let go. Just let go and start chasing the things of the Spirit more and more. I can't say you have a perfect score because you don't, but I understand your frailty and your weakness, but I call to you to step up and let go. Just open your arms and let go. Accept that I have taken everything and that you have nothing. You are empty handed and this pleases Me. You are stripped even of your own goodness. I have swept it all away. I have broken down your walls and have demolished everything that pertained to "your own". I have surprised you with My thoroughness, but you must understand what I am doing, and that it is the best. I must strip down then turn you around and pick you up and shake it up, for this is how I keep you from the bed of Lethargy and Apotheon. You need these things to just make you feel like you are uncomfortable, you are not so ok, you are ruffled and hurting. This is the best place for you. I'm sorry.....I love you so much come and cuddle Me dear one. I know even now you feel this wall between us like I am far away and detached from you. But don't listen to these feelings for they are false. So are the emotions that you have FAILED, when you feel like no matter what you have failed. Not so ,My love, for this too is false, for you are growing into that which is My perfect creation. Your missteps are part of the building of who you are meant to be. They make of you a broken life and that is what I want, what I desire. Touch Me, feel Me for I am close to you. Do not succumb to the feelings of Me being miles away. That I condemn you, for who you are and what you do. I don't , I accept you I receive you. And I want you even if no one else cares. I am all you can look to for your needs, no more can you turn to these things for comfort, for I have slew them and burnt them and they're ashes in your hands, it feels pointless to hold onto ashes ,yet you do thinking somehow they will be a source of relief and warmth to you when you are alone. Let them blow away now darling and hold not on anymore. They are cold ashes and will not warm you, so let them go and run to Me. I am close to you. I promise.

If you're worried about not being close to Jesus, do you know what kind of person He says He's really close to? (Family: To those with a contrite & broken heart.) Yes, it says, “The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart.”--Psa.34:18. So the more desperate you get, the more broken you get, the closer He becomes to you. If you want reassurance that the Lord is close to you, then have a broken heart. Then you know by the Word that He'll be close to you. It doesn't really matter if you feel it or you don't feel it. But often when we're in the most broken condition & in our most desperate situation, we feel it more too. We feel the Lord then because we're hanging on to Him for dear life!

When we're only looking to Him we can then see Him a little better & even feel Him a little better. So that's a good verse for you to claim, “The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart.” When you're in that state & you know you've made a mess of things & you're sorry, that's when the Lord is nearest to you. In other words, when you are bad & filthy & covered with mud, that's when He's closest to you--not furthest away. Even if you don't feel it, you know it by faith because He said it, & if you know by faith that He's close to you when you're bad & broken & sorry, then you know that it doesn't come as a result of your somehow earning it.

LORD, WE KNOW THAT THERE ARE TIMES WHEN WE ARE A BEAUTIFUL VASE ON THE MANTLE PIECE & everybody sees us, but then sometimes, Lord, You come along & smash us down & remake us into an ugly old vessel that is only fit for being a potty under the bed! But either way, Lord, we're in Your will. We're what You want us to be & You love us just as much, maybe even more for our willingness to be the ugly potty under the bed. Help us not to look at one as being greater than the other. The vessel on the mantle piece sometimes isn't nearly as useful as the potty under the bed.

IT'S NOT AN EASY ROAD TO TAKE, IT'S EVEN LIKE DEATH. But then there's the resurrection, the new man that you become when you become totally dependent on the Lord. God only uses broken men & women, that's who He can truly use, those who are totally dependent on Him & not on themselves or somebody else!

(Brokenness/Hardness; Breakings)

That's why you feel like it's impossible to let it go. For what would you be? You would be no one . You would have nothing to make you special. Nothing that makes you better than others. Oh My love how it has taken you so long to see the true roots of this. But it is pride in exalting yourself above Me, and refusing to be weak, but seeking these garments to protect yourself from humiliation, hurt and failure. And of course to remain in control of even this part of your life. You like to know that you aren't like everyone else, but you actually don't want to eat, they're weak, you are strong. Something goes wrong, and you turn to yourself, instead of coming to Me in weakness and crying out to Me. You struggle and heave under the emotions of life, yet you turn to yourself for comfort, for a way of "handling it". You feel otherwise you would most certainly drown.

But this is what it has come to:

Kori's prophecy

Freedom might mean ripping out the carpet that held you so firmly, and a free fall follows. As you fly through the air, on your way down to the abyss, you learn to fly. You never quite hit bottom in the way you imagined you might, but do land gracefully. Things aren’t what they used to be, and it was very unsettling for a while. But if you were just to continue standing there, just because the security felt so comforting and comfortable, you’d never learn to skydive. But now as you sit there on the ground thinking how it did end all right, your latest “falling through the air” you realise that staying with your feet on your beloved carpet was just one more bondage. You are now more free than you ever were.

Mostly free of the fear of a fall-through-the-air with nothing to hold you but faith.

You see it's not so bad, and you don't have to stand around anymore for fear of being afraid. The wind of faith buoyed you up, the breath of God's Spirit caught you and landed you in the best place. Though you don't feel as confident in your ability to control all circumstances, you are no longer bound to doing things only one certain way or in one particular place

So, yes, you are free, more free than you have been before.

That is freedom. Walking with Me, no strings attached, and nothing holding you back. Not merely free to keep your nook in life, but freely able to serve Me, no matter where I take you.

In those moments when you feel like you can't go on one more day. When you feel like there's nothing left to cling to in order to get you through the day alive, that is when you are finally ready to come to Me and find My strength in full. My love all you have been holding onto is being taken away it's natural to feel empty and at loss. But now I want you to fall desperately at My feet when you feel there's no escape from the pain and you are being beaten down. I promise in the times you are on ground are when you're learning what I would have you learn. To cry and to let go to fight on. Learn to fight learn to depend on My strength when you feel you can't give anymore. It's time to burn your selfishness and your self - absorption. It's a sickening sight beloved and how I wish to deliver you from this focus on self. I wish that you will take on true beauty that of humility and love.

You speaking: Praise You beautiful One You are altogether gorgeous and I have no desire except for You. You are everything my Only reason for existence. I have nothing left to want, nothing left to chase and You Yourself have taken all out of my hands. Thank You for doing this. I love You....I can't bear it not having You, so please don't ever stop loving me and filling me with Your seeds. I am in love with You forever my Darling.

(Pedro the Pebble slinger and enticer, speaking:)

I pick up the rocks and I use them to fight. I look for good rocks to use. I call the enemy to a duel and then I fight with the little rocks. I sling them out. I find them and use them in the fight against evil. When I find a pure one that has been washed many times over by the river of life, its rough edges smoothed, then I turn it into a tool of destruction to bring the wicked ones down. When I see you are ready to be used, and you are something that can harm the enemy's kingdom, then I pick you up and sling you out and, bing you hit right where not only it will hurt but will bring something menacing down to the ground. Be happy you are a little one, a smoothed over little one. That's who the Lord picks.

“What have we here?” I say as the Lord shows me the pebbles and the pebbles to be. I see the potential that different ones have. Then I work with them a bit to make sure they are SMALL enough. Yes, with the weapon of humility and “little in their own eyes” I fight and cause them to be reduced to a size that will do the job best. Down they fall first; later they can make the giants of evil fall. But they have to fall first.

What humiliation did King David need to endure before slaying a giant? Read it for yourself. Mark all the things that did not boost his self-esteem. But he passed the test and wanted the Lord to be the greatest. The pebble of his heart was smoothed over, and then the victory came. I smooth and file down; I break down the hard parts so that a person can be used in the best way.

What made the pebble slip better into the forehead of the giant? It was smoothed over. Yes, the rock wasn’t big and lofty and looking so “individual” in shape, but round like a bunch of others. But that was what was needed. But not just smooth and round, but small enough. So when I come around, useful souls feel a lot smaller in size, and rough edges are smoothed over. But I don’t leave then and walk over the pebbles, moving on to break others down. No, that’s just part of the task. The real job then can begin. I pick them up and slay giants with them.

I like to hit target and bring the wicked forces to their end. And when one giant goes, it has a domino effect and several more meet their end as well—just from one little rock, or one part of a big rock that was willing to be made yet smaller in size and become nothing of worth on its own. It needs to be used then. It likes to be used then, for just about anything. Those little ones want to have all that they have gone through be worth it, and so when they are selected and ready to be used, they say yes to whatever task it is. They’d rather do anything than just sit and dwindle away. They practically jump up out of the water into my hand, and away we go to do some good damage to the forces of evil.

If I say, “You’ll be slung out and inbedded into a giant’s head,” they say, “I’m eager.” Even if they wouldn’t have normally chosen that as an occupation; before they were prepared for the mission they might have wished to sit all big and pretty on the side of the river for people to admire and see their beauty. But after preparation, they practically jump at the chance they are given. And they certainly, in the end, do enjoy it far more than if they had just been left to the side, hoping to be noticed and given a pat of admiration.

See, when the pebble gets used it’s not really seen. First, it’s in a pouch, then in a sling, then it’s zooming so fast you can hardly see what it’s like, and finally it’s in a head of a dying evil one doing much damage. So those rocks that wish to remain seen, are never really used, just looked at and passed over. But if they can only give up what they wanted to be—seen, admired, big, part of the landscape, strong looking, beautifully patterned, stable in one certain place and shape—then they can get in on the action. But they have to be small, and some times walked on for quite a bit before the time is right to be selected and turned into part of a weapon, along with the other working features. They are just part of it, and that too is humbling. They can’t sling themselves around. They need us, the pebble slingers to work with them. And yes, we need them, and can’t do the job without them.

So if I’m around and interested in you—or another one of the “pebble slingers”, and helping to resize and reshape you, it’s because we’ve got a battle coming up, and I need you to be a key player in it. I need you. Don't forget that. When you are brought down in humility it's because you are a needed, intricate part of the game plan, and without you, purposes would be disappointed.

Did you fall today? Did you flub it and feel you failed in some step? That's to break you. See, if you do things right, good. If you do things wrong and walk more humbly, good. Either way the goal of winning the war will be reached. Either way your Lord has your bases covered. Either way He'll bring victory—just like the king used a young one to do the job, so does our King use us to "go and sling some pebbles."

Well, there's more up God's sleave than you can imagine. But just be faithful today, and let tomorrow unfold then.

Praise His Name, and make we all be victorious for Him today. I love a rock I can use. Will you be it for me? I better get polishing! In His Name, Amen.

1SA.17:39 And David girded his sword upon his armour, and he assayed to go; for he had not proved it. And David said unto Saul, I cannot go with these; for I have not proved them. And David put them off him.

1SA.17:40 And he took his staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them in a shepherd's bag which he had, even in a scrip; and his sling was in his hand: and he drew near to the Philistine.

1SA.17:50 So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Philistine, and slew him; but there was no sword in the hand of David.

Do you think that those in Heaven who shine the brightest with My glory are radiant just because I happened to make them that way? Do you suppose they've had it easy? No. They've been willing to sacrifice and to give up so much for the glory and shine that they have. They've chosen to be nothing and to receive nothing of the praise of man so that they may do My bidding, and because of this they've received of My Spirit an hundredfold.

I know your heart and that you'll never be satisfied with second best or with giving Me only a part of yourself. I see your longing for My highest will, and I will reward it with more than you can now comprehend--because you don't long for My best that you may be glorified, but that you may be one with Me. You're willing to pay any price and give up anything to follow closely. It will cost you, but I know you will never be satisfied with anything less, and you will have the reward that you seek.

Oh Jesus I am Yours! I am for You! That's all! That's enough my Love it's not important thank You for showing me that I don't have to be anyone. I can be nothing for You; Nothing but a wretched slave. A dirty servant of Yours. No recognition, no claim , no individuality. No one to say that they need me. Jesus I give you this greatest desire, this need I think I have to be someone. I love You is that enough? Oh my Jesus it is enough. I am in love with You I desire You I live for You. I desire not any other. Let me be Yours alone. I can't imagine the agony You have endured for me Jesus, so I lie at Your feet and ask to just try to give You everything. My pride destroy, my heart I give to You to break. I will live and breathe to please You.

Dad- That's what it takes honey. He's got to take you up and down , and all around in order to make of you the jewel He wants. To break you. I know it's confusing, it's hard to keep up , it's tough on the heart. But beloved of God it's beautiful because look what it's opened in your life. Just look and see and be thankful that you can give this offering which is the desire to be somebody, somebody's. It's human, but this is the Lord's way of breaking that humanity. I love you.

Jesus -I love you and I bow at your feet in gratitude and I ask you to accept this gift as I place it at your feet. It looks dull and unappealing to your sight, but darling look deeper and you'll see its true beauty. This is the gift of weakness and brokenness, it's a difficult gift to receive but to make it through this year you must embrace these gifts. For everything will be truly stripped away, everything you think you have going for you will be taken and you will left seemingly bare and cold and naked. Then as the cold wind bites your skin will the enemy try to convince you there is no hope and you will face that decision once again. That day of your vows of surrender will come to mind and you will remember all that I am. It's when you look back and remember and cry out to Me will these gifts clothe your nakedness.

When you go through a deep, dark time, it's usually because your worst fears have been realized and you've been asked to do the thing you'd least like to do, or you've been asked to give up the thing you're most afraid of losing. After that there's little left to fear, and that's why you feel so united with Me, so in love with Me. When you've rooted out everything that stood between us, there is so much more room for Me to fill your life with My love and beauty.

To say that I am enough is also acknowledging that nothing is impossible to you. There is nothing that you cannot go through, nothing you cannot survive losing, nothing that can move you, because you would still have Me, and that's all you need. You are standing on the Rock, and there you cannot be moved.
