Painful part 2 3-5-22

(This is a 322 day) Jesus, no matter what is thrown at us, help us, through the power of the keys and the blue light of the Blue angels, to hold onto Your Word and know that it will pull up anyone from their fallen state. Help us to believe and tread upon the enemy!

Book of Adam and Eve Ch.2

BUT when our father Adam, and Eve, went out of the garden, they trod the ground on their feet, not knowing they were treading.

(Prophecy)If you, My darling brides, step outside My charmed circle, if, as you go about your day, walk without Me, you do not know where you are treading. Your steps will be aimless and will be the walk of your own mind; carnality; flesh. Your wants and selfish desires will overwhelm you and instead of walking in the light you will be walking the lower pathway in the shadows; unhappy and unsure, insecure…and you will eventually fall. Tread not on the earthly plain but stay in the Garden with Me, and carry it around with you. Take My presence with you wherever you go. Carry the brightness, by using the Keys and depending on them to help you rise above and stay in our secret place.

2 And when they came to the opening of the gate of the garden, and saw the broad earth spread before them, covered with stones large and small, and with sand, they feared and trembled, and fell on their faces, from the fear that came upon them; and they were as dead.

3 Because--whereas they had hitherto been in the garden-land, beautifully planted with all manner of trees--they now saw themselves, in a strange land, which they knew not, and had never seen.

4 And because at that time they were filled with the grace of a bright nature, and they had not hearts turned towards earthly things.

5 Therefore had God pity on them; and when He saw them fallen before the gate of the garden, He sent His Word unto father Adam and Eve, and raised them from their fallen state.

(Prophecy)Oh, what we forsake when we try to do it ourselves, when we attempt to walk the walk without Jesus, without staying close to Him and letting Him guide our footsteps. Listening and then obeying because He is our darling One, our most precious Husband, who would not suffer your foot to be moved! How on earth are we to traverse this land of stones and sand without Him? It is barren and stark and all life as we knew it has been stripped .What we took for granted must now be sought after and held dear and appreciated. Everything we have is a gift and given to us by the Father. Where once we knew Him as our close confidant, now we must of our own desire seek after and pursue. We must pant and never stop looking to know His love. It was freely given but yet we must be consumed and driven now to find Him and to learn His attributes. Formerly knowing the brightness of His grace we now have to receive His power and energy from the 'blueness' of our wounds. (PRO.20:30 The blueness of a wound cleanseth away evil: so do stripes the inward parts of the belly.)

We must take our time in our Cave of Treasures as necessary ; to see that we need to be purged , but that we need to want it and realize that we need to reach out our hand and ask Jesus to take it as a sign to Him of our acceptance of our surrender , and our desire that we are willing to travel this 'rough' way to gain Him, to prove our love now in this vast plain of stones and sand and be thankful that He has granted us the opportunity to suffer this way to be close to Him that can come about in no other way. Many have this opportunity but spurn it because it is so difficult, so painful, so humiliating and is just too overwhelming to forsake. For what, they say. What gain? … Jesus says, "for to have the grace of a bright nature, the fruit of trusting Me, without seeing, but believing none the less. To come to the end of yourself and faint as if dead!" Through our fallen state, our inadequacy, our weakness we need the empowering that only His power can give. We need our blue angels. We need to call on them. We so desperately need their blueness! Our shortcomings, force us to our knees and if we will, the blue energy that is available to us, will cleanse us and clean our inward parts and aid us to travel on. Our cave, our wounds will be a shimmering blueness to us, a source of knowing our dependence and need for Jesus. If we will, we will receive strength from our wounds. The blueness, instead of bruising and grievous, can be energy and power, and help us to walk in our 'garden' filled with 'trees'. Beautiful and life giving; producing the 'oxygen' needed; His breathe breathed into us, to walk this plain of stones and sand. (End of prophecy)

Goes along with ML#2224- Class today

I was a bit late to class this morning finishing off this prophecy and when I walked into class Stephen had started reading 'Submission to God' and he was discussing …floating along, feet off the ground…:O

The secret then is having no will of your own. Adam and Eve's feet hit the ground because they decided to forsake His way, His Will, for their own.

Our mission is to be truly yielded to Him, so we can float along in HIS power.
