"OBEDIENCE IS BETTER THAN SACRIFICE!"--1Sam.15:22

DO 2418 2/88 "Trust & Obey" Part III!

1. I'VE OFTEN SAID THERE ARE TWO WAYS TO TRY TO SERVE THE LORD--THE EASY WAY & THE HARD WAY.--Which one you choose is up to YOU! The easy way is to listen & obey. The hard way is to try to do things YOUR way, like that terrible song, "I Did It MY Way!" If you refuse the easy way of obedience, "the way of the transgressor is HARD", & you will certainly learn the hard way!--Prov.13:15.

2. WHEN YOU MISS THE PATTERN, WHEN YOU MISS GOD'S GRAND DESIGN, GOD'S PLAN, GOD'S WILL, WHEN YOU'RE DISOBEDIENT & YOU WON'T LISTEN TO HIS WORD, then you're bound to make a MESS of things! When you get off the track like that, you're like a weaver's shuttle that has left the weaving loom & is wandering off in space, aimlessly throwing thread in thin air!--If it doesn't want to be a part of the

Weaver's tapestry, of the Planner's plan or pattern, but wants to just do its own thing & make its OWN tapestry, its own design, it just won't work!

3. PEOPLE WHO JUST GO AROUND DOING THEIR OWN THING, going their own way & obeying nobody but themselves & their own inspiration, following their own leadings & their own mind & their own carnal reasoning instead of obeying the Lord, they never seem to accomplish anything that's really fruitful or lasting! Instead of following God, instead of obeying leadership, instead of cooperating with others, they just do it THEIR way, & they're a real mess, & they usually MAKE a real mess!

4. THEY OFTEN TRY TO PUSH THEIR WAY AROUND & BULLDOZE THEIR WAY THROUGH & HAVE THEIR OWN WAY, completely out of the plan of God & off from the design & out of God's Will, disobedient & rebellious!--It's really pitiful! When people are out of control like that, & going off on their own, no matter how TALENTED they are, how TERRIFIC they are, what great IDEAS they have, if they're not GOD'S ideas, they'll fall flat on their faces!--Just like SAUL did!

87. Many times I desire to show you something even better than what you think, or show you a better way, or how to operate more fully in My spirit of love. But I can only do this when you humble yourself and acknowledge Me and listen to Me.

When you yield to a self-righteous spirit, you're actually yielding to your own spirit, which is often unmerciful, impatient, quick to judge, critical, thinks that it knows best and isn't willing to listen to Me or to others.

90. Those who are humble know that they are in need of all the counsel and instruction from Me that they can get, and they are afraid to operate or take a step without confirming that it is My will.

But those who are self-righteous operate in the power of their own wisdom and strength and take little time to counsel with Me, to ask Me, to seek Me in desperate prayer daily in order to find out what I want.

They don't feel the desire or see the need to pray, to spend time in personal communion with Me, to praise or spend time loving Me intimately.

They're too busy, too wrapped up in things they feel are more important.

They read My Word, My New Wine for today, but do not act upon it or try to implement it in their lives.

They put off the things of My Spirit, the new moves of My Spirit, and stand afar off.

It's time to turn around and lay down your pride and your own ways, and take up the New Wine of My Spirit and ask Me to help you to implement the new moves of My Spirit and make you into a new creature.

29th March, 2021 (Personal Prophecy) Behold, it is not a small thing to not listen and heed your Lord, but instead to lean to your own understanding. What is it when I ask you to do something and you reason in your mind another way or disregard My advice and do nothing? What is that when you know the whole counsel and you then twist it and water it down to suit you better? And tell yourself that it's ok because you've fulfilled perhaps, part of My instructions, or maybe even none. You blew it off, for whatever reason. You may tell yourself anything you want, but it is not coming into My inner, personal bedchamber. How can you lie with Me and make sweet wholehearted love when you are withholding from Me? How can you even feel comfortable with Me when you haven't done what your very own Husband has asked? Your words of love fall flat and are hollow and lack meaning. Can you ask of Me your petitions in full faith? Honestly can you even look Me in the eye? Perhaps. But then ,if so you have become dull of hearing and insensitive to Me and My touches. How can we lie together and bear our souls as intimates? It won't be as sweet as it could be. You withholding from Me will just make our time together as stilted as an old bottle, with a shirt up to her neck, covered , for fear of baring all; ashamed because how can you fuck Me when you have coverings. How can we have wild free hot juicy unabashed sex? My love , it is pride. My love, the days of Samuel and Saul are raw examples of this very principle. Saul thought he knew better than Me. He became exalted in his pride and did not heed Me. You need to hew down and cut in pieces the very sins that hinder you from fulfilling My will. Chop in pieces these disobediences, for that is what they are. You don't think too much of them that they are really as bad as Saul did, but My love, was Saul a man after My own heart? He was not. Is that how you want to be? Proud and lifted up, carnal-minded, jealous and consumed with earth thoughts, such as comparing, negativity, constantly licking your wounds(or disobedience, lethargy and lack of fear of the Lord) when I have given you a way out of all that? Why stay there in that place? I want to use you, why don't you honor Me with your compliance? You say you love Me and want to serve Me, but do you really? Do you want to stay in the place you are at? Are you actually satisfied to be lukewarm, like that? Is that the sort of lover you want to be? Stiff, brittle, tight and rigid, dry? I want to oil you with My love , My spirit but you would not! I want to fuck you but you hold on tightly to your robes and barely let Me touch you ! And so you leave our bedchamber, still full of your own filth, still holding tightly to your prim- to- the- neck clothing, still covering your shame. Where is the glow, the shine that I could give you after having had good hard hot sex? You threw away your time with Me and settled for a few kisses. If you would strip off all your clothes and open your legs wide and let your juices flow, I would fuck you so good and proper, that you see the stars and the moon and you would leave our bed like a love- struck woman that wants more than anything to do whatever her Husband wishes; anticipating His needs, going out her way to care and pamper Him, because she loves Him that much. She lives to please Him, taking no thought for herself. Nothing is an inconvenience to her; it is her desire, her pleasure. She is free in spirit to all those around her because of her passion, her love for Her Husband, so all partake and benefit from her time with her lover of all Lovers. Her mind is clean; no dark corners entertaining old, filthy thoughts. She has been washed clean because she has been with her Lover and loved and listened to His sweet instruction and she desires to do His bidding with all her heart. She wants to. She has given her will to her Husband in submission. She forsakes her ways and thoughts that would get in the way of serving Him and His kingdom. And when she runs out of steam and starts to feel her SELF kick in, she runs into His arms again for another hot steamy love session and He fills her with His seeds. It doesn't matter where she is; she knows He will come to her. So My love, I want you panting after Me, I want you to be a wild and free hot sexy lover unencumbered by anything you might be holding onto. Let them go and come lie with Me so we can love madly, wildly and so you can go out into the wings trusting, full of faith that I will do anything for you because you have done what I have asked of you. I am preparing you My darling for what is coming; all of you. So let's cling tight to each other in total abandonment and schuck off all the things that would hinder us from being together, completely naked. I want you to let go of the things I am speaking to you about right now. I know they are not easy things to let go of because long have they been with you coming between us and it is a big change and you must continually stir yourself to do your part to rid yourself of old ways and habits. (end of prophecy)

(Jesus speaking:) Satan is the embodiment of pride. He is the most blatant example of pride and its horrible and destructive power.

Pride is at the root of his sin, and this pride grows and flourishes. But it cannot grow or be nurtured in the heart of one who drinks in My Word, who lives My Word, and who is desirous of My truth. It cannot flourish nor overcome one who is so closely linked with My mind through the Word.

The Word makes the soil in one's heart receptive and fertile ground for the things of My Spirit, the anointing of My Spirit, and the gifts that I would give. Reading the Word makes your heart fertile ground for humility, the gifts of My Spirit, and receiving from Me. Whereas, when there is a lack of the Word, when My children turn away from Me or neglect Me, then the soil of their heart becomes fertile ground for the Enemy to plant his seeds of pride. Pride then grows, it flourishes, and part of its power is to cause further rejection of the truth, further disobedience, and then the cycle continues.

Pride is not the stimulus, the cause. A lack of the Word is the cause. A lack of the Word and an alienation from the life of My Spirit is what opens the door to extreme pride. Of course, it is the nature of man to be proud, and every man, woman, and child must fight it in some form or another. But the Word keeps pride at bay and creates in your heart a vacuum for all that is good, positive, humble, and of My Spirit.

It's when the Word stops flowing, when your heart chooses to reject the Word--either through bitterness, rebellion, disobedience or familiarity--that you invite in pride. Pride then takes over, slowly but surely robbing you of faith and the desire for My truth and Words. First there is a pulling away from My Spirit, and that then opens the door for pride to grow. Then the cycle continues, bringing further disobedience and rejection of truth, then deeper and more blatant pride, which can be manifested in so many ways.

(End of message from Jesus.)

Which will it be, My loves?--A powerhouse of unstoppable power and light shining on to that perfect day?--Or a weak, impotent and ultimately defeated bride, cowering in fear at the onslaughts of the Enemy?

The choice is yours. I will go on with those who will choose Me even above themselves. Which is it going to be? It's time to choose, and trying to coast along will in itself be a choice to not forsake yourself and come follow Me. We're heading to the high ground! Are you coming with us?(1)

(Personal Prophecy)You have neglected your weapons and are no longer given the protection that comes from obedience to My Word. I have been forced to lift it, because of your rebellion and refusal to pick up your weapons. It has somewhat been lethargy, but mostly it was your unwillingness to let go of it. The road to destruction is lined with things that appeal to your pride and your twisted perception. Your mind has been corrupted and warped and what was once light and truth to you, has become a hateful thing. You have despised My Light and have embraced the darkest of spirits. The spirit of pride and this will surely be your downfall. It's not only destroying your spiritual life, but also your physical life. All out of pride; because what I have given you is not good enough for you, so you in ultimate self-righteousness point your finger at Me for being unloving, unjust and unfair. Your pride has polluted your heart of flesh into a heart of stone. A stone heart cold to My touches and unflinching to My squeezing. You choose in your own pride to despise My calling for you. Because of pride you exalt yourself above Me and this is the greatest sin.

You have known the principle that obedience brings My blessings, and disobedience opens your lives to problems and the attacks of the Enemy. You know that the Enemy is the accuser of the saints, that his job is to try to attack and find fault; and that as long as you are close to Me and obeying Me, he has no power over you, but that when you disobey, he is allowed to hinder and even harm. Through your own doing, through your own choices, you lower the protective spiritual and physical force field around you, by which I protect you from the Enemy's attacks, and you let him in. And it was not one brief disobedience or moment of weakness that brought on these severe attacks of the Enemy; it was a step-by-step path of little choices, little sins, and little compromises, which finally brought them to a place where they were fairly far away from My charmed circle of protection, and allowing bigger sins and bigger compromises in their lives.

100. It's a sad thing, but some people just aren't walking much in the fear of the Lord when it comes to prophecy. They're not respecting it and reverencing it like they should. They're not looking at it as the pure Word of God like they should.

If the Lord wants to speak to you through prophecy, and you're not yielding, well, that can drive you away from Him--not because He wants to be away from you, but because your unyieldedness causes you to doubt, which then causes you to be separate from the Lord. But you can get back to Him real quick and real easy by just yielding and being willing to do what He says and follow where He leads.

(Believing Prophecy! [#3130])

JOH.8:43 Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word.

When people become lethargic, dull in spirit, compromised, and distanced from Me, it usually isn't just in one part of their lives or limited to just a certain aspect of their walk with Me, but it's usually across the board in a sweeping effect.

124. The reason for this is that disobedience is usually the result of a lack of fear of Me. When you're walking strongly in fear of Me, you are motivated to obey, your conscience is easily pricked, and you make many, many good decisions each day, the right decisions--decisions of sacrifice, of bringing your flesh into subjection, of being the right sample, of denying yourself and putting Me and others first.

125. But when you become dull in the spirit through repeated disobedience, you begin to think that you can get away with it indefinitely. You take on the attitude that all things will continue as they are, that your actions don't really matter or make a difference to the way things go. You lose sight of the big secret of life--that everything good in your life depends on having My blessing, and having My blessing depends on your obedience to Me and the Word.

126. When you lose sight of that truth, you lose true wisdom. Then there is only the carnal mind and the blindness and overconfidence that enter your life when you feel that there will never be consequences, that you can do as you please and it will never come back to you in the form of loss, punishment, hardship, problems, sickness, accidents, and the many other ways your life can go downhill.

127. Often people don't make the connection between their problems and their wrong decisions, compromises, or disobedience. They think it's somehow just a fluke, or there's no cause-and-effect process in motion. They feel they're in a whirlwind of random events that are not connected or attached to anything they did or brought about. That is ridiculous, but that's the epitome of not feeling accountable, of not taking responsibility for your life and actions.

128. The longer someone is disobedient, the further this problem spreads in their life. The more someone feels they can "get away with" little sins and wrongdoings, the more their heart is set to do evil, because they feel there are no consequences. And pretty soon they sink deeper and deeper into compromise, until they're eventually compromising on things that were previously "untouchables,"
Everything good in your life depends on having My blessing, and having My blessing depends on your obedience to Me and the Word

Prayer to Become a Doer of the Word

(A YA who helps with the children:)

265. The Lord told me recently that I need to ask for prayer, both for some spiritual things as well as for healing. He said they go together, and He wants to use this time when I'm very weak and have to rest a lot to help me get desperate with Him and be willing to do whatever it takes to make the kind of spiritual progress He wants me to make. So they kind of depend on each other. My main prayer request in short is to become a doer of the Word. I'll read some excerpts from a recent personal prophecy that explains a bit about it.

266. (Jesus speaking:) You read My Words, you sometimes even pray about how to apply them, and you have a genuine desire to obey and follow. But then you get lazy. As a little time passes, the conviction lessens, and you figure it's too much work, too difficult, and go back to continuing with business as usual.

267. In some ways it's almost like "truth rejected loses its power over the mind." That sounds terrible, I know, and it's not like you consciously reject My Words, but by not following, you've built very bad habits in this area to where you're hardly concerned about it at all. You barely realize it; it's just such a part of your nature. You figure you want to change it, you've tried to change it, but it's pretty much so close to hopeless that it'd be way too much work to really completely change. It becomes discouraging, very discouraging, and you don't want to be discouraged and depressed all the time anymore, so you harden yourself to it, and try to ignore it. [Note: I recently had prayer against depression, and the Lord really delivered me. It was a wonderful overnight difference, which I'm so thankful for.]

268. If you had obeyed, and done everything I told you, you'd be a very different person today. I don't say that because I think you're bad or haven't made progress; I say that because I want you to realize that it really is a serious issue. Take "Ask Me Everything," for example. After two years, how are you really doing with it? Praise Time? Doing the humble thing? Following My health rules?

269 You don't feel like you really need to obey, you feel like it's not that important, and you've lost a good part of your conscience and fear of Me. If you continue down this road of doing your own thing, you'll end up exactly where you don't want to be--out of My service, out of My will. Your faith is very weak. You're buffeted by the lies of the Enemy when he tells you maybe it isn't worth serving Me and isn't worth the trouble and sacrifice.

270. Why is your faith weak? Why have you not seen My Spirit and the workings of it? Because you're weak in the Word--partly because you're not always faithful to read it, and partly because you're not making the effort you should to follow it.

271. If you read all the wonderful promises I give and then don't see them fulfilled in your life, you should stop and ask Me why. Instead of concluding I'm not keeping My Word, maybe you should be asking yourself if you've obeyed and followed through on your part, thus freeing Me to be able to bless you the way I'd like to.

272. Have you done what I showed you? Have you followed through? You should be afraid of not obeying, and motivated enough to do what I'm asking you to do regardless of what you feel like.

273. You're still a bit spoiled in many ways. You feel you have leeway to do your own thing by not seeking Me and not following through with the counsel I give you. If you went back and read all the personal prophecies you've gotten, how much progress have you made in following through with My instructions? You're so discouraged about battling the same things for so long, when really it's largely your own fault for not doing the things you need to do and taking the steps you know need to be taken in order to gain victory.

274. This is a wake-up call to you. It's not like a conscious wrong thing you're doing on purpose, therefore you don't really realize it. You've been desperately asking Me to help you, to do whatever it takes in your life to help you make complete and long-lasting changes in a lot of areas, so now you have to look at things from My perspective. Everything that is happening right now in your life (battles and trials, sickness), are all in answer to prayer. All these things make you desperate, and in a sense force you to come to Me, and to be willing to do whatever it takes to grab hold of the victories you know I have in store for you.

275. You need to review some of the basics of Christianity. You've heard them all your life and have become so familiar with them, they hardly mean anything to you anymore. You've got to ask Me to "open my eyes that I may behold wondrous things out of Thy law." In many ways you've thrown out a lot of the sound principles of My Word along with "the way things were in the '80s," and this has weakened your foundation. You need to go back to the basics of My Word and simply be willing to follow as a little child, letting go completely of your pride, your own ideas, and being obedient to the way I'm leading.

276. You've often wondered how pride is the root of all sin--well, if you trace each of these things back, you'll end up at pride in every case. I don't condemn you for having these weaknesses and problems, but now is the time to change. Now is the time to completely give your all, and I mean everything to Me, to lay it all on the altar and say, "Not my will, but Thine be done." Now is the day to forget the past and move on, to be willing to do whatever it takes to become a completely new creature, for that is what I would have you be.

277. You need to ask for prayer again--for your spirit as well as your body. It's a terrifying step in your book, but it's the only way to get the boost of the power of My Spirit you so desperately need. You know deep in your heart that it works, and you also know that trying to change in your own strength is impossible. It's not your works and efforts to do good that are gonna save you, it's only My Spirit. Call on the power of My Spirit. Call on the power of the keys to help you, and you will see victories you didn't think were possible--the kind that will boost your faith and show you that I truly can do anything. Claim My promises and My power and fight like never before. (End of message from Jesus.)

278. So, my prayer requests are:

1) Obedience to the Word and the specific things the Lord shows me to do in prophecy.

2) Against laziness.

3) Against pride (since it's the root of all evil, and diminishing it is good all the way around).

4) For faith and a believing heart--to trust the Lord for things that happen, and realize and accept that He is in control and taking care of everything.

5) To regain whatever conscience and fear of the Lord I've lost.

(Several people pray for her, and then those present ask if the Lord has any word of encouragement for her.)

279. (Jesus speaking:) I promise to make you a new creature in Me. I promise to give you new life, a new love, and a new start. I promise to make everything new, to change everything!

280. Each one of My promises is true, but each promise has its conditions that you too must fulfill, and that you are doing now, My love. You are coming to Me and wanting to be that new person, wanting that new life, and that new start that I promise to give you. So as you stepped out and have taken this step and done your part, as you've asked Me to give you that new start, the new life and the changes that you need, then I assure you that I will do My part to make you a new creature in Christ Jesus. That I am doing. I will heal your spirit and make all things new.

281. It's a step-by-step process sometimes, and you must continually come to Me each and every day, asking Me to take away the things of the old man and give you the new life. As you see more and more and I open your eyes more and more to the things of My Spirit and the wonderful truths of My Word, as you grab hold of each one of these truths, I will give you more and more of that new life and the new power that is in Me and in My Word.

282. As you come to despise the old man and long for the new man in Christ Jesus, that I will give you, that I will do, and that I am doing. Thank you for seeing the need and wanting it, desiring it, longing for it, and asking for it--for taking this step of humility and asking for it in front of your mates and with your mates. As you take this step of humility I will do it and I am doing it. I am answering. I am healing your spirit! (End of message from Jesus.)

25-MAR-2021_pumping frequently into you

(Spirit helper intro: ) Delight yourself in the Lord, for this is what will give you the most buoyancy to bounce high. Love him through the dark—when you don't understand. Beware, for the dog of Satan seeks to steal what faith is clung to in people's bosoms; he is the faith robber.

(Jesus speaking: ) My Words, fresh and alive, and pumping frequently into your system, is what will retain your faith. If you merely cling to what has been given, this can be robbed by the birds of disbelief, as Eve found out in a merciless way—for not only did the winged creature of 'doubt in God's Word' seek to steal her and Adam's faith, but their life; for because of disobedience, the foul creature then could deal out the death as well.

You have to not just have heard the Word, but to hear the Word. It's not just about what I spoke, but what I speak.

Not just about the water that fell, but realise My Word is like the water cycle, it just keeps coming and moving and refreshing, and traveling. Like water it moves, and will move you and will keep you moving, and not left in a ditch somewhere, or should I say in a rut? Same thing, either way you are stuck, half dead, or thinking you are living and moving but are going in circles around and around chanting the one thing you remember I said.

Keep listening for the new or you'll be a "has been". Okay?

Remember, everything, absolutely everything I have ever said and will yet say, is only part of the puzzle. Keep reaching for the next piece, and yet the next. I'll always keep giving you more.

And you'll never complete the whole intricate pattern and picture in this very short life you have, because the history of My planet just keeps getting bigger and wider and new features are added, so the picture on the puzzle of My "Full counsel" will always have new pieces to add to it.

Don't you like adding new things to a garden or a playground, or story, or some people even to their wardrobe, as the seasons of their life go on. And so do I keep adding more to be said as the plan keeps unfolding before your eyes.

They breathe out vile whispers, and these fly in through your ears and reach your heart very quickly. These words of lying vanity are carried on the breath of the Selvegion.

32. Just as I have said that My Words are life, so the words of the Enemy are death. They are like a virus on your computer, small and vile. They enter in through the ears and quickly contaminate and pollute the inner chambers of your being. Once they have entered in, it doesn't take long for them to distort and alter the words that you hear, and your perception becomes tainted and corrupted.

(How to Be on Guard Against the Selvegion [#3403])

26. These are black elves because their hearts are black with sin and evil, because they proceed from the Dark Kingdom, from he who is the blackest of all, and because their deeds are black and dirty and evil. They hate the light, and they would pull each of My children of light into the blackness and darkness themselves if they could.

27. These are called "Selvegion" for they are dark, they are vile, they lure their prey to put self-first, and they are many.

Fight to stay positive by letting the light of My Word and the truth of My message flood your heart and mind daily. That's a must, or else your defenses will be down and you will get dangerously close to the point that the Enemy can strike you a deadly blow in an unguarded moment. So go on a proactive, offensive war by soaking in My Word and communing with Me daily (Personal Prophecy)True Blue: It's one thing to hear the word, but entirely another to have heard it, to have listened to your spirit helpers as you are reading and hear them apply what you are reading directly to your own walk and life for our Lord. You have to be in total unity with them, working together with them to fully receive and be able to absorb properly. They are your very own personal counselors so if you want to really get what the word is saying; they have to be in on it. They know you intimately so if you want to get real value for your time in the word, you have to be listening to us. We'll give you real time personal input that will tear through the lies of the black hearted elves who want to steal away your faith, who want to cast their doubts, who want to tell you you can't do that or it's too hard or so and so needs to read this, etc. They aim to block out our voices with their twisted views and block your 'ears' with their vile lying vanities. So do more than cling. Let the word become part of you so they have no chance. And then let it flow out of you as living waters to help those beside you along their way, and the waters of the word will keep flowing and won't remain in any pools to stagnate. Drink deeply of its soothing balm to heal you of your spiritual ailments. As you actually listen we will empower you and make the words you read come alive to you because you ll be 'seeing' how they can change you and show you the steps to take on how to do it. You'll be soaking it up like a sponge instead of it sliding off you like a duck's back. The Selvegion fight our unity. They don't just attack you in your realm but they vehemently fight us from getting together. So call on the Salvay to vanquish them from our presence so you can get nutritiously fed and exact guidelines of application.

29. LET'S FACE IT, THERE'S A LOT MORE TO DISCIPLESHIP THAN MERELY KNOWING THE WORD!--Unless you really USE the Word & APPLY it personally in your own life, what GOOD is it going to do you? We've had some people with us like Joel & Samson Warner who knew the Word so well they could almost quote you the entire Bible, they knew how to cross reference every verse that they had memorised.--But it didn't do them a damned bit of good! It was just a bunch of facts & figures & HEAD knowledge, & it wasn't in their HEARTS enough to motivate them to LIVE & DIE for JESUS, & a whole bunch of them wound up backsliding!
30. Unless our children have been taught to apply the Word, unless they've learned to really practice it & really do something with it, all that Word isn't going to do them any good!--Or at least not much good. Some of our most serious problem Teens & problem JETTs have known tons of Word.--It's in their heads, but apparently not in their hearts. They might as well be speaking Greek, they don't know what it means, they don't know how to apply it.
31. So in some ways, they're really very weak.--

June 24, 2020—a time of great faith—Celeste
A time of great faith is here Stephen; the enemy is buffeting you and your family. He has realized how serious you are and he is furious. His plan for total whitewash was never going to work in the first place, he was hoping to disable his enemy the church and in several ways he has neutralized many. But not all, especially his most deadly enemy, the Children of David, he as always underestimated. He does not possess the power of Jesus; therefore he is at a severe disadvantage, he has to rely on numbers and some of those troops are flaky at best. He has to deal with selfishness and human frailties, just as Jesus does, and like Jesus his plans don't always come to fruition as he'd hoped. But unlike Jesus he does not have the gift of foresight; he cannot look into the future in quite the same way. The devil uses man's weaknesses to his advantage in order to fulfil his dream of world dominance, but because man has a propensity to self-centeredness sometimes Satan's plans go terribly amiss.

Jesus on the other hand looks far into the future and is able to work all things out for good; but only to those who love Him.
Your thought just then has brought me back to my original intention…that of needing great faith at this vital time of the world entering the days of great confusion. Those days, as you and others have rightly surmised are upon you. Two and a half years will see this world in total chaos and confusion, great confusion. Just as conventional armies send in their bombers to harass and confuse and scatter and disperse and to expose their enemy's weaknesses so will the enemy use this time of great confusion to totally demoralize the world. Keep your eyes on us, we have the battle plan, Joan shared the first steps to the next stage with you yesterday, believe my dear captain believe, you, yes you who sit at this table of war, for that is what it is. Look around you, this is your war room this is where you plan your strategy, load your ammunition and launch those prayer missiles into the enemy's encampment. You have done well to hone your gift of prophecy, because this single act of obedience has given you great advantage over the enemy. You have thrown out the limited resources of your own mind and the carnal reasoning over man's wisdom and have embraced the supernatural, the very mind of God. The gauntlet was thrown down yesterday. I know it can seem trite and insignificant to you at times, that is because you are truly hedged about with so many angels and protecting spirits. You have been instructed to not look at too much news, now we are asking you to be careful of delving into other waters, other opinions, so it would be a natural conclusion to think that things aren't as bad as it seems from where you sit in your cosy little mountain hideaway.
Keep your eyes on Memphis for out of it has come the great confusion, he has marshalled his forces and they are pressing all those not firmly connected to Jesus toward the Red Sea of impossibilities. As for you my dearest comrades in arms, my fellow warrior band fighters, those that love not their lives unto the death, the true Children of David and lovers of Jesus, His bride you have been commanded to take up the weapons of the spirit and rely totally on them, this takes great and unbending faith, steel faith, unobtainium faith. The fires of faith must continue to burn in your lives, for the purifying process is not yet complete, the tests must continue for a short space, and then the enemy will be let loose upon you to try that steel. Do not fear my brave comrades, his fire is weak compared to the fire that you have already passed through to reach the heights of faith that you have reached thus far. The mountain air is pure and clean and fresh and invigorating at these heights, a place where only those of great faith may stand. Up ahead are the heights of despair, they are treacherous and slippery from the cool damp air, moss and lichen grow in those cracks and crevices where your fingers and toes must search for foothold. Your strength in Jesus must be what sustains you, for truly up there, just ahead of you the arm of flesh will fail, all human strength will not avail you; not one ounce of power needed to continue to climb. Up ahead the lightning often streaks across the sky and the very mountains seem to shake and shiver as the very breath of the evil one runs up and down its slopes;  he appears to be everywhere. It is there, up there, where you cannot see more than one handhold before you. You are blind, that is where the flesh must let go and the spirit of God must take over. Anything else, any plan, any idea any concept of moving forward without pure faith will not work. So hone, practise and become expert at moving in the spirit. We are here, we cannot fail because our Lover knows no defeat; nothing can stand against Him, no one, except your faith, that is where the Achilles heel is. That my friends is where you are heading to so protect your heel, protect it by strengthening it. Jesus cannot fail; Jesus will not fail, and stand strong in the power of His might.

CIAAA—that's what I call myself, a secret service servant that can and should be willing now to do anything. If something surprises me that Jesus asks of me, I simply say it's "Cause I Am An Anything." He can ask me to do anything—and I will or should, cheerfully, without pride or 'who I am' balking, just do it. No rules, just action. Just fast obedience, no matter how unorthodox something seems. He is boss and He's rounding this world up into submission for the final fall into His Royal arms. The least trouble He should be having is with His own servants that are supposed to be helping. There are lots of roles and places to fill, briefly, suddenly, or long term, and we need to jump into position, and be a help, not a drawback or hinderance. Total yieldedness, total obedience, all the time, instantly. This is the goal.

I cannot force you. I can only beg and plead, and this I do now.

I cannot force you. I can only beg and plead, and this I do now. I say, if I am your God, then serve Me. But if the world and its ways be your passion, your desire, your longing, then go your way. How many times must I bring you to a point of decision? How many times must I tell you to count the cost? How many times must I beg you to make your calling and election sure? How many times, My young people, must I bring to your attention the spiritual warfare and the reality of the Enemy's power? What must I do before you will wake from your lethargy, before you will realize your calling in My army, and before you will take on the responsibility of wearing the whole armor of My Spirit, so that you will be able to withstand the attacks of the Enemy on your heart, mind, and spirit in these evil days? There is no time to fiddle around, to dilly-dally, or to "wait and see." Your next day could be your last. Your next choice could be your last. So when you're faced with a choice, what are you going to do? Please, please make the right choices--the choices that will strengthen your spirits, the choices that will keep you on the straight and narrow. The straight and narrow road is getting narrower all the time, and the broad, wide road is getting easier to travel by the day. But even though he received very clear counsel from the Lord through personal prophecy, and through his shepherds being direct and honest with him at times about how they saw things, he didn't get the point. He didn't obey. (Choices and Consequences)

Learn to walk the humble road. Take the humble way of thinking. “I don’t really know, unless I’ve just been updated now, fresh in the spirit. I do have much to learn.”

See if you keep putting yourself in a seat of humility, then you don’t have to be forcibly humbled just to keep you on track and out of satan’s traps.

Traps are for the proud who think they know where they are going and can do as they please.

Traps are for the proud who thinking they can get along fine on their own two feet.

Traps are for those who can’t take a drop of humility when it comes to them in a cup to drink. But the humble are thirsty, and even if it is hard to swallow, they take the cup of humiliation and drink it, as they are thirsty for the truth.

So the humble do get refreshed, The humble are given stamina to carry on.

We watch for the humble levels in a person’s soul, and must knock them down a notch or two, or quite a few if that’s a need. So don’t think for a day that you are going to soar or sail along without something that tests your pride, something that tries to get pride to flare up; and there won’t be a day without a test of humility, something that makes and keeps you humble.

But we are sent to watch over God’s sheep to keep them from the “forbidden sin”. Sin is pride, and pride is sin. So what did satan give the seeds of to Adam and Eve? Pride, that was the first, and from that springs so much else. The “I know and am and can be just a bit better and wiser than God—at least in something. For example I wouldn’t be doing such and such like it seems He has done in that situation. And I certainly wouldn’t be making me have to go through that, for that just isn’t right.”

When we see symptoms of the sin of pride, of the plague on a soul we are to guard, we strike a blow in the best way. We “operate” as you could say. Like the expression says, “Cut it out”, meaning “stop it”. You have to remove something to stop the spread of the infection. And we do things that bring you low, but hopefully teach you not to do it. But you have to read the Word or listen fresh so you can get the full lesson.

Getting a “lesson on humility” is like saying “sit down”. A humbler we give, a “wack” that hurts might be like saying “sit here and learn”. So if you take the humble seat and sit down and then listen and read you’ll get the point of the lesson, not just the humiliation.

And the older and wiser you get, the harder the “wacks” are. The lessons do get harder, but that is because you are tougher and might miss something if it wasn’t made real clear to you.

So mistakes and short comings are built in humblers, that will always be a part of your life.

And every time you notice a flaw in the way you react to things or to others, that's to keep you on a humble road, and to teach you something.

Just about everything has a built in way to humble you. For indeed coming through this life with a cloak of humility on you, rather than a garment of pride, is very challenging, and very very important.

So we "dress" and "re-dress" you as is needed. The old is burned away, and yet the next cloak of humility is put on you. We just have to keep at it and keep pushing you off the pride pedestal that you want to keep being displayed on—even if the only one looking at you is the image in the mirror you are looking at. "Wow, I made it! I'm up here".

But because we care about the condition you reach heaven in, "splat!" into the mud you go, off that high and holy place that only God, the one True God is meant to be.

Ah, now your clothing of pride got muddy, and have to be what? Yes, removed. Then comes the nakedness and the washing. Then what? Something shiny to put on? No. Just a ragged cloak to wrap around you. But the funny thing about this cloak is that to you it looks plain, worn, rough and ragged, but to others it actually looks really nice. And the reverse is so with garments of pride: what looks nice to you, when you feel you are nicer than others, they see it as rags and don't want to brush up against you. (Jesus:) Picture yourself now coming and kneeling before Me. I have passed on to you many Words of instruction. My will is clearer to you than it has been for a long time. You know what you need to do, but you're not sure if you can actually do it. It's a huge challenge and responsibility, and you know your weaknesses all too well. . But now I call you to come, kneel before Me, and receive the anointing of obedience. Obedience sums up what I am asking of you. A lack of obedience to My Word is the crux of the many varied problems in the Family. Obedience is what will bring the solutions to those problems. . I anoint you with the oil of My Spirit. I am pouring out this anointing today in great measure to all who ask for it, to all who come up and commit themselves, as weak as they might feel, to the calling of obedience. This anointing will give you the wherewithal to fulfill your calling. It will give you determination when you wouldn't naturally have it. It will give you grace when the sacrifices are great. It will give you peace and faith to obey even when it doesn't look logical. It will give you strength when the going gets tough. . This anointing of obedience is yours, My darlings. Of course, you will have to use your anointing, walk in your anointing, claim your anointing, and then proceed to do what I call you to, regardless of how you feel. That is when you will see this anointing activated. You need this anointing for what lies ahead of you in the coming months. You need it in order to follow Me into the era where I am calling you, My Endtime Family--the era of obedience. It is this obedience that will give you the great faith that you are now lacking--the faith to pull down the wonderful miracles I have promised, the faith to use the keys in the way they were really meant to be used, for those great and impossible situations where something supernatural is needed. It is this era of obedience that will bring the mighty manifestations of My power. In obedience to Me there is great faith, and great faith pulls down the things of the spirit. Obedience is the first step. That is the anointing I am giving you today, My loves, as you commit to Me. I am giving you the anointing of obedience. I will repeat: You must use this anointing, walk in it, and exercise it, in order to benefit from it. But you will notice a difference. You will notice that as you use this anointing, obedience even in very difficult situations will be easier for you. This will be a tangible anointing, one that you can feel and sense. And the more you use it, the stronger your anointing will become. So come now, and receive your anointing of obedience. Always remember that this obedience must come from your heart--your love for Me, your love for the lost and desire to get the job done, a sense of urgency, a fear of Me, and a respect for My Words.

(Jesus:) In truth, the anointing of obedience is yours the minute you ask for it after reading the preceding message on the subject. All you have to do is ask Me for it. Tell Me that you want it and need it. Take whatever steps I show you to get your heart right with Me, and to open the windows of Heaven fully to pour out on you My blessings. So often it's your lack of obedience and faith that keeps them shut. So make the conditions right on your end, knowing that they are right on My end, and I want to give you the strength, faith, determination, and all that you need to carry out your calling. . After you've asked Me for this anointing of obedience, then trust that you have it and begin to walk in your anointing. Use it, remind yourself of it when you're faced with a hard decision, and then go ahead and make the right choice! This anointing of obedience is another of My gifts of love to you, and the more you use it, the more you'll feel it and benefit from it. It is available to all who ask and desire to fulfill My highest will. (End of message from Jesus.) (Choices and Consequences)

6 And when I passed by thee, and saw thee polluted in thine own blood, I said unto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live; yea, I said unto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live.

7 I have caused thee to multiply as the bud of the field, and thou hast increased and waxen great, and thou art come to excellent ornaments: thy breasts are fashioned, and thine hair is grown, whereas thou wast naked and bare.

8 Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of love; and I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness: yea, I sware unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord God, and thou becamest mine.

9 Then washed I thee with water; yea, I throughly washed away thy blood from thee, and I anointed thee with oil.

Ezekiel 16:6-9

Will you live? Despite the blood and the mud covering you. Can you believe that I can help you even amidst such filth? Darling, darling I will kiss thee and I will not despise thee. Behold you have despised thyself and thou hast fainted even amidst thy sins.

Come now, and let us reason together, saith the Lord: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool. Isaiah 1:18

Now you must look up. You cannot look down anymore. You must pick up your sword, you must stumble forward and I will catch you and we will go forward. You must be prepared to die and throw off your coverings. You have to forsake darling. Yes you can get up and go on, but you have to face these sins you have to look them in the face acknowledging that they are in your way. You have to fight. Sometimes fighting is just falling into My arms telling Me you can't do it. Telling Me you are nothing and you have fallen too far to get back now. I love you. Yes I love you , when you sit in this state knowing you are nothing and can do nothing and expect by a miracle you can't go on.(6)

You feel My Spirit of conviction strong in your life. Many of these words have cut you to the heart. I have felt your sensitivity to My Spirit. The vacuum you have created has made a way for Me to touch you, to move you, to inspire you to action. I know your desire to say yes, to nod in agreement. I see your desire to reach out and receive what I have for you. You're no longer satisfied with the way things are. You want to break out of your routine; you want to shed the bad habits that have plagued you for so long; you want to see real progress in your life and you want others to see it as well. But you feel so tired, so frustrated. It seems you've tried many times, but your resolutions have been short-lived, or have not brought forth the fruit and concrete progress that you hoped. But I say, My precious one, do not give up and do not listen to the lies of the Enemy when he tells you that you're a hopeless case, that you've come as far as you can come, that you're a fool to hope for anything more. Ah, My dear one, don't you see? The sky is the limit! I can do in you and through you what no man can do. I can take you and make you into the beautiful vessel of My design, and all I need is your heart, your cooperation, your willingness to put forth the effort to do what you can do and then let Me do the rest.(7)

3-JAN-2021
(Spirit helper speaking: ) Abolish the old—time for purging. Let the old go. Old garments; old ideas, hopes and dreams—or things you never have used or won't.

Pluck up and get on with the journey. A soldier readying for what is to come, or what they could be doing if they didn't have so much attached that they hold God responsible for keeping safe and watching over for them.

Now is the time, tomorrow may be too late. I need you to be following Me and going at My pace, not wandering off on your own. I need you for the work at hand no matter how hard it feels. I've got few else. I will not give you more then you can bear, I will carry what you can't I will strengthen you when you fall, but you must work while there is light. This year will see the day gone, darkness will set in and the hearts of the undecided will turn ever closer the prince of this world. Well they're in for a rude awakening. They need My light to shine on them while they are yet facing Me. For when the darkness comes, they will have seen the light and they will run to it. They have no light of their own, so you must show them the light, before it's too late. Run with Me My love, I know you’re tired, I know it’s hard, but you must press on, you can make it if you only trust that I will see you on.
