The Great Confusion

(All prophecies are Jesus speaking unless otherwise indicated. Dad's writings in the Letters are prefixed by "Dad wrote:" Prophecies received from Dad from heaven are prefixed by "Dad speaking:")

The Great Confusion is the emergency the Antichrist needs to have his regime put into power. [1]

(Dad wrote:) God has been so good to us to tell us in his Word and even fill in some of the gaps in present prophecy to show us exactly what's going to happen so we won't be worried about it, or frightened, surprised or shocked when it happens. He said in one of the great prophecies which we received through my Mother, the Warning Prophecy, that there's going to be a mighty widening of the eyes of those who discern not the signs of the times! There's going to be an awful lot of people absolutely stunned, shocked, astonished, eyes wide with amazement and fear when it happens!--The Great Confusion!--Obviously that greatest of all confusions. [2]

(Dad wrote:) In the spring of 1965, my mother received the now famous "warning prophecy" of the great confusion and its author which were to arise out of Egypt:

"Turn your eyes toward Memphis for out of it shall come the Great Confusion! The Author of Confusion is even now marshalling his forces for this Great Confusion. He is gathering his forces from a great nation and Eastern nations, friends that will join with him. So sudden will be the Great Confusion that it will cause a mighty widening of the eyes of those who have not discerned the sign of the times. But be ye not deceived. Be prepared! And be not deceived by the Great Society, for it will come to travail and then bring forth the Great Confusion. Be prepared! Even now the skies are red, red with warning and black, black with clouds gathering for the Great Confusion which is almost upon you!" [3]

The "Warning Prophecy" is as valid now as when it was given via Grandmother, and it's an even more intense warning now, for these things will shortly come to pass. Although many years have passed, this prophecy is still the cornerstone of what lies ahead from your perspective. [4]

Learn a truth, My children, that you be not overtaken as if by a thief in the night. For I say to you that the Antichrist has come and does reign even now! And though the revelation of the man incarnate will be revealed in My time, know that the spirit of Antichrist reigns even now, and is flooding the Earth as the waters cover the seas.

My children, open your eyes and discern the signs of the times--that the skies are red, red with warning, and black, black with clouds, and, lo, the great confusion is even upon the inhabitants of Earth! Are the masses not confused and torn and tattered and blown about? Are not men's minds scrambled and cluttered with complexities and confusion? Do not the waves of the seas roar with the crashing sounds of thunder? Has not the love of many waxed cold, and is not the Earth filled with evil men and seducers waxing worse and worse on every side? Yea, for I say, the Great Confusion is upon the peoples of the Earth. It has begun and continues to gain momentum day by day. Confusion, murkiness, distortions and atrocities are on every side. Polluted waters on troubled seas do cover the Earth.

Satan is loosed and brings with him great confusion! He walks about as a roaring lion, and as a wolf in sheep's clothing, seeking to devour and destroy those in his path--those who are weak, those who would fall for his chicanery, those who choose to yield to the pride of life. He seeks to disrupt and destroy, for in destruction lies his power. He lures and persuades with subtleties and seeming pleasures--delightful to the eye, appealing to the taste, soothing to the ears of those who would prefer to live in strong delusion. He uses the deceitfulness of science falsely so-called, and the wizardry of modern technology to control the masses. He invents and schemes with his false images transmitted throughout the Earth. He tries hard to gain ground and offers these delights to those who would serve him. [5]

(Dad speaking:) The Endtime is here, bringing with it all the many details we've talked about for years-things that the Lord predicted in His Word thousands of years ago, for that matter-the rise of the Antichrist, the Crash, the wars, with nation rising against nation, and the Covenant and the Temple. I taught you about these things in class after class and Letter after Letter, and now we've reached that time, the period that Grandmother called the Great Confusion. Of course, when I was there on Earth I thought this time was going to hit sooner. But since coming here, I've seen how many factors were involved and connected, and how certain events were held up, which held up others.

Now don't go running off proclaiming the great Tribulation is beginning tomorrow, or the last Seven Years. That's not what the Lord said, nor what I'm saying. We're talking about the Great Confusion. Like I told you years ago, the U.S. has slowly been sinking for a long time. Its economy has made little comebacks, but after each rise they sink further than they come back to, and it's about to take a dive like you've never seen before. It's going to pull down a lot more than just itself and a few neighbors.

We're about to see some very significant personages come on the scene and definite movements as the End comes closer. It's not that it hasn't been moving, but it's like watching a car coming toward you. From a distance, it looks like the car isn't even moving. Then, once it reaches a certain point, you're able to see the movement. The closer it gets, the more aware of its speed you become. We've been watching this one coming for a long time, and some people have gotten bored and walked away, deciding it wasn't really moving after all. But we're at the point where the movement is going to be seen more clearly, and it won't be long till you see it racing right at you at great speed! (6)

All these events--financial crashes, emergencies, plagues, wars, the winds of the air, the rains from the heavens, the warm current of the sea--are pointing one way, for these are the signs of the times, the signs of the End!

Have I not spoken and have I not been preparing you, lo, these many years for this day? For the End must needs come! Therefore, watch and pray and lend a listening ear, for this is the day that all the prophets have dreamed of! Watch and pray, My children, and make ready, for a day of harvest is come!

Him that will discern, let him discern. The sands of time are falling; the hourglass is running. The stage is set. The curtain is soon to go up as the next scene is about to begin, and the Wicked One is about to be revealed! His stagehands are setting the props in place. They're adjusting the lights and setting the stage, as the Wicked One prepares backstage. He's in the dressing room, and the final touches are being made on his make-up. He's putting on his cloak for his premiere performance, soon to begin on stage.

He's testing his marionettes and making them ready--testing their strings, adjusting their wires, lubricating their joints and limbs so that they will move with ease and in harmony and synchronization for the final dance.

Some of the marionettes have been in the hands of the puppeteer for a long time, and are more tried and proven. All their parts move freely about in response to the touch of the puppeteer's own hand. Then the puppeteer is lining up those who have been added to his collection more recently. He's moving them about, manipulating them up and down, back and forth and all around, testing them. He's pulling on the strings, attaching them firmly to his hand piece so that they will move in sync with the other marionettes. He's testing the strings--their tension and play--in order to break them in, so that they can follow suit and fall in line, joining in the dance with all the other marionettes.

Satan laughs and smirks with glee as he maneuvers his marionettes as pawns in his hands! He leads them in the dance as they jump and leap according to his commands and his gestures, at the flick of his fingers and the twist of his wrist.

You ask why these events are happening--the crash in Asia and the repercussions felt around the world? This show of power is to accomplish many purposes. It is perpetrated by the Wicked One, who is as the evil puppeteer demonstrating how his marionettes dance at his will and according to the movement of his hand.

At the same time, the Wicked One is attempting to teach his marionettes a lesson. Using Asia as an example, he is demonstrating what will happen if the marionettes should try to break loose from his control. It's a strong signal and a reminder to the marionettes that if they don't want to end up in a tangled mess, they must stay in line--else they get tangled and risk total collapse, since their joints and limbs are no longer being held up by the strings that are firmly attached to the puppeteer.

I tell you this parable, My children: The powers that be, the nations of the world, are as marionettes in the hand of the evil puppeteer. They are being manipulated at the touch of his finger and the twist of his wrist, as he is lining them up for the final show.

Oftentimes when the marionettes dance, they think they're free. As they leap from side to side and tap their feet in tune to the music, they forget that they're attached to the puppeteer by invisible strings. It's not until the puppeteer finds it necessary to give the marionette a strong tug in a certain direction that the marionette is reminded who's really in control. Though the marionette appears to be footloose and fancy-free, as long as its strings are attached firmly to the hand piece of the puppeteer, the marionette cannot move about without the touch of the puppeteer's hand which jerks it into submission.

The Wicked One has caused the turmoil in Asia, in part to punish those who would try to kick and buck against his control. It's a demonstration of his power to the nations, that should they try to kick and break free from his manipulation, it will only result in instability, and they will soon find themselves in a tangled state and at risk of plunging to the ground in total collapse, just as the marionette who would try to cut his ties. Therefore, this move in Asia is in part a demonstration to the nations, a warning that they'd better line up and stay firmly attached to the strings and the wires of the puppeteer who will support them and move them, else they collapse.

Pray for those who do not want to be tied to the puppeteer. Pray for their strength, for their conviction, for their enlightenment, that they might turn to Me--for I am their only hope of salvation and true freedom. Only I am able to fully free them so that they may be free of the puppeteer's control.

The Wicked One has deceived the nations into thinking that if they cut their strings to him, they will fall in total collapse. The bright lights of the theater are being carefully run by the stage crew as they cast a glare on the eyes of the marionettes, blinding them to My lifeline that hangs over center stage. Only by grabbing ahold of My lifeline can the marionettes find escape from their ties to the evil puppeteer.

Through selfish lust and the deceitfulness of riches, the marionettes grow dependent on the strings of the puppeteer. But should they decide to cut their strings, to break loose from the control and manipulation of the dark puppeteer, My lifeline remains steady and firm, reaching out to hold them and support them, so that they will not stumble and totter and crumble in ruin.

Pray for these, that through the storm they may find hope in time of need, that they might find My lifeline of survival through faith and trust in Me. Pray for those who are sincerely seeking, that though the bright lights cast a glare, their eyes might focus on My lifeline, that they may find freedom from the puppeteer's wiring system.

I am the door. By Me, if any man enter in, he shall have life. I am that lifeline, and as people or nations grasp ahold of Me, I am able to free them to the extent that they let Me. For those who receive Me, I am able to free them from death and hell, giving them eternal freedom. For those who seek Me, I am able to answer their prayers and supply their requests. For those who yield themselves to Me fully, I am able to free them in every way. Where My Spirit dwells fully, there is full liberty indeed.

Not many nations will receive Me fully, but as they and their leaders receive you, they also receive Me, and I am able to protect and help them. Or as they provide refuge to My children, though they be not of the same faith, then I am able to give these nations refuge from the storm the Evil One will bring upon the Earth. All will be affected by his storm. But like a lifesaver in the stormy sea, I preserve those who take refuge in Me. As long as they cling tightly to Me, they will not sink. Though the waves may be rough about them and the winds howl, they will not sink or come to ruin.

I say to you, My children, that there is yet another purpose in these events: These things must come to pass, for the End is nigh. The stage is being set for the grand premiere and the revelation of the Wicked One, who is the author of this great confusion and the chaos that has rocked the nations. The crashing markets, the great plunge, the great rebound, the highs and the lows, are all being carefully manipulated by his hand, as he sets the marionettes in line for the final dance.

It's all a part of setting the stage for the grand entrance of the Wicked One. As these ripples rock the nations and the domino effect takes place, each piece falls in line, all pointing in one direction--to applaud and hail and accept the one who will bring order out of all this chaos--the One World leader!

The crash and fluctuating markets are a call to awaken the nations. Through these jolts and shocks, the turmoil and instability that is created will drive the crowds to cheer and beg for the puppeteer to wield his magic wand, causing all the marionettes to dance and move in harmony. Through these events, the Wicked One is setting the stage for his entrance. With these swift moves and jerks he is convincing the world of the need for a savior--someone who can save the day, someone who knows how to keep the strings in order, and how to flick his fingers and twist his wrist so that all may appear to keep on dancing free of entanglements, falls and crashes.

The Wicked One is marshaling his forces. His entrance is being heralded as the world looks on, as they see in living color the reality of the global economy that has been in operation behind the scenes. The Wicked One is demonstrating that it is not a myth. He's demonstrating some of his inner workings as he brings to the attention of the people that there is indeed a need for the puppeteer. He is partially unveiling his system of strings and wires, and demonstrating how only with the aid of the puppeteer will all the marionettes be able to move in sync, so that they may keep dancing, free from tangles and falls.

Through this touch of chaos, the Wicked One is motivating the crowds to call for the curtain to go up. As the inner workings are revealed and the magnitude of global communications are being realized, the reality of interconnections and link-ups and cross-investments demonstrate to the nations that there is a need for someone to man the controls, a need for leadership--someone with the skill of the puppeteer to keep everything moving in harmony to the rhythm of the music, someone who can rescue them from further turmoil, which they desperately want to avoid at all costs. Through fear of further impending chaos, the nations will be brought to their knees in a desperate plea for one who can keep everything moving and flowing, lest they become tangled and grind to a complete halt.

Marvel not at the great rebound of the mighty nation [the U.S.], and be not fooled by a false sense of security, for what is seen is only temporary. For those who lurk behind the scenes, those who sit in high places, know in their hearts the meaning of this apparent quick comeback--that it is only for a time. For this was only a show of force of the Wicked One, a demonstration to those in high standing of who is really the boss. Even the big money boys are as pawns in the hands of the puppeteer. This great fluctuation serves as a reminder to all that the puppeteer alone holds the controls.

The puppeteer's total power works by fear. The purpose of the great plunge and the mighty rebound of the great nation was to strike fear into the hearts of those who sit in high places, else they be lifted up beyond reason. In these days of extremities, as the pendulum swings from extreme low to extreme high, the puppeteer sends a strong signal that it is indeed he who holds the bag and manipulates the strings, and all must yield to his gestures and signals, else they will be tangled up and put out of commission.

Let him who will hear, listen: for there be those mighty men in the world who will lead the way. These are they who do prepare the way and set the stage so that the Wicked One might take center stage, and they do lead the way in the applause. Though they appear mighty and powerful in the eyes of the world, they, too, through the deceitfulness of riches and the motivation of fear, are moved to applaud the entrance of the one who will be worshipped by all the world. These who sit in high places, the big money boys and magistrates alike, are being warned as the pendulum swings, that it is indeed out of their control. They are being reminded that there is a need for the puppeteer to wield his magic wand to bring order out of chaos, else they too will collapse.

These days of extreme swings serve their purpose and motivate these who sit in high places. These events serve as a cue, a signal to man their stations, curtain time, for the scene is about to begin. And all the world will worship the Wicked One for a time, as they marvel at his agility and his ability to keep the marionettes moving and flowing and dancing in apparent sync and coordination.

I say to you, My children, let not your hearts be troubled, neither be afraid, for to you it is given to work great signs and wonders in the coming days! Rejoice and be exceeding glad, for these are the days which all the prophets that have gone before you have dreamed of!

I set before you a great and mighty harvest! Therefore, watch and pray, and know that I go before you to lead and to guide and to see you safely through. Through emergencies and crashes and economic wars, I will be your peace and your strength. I will be your strong tower, and nothing will by any means hurt or harm you. As I have promised, so will I also perform My promise--I will take care of My Own.

And in these days I hold you up as a beacon, a light shining forth in great darkness for all the world to see! Although all the world will wonder after the Beast, all the world will marvel at the awesome power, strength and mighty works that I will perform through you, My mighty bulwarks of faith in these Last Days of the End! Fret not yourselves for tomorrow, but work My works today, and know that I will never leave you nor forsake you. (7)

You see great natural disasters now, but they are not natural, My children. They are supernatural--things which I allow the Enemy to enact as a judgment upon the wicked and as a release for the innocent, that they may be gathered unto Me and escape the suffering which they face in this world. These are but a small sample of things to come, when I will shake the Earth! And in the end, even the powers of the Heavens will be shaken.

So be prepared, for the events to come will come upon you suddenly. Sudden will be the appearance of the evil one, that wicked one who does exalt himself above all that is Godly or that is called God. Sudden will be the Great Confusion. Suddenly will destruction come upon the wicked, and judgment upon the unrighteous and those who oppress the poor and needy of this world.

You do well to study the signs of the times and gather the clues to things which will yet come upon the Earth and upon mankind. But be not fearful for the days which come. These things must needs be fulfilled before the End comes and the glorious dawn of a new day, when the Sun of Righteousness will shine forever more!

I will protect and keep My children during this time. Though some shall fall by the sword or by fire, they will fall into My arms, where they will be safe and protected from the blast of the terrible ones that will sweep across the face of the Earth in these Latter Days.

So fret not, neither be dismayed when you see these things coming to pass. For I the Lord am mighty to save, mighty to shelter, mighty to provide! As I do care for My little sparrows, and not one falls to the ground but that I know about it, so do I care for you. The very hairs of your head are numbered. My love for you cannot be measured, and My thoughts towards you are those of goodness, mercy, and peace. So be confident in My care, and bold in proclaiming My message. (8)

The Family has weathered a time of severe worldwide persecution, which has been followed by several years of peace. Now it's time to prepare for another onslaught--not of persecution, but of famine, plagues, civil disorder, and the breakdown of community services, which will affect the whole world. My promises stand as strong as ever for My children: I will protect and provide and deliver you. (9)

Though I have My plan, and things will happen as I have said they will, even the Enemy has a degree of choice with which to make his plans. So he is setting the stage, and if the conditions are right, if the world is in enough chaos, if things get bad enough that they need a savior, then he will arise. He is behind the scenes, creating confusion, so that he will be able to step forth and assume power, to save the world for a time. Even this is within My will, for he but sets the stage for My return, as I foretold in My Word.

The Devil has a measure of choice, within certain bounds, much like the illustration your Father David gave of the tunnel of My will. There is a set time period for the End, and it will come within the time that I have determined and set. For I have set these times, and no man nor spirit may gainsay or change these things. But within this time frame, within this tunnel, the Evil One is permitted a certain amount of leeway, for I have allowed him this choice. He has the power of choice, even as you have the power of choice.

He may choose to work his evil works now, or may withhold a little, until later, just as you may move from one side to the other within the tunnel of My will. The Enemy of your souls has much less choice than you do, however, for I have set much greater bounds upon him. He may only move slightly from one way to the other. He cannot turn around and escape My will and that which I have planned and predicted in My Word. That which is to be shall be, whether it be soon or a little less soon. In either case, the time is nigh.

I have set the boundaries of the Endtime--the last seven years, the two three-and-a-half-year periods, and have numbered the days within them. I have also set them within the general boundaries of time itself, and they will occur within that time frame, whether they be soon or they be delayed a little. But I give the Evil One a certain amount of leeway in when he may begin this period.

He knows that once these days are begun, then the day of his end is determined, the day of My return is determined, and his choice has ended. So he seeks to maximize his chance to defeat My plan by beginning it at the time when he imagines it will be most opportune for him.

I allow this to show both him and the world that My plan will not be defeated. Though the Enemy goes to great lengths to defeat Me in these days, I will not be defeated, nor will My plan be altered. As always, he but accomplishes My will in creating the conditions for My return. He stirs up trouble which drives My children ever closer to Me, and also works in the hearts of the unbelievers to cause them to want to seek Me, to find Me as their refuge from the storm. And in the latter part of his reign on Earth, when he declares himself god, he forces all men to make a decision. Will they reject him and receive Me, or receive him and reject Me? In all these things he but does My will, and as you would say on Earth, he cannot win for losing. (10)

The Enemy is the propagator of fear. In the end, fear is what will bring this proud world to its knees, as the material goods and so-called government security that people so love grow wings and begin to fly out of their lives. It is then that the world will represent a drowning man, willing to give up his very freedom if only someone will save his life. In that same hour, the world, seeking to save its life, shall lose it.

All shall work together to bring about the Great Confusion spoken of in My Word. Modern society is not prepared for this kind of crisis, for they have removed Me from their schools, replacing Me and My Word and ways with that of materialism, evolution, and many other things that are contrary to godliness. They have removed Me from their lifestyles, for never before has there been such a striving for wealth and success, a focus on pleasure and self-satisfaction, such a selfishness permeating every corner of society. In doing these things, they are setting themselves up in a house built on sand. When the storms come and the rain falls, this house will wash away. There will be a massive breakdown of the most basic moral codes that man has lived by for ages. Even those who still strive to have some kind of moral standard will be swallowed up by the vast majority of people who only care for their own skin.

There are many who see these dark clouds on the horizon and sense the danger, yet do not know what to do. As the noose tightens slowly but steadily about the world's neck, I call My children everywhere to preach the good news of One Who can save them from their torment of mind and from their enslavement to the god Mammon. For in the dark days that are soon coming, the only safe dwelling place will be under the shadow of My wings. For I am a rock and a fortress to those who fear My Name, and I will always care for My Own. [11]

The Economic Crash

My children, you've had many peeks into what lies ahead. The crash is here, as your Father David has said, and has been here for some time. Markets may go up and down, but the crash is proceeding little by little. If you don't believe this, ask the poor of this world. While the rich grow richer, the poor grow poorer.

The crash goes through practice runs in country after country, and area after area, as the Evil One pulls the strings of his puppets, or manipulates the kingdoms of this world which are given into his hand. He pulls a string here, and if the marionette will not yield to his tug, it comes tumbling down. Then it is rewired so that he has greater control and a more submissive marionette. He prepares his way through his little crashes here and there, making the nations of the world more dependent on him and his financial institutions, and more desperate for his solutions. Ever so slowly has he worked, extending his control little by little.

The economies of South America, Russia, Asia, and other places have crashed in recent years. Through this, the puppet master gains greater control each time, and prepares the way for the really big crash. He sees what works and what doesn't. And through such things I also test the faith of My children, purifying and trying and making white their faith and increasing their dependence on Me. So these things do work together for good, both in preparing the End and in preparing My children.

In the days to come there will be more crashes and more rebounds. Take heed that you be not deceived by the great climbing financial markets of the world. They're built on wood, hay and stubble, and with one flick of a match they become ashes between the teeth of those who look to them. You do well to invest your funds in souls and the tools for winning them, for such investments are as gold and a multitude of precious jewels! (1998) [12]

One step, two step, three step, four. Is this all, or is there more? Click, click, click, down they go. Once they start, they cannot stop. Click, click, click, the dominoes fall. One upon another, down go they all!

One step, Asia. Two step, South Africa. Three step, Russia. Four step, Venezuela. Is this all, or is there more? Yes, there's more--Brazil's turn now, and more to come--for dominoes is the name of the game, and indeed they all will fall!

This current crisis in Brazil is merely another piece falling in the Evil Puppeteer's game of economic dominoes. You see, My children, the Evil Puppeteer does not have his pieces aligned in a straight row, nor are they in a perfect circle. No, the Evil One seeks to show his mastery and skill at the game through demonstrating his deftness and proficient handling of the pieces. His alignment of these pieces is done in such a way as to demonstrate his control and mastery of the global economic dominoes which he has positioned and whose fall he has triggered.

He has not positioned the pieces in a straight line, but he curves the line and swerves it back and forth. He does figure eights and other fancy twists and turns with his pieces, to prove his skill and his power. In this way he is spreading his financial panic over a wide variety of territories and economic scenarios, for by so doing he is able to spread his depression and distress. He is swerving and turning one direction and then another; nevertheless, the dominoes will all fall, for all are connected.

The Puppeteer is demonstrating his skill at the game--his mastery of the dominoes and how they fall at the touch of his hand. This serves as a reminder of who is in control to those in power, to the rulers of this world and all those who bow down and worship him.

This is the design of his game of economic dominoes: once it starts, it cannot stop. One affects the other. All are linked, all are tied together. None are isolated nor confined in themselves. The Evil One has his pieces in position. All are intertwined and interlinked, keenly integrated, each one affecting another. When a crisis breaks out in one country, it will affect all the others in some way, at some time. It may not be manifested immediately in each country, it may come further down the line for some, but all will be touched, and will totter and fall--paving the way for the Puppeteer to take control.

This financial turbulence is the process by which the Evil One is spreading his fear, panic and depression, which in turn creates the political instability that leads to troubles and great sorrow for those who do not look to Me. (1999) [13]

He shall enter peaceably upon the fattest places and take the kingdom by flatteries. Do you not see how he even now plans and schemes and twists the world around his finger? Do you not see the hand of the Antichrist working behind the scenes to bring about a one-world power? Globalization? Ha! Globalization is nothing without the strong hand of the ACs driving and pushing for it. The world is fatalistic now; they see it as a natural course of events. But it's not happening naturally; there's a definite plan behind it. The ACs want all the markets linked so they can pull the plug on them all in one shot.

They don't want to have to destabilize country by country; they want to do it all in one shot. That's why all the financial markets and exchanges are getting more and more linked and dependent on each other. They'll be able to crash the entire market economy of the globe with one phone call, one flick of their wrist. They'll be able to pull the world down to poverty in an instant.

You can see that they're not quite ready for this yet. They've been testing things out, trying the waters to see if things are going to work or not. It's a slow process, because they tamper with this market here and see what effect it has on the other markets, then they turn around and fix this little glitch that caused this market not to rise or fall at their behest. And on the game goes, until every market will be so entwined that there will be no escape. The global exchange will rise and fall at whim. They will take the entire stock market, bonds, securities, commodities, and other financial markets down with them in one shot to ensure that the entire civilized world falls into chaos at the same time.

They're going to want it to happen quickly so that the whole world will be open at the same time for a ruler. It'll happen in a blink of an eye. They're just not quite ready yet. They've got a bit more fine-tuning to do before they're ready, and they're waiting on something else.

They need faster technology to help their plans work, so they're pushing the computer and Internet scene. They're behind much of the research into cloning, biotechnology, and chip advancement. They're funding and fueling its current drive, because they need results. They need the biggest brains out there working on solutions that are going to benefit their system. That's one reason they're continuing to let the economy prosper, because it makes it simpler and easier for them to achieve their aims and to fund all this technology.

They're the ones pouring big bucks into the research and development of chips that can be implanted under your skin. They're the ones funding bionics and chip research. They're pushing ahead at breakneck speed because they need all the technology they can get to make their plan work without major glitches.

They're building the networks now. They're working furiously behind the scenes to ensure that their system will be undisputed and that it will work. What you see on the surface is only the tip of the iceberg. What you see now is only the aftereffect of what's really happening out there on the front lines of technology.

You can bet that the U.S. military and the British, Russian and American agencies are all working together behind the scenes to set this program up. They're training the executives. They're creating the technology needed to fund and to power their new programs. They're the ones pushing behind the scenes.

All the big players are involved in this plan. While they make it appear as if each one has their own agenda and plan, and they strive to keep up the façade of independence and of making these advancements for the good of their respective nations, behind closed doors they're getting their orders straight from the top. They don't do a thing without being told what to do by the ACs who are in charge and running the show.

They're financing more and more globalization and global projects, buying out or crushing competition. They're behind these mergers too. They are consolidating the markets, making sure the big money boys are even bigger and have control. They want to make sure that all their assets are shored up and in safe industries when they pull the plug. They want to make sure that they have a corner on the market of all the major industries--media, cars, electronics, software. You name it and they've got a finger in that pie! They didn't stop with oil; when they saw how much success they had in that market, they moved into other markets, just like any good businessman would. They're very crafty and they know how to use the System; they created it to their own ends. They know how to weave a dastardly web of deception that's going to draw the world in, and they won't even know they're caught. That's how good they are.

It's going to happen very suddenly. One day you'll wake up and the global markets will have plunged, and that money you're holding will be worthless. That's not a myth or a theory--that's the truth. It's going to get sucked down to the bottom of the pool, and they'll take as many people down as they can.

Those who are heavily investing in Internet-based companies and in the stock market are going to be some of the hardest hit. Their money will plunge through the floor because it wasn't invested in hard, evidence-based enterprises. The whole stock market is a matter of faith, as David has told you. It's paper money, fake, false. It provides a false sense of security because it can all be gone in a moment, and it will be very soon.

Once they've got the world groveling at their feet, they'll start bailing them out one by one, by offering them new and improved methods of marketing, new and improved economic plans. They'll "offer," but what they're not saying is that they're going to implement this plan "or else"--or else they'll crush you and starve you and bring you down till you accept their plan. It's such a farce, a fake, this phony front they put up of wanting to help and being so charitable and philanthropic. They're only philanthropic when it suits their purpose and when they can get control of or access to something they want. They don't give away "help" without very tight strings attached. And they pull the strings as they wish.

All this is going to come about very suddenly. There'll be a "mighty widening of the eyes," because things will be going great till suddenly the bottom will fall out of it, and people will be left with nothing but paper--worthless paper. (2000) [14]

The time is coming when a greater economic depression will hit the world, an even greater downturn in economic activity, because the Antichrist wants to consolidate as much power into his hands as he can. And one step toward doing that is a complete revamp of the financial system.

I'm not talking about the Mark of the Beast yet; I'm talking about the precursor to that, which is winding down the corrupt, inflated, empty financial system.--Winding it down closer to its true value, and the Antichrist grabbing as much power as possible during this wind-down. These are things which must come to pass, and I remind you of them so that you may watch for them, be aware of them when they happen, and see My words being fulfilled.

The fact of the matter is that the entire worldwide financial system is bankrupt. The Devil has gotten it into this position, of course, so that he can pull the rug out from under who he wants to when he wants to, in order to consolidate power into a lot fewer organizations that he will have ultimate control of. That's what's happening right now. (2008) [15]

The financial world is controlled by the god of this world, the Devil, for the kingdoms of this world are given over to him. Though some Godly men have made money in this world, it is the realm of the ungodly, those who seek profit and riches on this Earth, rather than riches in the world to come.

The Enemy even tries to use the testimonies of those Christians who have made profits therein, to lure some of My other unsuspecting children into the fowler's snare, where they are then trapped. As they make a little money, they are encouraged to put in more, to bet more. As they risk more and more, they open themselves up to losing all, and many are brought to destruction thereby.

Such is the stock market of this world. As it soars higher and higher in the U.S., more and more people are encouraged to invest their money, placing their faith in pieces of paper with promises of profits. It does seem to be soaring for now, but so suddenly shall the Great Confusion come, that it will cause a mighty widening of the eyes of those who have not discerned the signs of the times. (1998) [16]

When the bottom falls out, those that are holding stocks are going to lose. If the economy crashes, then people aren't going to have money to buy properties. And when the banks crash, then the money you're holding in them will crash too. (1999) [17]

The long-term trend of the dollar is down. In fact, the long-term trend of every paper currency is down, but the dollar is slated to meet its fate and dive into the depths sooner than some others, because it must reap the destruction that America has sown with it and through it.

The euro is based on national economies that will be more steady, stable, and enduring than that of the U.S. in the future. The dollar, on the other hand, has a shaky foundation, one which is based on debt and is eaten through with problems, but it enjoys a great measure of faith from investors. So for now the dollar is climbing in value and the euro is declining relative to it.

This condition will not last, however. The roles will be reversed again and the dollar will begin to decline and the euro will begin to rise. (2008) [18]

The dollar is climbing now, but it will eventually lose most of its value against other currencies. When that begins to happen, if you're in a place where you have to use dollars or keep some of your funds in dollars, then it makes sense to keep a certain amount of those dollars to make your purchases. But if you have funds above your current or near-term financial needs, it would be wise to put them into another currency, or into gold, or even into silver. Or, invest in things of real value, such as equipment you'll need, food that you could store up, water that you could store. There are important things, things of real value that will come to the fore even more as time goes on and the economic system collapses--whether those stores are goods, food, gasoline, property, gold, silver, or other currencies.

The dollar is going to be greatly downsized. However, it will take a while, so you don't necessarily want to dump all of your dollars right now. Just be sure they're not all you're depending on, and get ready to make the transition into a new worldwide financial and economic system. (2008) [19]

The wise thing to do now financially is to spread out your bets as much as possible on various currencies, having some good hard currencies, as well as some local currency, as well as some gold, as well as the real tangible assets that you need in time of trouble.

Remember, the basic necessities of man are food, clothing, and shelter. These are things of real value to human life. Real estate has an intrinsic value of giving you a place to stay--as long as you own it and it's not mortgaged. (2008) [20]

Beware of placing your faith in the wrong things, My children--in the things which are seen rather than the things which are unseen. The day is coming when the markets of this world will tumble. Their skyscrapers are built on sand and have no foundation, and great will be the crash thereof. You do well to invest in souls and salvation and the poor of this world, for you will reap everlasting rewards, and friends which will be yours forever. [21]

The Fall of America

America is in decline. Though it may not seem so now, and though she is touted as the world superpower, her days are numbered. So sudden will be her fall, and so mighty the crash, that it will cause a mighty widening of the eyes, as My prophets have predicted. Be not deceived by the Great Society, for it will suddenly come to naught! (1998) [22]

(Dad speaking:) The Lord showed me that the big crash could come in slowly, steadily mounting until the big one hit, and that's about to happen. It's on the horizon. It's looming out there, just waiting for the go-ahead from the ACs, and then everything will crumble and fall.

They're saying that the U.S. economy is still strong and that it can bounce back, but if it does, it will only be temporary. It's going to take a bad fall very soon--one from which neither it nor the world will recover. And once the U.S. stock market goes, all the rest will follow like dominoes, because they've built their economies around a sinking ship.

They built their economies on paper pigs, and that piggy is about to blow! It's going to burst, and all their fancy decorations and their fancy cars and buildings are going to burst with it. It's going to pull the plug out of their dreams, and just like a draining sink they'll all spiral down out of control into the hands of the AC and his agents.

He's got it all planned and he and his people have been working behind the scenes on this for quite a few years. He's been testing out the repercussions worldwide and fine-tuning his plan. He tried a little fall in one country or another; then he saw that he couldn't fully control it and that his hold on the strings wasn't good enough. So he let it rebound to get a closer grip on it, so that when the big mother ship goes down, it's going to suck all the others down with it!

They say that when you're in a shipwreck you have to swim as far away from the ship as possible, otherwise the whirlpool that the sinking ship makes will just suck you under like a big vortex--SUUUUUCK! And then you're down there on the bottom of the sea just like Jonah! Except this time it isn't the Lord's whale that you're safe in. You boarded the wrong boat and it sank! That's what the story is going to be for so many Americans--they've boarded the wrong ship and are destined for disaster. They're on a collision course with the iceberg of God's judgments and they're going to hit it very soon.

Don't listen to the soothsayers; they're all liars. They don't know what's going to happen. They just guess at it and try to figure it out, and they have no idea the huge crash that's coming! They have no idea just how big that bang is going to be! It's going to take a plunge like never before! Crash! Boom! Splat! Right on their faces! (1998) [23]

All America is feasting at the table of Satan. There are few, few indeed who have not been corrupted. America indeed has already fallen, and she is reeling from many blows. People's hearts are waxed gross. The Christians are deceived into thinking they can save that which I have not ordained.

What your father has written is written, and so shall it be done. It has already been fully revealed over and over in the events of the End in America--the Crash, the chaos and anarchy, the waves and bands of marauders, the evil doctors drinking blood, the mass indifference in "The Hamburger Boat" from the hamburger gobblers, the insane education system, the perverse sexual laws and tolerance of those forms of sexual behavior which are not of Me but are abominations, the continual murder of babies and of other innocents, the prevailing and increasing witchcraft, the corrupt laws, the corrupt courts, the murdering of Christians even in mass display in front of the whole country, not to mention continual drunkenness, drug abuse, and the horrors of children rising up against their own parents as I predicted in My Word.

Surely I have spoken to this people in judgments, in great winds and movements of the earth, and in the destruction of their idols, their buildings, by terrorists. As your father predicted, you can only expect more and more confusion--more youth violence, and even organized factions arming themselves; more hatred and racism, all being provoked and encouraged by the ACs; more and more than ever before, perversions and festivals and rejoicing over the violent past and the stars and stripes, which things I hate.

I am allowing great confusion right now. I have allowed the ACs to take away the peace, and now bring old enemies back to America. I have allowed the Russians and the Chinese to infiltrate and to flex their muscles to put fear into the hearts of the American politicians and people who thought they were sitting at ease in Zion. They thought they had arrived. They thought Russia was paralyzed. They thought they were so much better than the Chinese.

The time, I say again, is very near.

Remember what I said in My Word, that when they say "peace and safety," then sudden destruction shall come upon them as a thief in the night!

She has not got long to stand. Things are in motion and they will never be the same again. (1999) [24]

(After the Columbine high school shootings - 1999)

(Dad speaking:) The Lord revealed to me and warned us many years ago about what's come to pass in the U.S. today. All those dreams I had about the troublous times are now coming to pass. You can read about it nearly every day in the newspapers or watch it on TV. The American nightmare is here! It's not something that's going to happen someday far off in the future, it's happening right now--today!

This recent shooting in Colorado is part of the grand plan. The ACs have it all methodically planned out. You can bet they're going to utilize this reign of terror and the havoc it's causing to push their program. The Devil is smart and he's going to take advantage of all this havoc.

The Devil and his demons orchestrated these shootings as a part of his plan. He knew the precise moment he could push those boys over the edge, so that they could do his dirty work. Their actions have now made people willing to accept more control, more monitoring, to be less tolerant of differing opinions, to be more willing to give up their freedom for what they see as more security. These are all major steps toward the Mark of the Beast and will lead toward his plan to establish control over the entire world.

This tragedy is another act in the play, one scene in the reign of terror that the ACs are perpetrating so that they can usher in their complete control. You see, they have to create the horror and the havoc so that they can then come in and save the day--similar to what they're doing around the world with crashes, wars, civil unrest and strife. Or as in this case, with this type of tragedy, a scenario that really hits home in the lives of everyone--outrages of violence in the schools that are claiming the lives of their own children. The Devil doesn't care if innocent lives are lost when it comes to these tragedies that are all moving the masses to accept his master plan.

You can bet there's lots in the works as a result of this sad tale in Colorado, new policies and laws that will be made in view of this latest shooting--and it's all leading somewhere! All the policies across the U.S. they'll now want to put into effect, every course of action that the government as well as private institutions will want to take, it's all pointing in one direction: to a dictatorial, regimented, totalitarian state--the American nightmare!

The Lord showed me many years ago that the U.S. would become a virtual police state, and you're seeing the fulfillment of it right before your eyes!

The American nightmare is here, folks! Watch out! You're to be wise as serpents and harmless as doves, and you'd all better pray without ceasing! The world is getting darker all the time, so let's pray for the wisdom and strength to keep on preaching the truth. The Lord promised He would keep you right up to the very End, so stay close to Him--lest you find yourself caught up in the middle of the American nightmare! [25]

(After 9/11 - 2001)

Her cup of iniquity has been deemed full, therefore I have allowed the Enemy to begin to mete out upon her the judgments that are the fruit of her own doing. She is beginning to drink of the cup that she herself produced. She has filled it full to the brim and now it has been raised to her own lips and she has begun to taste that which she has poured out for others.

This is just the beginning of the End--the beginning of her end as the world superpower, and the beginning of the Endtime events that I predicted so long ago.

America will be as a cornered wildcat. She has boxed herself into a canyon and there is no escape, as those she taunted and tormented now have her within striking distance. They will not let her out. They will continue to torment her and taunt her until she becomes weakened and exposed, and then the final blow will be dealt, as those standing afar off watch in amazement at how fast a destruction could be brought upon such a mighty empire, for in one hour her destruction shall come.

America has been weighed in the balances and found wanting. All that she is, all that she has accomplished, and all that she has stood for and done, has been measured in the balances, and the time of her judgment has come. She is past the point of no return. Mene, mene, tekel, upharsin (Dan.5:25).

She will react as a wildcat cornered, and lunge out at whoever attempts to harm her, but her end is inevitable. Watch out for America. Watch out for this cornered wildcat, for she will begin to attack whoever threatens her. Her judgment is at hand. She will stop at nothing, and it will only be My mercy toward the rest of the world that I will allow her enemies to overtake and destroy her in one hour, before she wreaks a greater harm on the world than all her good has done.

Mene, mene, tekel, upharsin. She has been weighed in the balances and found wanting. Her judgments now begin. [26]

(After Katrina - 2005)

The End has begun. This is one more domino down, a domino which has already fallen hard against the next one soon to fall, and on and on it will go down the line, heading toward the crash of America.

Now she will feel just a small portion of the pain that she has inflicted upon others, but great will be the repercussions and pain upon her nation in the days and years to come.

These and many more sorrows must come to pass to usher in the End, My loves. Although it grieves Me, I must begin judgment upon My backsliding daughter for the pain she has inflicted upon others. The cries of those who have been maimed and have been denied life have long risen to My ears, and now it is time that I must begin judgment upon the nation as a whole. Although there are many of My children within that land, many who love Me, because of their general turning away of their faces from their collective sin-and in many cases even flagrant disregard for life outside their own-I must lower My hand of judgment

This is the beginning of sorrows. Then shall come great trouble and then shall come the end of America as she presently is. What you see now in the city of New Orleans will be just a snapshot-a glimpse of what is to come in city after city across the nation.

What is the significance of the New Orleans disaster? It marks the collapse of the red, white and blue. America is falling. She is crumbling and will continue to crumble under the weight and pressure of the repercussions of this mighty blow. The wheels of judgment grind slow, but fine, and this refining will continue on until the end of days as you know it.

What you are seeing is a foretaste and shadow of things that are to come. What has taken place is not a mere storm that has left many homeless and others dead, but it is the beginning of the end of the U.S. as you know it. The house of cards is about to come tumbling down, and with it the way of life that so many in that country have grown used to, what many of My wayward children refer to as "the abundant life." It all came so suddenly for those who had not discerned the signs of the times, those who continued to walk in their pride, a people that had grown fat and opulent-a nation who had said within her heart, "I sit a queen and shall see no sorrow."

This is the beginning of the reaping, the reaping of the death and destruction that the U.S. has sown in the lands of the Earth, and it will not stop here. This "act of God," as many call it, will be followed by many others and will act as the catalyst in bringing down the proud and the haughty, those who call themselves by My name but do not know Me. For had they known Me, they would have done the things that I had commanded and would have brought comfort to those who suffer, deliverance to the oppressed, healing to the afflicted. But instead they turned their back on Me and walked in their own willful way, and now My hand is forced to chastise them and bring them low.

I never turn My back on those who call on Me. But that doesn't stop My judgments, and these judgments must fall.

America is doomed, and I aimed this blow right at the belly button of their System. It's not a blow that will cause them to topple immediately, but it will have an effect that they cannot recover from.

So let the U.S. take heed: All things do not continue as they are. As September 11 showed them that they are not impervious to the fury of men, this should show them that they are not impervious to the ravages of nature, nor are they exempt from My judgments for their sins, individually or as a nation. A wicked king and an evil government can lead a nation to problems and even destruction as surely now as they did in days of old.

Pain and suffering have been poured out on others for years by the Americans. In recent years this has increased, as America struggles to hold on to its wealth. Instead of helping the poor, she conquers and destroys the poor. Yes, I have allowed America to feel some of the pain that she has dealt out to others. But she will not heed.

Woe to those American Christians who have their heads stuck deep in a bucket of sand, the sand of the American dollar! Because they worship the god of money, they do not see My truth. They only see the world through their eyes, which are aided by the glasses that the money-makers put on them. They find satisfaction in viewing the world this way, and then tread down the poor and think nothing of it.

This destruction would not have happened if they were not destroying others. I could have continued to spare New Orleans. But because Americans have wreaked havoc and destruction on others, I have brought havoc and destruction to one of their own prized cities. And this is only the beginning.

Woe to the Americans who view the world through their fist full of dollars! For soon these will come to naught, and their System will fall and they will fall with it.

There is no future for America. It is doomed. And it's time to realize that and act as if it's happening now, for it will fall, and it will be sudden and will create a panic throughout the world for those who have not heeded the signs of the times.

My loves, the sky is red, red with warning. This event is a warning of what is ahead on the horizon. I know how to humble the proud and those who exalt themselves against Me and who fight My children. This country will grow weaker and weaker because they have disobeyed. They have despised My Words and misused My prophets, and now there is no remedy. My judgments are being poured out upon that wicked land. [27]

That country (U.S.A.) is worthy of judgment for its deeds. Its cup of iniquity is nearly full, and the time of My judgments is almost come.

However, the repercussions could touch other countries as well. The nations of the world are connected in many ways, and what affects one deeply often affects many others to one extent or another. There are many ties that bind the nations to each other, and a sudden jerk on one tie is often felt far away through the network of ties. (2006) [28]

How to Prepare For the Great Confusion

The Endtime chess game proceeds and the Antichrist ponders his moves. As his opponent, you must be thinking ahead and considering what you would do if he made this or that move. What would you do if there was a crash, a major disaster, or an outbreak of war? Have you considered these things carefully and prayerfully and come up with any sort of contingency plans, how you would respond? It would be good for you to do so, for any good chess player can outwit his opponent if he thinks far enough ahead. [29]

Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding heed these words: I cannot tell you the very hour or the very day. These things must remain hidden for now. But I'm doing all that I can to prepare you in spirit through the massive outpouring of My Word in all forms--especially through My instruction and admonitions to receive the gift of prophecy, to practice it and use it. I've been preparing you for years through the battles that I have brought you through, through your strengthening of spirit.

Be prepared, for you know not what hour the Antichrist will come and when he shall rise to power. Sudden shall be his appearance on the world scene. He will slip quietly in the door to world power like a thief in the night. How foolish you would be to not prepare both physically and spiritually for the future events that may come unexpectedly. Please be wise and heed My Words of caution, of wisdom, and of truth that will help you to make it. [30]

(Dad speaking:) Hallelujah! Praise the Lord! These certainly are exciting times! You folks shouldn't be too surprised at the recent events taking place, because I've been preparing you for years. This shouldn't be any big surprise for the Family at all! In fact, you should be rejoicing, praising and thanking the Lord, because it's almost over! It won't be long now! We're on our way! The End has got to come sooner or later, and believe me, it's now later than some of you think!

Praise You Lord! Help us, Lord! Give us wisdom, give us guidance, and give the Family peace in their hearts. Help them to look up and be glad, knowing that You always take care of Your Own, and You certainly are not going to stop now. Help the Family to pray like everything depended on prayer, to work like everything depended on work, to witness like everything depended on witnessing, and to look to You at every turn, because they have a big job ahead! Help and strengthen each one, in Your Name, I ask.

I've already told you time and time again how to prepare for the coming crash. You oughtta know by now what practical measures to take, and you should've been living by these all along!--Not living beyond your means, not putting all your eggs into one basket, economizing and trimming the fat where and when possible, and on down the line.

And for Heaven's sake, don't hold any more funds in the bank than you have to! Keep as little there as you have to. You can use the System but don't let it use you, or abuse you, by stealing your funds by shutting down all of a sudden. It's all right to keep a little money in the bank if you have to, either to pay certain bills or to give you some credit rating or whatever. But you'd better not keep more there than you have to, and you'd better keep an eye on that bank as well. Banks can fail and close at any time, and then you've lost it all. Or if there's some sort of emergency or civil unrest, you might not be able to get your money out. So banks are all right sometimes, but you'd better beware of the bust!

You certainly need to stay out of debt, too. Then you'll need to have a little bit of reserve funds in different currencies, if possible, since you'll need some cash. You can keep part in your local currency as well as some strong international currency, depending on your situation. You should also have a stock of survival food of some sort. You don't need to have mountains of it. You just need some extra food on hand for emergencies, as well as lots of friends who can help feed you and take care of you if need be.

And of course you need some sort of tools to minister to the spiritually needy during this time, whether it's posters, tapes, videos, tracts, books or whatever. There will still be rich and poor; it's just that all of a sudden there will be a lot more poor than rich. But they're all poor if they don't know the Lord, so you need to be prepared to minister to people like that the best you can.

As far as other supplies goes, that sort of depends on your local situation. If you're in a country where there are lots of import barriers, you'd better be sure to have extra imported parts or supplies on hand if you need them, whether it's for your computers or printing equipment or whatever. You might want to have some contingency plans too, so you'll have some idea what to do in case the spring dries up and you're left without much income.

Most of all, you'll want to have a good connection with the Lord so He can lead you and guide you step by step and tell you what to do. You just can't beat hearing from God! Why do you think He's been emphasizing prophecy so much the last few years? He knows you're gonna need it in the days and years to come!

My Letters are full of all the things you should've been doing all along. It's all right there, and it might not be a bad idea to give them a little review, because that counsel still stands. I've been preparing you for this for years, and some of you have been in areas where you've already suffered sideline crashes. It's already been happening in recent years in some countries and regions--in South America, Russia and others who've been suffering economic crisis. Some of you who've been on the mission field have already had some practice at what it means to live under crash conditions. (31)

The list I'm going to give you is going to be your lifeline in the days to come:

Number 1: Be close to Me and in tune with My voice and My Words. Learn to hear from Me and to follow and obey the instructions I give you, no matter what channel it comes through. If it's confirmed in the mouth of two or three people, you'd better take it as My voice speaking to you and obey, for without that spiritual strength you will be lost. You must find My strength first before you do anything else.

Number 2: Stock up on a month's supply of food and an ample supply of water, if possible. If you have questions about the necessity or makeup of these survival rations, come to Me and I can tell you what you need in your situation, how much of it you need, and how to go about getting it. You who are mobile may only need a small amount, enough for a few days, as well as a contingency plan of what you will do and where you will go. You who are having financial difficulties should also seek Me as to how much extra food you need and how to obtain it. I am not limited by little finances, only by little faith. The key is to ask Me how much you need of what foods, and then to ask Me to supply it, and to do your part to put feet to My promises and obey My instructions, whatever they may be.

Number 3: Prepare your friends and contacts and supporters for such things. Share with them the signs of the times and let them know just how serious things are going to get. This will help them to help you in your time of need, because you were faithful to warn them and give them a chance to prepare. You don't need to be doomsayers, but you do need to share the message of the End with them. Most will agree when they look at the markets and see just how things are going. They will believe you.

Number 4: Be prepared! Do you have another way to cook should your electricity be cut off? Do you have enough water to wash your dishes and keep clean should things get bad and the government shuts off the water? For those who live in cold climates, do you have enough blankets should the heating be cut off? Are you prepared? Do you have your Home Emergency Reserve in a safe place? Are you preparing for the future both physically and spiritually by doing those things I have shown you through the Letters of David and Maria?

Are you out there witnessing and getting out the message of the Endtime? Or are you sitting back and waiting for something to happen before you will believe? Well, I'm sorry to say that some of you are just sitting back, and if you're not ready when trouble hits, it will be your own fault. I have warned you, David has warned you, Maria and Peter have warned you, and now I'm giving you a final warning. Be prepared!

I want you to be prepared in spirit most of all. I want you where the people need you so you can continue to shine as lights in the world. I want you in or near the cities to help your friends and contacts and those who need you. I want you to be where you can still get out the message, minister to the needy multitudes, and put your enemies to shame.

I don't want you all hiding out in some refuge farm in a remote town or village--what good would you do there? The animals aren't the ones that need tending to, it's the human sheep that need you--the poor ones who will be lost and without a shepherd and confused because of all that is happening around them. Their dreams will be shattered and they will have lost all hope.

In those days, I want you to be the leaders and commanders of My people! You who know Me and understand My plan will be able to show them the way to go, and will instruct many in the truth. Seek Me and I will show you where to go and be so that you may accomplish this purpose best. Seek My will and My plan, for it is in abiding in My will that you can find refuge and the supply of every need, and be the greatest help to others.

This is why being prepared in spirit is so important, and I have emphasized it time and time again. This is why you must be ready to give an answer to him that asks the reason for your light and hope. You will need to be ready to lead in that day, so do your homework now. Prepare now so that you will be strong when it comes time to run the final race. Prepare now so that you might be used of Me when the time comes.

I don't want you to let the Devil in with his lies and doubts and fears. As I have said before, these Last Days will be days of victory and overcoming! They won't be days of defeat and despair. If you've trained right and are strong in Me, you will have the strength to run the race and fight the battles that lie ahead. And not only will you overcome, but you will help countless millions overcome too by the word of your testimonies.

So don't be fearful or frightened by all that is to come, but do let it put the fear of God into you so that you are moved to do something and prepare. Let it motivate you into doing what I have asked of you--that you prepare your heart and mind and spirit by drawing close to Me, hearing from Me, loving Me, and receiving My seeds. This is the only way you will be able to shine as lights in the final days of man's history. So prepare now that you may shine then! (32)

I say to you, My children, though emergencies, crashes and wars surround you, it will not come nigh you if you put your trust in Me, for I will take care of My Own.

This is why I have outfitted you with the new weapons of My Spirit, that you might find refuge and stand in this day. Therefore, let these gifts I have bestowed upon you be your comfort in the days ahead. Do not let these signs of the times trouble your hearts, My dear ones, but receive this warning with gladness, knowing I am strong to save and will preserve My Own.

Do not be deceived through the false words of those who would not discern the signs of the times. For while some cry peace and safety as they give false readings of the times, sudden destruction is on the horizon for those who do not discern.

But look up with joy, My children, knowing that I reveal these things to you, that you might prepare. Continue to hone the gifts I bestow upon you, as you carry on My work, for in this lies your greatest asset.

This is the best preparation you can have, to walk in My truth and continue to preach My Word. For in this lies your greatest safety. As you faithfully and diligently serve Me and deliver the Words to the nations, I will mightily bless you and save you and keep you in the day of trouble which will come upon all the inhabitants of the Earth.

Fear not the effects of these dominoes as they fall, My children. Only hearken diligently unto Me, for I will lead you and guide you as the darkness covers the Earth. Your best protection is to stay close to Me, in the center of My will. As you do this, I will bless and keep you through whatever is happening all around you. I will protect you and provide for you by My supernatural hand, so that you can continue witnessing My Words to the end. (33)

The message I want My Family to give is that of the End! I want the Enemy to be exposed and set back on his heels. I want him to be the one running for cover because of the fire and fervor of My children! I want My children to get out the Words like never before! I want them to pour out the Words in greater abundance than this world has ever seen. I want the children of David to be wise and full of faith and conviction so that the Enemy will be forced out in the open. I want the children of David to give out the message of the Endtime and Tribulation, of My return and reign, and of Heaven which will follow, the full message that I committed unto My prophet David!

I want people to know that though things get bad on Earth, if they have Me they can look forward to a better place, to a better world tomorrow! I want them to know and be fully convinced that there is an afterlife, there is Heaven, and it's real. I want them to be saved. I want you to bring as many as you can into the Heavenly folds of salvation.

I want the message of salvation preached to every creature, great and small, rich and poor, old and young! I want the Word to go out like never before, and I want the heart of David to be stirred within each of you so that you are propelled out that door every day to witness and give out the message. I want you to be so united that the world can't help but take notice of you and see that you have something they don't. I want you to hear My Words so directly that they cannot dispute the fact that you have been with Me.

The most important message I want you to give out in these Last Days is that which exposes the plan of the AC. Preach the gospel of the Endtime so that people can be aware of it and know and run to Me when they see it happening. They may not see it now, they may even mock you now as they did Noah in the days of old; but when they saw the clouds gathering, when they saw the rain come thundering down upon them and the Earth bursting forth with great fountains of water, when they saw their loved ones drowning, then they remembered the Word of the Lord and of His prophet. They remembered all that they had been told, and many repented.

I want you to give the message so that many will repent and come to Me in the rough days which will befall this world soon. I want them to have a reason to live, a hope of tomorrow. I want them to come running to you when they realize that you are My prophets, and you were right, because you obeyed and followed My voice of warning, even when it seemed crazy to the world, even when they couldn't see it.

Though they persecute you and mock you for it, they will be running to your feet one day when they see that you were right! They will be running to you for help, and you will be able to give them the Words of the Lord. Then you'll see just how mightily I will use you! Then you'll see just how powerful you are because you have Me, and because you obeyed My warnings to be prepared!

Though they may have earthly possessions, they lack the Spirit, and they will give whatever they can to you so that you may give to them of that spirit of peace and rest and wisdom. They will come falling at your feet asking you, begging you to please forgive them and help them. Then I will be able to use you mightily, because you have been prepared. You have been trained for that moment and you will be right in the center of My will.

That's the message I want to go out! I want My Family to prepare, and I want the world to hear the message of Heaven and of the End. I want them to be without excuse when the day comes. I want them to remember My children and My little ones. I want them to remember that child who gave them a poster, who handed them a tract. I want them to remember and come running to you in that day, beseeching you for answers. I want My children to be so full of Me and so close to My side that they are ready to give the answers that the multitudes will seek. I want you all to be ready and trained and able to give My Words to those who hunger for them.

I also want to use you as a testimony against the church system! For they are lulled to sleep by the Great Society, and have been drunk with the cup of the Whore's riches. They are lazy and slumber while they should be preparing, so I will use you as a condemnation to them. I will use you, whom they have persecuted and maligned, to guide them when the days get dark and the clouds roll in. I want you to be there to lead them and help them back onto the straight path. They don't see it now, because they're so blinded by their love of money and lukewarm halfheartedness. But in that day they'll see just who I have prepared for this hour. (34)

If you want to know what needs to be done now, how you're going to cope with all that's going on and how you're going to make it--well, I'll tell you how you're going to make it!--By being smack-dab in the center of God's will, that's how! I'm all for taking every practical precaution and measure you possibly can, just as I've laid out for you in the Letters. It's good to do your best with the Lord's help to prepare practically. But let me tell you, the best way to prepare, the best preparation you can have for the crash and the coming days, is to prepare by being in God's will and doing His work!

If anyone is not in that position, my advice is to get there as fast as you can--by praying, seeking the Lord, seeking His will, His guidance and His direction as to where He wants you and what He wants you to do. Then trust Him to get you there in His time and His way. (35)

Look with excitement upon these signs of the times! The end of all things is at hand. The time of My return draws near. The events leading up to My return are truly happening! The scoffers who say that the Endtime warnings of the doomsayers are the same now as they have been since the beginning, and that all things will continue as they were, will have a mighty widening of their eyes! (1999) (36)

So stand strong and don't quit! Don't give in to the lies of the Devil that "it will never come," for I'm telling you now that this generation shall not pass till all these things be fulfilled!

The End is near! The olive tree puts forth its buds and the storm approaches. Be prepared! (37)
