The Mind

(Spirit helper:) You are learning to hear from us, your colleagues in the spirit world. You are learning to such a degree that it will be even more than second nature; it will be spiritual nature. You will lose your mind if that is what you want, because it is what we want. We need to possess you; we need you to willingly give over your mind so it can be ours. Full heavenly thought power, full possession, full mind meld, nothing short of this will work to the degree we would like it to work. We will give back your mind when you reach the end of your road, your mission, your destiny. What we are asking will take pure faith, nothing wavering. This little talk would not be happening if you hadn't made the progress you've made. If you had not made the steps of yieldedness you've made, we would not even consider talking to you like this.

Prayer:

Azoria, please stand guard over the door to my heart. Please, set a watch over it. Keep my steps from sliding; bind my heart to thee. Tether me to your mind. Hold me in a continual embrace, so that I can feel your presence and breathe in your mists. All throughout the day I pick up things in my mind, and they cling to me --things people say, phrases, jokes, idle talk. It's all clutter at the door of my heart, because it comes up in my remembrance at the worst of times. When I sit to commune with Jesus, when I lie in the arms of our Lover, and when I hold you, Azoria, this is when I find that there are piles of clutter at my door.

Live in the Word, and rebuke these inroads at every turn. When they come into your head, bind them with the Keys and let them go no further. The carnal mind is at enmity with the Word. We are trying to fill your heart with spiritual truths, revelations and visions of the future, but your carnal mind is bringing to remembrance all that it has learned. The forsaking in the flesh is the easy part. It's the mental letting go that is so difficult. Your mind is a memory bank. It can't help but store away all the things it sees and hears. That's why it is at enmity with God, because it is constantly absorbing this physical world, while we are trying to draw you out if it. We are beckoning your heart to come, but the mind is bound—trapped within its own knowledge. This is what we must do; we must step out onto deeper waters. We must go into depths the mind can't fathom. And if it drowns, so be it. Let it drown in the Word of God; let it be flooded with the deep truths of the Spirit. Take the Keys of imprisonment and bind it hand and foot so that it cannot escape. But be wary. The carnal mind has a way about it. It will try to escape—not by fighting or struggling, but by willing you to set it free! And if you do not keep your heart with all diligence, the mind will quickly persuade the flesh to come back, and the spirit, who is bound to the flesh, will follow. It is a weak spirit indeed who does so, and yes, your spirit is weak. For the mind has control, so long as you feed it—and it is a dangerous thing to be feeding this entity called the mind, for it can go many days on the strength of just one thought. And it would seem a hopeless fight, to try and starve the mind, seeing we are everyday bombarded by a multitude of thoughts for the carnal mind to mull over. What must we do? This is quite simple; we have already told you the answer. We must flood it with the Word. We must brainwash it with the thoughts of Heaven. But it is difficult for the mind to retain the knowledge of God. It must be taught. It must be kept sharply in line, bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ. You must will your mind; not to be conformed to this world, but to be transformed by the renewing of it. There is a war raging within you, spirit against flesh, heart against mind. The prize is dominance of your Will.

Brother Paul spoke of this inner struggle,

Romans 7:19-24 [19]For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do. [20]Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. [21]I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me. [22]For I delight in the law of God after the inward man: [23]But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. [24]O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death?

This is the battlefield of the mind, and what can deliver you from it is the Words of David and the pure thoughts of Jesus, coupled with the Keys. The mind of Christ is what you must have. There is no time left for you to be half-hearted or weak in your attacks. Desperate times call for desperate measures and extreme mindsets. You must be fanatical with how you guard your mind. You must put off the reprobate mind, the carnal, the froth, the silliness, and zealously maintain the high standard of keeping your thoughts stayed on the Spiritual. You are in the World and therefore cannot help but pick up some garbage. But what you must do is not allow it to sit and turn into spiritual clutter that blocks the entrance of the door which leads to the heart of the Spirit. We have much to show you within the walls of the Generators, but the door keeps getting stuck and all you get to see is through a crack in the doorway. We must remove this junk if you are to enter in fully. It can be washed away with the Word, but it is up to you to then keep that doorway clean and unhindered. What comes into your head when you are having Word time? What are the thoughts that distract you, forcing their way into your consciousness? Find them out, pin them down and learn how they got there in the first place. What did you partake of? What silly conversation did you allow to stay in your head for too long? What useless remark did you let slip out of your mouth? Why did you give your carnal mind leave to go back and start remembering that worldly song? That's just the problem; you didn't give it leave. The carnal mind has a mind of its own! It just picks up things. It is at enmity with the Mind of God, because it's based completely in this world. It is a strong foe—if not the strongest. However, the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds! Casting down imaginations and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God. And bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ! This is what these weapons were made for, to cast down the imaginations of the natural man and every high thought of Satan that would exalt itself against the Mind of God—and to capture, and bind, and cast out every thought of the carnal mind that stops your spirit from breaking free and entering in through those blue gates that lead into our Realm.

That's why the mind is at enmity with God, because it is constantly absorbing this physical world, while we are trying to draw you out if it.

Clear; Prophecy: The enemy of permanently moving through the barrier, which you call the veil, is the carnal mind. The carnal mind keeps bringing you back to the world of possibilities. It's a prophet's greatest enemy. The carnal mind wants you to stay in the shallows, where the water only comes up to the knees and where the feet can stand firmly on the sand. The carnal mind is afraid of the deep water because it can't see the bottom and it can't put its feet on the sand. Deep water is like the spirit world, shallow water is like the material world. You can stand in the material world but you can't stand in the spiritual world. You have to float in deep water, or you'll sink. You have to float in the spiritual world also. When you are out in deep water, your carnal mind is always trying to get you to head back to the shallows, because it wants to put its feet down. Either that or it wants to swim across the deep water to the other shoreline so that it can put its feet down there. The carnal mind hates the ocean because it is too far to swim across it, so it likes to stay close to the shore so that at any time it likes it can easily go back and safely put its feet on the sand. The spirit world is like the ocean and it has deep cosmic waves that we can and do ride on.

Receiving prophecy is like swimming in deep water; you can't see the bottom. There doesn't seem to be another shoreline off in the distance that you can swim to easily, where you can put your feet down to feel the comfort and safety of that sandy bottom. The carnal mind is also afraid of prophecy. Believing in the Word is like swimming in deep water. The Word and prophecy are the same; they are deep water. If you don't like deep water, then chances are you won't want to leave the shallow shoreline and swim on out. The carnal mind also hates the Word, because it is deep and the carnal mind doesn't understand deep; it only understands shallow. That's why it likes to go back to the shallow water; it feels safe there surrounded by the things that it understands. If the carnal mind doesn't understand something it reads in the Word, it quickly runs back to the safety of something it does understand. Azure brought this point out very clearly. Let me requote her right now. "It is so fickle! It turns to 'other loves' so easily and continually and easily brings to mind unwanted thoughts, past, unrelated-to-the-spirit-world memories, useless information, worldly songs --all such froth and bubble-- but can't or doesn't want to retain the incredible reality of the miraculous unseen but seen ways of faith!"

The enemy is standing on the shoreline, just out of the shallow water. The enemy hates all forms of water, because water signifies the water of the Word, and the enemy, as you know, hates the Word. So they, the enemy, are standing on the shoreline, calling and enticing and goading and using all sorts of unfair tactics to try and get the carnal mind to come to them. (Now "they" can represent anyone, be it the Devil, a friend, a Family member, a pastor or anyone that is trying to keep you in the shallows.) We, on the other hand, are in deeper water. Let's say the water is just above waistline. We have our arms out ready to catch you if you start sinking. And we are also trying to entice you…but into deeper water. We know we can't get the carnal mind to come; it, as I said, doesn't like deep water. So we are trying to entice your faith to step out of the carnal mind and start paddling. The mistake some of you are making is you are trying to bring the carnal mind with you, and that is a problem. When the feet lose contact with the sand, the carnal mind panics and turns back to the safety and comfort of the sand. It's what you call falling back into those old habits that Azure mentioned, and sometimes this happens only a few minutes after swimming out into some really deep water during Word class. Another problem some of you encounter is that when we call your faith to leave the carnal mind and swim out to us, it's afraid because these two have been shoreline buddies for a long time. They have played around in the shallows their whole lives together. The carnal mind will only allow faith to venture out a little before it is calling faith back. Faith, of course, obeys carnal because faith isn't that strong a swimmer. And faith isn't a strong swimmer because carnal has, all their life together, tried to keep faith away from reading too much Word or none at all. So poor faith can only dog paddle or in some cases not even that. Carnal doesn't care to swim in deep water, and faith, because of its predicament, has never learned how much fun it is.

We, and when we say we, we mean everyone our side of the veil, the whole Kingdom of God, need you to come out into deeper water. Your faith has to start feeling comfortable out here. For one thing, it is safer out here. The shoreline is not the place to be during tribulation. The only way your faith is going to start feeling safe out in deeper water is if it first says goodbye to the carnal mind --permanently and starts taking serious swimming lessons with us, your coaches. And that can only happen if you start obeying what we are telling you to do. If you don't obey our instructions, then the carnal mind will continue having strong control over you. In other words, the enemy's sirens will have more power to entice you toward the rocks and his ultimate goal, your destruction.

The forsaking in the flesh is the easy part. It's the mental letting go that is so difficult.

There are certain ways to walk in the wilderness. To be a wilderness walker you must first put off the carnal mind, the doubtful mind, and enter through the Spirit. Then, once there, you must focus and strive to stay in the wilderness by using the spiritual weapons to keep your mind in subjection with Jesus's mind. You lean on Him, your Beloved.

"Who is this that cometh out of the Wilderness leaning on her Beloved?" (SoS)

And you must keep your mind, above all, in the Heavenly plane. You do this by praising, by keeping your heart stayed on Jesus, and not on the winds and the waves of carnal circumstances. Enter into His gates with thanksgiving and into His courts with praise. You have to keep your mind and heart in Heaven, in the arms of your Beloved, while you walk in the world by the wilderness way.

(Unseen)

It takes a lot of spiritual and physical effort to keep the battlement of your mind on full-time invasion alert. But that is what you have to do, and if you aren't then of course the enemy is going to attack. Yet even if you are on full-alert it doesn't mean the enemy isn't going to attack the city of your mind. Your spiritual mind has to be constantly closing shutters and windows, watching all weak areas and potential worm holes, which sad to say your carnal mind keeps leaving open or worse still opening again; because it wanted some fresh air or some such silly thing that Azure pointed out earlier…it is as if you have an enemy in your very own camp, always coming behind you and opening something you thought you'd closed. The trouble is this enemy is yourself; you are your own worst enemy. Paul summoned up this enemy pretty well when he said: "oh wretched man that I am, who can deliver me from the body of this death." His spiritual mind, the mind of Christ is subservient to the law of God, that is the law of love, but his carnal mind, which Paul calls his flesh, is the culprit that causes him to sin without reason, or so it seemed to him. "For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do." (Romans 7:18-25) (Oh Wretched Man..)

Pride is the blockage that the carnal mind feeds on!

Many people make this mistake. They fail to comprehend that My Word cannot be boxed in by man's understanding. Man loves boxes. His buildings are boxy; his cars are too. Everything has to have four walls; that's because his mind tells him that it will fall apart if it isn't supported in that arrangement. The mind of man can never understand how I hung the Earth on nothing.

The mind is bound—trapped within its own knowledge.

"You have let him confuse you with his many words, Denith, when the truth is very simple. He tries to complicate things, to make them look so much more complex than they really are. He gets you to question, to wonder, and to stop accepting the simple reality of things as they are. He throws out questions, but never answers them. And if you question him, he responds with a new question. Asking, always asking, questioning, doubting, but never wanting or honestly seeking for true answers. That is the way of darkness."

(Seven Keys, The - Warrior Lord [#022])

Prayer: It's a well-traveled path, and I seem to easily gravitate that way. I know you gave me a mind so that I could think and work and make decisions for you. But a lot of the time, I need to set that mind aside and just listen to you and just take what Your Word says without question. That's what I want to do. No matter how things look to me, I want to trust Your Word and what You say. When I hear something in prophecy, I will believe it. If things change, and you later tell me something different or if someone else tells me something different, …I will still believe. I will come straight back to you and find out what is going on. I will not balk and get offended because of a change of plans or because You saw fit to humble me.

Jesus: The key is to keep your mind stayed on Me. Your heart is already with Me. It's your mind that runs around in all the dangerous places and nearly falls off the cliffs sometimes. There will be more and steeper cliffs for your mind in the coming days. So you need to keep it on a tight leash and let it wander in the Word and in the fields of faith and in the deep pools of My love. That is where the mind should keep itself busy. But it seems to have this fascination for darkness.
The mind wants to go in the places that are comfortable for it, the carnal realm and carnal thinking. It is happy there because it has its feet on the ground and things can be figured out and added up to make sense. But put the mind into the spiritual realm, suddenly its feet aren't on the ground, it seems to be floating, but it doesn't know how that is possible or if it will suddenly be dropped. It can't see very far ahead in this realm, things are misty and cloudy and sometimes what is seen can't even be understood. It thinks it is seeing a certain thing but it doesn't make sense or even seem possible. So it wants to run away back to the lands where things make sense. But this is actually where the mind has to stop. It has to close its eyes and give way to the heart and love and faith. It has to realize that it has come to the border. Beyond this line, it can't operate like normal. It has to yield to the heart.
It has to listen to faith and love. If love tells it that Jesus is real, it has to listen. If faith speaks to it and tells it that God's Word is true, it has to believe. If the heart tells it that there are things that it will never understand, it has to accept it. This is hard for the mind. It rebels, it hurts, it cries out. It feels that it isn't fair. Why would Jesus bring it into waters that would drown it? So that it will sit down, so that it will lay down. For in such love and sacrifice you will find true power and true light. There is no gain without giving something up. So give up your mind, dwell in the spirit. You do this by believing. When you read the Word, you believe it, you accept it, you take it in as truth, even if your mind is in the other chair throwing a fit and saying that it can't be possible. You shut it out and take in the truth. The strange thing is that this will actually bring peace and sanity to your poor mind (Yet –A Prayer 2021)

Please Jesus, take away this carnal mindedness, this earthiness, this deadness of spirit and give us the minds of wonder and amazement. Give us the minds of children!

One big lesson I've been learning is that understanding is the reward of faith. For so long during my breakings, I sought to understand things, & if I didn't, it would really bother me. But I've found that if I just stayed positive & believing, then later--& sometimes a long while later--I would understand what He was doing & why, & it's been so encouraging, TYJ! (Those That Walk In Pride, He Is Able To Abase [#118])

Azure) Be encouraged, for your faith has made you whole and jettisoned you into the spirit realm—all so unseen, but so totally seen by those who believe in the spirit realm; who acknowledge its existence! It is the reality trying to burst forth on your landscape. It's breaking and crumbling the walls of carnality, the fake 666 frequency of the usurper! It's thinning the veil, dear one, and that's pretty exciting for you --and for all of us too. We also long for that time! So let this remind you once again of His power and how you can trust His promises. This is all so easily forgotten by the carnal mind because it doesn't compute. The mind can't figure it out. It can't be understood because it can't be seen. So it slips through its fingers. How convenient. So fight to retain these miracles; defy that dumb carnal mind that all of a sudden has no 'intelligence'. It is so fickle! It turns to 'other loves' so easily and continually and easily brings to mind unwanted thoughts, past, unrelated-to-the-spirit-world memories, useless information, worldly songs --all such froth and bubble-- but can't or doesn't want to retain the incredible reality of the miraculous, unseen-but-seen ways of faith! So turn that around and testify to yourself and others of all His wonderful ways and care for you. Sing out your praises for Him and just wash away that useless jelly-for-a-backbone carnal mind. It doesn't want to understand, so forget it and toss it out with the dishwater. Let's move on! Without it!!That's the goal. Praise the day away today and make Your Husband very happy and your enemy very mad! (Oh Wretched Man)

You must be fanatical with how you guard your mind

My City is very vast. The spiritual mind is part of My city. You could say that the spiritual mind is a city within a city, or a suburb within My City. The spirit world is much vaster than you realize. Each mind is like a mini universe. I have given each person a set of Keys that opens different levels within the city of their mind. It's all within My City, and I keep an especially close watch on events that happen within My city, so you needn't fear that things will get completely out of control. To reach the door to each level you need to successfully pass through the level below it. You are presently at a level that requires you to leave the carnal mind outside. You realize that in the material realm, which you are presently in, you can only use a small percentage of your mind, which the world calls your brain. Your brain of course is just jello, which will sooner than later perish along with the flesh. Although the carnal mind of man tells him that he can overcome anything if he puts his mind to it, My Word, which is the fact in this matter, states that the mind of man is the enemy, and that the sooner you shove it out the door and lock it for good, the sooner the Keys to different levels will begin working. The Millennium is very very close now, and we are going to need you, or should I say the millennials are going to need you. So you are going to have to have your wits about you. You don't want to land in the Millennium in the same carnal minded state as all the people you are there to help. If that is the case, then you might find yourself sitting in class as one of the students and not as the teacher.

. You allow too many thoughts in when getting prophecy. You've allowed the enemy to convince you that the prophecies that you're given need to sound good and they need to be understandable, well at least in the way your carnal mind understands things. This way of thinking makes you pick your prophecies apart. It's carnal mindedness. And carnal mindedness is linked to this problem you are having with going back to memories. You are at a major breakthrough in the way you receive prophecy, my love. You've had a taste of what it's like to receive unfiltered prophecy. This is one now, your mind is focused and you're not thinking about how it should sound, your carnal mind is not interfering too much. When it does, brush it aside. You've been brought back to this hurdle because you are not yet seeing how debilitating memories are to your channel. You have to be the living Word as Jesus was the living Word when He was on Earth. To do this you must put away all things that pertain to this life.

Gird up the loins of your mind, for that is where the battle begins. The Children of David were defeated in their minds. They questioned the Words of God and lost faith and turned in their hearts and left the borders of the Promised Land to wander through the wilderness of this world until all those doubting older generation died. They did just as their predecessors did in the days of Moses so many years ago. (Feeling Confused Feb 5 MB Blog pages)

Celeste continues: The best course of action is to not even step near the portal mouth. But if you now see the danger, then the way out is to start swimming straight out. This is not a riptide. In a riptide, you swim out at an angle, because a riptide is going straight out to sea. The world Satan has created is a whirlpool.

The Endtime will pan out differently than everyone expected, but that is because they just didn't keep listening; they didn't follow the prophet's tale. They were all boxed in. It is easy to lead astray old bottles that are set in their ways. Your prophet David warned and warned and warned again about old bottlism. (MB PAGES Heaven Is One Big Learning Curve Jan 30th)

"Your mind has tremendous potential, for it is spiritual, and when your mind is yielded to Me, you are able to generate My power. You become generators of the power of God, and nothing will be impossible to you! If I am to have full control of you, you must give Me your mind."

Prophecy continues: By engendering a personal relationship with your Blue Angel, you are making your climb through the misty cloud easier.

"Come… deeper into the Pavilions of the Power of God. Stand no longer in the outer court, come deeper. Take my hand, and come… Do you know what the purple cloud is for? It is a transporter of the Spirit Realm. Read in the Words of God and see. For by a cloud were the children of Israel led through the wilderness, by a cloud does the Chariot of God fly, and by a cloud did our Lover ascend to the Spirit Realm."

Feb 20

Yes, the cloud dims your view and your focus on the world of the flesh. It becomes misty and less important. It's like your spirit knows how temporary it all is and chooses to focus on the things of the spirit. but this is only possible if you let your spirit have more control. If you let the things of the spirit move into your mind more, then the flesh won't have such a hold. You still have to work and teach and clean and live in this very real physical realm, but somehow you will know that it isn't the all in all. You will sense that it's temporary, like a passing dream. It seems real and things happen and you feel the heat and you see the food and the work and the dirt, but somehow you'll have the ability to look beyond it. when you are like this, it's even easier for you to see the reasons behind the different things that happen. It's easier to learn your lessons and see the spiritual truths that you are meant to be grasping. You'll be in that cloud and things of this world will be cloudy. That just means that they won't be as important and you won't be dragged down by them as easily. You'll be able to see the spiritual reasons behind the things that happen. Your carnal mind won't be so quick to explain things to you. You'll more clearly see yourself and others and why you are doing what you are doing. There is always a spiritual reason and then you can more quickly see your weak areas and how you still carnal minded or disobedient. You'll see others more clearly too and know that you need to fight for them in prayer. You will also more clearly see the signs of the times. When something happens in the world that you hear about, you'll see it as we do. then you can get excited that your Lover is coming soon. It's like the lightning flashes and you see it clearly! No matter what others say, you will know that this is a message straight from your Lover to you. This is one of the signs He told you about. He wants you to see it and get excited and tell everyone you can! Those who just brush it off or go along as usual are really disappointing Him.

Another advantage of entering into "the cloud" is that you will know that prayer is powerful. Your spirit senses the power of prayer and praise and it is drawn to it. When you think of a situation or something makes you concerned, you will automatically focus on that power. You will want to pray for things and it won't be so hard to focus when others are praying. Your spirit will have more control than your wandering carnal mind and your spirit wants to live with us. It feels the affinity with us, your blue angels. So let it loose, let it fly to the Heavenlies, let it get lost in the purple cloud. Let the friendship and love relationship between you and us blossom and grow. Don't keep your poor spirit wrapped up and trapped down here in this carnal world, boxed in and tied down by the carnal mind. Let that carnal mind drown as it is dragged out to sea by your faith. let it suffocate in the purple cloud. Let it die and lose its hold on you and your faith and your spirit. How do you actually do that? How can you get away from this carnal mind? The less you listen to it, the more it loses its power over you. reject it and don't listen to its reasoning. Don't let it give excuses. Don't listen while it explains things away. You know what I mean. if you pay attention, you'll be surprised at how much explaining that carnal mind does. Yikes. It's always trying to give sensible reasons for things. It has an answer for everything. It will tell you why some event in the world is not all that amazing and not a "sign of the time". it will tell you why you don't really have to obey that check or instruction. Then it is careful to not bring it up again so that you conveniently forget about that "obedience" that you were supposed to do or not do. suddenly it seems so "not important". It makes you comfortable in this "drifting" state and again explains to you that you are "'doing fine." It can be comforting sometimes to agree with that mind. It tells you that the Word you are all receiving is a bit extreme so don't be concerned if you can't really bring yourself to believe it. Then you find that you aren't applying the Word, the Word for everyone or even your personal prophecies. If you need an explanation, carnal mind will be happy to provide one… it's normal to have some doubts and you'll get over them soon enough, before it is too late. He of course is blinding you to fact that you are sliding down the slope that got noticeably steeper when you all slipped behind the Son.

Well, it's time to let go of the reasonable, the sensible and the comfortable. As you listen more to the Word, both your own prophecies and the Word in class, and take them seriously as something that needs to be put into practice and acted on, then that Word will have more control and you will more clearly recognize the carnal thoughts as something "not correct", a distraction that is trying to defeat you and drag you down, away from your calling and destiny.

"You are not a Drifter, yet your speech and manner resemble a Drifter," the stranger observed, and his tone almost softened. "By your insolence I sense that you have been living among them, though you are clearly of the common folk. But even that would not be enough to bring you so strongly to my attention. Who are you, young man with the Baron sword?"

Denith swallowed. He was not sure how to respond. He had no desire to reveal any of his secrets to this creature of darkness. He tried again to discern the stranger's features, but darkness was rapidly falling and the man's face, already shadowed by his hood, now became even more shadow-filled, until Denith was staring into a void of nothingness.

It was then that he heard a whisper: He's not really there...

Denith shook his head slightly, but the whisper sounded more loudly this time: He is not of your world. His sword cannot touch you. Only beware of his words.

It's quite mind-boggling, but so many people fall for the feelings trap. It works on humans so well. Most of the world goes by their five senses… and those senses are all about deceptive feelings. However, there is a very small group that goes by the sixth sense, "the ability to know something without using the ordinary five senses, of sight, hearing, smell, touch and taste". The world believes in the sixth sense too, but they mostly give the Devil credit for that ability, and they like to tell each other that it is a gift given to only certain favored people. Well as you know, that is a lie. The sixth sense is the ability to hear from Jesus in prophecy, and it says in Acts 2:17, it is given to all of God's children in these last days. So although it is a gift, it is not given only to extraordinary people or just God's favorites. Not only that, but the gift can grow big and strong by exercising it. What you are learning –and we know it is difficult because of the five senses that demand most of your attention throughout the day– nonetheless, what you are learning is to make those five subservient to the sixth.

It matters not what the enemy says, or what circumstances you face in the future. Do not listen and do not look at your surroundings, for they are fallible and unreliable crutches. Look to faith alone when faced with the lies of the enemy. Look to Me and My Words, live in My Word, soak yourselves in My Word; for only the mast of My Word holds the sail of your boat steady and sure when the winds of adversity hit.

The Words of David, just like the blue plasma stream, are running through your veins. The more you divorce yourself from the world and its ways, the more you shun the words and thoughts of man, then the more the Words of David take hold of your life. They are Me and they desire to control your thoughts and actions, your very life….. What Satan cannot understand, for he is a creature of flesh and force and pride, is that it only takes one weak man wielding the Words of David in faith to bring down his kingdom!

Your commission is to protect the flame of David in the sanctuary of your hearts. And as you know, the only entrance to the sanctuary is through the mind, so it should be clearly obvious that that is where you must stand vigil day and night. This is why of late I have been stressing My warnings about coming out of the world. Satan's attack on your mind will increase as the day of My return draws nearer. I warn you again, My loves, Satan will not stop attacking you until the day he is cast into the Bottomless Pit. The war goes on, except for a brief respite at My second coming and our marriage supper, then it is back into the fray to finish the old worm off. (April 2 MB pages)

The keys will lock and bind your carnal mind and reasoning and unleash to you the gifts of faith, simplicity, and spiritual understanding.

You are in the spirit, in the City of Light, surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses. All of us, down to the last man, are desperately praying that you, the remnant, the last church of this last era, grasp the immensity of the position you are in. I cannot be overly dramatic. I cannot use enough superlatives. I could not be adequately intense. I would, if I had permission, step through the veil right now and earnestly, desperately, impress on you the direst need for you to use the last remaining ten months of this year to throw the salt of a determined and unrelenting will onto the road ahead. Not only are you surrounded by a cloud of Heavenly witnesses, but outside our wall of defense, there is an even thicker cloud of demons that are tenaciously, forcibly pushing against the barrier of light, desperately searching for a way in. This is their last chance to terminate you, just like they terminated those that once walked before you. If you think I am being melodramatic, then you are listening to the voice of that dark cloud. The enemy has every right to send fiery darts across the barrier of light in a last-ditch, desperate attempt to strike someone who has lowered his or her shield. The spiritual warfare is directed toward your minds. If you do not gird up the loins of your minds, the enemy will get in and the time that you have been given now will be gone, forever. If weariness is upon you, if you are losing the vision, if you are telling yourself that you can't keep to this commission to put away all past memories and the things of the world that come into your mind and tempt you to drift off to sleep, then that is the enemy trying to make a way into the camp through your part of the barrier of light. It is not only we who are responsible to maintain the barrier, but you are also guardians of the blue plasma stream that is pouring into the barrier that surrounds your capital. The blue plasma is the power that gives life to your civilization. It is what keeps you alive, supplied, protected and moving forward. It is the salt. It is the Word. It is the very breathe of God. It is the barrier.

If you do not hold fast that which has been allotted you, then the enemy will get in, and you will waste the precious little time you have left to be ready for 2025. You have the weapons of offense and defense. When the enemy attacks, call on the Keys. When he falls back on his left foot, hit him with that Key-turned-to-sword in your hand. Enhance its killing power with an infusion of blue plasma. Don't listen to him when he shouts at you that it had no effect.

You are fighting in a spiritual battle. It is in your mind—that battle must be won in your mind. But never listen to the lie that all this fighting business is simply the imaginations of the mind. That again is the enemy seeking a way in through your part of the barrier of light.

There's only one way to make it through these training days and that's militancy. Being willing to just fight and fight every day for your very life. The enemy will send everything he's got to get you down and to drag you away from your commission, and you may at times have to physically force yourself to just keep going—remembering the goal and the Words that He has spoken to you in your times of love, remembering that He promised and He will be faithful to His Word. You have to fill yourself up with these promises and have nothing else running through your mind or you simply won't have the courage to keep going each day. We of the Warrior Band know how hard it is. We know of the desperate fight and of the attacks of the enemy. We know, and now more than ever because all of us have felt the battle intensify. We have felt the loss of our brothers and sisters and we know how hot the battle rages. Do you know? Well, if you don't yet, you will…as you fight for your faith these coming years. Being in the City doesn't mean that the mind battles are lessened —the battlefield is here on this plane, but we've opened this space above you…like it says in Rising Above. All you have to do is stop, claim the keys and look up to that place that Jesus has kept clear for you. That is the way to remain in the City whilst still living on Earth. The enemy will want to keep you on the Earth as much as possible and that is where you must defeat him. (March 19 MB pages)

The spiritual reality requires faith to believe, but if you are finding it difficult to see or believe or push harder, use the Keys more fervently, shun the world more forcibly, humbly fall on your knees before Jesus and ask, plead with Him to open your eyes that you may see.
