Higher Ground …… THE NEXT LEVEL

Dream 29 th May, 2020

In my dream I was going shopping. I was walking along the pavement, alone, with no partner, which seemed unusual as I usually go with a partner. I was also very aware that I had no handbag. Actually there were no other people around at all. Deserted landscape….cityscape, all gray pavement and gray cement buildings . As I was walking along I saw a shed dry skin of a small snake on the ground. Further along I saw another snake skin but it was bigger. Finally I came to a set of stairs and at the bottom and barring my way was a huge snake that was ready to attack me and stop me from climbing the stairs. I felt undeterred by the snake and went to pass over it and up the stairs anyways but it lunged at me. It didn't actually bite me but it was attacking me, pushing on me. I could feel the pressure physically in my dream. It was very strong. Then I threw a blanket over the snakes head and threw it off. At that point I awoke my heart racing.

Stephen s prophecy……The Blue Diamond

May 29, 2020—Loving Jesus and the storm

You are My bride, and although I have many brides each one is special to Me and is as if I only had one. Your privileged place as one of My earthly brides is as if I had found one special blue diamond, not an ordinary diamond, of which I have millions, but this one especially large and beautiful one with an extraordinarily blue tinge to it. That diamond is unique in all its ways, and I have a special box and very special place where I keep it, it's a secret place deep in My heart. When I want to look upon its beauty I go deep into My spirit and find it there. I created this diamond for My pleasure and I find great pleasure in it. I've sent that diamond to earth for a short time in order to show the world of men My beauty and My creative power. And although My diamond mine is vast and stretches from the beginning of creation, each and every diamond in this mine is known by Me and each one lights up My heart with its own special brilliance. The carnal mind of man cannot comprehend this, yet when your mind takes on My mind and when your spirit allows Me to possess yours then and only then can this special relationship be understood. When we make love I leave My seeds within your very soul; there deep within your being they germinate and grow, they set their roots and plant themselves against the winds and tempests of the enemy. They are strong because they are My seeds, they come of My love for you and they grow deep in the rich, fertile soil of your desire for Me, which is watered continually with My Words. You have been faithful these many years and so these plants, which are becoming strong saplings, are flexible and pliant to the winds and storms that are just now beginning to pick up in intensity. The dark ominous clouds that were once on the horizon have swept furiously over the tops of the distant mountains and are now rushing into the void of sin and corruption. The devils canker worms and diseases have done their job well; there are only a few whose roots and stalks are not weakened and unstable and unable to withstand the foul winds this terrible storm brings in its wake. However, you, My brilliant diamonds, My strong saplings will bend and bow as these winds hit in their fury as your roots in Me grip firmer to My earth. You are My wise virgins who have seen the storm building, have seen it rise above the mountains, you have felt the calm before the storm and these signs caused you to dig deeper into My Word. You have thrown more ballast into our relationship. It is strong now; it is pliable enough now to withstand the first and furious blow that will come upon this country. Ghana will not escape, no country will escape, the hearts, minds and souls of man will be tested by the evil one for all the world will wonder after the beast. Pray for your brethren in the world; pray for yourselves, your loved ones will be caught, not all, but some will be caught. Having put off the garments of My Word and wrapped themselves with the rudiments and pleasures of this world they will stand naked before the onslaught. Not as naked as some, as they do still hold onto a shawl or light covering of some sort, but it will not be enough and time to run to the winter closet to find the heavy gear will be too short. Pray for them now, desperately pray that they feel the bite of the early wind as it rushes into their emptiness. As for you My loves, prepare to face the beast, prepare by continuing with your lessons and application of My Word, prepare by continuing with honing the weapons of war I have given you, prepare by obedience and by witnessing and through living by faith, for the storm is almost upon you My precious brides.

(Jesus:) There is always the danger of My New Church falling into the patterns of the Old Church. It's so easy for it to happen. In fact, it's the natural course of events for those who don't fight to remain called out, free, radical, young new bottles in spirit, and in the habit of stripping off their clothes before Me. If you don't put forth that spiritual effort and fight, each of you, My brides, gradually drift toward becoming like the Old Church in spirit. It's so easy to cover up and put on the clothes of compromise and pride.

10. That's why I do so much in each of your lives individually, and in the Family as a whole, to keep you stirred up, to try to motivate you to change, to fight, to see things as I do, to stay flexible and willing to strip off your clothes before Me in spirit, to be wholly Mine.

11. Sometimes these things I do make you uncomfortable, and your natural reaction is to clutch your clothes tighter to your body, rather than letting go and baring yourself before Me. But realize that when you feel that way, if you let your pride and resistance to change and to My Spirit dominate you, you are in very real danger of becoming like the Old Church.

Jesus:

5. This is a personal testimony of someone who had a very great opportunity, and through small decisions based in pride and unyieldedness, lost the opportunity I had placed before him. Timothy's testimony shows clearly the very sad results of unyieldedness.

6. It's not so different from the choices I ask all of My children to make today--choices to forsake their pride, or to fill a role that might not come so naturally to them, or to choose My will above their own.

7. Just as you see the sad results of wrong decisions, also remember the very great rewards given in return for decisions of yieldedness, faith and trust in Me, obedience, and putting My will above your own.

8. The rewards I have for My children will never grow old, will never fade or become dim. Even shame, contempt and remorse are eventually wiped away and forgotten, but the treasures, blessings, and rewards will be yours to enjoy forever. You will always be happy that you said yes to Me. You will always be thankful that you yielded and made the right choice. You will always be reminded of the fruit that was borne from those good, sound decisions. The benefits and rewards will be yours for eternity. (End of message from Jesus.)

(Issues Part 15 Timothy s Testimony)

Discipleship will only cost you your old life. ☺

(Prophecy, Dad speaking:) God has to have those with crazy faith, insane dreamers that are willing to do the wild, seemingly crazy things that the Lord asks them to do--to go where He says to go, and say what He says to say, and do His slightest bidding. This takes new bottles who are in the Spirit, who have their senses and their spirit exercised, and who are thrilled and enthralled by the New Wine, who are so full of joy and excitement that it causes their light to shine so brightly on the world.

36. As with every revolution and every changing of the guard, so to speak, the new avant-garde, the new, fresh bottles continue, always with lots of repercussions and things left in the wake. Nevertheless, we have to keep going on, following the Lord, obeying His commandments, preaching the message He wants us to preach, and it always works out for the best. It always improves the Family. It always improves our witness and our ministering to others. So praise the Lord, and continue to thank Him for His New Wine that He pours out that is so refreshing and so invigorating to those who are open to it.

38. That's just the Gideon's band that the Lord chooses to preach His new Words and His new message, those who can follow Him the closest, because it takes a great deal of forsaking and continually being willing to change and fight new battles and overcome new obstacles and face new challenges. But that's the thrill of it! That's what makes it thrilling! That's what makes it exciting! That's why the Family will never be stopped, for the true revolutionaries will keep going until the end, no matter what the Lord asks them to do! (End of excerpt of prophecy.)

(Jewels on Loving Jesus)

Jesus ' summons to the rich young man was calling him to die , because only the man who is dead to his own will can follow Christ . In fact every command of Jesus is a call to die , with all our affections and lusts. But we do not want to die , and therefore Jesus and His call are necessarily our death as well as our life.

The call to discipleship means both life and death.

When Christ calls a man, He bids him come and die.

Dietrich Bonhoeffer

It can be very daunting and discouraging to be at the bottom of a mountain spiritually, looking up at the goal of what the Lord is asking of you, and knowing that it's going to take some real climbing and sacrificing to make it to the top. There are risks involved and a lot of forsaking--forsaking your pride, your own ways of doing things--as well as being honest and confessing you need help, asking for prayer, etc. It takes real effort and is strenuous in the spirit to put forth the consistent effort that is required to fight, to hang on tightly to the Lord, to make a conscious effort to change bad habits, to almost force yourself to do the humble thing time and time again, etc. Most of the time I'd venture to say you don't feel the strength to make it when you're looking up at what the Lord has asked of you or pointed out to you. You probably feel pretty weak and incapable and even hopeless.

5. Let me tell you, the Enemy will do anything he can to keep you from putting one foot in front of the other to climb the mountain of spiritual progress! He'll try every trick in the book. He'll try to convince you that the changes that the Lord is asking you to make are too difficult, will not make you happy, and you'll wind up a failure. If he can get you to resign yourself to fate, or to feel that hope is beyond you, or get you to give up before you even get started, then he's won the victory! So don't let him! Determine that you will give the Lord a chance by going all the way for Him, and then watch Him do the miracle in your life that you can't do.

(You Can Make It Pt1)

27. If you have a willing mind to fulfill what I ask of you in these prayer requests, then I will honor that willing mind according to what you have and not what you don't have. Give Me all that you have and I'll give you all that I have, and together with Me, you will make it.

28. You don't have a believing heart in some of these things? Ask Me for one, and I'll give it to you if you want it. If it's your desire to do what I'm asking, I'll give you the desires of your heart. It will take some changing of habits on your part. One step at a time is all I ask. One step--not more, not less. If you dread the thought of changing your habits, but desire to change them because you love Me, I will do it. Just ask Me. If you ask anything according to My will, I will do it.

29. When the Enemy comes in with his lies that you can't make these changes and it seems you aren't making progress, remember that faith and obedience come first. Faith and obedience are your part, and then I answer prayer. You've taken a step of faith and obedience today in asking for prayer, and I've heard your prayers and granted your requests. Now each step you take will be just like this first step--a step of faith and obedience. I will bring you up one staircase and you'll come to a landing where we'll have sweet rest and reflect on the progress that has been made; and then we'll go on to the next staircase. And so it will be till you reach the end of your climbing stairs on this Earth and join Me in our eternal home.

30. In some ways the climb will become more difficult, because you're getting closer to the top and there's more commitment required, but in yielding your heart to Me in love, the climb will become clearer and easier. Outwardly it will not always seem easy, but it will be because you'll be able to hear My voice as never before. It will be clear, audible in your heart, and there will be no mistaking that I am the One talking to you. Our connection will be strong and unpolluted, and this will be a strength to you that will give you the power to continue your climb on these staircases that will lead you to that glorious moment when we will once again be united.

32. My love, the Prince of Darkness attacks first in your mind. You are well aware of this. He wants to take you down and knock you out. He wants to separate you from Me. He wants to destroy our love for each other. He doesn't want you to get closer to Me. Anything that he can do to prevent you from receiving the love I have for you--that he knows will make you fall in love with Me as never before--he will do.

33. I love you, My dear one. Please give Me all of your heart that I may love you fully and deeply. There isn't anything on this Earth that he who seeks to pull us apart could offer you that would even compare with the full realization of My love for you that you will have when we meet face to face. I ask that you be like Moses of old and come out from among the ways of this world and lay hold on the eternal, the spiritual. Moses forsook the pleasures of sin for a season, esteeming the reproach of My cause worth more than all the treasures in Egypt, giving up riches to obtain far greater spiritual riches. He endured, having faith in that which he could not see.

Claim the keys of new levels and I'll bring you to the point where you'll be eager to take a step into the next level of your faith and walk with Me.

I WILL NOT LEAVE YOU , OR LET YOU GO .

Even if something looks like a stone, it's bread simply because it came from My hand.

(Dad speaking:) The Enemy always attacked me just before I was about to start something the Lord wanted me to do. That's when the Enemy really comes in with fears and doubts, because he wants to stop you before you even take the first step. But you really have to fight and you have to take the first step--that's the victory--fighting and following Jesus.

163. Don't worry about where the Lord is leading or what He's asking of you, because He'll never ask you to do anything that you're not able to do in His strength. You might not feel like you can do it, but it doesn't matter, because if Jesus asks it of you, then He knows you can. You have to go to Him, you have to trust in Him and have the faith that He's going to help you, and He will.

164. You just have to do it, to yield, and if you yield right away at the beginning, it'll make it much easier. You have to trust the Lord; you have to trust the prophecies that He's given and the Words that He's spoken. Just believe it and receive it.

165. I know you don't know how you're going to fight or how you're going to make it, but you will as long as you just keep going. Many times I didn't know how I would make it when the Lord asked me to do things; I didn't know if I had the strength, but the Lord always gave me the grace and the anointing. He's happy when you feel like you can't do it, because then He knows you'll trust in Him and lean on Him. (End of message from Dad.) (You Can Make It Pt. 1)

No matter how hard, how unfair, how naïve it seems at the time to let your own thoughts and perspectives go and instead embrace My perspectives, it is the way to victory , overcoming, maturity and great happiness.

(Shooting Straight Pt 7: 56)

The only way out of that cycle of negative feelings, unfruitful thoughts or comparing thoughts, is to be humble and thankful for the blessings the Lord gives you. Remember that He loves you and is not mistreating you or giving you a raw deal, but He's taking good care of you. Remember that you can't have everything the way you want it. The Lord has to do some things in your life to keep you humble and knowing how much you need Him. He can't make everything perfect for you, give you all the desires of your heart all the time, and give you all the blessings and things you want at every turn--you'd just become too self-righteous and proud. He knows the desire of your heart is to be close to Him most of all, depending on Him, needing Him, obeying Him and doing His will, so in His love for you He provides situations that help you to stay close to Him, humble, and lowly in your own eyes.

(Victory Over Comparing Pt.2:22)

35. (Dad speaking:) Today is no longer the day of choosing to be yielded. It's no longer simply a nice thing to be, if you're feeling up to it. Today is the day of yieldedness--no ifs, ands or buts about it! If you're not yielded and going with the moves of the Spirit, you're just not going to make it. It's simply not optional anymore. You either do it or you don't make it. It's coming down to the bottom line very quickly, and this year is going to be the year of the bottom line!

36. How's that for some news? It's going to take a lot of our folks on the field hearing this straight out in order for them to get the point. Many of our folks have thought that they could just ride along, or that they would at least go for as long as possible without having to make these changes and implement these sacrificial ways of living in their lives. Well, their time has just about run out! The clock is ticking, the days are counting, and the New Year ushers out the old and rings in the new! I hope and pray that folks are ready. The Spirit of God does not wait for the whims of man. So ready or not, here it comes!

37. This year is going to be a moving year, and like I said, it's going to be a year of getting down to the bottom line, the brass tacks of sacrificial and loving living and giving. People are going to have to go through boot camp whether they like it or not. They're going to have to toe the line, like it or not. They're going to have to yield and obey, like it or not. They're going to have to hear from the Lord and implement what He says, like it or not. They're going to have to put aside their own selfish desires and commit themselves to loving others and putting the good of the Family first, like it or not.

38. But mark my words, if they would only do these things and quit worrying about what trouble and pain it's going to bring to their selfish selves, they'd be happy! What a revelation! People get so selfish and conceited and introverted and damn proud! They need to get their eyes off themselves and onto the needs of others!

39. There will be stretching and growing pains and adjustment blues, but we'll come through as finer gold. Anyone who wants to make it will make it! Every Family member can make it, if they'll only set their minds and hearts to making it. You don't have to be a spiritual giant to make it; you don't have to be a loving, concerned, outgoing person to make it; you don't have to be a topnotch witnesser to make it; you don't have to be a childcare genius to make it; you don't have to be a super "people person" or shepherd to make it; you don't have to be a natural at anything. All you have to be is willing! God can change your heart, your mind, your life, your spirit, and your mode of operation in a flash. Nobody has any excuse! Everyone can make it!

40. You can try to gentle people along like you have been for several years now, sharing with them a little here and a little there, or in some cases, giving them the full counsel of God, but allowing them to assimilate it at their own speed and in accordance with their personal hunger. But in many cases, that hasn't done the trick. You've still got people out there on the field who are way, way behind. You wonder, "How in the world, with all the wonderful Word we've given out, could people still be living in the dark ages spiritually? How come they're not on board with the new moves of the Spirit? How come they're still having the same old problems that we addressed a few years ago? How come they can't seem to move on?"

41. There are many reasons for this, but generally, people have just gotten lazy and comfortable, and they're dreading the changes that are going to come into their lives when they truly begin implementing the New Wine. Some have waited for almost too long now. Now things are coming down to the wire, and they're going to have to implement it all in one shot if they want to stay on board.

42. If they'd only trusted in the Lord's plan a bit more all along, they would have had more time to adjust to all these different moves of His Spirit. By now they'd be loving Jesus intimately, they'd be well along the road of utilizing prophecy for their everyday needs, and in many other areas they would be ahead as well. But they chose, in many cases, to wait until they really had to make the break with the old and enter the world of the spirit. So now they're going to pay the price for it, and that price is going to be increased difficulty. It's not impossible, and the Lord can certainly help them--and each one can make it--but they're going to have to yield in a much greater way, and all at once. That can be very tough for some people.

43. If they hadn't bellyached and complained from the beginning, and felt like they were exempt from having to be revolutionary and yielded to the New Wine, then they would have had more time to adjust to all these spiritual happenings, and they could've grown into the new day a little more slowly. Now those who aren't with it are going to have to jump to it, and get with it right away! This is what's going to cause a bit of a falling away, because some people won't think they can make it, and some won't want to make it.

44. Well, goodness, we sure don't want the folks who don't want to make it! But in some cases, you will lose some folks who could have made it had they heeded the call when the Lord originally issued it. It's not that these can't make it now, but because they think they can't, they won't put forth the effort. Choosing to obey and follow immediately when the Lord calls is part of the majesty of choice, and He doesn't force us. And yet sometimes we cling so tightly to the ability and privilege of making the wrong decisions. Alas! Some tears will be shed in Heaven over some of the wrong decisions that we were so determined to make. Lord help our folks!

45. Even if you've only taken tiny steps so far, as long as you keep saying yes, as long as you keep your eyes on the Lord, as long as you keep moving forward, you are guaranteed to make it! So don't be afraid or feel that you can't make it, because you can!--As long as you keep moving forward, trusting the Lord, saying yes, and forging ahead.

46. Don't worry, Honey, there was nothing that you could have done about those who haven't said yes and moved forward. You gave the Word, and so much of it, and so lovingly. I can't figure out myself why some of these folks haven't gotten on the stick sooner. I mean, it's almost unbelievable! I know they have problems and are human and all, but they've had a lot of input and training, and they should know by now that they need to stay on the move with God.

47. Well, if their hearing has become dull and their eyesight has grown dim, this coming year is going to bring in some changes and mighty revelations which will flash before them like lightning, and will sound in their ears like a mighty thundering! Believe me, they'll perk up! Then they can make their decision. Yes, it will be a year of decision-making. …

48. The Lord takes each one where they're at. But in general, this is going to be the year for most people to make their decisions, for the majority of the Family to choose whether they're going to get on board with the new moves of the Spirit or not.

49. Just think what a blessing it's going to be to have the Family all on board! Once the decisions are made and folks get over the hump, things will fall into place much more easily, and the Lord will have more control in everyone's lives. It's imperative that people get on board, because all the little chess pieces--each Family member--need to be yielded and willing in order for the Master Chess Player to be able to move them wherever He wants to.

50. In this game of the Last Days, it's not enough to just be passive in the spirit, waiting for the Lord to change you. He'll do the work and the changing, yes, but you need to be desiring it, wanting it, willing, open, and eagerly desiring the Lord's will and the fruits of His Spirit and the New Wine! We're coming down to the home stretch and the ante is being upped! The level of dedication and commitment has been heightened.

51. The essence of all that is that the only way to obtain the victory is to go through the battles and the testing. Don't let go or stop short of the goal! Hang on to the victory, keep the faith, and believe me, you'll make it and be a winner for Jesus! (End of message from Dad.) (ML #3176:54-66, 70-73 , GN 781).

(Our Accountability)

32. This is your commission now: Prepare yourselves, for the night is falling. And remember, I am near. Open your eyes and look upon the signs of '99, and know that the time is fast approaching; it is even now at the doors. World conditions are worsening at breakneck speed and there is no turning from the course which they have set themselves upon.

33. Now is the time, My brave children of David. This is the eve of the great day of miracles! Though the night falls upon the face of the Earth, these are the days when you will shine; therefore, prepare! This is the eve of the days of great signs and wonders that I will do on your behalf. Therefore, be glad and let this encourage your hearts, for I am here to see you through.

34. Mark your days and use them wisely. Prepare by continuing to read, absorb, and drink in all that I have rained down upon you these many months. Prepare yourselves by hearkening to My voice, by receiving My Words in the intimacy of our bedchamber. Let them be your guiding light. Continue to move forward, ever forward, onward and upward. For as you fix your eyes on Heaven, Heaven will shine down upon your faces, and this will give you strength.

35. Be encouraged, for the time is near when I will descend from above with a mighty shout! Every eye will see, and every ear will hear as I rock the Earth in that day of great and final victory, final triumph, final overcoming, as we are joined once again, never more to part.

36. It won't be long now, My loves! The day that I have long awaited draws near, and your glory will shine from the ends of Earth and throughout the Heavens. You will shine with the glory of endurance and yieldedness. You will shine with the glory of victory. You will shine as soldiers returning from a battle victorious. You will glow with the light of victory, for in Me you will have overcome! Yes, you will shine! Not with your own light, but because of your yieldedness! You, My brave and valiant ones, will be highly honored before all nations, because you held on, as I held on. Therefore be encouraged and prepare to march on strong! (End of message from Jesus.)

(A Feast Time Token of Love -1998)

I've made the conditions clear. I promise you great and awesome power such as has not been demonstrated on Earth before. I lay before you the awesome reality of performing greater works. But in order to draw on this power and to utilize these benefits, there must be a great forsaking, a maximum yielding, a yielding of that which is hardest to yield--your own thoughts, your own ideas, your own mind. I promise to give you My mind, My thoughts, My wisdom, My insight, My miracle-working power--yet it comes with a price, it comes with a forsaking, it comes with an unequivocal yielding. It comes by laying aside the carnal, the worldly, the earthly, and grasping tight to the keys, the spiritual, the Heavenly, the true power.

4. This is a time to come and lay down before Me anything and everything that would hold you back from allowing Me to possess you more fully and completely. It need not be a grand or elaborate event, for it is simply a time for each of you to come before Me in humility and sincerity to declare plainly where you stand. This is a time to declare your rejection of that which is worldly, and to take the stand to more fully put on My mind and receive that which is Heavenly. Many times, My loves, I have called you to take these steps--to forsake the world. Yet never before have I asked you to receive Me so fully, to allow Me full possession such as will be needed in these Last Days.

97. Yieldedness is a lifelong commitment. It's not something you just do once and then you've arrived and you'll never have to yield again. It's something that people need to realize--that yielding is a way of life for God's children. You older Family members need to remember this and you younger Family members need to learn it, if you haven't already. You simply keep yielding over and over again. You don't stop yielding just because you did it once, but you keep on yielding until it gets so easy that it's no longer a huge trial for you to decide to yield--you just do it almost automatically.

98. That's one of the biggest rewards and victories for people who've really learned the beautiful art of yielding--they're so used to trying to stay yielded, giving, sacrificial and putting the Lord's will first, that that's the first thing they try to do. It's not that it's super easy for them and they don't have any battles in yielding, but they do it because that's what the Lord wants. They really want to please the Lord and do it, simply because they know it's His will.

99. So if for some reason you're having battles about this or that and life just seems like a long string of battles for you, maybe the Lord is trying to help you to learn to yield more. Look around you at people who you personally consider to be quite yielded to the Lord, and see what their state of mind is. They're probably pretty happy people. They're probably easy to get along with, cheerful, sweet people. That's because they're yielded. It's not because they don't have any battles and they just get off scot-free, but they're happy in spite of the battles because they're yielding.

100. Yieldedness is a very wonderful thing, and is really worth striving for. You'll not only make the Lord happy, but you'll be much happier too! (End of message from Dad.)

(You Can Make It Pt. 2)

(Dad speaking:) He allows you to feel shaken up so you will cry out to Him and seek Him, so you'll stay close to Him and realize that without Him you're nothing. It's part of keeping you humble. He has to allow you to experience that. You have to know that it's only Jesus and nothing of yourself, and that He's the source of all power, of anything good that you do. It's Christ in you,not you in you.

Over and over He's saying, "You will never, ever regret giving your all to Me."

The key here is to understand the principle of letting go--not letting go of the victory or of the person or situation you're trying to help, but letting go of the instinct, born of pride, that you have to be the one to do something to change things. The key to rising above and proving that nothing is impossible is in coming to a realization that, yes, in the natural it is impossible. It can't be done. It can't change. There are insurmountable obstacles, realistic, reasonable reasons why nothing should improve or change, and why things will always be the way they are. Yet, in spite of all that, there is hope and faith for change, because through Me you can rise above.

(Rising Above :46)

In your very weakness is your strength. As you call out to the Lord, as you come into His arms and you find your strength in Him, this is not weakness. This is true strength! This is what everyone needs to find! Everyone needs to let go of their own strength and their own ways, their own power in the flesh, and run to Jesus' arms. Everyone needs to feel this desperation of Spirit when they know that they have nothing and that they are nothing , that they're barely hanging on, and except for the grace of God they wouldn't even be able to hang on! This is strength .

Mountain Men

--Great difference in mountain & multitude. Mountain is opposite of multitude. Jesus left the multitude behind. The mountain peaks are never crowded. I climbed many mountains & I was almost always alone. Why?

1) It's hard work.

2) Not very many people desire to climb mountains.

3) It's lonesome.

4) You have to forsake all to do it.

5) It's apt to cost you your life.

6) Lots of scratches & bumps.

3. Long after the valley was in darkness I could still see the sun. There is more light on the mountain. The valley is almost always dark--full of people & things, but usually in darkness. The mountain is windy & cold but thrilling. You really have to have the feeling that it's really worth dying for!--Any mountain--the mountain of this life, the mountain of accomplishment, the mountain of obstacles, of difficulty--if you're going to climb them, they have to be worth dying for, to brave wind & cold & storm, symbolic of adversities. But on the mount alone, you feel so close to the Lord! The voice of His Spirit there is so loud it's almost like it's thundering! The voice of the multitude is so loud in the valley, you can't hear the voice of God. The silence on the mountain peak is deafening! You get a real "high" on top of a mountain! It's a thrill! It's almost terrifying!

5. Only pioneers climb mountains--people who want to do something that no one ever did before--people who want to get above the multitude--beyond what has already been done & accomplished. Pioneers must have Vision-the first one to try it; Courage--the guts to see it through! But on the mountain you are the first to see the sun rise & the last to see it set! You see the full circle of God's glorious creation! You see the world in its proper perspective with range after range to be conquered & a world beyond the horizon of normal men! A world beyond their vision & their horizon! You see distant peaks yet to be climbed! You see distant valleys yet to be crossed. You see things that the men in the valleys can never see.--Can't even comprehend because they can't see it! And you can see the 360 degree circumference of the total horizon--the entire scope! It's like seeing all of life from its beginning to its end & understanding. You feel like you're living in eternity; whereas, down below they're living in time

9. The valley land is Man's country--the high lands are God's country

They're aren't many places to live on the mountain--little rugged shelters, lean-tos. Not much to eat, it's cold & windy, but it's a thrill even to die there. It's better to die on the mountain than to live in the valley

Beaten paths are for beaten men, but mountain peaks are for the mighty. Mountain peaks are for the mighty pioneers

But when you make it, the mouth of God will be opened unto you. He'll speak to you face to face & will teach & reveal to you the greatest secrets. (Mountain Men)

The Great Escape

2. THE FOLLOWING DREAM IS DIRECT GUIDANCE FOR YOU and what you are to do to follow the Flame and fulfill His Will: The setting is a pastoral scene of shepherds grazing their sheep in deep lush green grass in lowland pastures at the foot of some mountains along a beautiful seacoast. It's sunny and warm and the sea is a calm beautiful blue on the one hand with the hills and mountains rising green and brown and distant blue, with lofty snow-capped peaks on the other.

3. THE SHEEP ARE GRAZING SAFELY AND CONTENTEDLY AND GROWING FAT in the rich lush pasture of the lowlands, while the shepherds are lolling here and there, taking it easy in the warm sunshine and the seeming security of their lush lowland pastures, laughing and playing, singing and dancing, and enjoying life, and making love to their fair maidens.

4. OUT OVER THE SEA, HOWEVER, A FIERCE STORM IS BREWING, with dark, black clouds, thunder rolling, lightning flashing and the sea and waves roaring. This ominous storm is moving rapidly toward the fair lowland pastures of the seacoast, but most of the shepherds and their maids seem unaware of its foreboding approach. Only a few of them seem to have caught sight of the storm and are casting a fearful eye at its distant raging on the one hand, while glancing toward the hills for some way of escape on the other. The hills are high, steep, rocky, and their grass is sparse, but they seem to offer definite refuge from the exposed lowlands in danger of being inundated by the rising tides, and flooded by the raging storm!

5. THE ONLY WAY TO THE SAFETY OF THE HILLS ABOVE IS A TUNNEL through the cliffs from the low-lying pastures below. Upon first sight of the scene, in the bright warm sunshine and complacent security before the storm, this tunnel route to higher ground is dry and fairly easy to negotiate, and a mere handful of the shepherds and their sheep--those that have seen the coming storm--are already beginning to herd their sheep through the tunnel to higher ground, but most of the others are refusing to pay any attention to the approaching storm, and seem unaware of their peril in the rich and easy, but dangerous, lowlands. They seem to have turned their backs to the storm, as though trying to ignore it, forget it or hoping it won't come or may even go away, some arguing that it'll be a long time before it strikes, if ever, and they have plenty of time to get to safety!

6. THE SHEPHERDS WHO HAVE ALREADY PASSED THROUGH THE TUNNEL WITH THEIR SHEEP ARE STANDING ON THE HILLS above watching the approaching storm, and crying out to those below to hurry and escape to the safety of the hills. But those in the rich easy pastures below are paying little or no attention to them, or scoffing and saying there's plenty of time, and some below are even still busily working on their folds, repairing, fixing, decorating, and making things more comfortable, with little or no heed to the approaching storm.

7. THE FIELDS ON THE HILLS ABOVE ARE MORE ROCKY AND RUGGED, rougher and harder and steeper, and the grass is not as plentiful as below, and the sheep have to work harder to find it, but the shepherds and their maidens seem to be relieved, feel freer, and breathing more easily now that they have made that difficult climb, knowing they are now out of reach of the storm about to strike the lowlands. They keep calling to those below to come up higher, but only a few stragglers seem to trickle through the tunnel at a slow and reluctant pace, and those below seem unwilling to let them go, and delaying their departure, with one excuse after another, until the storm is almost on them.

8. SUDDENLY THE STORM STRIKES THE COASTAL LOWLANDS WITH ALL ITS FIERCENESS! Giant storm-tossed tidal waves sweep across the lowlands flooding their lush pastures, and sweeping away many of the sheep with their shepherds, while the wind rages, the thunder crackles, and the lightning strikes again and again! The rich lowland fields, which were once such easy pastures have become a flooded sea of water and ferocious waves!

9. SOME OF THE SHEPHERDS HAVE HERDED THEIR LITTLE FLOCKS ONTO SMALL HILLOCKS AND KNOLLS ONLY BARELY ABOVE THE FLOOD in the midst of the lowlands, cowering there with their sheep under the battering of the storm. Others are struggling now desperately towards the tunnel that leads to higher ground! But the tunnel which had been a fairly easy way of escape before the storm struck, has now itself become a raging river, a terrible torrent of water rushing through its darkness. Inside, all is chaos and confusion, with shepherds groping in the darkness and the flood for their poor bleating sheep, and trying to lift them one by one onto a small narrow pathway, like a catwalk, just above the level of the water on the right side of the tunnel leading upward to safety. Many of the sheep are swept away and lost in the darkness and the dark waters, but one by one a few are managing to struggle to safety along the dark narrow pathway! There's much weeping and wailing and bleating and cries for help, but all is confusion and life and death struggle to try to reach safety, for many too late!

10. But for those who make it through the tunnel at that desperate hour, they break forth, to their surprise, into brilliant sunshine above, to their tremendous relief, and with the greatest of thanksgiving, rejoicing just to be there now, however hard the going, whereas only a few of those left below managed to escape the flood in their few, tiny places of refuge. On the hard hills above, though rough and difficult, and the foraging sparse, all is sunshine and gladness and rejoicing to be saved from the storm which continues to rage in the lowlands below. And though the going is harder, they're thankful to be alive and to have brought their sheep to safety. especially those who struggled through the darkness and the flood in those last terrible hours, almost too late. Shouting and praising God, some of the shepherds and shepherdesses with their sheep were already beginning to move onward and upward to even higher mountain pastures above!

Bella s dream. (I don't have it but it was something about you looking into another paddock and there was a marriage going on or something)

We often have unrealistic expectations about our lives for the Lord, feeling that we shouldn't have such big problems, or that problems should dissipate more quickly, or we shouldn't have to struggle so much. When things aren't going smoothly, we can tend to make it harder on ourselves than it needs to be by beating ourselves up about it, or feeling that the spiritual weapons aren't working or the Lord isn't answering because He doesn't care enough or because we're doing something wrong.

2. It really helps if we take a different approach, however, and remember that very often, the battles and struggles we go through are par for the course; they're just life--the difficulty and the hardship and the fight are all part of our learning, training, growth, and gaining endurance, compassion, maturity, and faith.

3. Many things in life are a struggle, but we can be strengthened through the struggles if we approach the challenges and obstacles with a positive attitude. Don't let the Enemy make things worse than they have to be by convincing you to buy into his condemnation, or thinking that something is wrong with you--or God--because life isn't easy and working out perfectly!

4. Life is hard, yet that's how we learn. Focus on gaining the Lord's perspective on your situation and believing His promises of victory. He is always there to help you through, and as you look to Him, He'll reassure you that the battles of life are worth fighting, and He will strengthen you through them.

5. When you're in the midst of a big battle and the Enemy is doing his damnedest to confuse you or muddle you or convince you that you'll never have the victory, so you might as well surrender right now, that's when it takes a lot of faith to hold up your victory flag in the spirit and declare, "I have victory!" But that's exactly what it takes to defeat him, and that's exactly what will propel you forward spiritually and get you up on high ground once again.

6. No matter how you feel, the Lord's wonderful words and truth are strong and powerful enough to get you on the road to victory again, if you don't give up, if you'll just hold on to them, believe them, and act on them. Eventually you will "see that which you have believed," and will receive the reward of your faith, the beauty for ashes.

Of course you can't do it. You make mistakes. You're only human. But when you throw yourself on Jesus and are willing to do things all His way, that's when He can fulfill His plan for your life!

"But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty; and base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to naught things that are, that no flesh should glory in His presence."--1Cor.1:27-29.

The truth is that there is a spiritual warfare raging, and you're a part of it. The spiritual affects the physical, and the physical affects the spiritual.

To have faith is a conscious choice, a vital one, but no one can make it for you. You've got to choose the road of faith, keep the heavenly vision, stay connected to the Word, and fight to keep your spiritual eyes open so that you're aware of the supernatural realm and the battle that's raging. That's how you'll see things through the Lord's eyes and remain strong and steadfast in Him!

(Jesus:)* You must see things in the spirit! You've got to choose to see things with the eyes of faith, because there's so much that can never be explained in carnal or fleshly terms. There's so much about the dynamics of the spirit, My spiritual gifts, and the workings of the world of the spirit that you will never understand with your human mind, and which will never make sense to the scoffer, the doubter, or the unbeliever. But that's where faith comes in--faith of a little child, faith as a grain of mustard seed, faith that can move mountains, faith that transforms you and gives you understanding.

To choose the road of faith is a choice you have to make! It's a choice no one else can make for you! But it's a vital choice, because when you lose your faith, then you have lost everything.

It takes the supernatural insight of the Lord to work for something that you're going to be rewarded for in the long term, rather than right here and now.

But think about it for a minute--isn't that what your life as a Christian and disciple is all about? Isn't it about looking not at the things that are temporal, the here and now, but having your heart and mind fixed on things above? Isn't it all about forsaking the carnal and material realm, and the immediate rewards and benefits of the physical world, in order to gain eternal spiritual riches?

Looking ahead toward the future and investing in the long term is one of the key elements of a spiritually healthy Christian life! You can't be a good follower and disciple of Jesus if you're too tied up in the present, in the immediate, in the here and now. Many of the things the Lord will ask you to do will require a forsaking of your desire for immediate accomplishment and satisfaction, in order to gain something of far greater value and substance in the future

(Shooting Straight Pt. 15 para. 85-87)

NO SECRETS ……..UNITY and LIVING THE LAW OF LOVE

I will not give unto the Lord that which costs me nothing .

WE ARE THE LAST CHURCH! We are God's last Church, the last step in God's progress toward total freedom for His Church and the last chance to prove that the ultimate Church can be trusted with total freedom in this last generation!

(The Law of Love No. 302C-1974)

Unity is not just something that makes our lives more pleasant and helps our Homes run more smoothly, but unity is actually a power and a force that brings down the blessings of God!

When we are united, we have round about us a mighty honor guard of angels! We become an unbeatable force in God's hands!

21. Unity isn't just something that's nice to have, simply because we've always been taught that the Lord can't bless disunity. Nor is it something unimportant that we can just not pay much attention to, and take an "if it come it come, and if it don't come it don't come" attitude toward. We can't ignore the issue or fail to put forth the necessary effort to be unified. Unity is a condition, a requirement, connected to the promises of God! If we want to be what He wants us to be, if we hope to continue to receive His bountiful provision and protection, if we expect to fulfill the plan that He has for us in the future, the way to arrive at all those hopes and expectations is to travel the road of unity!

22. (Jesus speaking:) Unity creates a vacuum and pulls down the blessings of God! Unity has drawing power! And as you wish for your anointing, power and strength to grow in the Endtime, so must your unity grow.

23. It is not an option or just good advice--it is a requirement! It is the condition that I place upon My people. I can only pour out My blessing, My anointing, My protection and My provision, which brings My fruitfulness, in proportion to the unity that you demonstrate.

24. You must grow in unity. You must grow in oneness. You must become truly one wife if you are to succeed in the mission that I have set before you.

25. As you learn more of the unity that I desire, you may feel that the cost is great. But I say to you, beware, and be not foolish in your judgment. The price you pay for the unity that I seek is nothing compared to what you will lose if you refuse to seek and find such unity. (ML #3158:32-38, 78-81 , Lifelines 24).

135. (Jesus speaking:) My Law of Love is that which sets apart the children of David from My other children. Not only is it radical, free and unconventional, but it's difficult, and it's only for the strongest. It separates the men from the boys and the women from the girls. It separates the soldiers from the civilians, and even separates the avant-garde, the elite troops, from the regular troops.

136. You fear that you'll never be able to live and practice these meaty doctrines; but I tell you that you can and that you are able, for I will be able through you. The fact that you've not given up, that you've not turned your back on My service, and that you've not turned your back on the Words and teachings of David proves that you are a strong soldier and that you belong here, in the elite troops. And if you belong here, if this is your destiny and your mission, then believe Me that I will make it possible for you to finish the training and that you will pass the grade and graduate with honors. It's tough, it takes time to graduate from officers' training, but once you do, you've gained something that nobody can take away from you! I know it's hard, I know it's painful. You feel like you want to give up trying and like you're not going to make it, but I want you to make it!

137. The new weapons that I give you for this new day are the weapons of loving Me intimately, of hearing My voice, and of unity with your Family. These weapons will enable My children to fully live My Law of Love and to bring down My full blessings. I know that you love Me, and I know that you believe My Words and My voice, but you must learn to fully use these weapons to gain the victories that you need.

138. As you love Me, as you spend time loving Me and becoming filled with Me, thus will I be able to fill you with My love, My seeds, My truths, My thoughts, My views, and thus will you be able to see things as I see them. When you can see things the way that I see them, then although your natural man may struggle and buck against it, you'll be able to fight, knowing that you're doing the right thing, and knowing that I will give you the strength for it. (End of excerpts of message from Jesus.)

(Living the Lords Law of Love Pt.1)

Climbing That Mountain!--Together!

44. There will be more on the subject of unity in the other GNs you'll read during this birthday feast celebration, but I want to share a little word picture the Lord gave when I was thinking and praying about this subject:

45. It's as if we're all together on a big hike or journey through treacherous mountain territory. Big, tall trees form a dense forest all around. It's rather cool and damp and a little bit dark, and we're having to climb over a steep, narrow, rocky path. It winds around, up and down, through the different turns and twists, and there are some very steep places where we need to climb up on our hands and knees. Sometimes we slip, and sometimes people get scratches, bumps and bruises, but together we're climbing up this path.

46. We're trusting in our Guide because we know that He knows the way. Even though it's difficult, and sometimes we're so tired and our muscles ache and we're so thirsty and we wonder if we'll ever make it to our destination, yet our Guide continues to wave us on and encourage us, letting us know that we're almost there, that we're doing great and that we can make it.

47. Together we learn to help each other. If somebody sprains their ankle, we carry them up the path. If somebody is too tired, we stop with them for a while so that they can rest and be strengthened. If someone starts looking down or is afraid they'll fall, we pray for them, support them and protect them. All the way along the path we're helping each other, comforting and encouraging each other, cheering each other on. And through all the different experiences we have, and by following our Guide closely, we draw very close to each other.

48. As the time passes, we become such a tight team. We know each other very well and we're so proud of one another for making it this far. We've seen each other get strengthened and overcome tests, and now we're actually finding joy in our climb, and real pleasure in doing it together.

49. And then, finally, the reward comes! Finally we come to a clearing near the top of the mountain and we see our beautiful destination--the gorgeous, crystal clear, cool lake surrounded by meadows that are laden with beautiful flowers. The birds are singing, the sky is clear, and it's a perfect haven of rest and pleasure!

50. We're all just thrilled, exuberant, bursting with happiness, not only to see the reward of our labors and the fulfillment of our dreams, but we're also very thankful that we all made it, that nobody had to be left behind. We come to realize that that's the greatest reward of all: the way we've been knit together as a tight team, having learned to love one another and appreciate one another, and to trust our Guide, understanding that He knows what's best. (Keynote Address to the Feast 1998)

77. The greater the darkness of this world that surrounds you, the greater must be My blessing, and therefore the greater must be your unity. The unity you have had in the past and in recent years and the unity you have now are not enough for the days that are to come. For gross darkness shall cover the Earth, and though you are called and chosen to be a light in the midst of this darkness, you will not have the power of My Spirit that you need unless you grow in unity.

80. You must grow in unity. You must grow in oneness. You must become truly one wife if you are to succeed in the mission that I have set before you.

81. As you learn more of the unity that I desire, you may feel that the cost is great. But I say to you, beware, and be not foolish in your judgment. The price you pay for the unity that I seek is nothing compared to what you will lose if you refuse to seek and find such unity.

82. You are My chosen people of the End--My voice, My mouthpiece, My face to the world! I shall raise you up and make of you a great people! My power shall be manifested as never before! There shall be a mighty widening of the eyes of those who look upon the children of David in the End! But you must desire this place, this calling, and this honor above anything! You must be willing to pay any price to secure My blessing and anointing. You must be willing to make any sacrifice to be a united body, one wife.

83. But I promise you, I swear to you that any sacrifice you make for the sake of unity will be rewarded so greatly that in time there will be no comparison between what you gave and what you received in return. You will look back on the day when you took a stand for unity, when you made a commitment for unity, and you will rejoice with great rejoicing! You will be so thankful that you did not fail, but that you said yes. For you will have seen with your own eyes that the battles at hand could not have been won without My full anointing of power, strength, and love. You will know and understand without a shadow of doubt that this full anointing would not have been possible had you not come before Me in the power of total unity.

84. Therefore, let unity reign! Let My chosen brides become one bride, one wife. Let there be a marriage of the two generations. Let there be a marriage of those of the same generation. Let there be a marriage of those who are single and those who are married. Let there be a marriage of the national new disciples and the Family-born young people. Let there be a great melting together until you are of one heart, one mind, one spirit, and one body. So will the windows of Heaven open to you, and I will pour out such a blessing that you will not have room enough to receive it! My promises will be fulfilled.

85. I place in your hands now the key to the windows of Heaven, the key of unity that will open the door and create a vacuum to pull down the blessings of God and make of you My great people for the End! (End of message from Jesus.)

(Key Note Address to the 1998 Feast)

(Jesus speaking:) What I ask of My children is a miracle--I ask for outgoing, sacrificial love. It's the nature of man to be self-preserving, self-seeking, self-satisfying. It's the nature of man to put his own needs and survival above others. But that is the way of the men of this world who know Me not. My children have a great advantage because I've broken those natural circuits. I've cut those wires and I've rewired their minds and hearts to do My bidding, which is to love others. What a marvelous testimony this is!

When I was with My disciples I said, "By this shall all men know that you are My disciples, if you have love one for another." In that day, this love was a great testimony; it drew much attention and caused a mighty widening of the eyes. But how much more so is this love a miracle in this day and age when people are completely consumed with themselves, their own wants, needs and desires. People have closed themselves off from loving sacrificially. Even marriages no longer have their foundation in unselfish love. There is such darkness, such misery!

But this lack of love only serves to make the love of My children shine more brightly! It's as a beacon of love, direction, miracles, power, strength! People cannot deny that such love is out of this world. They ask, "Where do you get such love? How can you live together? How do you do it?" Ah, such satisfaction it brings Me when My children are such a testimony of My love!
In this day and age there is an even greater need for love, because the hearts of men have grown terribly cold and hard. They are no longer sensitive to the gentle reflection of My Spirit--they need strong blasts of the red-hot, fiery, blazing power of My love in action! Only then, when it's as a huge, brilliant bonfire in their midst, will they notice, see and believe. For this reason I have set a challenge before the children of David to love more deeply, more sacrificially, more impartially.
I know this is far above your natural ability. It's out of your reach to find such love on your own. If you try to do this in your own strength, the arm of the flesh, you'll be disappointed, frustrated, and tire of such labor. But if you call out to Me, simply asking Me for the love you need, and are then willing to put that love into action by faith, I will give you My love in such tremendous volume and power that you will know you have witnessed a miracle!
It takes desperate prayer, a believing spirit, and a willing mind and heart. Then follow this with many small steps of unselfish love, and you will become a new creature. You will think of others, have more concern, and feel for others' needs more readily. You'll be willing to give up your own plans and ideas to care for the weak.
Love is action, love is doing, love is outgoing concern. But all of this must come from My hand if it is to last. I have such love for you! I'm waiting with a flood of love to pour out upon the children of David, if you will but ask, seek Me with desperate hearts, believe that this is possible, and then be willing to be made willing, available, sensitive lovers of others.
I am the God of miracles, and I will give you this miracle of love. I want to give you this new anointing of love, which is synonymous with My power, My face, My person. I am Love, and you can have more of Me than you've ever had before. Ask and you will receive! (End of message from Jesus.) (7)
(Jesus speaking:) Living the Law of Love is a costly venture. It's only for the strong, only for the brave, only for those who truly and completely have Me in first place. That's one of the great benefits of living the Law of Love, and that's one of the reasons why it must come to pass in the children of David--because not only will it lead them to greater unity and greater love one for another, but it will also drive them to have no gods before Me, their God and Husband. It will purify them of anything that they're putting before Me, and this will be a great, great strengthening. All those who seek to live the Law of Love fully will only be able to do so as they are firmly attached to My line, and as they look squarely and fully in My face and draw their faith and strength, inspiration and instruction from My Word. (8)

Some of you may see this Law of Love, this freedom of love as a small thing, insignificant in your eyes, but we know how important it is! We know that it is a key in the Endtime events.
Therefore this truth and this light must be preserved in all of its purity. It is better that there be a few children of David who are willing to live this truth completely and wholly than many children of David who live it only halfheartedly or not at all.
For it is not in the numbers that there is strength, but it is in how each one lives the truth of the Words of Jesus and the Words of David.
Your key place in the Endtime is dependent upon your faithfulness and loyalty to the truth. You have been given so much truth, and it is your responsibility to stand strong for that truth--to protect it, to speak it, to live it and to let it be a testimony, even if it costs you your life. For when you receive the truth wholeheartedly you will grow to love it, and then you will know that it is worth it to give your life for the truth, for this precious, precious freedom of love that Jesus has given you in these words of the Law of Love, in these words of your teachers and your faithful shepherd David.
This is the truth that the Enemy hates the most, and for this reason he is doing everything in his power to destroy it. So take up this truth and eat it and receive it and cherish it in your heart. Do not let the Enemy steal this treasure that has been given unto you from the hand of David and the hand of Maria. For you have been more blessed than any people on the face of the Earth because of this abundant truth. So take it, receive it, cherish it and love it!
There will come the day when you will die for this truth, just as we did. But there will also come the day when you will rise again in victory and you will go on to your reward, just as we did! And then you will know that it was worth it, that you made the right choice in living your lives in love.
So live in love! Love and live! Love and serve Jesus! And eventually you will die for love, but you will rise again to love forever in His Kingdom of love! (End of message from a Cathar.)

(PFTCOD2 Living the Law of Love to the Full)

(Jesus speaking:) This truth of the freedom of the Law of Love represents the beauty of My Kingdom. It is a foreshadowing of Heaven. This is the essence of the freedom of My Spirit. You judge yourselves. How have you fared? What has been the depth of your love? What have been your motivations? How much have you loved others as you love yourself? Have you recognized the value of the treasure of the Law of Love?--Or are you amongst those who have mistaken My jewels for cheap glass and tin, to be tossed out?

Whether you realize it or are willing to accept it, the truth of the Law of Love is a key factor in the Endtime. I will let this truth be known, and if necessary, I will raise up another ecclesia to live it, to be the earthly sample of that which is to come when I rule and reign. My plan will not be defeated. The choice is yours as to whether you will be the ones who are privileged with that honor, or if you will cast off the crown. I will not force you.
This truth of the Law of Love must be given and it must be lived--if not by the children of David, then by someone else. I have no choice but to allow this full freedom of My love to be made known to the world, for this must come to pass, and then will the End come.
I will not take this blessing from you at this time. But know that if you choose to not live this truth, but rather to despise it, or if you choose to misuse this truth and use it as an occasion to the flesh, I will raise up others who will take your crown. I say this with great heaviness of heart. This is not My desire, and I find no pleasure in giving this warning. Even now the dark clouds of sorrow hang heavily around My Kingdom.
I beg you, My darlings, to reconsider, to search My Word, to ponder these things with open hearts. I implore you to cast off the unfruitful works and ideas of the Evil One. I pled with My Father, but His hands are tied. He is powerless to deliver you from your waywardness unless you seek His forgiveness and repent. He cannot overrule your personal choices; neither can I. We wait in soberness of heart, with tear-stained faces, watching and praying. We want to bless the children of David with great happiness, freedom, and unity. We want to use King Peter and Queen Maria and their followers to show the world the ultimate love of Heaven. You are in possession of a great treasure. What will you do with it? (11)

(Dad:) Now is the time when you've just gotta hang on! You've just gotta trust! You've just gotta believe! You've just gotta have faith! You've gotta trust that God knows what He's doing, even though there doesn't seem to be any logical reason why you should have to be going through the battles you're going through!

The Lord is using these things in your life right now to make you into the woman that He wants you to be. Even though you can't see it, the Lord is using these things to work in your heart and in your life, and further down the road you'll see it and you'll understand.

You'll finally realize why you had to go through this time and why it seemed like it took forever. You'll finally see the Lord's great wisdom. You'll see the plan of the Master Weaver. He's working on weaving you right now, putting together the strands of your life. But you usually can't tell what it's turning out to be until it's done! When the tapestry is complete, then you see and appreciate and value the beauty of it.

You're in the middle of it, and I know it's tough. I know it's hard. I know it's a fight. I know it's discouraging. I know you sometimes just feel like, "Why bother?! Why do I have to go through this, anyway? This doesn't seem fair. It doesn't seem like the Lord loves me that much if I have to endure this new trial on top of everything else I've gone through!" It just seems like one thing after the other is piling on top of you, and you're worried that one more straw is going to come and it's going to break your back. Well, Honey, the Lord is not going to let that happen to you, because, believe me, He loves you!

It's not going to go on forever. I know you're in the tunnel right now, and it looks like it's going to be dark for a lot longer, but if you just keep going, keep trusting, keep holding on, keep believing, keep persevering, you'll come out of it! And once you do, you'll be so happy you made it through.

Now you're in the shop, in the Master Jeweler's hands, and He's cutting and chiseling and polishing--rubbing you this way and that--and bringing out the best in you. It's not always so comfortable, and sometimes you have to be subjected to a little pressure, a little polishing, a little chipping off of this or that, a little grinding here and there. But the end result is well worth it!

So hang on! The victory is just around the corner! You've already got it--by faith! Don't give up and don't give in! Don't think of quitting now. Just hang in there and you'll make it!

105. When you go through an extreme breaking, when you find yourself stripped of everything you cared about, everything you wanted, that's where you gain humility.

125. Strip off your pride and self-image, and come before Me naked in true desperation and humility. I am nigh to, and can't help but honor, the humble and contrite heart.

130. Humility is acceptance of My will in every area of your life. Humility accepts and praises Me for everything that I send your way. It doesn't think it knows better.

131. The essence of humility is being so submitted to My Spirit that you have no will of your own, and you become a living, moving, breathing sample of Me and My heavenly ways. This is humility.

209. Surely you haven't understood what being a shepherd means. You haven't fully understood the degree nor depth of My Word--that being a shepherd means laying down your own life for the brethren, giving all that is within you, just as I did for the love of My sheep. It is a death, yes, but it is a death that is beautiful and glorious in My sight, bringing forth eternal and lasting fruit and the true beauties of spirit: sacrifice, humility, and love.

No greater than these three walk among the children of men. When I asked you to step into these shoes, this was a gateway, a door to great growth for your spirit that you may learn of the joys, the growth, the depth of spirit and character, the great heights, the rewards, and, yes, the great happiness, joy, and true fulfillment that follows those who die to themselves in order to live for others.
214. How humbling marriage is. It will be your ultimate humbler, and therefore it will be one of your greatest opportunities to become more like Me， to learn to be meek and lowly in spirit and to put the needs of others before your own. This is a gift I offer to those who choose to marry--the gift of humility--and in order for your love to grow, for your relationship to flourish, and your bond to be strong, you must practice this gift of humility.

215. (Dad speaking:) Marriage is humbling. It's doing the humble thing. It's self-sacrifice. It's giving and giving and giving again. It's meeting the needs of the others first, before your own. Marriage can be plain old hard work! Marriage can be the most satisfying and strengthening experience you will ever have. (PFTCOD6)

Join the army of simple, humble soldiers who stand naked before Me, uniting in humility that they might be a force to reckon with in the days of evil to come.
