

Whispers

Oh, the mighty power that you have through Me! For in listening and in hearing and in hearkening, you can be ahead of the Evil One. Therefore, My children, ponder this new day and the commandment that I have given you to lean yet harder on Me. For it is not only important that you hear My whispers, but it is imperative! It is necessary for your own survival. This is why in this new day, this closeness and this greater dependence is so important. This is why it is important we be more one, that I may protect you and that you may exercise the art of hearing from Me, so that I can lead and guide and direct your paths, your steps, every step of the way. Therefore, call unto Me daily, and I will show you great and mighty things which you know not! (ML #2991)

(FJWL2 : 20)

As the days ahead grow darker and more evil, so must you have the light of God to lead you in the way. As the world becomes more complicated, so must you have Me to get you through the maze of these complications. You must seek Me and My guidance and My direction and My help. Seek My light, for I can show you things that you cannot see with your eyes because of the darkness. But with My light I can show you many things that you know not. The world will marvel at your wisdom, at your knowledge, at your understanding, if you will but seek Me and hear from Me.

So do not be afraid to ask. Were you afraid to ask your parents, your father or your mother, questions when you were young, when you didn't know the answer and you needed to know? No. You had no fear, you just asked and they answered. So it is with Me. I have given you a multitude of spiritual helpers to help you, but you must listen to them.

So become more sensitive to Me and to My Spirit. Keep your antennas upward, always listening, for I have much to say to all My children. Do not let the Evil One snatch away this gift, but use it and hone it and strengthen it and pray for it, and pray for those that have it. For it can be a great guide unto you if you will use it, and it will help you to know better the ways of God. (ML #2993)

(FJWL2 : 30)

Abide in My Words, and let them abide in you. Let them dwell in you richly. Drink them in, eat them, imbibe them; but do not neglect My voice. Listen to it. For I speak to you through My Word, and I speak to you through the gift of prophecy, and I speak to you in the whispers in your heart and in your mind when you commune with Me, and when you stop here and there and look up--in those times when your receptivity is highest and those that help you can whisper in your ears and place things in your heart and mind and can give you direction. So exercise these gifts.

Know and understand that My Word is first and foremost, for I exalt it even above My Name. But for further strength and help and guidance, listen to My voice and listen to the whispers, and you shall have strength that you know not of. It shall make your task easier, for you will be allowing us to direct you more from this side, and we will work together even better.

So tune in! Fine-tune and hear the voice of the Lord your God, and of those whom He has sent to help lead and guide and instruct you. For we are in it together, and together we will march forth to victory, and together we will win the world for Me! And we will do it so much more effectively if you will tune in, if you will get your radio signals from Heaven and your instructions through My Word, through My voice and through the whispers.

As you exercise this gift of prophecy, you will have a clearer understanding and greater faith. As you see those things work that I say unto you, and the fruit that it brings forth, and the joy and encouragement and instruction that it gives unto you and others, you will see how much easier the job can be if you let us participate.

So come on! Let's work together!--You working together there and we working together Here, all of us working together. For it is our work and it is your work and together it is all of our work. For we all seek the same goal--to bring forth My light and love to the lost, to bring great joy to the world, and to proclaim My truth unto the

78. (Jesus speaking:) The pilgrimage of the Christian life is always an upward climb, a continual climb to the top of the peak. There are small plateaus or ledges where I allow you to rest and relax, or even an occasional cave where you may camp out and regain your strength before going ahead. But sometimes My children have slipped and fallen and gone backward, for they have not stopped to rest when they reached the plateaus and the lookout points.

79. Although climbing the mountain is arduous and tiring and even dangerous, I do provide times of relaxation, little plateaus and caves to rest in, little stopping points that I create as little parks where you can rest and enjoy and recoup your strength.

80. These little lookout points are beautiful stopping places where you can look out over the valley and take in the awe-inspiring view, the breathtaking, majestic scenery of the mountain range, the sky, the forests and the creation. It will inspire you and feed you, and give you time to ponder and be fed by the beauty of it all and to think about the mission, your purpose and your goals, to inspire you that it's worth it all before you continue your climb.

81. But sometimes My dear ones do not take advantage of the small plateaus and parks and lookout points to rest and be refilled, to just relax and not only enjoy the climb and the view, but to take the time to be fed themselves and rest before they continue their difficult journey.

82. The journey upward for My Family is very arduous. It is only for mountain climbers, for the most rugged. They must know that they have to pace themselves, or they'll burn out. When they come to these little plateaus or lookout points or places where they encounter a rest spot or picnic table, they should take advantage of it to regain their strength, knowing that the uphill climb will be taxing and require great strength and endurance.

83. Some of My dear children who have experienced burnout did not pace themselves. They knew the mountain was steep but they pressed on in their own strength and wisdom. And because they did not rest, they began to wear out slowly in certain areas and became weakened and sick.

84. They were beginning to feel unwell and to come down with certain sicknesses, but rather than resting, they pushed on, so they got worse instead of better. They were weakened with such things as impatience, feelings of hopelessness, lack of faith, irritability, etc., and these things grew and worsened and festered because they did not tend to their wounds.

85. Why did they keep going, even though it is clearly stated in the Mountain Climber's Manual: "You must rest at the places provided and not go on in your own strength. You must stop, look and listen"?

86. It was disobedience. For obedience to Me is taking that rest and quiet time with Me and putting Me first. The first mistake was not taking that time of love with Me, letting it be crowded out, not stopping at the rest stops, at the lookout points, the little caves to rest and relax and be filled, to be strengthened before traveling on.

87. This is a basic principle for My mountain climbers. The first thing they learn when they are given their gear and start up the mountain is to stop and rest and take time with Me and not let it be crowded out. It's the principle of the mountain--one of the most important tenets of the Christian life-- to stop, and to look, and to listen.

88. In this new day when the Enemy has been unleashed and given greater freedom, My mountain climbers must take heed to take that time with Me more than ever and listen to the whispers for their instruction, their guidance, their rest, their healing, and for the strength they need to carry on and to continue on the right path.

89. When My dear mountain climbers do not take that time with Me in rest and re-strengthening, they grow weary and faint in their mind. When they faint in their mind, My whispers become distant, cloudy, and confused. As they begin to faint in their mind, the Enemy is also able to get his whispers in, to afflict with his diseases and sicknesses. The less time they spend listening to My whispers, the louder the little lying voices of the Enemy become, taking them down the wrong path, though they think they're still going up.

90. This is a warning, that those who are weary and fainting in their minds must take time with Me to hear *My whispers in order to stay on the right path. They must take that time with Me before they get weary, before they faint in their minds and burn out. They must hear from Me. They must take their quiet time. They must hear My whispers. They must practice this as never before so they don't reach burnout, and so they are well tuned and not receptive to the Enemy's voice of deception.

91. Reaching burnout is very, very dangerous--not only because the climber can become so weakened that he loses his resistance and becomes physically or spiritually sick, but he can also put his own life and the lives of others in danger. He can lead others astray. In not resting and in not taking the time to receive instructions and having a clear channel to receive My guidance for the upward climb, he instead gets on the channel of the Enemy in his weakened state--what he thinks is My channel--and can become deceived and then retreat down the wrong path.

92. Of course, if My climbers wonder if they are on the wrong track, all they have to do is stop and ask Me, and I will tell them. They can trust that when they stop to hear My voice, I will speak to them clearly and it will be My voice, not the voice of the Impostor. All those who come in faith and ask for My will, will receive it.

93. But I am limited from protecting someone from the voice of the Enemy when their heart is not toward Me. Such a climber can become deceived and retreat. The sad thing is that the progress he made has been lost and he does not see it, but he thinks he is traveling in the right direction. And now, according to him, the others are wrong. At times he's so convinced of this that he even begins to despise those who are continuing upward, thinking they are wrong, and begins telling those that he meets who are climbing up that those who are on the upward climb are going the wrong way.

94. Even those who are very good mountain climbers can become a stumbling block to others if they do not take the time with Me and time reading My Mountain Climber's Manual. Times change, circumstances change, the weather changes, and even mountain conditions change as you get further and further up the mountain. So even those who are very adept climbers must not only rest, but most importantly take time with Me, or else they too can become weary and discourage others from the climb. The climb is not too hard for anyone, as long as they take the breaks and the time reading the Manual and following its instructions.

95. Otherwise, after some time My whispers become so faint that they don't recognize them anymore, and they begin to despise some of the new tools of climbing and new methods, like loving Jesus, praise time, or various other beliefs or practices, and even the whispers themselves. Or they even despise the mountain itself, telling others that it has become some kind of weirdness with deviant practices. This is what My children can come to when they become burned out because they have not taken sufficient time with Me. They can become so weak that they can no longer distinguish the truth from the lie. This is not an overnight occurrence, but one which happens gradually over time--so gradually that often they do not see it coming.

96. Being burned out is a serious spiritual condition--one which takes you down the mountain, and which causes you to lose ground in the spirit if you do not immediately stop and refill with Me. Many who reach this stage of burnout do not recover, for they are so weak that they do not even desire to read My Word, which they must have in order to regain their strength.

97. Being burned out is different than desiring a change of ministry, or feeling the need for some excitement, or going stir-crazy, or even just needing a break from your regular work for a day or two. It is a condition of the spirit, where your spirit is weakened and you lose your perspective on reality. The Enemy's lies become as real to you as My Words, because you have depleted your spiritual stores and have nothing left to fall back on. Burnout can also come as a result of unyieldedness. If someone is taking time in My Word, but is not receiving it because they are unyielded and unreceptive, then they can also burn out in this way.

98. It is akin to backsliding, for while you might not go back in the flesh, in the spirit you are wounded and beaten, and except for a miracle and much soaking in My Word, you lose ground in the spirit and go back--ground which you must regain when you recover strength. So do you see how important it is to take your time with Me?

99. Don't try to climb in your own strength, in your own wisdom, out of pride, to show others how strong you are, or how you climb, or what a great climber you are, or what a wonderful guide. For unless you listen to Me and hear My whispers and receive your strength from Me, you will fall.

100. This mountain can only be climbed in My strength and by listening to My whispers. There is no other way up the mountain, and the only way to go up is to stop at times, for periods of rest. You must have times of stopping to refer to the Mountain Climber's Manual, and the new ways I am showing for the changing conditions, if you wish to make it up the mountain. It seems so contradictory. It's so against the carnal mind and reasoning that the only way to go up is to stop. In your carnal mind you think you make no progress, you think you go nowhere. But according to My law of physics, if you don't stop, you go down instead of up.

101. All climbers must stop and be refreshed. They must look to Me. They must hear the whispers on the mountain. They must take off their baggage. They must lay aside the weights and they must rest. They must stop and look and listen to be refilled and strengthened before they continue on--even the guides and the shepherds.

102. Especially the guides and the shepherds, because they have to carry not only their own weight but sometimes the weights and weaknesses of others. They must carry the weight of responsibility for the group and other climbers. So it's even more important that they stop and rest so that they don't wear out or faint in their minds and burn out, endangering not only themselves, but others as well.

103. Never think you're above burnout. No one is immune to falling. I say to you: Tune in to My whispers. Take time to listen to them, time to stay close to Me, and time to rest and be strengthened. (End of message from Jesus.)

(Letter Links Shooting Straight Part 1)

45

Be not weary, but have faith and trust in My love. Trust that your trials and battles, your times in the desert place when you must lie under the trees and dip your hand in the cool water to find strength, come from My hand. You do not see them now as a blessing, but this time of quiet, this time of prayer, this time of solitude, this time of reflection shall result in a depth of spirit.

You shall find wisdom and compassion and understanding. You shall know in your heart without a doubt that in you there is no strength and no goodness, but you will find your strength in Me. You will find the power that you need through your love relationship with Me. This time of rest and being out of the action is only for a moment; it will only last long enough that I might fulfill My plan in your life.

But you are thinking, "Oh, so many times I have been in this desert place. So many times I have partaken of this quiet and this solitude. Why must I once again? Is it because I'm not learning my lessons? Is it because I am so hard of heart that I am not hearing His voice that He has to continually have His hand upon me to chasten me and to break me again and again?"

I say that this is not a punishment or a chastisement. It is not because you are not hearing My voice or learning your lessons. It is because I am blessing you and honoring you and privileging you with this special time with Me--time that you can be in My arms and look in My face; time when we can commune with each other and get to know each other in a more intimate way.

I want you as My Own. I want you as My lover. I want you as My wife and My bride. I want you to have no other gods before Me--not your family, not your mate, not your ministry, nothing. I want you to desire only Me, and to love Me and know Me and be close to Me. You will need this intimate relationship with Me to fulfill the plan that I have for you in the future when you will be called upon to be in tune with Me, to be prayerful, to be wise, to be kind and loving and sympathetic with those who are weak, and to be understanding of those who feel discouraged and hopeless.

Because you have spent this time in the desert place, you will be able to speak from a full heart. You will be able to speak from experience and testify of the blessings and benefits of lying in My arms, partaking of My love and listening to My voice.

(FJWL2 : 45)

52

There is a great need in the land for all of My children to learn to lie in My arms and hear My voice and partake of My strength. You feel that you are the only one that has been pulled aside out of the action into the quiet place. I tell you that there shall be many, many more. There shall be many more of your brothers and sisters, your loved ones and your Family members round about you who will be pulled aside to the quiet place so that they may learn to hear My voice.

So do not think that you are alone, or that I have singled you out to punish you because I am displeased with you, or because you have not done well, or because you are not needed, or because your talents are of no value; that is not how I see it. I see it that I have privileged you. I have taken you aside that I might speak to you heart to heart and commune with you upon your bed and love you and encourage you and teach you.

It is My plan that you learn to hear and recognize My still, small voice , that you might be this vessel of My choice, this polished jewel in My hand; that you might be a jewel that brings praise and honor to your king and queen.

Therefore, be not fearful. Do not doubt or worry. Do not think that this time of quiet and rest shows your lack of value, your worthlessness. It is just the opposite! This time that I have chosen for you to be with Me in quietness shows how valuable you are and how important you are to My Kingdom. It shows that I have honored you by pulling you out of the busy wings into My temple, that you might lie quietly in My arms, so that I can minister to you and love you and give you strength, encouragement and power.

(FJWL2 : 52)

57

Do not be fearful for your weakness, for in this very weakness you will find My strength. This very weakness will be a reminder to you of how much you need Me. When you call out to Me in this weakness, I will be there to lift you up. I will be there to give you power that you know not of. In this weakness, as you call out to Me in desperation, when you reach the end of yourself and you have nothing left and you look up to Me, then you shall find new anointing. You shall find a new beginning. You shall find a new birth.

You shall find Me and know Me as you have never known Me before! Your dependence upon Me will be greater. Your desire for Me will be greater. Your knowledge of Me will be more intimate. Your relationship with Me will be warmer and closer than ever before. In this you shall find strength, power, wisdom and anointing. You shall find all the things that you need for the future.

You feel that your future is so ordinary. You don't see any place for yourself. You don't see any reason for all this testing and all this training and all this time taken out of the wings to be strengthened. You see no outlet for all of this. But don't worry, for you do not see as I see. Your vision is so shortsighted, but I know the future. I know the needs of the future, and I have a plan.

Trust Me that I know you will need all of these gifts and more. You will be used to the full. At that time you will be so grateful for these times of testing, these times of purging, these times when your faith was sorely tested, these times when you learned to lean on Me, these times when you saw Me answer prayer and you learned to trust Me. You'll be so grateful for these quiet times when you learned to hear My voice.

Trust Me for the future and know that your usefulness is not over; it is just beginning. For I have a plan and a purpose. You will not be disappointed. You will be grateful that you hung on, that you continued having faith, that you continued trusting, and that in your moment of greatest weakness you reached out to Me and found strength.

Therefore take your rest. Worry not for the future. Rest in My arms and find peace of mind. Relax in My arms and trust Me. Know that I love you, and that all things, even this, are from My hand. It is not to discourage you or condemn you or beat you down, but just to bring about My beautiful plan in your life. (FJWL2 : 57)

165. If there's any time in history when it's important to hang on to the Word and commit yourself to living it wholeheartedly, it's now. It's a lie of the Enemy that "the Word isn't worth it, it doesn't work, so just forget it." And the reason he's turning up the heat with that particular lie is because he knows many of My children are facing a crossroads of decision in their lives.

166. The Enemy knows that many are coming to the point of decision as to whether to fight on in spite of the intense battles, or to turn back and leave the battlefield to others. He's turning up the heat. He's shouting his doubts in your ears, screaming defeat and failure left and right, trying to get you to quit.

167. The battles are tough and they're difficult to go through, but it's worth fighting for that joy of victory and the greater anointing that I have for you.

168. There's no testimony without a test and no triumph without a trial. That means you have to be willing to go through the tests and trials in order to win the prize. But it's worth every bit of sacrifice. It's worth the fight.

169. I'll teach you how to fight these battles each step of the way, and as you hold on and keep going, you'll go from strength to strength. There is victory at the end of this dark patch of the road, and I'll help you to walk it one step at a time. I'm always with you, right beside you, whispering My comfort and guidance in your ear. I'm your strength and will not fail to help you through this time, if you just hold on and keep fighting. This is the commitment that I'm calling all of My Endtime disciples to--the commitment to fight on.

170. Trust in My love for you. Trust in My wisdom as to where I'm leading you and what I'm asking of you. Trust that I will do all things for your good, for your progress and strengthening. Trust that I will never leave you comfortless, but I will come to you and I will also send others to comfort you. I know your needs, and I will provide all that you need to fight this battle and to go on to greater victories if you hold on and don't give up.

(Era of Action Pt. 2)

40. (Jesus speaking:) These moments spent with Me are essential to the miracles I want to do through you in the future. You must have a very close connection with Me, a good clear channel that can hear the slightest whisper. I'm tweaking your upgrades and I'm testing your equipment to make sure it's all just right. I've got to use you, it's a big part of My plan, but I have to know for certain that your equipment will be reliable and dependable and will not fail Me in the middle of an important test.

41. That's why it's so important that you take these times with Me, because they're tuning you, training you, testing you, and showing Me you're dependable--that I can depend on you to come to Me, to listen to Me, and then to follow through, whether you think it's important or a big deal or not. Whether or not you're dependable determines how much I can use you.

42. If you're very dependable, I can take you with Me everywhere and use you for any task. If you're somewhat dependable, then I can use you most of the time. But if you're a little flaky and can't be counted on to do the job right when I need it done, then I can't call on you very often and I can only use you in low-risk situations where it wouldn't be too bad if the equipment failed. But the high-risk situations and intense missions are out of the question because I don't know for sure that I can depend on you.

43. That's what I'm teaching you now: dependability in the spirit. You learn that by faithfulness in spending time with Me, and then following through on the things I show you during our time together. I'm teaching you to be responsible and reliable in the spirit so that I can depend on you and know that you will be suited to whatever task I call you for, because you will do as I ask of you. That is spiritual dependability. (End of message from Jesus.)

(FIGHT TO WIN ML 3457)

115

Wherefore seeing we are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight and the burdens that do burden us, and let us look unto Jesus, the Author and Finisher of our faith. For I have called upon you to cast aside the burdens. The great cloud of witnesses are not simply there observing, they are there to participate. They are there to reveal unto you the secrets of the Kingdom the key. I have given unto you the keys of the Kingdom, but you must ask, you must try them in holes to open the great doors of the mysteries of God.

You are compassed about at this very moment with so great a cloud, that if I would reveal it unto you, it would fill this room! Many wise men and prophets would love to be part of this day, and are if you will release them to speak the Words of God. Therefore stir up the gifts that are within you, and lean not to your old ways in which you did seek Me briefly and go about your own way. But seek Me long and hard and call upon Me, and I shall be found and I shall speak unto you and make it plain.

How shall My yoke be easy? If you shall call upon Me and I shall show you and reveal unto you the way that you should go. You shall not only hear a voice behind you saying, "This is the way, walk ye in it," but you shall hear it on the left and you shall hear it on the right. I have many voices that long to speak unto you, but they have no channel but your mouth and your lungs and your larynx. Therefore stir up the gifts that are within you that you may hear from Me (ML #2994) .(FJWL2)

21

Wonderful, wonderful Jesus, my Darling, my Life, my Love, my doting Husband, how I love You! I love resting right here, snuggled so close in Your arms, where I can feel Your heart beat next to mine. I'm so blessed! Thank You for bringing me here, into Your private chambers, and for making me Your bride.

What ecstasies of the spirit are at my fingertips! All I have to do is reach up and touch You, and You fill my hands with beautiful things. Everything about You is beautiful. Everything around You is filled with wonder. Your Spirit enralls me, Your whispers entice me and excite me, Your world fascinates me. I long to live closer to You, to be one with You in everything I do.

When I feel You near me, I have sweet peace and rest and I know that You will take care of everything. You dissolve all of my worries with Your reassuring Words. You give me all that I need. It's just amazing and supernatural how You accomplish such miracles in my life, giving me peace when I know I'm such a worrywart, giving me good thoughts when I'm prone to negative thinking, making me feel so fulfilled and happy even when problems surround me.

You're truly amazing, Jesus. Only You can do that for me. I'm so very, very thankful. I can't stop thanking You and praising You for the wonders You do. I love You with all of my heart.

(TJWL2)

30

As one lover calls to another, even so I call out to You. My spirit longs for You! I long to tell You how much I love You, how much I desire You. I long to tell You how I am comforted by Your Words, how You put my troubled mind at ease with Your gentle whispers, how You refresh my spirit with Your Heavenly music, how You give me repose from my busy work.

I long to tell You of the hidden things that are deep within my heart -- those things which are not easily brought to the light, those things that I wish to share with You because I love You, because You are my Husband and I am Your wife. I desire to hold nothing back from You, so that we may be one.

I'm in love with You, and I long for You. I want to fulfill Your will, to fulfill Your desires, to do whatever pleases You.

I come as a love slave before You, ready to do Your slightest bidding. Ready to go, ready to stay. I'm ready to fulfill Your will in the wings, and I'm ready to come into Your arms and lie with You and be filled with Your seeds.

(TJWL1)

Begin the Cycle of the Empowerment of God!

2. (Jesus speaking:) Behold these My receivers who faithfully tune in to My Spirit and seek Me, who suck from My Words! They are learning the power of the voice of the Lord their God, and they are learning that I am always there ready and willing and able to speak unto them and to give unto them the guidance that they seek. As they take time to stop, to turn on their receivers to create a vacuum, so will I fill it and give them the answers that they need, and not only that they need, but that My Family needs.

3. For truly these shepherds know not where to go unless they seek Me, the Chief Shepherd. But as they tune in, as they suck in the Spirit, as they create the vacuum for Me to fill, so can I lead and so do I lead and so do I give them the messages that strengthen and feed My children. Are not these messages feeding? Are they not that which you need? Do they not confirm that which David has said unto you, lo, these many years? And I say it again fresh and new, for this is the message that My children need at this time: That they must learn to seek Me, that they must learn to hear My voice, that they must learn to follow Me and My Words, that they must live the Words of David.

4. For I am now forcing them out of the nest that they may build their own nests and that they may bear their own babes, and that they may teach them and train them. And how will they know how to teach and train them unless they follow the Words of David, and unless they hear My voice and listen to the whispers of those that help them? I am giving them this time now to learn these things so that in the days to come they will know how to better follow Me, how to better follow My Words, and how to better follow My voice.

5. They need My Words, the Words of David, and they have them. If they will diligently study them and seek out the principles and the guidance therein, they will be strengthened. And if they will seek out My voice and listen to Me and receive the messages that I have for them, so too shall they be strengthened and so too shall they be encouraged and so too shall they be given guidance. For as David has said, the power is always there, the message is beaming and broadcasting at all times.

6. They must just turn on their receivers, they must put up their antennas, they must pull My Spirit into the vacuum through their praises, through their quietness and through their desperate seeking of Me. I will fill them and I will instruct them and I will guide them; I will speak unto them the Words that they need to hear so that they will know the things that they must do.

7. They can no longer operate without Me. No longer will I allow them to operate in the arm of the flesh. In days past I winked at these things, for there were many other lessons to learn, there was much other growth needed. But these days are now the days of the voice of the Lord, the voice of My whispers, the strength of quietness and the power of weakness. No more will I allow the strength of the strong or the wisdom of the wise or the power of the mighty to rule, for those are the ways of defeat. But now the strength and power of My Word and the strength and the power of your weakness rules, and the strength and the power of My voice instructs, and the strength and the power of My love empowers.

8. Would you have this power? Would you have this wisdom and this understanding and this empowerment and this strength? Then come unto Me! Enter into My rest, for in quietness and confidence shall be your strength. You must stand back and see Me fight! Stand back in prayer, stand back in praise, stand back in quietness, stand back in communion with Me. Stand back as receivers, listening, tuning in to My voice. Then you shall see the power and might of God in a way that you have not seen it in any of the days past.

9. As I have brought weakness unto your shepherds, so do I bring weakness upon you, for I will not let you operate any longer in the arm of your own might. Instead you must operate in the power of My might, in the power of prayer, in the power of quietness and in the power of communion with Me.

10. And what must you do to accomplish this? You must take time in quietness, listening unto Me. You must take time in feeding of My Words. You must take time in asking for My help. You must take time in seeking My direction. And you must take time in listening to My voice.

11. You must continue to do the works that I have sent for you and the work that I will show you that you must do. But you can no longer do this work without the power of My Spirit, and the power of My Spirit can only be received in communion with Me.

12. Do not fight it, do not resist it. Just yield to Me. Yield by stopping, yield by looking, yield by listening, yield by putting up your antennas and carefully tuning in to My Spirit in faith, in quietness and in confidence, knowing that as you tune in to Me, you shall receive that which I have for you. And that which

I have for you will work and will strengthen you and empower you, and it will push you and move you and guide you. And by this, you shall surely know that it is the power and might of God that leads you and that brings forth victory.

13. It will cause you to praise Me even more, it will cause you to seek Me even more, and it will be a continual cycle of you seeking, Me answering, and you praising. The more you see these victories and the answers to your prayers and the empowerment of My Spirit, the more you will praise Me and the more you will ask of Me and the more I will do for you; and the more you will seek Me and the more you will praise Me and the more I will do for you! And it will continue rolling and rolling and rolling, ever gaining momentum and gaining praise and gaining victories and gaining miracles.

14. So shall your strength and your faith grow, and your in-tuneness grow, and so shall My power and might within you grow, and so shall you be the children of David, empowered by the Spirit and the might of God! So shall you have faith to do the exploits and the mighty things that I will call upon you to do in the Last Days.

15. For this is the beginning, and you must learn these things now. You must yield to My power and My might now. You must learn to tune in to Me and receive of Me now. You must learn to seek Me now, to praise Me now, to worship Me now, to be empowered by Me now. The cycle must begin now, so that in the time that you have remaining, you will grow in power, grow in might, grow in praise, grow in thanksgiving, grow in faith--that you may be strong in the power and might of God in the days ahead!

16. So fear not, worry not; you will grow if you will but take the little steps now. Just begin tuning in now. Commune more with Me now. Speak more to Me now. Listen more to Me now. Love Me more now. Follow closer now. Obey My Word now. Yield to Me now in the little things, day by day, step by step. Make the effort and pay the price. Take the humbling and take the step of faith, and do it now, that you may begin the cycle of the empowerment of God! (End of message from Jesus.)

(GETTING GOD'S ANSWERS)

How to Recognize The Voice of the Enemy

40. (Maria:) When the Enemy speaks to us, it's usually the exact opposite of praise. It makes sense that praises to our Husband would completely short-circuit the Enemy's voice, when you realize that the Enemy's words almost always bring on negative feelings in some way--doubt, discouragement, pride, anger, jealousy, insecurity, or some other emotion that's designed to drag you down. Recognizing the voice of the Enemy from the first little whisper is an extremely valuable battlefield tactic to cultivate and hone. If you can recognize his whispers and immediately go on the attack against them with words of praise and the PCP plan, you have a much better chance of making it through the battle unscathed and without suffering any wounds.

41. I realize that recognizing the voice of the Enemy sounds like a subject that Dad and the Lord have covered for our benefit many times, and you probably feel like you've heard this lesson before. But I believe you'll find this next message interesting and enlightening.

42. The Lord continues to reveal more to us about how to recognize our adversary and defeat him. Then it's up to us to obey, make the sacrifices necessary, and stick with the plan until we see victory. As we all know, that's easier said than done when we're under severe attack. That's why it helps to continually remind ourselves of the truth, and the reality of the spiritual principles that are in play.

43. (Jesus speaking:) I hate to see My brides unhappy. It really hurts Me. It hurts My heart and causes Me concern, because I know they're only making it harder on themselves than it needs to be. I'm there for My brides, every minute. I care and know better than anyone else what each one needs. And yet I see time and time again when circumstances can nearly derail even the strongest of My loves. This is partly due to the Enemy's attacks, which are indeed very fierce. It's also partly due to pride and unyieldedness.

44. When someone is fully yielded and walking in humility, it's much easier to roll with the punches of the Enemy and get up more quickly, letting his lies pass over you with no effect whatsoever. But when someone gives ear to the Enemy's lies and entertains his negativity, then of course it's much harder for that person to rise above. When one of My brides gives place to the Enemy by listening to his reasoning and arguments and doubts or lies, then it's a spiritual law that those things have more power. He has very little power on his own, but by listening and giving credence to his point of view, you actually empower him. It's as if the act of your listening "charges" his battery so he can broadcast louder and more clearly.

45. That's why it's so important to immediately look to Me when you hear the Enemy's temptations. Even if they seem plausible, understandable, and credible, even if they have a lot of "right" to them, it's crucial that you immediately reject the Enemy's voice, for in listening you give him power, and the more you listen, the more power he has.

46. You can learn to recognize the Enemy's voice and point of view, whether his attacks are direct or more subtle. Some of the telltale signs of his whispers are:

*They make you feel hopeless, negative, critical of others, or that things are "not fair."

*They are contrary to the Word, even in small, subtle ways.

*They make you forget about My many blessings, and you feel you're not being treated right, or that I or others don't love you

*They cause you to not be able to do your work or have good quality Word and prayer time.

*You feel almost driven to tell others, in an effort to seek solace and to find others who will agree with you, which bolsters your feeling of being right and cements your position.

*You feel your emotions turn negative—to anger, depression, sadness, hopelessness, despondency, lethargy.

*You don't want to hear from Me. You put it off, or feel it's not going to do any good. You feel resentful or rebellious to what you know (or figure) I will tell you.

*As you entertain the Enemy's voice, you lose the vision. Nothing seems exciting anymore; nothing seems worthwhile. Everything is blah, ordinary, or worse yet, a bummer—even things unrelated to the main point of your battle.

*You find your thoughts going to the past, as you "build your case" to justify your present feelings.

*You blame others for your plight.

*You compare negatively with others, thinking they have it better. This is related to discontentment, but it's due to pride. The Enemy works with your pride to convince you that you need or deserve more.

*You feel resentful or upset when you're in a situation like devotions or united prayer in which others are praising Me, happy, positive, and speaking faith. You feel they don't understand, and their victory makes you feel worse instead of better.

47. These are a few of the main symptoms of the Devil having your ear. When someone is in this state, it takes a definite, conscious decision to let go of it, to resist the lies, to rebuke the Enemy, and to call out to Me for deliverance from his grip.

48. It's not enough to expect to gradually and nonchalantly pull out of it. When you've "charged the Enemy's batteries" by allowing him to connect to you and tap into your power source through listening to his lies and doubts, then you have to work hard to break the connection, to cut it, pull it away and completely disconnect. A little tug now and then won't do the trick. And the longer you allow him to pull from your power by listening to him, the more you are drained and the more he is empowered.

49. You empower the Enemy when you give him your ear, allowing him to make a connection and draw from your strength. If this goes on long enough, then pretty soon you won't have the strength to pull away and break the connection; he will be blasting away his message in great volume while you're almost helpless and defenseless.

50. This is the danger of listening. This is the danger of not taking note of his lies and immediately rejecting and rebuking them. The Devil's word is the exact opposite of My Word, and you cannot be believing and living both at the same time. It's one or the other. My Word gives life and strength and victory, and the Devil's word brings unhappiness, defeat, dissatisfaction, and destruction of your spiritual life and fruitfulness. This is how some formerly strong disciples can be weakened to the point that they're pulled all the way out of My will and service. It's pitiful, but not unavoidable. And it all begins with giving ear and considering the Devil's lies, which draw you away from My Word and cause you to be weakened. It's a very weak connection at first, when you first hear his whispers, but it can grow strong very quickly.

51. Take heed to this warning, My loves, and let this lesson sink deeply into your mind, heart and spirit, so that the next time you hear the Enemy's whispers of any kind, you immediately raise a standard against him by praising Me, claiming the keys promises, asking for prayer, going to My Word, and actively fighting! Don't be passive or just play around with fighting and cutting the connection.

52. Pull the plug immediately, before your adversary has time to be strengthened in his attacks and to latch on to you relentlessly. He will suck the very lifeblood from you if you let him. But if you look to Me, fight in prayer, take the offensive, and claim the power of the keys in faith, he has very little power over you, and you have nothing to fear. (End of message from Jesus.)

(PRAISE YOUR WAY TO VICTORY)

Be Kissed with His Words in the Bed of Love!

15. (Prophecy:) As a bride learns the ways of love and the ways to please her husband, so must My children learn of the ways to please and to love Me. I am well pleased in their service, in their love for Me as they go forth day by day to love others with My Love. I am well pleased with their sacrifice, their labors of love. I am so proud of My children, that they will reach out and touch the unlovely and the uncomely; that they will go forth where no man dares to go, to bring My Love and light to the lost, to the lonely, to the broken, to the war-torn, to those that weep, to those that are in darkness. And, yea, they bring the great light of My Love and the warmth of My Spirit to the cold and dark places.

16. Oh, I am so proud of My children and I love them so dearly! In this they have shown Me great, great love. But now they too must learn that I desire them and their love in My bedchamber, that they too must take that time to come and lie down in My arms that I may caress and love them, that I may fill them, for they too need My seeds and My strength and My power.

17. For as the dark days ahead come upon the Earth as a strong storm, so must these at that time know how to communicate with Me, how to hear My voice. They must learn and know how to hear the whispers of My Spirit in their ears. The way for them to learn this is to spend time with Me in the bed of love listening to Me.

18. And they must let Me kiss them with My Words, even the Words of David. For within the Words is great power and great strength. For within them is My voice, and within them is My Love, and within them is My strength and My power. But they must take time to let Me love them through these Words, to let me strengthen them through these Words.

19. They must let Me whisper unto them Words for these days. They must hear from Me fresh day by day. They must learn to rejoice at My voice as they would rejoice at the voice of their lover, and they must take time for My caresses and My Love.

20. My little one, I am well pleased that you are seeking Me, that you are searching for ways to woo My Love, and that you are learning the deeper things of the Spirit that you may instruct and teach this, My Bride, the ways of love. And how can you learn these ways unless you, too, spend time with Me? (End of prophecy.)

(LOVING JESUS PT.1)

64. (Prophecy, spirit helper speaking:) She should say "yes" to us, for we try to help her. We try to show her the high road. We point the way. We turn her that way and we say, "This is it! This is it!" But she says, "No! I want to go my way! I want things to be my way! I don't want it to be someone else's way, I want it to be my way!" And thus she starts down her low road. But then she sees her way is not the way of happiness, but the way of death, and thus she has to start her high and hard and difficult climb.

65. Oh, that she would just listen! Oh, that she would just listen to us. Oh, that she would just listen to others. Oh, that she would just believe that her way is not the right way. Her ways are not our ways. Her thoughts are not our thoughts. But if she would say "yes," simply "yes," then her thoughts could be our thoughts, because we would have an opening in the Spirit to get through to her and to influence her mind and her heart and her spirit more easily.

66. But when she is stomping her feet and saying, "I want my way!" there is nothing we can do, for the barrier between her mind and heart and us is too thick, and we cannot get through, so we must let her go her way. Then we have to work to help her to understand and to make the hard, hard, hard climb. But these are her choices, and this is of her own choosing. Because she wants her way and insists on her own way and her own thoughts, she cannot accept the things that we try to show her, and it makes it difficult for her to even accept the Word, the Words of David, because she is constantly saying, "I want my way!"

67. But now is the day of choices, for now are the children of David set free to make their own decisions in a much fuller and greater way, and they are more fully responsible for these choices. This is the way we have set it up, and this is the way we want it to run. Because as the times grow darker and more difficult, the children are going to have to make their own decisions and choices. They are going to have to learn to listen to us and to seek us for our guidance, and for our strength, and for our wisdom, for the gifts that we are unto them. The days of commanding and insisting and pushing and saying, "You must do this and you must do that" are over. For now is the day of the whispers. Now is the day when those who will listen will hear, and those who refuse will not.

68. We have helped to carry this one and to shield her for many years, but there is now a change. This is a day of change, and it is significant. Many things, both there and Here, are changing, and the way we will all operate together will change. For the days ahead are dark days, and we must all work together in a new way. Now all must make choices. All must begin to hear the whispers and to yield and to say "yes."

69. We are no longer allowed to hedge her about so closely. She is going to have to decide. She is going to have to make her own choices now. We are there to help, we are there to lead, we show the way, but she must stop demanding and insisting. She must begin to yield. For the path from the low road to the high road is going to be much steeper and much longer a climb, because the low road descends even faster and the high road ascends even steeper; thus the further down the low road she goes, the further away from the high road she is.

70. So her choices are important. She must choose. She must choose this day whom she will serve. If the Lord be God, serve Him! Say "yes" to Him, and follow closely. But if Baal, the Baal of your own desires and your own mind and your own insistence be god, then serve him. (End of prophecy.)

* * *

71. (Dad speaking:) Come, my child, come! I'm calling you from above! I'm calling you to take the high road. Come, the way is good, gentle and easy! There's much for you there. There's much you can do, much you can bestow on others. There's so much love you can give. But it's there on the upper road! Please come! I'm calling you, and great, yes, great is your reward in Heaven!

72. Hold that fast which thou hast; let no man steal thy crown! Don't look to the right or to the left. Just look upward, always upward, climbing upward! Come! Please come, my dear! I'm calling! I'm calling! Take the upper road, for there is much for you there! (End of prophecy.)

(PROPHECIES ON YIELDEDNESS)

You may think my books were intriguing, but believe me, they are nothing compared to the true mystery that is unfolding at this very moment-the greatest mystery ever told, the most elusive "whodunnit" story ever conceived, the mystery of the Antichrist and the final days in world history. This is a story that you are even now living, a tale that is unfolding, a plot that is thickening even as we speak.

Who is the murderer? How is he plotting his next great kill? How is he planning to overthrow the kingdoms of this world, in order to set up his own One World system? Who will be deceived by his flatteries and come to his side to help him? Who will discover his true identity, uncover his treachery, and expose him for the Beast that he truly is?

Would you like to know? Well, many clues are in the greatest mystery book ever given to mankind-the Bible. "The people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits, and they that understand among the people shall instruct many." (Daniel 11:32,33).

Do you understand what's going on? Are you tuning in to the clues? Are you watching the signs of the times, and discerning the face of the sky? Are you seeking to foil the plans of the murderer? Or are you continuing on day by day, saying in your heart, "Where is the sign of His coming? All things continue as they were" (Mat. 24:3; 2Peter 3:4).

Look around.-The evil could be lurking in places where you least expect it. You just never know how the mystery will end. But once it does, and you look back, you'll think, "That was so obvious. I wonder how I could have missed it all that time."

Well, don't make that mistake. Don't be caught unawares. Watch and pray, that that day does not overtake you as a thief in the night. Open your eyes to see what's going on around you, to see how the spirit of Antichrist is sweeping across the world, conquering hearts and minds everywhere. Don't let him get away with it!

In the end, the mystery will be solved, and all will be clear, and you may end up feeling foolish that you didn't see it coming. Don't let it happen to you. Keep your eyes open and take heed to all the clues, the signs of the times, and the whispers from beyond. Don't be caught unaware, and don't let any man deceive you that the day is not coming when all shall be revealed.

Just as surely as in my stories the culprit was always found out, so shall the day come that this greatest mystery of all will be nothing more than a story that is told: a story of those who watched and waited, and a story of those who slept in their indifference. What kind of character will you be? What role will you play?

Will the Commissioner say to you, "Well done, My good and faithful detective," or will He catch you empty-handed, with nothing to show for all the evidence, the warnings and the clues that He provided you with?

Take heed that you walk circumspectly, redeeming the time, for the days are now more evil than they have ever been before. (End of message.) (AGATHA CHRISTIE from beyond)

(LINK UP 012)

65. (Jesus speaking:) The Word of God is quick and powerful and sharper than any two-edged sword. For, yea, I am the Word of God. I am the solid-rock foundation. My Words are enduring and My Words are truth, and I exalt My Word even above My name. For My Word is spirit and life. And if you build your house on anything but the solid-rock foundation of My Word, it will be built on the sand and will collapse.

66. I say unto you, the Words of David are My Words, for they are the Words of God, and they are part of this solid-rock foundation. All that you do, you must do on the foundation. For your works and the raising of your children and the ministering unto your friends, and the feeding of the lost, I say that all that you do, must be done on the solid-rock foundation.

67. And when you seek Me and wish to hear My voice, it too must be done on the solid-rock foundation. For I am not replacing My Word with these gifts and with the hearing of My voice. I am simply adding to it. Have I not said through your David that there are seven ways to know the will of God, and is not the first way the Word of God? My children have not neglected this. Have I not said you may also find My will through the voice of the Word, through Godly counsel, through burdens, through open and closed doors, and through fleeces? And My children have not neglected this. But have I not also said unto you that direct revelation is one of the ways? But this has been neglected because of fear and pride, and because the Enemy has snatched away the great joy that My children could feel if they would use this gift in full faith. But now is the time to overcome, and now is the time to use this gift from God.

68. I say unto you, there is a great cloud of witnesses that are present to help you, those that are ordained to give you strength and wisdom and direction and guidance. They would speak to you and through you, if you would have the faith. It is a way to find the will of God. It does not take the place of My written Word, but it is a source of additional power and strength and instruction. This you ought to do and not to leave the other undone; for a false balance is an abomination unto the Lord, but a just weight is His delight.

69. For as you cook a meal and must add in all the right ingredients to get the perfect blend, so is this. My written Word and the Words of David are the base of the stew, and the meat and the broth, and without it there would be no stew. But these other things, these other ways to know My will and the hearing of My voice, they are the additions, and together it makes a nourishing, full and well-rounded meal.

70. My children have the basis; they have the Words and they are well-versed and they use them well, and they know they need them to survive. That does not change, and that should not change, but they must add this other gift in order to have the power that they need for the days ahead. For in the dark days they will have to depend greatly on the voice of the Lord, and they must learn to exercise it now together in unity to learn.

71. This gift is as a beautiful garment hanging in the closet with all the other garments: the garment of My Word, the garment of counsel, the garment of open and closed doors. These other garments are well worn as work clothes, and they are sturdy, and they are comfortable. But this other garment, the garment of My voice, has seemed to be out of fashion. When one weareth it, people look rather strangely and say, "This is an odd garment." And thus it is only worn infrequently.

72. But I say unto you, it is now in fashion! This does not mean that one does not wear the sturdy work clothes and the others, for they have not gone out of fashion; it's just adding a new garment to the wardrobe. This is an addition, and this will help in the decision-making, it will help in inspiration, it will help in encouragement, it will help in instruction. For in this way I can easily personalize the instruction and words that I have for you. But you must call unto Me from the solid-rock foundation.

73. So use the gifts that I give to you and be not ashamed, and wear this garment that I have given to you and be not afraid. For this is not the only gift and the only garment, but it is the neglected gift and the neglected garment. So read My Words, drink them in, for I have poured forth abundantly unto you, more so than any of My children before. My Word is the solid-rock foundation that I have given to you, and that you stand upon, and that which your work and the house of David is built upon. For that is what has made you strong, and this is not a call to change that.

74. So abide in My Words. Let them abide in you, let them dwell in you richly. Drink them in, eat them, imbibe them; but do not neglect My voice, listen to it. For I speak unto you through My Word, and I speak unto you through the gift of prophecy, and I speak unto you in the whispers in your heart and in your mind when you commune with Me, and when you stop here and there and look up; in those times when your receptivity is highest and those that help you can whisper in your ears and place things in your heart and mind and can give you direction. So exercise these gifts.

75. But know and understand that My Word is first and foremost, for I exalt it even above My name. But for further strength and help and guidance, listen to My voice and listen unto the whispers. And you shall have strength that you know not of. It shall make your task easier, for you will be allowing us to direct you more from this side, and we will work together even better. We will do it so much more effectively if you will tune in, if you will get your radio signals from Heaven and your instructions through My Word, through My voice and through the whispers.

76. As you exercise this gift, you will have a clearer understanding and greater faith. As you see those things work that I say to you, and the fruit that it brings forth, and the joy and encouragement and instruction that it gives unto you and others, you will see how much easier the job can be if you let us participate.

77. So come on! Let us work together--you working together there and we working together Here, all of us working together. For we all seek the same goal, to bring forth My light and love to the lost, to bring great joy to the world, and to proclaim My truth unto the ends of the Earth. (End of message from Jesus.)

(MAMA'S LOVE STORY PT.4)

Be Kissed with His Words In the Bed of Love!

7. (Jesus speaking:) As a bride learns the ways of love and the ways to please her husband, so must My children learn of the ways to please and to love Me. I am well pleased in their service, in their love for Me as they go forth day by day to love others with My love. I am well pleased with their sacrifice, their labors of love. I am so proud of My children, that they will reach out and touch the unlovely and the uncomely; that they will go forth where no man dares to go, to bring My love and light to the lost, to the lonely, to the broken, to the war-torn, to those that weep, to those that are in darkness.

8. Oh, I am so proud of My children and I love them so dearly! In this they have shown Me great, great love. But now they too must learn that I desire them and their love in My bedchamber, that they too must take that time to come and lie down in My arms that I may caress and love them, that I may fill them, for they too need My seeds and My strength and My power.

9. For as the dark days ahead come upon the Earth as a strong storm, so must these at that time know how to communicate with Me, how to hear My voice. They must learn and know how to hear the whispers of My Spirit in their ears. The way for them to learn this is to spend time with Me in the bed of love listening to Me.

10. They must let Me whisper unto them Words for these days. They must hear from Me fresh day by day. They must learn to rejoice at My voice as they would rejoice at the voice of their lover, and they must take time for My caresses and My love. (End of message from Jesus.)

Take Time to Love Him, And Be Strengthened!

13. (Jesus speaking:) Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. For I call you out of the wings and into My bedchamber, that you may lay your head gently upon My bosom, that I may wrap My arms around you, that I may stroke you and whisper unto you. For by taking this time in rest and repose you are calmed, you are strengthened, your faith is renewed, your spirit is uplifted. For time in the bedchamber with Me is time in My temple, is time in My love, and is time in My strength. You will be renewed and refreshed for the battles that you face.

14. So neglect Me not and fear not to take the time that is required. For I say unto you, seek first the Kingdom of God, the arms of your true Lover, and all of these other things will be added unto you, all the strength that you need, and the wisdom and the faith.

15. Look not at what is not being done, but look at what is being done; that you are building up a reserve of strength, and of wisdom, and of love. As you seem to fall further and further behind, it becomes a test if you will still love Me and put Me first. And as you do this thing, your strength will grow, and your capacity for understanding, for wisdom, for receiving My answers, for knowing and understanding My direction will grow. If you will lie in the bed of love with Me, I will empower you with My seed and with My Spirit and with My anointing in a new and greater way.

16. So shed these things of Earth and set your affections upon things above! And as you let go of the things that you think you must do, I will pour forth unto you a new way and new things. I will speak and I will comfort. I will encourage and I will strengthen you. And you will find renewed faith in My ability and capacity to perform all that I have promised you. (End of message from Jesus.)

Suck the Seeds!

21. (Jesus speaking:) Do you feel the comfort and rest in My arms? Do you feel the rest that you find as I hold you, as you lay your head upon My breast after sweet lovemaking, and you feel at ease and at peace, and you feel filled with My love and satisfied in spirit? And thus with this strength and this peace and this calmness you can go about the duties of your day. For there is much noise outside the bedchamber. There is confusion there. There are many voices and many duties. But if you have spent time being filled with love and with peace before you enter your day, you will take this peace and this love with you, and you will be a bubble of peace and love in the sea of the confusion of the world.

22. They shall see you, and they shall come to you and say, "We can find peace and rest with you. We can feel in the Spirit your peace and your love, and we want to know how you can have such peace in the midst of our storm and in the midst of our confusion." And you can then tell them of Me, of your Lover Who gives you this peace and love, and will give it to them if they will know Me and love Me.

23. As you spend time with Me receiving My seeds, and as they become part of you and we become one, then you become more like Me, and this is reflected upon you as you are out there in the sea of confusion, and this reflection is seen clearly.

24. Therefore spend that time with Me each day. Spend that time with Me before you face the cares and duties of this world. Just as you wrap your arms around your loved one to kiss and caress and speak of love in the morning, so you must wrap your arms around Me and we must kiss and caress. You must let Me whisper My Words into your ears, and you must drink My Words into your heart, and you must be filled and filled and filled with My Words! For as you eat them, they strengthen you! As you suck on them and suck them into your heart, so they become part of you. They become you, and you become Me, and we become one for all to see!

25. These seeds fill you, these seeds strengthen you, these seeds give you power, these seeds transform you, and these seeds give you new life, new love, and new anointing! For these seeds are Me, and these seeds are My Spirit, and as you suck these seeds, so you suck Me; and as you imbibe these seeds, so you imbibe Me; and as you become one with these seeds, so you become one with Me. I in you and you in Me, and we are made one. (End of message from Jesus.)

29. (Jesus speaking:) Do you see the strength of weakness? Do you see what this means--that through your weakness My strength is made perfect? For when you have no strength of your own, and you are weak, and you are weary, and you are desperate and feel that you know not what to do, and have no wisdom of your own, strength of your own, or ideas of your own, and you get desperate with Me and seek Me, I then pour forth My Spirit upon you. I give the answers that you seek, and the strength that you need, and the power that you desire, so you know that I do these things, and you take no credit to yourselves.

30. For this is the power and the strength of weakness, that you have no mind of your own, no thoughts of your own, no ideas of your own, no plans of your own, but that you seek Me and that you operate according to that which I show you. Oh, that My children everywhere would learn to stop, to look, to listen, to hear My voice, to seek My will, that they may know that which they should do day by day, hour by hour.

31. And they shall hear a voice behind them saying, "This is the way, walk ye in it!" It may be the voice of My Word. It may be the voice of My Spirit. It may be the whispers of the helpers. It may be the burdens. It may be the voice of leadership. But they must listen and they must cry out and they must seek Me, that I may give them that which they need, and the power that they must have to accomplish My will and My purpose.

32. But when they move according to their own power and their own strength and their own plans, I can only use them at a minimum. They do accomplish good things, but they don't accomplish the best thing. But those that hear My voice, that follow Me closest, that let Me lead and guide, and who operate according to the plans that I give unto them, and they that seek Me, diligently crying out to Me, these are used to the maximum. For I can pour forth unto them all of My will, and they can accomplish all that I intend to bring forth. They can do it with effortless ease because it will be according to My plans.

33. So seek Me in weakness and in humility, knowing that you are nothing, that I may pour forth unto you My strength, My plan and My will; that you in your weakness can operate in My strength and thus accomplish that which is much greater than you could do in your own strength or in your own flesh. For your power is very, very small, but My power is very, very great!

34. Your little motor is very weak, but My grand motor has power that you know not of! And if you will let Me empower you with My motor, the power of My Spirit, you will have strength that you never dreamed possible, for you will operate in the strength and power of God, empowered by the motor of My Spirit, to take you to places you never imagined!

35. (Vision:) Accompanying this, there was a little picture of our motor, which was like one of those tiny battery-operated motors they have in toys. And next to it was God's motor, which was like a huge turbine engine about two stories tall. (End of message from Jesus and vision.)

Please the King!--And He Will Please You!

39. (Jesus speaking:) Oh, children, you do well to confess before Me your need, your nothingness and your nakedness, for how true it is! If you understood the power and the might of God, you would more greatly understand how nothing you are. And you would truly understand how great and how wise you could be if you were filled with Me, and the depths of the wisdom that you can have when you tap into Me, the Source of all wisdom and the Source of all knowledge and the Source of all power.

40. As you come to Me for your empowerment and your love and your strength and your wisdom, and as you empty yourself of your own, so can I fill you with Me--My power, wisdom, strength and love. But this is only found in communion with Me--in the communion of praise, in the communion of prayer, in the communion of My Word. And this is only found in the quietness--in the quietness of spirit, in the quietness of self, in the quietness of prayer and praise and the seeking of Me and My Word.

41. Oh, the power and the might and the wisdom and the love that can be found there in the quietness, there in the peace. And, oh, how many neglect it! It does not take long. Oh, if you could see in the Spirit the riches that are given unto you in the quiet places, the quiet times, the quiet moments, in those moments when you seek Me and you lay down all else and say unto Me, "Come! Come! I am here for You!"

42. But you do not see these things, and so often you simply see that there is so much to do, and feel, "We must labor, we must labor." But I say labor to enter into My rest. For as you enter into this labor, so do I send forth those who will labor for you and who will help you, who will guide you.

43. For it is at those times that I instruct those with the wisdom to guide you, and it is in those quiet moments when they can speak this wisdom unto you. So neglect not to come unto Me in quietness, and in doing so, receive all that I have for you. And, oh, I can make your job, your life and your ministry so much easier! I can give you that life that you need and desire, and I can give you the wisdom that you seek and the strength that you need. I can give you the power and might of the Spirit of God!

44. Come, let us lie together! Let us hold one another and speak words of love one to another, and let Me whisper in your ears. Remember, I am a King, and when you please Me, I will please you, for I have many, yea, legions that I can instruct and say, "Go and do this! Go and take care of that! Give them this wisdom! Give them this anointing! Give them this love! Give them this strength!" And I do so willingly! But how much more can I do this when you please Me and when you come to Me and say, "This is my need." I can send forth many to help you as you seek Me in the quietness and in the solitude and in the communion of your love for Me. (End of message from Jesus.)

Look unto Him and Be Lightened!

51. (Jesus speaking:) When the Enemy comes in like a flood, My Spirit will lift up a standard against him! For he would fight you to defeat you, and thus defeat My purpose and My will in your life. But I am there as a strong wall to stand against his flood, and you must only step behind the wall, and thus be protected.

52. When you look forward to all that is ahead--the work, the weight, the responsibility, the job, the many things that must be accomplished--you see that you cannot do these things in your own flesh or in your own strength. But if you will look unto Me and follow Me step by step, heeding My checks, listening to My voice, listening to the whispers, doing those things which I show you to do when I show you to do them, these things will be taken care of and all will go well. For you will not be carrying these in the arm of the flesh, but they will be floating in the arm of the Spirit as I will be carrying them for you.

53. And so it is with these, My children, who have so many things that they too must do, for they too are burdened and they too look forward and say, "Oh, there are so many things that must be done. How can I do them all?" But if they too will seek Me and hear from Me, if they will listen to My voice and follow My instruction, and do those things that I say unto them to do, they too will be able to operate with the arm of the Spirit, with My right arm carrying the load, and My left arm opening the doors and showing them the way.

54. So come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest, for I will carry the load. Listen not to the voice of he who would discourage you, or who would tell you of the weights, or tell you of your incapacabilities, or tell you of your sins and faults and failings. Look unto Me, the Author and Finisher of your faith, for I am Love and I encourage you and I strengthen you. I look beyond these things, for I am He that went to the cross and paid the price that you could be free from these weights and burdens, that you could look unto Me and be lightened--lightened in load, lightened from sin, and enlightened with My love, with My strength and with My power. (End of message from Jesus.)

(LOVING JESUS PT1)

Whispers (Personal prophecies)

February 03, 2020—touch base

Yes My sweet love life can be pretty routine most of the time. It takes faith, patience and endurance to run this race without allowing one self to go into automatic mode. Keep running sweetheart, don't for a minute believe it is purposeless. What a liar your adversary is; just pull off the road for a while, take a rest, why keep up this endless treadmill of a life; he whispers in your ear. I know it's true, I was on earth and I also felt blah sometimes. I had to fight this battle too and at times it wasn't easy, oh what weariness, what am I to do with these people, will they ever learn? Just keep plugging away, don't get self-righteous, and don't get weary in well doing. I could say of you, why is he having this battle again...oh come on get the victory already. But I don't because I have learnt that the earth life is like that, it's not easy being human and having all those frailties and sins that so easily beset you. So patience My love, patience wins the race, especially this race. I promise you it is getting closer, the finish line for man and for you and for the world is coming into focus, it's still off in the distance, but not off in the distance somewhere, it is coming into view. Hold on keep training and pouring into the kids and anyone that is wise enough to listen to you. The words of David are the words of truth, you know it, and you can see plainly that there are just no other words on this earth like the Words of David, the Words of God. So hold on keep plugging away and hold this truth in your heart.

April 14, 2020—The AC in Ghana

You say it often but people don't truly realize how embedded the AC government is in each country. They have been working relentlessly toward the goal of world leadership. You are in the final stage of the prophecy given by Daniel. You are living in the times of the toes, the time is at hand. Any government that does not relent, those that thought that they could stand alone have seen that they can't. The hit men have been sent out and have covered the globe; each government has been informed of their place in the grand scheme. Threats, money, promises, the normal tools of their trade, have worked to bring all into the net. The political process in many countries has come to a standstill over this corona problem. Policies that would normally not even get in the door have taken over the floor and demand attention, demand a vote and if not a vote, pushed through to law. Ghana is no exception; the weak, greedy men in power have yielded willing to their baser instincts and gone for the money and power and have swallowed the promises like school children offered candy, they run to do their masters bidding.

Call on the keys beloved; that's why I gave them to you, call on their power to raise you above all the crap that the worldlings are wallowing in, they drink it in, they slurp it up; they are so easily manipulated by the riches of this world. The carnal minded men of this world rush like dogs to the carcass, tearing and ripping at the corpse. For that is what this world has become, a dead thing, already beginning to rot and stink. Yet these carrion eaters feast on it like maggots. They will vomit it up in the not too distant future.

As I have told you, you will be sent out again after this pestilence has passed, but for now preach and teach to whoever will listen, that is My call to you. Use the videos, use the internet, and use the tracts and word of mouth...My Words will accomplish the purpose all you have to do is send it out. Do not underestimate the power of the Word and the Keys.

Now is My time to work through all the Word you've gotten out, let Me and My keys run hither and yon, doing and changing. Stay put and soak yourselves in My Word, build your strength and faith for what is coming. Once this pestilence has passed there will be a break, a respite. It is then that I will send you out again to sow and to reap. This process of resting, sowing and reaping will be your modus operandi for at least the rest of this year and into the next. Follow-up around your home base, don't go too far afield, keep feeding the sheep any way possible. Keep busy feeding yourselves and those around you and those on your contact lists. Things may seem slow to you now, but believe Me a huge storm is brewing and when it sweeps across the world you will want to be ready, you will be so thankful that I gave you this time of respite, this time of strengthening. Please My loves, use it wisely.

Now is a time for prayer, your prayers play a vital role in building the future, yes My dearest ones, your prayers are so powerful, so all encompassing, so vital in laying the ground work of the road ahead. Do not underestimate your prayers. Use this time to learn obedience in the smallest things, the quietest whispers, the checks, the thoughts that need to be prayed through, the dreams, the impressions, anything that comes your way. I have put you exactly where I want you to be, don't look to the right or the left in regards to your housing for you are well positioned. The road to Accra is improving, the journey is shortening. Although this pestilence has knocked over many apple carts and great fear is upon the people, you are protected here from the brunt of the storm. You've established friends here, you've proven yourselves trustworthy and because you have not left or travelled you are somewhat trusted by those around you. So rest, be at peace and trust that this part of your lives is stable enough, considering the circumstances. Nothing is ever perfect in this world; you will remain strangers and pilgrims on this earth for eternity. What I mean is; you have and always will be set apart, different, not part of the world. Even in the millennium you will be set apart from the "people". You will be the invading force, the rulers and although you will love the people and will continue to lay down your lives for them, you are not as they are. You are citizens of the Kingdom of God, joint heirs with Me, My lovers and brides.

So My loves, be faithful to feed your sheep, be faithful to feed yourselves, use every opportunity to draw closer to Me honing your gifts and exercising your weapons. Everything is going as planned, do not be swayed by the opinions of man, always look to Me, always seek My face; believe Me when I say there is great calamity coming, now is not a time of peace, for many people across the globe it is a time of great uncertainty. Whilst the enemy would use it as a time to soften and subjugate those that resist his rule, I use it as a time to soften those that are undecided or unsure of where the truth lies. Pray for these your sheep; some are still not convinced that things will continue to worsen, that the time of the man of sin is at hand. Even those among My children of David are wavering between opinions, trying in their own understanding to perceive the signs they are seeing.

This is a time of faith, it has always been by faith, not by feelings. The keys, prophecy, loving Me intimately, praise, prayer and faith. Look to Me not to anyone else, counsel among yourselves for there is great strength in unity. I love you and keep you ever so close to My side. Stay obedient and this closeness and intimacy will remain with you forever.

April 29, 2020—Accra road trip

Listen to the whispers, be still and know that I am God. I will lead you with My hand, be patient for this takes faith. Don't rush My love, be still and listen. Get a well-rounded synopsis of what is happening in Accra and I will lead you as your research builds a base for the next move of My Spirit. Pray about your tract pool and see if what you are giving out now is what I'm leading you to do.

May 4, 2019—where in the world?

*Do not fear only hear, do not fret only step
I am leading, yours is to follow; the keys will lead if you will hear;
They will lead and you will follow
Come out be separate follow the whispers not the fear
Follow the voice; this is the way walk ye in it
Look not at the world but look in faith
I will use whom I will, what is that to you
The weaker the better, the blinder the faith the clearer the sight*

I am opening a great and effectual door to reach the masses through the means of mass media. Build it and they will come, follow the voice, follow the plan that I lay out through the whispers. Do not think that you can do it, you know you can't you know that I'm the only One.

June 1, 2019—more on Bella

Stay very close to me my sweet one, for I am the watcher sent by the King to guide you through the days ahead. The earth life can be very deceiving; Satan the deceiver has perfected the art of subterfuge, he and his imps are very very good at it and as you can see they have thrown the wool over the eyes of millions and millions in the world as well as many of God's children. Work diligently toward your departure; do not be lulled into the stupor that many have fallen into in that land. The sleepy land of down under is death to those that should not be there. You will return one day but you will not be as you are now. I have power to protect you and to supply for you all that you will need to make the "break" to flee that land. Be sober, be vigilant for your adversary Satan is roaring and not at all happy with you being there, your sample to others is what grieves him. Be careful around your sister, be extra careful around Rory, they are not to be trusted. Love them with the love of Jesus, but do not let your guard down, stay vigilant and keep your activities a close secret, known only to yourself, D&T, Auntie and your parents. Suellen will continue to waver under the influence of Rory and Emily, she will have to make her own way and come to her own conclusions, but pray for her that she may see the light and be drawn toward it. The Word that she is receiving will greatly help her, but she needs your prayers. As for you my dear child of David, press in now, the Penrose stairs you dreamt of go nowhere and will only confuse you and delay you as you go up and down and down and up, there is no way out for those trapped on the stairs in the land down under, her delusions and illusions and mirages are satanic and lead to a dead end life. Listen to me, tune into my whispers, my voice is the one that is calling you out of that land. If you get a "check" in the spirit quickly get a confirmation and then follow, don't hesitate don't think, just listen I will not lead you astray. There are those in that land that would have you stay, to waste away, to fritter your life away as they have. Do not listen to the sirens that tempt you to lay down the sword of the spirit. Be wary of the small nuisances in the spirit, something not quite right, a shift in the spirit, something strange in the behavior of those around you, something they say or do or the way they look at you. Listen to the whispers, do not fear, do not fret just stay in tune I am right beside you directing, guiding and opening the way for your departure. You are in enemy territory and must be on duty 24/7, yes even in your sleep be awake and aware of all that is transpiring around you. Keep your bag packed sweet one, for you are a stranger and pilgrim in both flesh and spirit. All is well for now but be on the lookout for shifts in the spirit. I will keep those around you busy with the affairs of this life, but do not take this as an opportunity to relax and take your time. I cannot hold things in place for long. Everything moves in accordance to the will of the King, so must you.

June 8, 2019—Hamburger Boat

Stop look listen to the whispers and they will lead you to your destiny. Do not look at yourself do not ask what am I to do with such a thing as this. Who am I to speak the Words of David in this manner? Who was David but a potty under the bed to be used of Me as I wished. Do not question the voice do not question the revelations that I give you to speak the Words to this world. Did I not say that one more time, once more would the Words of David fly around the world for all to hear, what is that to thee if I should choose you or some other vessel? All I require is a yielded vessel willing to serve Me in whatever capacity that is required.

Speak it as it is; as I show you for you can do no other, listen to the whispers listen and obey and I will fill the mouth of the prophet for the time draws near for the bones to rise, My army of the end to rise in the might of My power. Listen trust and obey.

June 12, 2020—Video Revelation 17

Put it up, you've come this far by faith. Step out now and follow the whispers, follow the path that your David is leading you in. Yours is not to wonder why, yours is but to do or die. Listen to the Words of David for they are the Words of God and they do not lie. The truth is there for those that would hear and believe. As a piece of the puzzle, this video was assigned its place at this particular point in time, as part of the lock of time. It is one of the keys that must go to its place in the larger key. Remember the words of Puddleglum and follow the fool for Christ's sake. Be as a child for these mysteries were not given to the wise but to the foolish, that they may confound the wise. For none shall glory in their own name, none shall be given understanding of these matters unless they follow the Words of David, for it was to him that I gave the keys of David that the days of the end may be opened. Follow, trust and obey and you will know what was promised in the letter Endtime series part 4. His revelation is close and I would that one of My children of David be the proclaimer to stand as the herald. I have already put it in the hearts of many that Putin is My chosen vessel in which the man of sin is to be manifested. This will encourage many to step out further in what I am personally showing them in their own walk of faith. It will be like a catalyst to those that wonder if I am speaking to them. So be My mouthpiece, be My herald of great and mighty things that are soon to come upon the earth.

Keep your eyes on us, we have the battle plan, Joan shared the first steps to the next stage with you yesterday, believe my dear captain believe, you, yes you who sit at this table of war, for that is what it is. Look around you, this is your war room this is where you plan your strategy, load your ammunition and launch those prayer missiles into the enemy's encampment. You have done well to hone your gift of prophecy, because this single act of obedience has given you great advantage over the enemy. You have thrown out the limited resources of your own mind and the carnal reasoning over man's wisdom and have embraced the supernatural, the very mind of God.

(Stephen s prophecy 24 th June ~ Celeste)

June 20, 2020—Putin and Out Of Memphis

Out of Memphis is a wonderful presentation of what is happening now, the devil is exposed to those that are in the know, others will wonder what it is all about, yet the pure spiritualness of this video will make them wonder and ponder in their minds, what is this all about. It will indeed make them dig not only into the bible for answers but into their hearts for I will move in the hearts of many to seek Me and to seek the meaning of these things that are now coming onto the earth. Well done My dear ones, thank you for listening to the whispers, thank you for fighting on and yielding to My spirit through those around you in the spirit realm.

I have something better for the key part, dig deeper, don't think with your mind but think with the spirit of newness that I have put there. You are a chosen vessel; both you and James are making history. You will be required to build the last two chapters of Revelation, there is work there because no one has gone where you have gone and where I still want to take you in that series.

Let go of gravity, let go of the hold the carnal mind has on you and fly My doves, My ambassadors of peace and well-being, for My spirit is moving within you now as has been declared in many bottles of new wine that were passed by Me to your prophetess Maria. You are chosen and called for such a time as this, now is the time for the revelation. This video will turn the eyes of many to Memphis and to Russia and to the man himself. What is that to thee follow thou Me, listen to Me and be fucked by Me and receive the seeds I have for thee, be as David and drink My golden seeds; for just as Satan is sowing his cum, his poisonous seeds out across this world and into the hearts and minds of his disciples, so I your Bridegroom sow My seeds My cum into the hearts and minds and souls of My own.

June 28, 2020—Bella after two years in Indonesia

Time is not of consequence now, it is simply a time to learn, to watch and learn from the mistakes of others. What you are seeing now sweet love is a couple that didn't want to stay new bottles. This is the sad tale of many in TFI, they were satisfied with the way it had always been done and therefore the bus of My will had passed on. The cost of staying a new bottle is high and they just didn't want to pay that price anymore. However you My dearest young vibrant bride must be there for now, as it is My highest and best. The very act of yielding to My will is in itself a great lesson that all My end time brides must learn. The future My sweet dove is thwart with danger, one misstep then will end in disaster, one unyieldedness to what My whispers are telling you to do will not be good for you or those I have put you over, the ones that will be looking to you for direction. The grades that I am putting you through now are to be taken seriously; your youth is sometimes against you, this is like a birth pang so I know it is painful, I'm right beside My wife; I've implanted My golden seeds within your spiritual womb and you have held this fruit of our union for the duration, it is close to time now and you are feeling frustrated and impatient, you want this thing, this annoyance out and you want to hold it in your lap, the efforts of the past few years.

Cast your mind to when I called you to that country; you will remember that I gave the confirmation to your dad. Hold on to that time and it will help you to know that it was My doing and that I have supported that decision all these years right up to this very point in time. I promise the baby will be born, just stay with it. I have done this so many times with so many of My called out ones, My elite. You are another of My precious jewels that has to pass through the fires of testing. Trust Me My love, stabilize your faith with My Word. You have an abundance of Word that will lift you and comfort you through this time of transition. I, your loving caring Husband, am right at your bedside as you pass through this trial, I'm holding your hand and encouraging you to concentrate on your breathing and I'm telling you right now to focus on the job at hand. This baby has to come out strong and mature; My seeds were well planted and now it is important to finish this course properly so that I will be able to set you free to serve Me having brought this lesson to full term. It's just you and I now in the labour ward, no one else. I am your Husband, doctor and midwife, all others have been chased from the room because it is close very close, the time of birth is so close. Patience My sweet love My young first time mother. The first one is always the longest and hardest to bring forth, this is the one that teaches you many important lessons that you will need for the next one and the one after that and after that. What you do not see so clearly My queen is that you truly are My queen in preparation for your future. This is what I meant at the beginning of our chat when I said time is of no consequence. You see My lover, it is what I'm putting you through all this for, that is what's important. The time it takes is not important really, I know it is to you and I am keeping that in mind, believe Me, I know you don't want this to take forever, and it won't that's for sure. But it will take as long as it needs in preparation for the future, yes the future. Time is coming to a close and I will need strong queens and kings and princes and princesses to help Me rule My Kingdom. The devil has almost shot his wad and then My beautiful queen in training, My queen to be, it will be our turn, but not just a turn, it will be for eternity, once a queen and king of My Kingdom always a queen and king. So the training must be thorough and exact. Please My love don't look so much at now but take hold of the heavenly vision, the world of tomorrow where we will rule and reign over the kingdoms of man and this earth; and then on to other worlds other solar systems and galaxies. Hold on tend well to your lessons, for this one is almost over.

July 03, 2020—Time is at hand

The time has come My love, the signs are falling like dominoes now, each day you can see events that point directly to the hand of the man of sin. His dirty fingerprints are all over the place, in every country on the face of this earth. These new revelations that you are receiving are to be taken with utmost gravity. These days of training are coming to a close, I have told you that I will give you and your team one year; that clock has already begun ticking, do not hesitate, standing at the door, wondering if you hear Me clearly. This is the time of the whispers; this is the time of those still small voices, this is the time of those warriors who hold the secret weapon of prophecy to move out in stealth with their earpieces in place. The time for big announcements is over they will not come; My Word has said that I will come as a thief, and if you are strong in spirit then you will have shored up the defences and prepared for the thief. I tell you My loves, that very same line in Matthew 24 means the man of sin will also come as a thief and if My children are not ready or if they hesitated too long they will be overrun. I say again My dearest precious brides, you have one year left before the things I speak of in the Era of Action will begin. Now is the time for all seriousness, to gather together and move deeper into My spirit. In one year from now you will be very grateful for this talk, very grateful indeed. I've told you and you know that you are sheltered up here in your [Error! Reference source not found.] [Error! Reference source not found.] but I warn you again out of My great and undying love for you, the mountains will not be able to protect you, the devil knows where you are and in time he will send his lackeys to your cosy place of refuge. I don't say this to scare you, but you have had dreams, you know what I speak of here, the time will come when you must flee as a bird to your Mountain. The preparation for these times began some years ago, but now I am giving you a heads-up. Prepare in spirit that is the only defence you will have in the future. It is time to put away the childish things of this life, the carnal ways and move into the spirit. I'm not asking you to be the leader; I'm not telling you that the responsibility of leading this team will fall on your shoulders. What I am telling you now is please prepare yourselves for your part in this war. You must prepare to be the best team member you can be. This is what you are responsible for, this is what you must throw your effort and time into over the next year; My dearest ones I am not bluffing, this is the truth, this is the time I can give you, after that you will have to continue your training on the run. I adjure you to listen and obey, for the time of preparation will end abruptly in less than one year from now. Those who have an ear hear.

*From Maria: There are so many who have been sent strong delusion. This is a dangerous time to reject my truth. The slippery slope is very steep. Those who actually reject my truth in their minds are immediately infiltrated by the enemy's doubts and lies. The enemy makes his thoughts seem so reasonable and they appeal to the carnal mind. But what people forget is that the carnal mind is enmity against Me. So those who listen to it will drift away from Me and lose sight of the true reality. This is happening in the world at a rapid rate, but it is an attack that the enemy tries on you and your children as well. So you have a double battle. You must fight to wake up those out in the world and you must also fight to keep a hold of that heavenly vision. The enemy is so tricky, he attacks at the very foundation and source of strength -My Word. He knows if he can get you to neglect the Word, then his job will be easy. Your defences will be down and you will be wide open to his attacks. You are doing well to expose this attack. When you bring it into the open, then everyone sees that it is an attack, not simply something that is happening to them alone. Your openness and unity will become a great strength and will foil many attacks before they can do too much damage.*

July 21, 2019—don't doubt

My love, my sweet love, don't doubt the spirit, don't doubt the whispers and the revelations that are coming down the pipe to you and your loved ones. We are here as real as ever, more real than your flesh and the things of that temporal world you now walk in. Soon enough will it pass away never to be seen again, soon enough will you walk again in heavenly places with me and with those that you have loved on earth. Hold on my precious general, hold on with all that is in you, let not the satan steal your crown, don't let him take away your Halloween wheel. Take my hand and let's walk in the garden of love now, close your eyes in the spirit and let's walk through the mist and into the reality of heaven. It is truly beautiful here, beyond compare to anything you have seen during your stay on earth, there are of course cheap copies, counterfeits but nothing like the real thing. There is an emptiness there, a sadness that thousands of years of sin and suffering have indelibly stamped upon the once glorious creation of God. It is not like that here of course, there is a cleanness, a freshness that only the presence of our loving Husband is able to bring into a place. Love is everywhere, you feel it in the air you see it in others faces, you see the trees and the water and the animals and the grass emanate the love of God, it's part of them and they are part of it. Oh general I wish I had the words to describe the feeling I get when I awake in the morning or to a new day knowing that I am in such a place as this. The world is so very sad and so very lost, please keep up your chin, and don't be downcast and forlorn. There are many victories ahead and many many battles yet to go. You and your children will be called upon to do great exploits and many wondrous miracles will follow you as you follow the King. I cannot begin to describe the glories you will walk into when it is finally your time to enter the eternal Kingdom of God, our heavenly city of love. Do not worry about the sins and weights of days gone by, don't allow them to assail you, let them go as our loving Husband has let them go, of course you will feel bad for the mistakes and unloving deeds done in the flesh, but everyone has to go through such things on their return. But by then the ones you will have to apologize to will also have gone through such things and the playing field will be equalled and everyone will be more than understanding, everyone will just be grateful for being in such a place as heaven, just to be here is so overwhelming for those that first enter the gates after having been on earth for a lifetime. So don't worry about passing through the fire, you have passed through many fires and always come out the other side better and more learned and wiser for the experience. Look at it this way, it will be simply another test another time to learn the lessons you so desired when you were weighing up the pros and cons of coming to earth to serve in the armies of heaven in the temporal zone. However my love, the rewards will be different, very different, out of a life spent in service to the King many varied and fabulously indescribable rewards will be yours, and in this area there is no comparison to many who enter this place. This is where you will shine like the stars, in fact many stars and not just temporally, like those do on earth who serve the wicked one, but because you are serving the King of kings, your rewards are eternal and so you will shine as the stars for ever and ever.

August 03, 2019--guy

Put your hand into the hand of God and He will be more to thee than a light and better than an known way, for I am the Lord the God of all flesh, is there anything too hard for Me? The just shall live by faith, but if any man draw back My soul shall have no pleasure in him. Can you leave this decision in My hands? Are you able to trust Me at this time in your life as you have trusted Me up until this point? You stand at a cross-road; will you walk with Me now as you have walked with Me these many years, trusting that I know best? Will you trust Me as Job did? "Thou He slay Me yet will I trust in Him!" Listen to the whispers, the still small voice, and I will show thee the path ahead, for I am the bright and morning star, the light to your path and the lamp to your feet in this time of seeming darkness. The road ahead is not one to fear but to rejoice in, knowing that I have walked the path you now walk on, I your Lord and Saviour know the way through the wilderness that surrounds you. I love you, you are mine and I am yours, I hold you in My arms right now, I whisper in your ear and to your heart, just be still and listen to My Words of comfort; peace be still My beloved. My light is all around you, you are compassed about by such a great cloud of witnesses. I will lead you on a plain path, trust and obey what you hear in the night season, when all is quiet and My voice can be heard so loud and clear in your heart. For I wish for you to be a testimony of faith in this seeming hour of darkness.

September 26, 2019—Rosie's prophecy

Continue to work toward the creation of this prophecy; it is My will for it to go up. I will indeed show you the time to make it public. Be not faithless only believe. Trust that I do all things well, go at My pace and in My time. I love how you follow closely attuning your actions to My still small voice, moving according to all that I am showing you through the words of My prophets. Come to Me again when the video is ready for uploading and I will show you plainly My overall will in this matter of timing. I love you, keep your ears always listening always open to the whispers. I love you.

October 12, 2019—Jesus my lover heal me

I love you My dearest bride and lover, I want you healed more than you do, can you believe that? I will heal you at just the right time, just when you will appreciate it the most. I am fulfilling My highest will in your life, but not just for your benefit, but for the benefit of many others. There is a big ministry coming in the end of days, you and others like you will be called upon to heal the sick and to comfort the lost and lonely. To be a healer you have to learn how to be healed, your faith is a key factor in the healing process, and this is learnt through trials and tests and patience. Yes I can and will do miracles for some people, but at the moment it is not yet My time, now is the time to learn to trust Me, to have faith that I am beside you and in My good time I will wave My magic wand of love and healing over your tired old body and give it an upgrade. So stay faithful, stay close to Me, listening to My whispers and I will tell you exactly what to do and when to do it. I love you sweet heart.

October 18, 2019—Forsake-all in flesh but never in spirit

You have to trust that I know what is best for all your sakes. Just relax and let Me lead. The surest thing you have is that you are married to Me first, that your love relationship is with Me and we together make a four-fold cord, and if I'm the One that has bound your three-fold cord then it is unbreakable, if, and only if, you keep your eyes and hearts and minds and souls tightly wrapped around Me. In doing this you will be seaworthy and able to endure any and all storms life the devil sends your way. So look to Me My loves, do any repairs or adjustments to the tackle that I show you to do and what I don't show you to do then trust that I am the Captain of your little bark and that I have My all-seeing eye on every little plank and nail and rope and all the tackle and equipment. I see the small potential leaks and cracks and I see the sea worthiness of the vessel and I will necessitate any fix-it jobs that I deem vital to our making the journey across the end time sea.

More....keep your eyes stayed on Me, put all thoughts of the world and the ways of man aside, look unto Me the Author and finisher of your faith. It is faith in Me that saves; nothing and no one can come between Me and My Word; which means that anything I show you will come to pass if you are faithful to believe and step out in faith. If you are faithful to listen to My whispers, faithful to obey what I show you then I will infuse you with faith for whatever I ask you to do, because you will know that it is out of love that I ask you to walk this way or that way, it is out of love that I point toward the unconventional way, the way that does not jive with the thoughts and understanding of man. This is the way walk ye in it, be not dismayed at the way the world is going, the path that man is taking is dark and can only end in his demise. You must adjust your thinking to the way the world is going, use the system but don't let it use you. Think it not strange concerning the trial by fire that you see up ahead, that your carnal mind says can't be done, but look to Me and believe that I do all things well. Believe that I would not do this thing unless I had a plan, unless I had not gone on ahead of you to scope out the best and safest path for your family. The days that you are entering are unprecedented; they are like none this world has ever seen, they are days that can only be travelled through by blind faith in Me and My Word. The gift of prophecy will be the only means of travel, you must walk by faith and not by sight, there is no other way, and that means now. The world is very unstable; the powers that be are bent on controlling all peoples everywhere. The choices given to the people of this world by these powers are growing less and less; the funnel is growing narrower by the day; the day is fast approaching where you will have to step out into thin air, cut off the branch and let it fall; I will be there as always, to catch you, so fear not you will not fall, it is absolutely impossible for you to fall because I am here right under you and around you and in you. You are My vessel, one of the very few who are yielded fully to My will. I cannot let you fall, for in so doing My plan will fail, and nothing and no one can defeat the plan and will of God. So step out now My dearest loves, My beloved brides of the end, step out and believe that all things will work together for your good and for the good of the Kingdom.

December 16, 2019—Christmas prophecy

What a fighter and a lover...you are Mine, My own, our hearts are one. Thank you for giving your all to Me this year dearest Lisa. I know it's costing you everything you've held dear My precious love; yes one by one I have taken them away and replaced them with profound and often unseen treasures of the heart. These are the true treasures that will never ever be taken away from you. They are enduring My lover; listen to My whispers now, close the eyes of your spirit and listen to your King. I am turning you into a second Lisa...a true fighting bride. Your rewards are stacking up...although I know they do not mean anything to you when compared to your real desire...that of loving Me intimately and being My forever bride. Nonetheless you will receive them from My hand because I am your King and doting Husband and want only to spoil you and treat you royally, which I will when you finally enter My Kingdom for the last time; on your day of coronation.

(END OF PERSONAL PROPHECIES .)