Your Grace

8th SEPTEMBER, 2021

For when we are weak, then are we strong, & His strength is made perfect in our weakness, for His grace is sufficient for thee! (2Co.12:9, 10.)

&

(Jesus:) I'm not ever going to give one of My brides more than they can bear. For every trial or cross, there is going to be grace enough, and strength provided by Me, for that person to be able to handle it. That's a core element of your faith in Me, and part of our contract. When you agree to serve Me, I don't promise you an easy life, but I do promise that it won't ever be too much for you, and that when the going is roughest, I will help carry you through it.

You need to believe that I won't overtax your strength or ask more of you than you can give.

The days are coming when more is going to be asked of everyone and there will be heavier crosses to bear.

That person might really be going through it, barely staying above water, yet I'll be there with them. I'll be working with them, helping them--even if they're only an inch above the surface, I'm there, providing for them and helping them to stay afloat just enough to fight through and win the victory.

When you feel like you're in over your head, call on the power of the keys and watch them go to work on your behalf to improve your situation.

But a lot of times My presence and how I'm helping isn't always obvious even to the person most affected, much less to the bystanders. Sometimes you can see the effect that My peace and strength has on the demeanor of an individual, but not always. Sometimes it's just in their heart and mind that I'm communing with them and quietly strengthening them.

&

PSA.61:1 From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

PSA.61:2 Truly my soul waiteth upon God: from him cometh my salvation. He only is my rock and my salvation; he is my defence; I shall not be greatly moved.

&

(Jesus:)I call you to be moved with compassion, but not moved from steadfastly looking to Me and trusting in My love and infinite wisdom. I call each of you, My Endtime brides, to come up to that higher ground where you cannot be moved. That ground is found only in Me--your Rock of Ages.

(Jesus:) Your faith in Me has to be rock solid. That's why your faith is being tested right now, and that is why, for many of you, I'm bringing you to the limits of your faith so that you can see where you believe and where you don't believe, so that you'll see and understand your weakness and where you need to be strengthened.

Don't worry if you are having a crisis of faith now, because even that has been brought on by Me for this very purpose of allowing you the time to strengthen your faith where it is weak now, so that you will once again know that you stand upon a sure foundation that cannot be moved. That's the purpose of the tests. That's the particular purpose of this trial you are going through now.

And they remembered that God was their rock, and the high God their redeemer. --PSA.78:35

I want you to understand the parts where you don't quite believe in Me. I want you to see clearly what parts of your attitude contain skepticism, whether it be about Me, about prophecy, about loving Me, about the Endtime, about whatever it is that you are weak in now. That part of your faith is what I need to help you strengthen, so that it won't bother you in the future when all that you have is faith--strong faith in Me that whatever I do I do in love, and that I am in control.

8th September, 2021(Prophecy) We are in the palm of our dear Lover's hand. He loves us like a friend, a bosom buddy, His precious wife and is always watching out for us. When you wonder and doubt His ways, He is so kind to be working on your heart to massage those tough parts to open your spiritual eyes for you to see He's wishing to bestow great faith on you. His intentions are always full of pure unadulterated love and longing for you and your well-being and growth and to help your heart's desire, that sometimes He knows better than you; that you want to please Him, that you want with all your being to be learning and comprehending the aspects that you came to the earth for in the first place. What seems to you a stone, so many times, is really something so much greater, higher than your puny carnal mind can fathom. You can be slow of wit at times to catch the essence of His point. But, He is good and He is kind and is so incredibly patient. For His wish is to bestow His grace on you. With each test, He's hoping to strengthen your fortitude. He cuts deep at times. It can be excruciatingly painful. But our Lover, even though it makes Him grimace for your pain and shed tears of empathy for you, He does it because He knows the fruit being brought forth; that the fiery furnace and it's flames are burning out the dross.

If your focus is not centered on Him, then you will fall. You will struggle and it becomes a heavy yoke around your neck. It's not His intention for you to carry it; you took it on yourself. But, He allows it so that, yes, you do feel the weight of it. He must teach you the difference and He must teach you that, you just cannot, should not, look at your circumstances. Remember that you are an Elite, Warrior Band soldier; so much more is required of you than the normal foot soldier. And if the footmen tire you, how will you handle the days that are soon coming upon you. It won't be time to be whining about the things that annoy you, or that you don't have or wishing for something better and the "if only, I'd be happier" mindset. So He works on you, so you'll take the yoke off and realize, you never needed to wear it and give it to Him. When you keep giving Him your cares, even intimate desires of your heart in trust and faith, because He asks it of you, eventually you "see" how He's helping you to take off yet another layer that you've been wearing that has been coming between you and some of these deep deep fiery trials cause a spiritual awakening. You start to get it, what He's trying to do and that is- fully possess you, so you will have the grace, His grace to face anything on the road up ahead. It's all about His love for you. He's preparing you for the Grasshopper! It is coming and soon! Trust in His ways, stay close to Him like you never have before. Nothing else matters. And he will give you His grace exactly when you need it. (End of Prophecy)

&

It's like, "If the footmen weary you, what will you do when the horsemen come?" (Jer.12:5). Now I am not demeaning you or taunting you. It's simply that I know you and I want you to understand where you might have any cracks or weaknesses in your faith. I want you to work on these by feeding deeply from My Word as well as meditating on Me and communing with Me, and using the weapon of praise to overcome, so that your faith is renewed and strengthened to the point it should be. If your faith is doing fine, that's wonderful. But in many cases it's time to strengthen your faith, and so I allow you to be tested in those potentially weak areas so that you can strengthen them.

In the time to come you will be called upon to be a wielder of strong faith, and when the faith of others runs out, you will be able to hold them up and replenish their faith. You will be the ones, My loves, who carry them across the sand during those times. I have carried you, and in those times you will help to carry others. You will be My representatives in the flesh, and in the times when the faith of the weary, the distraught, the worn, the abused, the misused, the misunderstood, the tortured, the frail and the weak runs out, then it will be you upon whom they cast themselves and around whose necks they throw their arms to hang on for dear life.

It will be you who help to pick them up and carry them across these places where their faith didn't reach. It will be you whose faith lasts through the heat of the day.

It will be you whose faith is fresh and renewed day by day and whose faith is an unquenchable stream of living water in those days.

I will be counting on you, My loves, to be literal representatives of Me, whose faith is not only alive and well but gushing forth in the midst of the wicked, crooked, and perverse manifestations of the Devil's evil and wickedness in those days.

It will be you who walk through the Great Tribulation and who do not faint, but whose faith is renewed every morning and whom I can flow through to the needy, the weary and the worn-out.

It will be you who carry My very Spirit to them and who walk amongst them with your eyes on Me, knowing, absolutely knowing, that I never fail and that I won't fail them in even this, the most trying time of their lives.

It will be you who give them the faith to keep going, who teach them to renew their faith, who encourage them in it, and whose faith kindles theirs into a flame of fire that brings them back to life in the spirit. It is you who I am counting on, and who will not fail but who will walk with Me through Great Tribulation and through times that would try men's souls.

It is you whom I've chosen, because you are the strongest amongst My children upon the Earth, and therefore it is you whom I am calling to this training and testing time to strengthen your faith, to renew it, to practice it, to bring it to where it needs to be for the times that are coming.

For darkness will cover the Earth, and great darkness the people of the Earth, but My light shall arise upon you and My glory shall be seen upon you, My loves, My dears, you who have stuck closely to Me and through whom I will manifest My very Self in the midst of gross darkness upon the Earth.

You will be My shining lights, those whom I can count upon, those who have not left Me to lie in the bed of other lovers, but who are My true brides and who stay faithful--that is, full of faith--even through the darkest of times, to bring My light upon the weary and worn and hungry. It is you, My loves. You are My called-out ones, called out of the system of darkness for this very purpose, to lead My loved ones and My children in a very dark time.

So strengthen your faith! Find out where its borders are now, and expand them greatly. Follow Me in faith, say yes to Me in faith, hold not back through lack of faith, and I will see to it that we cross those spiritual lands and circumstances that will strengthen you, that will enhance your faith.

All the land that you claim by faith in the spirit is yours. In other words, as far as your eyes can see in the spirit, across any circumstance that you encounter, I want your faith to encompass that and even more, so that you will always have that foundation of faith under your feet no matter what circumstances you encounter.

Strengthen your faith. You are called and chosen. You are My faithful ones whom I am counting on to be the supporters of the weak and the ones who will carry them through. And no matter how strong you think you are, you will not be strong enough for that task in yourself. It must be your faith in Me, your trust in Me, your dependence on Me that is strong. Then I will be able to use you to do far more than you could have ever dreamed of.

&

(Jesus:). When all you see is the fact that I allowed it, then your faith is sure and your heart is encouraged and your spirit is refreshed--because you know that I only allow that which is good in your life. When you have faith in the "Who," then you don't need to worry about the "Why."

&

(Prophecy) Lift up your eyes, My love. Let go of what you actually see in the flesh, because that is not true reality that is just a scenario that I am using for you to take the opportunity to see beyond to what it's really all about. It's so much deeper and even more simple than the carnal mind concocts. There are basic spiritual concepts that I'm wishing for you to see. But you don't and won't until you see through, till you step up and into the Heavenly realm and out of the one you're in. There is something more. Something beyond. It seems out of reach and until you adjust the lenses of your eyesight, you don't even see that there even is something more. It's like a brand new discovery; something that was right in front of you all the time morphs and takes on a new shape or form. It's astonishing to you! Astonishing and laughable, because you find it amazing you never saw it before now. All you did was lift your 'eyesight' a degree and adjusted the focus of your lens and wow! Another world! And it makes perfect sense! Where have I been all this time you say? It's sobering because you wonder how much else have you missed. But no matter My love, everything in its time. You are a work in progress. Now be on the lookout for My perspective. Look up! (End of prophecy)

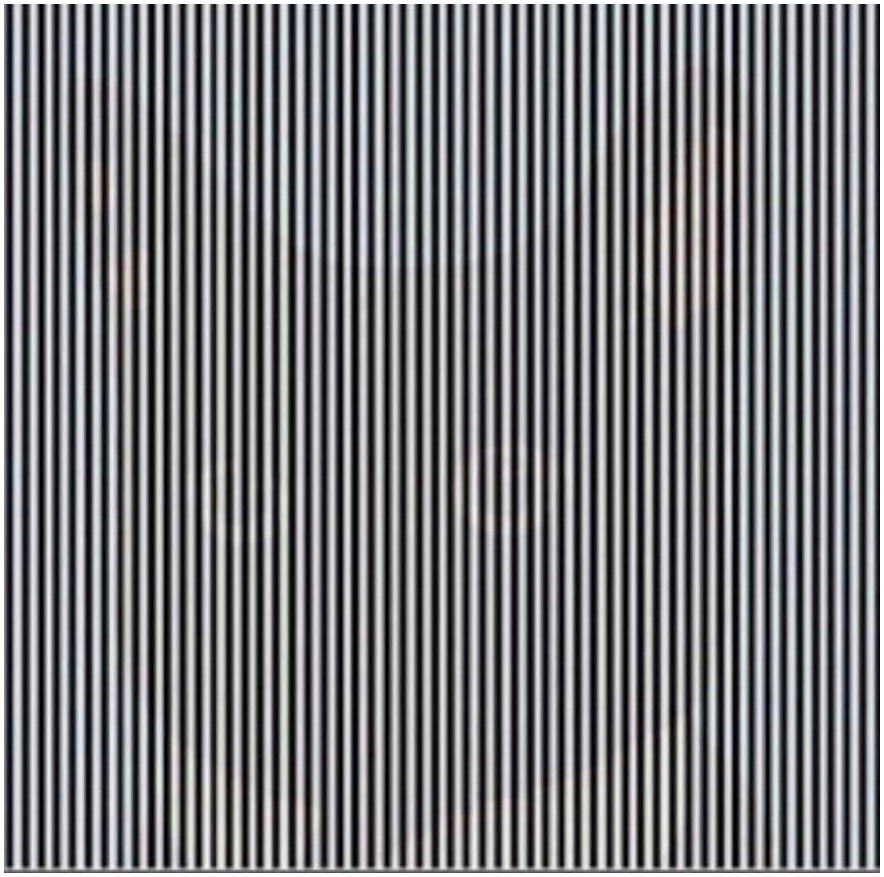

&

JOB.42:5 I have heard of thee by the hearing of the ear: but now mine eye seeth thee.

&

The keys will lock and bind your carnal reasoning and unleash to you the gifts of faith, simplicity and spiritual understanding.

Do you see it?

☺

Ephesians 3:19 And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God.

&

(Jesus:) Remember that when I am moving and working in someone's life, it's always in love and always for the better in some way. It's easy for the natural eye to get distracted by the manner and way in which I choose to work sometimes. But I want you to lift your eyes above the natural, above conditions and circumstances, and look to Me. There you will find truth. There you will find purpose. There you will find love.

&

(Jesus:) While I care for your needs and your earthly forms as My dearest loves, your spirit is of greater importance to Me. Soon your earthen frames will pass away, as will all the things of this Earth. So take care to lift your eyes above the natural--even if that means looking above the trying circumstances and conditions surrounding you or your loved ones. Rest your eyes on Me, for only in looking to Me will you find the grace and the faith needed to rise above.

As you look up, you'll find that your perspective will change, because you will be stepping back from the trees and seeing the forest. What is truly important will come into focus, and that which is temporal will fade.

This is when you will have the ability and the fortitude to lead others. This is when you will have the kind of faith and trust that, though you or even your loved ones are called to walk through the valley of the shadow of death, you will fear no evil, because I will be with you. Your faith will be grounded firmly in Me, the Light and Love of your life.

(Jesus:) The greatest strength you can manifest, and the greatest blessing you can give to others, is quiet faith and trust in Me.

(above quotes from Gold, Roses, And Thorns! [#3639])

HEB.4:16 Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

(Jesus:) Praise and prayer afford you instant access to My realm, helping you to see things through My eyes. Circumstances and conditions will at times test all of your natural senses, but through praise and prayer you will be given the faith, courage and trust to navigate those times and conditions with your eyes firmly fixed on Me.

*

(Jesus:) As you pray, you will be given My mind. As you choose to lean not to your own understanding or even to your own natural feelings, you will be given My perspective and My supernatural insight and wisdom. (Gold, Roses, And Thorns! [#3639])

You are the Inspector of my soul. You have much patience, much grace, and much understanding when You do Your "inspection" and find that sometimes things are not as they should be. You love me no matter what condition You find me in.

Thank You for Your proddings, Your questioning of some of the things that You find during Your inspections. You help me to clear out the junk, get rid of old baggage, clean out the cobwebs, and air out the rooms that have become stale and stagnant.

You don't just stand around watching me do all of the work, but You get right in there with me, guiding me, giving me instruction, and helping to carry away the load of cares and burdens that seem to have found their way into the corners and cupboards of my soul. You even bring to light long-forgotten items that should have been put in the trash ages ago, or things that You had told me to get rid of but that I had held onto "just in case" I ever needed them again. Thank You for not getting upset with me when You find that I haven't obeyed and gotten rid of things as quickly or as readily as You've told me to.

Thank You for so patiently seeing me through these inspection times, even though I sometimes balk and argue with You. Thank You for loving me with such unconditional love! I love You, Jesus!

(To Jesus with Love 2:14)

&

Please give me supernatural grace to fight! Make me more of a fighter!

&

Dad said that we just don't understand the power and value of yieldedness. Once we've yielded, then the change has been made in our spirit. The laying down of ourselves, our pride, our willfulness, our determination to have it our own way, brings a change in our spirit and a change in the spirit world as well. We're then able to avail ourselves of not only Your power, but also the power of the ministering spirits that You will release to help and strengthen us. We will then find it easier to resist the Enemy's lies and temptations to fall back into our old reactions, old ways of seeing things, old ways of relating to people and circumstances.

Our yieldedness not only brings a change in us, in our spirit, but it brings a change in the spirit world. Our choices affect the spiritual battles being waged. Our choices, meaning our yieldedness, affect the power the Enemy has to cause us trouble.

Of course, even after yielding we can still have battles, but the yieldedness is what gives us power to fight those battles. It gives us power to progress. So after yielding, with each battle we become stronger, and the power of the Enemy to influence our thoughts and actions is weakened. It's the yieldedness that brings Your power into our life to progress. And slowly but surely, through the battles that we face after our moment of yieldedness and our laying our all on the altar, we become stronger. But there's a definite change in our heart and mind and spirit, and in the battle going on in the spirit world, in the moment that we yield.

(Your Open Heart Prayer to the Lord! [#3163])

&

2Corinthians 3:5 Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think anything as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God;

&

There will always be too much to do.

I knew I had to be led of the Spirit, I had to listen to My Father, because time was short and I needed to make the very most of the time I had.

Each time I asked My Father about what reaction I should have, in the majority of cases His response was "love," which always proved to be the greater wisdom.

Through reacting the way I did, I proved to be the more powerful one. I showed them that I was above their attacks. I showed them that their words couldn't affect Me or harm Me, because I had a greater power than they did.

You, too, can have the very same tact and wisdom that I had when on Earth. In fact, you can have it in even greater abundance--through the keys! Call on the keys for My spirit of tact and wisdom to empower your words, to enlighten your mind, and to show you just how and what to say.

(Jesus' Life On Earth, Part 3 [#3561])

&

Romans 11:6 But if it is by grace, it is no longer on the basis of works; otherwise grace would no longer be grace.

&

Therefore you have only to stand steadfast and know that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory that I will reveal in you (Romans 8:18). This is the strong consolation that I give to My children--that should you suffer for My Name's sake, you will also receive great grace and glory to endure hardness, for I will keep you in your hour of need with the power of Heaven, and you will be crowned with glory and honor!

(Jesus' Life On Earth, Part 3 [#3561])

&

I will do it if you will ask. The first step is yours to take, though. I can't work the miracle, the down pouring of My Spirit to give you the grace for the difficulties, unless you desire it, unless you cry out to Me with desperation of heart and free yourself from the mindset that you must conquer on your own. The keys of the Kingdom are not activated until you call for them by name. If you do your part, I will reach through the tempest and save you from the water. I will hold you in My hand, and though still surrounded by the storm, I will keep you covered and protected and more than able to see the storm through.

Your main pitfall is when it comes to finding your strength in Me. You want to, because you hear that it's what gives you the means to survive life's hardships, but actually seeing it come about for you is something that remains hazy and unrealistic. Your mindset is the key here. You've grown accustomed to the way you perceive certain things, and to develop any other mind pattern just doesn't come naturally. But that doesn't mean that it's impossible. All things are possible, and if you're willing, then I am more than able to demonstrate the working miracle of rising above in your life.

Your first step is to call out to Me earnestly, realizing your insufficiency, and instead relying on Me totally. This doesn't mean that you will then turn around and attempt it on your own; it means that you will take note of your weakness without Me and then allow Me to pour down My Spirit so fully upon you that it will be My Spirit and power that will run through your veins-no longer you, just Me. Isn't that what you always wanted? Well, it's yours! (End of message from Jesus.)

(Rising Above:162,164,165)

&

John 15:5 I am the vine , ye are the branches. As the vine abides in Me and I in Him, ye shall bear much fruit, for without Me you can do nothing.

&

"And as to what will happen to you, Ahran, that also I cannot say. Although I have rested my entire days in the grace of our God, He has never brought me to a place that was not better than the last, nor required anything of me that did not in the end yield good and wholesome fruit."

(Abraham - Two Tests and a Wish [#010])

2Cor.9:8 And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that having all sufficiency in all things at all times, you may abound in every good work.

Terah, an elder who was noted for his habit of listening rather than speaking, interrupted the silence. "It does appear that God has given us our sign, and a more persuasive one than any of us would have imagined. For was not the silent fear running through the camp as a small fox the ponderance of Jeriah's peace and prosperity? Was it not the notion that God minded not their disobedience?

"For even I, who sat still in my tent last night, putting my young ones in bed, telling them tales of God's great doings, heard the rumblings which shook the entire camp, though the hour was late. I had heard nothing of Loshur's insurgence, yet within a short while, I too heard of the fears and concerns, which all seemed to have taken to their heart, as if it were hidden within the air that we breathe.

"This is the sign, my fellow counselors, at least I am sure of it. For it clearly states the mind of God on those who turn their back from His will, when they know to do good and do it not--in earnest. What say you, Abraham? These be only my words; has the voice of the Lord spoken on this matter?"

"Terah, it is good to hear your words," I answered, trying to remember the last time he had spoken his mind at such length. "Great wisdom has been stored within you from all your years of observation and listening," I remarked, and then continued.

"In truth, I have not yet this morning heard the voice of the Lord. I had barely awoken when the news was relayed to me, and I came here at once. I am certain that God will speak when I quiet myself, and it would do us all good to observe an hour of affinity with our Maker, for today is a great day, I need not remind you.

"In answer to your musings, Terah, I do believe that this is the promised sign from the Lord. We must make it known to all, that they may stand in awe before our God, and find within themselves renewed fervor to take the next step--whatever that may be."

"If I may … " Irad ventured forth, "make no mistaking that I do believe this to be a sign--truly a great and terrible one--yet it will surely be noted that our God promised our sign to be delivered by the yesterday's even, which is now quite passed. How are we to respond to this?" he asked, directing his question toward me.

"Ah, it is but a beauty of God's workings," Eliezer filled the silence, "for the sign was indeed delivered unto us last night, but we were all fast asleep. Joram and his company arrived at camp before the late even had passed into morn. Though unbeknownst to him, the sign was brought unto us by his return."

Though grieved by the news, and the loss of Jeriah's life, I marveled at the ever-constant faithfulness of our God. Then I recalled the Words of the Lord to me, that I should not see Jeriah's face again. I did not suppose at that time that I would be seeing the others who had gone with him again either. Truly, every one of Your Words are fulfilled, my God. I said inwardly.

"Can you not clearly see the hand of the Lord in having one who was ignorant of all the camp's turmoil to have stumbled upon Naboth?" I put forth. "Joram had no judgements of his own to put forth. As our God is good and merciful, so was Joram, caring for Naboth as a brother--without personal anger or vengefulness."

"And may we nevermore doubt the words of our God, for when He promises a sign at a given hour, it will most certainly come. He has until this day never failed to keep His Word. We must also prepare to bring in the rest of Jeriah's company; those who would return in meekness are welcome. A team must be assembled to manage this regrouping." I paused. "And I must now go to ask God for forgiveness, for I did trouble myself with thoughts of His sign not appearing, and I must now repent," I confessed before all. Many elders hung their heads and resolved to do the same, for they too, had endured a night of unnecessary concern.

The camp would be summoned for our morning gathering, as had been customary for the last day or so, at which time we would explain in full the news of Jeriah's camp. Meanwhile, I headed to the tent of prayer, to request the mercies of my God.

As always, God rewarded the humility of my heart, and blessed me with the garment of peace and restfulness. As I sat, with all my attentions directed toward God's wishes, He gave me the understanding of His workings.

But why could I not see it before? I wondered. Miracles as great as those which are to come in the days ahead require great measures of faith. God has been testing our reliance upon Him. He has allowed us to see that we have fallen short, as weak and faithless men when we do not see with our natural eyes the manifestation to that which He has promised. Yet He has in truth answered as He has promised, and we must set our belief upon this principle, regardless of whether or not our eyes bear witness to this. In time, we will see the manifestation, as surely as the sun will rise each morn and set each even.

With this purpose set resolutely in my heart, I stood before our entire congregation and, with a burning passion in my heart, passed on this message to them. And as we all witnessed, God's promise of a sign had not been solely a display of His power, to show His children how far His mighty arm can stretch, but rather it was a personal act, that touched the heart of each man and woman sitting before me that day. I saw a little bit of that burning flame in my heart extend to each of them.

(Abraham - Two Tests and a Wish [#010])

&

"Thank you," I said. "I must retire to ponder all these matters." Korel nodded and we both left the tent.

I sat down before reaching my tent, and the thoughts began rushing through my mind. Why is it that I am being told everything by those around me? Should You not be the One to reveal these things unto me? Perhaps age is dulling my senses, and I can no longer hear the Voice of my God as clearly, therefore He must use the words of those about me to instruct me as to the next course of action.

But God proved me wrong. Abraham! Can you hear these, My Words? Can you hear this, My Voice?

"I can, my Lord, my God," I replied.

Then it is not your senses growing dim, but rather the working of My choosing. You are incapable of sustaining all your people during this time. You are in need of your counselors, your helpers, even those who are but visitors to your camp. I do speak My Words through them also, that you may have greater assistance, and that you may have the presence of My Spirit and counsel even when you are not able to be quiet and alone before Me. Therefore give thanks unto Me, rather than be dismayed, the Voice chided.

"Yes, my Lord. I am but a foolish man. I do give honor and thanks unto You for Your workings.

(Abraham - Two Tests and a Wish [#010])

&

JAM.4:6 But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

&

Help them just to fix their eyes on You and look full in Your wonderful face so that these things of earth will grow strangely dim in the light of Your glory and grace. Give them great grace, great faith, great comfort. Help them to trust You with all of their hearts, in Jesus' name.

(Let Jesus Bear the Weight! [#2987])

&

(Prophecy, the Apostle Paul speaking:) "In my time on Earth I saw many afflictions. For I was shipwrecked at sea and spent a day in the water. I saw the high waves crashing all around and it was very frightening. And I was not delivered out of it but I was kept through it. I was beaten and I was stoned and I suffered sickness.

"Many times I felt so discouraged that I felt like giving up, but I knew I had to keep going, that I was called and commissioned to spread the gospel far and wide. And had I given up, others would have taken the crown, but it would have taken much more time, for I was the instrument, the vessel that was chosen to do the task that was set before me.

"But I saw much hardship and many times I felt defeated physically, mentally and spiritually, and tired. And at times I would think, `I've endured so much, and I'm so tired.' But I knew I could not give up, for I knew there was a great crown of righteousness laid up for me. And I knew that others expected it of me, and that if I had laid down my righteous crown, it would have stumbled many.

"And so in my defeat, in my discouragement and in my despair I carried on faithfully. And as I did, these things came to pass, and I was brought through them. The storms did not always end when I wished them to. I had to go through the beatings and the stonings, but the Lord always gave me the grace, and afterwards comforted me and healed me and kept me and rewarded me.

"And though I went through these things, I had so many highlights and wonderful things that the Lord did for me and used me to accomplish. And when you compare the fruit of my life to the sufferings, there is no comparison. For Satan buffeted me and tempted me and discouraged me, and tried to defeat me; yea, he tried to kill me. But our Lord kept me and protected me, even through the storm, and even through the beating, and even through the stoning, and even through the persecutions, and even through the discouragement. He did not deliver me from these things, but He kept me through them.

"And what of the martyrs of all ages? They were not delivered out of their afflictions, they were kept through them and they were delivered unto their heavenly reward. And there are those who have suffered imprisonment year after year after year. They were not delivered out of these things, but they were kept through them.

"So when the storms come and beat high upon your ship, and it seems as if your vessel is breaking into pieces, trust. And even if your ship does break into pieces and you are cast into the waters and the waves are overwhelming you, trust. And if the stones of persecution are being cast at you, trust. And if the scourging of the Enemy's lies is being meted unto you, trust. For our Lord is always there, and He does not suffer you to be tempted above that which you are able to bear, but He makes a way to escape.--Not always to escape from the affliction or the battle or the test, but you can escape through trusting.

"Hold fast that which thou hast, let no man, no, not even Satan steal that which thou hast, the crown of glory that is given unto thee. Hold it fast. Hold it through the storm. Hold it through the flood. Hold it through the fire. For there is laid up for you that are faithful, you that are trusting, an exceeding great reward.

"There are many, many, many here that died trusting, and theirs is an exceeding great reward. And there are many, many, many here that have endured, and theirs, too, is equally a great reward.

"So do not let go. Hold fast that crown, that crown of joy, that crown of life, that crown of service, that crown of reward. Set it not down. Hold it. For I can say it is well worth it to hold on through all the depths, for when you do, you have great reward there upon the earth, and abundant great reward here in the heavenlies. For we are watching and we are helping, but it is you that must make the choice.

"And once you choose to hold on, then we can spring into action and help even more. But you must choose, you must take the step of faith, that is for you alone to choose. So be not fearful to undergo whatever it is that is sent your way--your testings, your trials, your purgings. But know that He is faithful to keep you in all your tribulations, and through your tribulations and beyond your tribulations." (End of prophecy.)

(Let Jesus Bear the Weight! [#2987:91-101])

&

Philippians 4:13 I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.

&

EPH.3:16 That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man;

EPH.3:17 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love,

EPH.3:18 May be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height;

EPH.3:19 And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God.

EPH.3:20 Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us,

EPH.3:21 Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

&

(Prophecy)If you will trust Me for all things, if you will not falter but wield that keys of All-knowing love so that you always look at what's happening through My eyes, this will deepen your faith incredibly and it's what I'm honing in on right now, to where you know, just know and that I will give you the grace for whatever you will face. So humble thyself under the mighty hand of God and in due season he shall exalt thee. Even if that is in our World without end; if you will accept My grace now, then you will sit with Me, My love. If you will always look full in My face and abandon all your wants, wishes and desires and take on only Mine, only what I want; if when things look bad you stand steady because you know I am there with you, then, I will dance for you My darling, I will fall upon My knees, I will hold you up before all and say this is My beloved Bride who gave all for Me and My Kingdom. I will twirl you round and lift you up; I will take you into My bosom and embrace you long and lovingly. I will show you off to all as one of My favorites, as one of My meek and lowly ones who counted it all lose compared to the glory that you wanted from Me more than anything. Your one desire became to please Me, honor Me, burn out your life in sacrifice for Me above all else. You, My darling bride forsook Egypt for My Kingdom to come, for a season, counting it all joy. You are worthy because I made you worthy. You knew it was Me and only Me and you were happy for it; happy to let Me use you and work and move through you to do the job I sent you for. I love you darling one, for all you've done and given up for Me. I know it has come at a cost. Become one with Me; lock eyes with Me; abandon all to have Me, not caring what anyone thinks. We will meld and never be able to be separated; I will live and breathe in you as you live and breathe in Me. xxx (End of prophecy)

